PLAN OF THE WORK

THIS compilation contains all important documents relating to the various companies in the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad System, from the beginning of the corporate existence of the oldest companies down to the present time, including special charters, articles of incorporation, consolidations, leases, deeds, mortgages, decrees of foreclosure and sales thereunder, accompanied by brief sketches of the Corporate History of each company together with such general railroad laws as seem pertinent to the history.

Chicago, November 1st, 1928.

INTRODUCTION

THE Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, with over nine thousand miles of road in eleven different states, is a corporation of the State of Illinois. It comprises and includes about two hundred different railroad companies of these states, with which it has been consolidated or whose roads it has acquired.

The first of these companies was called "Aurora Branch Railroad Company," organized at Aurora, Ill., by citizens of that place in February 1849. February 12, 1849, the Legislature of Illinois granted a Special Charter for the company and on September 2, 1850, the road was completed from Aurora northerly twelve miles to a connection with the Galena and Chicago Union Railroad (now the Chicago & Northwestern) at Turner Junction (now West Chicago). Under contract with the Galena Company, beginning December 1851, the company operated its trains into Chicago thirty miles over the Galena road, and until 1864, when it built its own line directly into the city from Aurora via Naperville.

In June 1852 the name of the company was changed to "Chicago and Aurora Railroad Company," and the company extended the road in a southwesterly direction forty-six miles, the line being completed to Mendota in October 1853.

In 1855, the name was changed to "The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company."

Citizens of Galesburg, Ill., in 1851, procured a charter for a road called "Central Military Tract Railroad Company," which, in December 1854, completed a line from Mendota to Galesburg, seventy-nine miles.

The Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company was chartered February 12, 1849, to build from Peoria via Galesburg to Burlington and was completed between Galesburg and Burlington in March 1855 and between Peoria and Galesburg in February 1857.

In July 1856 the Central Military Tract and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy were consolidated under the name "The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company," and in June 1864 the company was consolidated by purchase with the successor to the Peoria and Oquawka, but retained its name, the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company.

The road between Galesburg and Quincy (one hundred miles) was built by the Northern Cross Railroad Company and completed in January 1856. Mortgages upon its line were foreclosed and the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company became purchaser at the foreclosure sale in July 1865.

In 1861 The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company acquired the road of The Jacksonville and Savanna Railroad Company from Yates City to St. David and The Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company to Lewistown, Ill. It also acquired in 1856 an undivided one-fourth interest in the St. Charles Air Line which gave it access to the Illinois Central Station in Chicago, on the lake front, which it occupied from 1856 to 1881 when it began to use the Union Station on the west side, at Canal and Adams Streets.

Meantime, several branch line railroad companies were organized in Illinois and acquired by the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy; their names and length and date of acquisition were as follows:

Ottawa, Oswego and Fox River Valley Railroad Company from Streator to Geneva—64.83 miles—October 20, 1870.

The Illinois Grand Trunk from Mendota to Fulton—64.38 miles—October 7, 1870.

The Dixon and Quincy from Keithsburg to Arpee—5.6 miles, November 1, 1870.

Dixon, Peoria and Hannibal from Buda to Elmwood—44.6 miles, July 1, 1869.

The Carthage and Burlington—30.4 miles, May 1, 1869.

The Quincy and Warsaw Railroad Company—Quincy to Carthage—40.6 miles, December 1, 1870.

The Quincy, Alton and St. Louis—Quincy to East Hannibal—47.71 miles, February 1, 1876.

The Chicago and Iowa Railroad Company—Aurora to Oregon and Rockford—101.94 miles, July 1, 1875.

The Chicago and Rock River Railroad Company—
Shabbona to Rock Falls—46.95 miles, Oct. 9, 1872.

Illinois Valley and Northern Railroad Company—
Streator to Walnut—59.9 miles, January 2, 1888.

Joliet, Rockford & Northern Railroad Company—
Sheridan to Paw Paw—19.54 miles, May 1, 1882.

Galesburg & Rio Railroad Company—12 miles, Oct. 1, 1886.

Fulton County Narrow Gauge Railway Company—
59.3 miles, February 1, 1906.

St. Louis, Rock Island and Chicago Railroad Company
—281.3 miles, May 18, 1876.

The Jacksonville and Saint Louis Railway Company—
121.86 miles, July 2, 1904.

Also various small connecting lines in Illinois.

The “Northern and Southern Illinois Railroad Company” was organized in 1904 and the “Herrin & Southern Railroad Company” in 1909. They were extensions of The Jacksonville and Saint Louis Railway Company south from Centralia to Metropolis, 105.82 miles, where the road connects with the road of the Paducah & Illinois Railroad Company, which company was organized and built from Metropolis to Paducah, Kentucky, in the joint interest of the C. B. & Q. and the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis. The Paducah & Illinois is 13.93 miles long. The Bridge across the Ohio River, known as the “Metropolis Bridge,” was completed in December 1917. The Paducah & Illinois forms a connecting link between the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy and the Louisville and Nashville System.

In 1883, companies were organized which were afterwards united as the “Chicago, Burlington and Northern Railroad Company,” which built from Oregon, Illinois, and Fulton, Illinois, to St. Paul, Minnesota, the road being completed to St. Paul, August 23, 1886. Of date June 1, 1899, this road was conveyed to the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company by deed.

The length of the Burlington road in Illinois is 1686 miles; in Wisconsin 228 miles; and in Minnesota 22 miles. The Bridge across the Mississippi River at Burlington was built in 1868 and rebuilt in 1890. The Bridge at Quincy was built in 1868 and rebuilt in 1897.

The present Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company is a corporation of the State of Illinois, created by a consolidation between the Peoria & Burlington Rail Road Company and The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company under Articles of Consolidation dated June 24, 1864.

The Peoria & Burlington Rail Road Company was formed by the reorganization of the Peoria & Oquawka Railroad Company, which Company was incorporated under a Special Act of the Legislature of Illinois in force February 12, 1849, its name being changed in 1861 to The Logansport, Peoria and Burlington Railroad Company.

The original Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company was created by a consolidation between the Central Military Tract Railroad Company and The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company under articles of Consolidation dated July 9, 1856, and the latter Company was formed in 1855 by a change of name from the Chicago and Aurora Railroad Company, which Company was formed in 1852 by change of name from the Aurora Branch Railroad Company, which was created by a Special Act of the Legislature of the State of Illinois in force February 12, 1849.

Prior to the consolidation of June 24, 1864, the C. B. & Q. Company had acquired the property of The Jacksonville and Savanna Railroad Company by deed of date November 6, 1861, from James F. Joy and J. W. Brooks, who had acquired it by deed of date November 4, 1861, from The Jacksonville and Savanna Railroad Company, which was organized February 14, 1855, under Special Act of the Illinois Legislature.

It had also acquired a part of the railroad of The Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company from Joy and Brooks by deed dated November 6, 1861, who had acquired it from the Peoria & Hannibal Railroad Company by deed dated November 4, 1861, which Company was formed in 1854, by a change of name from the Macomb, Vermont and Bath Railroad Company, which was incorporated under Special Act of the Legislature of Illinois in force February 11, 1853.

The foregoing named Companies were all created under authority of Special Acts of the Legislature of the State of Illinois, which Special Acts and the proceedings taken in pursuance thereof constitute the Company's Charter.

Of date June 24, 1914, the Company extended its existence as a corporation under the general laws of the State of Illinois relating to Railroads by action taken pursuant to the provisions of an Act of the Illinois Legislature approved June 7, 1911.

The Company's Charter has been filed in the several States in which it has constructed or acquired lines of railroad.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved February 28, 1854.

GENERAL ACT.

[Accepted by C., B. & Q. R. R. Co., and forms a part of its charter.]

AN ACT to enable railroad and plank road companies to consolidate their stock.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That all railroad companies and plank road companies now organized, or hereafter to be organized, which now have or hereafter may have their termini fixed by law, whenever their said road or roads intersect by continuous lines, be and the same are hereby authorized and empowered to consolidate their property and stock with each other, and to consolidate with companies out of this state, whenever their lines connect with the lines of such companies out of this State.

§ 2. Such consolidation may take place whenever the said companies shall respectively agree upon the terms and conditions of the same; and the said companies when so consolidated shall be authorized to agree upon the name or names of such consolidated company, and by such name or names the said consolidated company shall be a body corporate and politic, shall have a common seal or seals, and by such name or names shall be respectively contracted with and make contracts, shall sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded with, and shall have all the powers, franchises and immunities which the said respective companies shall have, by virtue of their respective charters, before such consolidation passed within the State of Illinois: Provided, that each consolidated company shall file for record in the office of the Secretary of State, a copy of their said articles of consolidation, evidenced by the signature of the presiding officer of each of the said companies, and the corporate seal thereof.

Capital stock.

§ 3. The corporation or corporations formed by virtue of the provisions of this act shall have power to increase their capital stock to any amount required by resolution of their respective boards of directors, not exceeding the amount of the cost of the roads and works constructed and equipped by them, to borrow money and fix the rate of interest therefor, to issue bonds and the same to sell at such price as they may deem expedient, such sales being hereby authorized and confirmed, and to make any other contracts authorized by the by-laws of the said corporation or corporations, within the purview of their said charters.

Power to consolidate.

§ 4. Such corporation or corporations, when so formed, shall have the same power to consolidate with other companies when their lines connect, upon such terms as may be agreed upon by them respectively.

§ 5. No company in this State shall be authorized under the provisions of this act to consolidate with any company beyond the limits of the State, until the termini of such company in this State shall first have been fixed by the laws of this State at the boundary line thereof.

Plank road not to consolidate with railroads.

§ 6. This act shall not be so construed as to authorize any plank road not having power to build a railroad to consolidate with any railroad so as to lay a railroad upon any plank road track, until the termini of such railroad shall have been expressly fixed by law, nor shall any plank road so consolidate with any railroad unless authorized by law to lay a railroad track.

Proviso.

§ 7. All proceedings for the purpose of consolidation as above provided shall be fixed and regulated by the by-laws of the respective companies desiring such consolidation: Provided, that such consolidation shall not take place until the terms of such consolidation shall have been approved by a majority of the stockholders in interest, in person or by proxy, at an annual or called meeting, of which due notice shall be given, by publication or in writing, to all stockholders interested, or the same be approved by the written consent of a majority of stockholders in interest, filed in the office of their company.

Crossings, &c.

§ 8. When it shall be necessary for the construction of any railroad to cross the track of any other railroad, stream of water, water course, road or highway, which it may intersect or cross by reason of such extension into or through any adjoining State, or by reason of its consolidation with any other road or roads, company or companies, as provided in this act, it shall be lawful for said company to construct their road across or over the same by such track or tracks, bridge or bridges, viaduct or viaducts, as may be necessary to the convenience of the extension or consolidation of said road: Provided, said company shall restore the railroad, stream of water, water course, road or highway thus intersected or crossed to its former state, or in a sufficient manner not materially to interfere with its usefulness.

APPROVED February 28, 1854.

NOTE.—This act remained in force until 1874, when it was repealed by an act approved March 31, 1874, which took effect July 1, 1874.

ARTICLES OF CONSOLIDATION, July 9, 1856, between The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company and the Central Military Tract Railroad Company forming The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company.

Articles of Consolidation made and entered into and agreed upon between the Chicago Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company and the Central Military Tract Rail Road Company this ninth Day of July A.D. 1856.

Whereas the said companies have their termini fixed by their several acts of incorporation and constitute a continuous Line of Rail Road and are therefore under the Laws of the State of Illinois authorized to consolidate their stock and property with each other. And whereas by a resolution of the Board of Directors of both the said companies passed on the fourth & fifth days of June last the following basis was submitted to the stockholders in each of the said companies respectively as a plan and as the terms suitable and proper upon which to consolidate the stock and property of the said two companies with each other.—viz—

The name of the consolidated Company shall be the Chicago Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company.

Each Stockholder in the Central Military Tract Rail Road Company in exchange for every share of stock he may hold in that Company shall be entitled to one share of the stock in the consolidated company.

Each stockholder in the Chicago Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company shall be entitled to one share of the stock of the consolidated Company for every share he may hold in that company and in addition thereto shall be entitled to one share of the consolidated stock for every two shares held in that company upon payment therefor within one year of sixty dollars with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum and in case any stockholder shall be entitled to a fractional or half share he may receive a whole share on payment of eighty dollars therefor and interest as above or if he elect not to receive said share he shall be paid twenty dollars for said fractional share.

A majority of the stockholders in interest shall signify their assent to these terms of consolidation on or before the ninth Day of July this next now instant.

And whereas a very large majority in interest in the stock in each of the said companies have signified by proxies in writing and by their proxies at the meeting of the stockholders of each of the said companies held at Chicago this the 9th Day of July 1856 for that purpose their approval and assent to the said terms of consolidation in accordance with the Statute in such case made and provided—

Now therefore in consideration of the above premises it is mutually covenanted and agreed by and between the said parties as follows—viz:

First—That their entire corporate property and stock be and the same are hereby consolidated and that the said consolidation shall take effect from this date and from henceforth the said companies shall constitute but one corporation in the law.

Second—The name of the said consolidated company shall be the Chicago Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company, by which name it shall act and be described with all the powers and privileges conferred upon it by their original charter and the act of the general assembly authorizing consolidations in these cases.

Third—The stockholders in the Central Military Tract Rail Road Company shall be entitled to one share of stock in the consolidated company for every share held by him or her in that company in exchange therefor.

Fourth—Each Stockholder in the Chicago Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company shall be entitled to one share of stock in the consolidated company in exchange for each share held by him in that company and in addition thereto shall be entitled to one share in the consolidated company for every two shares so held upon payment therefor within one year of sixty dollars for every such share with ten per cent interest thereon. And in case any Stockholders under this arrangement shall be entitled to a fractional share, he shall receive a whole share upon payment of Eighty Dollars therefor or if he shall not elect to receive the same he shall be paid twenty Dollars for said fractional share.

Fifth—As a consequence of the said consolidation the consolidated company becomes liable for and assumes all the contracts, obligations and liabilities of each of the consolidating companies.

In witness whereof the said parties have hereto set their seals the Day and year first above written by their respective Presidents—

ARTICLES OF CONSOLIDATION, June 24, 1864, between the Peoria & Burlington Rail Road Company and The Chicago Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company, forming the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company.

MEMORANDUM OF AN AGREEMENT between the Peoria & Burlington Rail Road Company & the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, made this, the 24th day of June, A. D. 1864, for the consolidation of stock and property of the said two corporations into one corporation & the property of one corporation.

Whereas, It has become expedient and necessary for the proper management of the said two corporations that their property shall be consolidated into one corporation; & whereas, at present, the stock & property of the Peoria & Burlington Rail Road Company is held by John W. Brooks, John Van Nortwick, Nathaniel Thayer, Sidney Bartlett, James F. Joy & three or four other parties, all of them, however, stockholders in the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Rail Road Company, & is held subject to an obligation to create a mortgage & bonded debt upon the whole property of said corporation to such an amount, at least, as will pay and satisfy certain claims upon the said property in favor of Moss, Harding & Co., amounting to several hundred thousand dollars, & which mortgage shall not exceed one million five hundred thousand dollars in amount; & whereas, it has been understood & known that the said Peoria & Burlington Rail Road Company's road was to a very considerable extent constructed with money advanced by the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Rail Road Company, & in addition to the other outstanding claims above alluded to, should and does therefore stand in the hands of the corporators charged with the whole amount of such monies, in favor of the said Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Rail Road Company; & whereas, it cannot be as well or economically managed separately as in connection with the road of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Rail Road; & whereas, subject to the charges, equitable & otherwise, upon the property of the Peoria & Burlington Road, it is deemed best for the interests of both companies that they and their property shall be consolidated into one, and that the consolidated Company shall assume and pay the charges, equitable & legal, resting thereon, in consideration that the stock of the Peoria & Burlington Company shall be transferred to the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Rail Road Company, thus becoming the property of that company, & consolidated with its property & the road, & all the property of the Peoria & Burlington Company shall be consolidated with the property of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Rail Road Company.

Now Therefore, This agreement, made by the said companies with each other, witnesseth:

That it is agreed by them both that all the property of the said two corporations shall be & the same is and shall be henceforth, consolidated into one property, including the roads & the appurtenances & property of every nature & kind owned by them respectively heretofore, as well as the rolling stock & machinery of every description, & that the stock of the Peoria & Burlington Rail Road Company shall be transferred to the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Rail Road Company, & no new stock shall be issued in exchange therefor. But it is understood that the Consolidated Rail Road Company shall assume the obligations, legal & equitable, of the Peoria & Burlington Rail Road Company, shall execute a mortgage on the same, together with all its property, real & personal, to secure such bonds as may be issued thereunder, not to exceed in amount in the aggregate one million five hundred thousand dollars, & having thirty years to run to maturity, from September 20th, 1860, & bearing interest at not less than seven per cent., & shall run, operate & manage the same, reconstructing when necessary, and everywhere putting the same in order, & that henceforth, in consequence of this agreement, the said two corporations shall become one company, & the the said two properties one property & under one management, in accordance with the provisions and under the authority of the two several acts of the Legislature of the State of Illinois, the one being an act to authorize the consolidation of Rail Road & Plank Road Companies, approved February 28th, 1854, and the other the act under which the Peoria & Burlington Railroad Company is organized, passed and approved June 10th, 1863.

And it is further mutually agreed that the name of the said consolidated company shall be the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company.

In witness whereof the said companies have hereto caused their respective corporate seals to be affixed by the president of their respective companies

& the signatures of the said presidents respectively to be affixed thereto, this, the twenty-fourth day of June, A. D. 1864.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved June 7, 1911.

AN ACT to amend Section 5 of "An Act to provide for the incorporation of associations that may be organized for the purpose of constructing rail-ways, maintaining and operating the same; for prescribing and defining the duties and limiting the powers of such corporations when so organized; and authorizing the same and all railroad companies of this State to own and hold the stock and securities of railroad companies of other states owning connecting lines. As amended by Act approved June 2, 1891. In force July 1, 1891. By providing for the extension of the term thereof.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Section 5 of "An Act to provide for the incorporation of associations that may be organized for the purpose of constructing railways, maintaining and operating the same; for prescribing and defining the duties and limiting the powers of such corporations when so organized; and authorizing the same and all railroad companies of this State to own and hold the stock and securities of railroad companies of other states, owning connecting lines'' as amended by Act approved June 2, 1891, in force July 1, 1891, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 5. No such corporation shall be formed to continue more than fifty years in the first instance, but any railroad company formed under any law of the state may be renewed from time to time, for periods not longer than fifty years. Provided that three-fourths of the votes cast at any regular election for that purpose shall be in favor of such renewal, and those desiring a renewal shall agree to purchase the stock of those opposed thereto at its current value. Whenever any such election is held by any railroad company, a certificate, showing the proceedings of the meeting and verified by the President or a Vice-President of the corporation, and the Secretary thereof with the seal of the corporation, shall be filed with the Secretary of State within thirty days after the meeting, and upon the filing of such certificate the duration of such corporation shall thereby be extended, in accordance with the vote of the stockholders, for an additional period not longer than fifty years. "Provided, in case where such renewal is of any Railroad company previously incorporated under a Special Act of the Legislature, then such renewal and extension of such company shall be under and subject to all the provisions of the General Laws of this State relating to Railroads, and such company shall have such powers only as provided for in this Act.

ACCEPTANCE BY THE RAILROAD COMPANY.

STATE OF ILLINOIS, }
COUNTY OF COOK. } ss.

The undersigned, Darius Miller and T. S. Howland, do hereby certify that they are respectively the President and Secretary of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, a corporation of the State of Illinois, and that at a regular meeting of the stockholders of said Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company held at Chicago, Illinois, November 6th, 1912, which meeting was held for the purpose, among other matters, of acting upon the question of renewing the said corporation for a period of not longer than fifty years, as provided for by an Act entitled:

A BILL for an Act to amend Section 5 of "An Act to provide for the incorporation of associations that may be organized for the purpose of constructing railways, maintaining and operating the same; for prescribing and defining the duties and limiting the powers of such corporations when so organized; and authorizing the same and all railroad companies of this State to own and hold the stock and securities of railroad companies of other states owning connecting lines, as amended by Act approved June 2, 1891, in force July 1, 1891," by providing for the extension of the term thereof;"

approved June 7, 1911, the following resolution was unanimously adopted by a vote of 1,099,328 shares of stock, being more than three-fourths of the stock of said Railroad Company and of the votes cast at such stockholders meeting, called for that purpose:

CHICAGO, Wednesday, November 6, 1912.

Whereas, It is advised by Counsel that the corporate duration of this Company may expire June 24, 1914;

Resolved, That this Company be renewed for a period of fifty (50) years from said June 24, 1914, and those voting in favor of such renewal hereby agree to purchase at its current value the stock of any stockholders opposed thereto.

Resolved, That the President and Secretary make and file any certificates with the Secretary of State of Illinois, and do any other acts as may be required by law for the purpose of perfecting such renewal and extension of the duration of this Corporation.

Pursuant to the authority conferred by the aforesaid resolution of the stockholders, the said Darius Miller and T. S. Howland, President and Secretary respectively of said Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, do make and verify this certificate for the purpose of showing the proceedings of the said meeting and of filing the same with the Secretary of State of Illinois, in order to extend and renew said Corporation for the term of fifty years, as provided in said Act of the Legislature.

In witness whereof, each of them has hereunto set his name, and the seal of said Corporation has been affixed, this 2nd day of December, 1912.

DARIUS MILLER,
President.
Secretary.

AURORA BRANCH RAILROAD COMPANY

Aurora Branch Railroad Company was created by a Special Act of the Illinois Legislature in force February 12, 1849, and was authorized to build a railroad from Aurora northwardly to a connection with the Galena & Chicago Union railroad (now Chicago & North Western).

The Company was organized by citizens of Aurora and vicinity in February, 1849. Construction was commenced in December, 1849, and the line from Aurora to the connection at Turner Junction (now West Chicago) twelve and two hundredths (12.02) miles was completed in September, 1850, and was operated by the Company until November 26, 1853. Through train service between Aurora and Chicago over the Galena road was inaugurated via Turner Junction October 21, 1850, and continued until March 30, 1856, when the St. Charles Air Line was completed.

The name was changed to Chicago and Aurora Railroad Company by Special Act of the Illinois Legislature, in force June 22, 1852.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved February 12, 1849.

AN ACT granting a charter to the Aurora Branch Railroad Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That all such persons as shall become stockholders agreeably to the provisions of this act in the corporations hereby created, shall be, and for the term of seventy years from and after the passage of this act, shall continue to be a body corporate and politic, by the name of the "Aurora Branch Railroad Company," and by that name shall have succession for the term of years above specified; may sue and be sued, complain and defend, in any court of law or equity; may make and use a common seal and alter the same at pleasure; may make by-laws, rules and regulations for the management of property, the regulation of its affairs, and for the transfer of its stock, not inconsistent with the existing laws and constitution of this State and of the United States; and may, moreover, appoint such subordinate agents, officers, and servants as the business of the said corporation may require, and allow to them a suitable compensation; prescribe their duties, and require bond for the faithful performance thereof, in such penal sums, and with such sureties as they may choose, who shall hold their offices during the pleasure of a majority of the directors of said corporation.

§ 2. The said corporation shall have the right, and during its continuance, to maintain and continue a railroad with a single or double track, and with such appendages as may be deemed necessary for the convenient use of the same, from the town of Aurora, in the county of Kane, to some eligible and convenient point in the county of Du Page, there to connect with the Galena and Chicago Union Railroad.

§ 3. The capital stock of said corporation shall be one hundred thousand dollars, which shall be deemed personal property, and shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each. The capital stock of said corporation may at any time hereafter be increased to a sum not exceeding one million of dollars, if the same shall be judged necessary to the completion of the said work, and the same shall be subscribed for and taken under the direction of the directors of the said corporation, at such time and place as may be by them deemed expedient.

§ 4. That A. C. Gibson, Benj. Hackney, Chas. Hoyt, E. R. Allen, and Stephen F. Gale shall be commissioners for securing subscriptions to the capital stock of said corporation. Each subscriber at the time of subscribing shall pay to the commissioners one dollar on each share of the stock subscribed for by him; and the said commissioners shall, as soon as the directors are elected, deliver to them the whole amount so received.

§ 5. The affairs of said corporation shall be managed by a board of five directors, to be annually chosen by the stockholders from among themselves, as soon as may be after one-fourth of the stock is subscribed; at which time they may commence the work. The commissioners shall give notice of the time and place at which a meeting of the stockholders will be held for the choice of directors, and, at such time and place appointed for that purpose, the commissioners, or a majority of them, shall attend and act as inspectors of said election, and the stockholders present shall proceed to elect their directors by ballot, and the commissioners present shall certify the result of such election under their hands; which certificate shall be recorded in the books of the corporation, and shall be sufficient evidence of the election of the directors therein named. All further elections shall be held at the time and in the manner prescribed by the by-laws and regulations of the said incorporation. Each stockholder shall be allowed as many votes as he owns shares at the commencement of such election, and a plurality of votes shall determine the choice, but no stockholder shall be allowed to vote at any election after the first, for any stock which shall have been assigned to him within thirty days previous to holding such election. The said directors shall hold their office for one year after their election, and shall elect one of their number as president of the board.

§ 6. The said corporation is authorized to contract, make and use a single or double railroad or way, of suitable width and dimensions, to be determined by the said corporation, on the line, course or way which may be designated and selected by the directors as the line, course or way whereon to construct and make the same; and shall have power to regulate the time and manner in which goods, effects and passengers shall be transported, taken and carried on the same, and to prescribe the manner in which the said railroad shall be used, by what force the carriages to be used thereon may be propelled, and the rate of toll for transportation of persons or property thereon, as may be deemed suitable to their interests; and it shall be lawful also for the said corporation to unite with any other railroad company upon such terms as may be agreed upon by the directors of said companies, and also to construct such other and lateral routes as may be necessary to connect them with any other route or routes which may be deemed expedient.

§ 7. In case the corporation shall not be able to acquire the title to the lands through which said road shall be laid, by purchase or voluntary cession, it shall be lawful for the corporation to appropriate so much of said land as may be necessary for its own use, for the purpose contemplated by this act, on complying with laws made and provided to govern such matters on all public works.

§ 8. The board of directors shall hereafter consist of such number of directors as shall be determined upon from time to time by the stockholders of said company, at any meeting thereof, for the choice of directors: Provided, that such number shall not be less than five nor more than eleven. Such directors shall be stockholders in said company, and shall be elected annually by the stockholders, either in person or by proxy, and shall hold their offices for one year and until their successors shall be elected and qualified. But any vacancy occurring in said board between elections, may be filled by the board at any legal meeting of the directors, and the person so elected to fill the vacancy shall hold his office until the next annual meeting.

§ 9. The said corporation shall be allowed two years from the passage of this act for the commencement of the construction of said work; and in case the same shall not be completed within five years thereafter, the privileges therein granted shall be forfeited.

§ 10. The said corporation shall be bound to repair all public highways, bridges, water courses which may be injured in constructing said railroad or its appendages, and shall restore them, as far as practicable, to as good a condition as they were before they were injured.

§ 11. Any person who shall willfully injure said railroad or any of the appendages thereto, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall forfeit to the use of the corporation a sum equal to three times the amount of damages occasioned by such injury; to be recovered with costs of suit, in the name of such corporation, in an action of debt before any court having cognizance thereof, [or] before any justice of the peace in the county where such offense may have been committed.

§ 12. This act shall be deemed and taken as a public act, and shall be construed beneficially for all purposes herein specified or intended, and all copies thereof printed by or under the direction of the General Assembly of this State shall be received in all courts and places whatsoever in said State as sufficient evidence thereof, without further proof.

§ 13. For the purpose of facilitating the construction of said railroad, said company are hereby authorized to negotiate loans to the amount of the capital stock, and to pledge all its personal and real property for the security thereof: Provided, that the individuals of said corporation shall be liable, to the extent of their stock, for the payment of its debts.

§ 14. This bill to take effect from and after its passage.

GENERAL RAILROAD LAW, November 5, 1849.

AN ACT to provide for a general system of railroad incorporations.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the people of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That any number of persons, not less than twenty-five, being subscribers to the stock of any contemplated railroad, may be formed into a corporation for the purpose of constructing, owning and maintaining such railroad, by complying with the following requirements: When stock to the amount of at least one thousand dollars for every mile of said road, so intended to be built, shall be in good faith subscribed, and ten per cent. paid thereon as herein required, then the said subscribers may elect directors for the said company; thereupon they shall severally subscribe articles of association, in which shall be set forth the name of the corporation; the number of years the same is to continue, which shall not exceed fifty years; the amount of the capital stock of the company, which shall be the actual cost of constructing the road, together with the cost for the right of way, motive power, and every other appurtenance for the completion and running of said road, as nearly as can be estimated by competent engineers; the number of shares of which said stock shall consist; the number of directors, and their names, to manage the concerns of the company, who shall not be one-half in the number of the stockholders, and shall hold their offices until others are elected; the place from and to which the proposed road is to be constructed, and each county into or through which it is intended to pass, and its length, as near as may be, and the names of five commissioners to open books of subscription to the stock. Each subscriber to such articles of association shall subscribe thereto his name, place of residence, and the number of shares of stock taken by him in such company. The said articles of association may, on complying with the next section, be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, and thereupon the persons who have subscribed, and all persons who shall, from time to time, become stockholders in such company, shall be a body corporate, by the name specified in such articles.

§ 2. Such articles of association shall not be filed in the office of the Secretary of State until ten per cent. on the amount of the stock subscribed thereto shall have been actually and in good faith paid, in cash, to the directors named in such articles, nor until there is endorsed thereon, or annexed thereto, an affidavit, made by at least three of the directors named in such articles, that the amount of stock required by the first section has been subscribed, and that ten per cent. on the amount has actually been paid in.

§ 3. A copy of any articles of association filed in pursuance of this act, with a copy of the affidavit aforesaid endorsed thereon, or annexed thereto, and certified to be a copy by the Secretary of this State, or his deputy, shall, in all courts and places, be presumptive evidence of the incorporation of such company, and of the facts therein stated.

§ 4. When the certificate shall have been filed as aforesaid, the persons who shall have signed and acknowledged the same, and their successors, shall be a body politic and corporate, by the name stated in such certificate, and shall be capable of suing and being sued, and may have a common seal, and may make and alter the same at pleasure, and be capable in law of purchasing, holding, and conveying any real estate and personal property whatever, necessary for the construction of such road, and for the erection of all necessary buildings, yards, and appurtenances for the use of the same.

§ 5. The commissioners for opening books of subscription, named in the act of incorporation, shall, from time to time, after the company shall be incorporated, open books of subscription to the capital stock of the company, in such places and after giving such notice as a majority of them shall direct; which books of subscription shall be kept open until all the capital stock shall be subscribed, if the corporation shall so long exist, and in case a greater amount of stock shall be subscribed than the whole capital of said company, the commissioners shall distribute such capital stock as equally as possible among the subscribers; but no share thereof shall be divided in making such distribution, nor shall a greater number of shares be allotted to any subscriber than such subscriber shall have subscribed for.

§ 6. As soon as practicable, after such capital stock shall have been subscribed and distributed as aforesaid, the commissioners to receive subscriptions thereto shall appoint a time and place for the meeting of the stockholders to choose directors; such meeting to be held in one of the counties in or through which such railroad is proposed to be constructed, and notice thereof shall be given by said commissioners, by public notice to be published not less than twenty days previous thereto, in the State paper, and a newspaper published in each county through which the said road shall be intended to run, in which a newspaper shall be published. Thirteen directors shall be chosen at such meeting, by ballot, and by a majority of the votes of the stockholders being present in person or by proxy, and every such stockholder being so present at such election, or at any subsequent election of directors, shall be entitled to give one vote for every share of stock which he shall have owned for the thirty days next preceding such election; but no stockholder shall vote at any such election upon any stock, except such as he shall have owned for such thirty days. No person shall be a director unless he shall be a stockholder, owning stock absolutely and in his own right, and qualified to vote for directors at the election at which he shall be chosen; and at least seven of the directors shall, at the time of their election, be residents of the counties in or through which the route of such railroad shall run. The directors shall be directors for one year, and until others are elected in their places.

§ 7. The commissioners named in the last preceding section shall be inspectors of the first election of directors, shall openly count the votes and declare the result, and shall, within ten days thereafter, file a certificate thereof, subscribed by them or a majority of them, in the office of the Secretary of State, and in the office of the clerk of each county, or with the clerk of the county commissioners' court (as the case may be) of each county in or through which such railroad shall be proposed to be constructed, and shall also deliver to the treasurer of such company all moneys [received] by such commissioners on subscriptions to such capital stock, and all books and papers in their possession relative to such subscriptions. All subsequent elections shall be held at such time and place in one of these counties through which such railroad shall pass, as shall be directed by the by-laws of the company.

§ 8. A general meeting of the stockholders of any corporation formed under this act shall be holden annually, at the time and place appointed for the election of directors, and a meeting may be called at any time during the interval between such annual meetings, by the directors or by the stockholders owning not less than one-fourth of the stock, by giving thirty days public notice of the time and place of the meeting, in the State paper, and a newspaper published in each county through which the said road shall be run or be intended to run, in which a newspaper shall be published; and when any such meeting is called by the stockholders, the particular object of such call shall be stated, and if at any such meeting thus called, a majority in value of the stockholders are not represented in person or by proxy, such meeting shall be adjourned from day to day, not exceeding three days, without transacting any business, and if, within said three days, stockholders having a majority of the stock do not attend such meeting, then the said meeting shall be dissolved.

§ 9. At the regular annual meeting of the stockholders of any corporation, it shall be the duty of the president and directors in office for the preceding year to exhibit a clear and distinct statement of the affairs of the said company, and at any meeting of the stockholders a majority of those present in person or by proxy may require similar statements from the directors, whose duty it shall be to furnish them when thus required; and at all general meetings of the stockholders a majority in value of the stockholders in said company may fix the rate of interest which shall be paid by the company, for loans for the construction of said road and its appendages, may remove any president or any directors of said company and elect others in their stead; Provided, notice of such intended removal has been given, as required by the last preceding section.

§ 10. In case it shall happen at any time that an election of directors shall not be made on the day designated by the by-laws of the company, when it ought to have been made, the company for that reason shall not be dissolved, if within ninety days thereafter they shall hold an election for directors in such manner as shall be provided by the by-laws of the company.

There shall be a president of the company, who shall be chosen by and from the directors, and also such subordinate officers as the company by its by-laws, may designate, who may be elected or appointed, and required to give such security for the faithful performance of the duties of their office as the company, by its by-laws, may require.

§ 11. It shall be lawful for the directors to call in and demand from the stockholders, respectively, all sums of money by them subscribed, at such time and in such payments or instalments as the directors shall deem proper, under the penalty of forfeiting the shares of stock subscribed for, and all previous payments made thereon, if payments shall not be made by the stockholders within sixty days after personal demand, or notice requiring such payment shall have been made in each county through which said road shall be laid out in which a newspaper shall be published.

§ 12. The directors of such company shall have power to make by-laws for the management and disposition of stock, property, and business affairs of such company, not inconsistent with the laws of this State, and prescribing the duties of officers, artificers, and servants that may be employed, for the appointment of all officers for carrying on all the business within the object and purposes of such company.

§ 13. The stock of such company shall be deemed personal estate, and shall be transferable in the manner prescribed by the by-laws of the company, but no shares shall be transferable till all previous calls thereon shall have been fully paid in, or the said shares shall have been forfeited for the non-payment of calls thereon; and it shall not be lawful for such company to use any of their funds in the purchase of any stock in their own or in any other corporation.

§ 14. All the stockholders of any such company that shall be hereafter incorporated under this act shall be severally individually liable to the creditors of such company to an amount equal to the amount of stock held by them, respectively, for all debts and contracts made by such company, until the whole amount of capital stock fixed and limited by the company in manner aforesaid shall have been paid in, and a certificate thereof shall have been made and recorded, as prescribed in the following section; and shall be jointly and severally liable for all debts that may be due and owing to all their laborers, servants and apprentices, for services performed for such corporation, but not be liable to an action therefor before an execution shall be returned unsatisfied in whole or in part against the corporation, and then the amount due on said execution shall be the amount recoverable, with costs, against said stockholders.

§ 15. The president and a majority of the directors, within thirty days after the payment of the last instalment of the capital stock, so fixed and limited by the company, shall make a certificate, stating the amount of the capital stock so fixed and paid in; which certificate shall be signed by the president and a majority of the directors, and sworn to by the president and secretary, and they shall, within the said thirty days, file and record the same in the office of the Secretary of State.

§ 16. If the directors of any such company shall declare and pay any dividend when the company is insolvent, or any dividend, the payment of which would render it insolvent, they shall be jointly and severally liable for all the debts of the company then existing, and for all that shall thereafter be contracted so long as they shall respectively remain in office; Provided, that if any of the directors shall be absent at the time of making the dividend, or shall object thereto, and shall, within thirty days thereafter, or after his return, if absent, file a certificate of their absence or objection with the clerk of the company, and with the clerk of the county, or with the clerk of the county commissioner's court of the county in which the principal office of said company is located, they shall be exempt from the said liability.

§ 17. If any certificate or report made or public notice given by the officers of any such company, in pursuance of the provisions of this act, shall be false in any material representation, all the officers who shall have signed the same shall be jointly and severally liable for all the debts of the company contracted while they are stockholders or officers thereof.

§ 18. No person holding stock in any such company, as executor, administrator, guardian, or trustee, and no person holding such stock as collateral security, shall be personally subject to any liability as stockholders of such company; but the person pledging the stock shall be considered as holding the same, and shall be liable as a stockholder accordingly, and the estates and funds in the hands of such executor, administrator, guardian or trustee shall be liable in like manner, and to the same extent as the testator or intestate, or the ward or persons interested in such trust fund would have been if he had been living, and competent to act, and held the same stock in his own name.

§ 19. Every such administrator, executor, guardian, or trustee shall represent the share of stock in his hands at all meetings of the company, and may vote accordingly as a stockholder.

§ 20. Every such company, before proceeding to construct a part of their road into or through any county named in their certificate of association, shall make a map and profile of the route intended to be adopted by such company; which shall be certified by a majority of the directors and filed in the office of the county clerk of such county, or with the clerk of the county commissioners' court of such county, for the inspection and examination of all parties interested therein.

§ 21. Every such corporation shall possess the general powers, and be subject to the general liabilities and restrictions expressed in the special powers following, that is to say:

1. To cause such examination and surveys for the proposed railroad to be made as may be necessary to the selection of the most advantageous route for the railroad, and for such purpose, by their officers, agents, and servants, to enter upon lands or waters of any person, but subject to responsibility for all damages which they shall do thereto.

2. To receive, hold, and take such voluntary grants and donations of real estate and other property, as shall be made to it, to aid in the construction, maintenance, and accommodation of such railroad; but the real estate thus received by voluntary grants shall be held and used for the purposes of such grants only.

3. To purchase, and by voluntary grants and donations receive and take, and by its officers, engineers and surveyors and agents enter upon and take possession of and hold, and use all such lands and real estate and other property as may be necessary for the construction and maintenance of its railroad and stations, depots and other accommodations necessary to accomplish the object for which the corporation is created; but not until the compensation to be made therefor, as agreed upon by the parties, or ascertained as hereinafter prescribed, be paid to the owner or owners thereof, or deposited as hereinafter directed, unless the consent of such owner be given to enter into possession.

4. To lay out its road, not exceeding six rods wide, and to construct the same, and for the purposes of cuttings, embankments, and procuring stone and gravel, may take as much more land within the limits of its charter, in the manner provided hereinafter, as may be necessary for the proper construction and security of the road.

5. To construct their road upon or across any stream of water, water course, road, highway, railroad, or canal, which the route of its road shall intersect; but the corporation shall restore the stream or water course, road or highway, thus intersected, to its former state, or in a sufficient manner not to have impaired its usefulness.

6. To cross, intersect, join, and unite its railroad with any other railroad before constructed, at any point on its route, and upon the grounds of such other railroad company, with the necessary turnouts, sidings, and switches, and other conveniences, in furtherance of the objects of its connections; and every company whose railroad is or shall be hereafter intersected by any new railroad, shall unite with the owners of such new railroad in forming such intersections and connections, and grant the facilities aforesaid; and if the two corporations cannot agree upon the amount of compensation to be made therefor, or the points or manner of such crossings and connections, the same shall be ascertained and determined by commissioners to be appointed by the court, as is provided hereinafter in respect to the taking of lands.

7. To purchase lands or take them, may change the line of its road whenever a majority of the directors shall so determine, as is hereinafter provided, but no such change shall vary the original route of such road to exceed one mile laterally.

8. To take, transport, carry and convey persons and property on their railroad, by the force and power of steam, of animals, or any mechanical powers, or by any combinations of them, and receive tolls or compensation therefor. ✓

9. To erect and maintain all necessary and convenient buildings, stations, depots and fixtures, and machinery for the accommodation and use of their passengers, freight and business, and obtain and hold the lands necessary therefor. ✓

10. To regulate the time and manner in which passengers and property shall be transported, and the tolls and compensation to be paid therefor; but such compensation for any passenger and his ordinary baggage shall not exceed three cents a mile, unless by special act of the Legislature, and shall be subject to alteration as hereinafter provided.

11. To borrow money, to be applied to the construction of their railroad and fixtures, and purchase of engines and cars, at such rates of interest as is hereinafter provided.

§ 22. Any number of persons, not less than thirteen, intending to organize a corporation under the provisions of this act, and every company that may hereafter organize under this act, may present a petition to the Legislature, stating the place from and to which they propose to construct their road, and its location and route, with reasonable certainty, or that they intend to run the said road on the most direct and eligible route between the points of terminus, and praying the Legislature to determine whether the construction of the said proposed road will be of sufficient public use to justify the taking of private property for the construction of the same. And if the Legislature shall determine and decide by law that such proposed road will be of sufficient public utility to justify the taking of private property for constructing and maintaining said road, under the provisions of this act, then such company, when organized, may enter upon, take possession of and use all such lands, real estate, as may be required for the construction and maintenance of their railroad, and the convenient accommodations appertaining to the same; making compensation, in the manner hereinafter provided, for all lands, real estate, thus taken possession of and used, except such as may be voluntarily given to or purchased at an agreed price by the said corporation. Whenever the said corporation shall not have acquired by gift or purchase any land, real estate, so required as aforesaid, or which may be affected by any operation connected by such construction and maintenance, the said corporation may present to the circuit court of the district where said lands or real estate shall lie, a petition, signed by its attorney or agent, describing with convenient accuracy and certainty, by map or otherwise, the lands or real estate so required to be taken or affected as aforesaid setting forth the name and residence of each owner or other person interested therein as owner, lessee, incumbrancer as far as known to such attorney or agent or appearing of record and praying the appointment of commissioners to ascertain the compensation to be made to such owners and persons interested, for the taking or injuriously affecting such land or real estate as aforesaid. The court shall have satisfactory evidence that notice of an intended application, and the time and place thereof, for the appointment of commissioners of appraisement between said corporation and the owners and persons interested in such lands and real estate, had been given at least ten days previously, to such owners personally, or to some person of suitable age, at their residence, or on the premises, or by the publication thereof in a newspaper printed in the county in which such lands or real estate may lie. Such publication to be allowed only in respect to owners who shall appear by affidavit to have no residence in the county, known to such agent or attorney whereat such notice could be delivered as aforesaid. The court may adjourn the proceedings from time to time; shall direct any future notice thereof to be given that may seem proper; shall have proofs and allegations of all parties interested, touching the regularity of the proceedings; and shall, by an entry in its minutes, appoint five competent and disinterested persons commissioners to ascertain such compensation as aforesaid, specifying in such entry a time and place for the first meeting of such commissioners. The said commissioners, before entering upon the duties of their office, shall take the oath required by the laws and constitution of this State, and any one of them may administer oaths to witnesses produced before them; and may adjourn, and may hold meetings for that purpose. Whenever they shall meet to hear proofs and allegations, unless by appointment of the court or pursuant to adjournment, they shall cause reasonable previous notice of such meetings to be given to the said owners or parties interested, or their attorney, or agent, and may each of them issue subpoenas and compel witnesses to appear and testify; they shall hear the proofs and allegations of the parties, and any three or more of them, after reviewing the premises, without fear or favor or partiality, ascertain and certify the compensation proper to be made to the said owners and parties interested, for the lands or real estate to be taken, as well as all damages accruing to the owner of the lands and real estate aforesaid, taken in consequence of the condemnation of the same, or injuriously affected as aforesaid, making such deduction or allowance for real benefit or advantages which such owners or parties interested may derive from the construction of said road, and may in their discretion assess a separate reasonable sum in favor of such owners and parties interested, or of any person appointed by the court to appear as attorney for them, for costs, expenses, and reasonable counsel fees. They, or a majority of them, shall make, subscribe, and file with the clerk of the county, or with the clerk of the county commissioners' court, in which such lands or real estate shall lie, a certificate of their said ascertainment and assessment, in which such lands or real estate shall be described by map or otherwise, with convenient accuracy and certainty. The court, upon such certificate and due proof that such compensation and separate sums, if any be certified, have been paid to the parties entitled to the same, or have been deposited to the credit of such parties in the State treasury, or other place for that purpose approved by the court, shall make and cause to be entered in its minutes a rule describing such lands or real estate, in manner aforesaid, such ascertainment of compensation, with the mode of making it, and such payment or deposit of the same compensation as aforesaid; a certificate copy of which rule shall be recorded and indexed in the proper recorder's office, in like manner and with the like effect as if it were a deed of conveyance from the said owners and parties interested to the said corporation. Upon the entry of such rule the said corporation shall become seized in fee of all the lands and real estate described in said rule, as required to be taken as aforesaid, during the continuance of the corporation, by this or any subsequent act, and may take possession of and hold and use the same for the purposes of said road, and shall thereupon be discharged from all claim for any damages by reason of any matter specified in said petition, certificate, or rule of said court. If at any time after an attempted or actual ascertainment of compensation under this or any other act, or any purchase by, or donation to said corporation, of any lands for the purposes aforesaid, it shall appear that the title acquired thereby to all or any part of such lands for the use of said road, or if said corporation shall fail or be deemed defective, the said corporation may proceed anew to perfect such title, by procuring an ascertainment of the compensation proper to be made to any person or persons whose title, claim or interest in, or lien upon such lands, and by making payment thereof in the manner hereinafter provided, as near as may be, and at any stage of such new proceedings, or of any proceedings under this act, the court may, by a rule in that behalf made, authorize the said corporation, if already in possession, and if not in possession to take possession of and use such premises during the pendency and until the final conclusion of such proceedings, and may stay all actions and proceedings against such corporation on account thereof; Provided, such corporation shall pay a sufficient sum into court, or give approved security to pay the compensation in that behalf, when ascertained; and in every case where possession shall be so authorized, it shall be lawful for the owners to conduct the proceedings to a conclusion, if the same shall be delayed by the company. The said commissioners shall be entitled to receive from said corporation a compensation not exceeding two dollars for each day actually employed by them in the discharge of their duties. Such compensation to be taxed and allowed by the court. If any commissioner so appointed shall die, be unable, or fail to serve, the court may appoint another in his place, on reasonable notice of the application, to be approved by the court. The proceedings hereby authorized may be had in the circuit court in a county where the lands lie, and all motions to the circuit court shall be made at a general or special term thereof in said county. The said commissioners shall file the said certificate in the county where the lands to be affected may lie, or in any adjacent county, and any clerk may transfer the same and the proceedings connected therewith to the clerk of the county in which the lands to be affected may lie, or of any county adjacent thereto, whenever such commissioner or clerk shall be so required by said corporation, its agent or attorney. And the Legislature hereby reserves [the right] to itself to indicate the routes and termini of said roads, and the same shall not be constructed or commenced without the expressed sanction of the Legislature of this State, by a law to be passed hereafter.

§ 23. In case any infant, idiot, or insane person, or any unknown owner or owners, not personally notified to appear and who shall not appear after such notice, on the appointment of commissioners, shall be interested in any such lands, real estate, and property, the court shall appoint some proper person to appear before the said commissioners and act as attorney for and in behalf of such infant, idiot, insane person, unknown owner, or non-appearing owner, not personally served with notice.

§ 24. If at any time after the location of the track of said road, in whole or in part, and the filing of the map thereof, it shall appear to the directors of said company that the line in some parts thereof may be improved, it shall be lawful for the said directors, from time to time, to alter the line and cause a new map to be filed in the office, where the map showing the first location is or shall be filed, and may thereupon proceed to take possession of the lands embraced in such new location that may be required for the construction and maintenance of said road on such new line, and the convenient accommodations appertaining to the same, either by agreement with the owner or owners, or by such proceedings as near as may be, as are authorized under the preceding section of this act, and use the same in place of the line for which the new is substituted. Nothing in this act contained shall authorize the said company to make a location of their track within any city without the consent of the common council of said city.

§ 25. Whenever the track of said railroad shall cross a road or highway, such road or highway may be carried under or over the track as may be found most expedient; and in cases where an embankment or cutting shall make a change in the line of such road or highway desirable, with a view to a more easy ascent or descent, the said company may take such additional lands for the construction of such road or highway, or such new line, as may be deemed requisite by said directors. Unless the lands so taken shall be purchased or voluntarily given for the purposes aforesaid, compensation therefor shall be ascertained in the manner in this act provided, as nearly as may be, and duly made by said corporation to the owners and persons interested in such lands, the same when so taken or compensation made to become part of such intersecting road or highway, in such manner and by such tenure as the adjacent parts of the same highway may be held for highway purposes.

§ 26. If any such corporation shall for its purpose aforesaid require any land belonging to the people of this State, or to any of the counties or towns, the General Assembly of the State and the county and town officers respectively, having charge of such lands, may grant such lands to such corporations for a compensation, which shall be agreed upon between them; and if they shall not agree upon a sale and price, the same may be taken by the corporation as is before provided in respect to other cases.

§ 27. Every conductor, baggage-master, engineer, brakeman, or other servant of any such railroad corporation, employed in a passenger train, or at stations for passengers, shall wear upon his hat or cap a badge, which shall indicate his office, and the initial letters of the style of the corporation by which he is employed. No conductor or collector without such badge, shall demand or be entitled to receive from any passenger any fare, toll, or ticket, or exercise any of the powers of his office; and no other of said officers or servants, without such badge, shall have any authority to meddle or interfere with any passenger, his baggage, or property.

§ 28. Every such corporation shall make an annual report to the Secretary of this State of the operations of the year ending on the first day of January; which report shall be verified by the oaths of the treasurer and the acting superintendent of operations, and filed in his office by the twentieth day of January, in each year, and shall state—

1st. The capital stock and the amount actually paid in;

2d. The amount expended for the purchase of lands for the construction of the road, for buildings, and for engines and cars, respectively;

3d. The amount and nature of its indebtedness, and the amounts due the corporation;

4th. The amount received for the transportation of passengers, of property, of the mails, and from other sources;

5th. The amount of freight, specifying the quantity in tons, of the products of the forests, of animals, of vegetable food, other agricultural products, manufactures, merchandise, and other articles;

6th. The amount paid for repairs, engines, cars, buildings, and salaries;

7th. The number and amount of dividends, and when paid;

8th. The number of engine houses and shops, of engines and cars, and their character;

9th. The number of miles run by passenger, freight, and other trains, respectively;

10th. The number of men employed, and their occupation;

11th. The number of persons injured in life or limb, and the causes of such injury;

12th. Whether any accidents have arisen from carelessness or negligence of any person in the employment of the corporation, and whether such person is retained in the service of the corporation.

§ 29. Any such corporation which shall neglect to make such report, shall be liable to a penalty of two hundred and fifty dollars, to be sued for in the name of the people of this State.

§ 30. The property belonging to any company organized under the provisions of this act, shall be listed by the resident secretary or other proper officer, with the auditor of State, which shall be subject to the same rate of taxation as other similar property of individuals, and the revenue arising therefrom shall be paid into the State treasury, until the entire extinction of the internal improvement debt of the State, after which the said property shall be subjected to taxation, and the revenue arising therefrom paid as in the case of all other property in the State. The revenue derived under this section to be applied to the payment of the public debt of the State.

§ 31. The State shall have a lien upon all railroads of said corporations, and their appurtenances and stock therein, for all penalties, taxes, and dues which may accrue to the State from said corporations; which lien of the State shall take precedence of all demands, judgments, or decrees, against said corporations; and the citizens of this State shall have a lien upon all the personal property of said corporation to the amount of one hundred dollars, originally contracted within this State; which, after said lien of the State, shall take precedence of all other debts, demands, judgments or decrees, liens or mortgages, against said corporation.

§ 32. The Legislature may, when any such railroad shall be opened for use, from time to time, alter or reduce the rates of toll, fare, freight, or other profits upon such road: but the same shall not, without the consent of the corporation, be so reduced as to produce with said profits less than fifteen per cent. per annum on the capital actually paid in; nor, unless on an examination of the amounts received and expended to be made by the Secretary of State, he shall ascertain that the net income divided by the company from all sources for the year then last past shall have exceeded an annual income of fifteen per cent. upon the capital of the corporation actually paid in.

§ 33. Any such corporation shall, when applied to by the Postmaster General, convey the mail of the United States on their road or roads respectively, and in case such corporation shall not agree as to rates of transportation thereof, and as to time, rate of speed, manner and condition of carrying the same, it shall be lawful for the Governor of this State to appoint three commissioners, who, or a majority of them, after fifteen days' notice in writing of the time and place of meeting to the corporation, shall determine and fix the prices, times, and condition aforesaid, but such prices shall not be less for carrying said mails in the regular passenger trains than the amount which such corporation would receive as freight on a like weight of merchandise transported in their merchandise trains, and a fair compensation for the post-office car. And in case the Postmaster General shall require the mail to be carried at other hours, and at a higher speed than the passenger trains be run at, the corporation shall furnish an extra train for the mail, and be allowed an extra compensation for the expenses and wear and tear thereof, and for the services to be fixed aforesaid.

§ 34. If any passenger shall refuse to pay his fare or toll, it shall be lawful for the conductor of the train and the servants of the corporation to put him out of the cars at any usual stopping place the conductor shall select.

§ 35. Every such corporation shall start and run their cars for the transportation of passengers and property, at regular times to be fixed by public notice, and shall furnish sufficient accommodations for the transportation of all such passengers and property as shall, within a reasonable time previous thereto, offer or be offered for transportation at the place of starting, and the junctions of other railroads, and at sidings and stopping places established for receiving and discharging way passengers and freight, and shall take, transport, and discharge such passengers and property at, from, and to such places, on the due payment of tolls, freight, or fare, legally authorized therefor.

§ 36. In case of the refusal by such corporation, or their agents, so to take and transport any passengers or property, or to deliver the same or either of them at the regular or appointed time, such corporation shall pay to the party aggrieved all damages which shall be sustained thereby, with costs of suit.

§ 37. In forming a passenger train, baggage or freight or merchandise or lumber cars shall not be placed in rear of passenger cars, and if they or any of them shall be so placed and any accident happen to life or limb, the officer or agent who so directed or knowingly suffered such arrangement, and the conductor or engineer of the train, shall each and all be held guilty of intentionally causing the injury, and be punished accordingly.

§ 38. A bell of at least thirty pounds weight, or a steam whistle, shall be placed on each locomotive engine, and shall be rung or whistled, at the distance of at least eighty rods from the place where the said road shall cross any other road or street, and be kept ringing or whistling until it shall have crossed said road or street, under a penalty of fifty dollars for every neglect, to be paid by the corporation owning the railroad, one-half thereof to go to the informer, and the other half to the State, and also be liable for all damages which shall be sustained by any person by reason of such neglect.

§ 39. Every such corporation shall cause boards to be placed, well supported by posts or otherwise, and constantly maintained across each public road or street, where the same is crossed by the railroad. On the same level said boards shall be elevated, so as not to obstruct the travel, and to be easily seen by travellers; and on each side of said boards shall be painted in capital letters, of at least the size of nine inches each, the words "Railroad Crossing—look out for the cars while the bell rings, or the whistle sounds." But this section shall not apply to streets in cities, or villages, unless the corporation be required to put up such boards, by the officers having charge of such streets.

§ 40. If any person shall, while in charge of a locomotive engine running upon the railroad of any such corporation, or while acting as the conductor of any car or train of cars on any such railroad, be intoxicated, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 41. If any person shall wilfully do, or cause to be done, any act or acts whatever whereby any building, construction, or work of any such corporation, or any engines, machine or structures, or any matter or thing appertaining to the same, shall be stopped, obstructed, impaired, weakened, injured, or destroyed, the person or persons offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall forfeit and pay to the said corporation, treble the amount of damages sustained by means of such offence.

§ 42. All penalties imposed by this act may be sued for by the District Attorney, and in the name of the people of the State of Illinois; and if such penalty be for a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, then each suit may be brought before a justice of the peace.

§ 43. Every such corporation shall, within a reasonable time after their road shall be located, cause to be made:

1st. A map and profile thereof, and of the land taken or obtained for the use thereof, and file the same in the office of the Secretary of State; and also like maps of the parts thereof located in different counties, and file same in the office for recording deeds in the county in which said parts of said road shall lie, there to remain as of record forever.

2d. A certificate, specifying the line upon which it is proposed to construct the railroad and the grades and curves.

§ 44. If any such corporation shall not, within five years after its incorporation, begin the construction of its road and expend thereon ten per cent. on the amount of its capital, and finish the road and put it in full operation in ten years thereafter, its acts of incorporation shall become void.

§ 45. All existing railroad corporations within this State shall respectively have and possess all the powers and privileges, and be subject to all the duties and liabilities and provisions contained in this act, so far as they shall be applicable to their present conditions, and not inconsistent with their several charters, and all railroad companies that are now constructing their roads may acquire title to lands necessary for that purpose under the provisions of this act.

§ 46. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

✓ AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled "An act to provide for a general system of railroad incorporations."

✓ SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the people of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That whenever the citizens of any city or county in this State are desirous that said city or county should subscribe for stock in any railroad company already organized or incorporated, or hereafter to be organized or incorporated under any law of this State, such city or county may, and are hereby, authorized to purchase or subscribe for shares of the capital stock in any such company, in any sum not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars for each of such cities or counties; and the stock so subscribed for or purchased, shall be under the control of the county court of the county or common council of the city making such subscription or purchase, in all respects as stock owned by individuals.

✓ § 2. That for the payment of said stock, the judges of the county court of the county, or the common council of the city making such subscription or purchase, are hereby authorized to borrow money at a rate not exceeding ten per cent. per annum, and to pledge the faith of the county or city for the annual payment of the interest, and the ultimate redemption of the principal, or if the said judges or common council should deem it most advisable, they are hereby authorized to pay for such subscription or purchase in bonds of the city or county, making such subscription to be drawn for that purpose, in sums not less than fifty dollars, bearing interest not exceeding ten per centum per annum; Provided, that no bond shall be paid out at a rate less than par value.

§ 3. The railroad companies already organized or incorporated, or hereafter to be organized or incorporated under the laws of this State, are hereby authorized to receive the bonds of any county or city becoming subscribers to the capital stock of such company, at par, and in lieu of cash, and to issue their bonds bearing interest not exceeding ten per centum per annum for any monies by them borrowed for the construction of their railroad and fixtures, or for the purchase of engines and cars, and for such purpose may dispose of any bonds by them received as aforesaid.

§ 4. No subscription shall be made, or purchase or bond issued, by any county or city under the provisions of this act, whereby any debt shall be created by said judges of the county court of any county, or by the common council of any city, to pay any such subscription, unless a majority of the qualified voters of such county or city, (taking as a standard the number of votes thrown at the last general election previous to the vote had upon the question of subscription under this act for county officers,) shall vote for the same; and the judges of the county court of any county, or the common council of any city, desiring to take stock as aforesaid, shall give at least thirty days' notice, in the same manner as notices are given for election of state or county officers in said counties, requiring said electors of said counties or said cities to vote upon the day named in such notices, at their usual place of voting, for or against the subscription for said capital stock which they may propose to make, and said notices shall specify the company in which stock is proposed to be subscribed, the amount which it is proposed to take, and the time which the bonds proposed to be issued are to run, and the interest which said bonds are to bear; or in case it is proposed to borrow money to pay such subscription, then the notices shall state the terms upon which such loan is to be effected; and the opinion of the electors shall be expressed upon their ballots "for subscription," or "against subscription," and counted and returned by the judges and clerks of elections as in other cases; and if a majority of the voters of said county or city, assuming the standard aforesaid, shall be in favor of the same, such authorized subscription or purchase, or any part thereof, shall then be made by said judges or common council. In case any election had under this act is held upon a day of a general election, then the number of votes thrown at such general election for county officers shall be the standard of the number of qualified voters as aforesaid. No bonds shall be issued under the provisions of this act by any county or city, excepting for the amounts required to be paid at the time of subscription, and for the amounts of and at the time when assessments upon all the stockholders of said company shall be regularly assessed and made payable.

§ 5. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

CHICAGO AND AURORA RAILROAD COMPANY

This Company was created by the change of name of the Aurora Branch Railroad Company to Chicago and Aurora Railroad Company pursuant to a Special Act of the Illinois Legislature, in force June 22, 1852, which Act also authorized the Company to build an extension of its road from Aurora in a South Westerly direction to a connection with any railroad built northward from LaSalle.

The Company was organized in Chicago July 6, 1852. Construction on the extension was commenced at Aurora in 1852, and it was completed and placed in operation to Mendota (45.61 miles) October 20, 1853.

The original line from Aurora to Turner Junction was operated in the name of the Aurora Branch Company until November, 1853. The Chicago and Aurora Company operated the entire line from November, 1853 until February, 1855.

By an Amendment to the Charter of the Chicago and Aurora Railroad Company, pursuant to a Special Act of the Illinois Legislature, in force February 28, 1854, the Company was authorized to build a branch line from Aurora via Naperville to and into the City of Chicago. This branch line was completed May 20, 1864.

By a Special Act of the Illinois Legislature, in force February 14, 1855, the name of the Chicago and Aurora Railroad Company was changed to The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved January 26, 1853.

AN ACT to amend an act entitled "An Act to amend the charter of the Aurora Branch Railroad Company."

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the first section of the act entitled "An Act to amend the charter of the Aurora Branch Railroad Company," approved June 22, 1852, be and the same is hereby so amended as to authorize the

Chicago and Aurora Railroad Company to construct their road across Fox river, at a point not further south than within one-half of a mile of the mill-dam mentioned in the act to which this is an amendment; and said company shall furnish ample facilities for doing business upon the west side of the river, at Aurora, by constructing side-tracks, freight, car and passenger buildings of sufficient capacity to accommodate whatever amount of business may be offered.

This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

THE CHICAGO, BURLINGTON AND QUINCY RAILROAD COMPANY

This company was created by change of name of the Chicago and Aurora Railroad Company under provisions of a Special Act of the Legislature, in force February 14, 1855.

The company was organized February 21, 1855, at Chicago. No additional road was built by it prior to its consolidation with the Central Military Tract Railroad Company in July, 1856.

In May 1855 the Company acquired a one-fourth interest in the St. Charles Air Line jointly with the Illinois Central, the Chicago & North Western and the Michigan Central, which line was completed March 30, 1856.

By contract of date June 25, 1856, with the Illinois Central, this Company acquired a terminal at the foot of Randolph Street in Chicago on the Lake Front, using the St. Charles Air Line to reach the same.

The Company operated the lines of road built by its predecessors between Mendota and Chicago, and under a joint Lease with the Central Military Tract Railroad Company it operated the line of the Peoria and Oquawka railroad between Galesburg and East Burlington (42 miles) so that through trains were run between Chicago and East Burlington, beginning March 17, 1855.

By Articles of Agreement dated July 9, 1856, this Company consolidated with the Central Military Tract Railroad Company under the name of The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company.

CENTRAL MILITARY TRACT RAILROAD COMPANY

The charter for this road was granted by a Special Act of the Illinois Legislature in force, February 15, 1851, procured at the instance of Citizens of Galesburg.

Its route, as defined in the amendment to its charter in force June 19, 1852, was "from Galesburg in a Northeasterly direction towards Chicago to a point on or near the line of any other railroad connecting with or entering into Chicago." Three days later (June 22, 1852) the Chicago and Aurora Company was authorized to extend its road from Aurora in a Southwesterly direction, the intention being to connect the two roads at Mendota.

This Company was organized at Galesburg April 12, 1851, and construction began at Mendota early in 1852, the line being completed to Galesburg December 7, 1854, where it connected with the road of the Northern Cross Company, afterwards The Quincy and Chicago Railroad. The Company operated its own road until July 9, 1856 when it consolidated with The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company. In March 1855, this Company jointly with The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, leased the road of the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company between Galesburg and East Burlington and operated it until February 1, 1857 under said lease.

A Special Act of the Illinois Legislature in force February 28, 1854 authorized this Company, the Chicago and Aurora Railroad Company, and the Northern Cross Railroad Company and the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company to consolidate their stock so as to form one Company.

Of Date July 9, 1856, under the authority of said Special Act and of the General Consolidation Act approved February 28, 1854, this Company was consolidated with The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company under the Name of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved February 15, 1851.

AN ACT to incorporate the Central Military Tract Railroad Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That William McMurtry, C. S. Colton, Jas. Bunce, W. Selden Gale, H. H. May, G. C. Lamphere, William A. Wood, Alfred Brown, Alva Wheeler, Peter Grouse, Amos Ward, Patrick Dunn, Daniel Meeks, Silas Willard, A. C. Wiley, and their associates and successors, be and they are hereby created a body corporate, with perpetual succession, under the name and style of the "Central Military Tract Railroad Company," for the purpose of constructing, holding and using the railroad hereinafter mentioned.

§ 2. The said corporation are hereby authorized and empowered to construct, establish, hold and use a railroad commencing at Galesburg, in the county of Knox, and running from thence, in a northeasterly direction, on the most direct and eligible route to, and to connect with the Rock Island and La Salle Railroad, at such point in the county of Henry or Bureau as the said company hereby incorporated may designate.

§ 3. The said company is hereby created and incorporated for the purpose of organizing under an act entitled, "An Act to provide for a general system of railroad incorporations," in force November 5th, 1849, and in all things shall be governed by the provisions thereof, and shall be entitled to have and exercise the powers and privileges and be subject to the liabilities therein enumerated: Provided, that the foregoing corporation may attach themselves to and form a part of the Northern Cross Railroad Company, in such manner or on such terms as said companies shall agree.

§ 4. The said company is hereby authorized and empowered to borrow money for the construction of said road, and for the purchase of the rolling stock, fixtures, etc., and to pledge the road and the property of said company for the payment of the said moneys so borrowed.

§ 5. This act to take effect from and after its passage.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved June 19, 1852.

AN ACT to amend an act entitled, "An Act to incorporate the Central Military Tract Railroad Company."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That William McMurtry, George C. Lamphere, James Bunce, Silas Willard, Chauncey S. Colton, Alfred Brown, Edwin G. Ellet, Edward Hollister, Amos Ward, Sylvester Blish, Barney M. Jackson, Myrtle G. Brace and William Maxwell, and their associates, subscribers to the stock of the Central Military Tract Railroad Company, and all such persons as shall hereafter become stockholders in said company, shall be and are hereby declared a body politic and corporate, by the name and style of "Central Military Tract Railroad Company," with perpetual succession, and under that name and style shall be capable of suing and being sued, implead and being impleaded, defending and being defended against, in law and equity, in all courts and places whatsoever, in like manner and as fully as natural persons; may make and use a common seal, and alter or renew the same at pleasure; and by their said corporate name and style shall be capable in law of contracting and being contracted with; shall be and are hereby declared invested with all the powers, privileges, immunities and franchises, and of acquiring, by purchase or otherwise, and holding and conveying real and personal estate which may be needful to carry into effect fully the purposes and objects of this act.

§ 2. The said corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to survey, locate, construct, complete, alter, maintain and operate a railroad, with one or more tracks, from the town of Galesburg, in the county of Knox, in a northeasterly direction, on the most direct and eligible route towards the city of Chicago, to a point to be designated by the said company, on or near the line of the Chicago and Rock Island Railroad, or on or near the line of any other railroad or railroads connecting with or extending to the said city of Chicago, with a branch of the same to the town of Henderson, in the county of Knox.

§ 3. The said corporation shall have the right of way upon, and may appropriate to its sole use and control, for the purposes contemplated herein, but not exceeding two hundred feet in width, through its entire length; may enter upon and take possession of, and use all and singular any lands, streams and materials of every kind, for the location of depots, and stopping stages; for the purpose of constructing bridges, dams, embankments, excavations, station grounds, spoil banks, turn-outs, engine-houses, shops and other buildings necessary for the construction, completing, altering, maintaining, preserving and complete operation of said road. All such lands, waters, materials and privileges belonging to the State, are hereby granted to said corporation for said purposes, but when owned or belonging to any person, company or corporation, and cannot be obtained by voluntary grant or release, the same may be taken and paid for, if any damages are awarded, in the manner provided in "An Act to provide for a general system of railroad incorporations," approved November fifth, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, and the final decision or award shall vest in the corporation all the rights, franchises and immunities in said act contemplated and provided: Provided, that the appeal allowed by the provisions of the aforesaid act shall not affect the possession by said company of the land appraised; and when the appeal is made by others than the company, the same shall not be allowed, except on a stipulation of the party appealing that the said company may enter upon and use the lands described in the petition for the uses and purposes in said petition set forth, upon said company giving bond and security, to be approved by the clerk of said court, that they will pay all costs and damages that may be awarded against said company on the hearing of said appeal.

The said company shall have power and authority to receive, take and hold all such voluntary grants and donations of land and real estate, for the purposes of said railroad, as may have been or shall be made to said company, to aid in the construction, accommodation and maintenance of said railroad; and said company may contract and agree with the owners or occupiers of any land upon which said company may wish to construct said railroad, or which said company may wish to use or occupy for the purpose of procuring materials to be used in or about the construction, maintenance or enjoyment of said railroad, of which said company may wish to use or occupy for any purpose connected with said railroad.

§ 4. The capital stock of said company shall be one hundred thousand dollars, which may be increased from time to time, by a vote of a majority, in interest, of the stockholders, at their annual meeting, or at any special meeting which shall be called for the purpose by the directors of said company, to any sum not exceeding the amount required to be expended on account of said road; which stock shall be divided in shares of one hundred dollars each, which shall be deemed personal property, and may be issued, certified, transferred and registered in such manner and at such places as may be ordered and directed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall require payment of the capital stock subscribed, in such sums, at such times, and in such proportions, and on such conditions, as they shall see fit, under the penalty of the forfeiture of all previous payments thereon, and shall give notice to the stockholders of the payments thus required, and of the place when and where the same are to be paid, at least thirty days previous to the payment of the same. The said board of directors shall cause the books to be kept open until the full amount of the capital stock, as above provided, is subscribed; and when additional stock shall be voted by the stockholders, as above provided, the directors shall cause books to be opened for subscription to said stock, in such manner and at such time and places as they shall direct.

§ 5. All the corporate powers of said company shall be vested in and exercised by a board of directors, and such officers and agents as they shall appoint. The board of directors shall consist of thirteen stockholders, six of whom shall be resident within fifteen miles of the line of said railroad, as heretofore located, and the remainder of whom may or may not be residents of the State. The board of directors shall be chosen every year by the stockholders, each share having one vote, to be given in person or by proxy, and shall hold their offices until their successors shall be elected and qualified. Vacancies in the board may be filled by a vote of two-thirds of the directors remaining. Such appointees to hold their offices until the next election of directors. Other officers, agents and servants, whether members of the board or otherwise, may be appointed, employed, paid and dismissed, under such rules and regulations as the board of directors may, from time to time, adopt, until the first Wednesday of June, 1853. The board of directors shall consist of William McMurtry, George C. Lamphere, James Bunce, Silas Willard, Chauncey S. Colton, Edwin G. Ellet, Edward Hollister, Amos Ward, Sylvester Blish, Barney M. Jackson, Myrtle G. Brace, William Maxwell and Alfred Brown. Upon the first Wednesday of June, 1853, and annually thereafter, on each first Wednesday of June, shall be held the annual meeting of the stockholders, at which the directors shall be elected. All meetings of the directors shall be at such place as the board may appoint, and of the stockholders shall be held at the town of Galesburg, or at some place not more than five miles from the line of said railroad. All meetings of the stockholders, except the annual meeting, shall be called by the directors and notice of such meeting shall be published at least twenty days before the time appointed for such meeting, in some newspaper published in the vicinity of the railroad. If, at any meeting of the stockholders, a majority of the stock shall not be represented, either by the holders in person, or by proxy, no business shall be done, but the stockholders present may adjourn from day to day, until a majority of the stock is represented at the meeting. Whenever the entire amount of the capital stock, as hereinafter provided, shall have been subscribed, it shall be the duty of the directors then in office to call a meeting of the stockholders, for the purpose of electing new directors. Upon the election and qualification of such newly elected directors, the term of the old directors shall expire, and the newly elected directors shall hold until the regular election at the next annual meeting.

§ 6. The said company shall have power to make, ordain and establish all such by-laws, rules and regulations as may be deemed expedient and necessary to fulfill the purposes and carry into effect the provisions of this act, and for the well ordering, regulating and securing the affairs, business and interest of the company: Provided, that the same be not repugnant to the constitution and laws of the United States or of this State, or repugnant to this act. The board of directors shall have power to establish such rates of toll for the conveyance of persons or property upon the same, as they shall from time to time, by their by-laws, determine, and to levy and collect the same for the use of the said company. The transportation of persons and property, the width of track, and all other matters and things respecting the use of said road, shall be in conformity to such rules and regulations as the said board of directors shall, from time to time, determine.

§ 7. If any person shall carelessly, willfully, maliciously or wantonly delay, hinder or obstruct the passage of any carriage on said road or branches, or shall place or cause to be placed any material thereon, or in any way trespass upon, spoil, injure or destroy said road or branches, or any part thereof, or anything belonging or pertaining thereto, or employed or used in connection with its location, survey, construction or management, all persons committing or aiding and abetting in the commission of such trespass or offence, shall forfeit and pay to the said company treble such damages as shall be found before any court of competent jurisdiction; and further, such offender shall be liable to indictment in the county within whose jurisdiction the offence may be committed, and to pay a fine of not less than thirty nor more than one hundred dollars, to the use of the people of the State of Illinois, or may be imprisoned in the penitentiary for a term not exceeding five years, in the discretion of the court before whom the same shall be tried.

§ 8. Said company may construct their said road on or across any stream of water, or water course, road, highway, railroad or canal, which the route of its road shall intersect, but the corporation shall restore the stream, or water course, road or highway thus intersected, to its former state, or in a sufficient manner not to have impaired its usefulness. Whenever the route of the said railroad shall intersect any road or highway, the said company shall have power to change the line of such road or highway, if such change shall be desirable, and shall not impair the usefulness of such road or highway, and the said company may take such additional lands for the construction of such roads or highways as may be deemed requisite by said company. Unless the lands so taken shall be purchased or voluntarily given, compensation therefor shall be ascertained in the manner in this act provided, as nearly as may be, and duly made by said company to the owner or person interested in such lands; the same when so taken to become part of such intersecting road or highway, in such manner and by such time as the adjacent parts of the same highway may be held for highway purposes.

§ 9. And when the route of the said road shall intersect, cross or connect with or run along or upon the line of any other railroad, the said company shall join with such other company in making all necessary turn-outs, sidelings, and switch, and other conveniences necessary to further the objects of such connection; and when the route of any other company shall be occupied as aforesaid, just compensation shall be made to such other company for all expenditures made by them in the location of such road, and all connections with other roads as aforesaid shall be made, and facilities in the transshipment of freight and passengers, and interchange of cars afforded by each, over the respective roads, upon fair and equitable terms; and in case the said companies cannot agree upon the amount of compensation to be made therefor, or the points and manner of such crossing and connection, the transshipment of freight and passengers, the interchange of cars, the same shall be ascertained and determined by three commissioners, one to be chosen by each of said companies, and the two so chosen to choose a third, and in case they cannot agree upon the choice of the third person, he shall be appointed by the judge of the district court of the United States for the district of Illinois, and the decision of the three so chosen to be final.

§ 10. Said company is hereby authorized, from time to time, to borrow such sum of money as may [be] necessary for completing and finishing, or operating their said railroad, and to issue and dispose of their bonds for any amount so borrowed, and to mortgage their corporate property and franchises, or convey the same by deed of trust, to secure the payment of any debt contracted by said company for the purposes aforesaid; and the directors of said company may make the bonds issued as aforesaid convertible into stock, at the option of the holder thereof, at any time not exceeding ten years from the date of such bond.

§ 11. The said company shall prosecute the construction of the said road, with all practicable speed, commencing the construction at or near the northern terminus thereof, and shall complete the same to the town of Galesburg and Henderson, within eighteen months after the said road shall be constructed within fifteen miles of the town of Galesburg.

§ 12. This act shall be deemed a public act, and shall be in force from and after its passage.

THE CHICAGO, BURLINGTON AND QUINCY RAIL ROAD COMPANY

This Company was formed July 9, 1856 by the consolidation between the Central Military Tract Railroad Company and The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company.

It was organized at Chicago July 9, 1856 and its articles of consolidation were filed with the Secretary of the State of Illinois July 14, 1856. Its line then extended from Galesburg to Chicago.

Of date April 10, 1857, the Company made an operating agreement with The Quincy and Chicago Railroad Company to form a through line between Quincy and Chicago, and in April 1864 it purchased at foreclosure sale the road built by that Company, the deed being dated July 30, 1865, in name of The Quincy and Chicago Railroad Company.

In November 1861, the Company acquired by deed the Railroad of the Jacksonville and Savanna Railroad Company between Yates City and a point four miles South of Canton, and of The Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company between Lewistown and said point four miles South of Canton. These lines were completed in 1862.

In October 1862, the Company commenced the construction of the line from Aurora into Chicago via Naperville, the authority for which had been granted to the Chicago and Aurora Railroad Company by the Illinois Legislature in the charter amendment approved February 28, 1854. This line was completed and opened for traffic to and into Chicago May 20, 1864. Its trackage agreement with the Galena & Chicago Union between Turner Junction and Chicago continued until May 1864.

In addition to its own mileage this Company operated that part of the road of the Peoria and Oquawka Company between Galesburg and East Burlington until February 1, 1857, and from that date to October 1, 1860 it operated the entire line of the Peoria and Oquawka between Peoria and East Burlington jointly with Moss, Harding & Company, Contractors. After October 1, 1860 and until June 24, 1864 this Company operated exclusively the entire road between Peoria and Burlington.

Of date June 24, 1864, this Company was consolidated with the Peoria & Burlington Rail Road Company (formerly Peoria and Oquawka) and the name of the new Company (present Company) was Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company.

PEORIA & BURLINGTON RAIL ROAD COMPANY

(Successor to Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company)

The company which originally built this road from Peoria to Burlington was the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company, created by special act of the Illinois Legislature in force February 12, 1849 and authorized to build from Peoria to Oquawka.

By an amendment in force February 10, 1851 a branch was authorized "to commence at or West of Monmouth; thence to the Mississippi River, at or about Shokokon in Henderson County."

By an amendment in force June 22, 1852 it was authorized to build "on the most direct route from Peoria to Knoxville," and the terminus of the branch line was changed from Shokokon to "a point opposite to or above or below the City of Burlington Iowa."

The company was also authorized to build from Peoria Eastward to a point on the Indiana State line.

It was organized at Knoxville, Illinois June 20, 1851 and its road, when completed, extended from East Burlington Eastwardly by way of Galesburg, Knoxville, Peoria and Gilman to Effner on the Indiana State line, 205 miles, but only the 93.66 miles between Peoria and Burlington were acquired by the C., B. & Q. Co. The line East of Peoria was purchased by the Pennsylvania Company.

Construction began at several points on the line in 1851, as follows:

Prior to 1851 the Peoria and Warsaw Railroad Company had acquired a right of way and built a grade between Peoria and Farmington, the title to which had been subsequently acquired by the State of Illinois. Of date July 15, 1851, the state deeded this property to the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company, pursuant to an Act of the Illinois Legislature of date February 10, 1851. During the period 1851 to 1855 this company completed the section of road between Peoria and Edwards (14 miles), utilizing for a distance of about five miles westerly from Peoria, the old grade of the Peoria and Warsaw Railroad Company, acquired as above.

October 4, 1851, a contract was made for the construction of the road from Knoxville to East Burlington. Construction was started shortly thereafter at East Burlington and proceeded eastward, but little progress had been made when on September 22, 1854, a new contract was executed with the old contractors which provided for the completion of the road to Galesburg. Under the terms of this latter contract the road was completed and opened for traffic between East Burlington and Galesburg, 42 miles, March 17, 1855.

Of date July 1, 1853, the Company made a contract with the Central Military Tract Railroad Company in which it agreed to locate its road "within the Southern limits of the village of Galesburg."

One object of this contract was declared to be "to provide for the Central Military Tract Company a connection with Burlington as convenient as if its road extended to that point."

Of date October 3, 1854, this Company made a contract with the Central Military Tract Company and the Chicago and Aurora Company jointly for leasing its road between Galesburg and the Mississippi River for three years after its completion, which it agreed should be on or before January 1, 1855.

Of date April 3, 1855, the company contracted for the construction of the section of road between Edwards and Knoxville, and at the same time gave to the contractors a lease on the entire line from Peoria to Burlington, which lease, however, was, as to that portion of the road from Galesburg to Burlington, subject to a lease to the Chicago and Aurora, and Central Military Tract Companies (C., B. & Q. R. R. Co.) to secure their claims for advances; and in December, 1856, a contract was made by the company with the successors of the same contractors (Moss, Harding & Co.) for the completion of the road from Knoxville to Galesburg. The section of road between Edwards and Galesburg was completed February 1, 1857, and the road opened for through traffic from Peoria to East Burlington on that date.

This company did not operate any portion of its line west of Peoria. The road from Galesburg to East Burlington was operated jointly from date of completion, March 17, 1855, until July 9, 1856, by The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company (successor to the Chicago and Aurora Railroad Company) and the Central Military Tract Railroad Company, as mortgagees in possession; and from July 9, 1856, until February 1, 1857, by The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company, as mortgagee in possession. From February 1, 1857 (date of completion of the road between Peoria and Galesburg), until October 1, 1860, it was operated jointly by The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company and Moss, Harding & Co., contractors; from October 1, 1860, until June 24, 1864, it was operated by The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company. The road from Peoria to East Burlington was sold at foreclosure sale and on October 21, 1862, was conveyed by deed to Trustees representing the bondholders. The Trustees on March 8, 1864, conveyed the property to the "Peoria and Burlington Rail Road Company," but the operation of the road was continued throughout this period under the management of The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company.

Of date September 10, 1853, the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company executed a trust deed to James T. Soultter and David Hoadley, Trustees, covering all of its railroad west of the Illinois River. Because of default in the payment of interest and by decree entered July 11, 1862, in the Circuit Court for the Northern District of Illinois, the railroad and property covered by said mortgage was ordered to be sold. Of date October 21, 1862, J. T. Moulton, Master in Chancery, conveyed to Sidney Bartlett, Nathaniel Thayer and John W. Brooks, all of that portion of the railroad built by the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company which was west of the Illinois River, being that portion from Peoria via Galesburg to East Burlington, Illinois. The purchasers remained in possession of the railroad but it was operated by The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company until March 8, 1864, on which date they organized the Peoria & Burlington Rail Road Company.

That portion of the road lying east of Peoria was separately mortgaged, and was not included in the above sale. Mortgage covering this section was foreclosed, and subsequently, in March, 1864, acquired by the Toledo, Peoria and Warsaw Railroad Company.

The name of the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company was changed February 21, 1861, to The Logansport, Peoria and Burlington Railroad Company.

The Peoria & Burlington Rail Road Company was incorporated by Special Act of the Illinois Legislature in force June 10, 1863, it's articles being filed with the Secretary of State April 12, 1864.

It was organized at Chicago March 8, 1864.

Of date June 24, 1864, this company and The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company consolidated under the name, Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved February 12, 1849.

AN ACT to incorporate the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That all such persons as shall become stockholders, agreeably to the provisions of this act, in the corporation hereby created, shall be, and are hereby, constituted and declared a body corporate and politic, by the name of the "Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company," and by that name shall have succession for the term of fifty years from and after the passage of this act, and may by said name sue and be sued, complain and defend, in any court of law or equity; may have and use a common seal, and alter or renew the same at pleasure; may make by-laws, rules and regulations for the management of its property, the regulation of its affairs, and for the transfer of its stock, not inconsistent with the laws and constitution of this State or of the United States; and may, moreover, appoint such subordinate agents, officers, and servants, as the business of the said corporation may require, and allow them a suitable compensation, prescribe their duties, and require bond for the faithful performance thereof, in such penal sums and with such securities as they may choose, who shall hold their offices during the pleasure of a majority of the directors of the said corporation.

§ 2. The said corporation shall have the right to survey, locate, and construct, and during its continuance, to maintain and continue a railroad with single or double track, and with such appendages as may be deemed necessary for the convenient use of the same, from the town of Peoria, on the Illinois river, in the county of Peoria, to the town of Oquawka, on the Mississippi river, in the county of Henderson; and to locate and construct the same on such line, course, or way, as may be designated and selected by the directors of said corporation, whereon to construct and make the same; and may also prescribe the manner in which said railroad shall be used, by what force the carriages to be used thereon may be propelled, to regulate the time and manner in which goods, effects, and passengers may be transported and carried on the same, and the rates of toll on the transportation of persons or property thereon; and it shall also be lawful for the said corporation to unite with any other railroad company already incorporated, or which may be incorporated, upon such terms and at such points and parts of the said railroads as may be agreed upon by the directors of said companies; and also to construct such other and lateral routes as may be necessary to connect them with any other route or routes which may be deemed expedient, under the same privileges and restrictions as are herein contained.

§ 3. The capital stock of said corporation shall be five hundred thousand dollars, which shall be deemed personal property, and shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each. The said capital stock may at any time hereafter be increased to a sum not exceeding one million dollars, if the same shall be judged necessary, to be subscribed for and taken under the direction of the directors of said corporation, whenever they shall cause one or more books to be opened for that purpose, and in such manner as may be prescribed by the by-laws of the said corporation.

§ 5. The affairs of said corporation shall be managed by a board of nine directors, to be chosen annually by the stockholders, from among themselves; the first election for directors shall be holden as soon as may be after the stock has been subscribed. The commissioners shall give notice of the time and place at which a meeting of the stockholders will be held for the choice of directors, and at the time and place appointed for that purpose the commissioners, or a majority of them, shall attend and act as inspectors of said election. The stockholders, who shall be present either in person or by proxy, shall proceed by ballot to elect their directors, and the commissioners present shall certify the result of such election under their hands; which certificate shall be recorded in the books of the corporation, and shall be sufficient evidence of the election of the directors therein named. All future elections shall be held at the time, and in the manner prescribed by the by-laws and regulations of said corporation. Each stockholder shall be entitled to vote, in person or by proxy duly authorized, one vote for every share he may own at the commencement of each election, and a plurality of votes shall determine the choice, but no stockholder shall be allowed to vote at any election, after the first, for any stock which shall have been assigned to him within thirty days previous to the day of holding such election.

§ 6. It shall be lawful for the directors to require payment of the subscriptions to the capital stock at such times and in such proportions, and on such conditions, as they shall deem proper, under the penalty of the forfeiture of the stock and all previous payments thereon, and they shall give notice of the payments thus required, and of the place where and the time when the same are required to be paid, at least thirty days previous to the time of requiring said payments, by publication in at least three public newspapers printed in the State.

§ 7. The said corporation is hereby empowered to purchase, receive and hold such real estate as may be necessary and convenient in accomplishing the objects for which this incorporation is granted, and may, by their agents, engineers, and surveyors, enter upon and take possession of and use all such lands and real estate as may be necessary and indispensable for the construction and maintenance of said railroad, and the appendages and accommodations requisite and appertaining thereto; and may also receive, take, and hold all such voluntary grants and donations of land and real estate as shall be made to the said corporation for the purposes aforesaid. But whenever any lands, real estate, or materials shall be taken and appropriated by said corporation for the location or construction of said railroad or its appendages, or any work appertaining thereto, and the same shall not be given or granted to said corporation, or the proprietor or proprietors do not agree with said corporation as to the amount of damage or compensation which ought to be allowed and paid therefor, or shall not mutually agree on some person or persons to appraise the same, the damages shall be estimated and assessed in the manner following: The said corporation or the owner or owners of said lands may, on giving notice of their intended application and the time and place of making the same, apply by petition to the judge of the circuit court of the county in which said lands may lie, or in the absence of the said judge from the said county, then to the senior county commissioner of said county, or to the county judge of said county, particularly describing in said petition the lands to be appraised, and upon proof that reasonable notice has been given as directed, the said judge, or in case of his absence as aforesaid, the said senior county commissioner, shall, on hearing the said petition, appoint three disinterested persons, freeholders and residents of the county in which said lands may be situate, as commissioners, for the purpose of assessing such damages and the order in which they are appointed, shall specify the lands proposed to be appropriated and occupied by said corporation for the purposes aforesaid. The said appraisers, after being duly sworn before some officer legally authorized to administer oaths, honestly and impartially to assess such damages, shall proceed by viewing said lands and by such other evidence as the parties may produce before them to ascertain and assess the damages which each owner will sustain by the appropriation of his land for the purposes aforesaid, over and above the benefit and advantage which said commissioners shall judge will accrue to such owner or owners by the construction of the said railroad. The said appraisers shall make a report in writing to the said judge of the circuit court, reciting the order of their appointment and specifying the several parcels of land described therein, the names of the owner or owners of the respective parcels, if known, and if not known, stating that fact, and specifying also the damages which the owner of the respective parcels will sustain by reason of the appropriation of the same for the purposes aforesaid; which said report shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which said land may lie. In case either of the parties is dissatisfied with said assessment, the said judge may, at the next term of the circuit court in said county, on hearing the parties in interest, or if both shall not appear, on proof of notice being given to the opposite party, modify the said assessment as to him shall appear just. At the said term of the circuit court holden next after the filing of the said report as aforesaid, a record shall be made of the said report, with the order of the said court thereon, accepting or modifying the same. On the payment of the damages, if any, thus assessed, and the expenses of assessment, the said corporation shall immediately become seized and possessed of the said land and property, and entitled to the use of the same for the purposes aforesaid.

§ 8. When the lands or other property or estate of any married woman, infant, or person non compos mentis, shall be necessary for the construction of the said railroad or its appendages, the husband of such married woman, or the guardian of such infant or person non compos mentis, may release all damages in relation to the land, property, or estate to be taken and appropriated as aforesaid as fully as they might do if the same were holden in their own rights respectively; or the husband or guardian of any such person whose property shall be taken as aforesaid, may appear and act for and in their behalf, in obtaining an assessment of the damages to the same under this act; and in case any such infant or person non compos mentis, whose property may be taken as aforesaid, shall be without guardian, the judge of the circuit court, or the commissioners, shall have power to appoint a guardian ad litem, to act in behalf of such person.

§ 9. Whenever it shall be necessary, under this act of corporation, for the construction of a single or double track railroad, as herein authorized, to intersect or cross any stream of water, or any public road or highway, it shall be lawful for the said corporation to construct across or upon the same: Provided, the said corporation shall restore such stream or water course, or public road or highway, thus intersected, to its former state, or in a sufficient manner not to materially impair its usefulness.

§ 10. If any person shall wilfully or negligently do, or cause to be done, any act or acts whatever, whereby the said road or any building, construction or work of said corporation, or any engine, machine or structure, or any matter or thing appertaining to the same, shall be stopped, obstructed, weakened, or impaired injured or destroyed, the person or persons so offending shall forfeit and pay to said corporation treble the amount of damages sustained by reason of such offense; to be recovered, with costs of suit, in the name of said corporation, by action of debt; and such offender or offenders shall also be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be subject to indictment and punishment as in other cases.

§ 11. For the purpose of facility [in] the construction of the railroad authorized by this act, the said corporation is and shall be permitted to negotiate a loan or loans of money to the amount of its capital stock, and pledge all of its property, real and personal, and all of its rights, credits and franchises for the payment thereof.

§ 12. It shall be the duty of the corporation hereby created, when the railroad contemplated by this act shall have been completed, to keep and maintain the same in good condition and repair; and whenever from any cause whatever the same shall become injured or out of repair, the said corporation shall immediately proceed to repair the same, under the penalty of a forfeiture of the amount of all damages caused by such want of repair in said road.

§ 13. This act shall be deemed and considered a public act, and shall be favorably and justly construed for all purposes therein expressed and declared, in all courts and places whatsoever.

§ 14. The railroad contemplated herein to be completed within ten years from the passage of this act.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved February 10, 1851.

AN ACT to amend an act entitled "An Act to incorporate the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company," approved Feb. 12, 1849.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the company incorporated under the said act to which this is an amendment, shall be required to construct said road through the towns of Farmington, Fulton county, Knoxville, in Knox county, and Monmouth, in Warren county, and they shall establish depots in each of said towns and places: Provided, however, that nothing in this act shall be construed as to prevent said company from having stations at other points or places for the reception or discharge of goods, produce, stock, or other commodities.

§ 2. Said company are hereby authorized to acquire and hold so much of the grade and right of way of the Peoria and Warsaw Railroad as they may deem necessary, and may employ and use the same in the construction of their said road, and if said grade and right of way should belong to the State of Illinois the said company may purchase the same from the Governor of this State upon such terms as they shall agree upon; and such contract, if made, shall be binding upon both parties.

§ 3. The said company is authorized to organize and proceed in the construction of said road under the restrictions, conditions and limitations contained in said act to which this is an amendment, whenever the sum of one hundred thousand dollars is bona fide subscribed, and five per cent. thereof actually paid in.

§ 4. The said company is hereby authorized to build a branch of said road, in the same manner as the main track is to be erected hereby, to commence at or west of Monmouth; from thence to the Mississippi river at or about Shokokon, in Henderson county.

§ 5. The commissioners named in the act to which this is an amendment, together with Asa D. Reed, of Fulton county, Wm. J. Phelps, Rudolph Rouse, Peter Sweat and Joshua P. Hotchkiss, of Peoria county, who are hereby made commissioners, shall exercise the same powers and duties under this act as are enjoined upon them in said former act.

§ 6. The said road contemplated herein to be completed within ten years from the passage of this act.

§ 7. This act to take effect from and after its passage.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved June 21, 1852.

AN ACT for the relief of the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company.

Whereas, the Legislature, by an act approved February tenth, eighteen hundred and fifty-one, authorized the Governor of the State of Illinois to dispose of so much of the grade and right of way as the State of Illinois owned in or to the Peoria and Warsaw Railroad to the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company; and, whereas, said Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company find it impracticable to locate said road on said track with the exception of a small distance in and nigh said city; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois represented in the General Assembly, That the said Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company be and they are hereby released from the payment of any obligation that they or their agent may have entered into with the Governor of this State, for the grade or right of way of the Peoria and Warsaw Railroad.

§ 2. This act to be in force from and after its passage.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved June 22, 1852.

AN ACT to amend an act entitled "An Act to amend an act entitled 'An Act to incorporate the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company,' approved February 10, 1851."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the capital stock of the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company is hereby increased to the sum of thirty-five hundred thousand dollars, and the stockholders of said company, and their successors, shall have perpetual succession, by the name and style aforesaid, and shall have and enjoy all the rights and privileges heretofore or herein granted to said company by said General Assembly.

§ 2. The acts of the commissioners for receiving subscription to the capital stock of said company and the subscribers to said stock, in organizing said company, and in the election of directors, on the twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, are hereby declared to be legal and valid in law, any omissions or imperfections in relation to said organization to the contrary notwithstanding.

§ 3. The directors of said company are hereby empowered and authorized to locate said railroad on the most direct, eligible and feasible route, from Peoria to Knoxville, without reference to Farmington: Provided, that said company shall build a branch of said railroad to Farmington, and shall establish a depot there.

§ 4. The said directors are also empowered and authorized to locate the branch of said railroad provided for in the fourth section of the act to which this is an amendment, according to the survey already made thereof, and to fix the termination of said branch on the Mississippi river at a point opposite to or above or below the city of Burlington, in the State of Iowa, which termination shall be within two miles of said point opposite the said city of Burlington, Iowa.

§ 5. The said company shall have the right of way upon and may appropriate to its sole use and control, for the purposes and use of said railroad company, any land belonging to the State of Illinois, not exceeding two hundred feet in width, wherever any such land may be situated along said railroad, for its entire length, as well as along its branches, and may enter upon and take possession of and use all and singular any lands, streams and materials of every kind belonging to said State, for the location of depots and stopping stages, for the purpose of constructing bridges, dams, embankments, excavations, station grounds, spoil-banks, turnouts, engine houses, shops and other buildings necessary for the construction, completing, altering, maintaining, preserving and complete operation of said road; and all such lands, waters, materials and privileges are hereby forever granted to said company for said purposes.

§ 6. Said company are hereby authorized and empowered to make and establish a ferry across the Mississippi river, at the termination of the branch west of Monmouth, to such point on the Iowa shore of said river as the said company may be authorized or required to land at. Said company are also authorized and empowered to make and establish a ferry across the Illinois river, from any ground owned by them in the city of Peoria, to the opposite shore of said Illinois river, in Tazewell county. They are hereby authorized to make and use all necessary boats and apparatus, of all and every description whatsoever, advantageous and necessary for the use of said company, at either or both of said ferries, and propel the same by horse, steam, or any mode or power that to said company may seem best: Provided, that said company shall not use said ferries or allow the same to be used for any other purpose than those connected with or arising out of the business of said railroad.

§ 7. Said company shall have authority and power to improve all or either of their landings at either or both of said ferries, by building a pier or piers, or making embankments into either or both of said rivers: Provided, that any such improvement does not interfere with the free navigation of either of said rivers.

§ 8. If any person shall wilfully or negligently do or cause to be done, any injury to said ferries, or to any boat or appurtenance thereto belonging, the person or persons so offending shall forfeit and pay to said company three times the amount of such injury, to be recovered by action of debt or action on the case before any justice of the peace, or other court having jurisdiction of the same. The said ferries shall be deemed public highways, within the meaning of the laws providing for the punishment of persons injuring, obstructing or destroying public highways or bridges, in any manner or by any means whatever.

§ 9. The said company are hereby authorized to continue said railroad from Peoria, on the most eligible route eastward, to a point on the Indiana State line, which shall be not more than twenty miles either north or south of a due east and west line that would run through Lafayette, Indiana. And the same powers and privileges for construction and maintaining this extension, and for connecting the same with other roads, as is contained in the original charter, is hereby conferred upon said company in relation to this extension.

§ 10. That the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company shall have power to borrow money on the credit of the company, not exceeding its authorized capital stock, at a rate of interest not exceeding ten per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, and may execute bonds therefor, with interest coupons thereto annexed, and secure the payment of the same by mortgage or deed of trust on the whole or any part of the road, property and income of the company, then existing or thereafter to be acquired, and may annex to such mortgage bonds the privilege of converting the same into the capital stock of the company at par, at the option of the holders, if such election be signified in writing to the company three years before the maturity of said bonds.

§ 11. That the directors of said company be and they are hereby authorized to negotiate and sell the bonds of said company, at such times and such places, either within or without this State, and at such rates and for such prices as in their opinion will best advance the interests of the company; and if such bonds are thus negotiated or sold at a discount below their par value, such sale and disposition thereof shall be as valid and binding on the company, in every respect, as if they were sold or disposed of at their par value.

§ 12. That the said company, in securing the payment of the said bonds by a mortgage or deed of trust on the road, property and income of the company, shall have power to execute a mortgage or deed of trust aforesaid, to secure the payment of the full amount of bonds which the company may at the time said deed of trust or mortgage bears date, or at any time thereafter, desire to sell and dispose of, and may execute and sell, from time to time, such amounts of said bonds, and of such dates, and payable to such person or persons, as to the directors of said company may seem advisable, till the whole amount of bonds mentioned in such mortgage or deed of trust is executed and sold; and the said mortgage or deed of trust shall be as valid and effectual to secure the payment of the bonds so executed and sold, and of every part thereof, as if the same and every part thereof had been executed of even date with the said deed of trust or mortgage.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved February 21, 1861.

AN ACT to amend an act entitled "An Act to incorporate the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company," approved February 12, 1849.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the name of the corporation incorporated under the said act, to which this is an amendment, be and the same is hereby changed to that of "The Logansport, Peoria and Burlington Railroad Company."

§ 2. That the said Logansport, Peoria and Burlington Railroad Company is hereby authorized to issue its bonds, to the amount of one million of dollars, in addition to those which have already been issued or executed by said company, or which said company, by their charter or any amendment thereof heretofore made, have authorized to issue: Provided, that the whole amount of bonds outstanding and unpaid shall at no time exceed the sum of five million five hundred thousand dollars. And the said company is hereby further authorized, for the purpose of securing the payment of said bonds, or of any bonds heretofore issued by said road, or of any bonds which it may issue for the purpose of renewing or retiring the bonds now outstanding against said road, or of any part of said bonds, to execute one or more mortgages or deeds of trust of and upon the road, revenues, property and franchises of said company, now existing or hereafter to accrue or be acquired.

§ 3. Said bonds may be made payable at any place within the United States, and may bear interest at any rate not exceeding eight per cent. per annum, and may be negotiated and sold at such times and places, either within or without this State, and at such rates and prices as shall be deemed for the best interests of the company.

§ 4. All powers heretofore conferred upon said company, in relation to the execution of mortgages and deeds of trust, and the making, securing, selling and disposing of the bonds, secured or to be secured thereby, shall apply to the bonds issued by virtue of this act: Provided, that all that part of said road, as surveyed and located under the charter to which this is an amendment, running between the towns of Oquawka Junction and Oquawka, a distance of about five miles, and yet unfinished, shall be exempt from any liens or any incumbrances authorized by this act.

§ 5. The right of way and all the work done on that part of said unfinished railroad, running between said towns of Oquawka Junction and Oquawka, in making road bed, building bridges and furnishing ties, shall be, and is, by this act, vested in the trustees of the town of Oquawka, in the county of Henderson, and State of Illinois, and their successors in office, and the same shall be subject to their control and disposal, with all the rights, franchises and privileges, in and to said part of said railroad, which the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company formerly had in and to the same, with the full power to complete and operate the same, under the name of the Oquawka Railroad: Provided, that the said trustees of Oquawka shall release said Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company from completing and operating said road; and it shall be lawful for said trustees, or their successors in office, to transfer all the right obtained by this act in the said five miles of unfinished railroad to any railroad company they may choose, on such terms as they may deem best.

§ 6. No contracts made by or with said corporation, created by the act to which this is an amendment, and no liabilities assumed by them shall, in any wise, be impaired or changed, but shall in all respects be binding upon and inure to the corporation herein named, except as hereinbefore provided.

§ 7. The Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company shall have power to construct and operate a track, separate from the track of the Logansport, Peoria and Burlington Railroad, over, through, and along Water street, in the city of Peoria, subject to the control of said city, so as not materially to impair the use of the said street, by track of the Logansport, Peoria and Burlington Railroad, now laid and used, without compensation to the Logansport, Peoria and Burlington Railroad Company; and the Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company shall have the right to construct and operate a separate track, in like manner, from the present point of junction with the said Logansport, Peoria and Burlington Railroad, along and over the ground embraced in the right of way of the said railroad last named, to the city limits of the city of Peoria; and for the purpose of constructing and operating the said Peoria and Hannibal Railroad, in Water street, or from the said junction to the city limits, the said Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company may cross the track of the Logansport, Peoria and Burlington Railroad, doing no material or unnecessary damage thereto; and the Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company shall pay to the said Logansport, Peoria and Burlington Railroad Company, for the privilege of using the right of way from said junction to the city limits, a fair and equitable compensation, to be determined by the agreement of the parties; and in case they cannot agree, then to be determined by the arbitrament and decision of three persons to be mutually chosen; or one to be chosen by each company, and the third to be selected by the city council of Peoria; which decision shall be final upon the parties.

§ 8. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved February 14, 1863.

AN ACT to provide for the re-organization of the Logansport, Peoria and Burlington Railroad Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That in case any mortgage or mortgages, deed or deeds of trust, which have been executed by the corporation originally formed and organized under an act approved February 12, 1849, by the name of "The Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company," and now existing under said act, and the several acts amendatory thereof, the name of which corporation was changed by an act approved February 21, 1861, to that of "The Logansport, Peoria and Burlington Railroad Company," of or upon so much of the railroad of the said company, its franchise, appurtenances and property, as lies between Peoria and the eastern boundary of the State, commonly called the eastern extension, or any part thereof, shall be foreclosed, either by judicial proceedings, or by a sale or sales, pursuant to any power contained in any such mortgage or mortgages, deed or deeds of trust, any number of persons, not less than twenty-five, may, either directly, or through one or more commissioners, trustees or agents, purchase the said part or portion of the said railroad; or any connected and continuous part thereof, with all its franchises, and all or any part of the property covered by such mortgage or mortgages, deed or deeds of trust; and the person so authorized to purchase said part or portion of said railroad, may purchase the same either at the aforesaid sale or sales, or afterward from any other person or persons who shall have purchased the same at such sale or sales.

§ 2. The persons so purchasing said eastern extension of said railroad, franchises and property, or such part thereof, shall, with their associates, if any, within three months from the date of such purchase, form themselves into a new and distinct corporation, by subscribing articles of association, with the amount of stock taken by them respectively in such new corporation; which articles shall specify the name of the corporation; the number of years the same is to continue, which shall not exceed fifty years; the amount of the capital stock of the company, which shall not exceed the aggregate of forty thousand dollars per mile of that part of the road so to be purchased; the number of shares of which the stock shall consist, specifying how many shall be preferred stock and how many shall be common stock; the number of directors, and the names of those who shall be appointed for the first year, who shall be less than one-half the number of stockholders, and who shall hold their offices until their successors are chosen; a description of the road or part of road so purchased, with its termini, and the counties into or through which it passes, and its length, as near as may be; and by adopting a seal, which it may alter at pleasure; and the subscribers for said shares shall be deemed to have complied with their subscriptions, and to have paid therefor in full, when the property so purchased shall have been assured or conveyed to the new corporation.

§ 3. The articles of association shall be made and signed in duplicate, one copy of which shall be detained by the company, and the other shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State; and the said articles, or a copy thereof, certified by the Secretary of State, under his official seal, shall be conclusive evidence of the existence of the corporation.

§ 4. The board of directors shall have power to elect one of their number president, and a secretary and treasurer, and such other officers and agents as they may deem necessary, and to require of them such security for the faithful performance of their duties as they may think proper.

§ 5. The officer or officers, trustee or trustees, making such sale, shall convey the property so purchased directly to the persons making the purchase, or to the person or persons through whose agency the purchase is made, by deed, immediately upon making the sale; and if the same be conveyed to an agent or agents, commissioners or trustees, he or they, and the survivor of them, shall, as soon as the reorganization is completed, execute a declaration of the trust to and in favor of the corporation, declaring the uses and purposes for which the purchase was made, and the same, together with the deed from the officer or trustee making the sale, shall be recorded in the recorder's office of each county, into or through which the road or part of roads so purchased shall pass; or if the persons herein authorized to associate, shall have purchased the said property after the judicial sale or sales, then the title thereof shall be otherwise assured and conveyed to the said corporation, to be formed hereunder.

§ 6. By virtue of the sale, conveyance, and reorganization herein provided for, the railroad or part of railroad so sold, with all the property movable and immovable thereto appurtenant, and all the franchises of the existing corporation, including the franchise to be a corporation (but not so as to defeat or impair any right or remedy against the now existing corporation, in favor of any other party), shall pass to and vest in the new corporation, to take effect from the time of such sale; and the persons making such purchase, and effecting such reorganization, their associates and successors, shall become and be a new and distinct body politic and corporate, and may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, answer and be answered unto in all courts and places, and shall be entitled to the benefits and subject to the obligations and duties imposed upon railroad corporations by the laws of this State, not inconsistent with this act; and said new corporation may issue, in exchange for, and as an equivalent for the value of the said property purchased, all or any part of its shares of preferred stock, and also its bonds, secured by a mortgage or deed of trust of and upon said property to the extent of not exceeding $1,600,000, and also all or any part of its common stock, excepting, however, such portion of said common [stock] as is required to be issued for other purposes, as hereinafter set forth.

§ 7. The persons subscribing said articles shall have power either before or after the sale, to adopt a plan of purchase and reorganization; to appoint proper agents to effect the same; to direct the issue of such and so many of its shares of preferred and common stock, and such and so many of its bonds, secured by mortgage, as shall be necessary to carry out said plan; to direct the distribution of the shares of stock of the new corporation into a preferred stock and a common stock, as they shall think fit; to declare who, and upon what terms and conditions, of the several classes of stockholders and bondholders, may vote in the election of directors, and in other matters affecting the interests of the company, and generally to specify the terms and conditions upon which they co-operate in effecting the said reorganization, and the rights of bondholders and of shareholders to vote, and the rights of the latter to a dividend or dividends shall be such, and such only, as shall be prescribed by the said subscribers.

§ 8. The corporation, when so organized, shall have power to issue its bonds or obligations for the purpose of carrying out said plan and for the purpose of purchasing said eastern extension, in such denominations, not less than $1,000, as it shall see fit, but for an amount not exceeding the amount aforesaid, and at a rate of interest not exceeding eight per cent., and also to borrow money, in or out of this State, and to issue its bonds therefor at such rate of interest as it shall think proper; to execute such bonds and other securities, in or out of this State, and to make them payable at any place, in or out of this State, as the parties may agree; to secure the payment of said bonds by a lease or leases of its road, or any part of it, or by one or more mortgages or deeds of trust, of its road, or any other of its property and its corporate franchises or any part thereof, which mortgages, deed or deeds of trust may cover and include as well property to be acquired by the corporation as that owned by it at the time of the execution of such instruments, and may authorize the mortgagees or trustees to enter into and take possession of the mortgaged property and premises in case of default of payment of any interest or the principal of such bonds, and to sell the mortgaged property, its appurtenances and franchises, or any part thereof, for the payment of any such principal or interest, or to run, use and operate the said railroad and property, and apply the income thereof to the expenses of running and operating the said road, and to the payment of the interest and principal aforesaid. Said corporation may create a sinking fund, for the ultimate payment of its liabilities, and may, by its officers or agents, sell or hypothecate its bonds and other securities, in or out of this State, at any rate of price, above or below par, that it may think proper.

§ 9. Said corporation shall have power to assume, carry out and perform any contract or contracts heretofore entered into by the Peoria and Oquawka or the Logansport, Peoria and Burlington Railroad Company, and to make any settlement or adjustment with the contractors for the construction of the bridge over the Illinois river, at Peoria, that the parties can agree upon, and to liquidate and remove all incumbrances, and liens, upon said road, or any part thereof, including said bridge, and to perfect their title to the same.

§ 10. Said corporation shall have power, with the consent and concurrence of a majority in interest of the bondholders and stockholders entitled to vote, for the time being, to lease any connecting railroad in this or any adjoining State, to form running connections with any such railroad, or to consolidate its property and stock, and to merge its corporate existence and franchises in and with those of the corporation owning any such connecting road, upon any terms upon which the parties may agree.

§ 11. If the articles of association satisfied and provided for in this act shall be filled as herein prescribed, within three months after the judicial sale or sales of said eastern extension, the same shall be deemed an acceptance by the subscribers of the privileges and franchises conferred by this act, and it is hereby provided that such sale or sales, and reorganization shall not have the effect to destroy or impair any right or franchise which may now exist, extending from the eastern to the western boundary lines of the State, or any obligation or duty resting upon the owners or operators of any other portion formerly belonging to said first mentioned corporation, to run, use or operate the same, or permit the same to be run, used or operated as a continuous line across the whole State, but the said railroad shall be run, used or operated as designed and intended by the State in granting the franchise therefor, in and by the original act of incorporation and the several acts amendatory thereof, from the Mississippi river to the eastern boundary of this State, as a continuous line of road.

§ 12. The said corporation, when so organized, shall reserve out of its shares of common stock, and shall issue to the city of Peoria, and county of Iroquois, one share of common stock in the new corporation, in exchange for every share of stock in the old corporation, which was originally subscribed for the said eastern extension, herein first mentioned, and amounting in the aggregate to $150,000, at par, now held by said city and county respectively: Provided, that if said city and county, or either, shall not accept said shares of common stock after three months' notice from the new corporation of its readiness to deliver the same, then their rights to such shares shall terminate, and said new corporation may then dispose of the same as it shall see fit; and said corporation shall also reserve out of its shares of common stock, and shall issue to such other persons as are now the holders of full paid shares of the stock of said first mentioned company, which were subscribed specifically for, or towards, said eastern extension, one share of common stock in the new corporation, for every share of such stock, so specifically subscribed for: Provided, however, and upon this express condition, that any person failing to call for and demand such share of common stock, within three months after public notice by the new corporation, through one or more newspapers published in the cities of Peoria and Chicago, in this State, of its readiness to deliver the same, and failing also to pay to the new corporation one dollar in cash for every share of such common stock, shall not thereafter be entitled to have or demand the same, and said corporation may dispose of such shares of common stock as it shall see fit.

§ 13. Said new corporation shall have the right to purchase and hold lands in the city of Peoria, for depot and other purposes, in connection with the uses of its road.

§ 14. This act shall be a public act, and shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved February 14, 1863.

AN ACT to enable purchasers of railroads sold under mortgages, deeds of trust, or otherwise, hereinafter mentioned, to become corporations.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That it shall be competent and lawful for the purchaser or purchasers of the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad, the Racine and Mississippi Railroad, and the Quincy and Chicago Railroad, or either of them, said railroads, under any mortgage or deed of trust, or by virtue of the decree of any proper court, for the purpose of more conveniently managing the same to associate with themselves such persons or parties as they shall see fit and proper therein; and to cause to be made and issued to the parties so associated certificates of stock of the same designations and descriptions as were issued under the original charter, and acts incorporating the company, which may have owned such road theretofore: Provided, however, that the whole amount of such stock so issued shall not exceed the amount of the cost of said road and the equipment thereof, estimated at fifty thousand dollars per mile.

§ 2. There shall be called, by the purchasers of said road, a meeting of the parties holding certificates of stock so issued, to be held at some place in this State, at such time as may be convenient; at which meeting, so called, all of the holders of said stock or certificates may be represented by person or by proxy; and the stockholders so present, in person or by proxy, shall be authorized and empowered to elect a board of directors, to consist of the same number as was provided in the original charter and acts incorporating the corporation by which the said road was constructed; and thereupon, the said stockholders shall become entitled to all the rights and privileges, and corporate franchises granted and created by the original charter and acts of incorporation, so far as they pertain to and are applicable to the road so sold and purchased: Provided, however, there shall be filed with the Secretary of State, under the signatures of a majority of the stockholders in the new corporation, describing the road so sold, its extent and its termini, and the acts of incorporation under which it was constructed, and setting forth the proceedings of said meeting, the name adopted for the company so organized, and its election to adopt the charter and acts amendatory thereto, within sixty days after such meeting and actions, and certified also under the name and seal of the newly organized corporation; and upon filing such certificate, the persons so associated, and their successors, shall be a body politic and corporate, by the name stated in such certificate; and a copy of such certificate, attested by the signature of the Secretary of State, or his deputy, shall, in all courts and places, be evidence of the formation and existence of the said corporation, and of the facts in said certificate stated: And provided, further, it shall be competent for said stockholders, in such certificates, to adopt such acts of the legislature, under which such road was constructed and built, as they may deem advisable; but they shall not be entitled to retain any rights and privileges, nor be entitled to the benefits of any acts conferring power and privileges beyond and not appertaining to the road and appurtenances or to the part thereof actually sold.

§ 3. The stockholders in such newly organized corporation shall have the right to consolidate their stock and property with the stock and property of any other railroad company with whose road its line may connect or intersect, under the same restrictions and in the same manner, and with the same rights as are provided in and by an act to enable railroad companies and plankroad companies to consolidate their stock, approved February the 28th, A. D. 1854. Nothing in this act contained shall be construed either on the one hand so as to impose, or on the other so as to impair or destroy any obligation or duty upon the persons purchasing or owning a part or parts of any continuous line of railroad to use and operate the part or parts so purchased or owned, in connection with the remaining part or parts of said continuous line; but such obligation and duty shall be and remain such and such only as they would have been had this act not have been passed, hereby declaring that the franchises of the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad shall not be impaired.

This act shall be in force from and after its passage.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved June 10, 1863.

A BILL to enable the purchasers of the west end of the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad, sold under mortgage, deed of trust, or otherwise, to become a corporation.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That it shall be competent and lawful for the purchasers of that portion of the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad which lies west of the Illinois river, sold, or which may hereafter be sold under any mortgage, or deed of trust, or by virtue of the decree of any proper court, for the purpose of more conveniently managing the same, to associate with themselves such persons or parties as they shall see fit and proper, and to cause to be made and issued to the persons and parties so associated, certificates of stock of the same designations and descriptions as were issued under the original charter and acts incorporating the company which owned such road theretofore: Provided, however, that the whole amount of such stock so issued shall not exceed the amount of the cost of said road and the equipment therefor, estimated at fifty thousand dollars per mile.

§ 2. There shall be called, by the purchasers of said part of said road, a meeting of the parties holding certificates of stock so issued, to be held at some place in this State, at such time as may be convenient, at which meeting all of the holders of said stock or certificates shall be represented, in person or by proxy; and the stockholders so present, in person or by proxy, shall be authorized and empowered to elect a board of directors, to consist of the same number as was provided for in the original charter and acts incorporating the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company, by which the said part of said road was constructed; and thereupon the said stockholders shall become entitled to all the rights and privileges and corporate franchises granted and created by the original charter of said company, approved February 12 A. D. 1840 [1849]: Provided, however, that there should be filed, within sixty days after said meeting, with the Secretary of State, under the signatures of all the stockholders in the new corporation, a certificate, setting forth the proceedings of said meeting, and the name adopted for the company so organized, which said certificate shall also be certified under the name and seal of the newly organized corporation; and upon filing such a certificate, the persons and parties so associated, and their successors, shall be a body politic and corporate, by the name stated in such certificate; and a copy of such certificate, attested by the signature of the Secretary of State or his deputy, shall, in all courts and places, be evidence of the formation and existence of the said corporation and of the facts in said certificate stated; but the said new corporation shall not be entitled to the benefit of any other act or acts conferring power or privileges, beyond and not appertaining to the part of the road actually sold and its appurtenances.

§ 3. The stockholders in such newly organized corporation shall have the right to consolidate their stock and property with the stock and property of any other railroad company with whose road its line may connect or intersect, with the same restrictions and in the same manner, and with the same rights as are provided in and by an act entitled, "An Act to enable railroad companies and plankroad companies to consolidate their stock," approved February 28, A. D. 1854, and such consolidated company shall have the right to borrow money at any rate of interest on its bonds, and to mortgage the whole or any part of its road to secure the payment thereof.

§ 4. Nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as either on the one hand to impose, or on the other to destroy or impair any obligation or duty upon the persons purchasing or parties owning such part of said railroad to use or operate the same in connection with the remaining part of said road lying east of the Illinois river; but such obligation and duty shall be and remain such and such only, as they would have been had this act not been passed.

This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

FIRST CONTRACT, July 1, 1853 between Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company and Central Military Tract Railroad Company.

Memorandum of an agreement made and entered into between the Peoria and Oquawka Rail Road Company of the first part, through their committee duly authorized and the Central Military Tract Rail Road Company through their committee also duly authorized the first day of July A. D. 1853.

The said first named party agree in consideration of the agreements hereinafter made by the said second party—that the main line of the Peoria and Oquawka Rail Road shall be located and constructed at or within the Southern line of the corporate limits of the village of Galesburg.

And it is also agreed by the said first party that it will receive and transport over its road to and from the road of the said second party all its freight and passengers having reference to classes of passengers and kinds of freight at rates of fare and freight which shall not exceed per mile the rates charged for freight and passengers over the whole, or any part of the Peoria and Oquawka Rail Road for any other party or in connection with any other connecting Rail Road or route of travel.

And it is further also agreed that there shall be no delay in the transportation of passengers coming from or going to the Central Military Tract Rail Road at regular and stated periods, but that if necessary in order to accommodate the passenger business of the said road special trains shall be run between Galesburg and Burlington at such time and in such a manner as shall be required by the Central Military Company for the accommodation of its regular trains not unnecessarily interfering with the regular time of the passenger trains of the said first party, and the said trains so run shall be run with the same speed and operated with as good a grade of service and shall be as well accommodated in every respect as any of the trains running upon the road of the said first party.

And it is mutually agreed that there shall be such an interchange of freight cars running upon both roads, as will but facilitate the transportation of freight from any point on each road as will obviate the necessity of transshipment at the Junction and the said freight shall be transported in the cars of each Company over the road of the other in such a manner as will but accommodate the business and promote the interest of both parties.

And the said first party agree to sell tickets and check baggage at all its offices for passengers going from any point on its road to any point on the line of the road of the said second party and to such places beyond the road of the said second party as said last named party sell tickets for whenever desired and shall receive the tickets sold by any other Company or party to passengers passing over any part of its road and the Military Tract Rail Road or to any point on the Military Tract Road or to any point to which the said Company sell tickets when desired and the said last Company shall do the same thing for the benefit of the Peoria and Oquawka Rail Road Company.

And it is further agreed by the said first party that the baggage Cars for passengers to and from Burlington passing over the Central Military Tract Road shall if desired be drawn over the road of the said first Company.

And it is mutually agreed that when the cars of either Company pass over the road of the other or its connections such compensation shall be made and allowed therefor as shall be just and reasonable.

And the said second party agree to furnish for the said first party four acres of ground for Depot purposes at or near the Junction of the two Roads conveniently situated for its business and to erect and provide a passenger depot for the accommodation of both Companies if desired and to be occupied by the said second party, for which if so occupied it agrees to pay such rent as shall be just and equitable.

And whereas the object of this contract is to promote the interest of all parties transacting business or travelling over the roads and thereby increase the common and joint business of both Companies, and also to provide for the Central Military Tract Company a connection with Burlington as convenient as if its road extended to that point; therefore should this agreement from defection or inadequate to secure these objects such additional stipulations and agreements shall be made as will more fully secure them and in consideration thereof and of the performance of the agreements herein contained by the said first party the said second party further agree that it will not aid or assist in the construction of any Rail Road connecting it with the Mississippi at any point within thirty miles upon the lines of either of the termini of the said Peoria and Oquawka Rail Road.

And it is agreed by the said second party that all the obligations hereby imposed upon the said first party relative to the transportation of passengers and freight so far as prices and fare are concerned shall be also reciprocal and shall be fulfilled and performed by the said party of the second part in favor of the said first party.

And it is further agreed that in case any difficulty or dispute shall arise as to the mode and manner in which the interest of this contract shall be carried into effect the same shall be referred to and settled by three arbitrators chosen by the parties in the usual manner.

In witness whereof the parties have by their respective committee executed this agreement the day and year above written at Mommouth.

Sec. P. & O. R. R Co.

CONTRACT, October 3, 1854 Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company with Central Military Tract Railroad Company.

This Indenture made and entered into this the third day of October A. D. 1854 between the Peoria and Oquawka Rail Road Company of the first part, and the Chicago and Aurora, and the Central Military Tract Rail Road Companies of the second part. Witnesses

That the said party of the first part covenants and agrees to demise and lease to the said parties of the second part, and does hereby demise and lease to the said parties all and singular, all that part of the Rail Road of the said first party, lying between and at Galesburg and the Mississippi River with its track, right of way depots, water Stations and all the appurtenances thereto, belonging and appertaining, not including the rolling stock now owned by the P. & O. R. R. for the full term of three years after the said part of the said Rail Road so leased shall be completed, and in running order for business, with the right to take possession of and to enter upon use and enjoy, and operate and manage the same, during the continuance of the said lease and term, for its own use benefit and behoof. The said parties of the second part yielding and paying during the continuance of the said term after and commencing from the time when the said Road shall be complete, and in running order for use to the party of the first part, in the manner hereinafter agreed, the annual rent of forty-five thousand dollars, being as agreed five per cent upon the fixed and agreed and estimated cost of that part of the said road, of the said party of the first part so leased, which said agreed and estimated cost is nine hundred thousand dollars, but which agreed and estimated valuation it is also understood and agreed is one hundred thousand dollars higher than the real cost of the same, and is so agreed and understood and estimated in order to provide and furnish a compensation for the wear and tear and deterioration of the said leased road during the term of said lease, and as a consequence it being also agreed that any iron ties or timber or other material required for necessary repairs during said term shall be paid for by the said first party, but put in and the work of repairs done by the said second parties.

It being agreed and understood by and between said parties that the said second parties shall by way of further rent, account to and pay to the said first party in the manner hereinafter agreed for the payment of the said five per cent two thirds of the profits which may result from the business of the said leased road over and above the expenses of operating and keeping the same in order, retaining one third in consideration of the equipment and the said five per cent specifically agreed to be paid as aforesaid and that an estimate of said profits shall be made up as follows, viz. an accurate account shall be kept which shall be always open to the examination and inspection of any person duly authorized by the said first party showing all the receipts and expenditures on the said leased road, the rates of freights and passengers being fixed by the said second parties, but not being less per mile, according to the miles carried, than shall be charged on the combined roads or the road of the said first parties having reference to the through and way freight, and passengers and rates respectively, and also classes of each, and a fair and just allowance also being made so as to distribute the charges for loading and unloading on the whole amount received on each freight bill.

It being also further mutually agreed, that one half of all the said rents and profits thus accruing for the benefit of and becoming payable to the said first party, shall be paid and deposited at the American Exchange Bank, or with the Bankers which may be agreed upon by both of said parties, and expressly applied to the payment of the interest coupons of the first and second mortgage bonds of the said first party and that said amount shall be so deposited semi-annually on or before the first days of May and November in each year.

The said party of the first part also agrees that the said road so leased shall be completed and in running order for the trains on the first day of January A. D. 1855 with suitable temporary depots and side tracks and stations for its convenience and also a temporary and convenient track to the ferry on the Mississippi and that after the track is laid the necessary ballasting shall be completed which shall not have been done before, to put the road in proper and good condition for permanent use, and further the said first party agrees that if it does not proceed with the work in such manner as to secure its completion for the reception and running of trains by the said first day of January the said second parties may put men on the work, and expend for and on account of the said first party the needful amount to complete it, and in like manner may do the same in regard to the necessary ballasting if it be not done by the said first party with reasonable diligence after the said road shall be occupied by the trains and in operation, the amount required to complete the road, being supposed to be about Forty thousand dollars but may exceed that sum.

And the said parties of the second part agree to procure and furnish Twenty-two hundred Tons of iron, like in form and quality to that laid upon the Central Military Tract Road to be delivered at Burlington and Galesburg as soon as the same can be transported from New York with ordinary diligence (casualties excepted), that they will purchase the said iron on as long credit as can conveniently be obtained and that the same shall be sent to Galesburg and Burlington in quantities for each place which may be most convenient to facilitate the work of construction of the said leased road, and that the same shall be placed upon the track of the Road subject to the rights of the parties as hereinafter agreed upon.

And it is further mutually agreed that the said party of the first part shall for all the money which may be required for carrying out this contract by the said second parties, execute its promissory notes, payable to the order of the said second parties or otherwise payable as they may direct on six months time, upon which interest shall be made up at a discount of twelve per cent and also for the cost of said iron and all other materials from and at the time when the credit at which the same may be purchased shall expire which said notes shall be renewed from time to time as long as the same shall remain unpaid by the Peoria and Oquawka Rail Road Company.

And the said parties of the second part agree in consideration of the securities to be given, and of the covenants and agreements on the part of the said first party herein contained, agree and covenant to procure the said notes to be discounted, and to raise the said money required, and to carry the same along by renewals from time to time until the period fixed herein for the payment of the same by procuring renewed discounts so that the cost of the money to the said second parties shall be and only be the discount above agreed upon, and should the cost of raising the money exceed that amount the said second parties shall bear it themselves, the said notes however being made payable in Boston or New York.

And it is mutually agreed to the security of the said second parties, that the iron which is to be purchased by the said second parties upon their own credit in the first instance shall remain the property of the said second parties until the said promissory notes to be given by the said first party therefor upon the expiration of the credit upon which the same shall be purchased by the said second parties shall have been paid, and that the said iron shall be deemed and taken to be lent to the said first parties, until the said notes are fully paid, but when so paid then to become the property of the said first party, but if not paid as agreed then the said second party to have the full right to remove and sell the same as hereinafter agreed as their own property.

And it is further agreed by the said first party that for both the amount of money which may be raised, and also for the value of said iron and for all monies which under this agreement may become a debt or a claim or a liability against the said first party, the said first party shall place in the hands of the said second parties its second mortgage bonds to double the amount thereof so that the said second parties shall always hold two dollars of the said second mortgage bonds, for every dollar of such debt claim or liability, but it is expressly understood that the said first party may at the maturity of any or all said notes elect to pay the same, and reserve back corresponding amount of said collateral bonds two for one as given.

And it is further agreed that if at the expiration of said lease, or at the expiration of three years from the completion of said leased road the said first parties fail to pay said debt and release said second parties from all their liability from reason thereof and by reason of the said notes, and pay the full interest thereof, the said bonds pledged as collateral security may be, and the said iron may be sold at public auction in the city of New York, three weeks notice of the time and place of sale having first been given by publication in some public Journal, both in said city and in the city of Peoria, and any deficit shall constitute a claim or debt against the said first party.

And in that case it is agreed that the said second parties shall continue the lease on the terms herein agreed, and shall hold the said road until the balance of the said debt claim or liability shall be paid or at their option in lieu of said rent and profits shall and may pay to the said first party in like manner to be deposited and applied in like manner, a sum equal to half of all the net profits on the traffic and business of the said leased road, the other half to be applied as before provided in redeeming the loan or debt and paying the interest until the claim or debt or liability is paid and discharged in full with interest.

And it is further agreed that any public sale of the property herein pledged the pledgees may become bidder and purchaser of the property as well as all others.

It is also further agreed by the said first party that when the road is constructed from Peoria to Galesburg and the said first party becomes again possessed of said leased road, the said parties of the second part shall have the right, which is hereby secured and guaranteed to them of running their cars and engines over the same to and fro between Galesburg and the Mississippi in such a manner as to accomodate their business paying per mile for freight and passengers the same rates that the said first party charges for its own freight and passengers on its own road having reference to through and way rates and classes of freight and passengers, this not being intended as a waiver or alteration of a former contract subsisting between the said first party and either one or both of the said second parties, except that it secures the additional right forever of and to the said second parties, to run their cars and engines over said leased road as herein provided.

And it is mutually agreed that the arrangements for running trains shall be in all respects fair and equal for both parties and accomodate the business of each, and in case there shall be any disagreement as to the arrangement for running trains, the time table and rules of running shall be fixed by two Superintendents of roads of whom each party shall choose one and if there be any disagreement between they to choose a third to act as umpire between them, and both parties will regard and obey their decision, and if the road from Galesburg to Peoria shall be completed before the termination of the said lease, then the said first party shall have the right to run its cars and locomotives over said leased road subject to the same provisions and stipulations and agreements as to running time tables, rates of fare etc. as are the second said parties after said lease shall have terminated, and in both cases there shall be a fair and just allowance for car and engine service and in both cases the respective parties shall have the right to take wood and water at the Stations making a just and reasonable compensation and payment for the same to be likewise settled in case of disagreement by the same arbitrators.

It is further agreed that if the said first party shall at any time fail to pay their interest coupons in full as due and proceedings shall be had to foreclose either mortgage or put the road into the hands of Trustees it shall operate to terminate the time when the whole amount then due from it under this agreement shall mature and become due and payable, and the said second parties shall have the same rights as are now secured to them at the maturity of the debt or claim or liability, or the said second parties may elect if they please to pay the unpaid coupons taking and holding the same, and the amount thereof shall become a part of a debt of a liability of the said first party for which they shall execute notes as aforesaid, and at the discount aforesaid, from which the said second parties may raise money to reimburse themselves for all arrears so paid, and such failure to pay coupons shall give to the said second parties the right to extend, and shall operate as an extension of the lease of said road one year upon the same terms as to rent and as herein agreed, and should there be further failures to pay coupons the option as above stipulated shall be repeated, and be the same at each failure and operate in like manner an extension of the lease for one year at each said failure in case the said second parties provide for the payment of said coupons and above and hold the same.

It is further stipulated that the said second parties may borrow the iron required to complete said road to Galesburg, agreeing to replace it in New Orleans or New York early next Spring unless they can buy it on terms not exceeding sixty-five dollars a ton.

And it is agreed by the said second parties that they will at any time allow any part of the said bonds of the said first party to be redeemed upon the payment of the proportion of money for which they stand pledged, and that whenever at fixed times of settling, half of the rents and profits of the said road and its business shall pay the interest and some portion of the principal of the debt or claim due from the said first to the said second parties, or for which the said second parties shall become liable, the said second parties shall deliver back to the said first party the amount paid on the principal in the said bonds in the proportion of two for one, holding always only so many of the said bonds as shall be double in amount the actual debt claim or liability for the time being.

In Witness whereof the said parties have hereto respectively set their Seals by their respective Presidents this the day above written.

TRUST MORTGAGE. September 10, 1853. The Peoria and Oquawka Rail Road Company to David Hoadley et. al.

No. 1966. Filed September 24th 1853.

This Indenture made the tenth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty three between the Peoria and Oquawka Rail Road Company, a Corporation, duly created and organized by and under the laws of the State of Illinois, parties of the first part and David Hoadley and James T. Souther of the City of New York, parties of the second part, Witnesseth whereas the said Peoria and Oquawka Rail Road Company pursuant to the terms of the Statute of said State of Illinois incorporating them and other statutes of said State affecting them are engaged in constructing a rail road from the City of Peoria on the Illinois River to the Town of Oquawka on the Mississippi River in said State and also in constructing a branch of said road from a point west of Monmouth running thence to the said Mississippi River at a point nearly opposite the City of Burlington in the State of Iowa and for the purposes authorised by said laws of said State have heretofore issued the bonds of said Company to the amount of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars dated respectively on the first day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty two numbered from number one (1) to five hundred (500) inclusive and for the purpose of securing the payment of the same have executed a deed of trust in the nature of a mortgage upon the premises hereinafter mentioned and specified to William F. Coolbaugh, John F. A. Sandford and Luther C. Clark, dated on the second day of August one thousand eight hundred and fifty two which was recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court and Recorder of Peoria County in said State of Illinois in Book B. A. on pages 497 &c and in the several other counties through which said Rail Road passes and in confirmation of said deed of trust and for the better securing the payment of said bonds to the respective holders thereof have also executed to the said Coolbaugh, Sanford and Clark a certain other deed or instrument in writing dated on the nineteenth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty three which has been recorded in the aforesaid Recorder's office of Peoria County in Book E. A. pages 1, 2, 3 &c and in the several other counties through which said rail road passes to which deed of trust and of confirmation and the record of each reference is here made for greater certainty as to the provisions and contents thereof. And whereas the said Peoria and Oquawka Rail Road Company are desirous of borrowing money to an amount not exceeding Seven hundred thousand dollars to be applied to the purchase and transportation of or in payment for materials, superstructure and equipments for said road and branch and the construction of said road west of the Illinois River at Peoria aforesaid and the aforesaid branch road and have resolved to execute bonds of said Company therefor in sums of One thousand dollars each bearing even date with these presents payable on the first day of May one thousand eight hundred and seventy three bearing interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum payable on the first day of May next ensuing the date thereof and thereafter payable semi-annually on the first day of each November and May until said principal shall be paid at the Banking House of the American Exchange Bank in the City of New York, said bonds all to stand equally secured by these presents according to their amounts notwithstanding the same may be issued at different times and are or are to be numbered consecutively from number (501) five hundred and one to (1200) twelve hundred inclusive each of said bonds being authenticated by a certificate signed by said parties of the second part and containing a clause permitting the holder thereof to exchange the same at par for shares of the capital stock of said rail road company at the par value of the same at any time prior to the first day of May one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

Now therefore this Indenture Witnesseth that the said Peoria and Oquawka Rail Road Company in order to secure the payment of said last mentioned bonds and the interest thereon and in consideration of the sum of One dollar to them in hand paid by the said parties of the second part at the sealing and delivery hereof, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged Have granted, bargained, sold, transfered and conveyed and by these presents Do Grant, bargain, sell, transfer and convey to the said parties of the second part, their successors in the trust hereby created and assigns All the following present and in future to be acquired property of the said Company and all their rights, interests and equity of redemption therein that is to say, their road made or to be made west of the Illinois River aforesaid and all branches thereof made or to be made including the right of way and land occupied thereby together with the superstructure and tracks thereon and all the iron, timber, materials, furniture and property purchased or to be purchased or procured for the construction and equipment of said road and branches, all depot and station grounds and the buildings thereon, all the side tracks, bridges, viaducts, culverts, fences, engines, tenders, cars, tools, machinery, materials and all their personal property now or hereafter to be acquired, the subscriptions to the capital stock of said Company made and to be made for the construction of said road and branch or branches, together with the nett revenues and earning to be derived therefrom and all the rights, privileges and franchises of the said Company of, in, to or concerning the same, but nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the said Company from selling hypothecating or otherwise disposing of any bonds or other securities received in payment of stock or otherwise or of any lands or other property of the Company not necessary to be retained for their aforesaid road way, depot grounds or stations nor required for the construction or convenient use of their road and branches nor from collecting monies due the Company on stock subscriptions or otherwise provided they shall diligently proceed to collect and faithfully apply all such means to the construction and equipment of their said road and branches hereby conveyed; and provided also that no default shall have been made in the payment of the interest or principal of any of the bonds intended to be secured hereby To Have and to Hold the said premises and every part thereof with the appurtenances unto the said parties of the second part, their successors in said trust and assigns, subject to the aforesaid lien or incumbrance of Five hundred thousand dollars created by the aforesaid mortgage executed by the said

Company to the said William F. Coolbaugh, John F. A. Sanford and Luther C. Clark and the aforesaid deed confirmatory thereof, but upon the following trusts, that is to say in case the said Peoria and Oquawka Rail Road Company shall fail to pay the principal or any of the interest on any of said bonds intended to be secured hereby at any time when the same may become due and payable according to the tenor thereof when demanded then after sixty days after such default upon the request of the holder of any one of such bonds the said parties of the second part, their successors in said trust and assigns may enter into and take possession of all or any part of said premises and as the attorneys in fact or agents of said Company by themselves or agents or substitutes duly constituted have use and employ the same making from time to time all needful repairs, alterations and additions thereto and after deducting the expenses of such use, repair, alterations and additions apply the proceeds of said premises to the payment of the principal and interest of all said last mentioned bonds remaining unpaid or the said parties of the second part, their successors in said trust and assigns at their discretion may or on the written request of the holders of at least one half of the last mentioned bonds then unpaid and unconverted into stock shall cause the said premises or so much thereof as shall be necessary to pay and discharge the principal and interest of all such of said bonds as may then be unpaid and unconverted as aforesaid, together with all the expenses of sale to be sold at public auction in the City of New York giving at least forty days notice of the time, place and terms of such sale and of the specific property to be sold by publishing the same in two of the principal newspapers in the City of New York at the time being and also in one of the principal newspapers in Peoria, Illinois, and Burlington, Iowa, at the time being and execute to the purchaser or purchasers thereof a good and sufficient deed or deeds of conveyance in fee simple for the same which shall be a bar against the said Peoria and Oquawka Rail Road Company parties of the first part, their successors and assigns, and all persons claiming under them of all right, interest or claim in or to said premises or any part thereof and said Trustees shall after deducting from the proceeds of said sale the costs and expenses thereof and of managing said property apply so much of the said proceeds as may be necessary to the payment of said principal and interest due or unpaid on said bonds and shall restore the residue thereof to the said Company, parties of the first part, it being hereby expressly understood that in no case shall any claim or advantage be taken of any valuation, appraisement or extension laws by the said Company nor any injunction or stay of proceedings or any process be obtained or applied for by them to prevent such entry or sale as aforesaid.

It is also hereby expressly understood and agreed that it shall be lawful for the said Company to dispose of the current nett revenues of said road and branches in such manner as said Company shall direct until default shall be made in the payment of the interest or principal of said bonds or some one of them.

And it is also expressly understood and hereby declared that the property, franchises and premises above mentioned and described are hereby conveyed, subject to the aforesaid mortgage to William F. Coolbaugh, John F. A. Sanford and Luther C. Clark dated August 2nd, 1852, and the aforesaid deed confirmatory thereof dated March 19th, 1853, and to the lien or encumbrance thereby created. And the said Peoria and Oquawka Rail Road Company for themselves, their successors and assigns do hereby covenant for the consideration aforesaid to execute and deliver any further reasonable and necessary conveyances of the said premises or any part thereof to the said parties of the second part, their successors in said trust and assigns for more fully carrying into effect the objects and purposes of these presents and of making them embrace at law said rail road and branches as the same may be extended or constructed and the property and effects so expressed to be mortgaged or so intended and to be hereafter acquired.

And the said Peoria and Oquawka Rail Road Company hereby further covenant as aforesaid that the money borrowed or procured for the purpose aforesaid upon the security of the said bonds shall be faithfully applied to the construction of said railroad west of the Illinois River aforesaid and the aforesaid branch thereof and to the purchase and transportation of or in payment for the materials necessary for the superstructure and equipment thereof and that said materials so purchased shall be transported and used with due diligence in the construction, furnishing and equipment of said Rail Road and the aforesaid branch thereof.

And it is hereby mutually agreed and these presents are upon this express condition that on the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds or the conversion thereof into stock in manner aforesaid the estate hereby granted to said parties of the second part shall be void and the right to the premises hereby conveyed shall revert to and revert in said Company without any acknowledgment of satisfaction, reconveyance, re-entry or other act.

And it is also further mutually agreed that the said parties of the second part, their successors in said trust and assigns, shall only be accountable for reasonable diligence in the management thereof and shall not be responsible for the acts of any agent employed by them or either of them where such agent shall be selected or employed with reasonable discretion and that and that the said parties of the second part, their successors in said trust and assigns, shall be entitled to receive proper compensation for every labor or service performed by them in the discharge of their trust in case they shall be compelled to take possession of said premises or of any part thereof or manage the same.

And it is hereby further mutually agreed that neither of the said Trustees shall in any manner be liable or responsible for any act or acts of his co-trustee to which he does not assent and that in case of the death, mental incapacity or resignation of either of the said Trustees to act in the matter of said trust all his right, estate, interest, power and control in the premises shall be divested, cease and determine and the said Company and the surviving Trustee may mutually agree upon a new Trustee to supply the said vacancy or failing so to do the said Company shall or in case of their default to take proceedings therefor for thirty days the holders of a majority of said bonds may apply to any Court of competent jurisdiction, in the State of Illinois to appoint a new Trustee residing in the City of New York to supply said vacancy and thereupon such new Trustee shall become vested for the purposes aforesaid with all the rights and interests requisite to enable the Trustee thus designated to execute with the other the purposes of this Trust without any further assurance or conveyance for the same, but if the same shall become necessary, both or either of the parties hereto shall execute and deliver any and all necessary releases or conveyances for that purpose, it being further expressly understood that the surviving trustee shall be fully empowered to execute all the purposes of this trust until said vacancy shall be so supplied.

In Witness whereof the said Peoria and Oquawka Rail Road Company have caused their corporate seal to be hereunto affixed and the same to be subscribed by their President and the said parties of the second part have hereto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

In the cause between James T. Soultter and David Hoadley Trustees &c against The Peoria & Oquawka Rail Road Company, The Chicago Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company, William S. Moss, Abner C. Harding, Richard Gregg James Knox, Charles H. Walker Charles S. Clark, Harvey Lightner Tobias S. Bradley and Ivory Quimby and the cross suit in the cause above mentioned, between The Peoria & Oquawka Rail Road Company, William S. Moss, and Tobias S. Bradley, Complainants by Cross Bill against the said James T. Soultter and David Hoadley Trustees &c And the Chicago Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company, Abner C. Harding James Knox, Richard Gregg Ivory Quimby, Harvey Lightner Charles S. Clark and Charles H. Walker Cross Defendants

These causes having been heretofore called on for a final hearing, upon the Bills and Answers and Replications, on the Cross Bills answers and Replications, and upon the Report of the Special Masters, to whom it had been referred to take an account between the Peoria & Oquawka Rail Road Company, and the said Trustees, and also between that Company and the Chicago Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company, and Moss, Harding and others, associated under the name and style of Moss, Harding & Co. and to take testimony of the matters and charges alleged in the said pleadings, and there having been no exceptions taken to said Report, and the same having been confirmed, according to the Rules and practice of the Court, and it appearing to the satisfaction of this Court therefrom, that the said Defendants The Peoria & Oquawka Rail Road Company did on the tenth day of September, in the year of Our Lord, One Thousand, Eight Hundred and Fifty Three, being thereunto duly authorised by the Laws of the State of Illinois, and in conformity with the requirements of law, execute and deliver to the said original complainants, James T. Soultter and David Hoadley, as Trustees for such Bond Holders as might become interested thereunder, its said Indenture of Mortgage or Deed of Trust, wherein, and whereby it was witnessed among other things, that the Peoria and Oquawka Rail Road Company in order to secure the payment of certain Bonds, being in amount Seven hundred thousand Dollars in sums of one thousand Dollars each bearing date even with said Indenture, payable on the first day of May, A. D. 1873 and bearing interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum payable semiannually at the American Exchange Bank in New York, and to be numbered consecutively from 501 to 1200, inclusively and also to secure the payment of the interest thereon, and in consideration of one Dollar to it paid by the said Trustees, the payment whereof was therein acknowledged, had granted bargained and sold, transferred and conveyed, and by those presents did grant, bargain, sell, transfer and convey to the said James T. Soultter and David Hoadley Trustees as aforesaid, and their successors in the said Trust thereby created, and their assigns all the following then present, and in future to be acquired property of the said Company and all their rights, interest and equity of Redemption therein that is to say their Road made or to be made, west of the Illinois River (aforesaid) and all branches thereof made or to be made, including the right of way, and land occupied thereby, together with the superstruction and tracks thereon and all the cross timber materials furniture and property, purchased, or to be purchased or procured for the construction and equipment of said Road and branches, all Depot and Station grounds, and the buildings thereon all the side tracks, bridges, viaducts culverts fences, engines tenders, cars, tools, machinery materials, and all other personal property now, or hereafter to be acquired, the subscriptions to the Capital stock of said Company made or to be made for the construction of said Road and branches, together with the net Revenue and earnings to be derived therefrom, and all the rights, privileges and franchises of said Company, of, in, to, and concerning the same, nothing therein to be construed to prevent the Company from selling or hypothecating and bonds or other securities received in payment for stock or otherwise, or any lands, or property of the Company, not necessary to be retained for its roadways, Depots, Stations Etc. nor from collecting stock subscriptions, provided the proceeds should be applied to the construction of said road and branches and provided also, that no default should be made in the payment of the principal or interest on said Bonds.

To have and to hold the same premises and every part thereof, with the appurtenances unto the said James T. Souther, and David Hoadley, as Trustees aforesaid, their successors in said trust, and assigns, subject to the lien or incumbrance of Five hundred Thousand Dollars, created by a Mortgage executed by the said Peoria & Oquawka Rail Road Company to Wm. F. Colbaugh John F. A. Sanford and Luther C. Clark dated the second day of August A. D. 1852, and recorded in the office of the Recorder of Peoria Co. and of other Counties through which said Road runs, and confirmed by another deed duly recorded also the the same Parties, dated March 19, 1853, both executed to secure the payment of the said $500,000, and the interest thereon, to be paid semiannually, which said deed to said Souther and Hoadley was executed subject to said prior incumbrance as above stated, upon the following express trusts, that is to say, in case the Peoria and Oquawka Rail Road Company should fail to pay the principal or any of the interest on any of said Bonds intended to be secured thereby at any time, when the same should become due, and payable, according to the tenor thereof when demanded, then after Sixty Days after said default, upon the request of the holder, of any one of the said bonds the said Souther and Hoadley their successors and assigns might enter into, and take possession of all or any part of said premises, and as the attorneys in fact or Agents of said Company by themselves or agents or substitutes duly constituted lease, use, and employ the same, making from time to time all necessary repairs, alterations, and additions thereto, and after deducting the expenses of such use, repairs, alterations, and additions apply the proceeds of such premises to the payment of the principal and interest of all said Bonds, secured by said Deed of Trust unpaid, or the said parties of the second part, their successors in the said trust, and assigns, might at their discretion or the written request of the holders, of at least one half of the said bonds unpaid, and unconverted into stock, should cause the said premises, or so much thereof, as should be necessary to pay and discharge the principal and interest of all such bonds as might at the time be unpaid and unconverted as aforesaid, together with all the expenses of the sale, to be sold at public auction in the City of New York, giving at least forty days notice of the time and place of sale and of the specific property to be sold, by publishing the same in two of the principal newspapers in the City of New York, at the time being, and also in one of the principal newspapers in Peoria, Illinois, and Burlington, Iowa, at the time being, and execute to the purchaser or purchasers thereof a good and sufficient Deed or Deeds of Conveyance in fee simple for the same, which should be a bar against the said Peoria and Oquawka Rail Road Company—their successors and assigns, and all persons claiming under them of all right, interest or claim in or to the said premises, or any part thereof, and the said Trustees, shall after deducting the expenses, and costs of sale from the proceeds thereof, and also of managing said property, apply so much of the proceeds, as might be necessary to the payment of the said principal and interest, due or unpaid on said bonds, and restore the residue thereof to the said Company it having been also therein expressly understood and agreed on the part of the said Company, that in no case should any claim or advantage be taken of any valuation appraisment or extention laws; by the said Company, nor any injunction or stay of proceedings, or any process be obtained or applied for by it, to prevent entry or sale as aforesaid. And it was also in said indenture expressly understood and agreed that such sale, should be made subject to the said indenture of mortgage to the said Wm. F. Colbaugh, John F. A. Sanford and Luther C. Clark above described.

And it further appearing from the proceedings, and the said report, to the satisfaction of this court, that the said bonds to the amount of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars were made by the said Peoria and Oquawka Rail Road Company, under the security of the said indenture to said Colbaugh, Sandford and Clark, bearing interest at the rate of eight per cent. and payable half yearly in New York and that the said mortgage or deed to said Parties conveyed all that portion of the said companys railway which lies west of the Illinois River, and all its franchises, rights, and other property, except only that portion of its line of road and franchises which lie east of the West Bank of the said River and that no interest on the said bonds have been paid since November A. D. 1858, and that the principal debt, May 1, 1861, is $500,000, and that interest warrants at that time thereon remaining unpaid amounting to $107,160.00

And interest thereon, after due at the rate of six per cent amounted to	7,900.80

Being a total at that date of	$115,060.80.
-------------------------------	---------------

And it appearing also by the said proceedings—and the said Special Masters Report that the Peoria & Oquawka Rail Road Company made another series of bonds, Seven Hundred in number, each for the payment of $1,000, dated 10th September A. D. 1853 and payable May 1st A. D. 1873, with interest at the rate of eight per cent. payable semianually, in New York, under the said mortgage and indenture to the said original complainants Soultter and Hoadley and secured to be paid thereby as above stated, and that, of the series, Two Hundred and Fifty One are at large and absolute debts against the Company and that one hundred and nineteen, formerly hypothecated to the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company have been since sold to C. Harding & Co. and are now held by J. F. Joy, making in all absolutely sold, Three hundred and seventy bonds or $370,000, and that the balance three hundred and thirty, with the interest warrants attached are now held by the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company as collateral security for the performance of contracts, between those two companies. That the whole arrear of the bonds so held as collateral security including interest is as follows.

Bonds 330	$330,000.00
Interest coupons attached 4950 to May 1861	198,000
Interest at six per cent on said unpaid Coupons,	41,184.00

Being a total amount of bonds & interest $569,184.00

And that the amount of interest and principal of bonds sold so far as it has been possible to ascertain is as follows. 357 bonds held by various parties and presented before the Masters with their Coupons.

3651 Coupons from May 54, to May 1861,	146,040.00
Interest thereon at 6 per cent, after due to May 1, 1861,	23,084.60.
Being a total of principal and interest	$526,124.60

And it appearing also, that there are thirteen bonds outstanding and not to be found, their owners being unknown, and it appearing that there was past due and unpaid, on the first day of May, 1861 on the other three hundred and fifty seven bonds secured by the said Indenture to said Hoadley and Soultter as above stated, the amount of one hundred and Sixty nine thousand one hundred and twenty four dollars and sixty cents for interest upon said bonds and coupons.

And it further appearing that the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company is in possession of the portion of the Peoria and Oquawka Rail Road west of Galesburg, under an agreement, that it shall retain and possess and operate the same until the amount of the debt due to it for advances and loans of money made by it to the Peoria & Oquawka Rail Road Company are repaid by it, which said lease or claim is in the nature of a mortgage with possession thereunder, and which contract bears date October 3d 1854, and that thereunder the said portion of said road came into possession of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company, on the 17th day of March 1856, and it further appearing in like manner that upon the first day of November A. D. 1860 that there was a balance due to the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Rail Road Company from the Peoria & Oquawka Rail Road Company upon said contract in the nature of a mortgage and as security for which the said creditor Company had possession of the said Road west of Galesburg—and also of the said Three Hundred and Thirty bonds and coupons as above mentioned, and upon which there was past due of interest coupons and interest thereon the sum of Two Hundred and Thirty Nine Thousand one hundred and eighty four Dollars, May 1, 1861, which balance at that time amounted to the sum of Three Hundred and Twenty Nine Thousand seven hundred and twenty five dollars and seventy five cents

And it further appearing from the proceedings and the said report that under a construction contract, or contracts between certain persons known under the style of Moss, Harding & Co. who were at the time of the commencement of the suit and still are William S. Moss, Abner C. Harding Richard Gregg, James Knox, Charles H. Walker Charles S. Clark and Harvey Lightner, and the Peoria & Oquawka Rail Road Company for the construction of the road from Elmwood to Galesburg, the said parties Moss and others contracted to furnish the means for the construction of that portion of the road being a distance of forty one miles, furnishing all the money and materials both for its construction and equipment, and under which contract the said parties were to become and did become lessees of the whole of said Road from Peoria to Burlington, with the equipment subject to the rights therefor, created in favor of the Chicago Burlington & Quincy Rail Road Company on that part of said road west of Galesburg, with the right to retain possession occupancy, use and absolute control and management thereof, and of the equipment, until the amount due to them, from the Peoria & Oquawka Rail Road Company for advances on account of interest outstanding debt, loans, right of way rolling stock and construction of the Road and interest at ten per cent on such advances should be fully paid and satisfied, provided that no interest should be paid on the amount advanced for construction until November 1860.

And it further appearing, that the said Moss, and his said associates entered upon the possession and construction of said road under the said contract and also that upon the account taken before the special Masters and reported by them to the Court there was a balance due them on the first day of November 1860 for the advances made by them, for the construction of the Road under said contract or contracts exclusive of the value of the Rolling stock the sum of thirteen hundred and ninety four thousand, seven hundred and five Dollars and seventy four cents ($1,394,705.74)

And it appearing that the said Company has been long insolvent and unable to pay its debts, and that the said Moss and his said associates, and those claiming under or in connection with them, viz Tobias S. Bradley and Ivory Quimby, and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company are in the actual occupancy of the said Road from Peoria to Galesburg as mortgagees in possession or as lessees, in the nature of mortgagees holding the same as security for the respective debts or claims as aforesaid.

Now therefore the cause having been heretofore fully heard upon the arguments of the counsel for the respective parties as well upon the motions made by the counsel for the Peoria & Oquawka Rail Road Company for the dismissal of the cause, for want of jurisdiction and otherwise as upon the final hearing. It is by the Court ordered that the said motions be, and that the same are hereby overruled, and it is ordered adjudged and decreed by the Court that all and singular the said mortgaged or deeded premises mentioned and described in the said original bill of complaint in this cause, and hereinafter described more particularly, be sold at public auction, under the direction of J. T. Moulton one of the masters of this Court, unless previous to such sale the said Defendants or some of them pay to the said Complainants or such Trustees or to their Solicitor or to said Master the amount reported to be due for interest upon the said Three hundred and fifty seven bonds issued under, and secured by said Trust Deed to the said Complainants which sum amounted on the first day of May A. D. 1861, to the sum of One Hundred and Sixty Nine Thousand and One Hundred and twenty four Dollars—and sixty cents, and also the interest on that sum at the rate of six per cent per annum from the said date up to the time of payment and also the amount of the coupons for interest upon said bonds, which have fallen due upon said bonds since the first day of May A. D. 1861, with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum from the time of their maturity until the time of payment and also shall pay before said time of sale the interest which was due on three hundred and thirty (330) of said bonds, held as collateral security by the said Chicago Burlington & Quincy Rail Road Company on the same first day of May being in amount the sum of Two hundred and thirty nine Thousand one hundred and eighty four Dollars $239,184, together with interest thereon from that date up to the said time of payment at the rate of six per cent per annum and also the interest coupons on the Three hundred and thirty bonds, which have become due since that date and interest thereon, computed at six per cent. per annum from the time they respectively became due until said payment is made.

And it is further ordered that the said sale shall be made at Chicago after the period of one hundred days—from the rendition of the Decree, and that the master give public notice of the said sale and the time and place thereof according to the rules and practice of this Court, and that the Complainants or any of the parties to this suit may become purchaser or purchasers, at the said sale that the Master execute a deed of the said mortgaged premises to the purchaser or purchasers on said sale and that the said Master out of the proceeds of said sale retain his fees, disbursements and commissions on said sale and pay to the Complainants, or their Solicitor the amount reported to be due on the Three Hundred and fifty seven bonds for principal and interest and interest to be computed in the manner indicated in this decree up to the day of sale and also the amount of the principal of the Thirteen bonds not presented before the Commissioners and the interest thereon from May 1, 1861, computed in the same manner and also the sum of Three Hundred and Twenty Nine Thousand, seven hundred and twenty five Dollars and seventy five cents and the interest thereon, since the first day of November A. D. 1860, up to the time of said sale, being the amount for which the said Three hundred and thirty bonds and coupons stand pledged or so much thereof as the purchase money of the mortgaged premises will pay, for the same to be paid pro rata upon said amounts in proportion to amounts thereon, and that the Master take receipts for the amounts so paid, and file the same with his Report, and that if there shall then remain in his hands any further monies from the proceeds of said sale he shall out of the same pay to the Solicitor of the said Moss and his associates, the amount reported to be due to them with interest thereon at six per cent per annum from November 1st, 1860, or so far as the monies in his hands will enable him to do so, and that he bring the surplus monies arising from the said sale if any there shall be, into this Court without delay, to abide the further order of the Court.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the Defendants and all persons claiming under them or to claim under them or any of them, and all persons having a lien subsequent to the said Deed of Trust by Judgment or Decree or otherwise, upon the premises contained in said mortgage and his or their heirs or personal representatives and all persons having any lien by or under such judgment or decree or otherwise and all persons claiming under them be forever barred and foreclosed of and from all Equity of Redemption and claim, of, in or to the said deeded or mortgaged premises and every part and parcel thereof.

And it is further ordered that the purchaser or purchasers, at said sale, shall be let into possession of the said mortgaged premises, and that any of the parties in this cause who may be in possession of the said premises or any part thereof, or any persons, who since the commencement of this suit have come into possession under them or either of them deliver possession thereof to such purchaser or purchasers on production of the Masters Deed for such premises, and a certificate from the Clerk of this Court after the report of said sale shall have been confirmed that the same has been confirmed under the rules of the Court. And in case the said amount reported as actually due with the interest and costs of suit shall be paid before such sale, it is further ordered, that the said Complainants be at liberty, at any time hereafter when the principal sum or interest secured by said Bond or Deed of Trust and Mortgage, shall become due according to the conditions of said bond to go before a Master on the foot of this Decree, and procure a Report of the arrears which shall be due thereon, to the end, that upon the coming in and confirmation of such a report a decree may be made for a sale of said premises, to satisfy the amount which shall then be due with the interests and costs of such report and sale.

The descriptions and particular boundaries of the property authorised to be sold, under this decree as set forth in the said deed of trust or mortgage, and set forth in the said bill of complaint are as follows.

All the property of the Peoria and Oquawka Rail Road Company, and all its right interest, and equity of redemption therein that is to say. Its road west of the Illinois River, and all branches thereof which had been constructed before the tenth day of September A. D. 1853 and which has since been constructed or built including the right of way, and land occupied thereby, together with the superstructure and tracks thereon and all the iron, timber materials, furniture and property purchased by said company for the construction and equipment of the said road and branches all depot and station grounds and the buildings thereon, bridges viaducts, culverts fences, engines, tenders cars, tools and machinery materials and all other personal property acquired by the said company, and upon or used specifically or specially in the operation and management and control and maintenance of the said Rail Road of the said company—west of the Illinois together with the revenues and earnings, derived or to be derived therefrom, and all the rights, privileges and franchises of said Company of in and to and concerning the same.

And inasmuch as the property embraced in the said mortgage is only a part of a line of Rail Road, constructed by the said Company it is hereby declared to be the intention and design of this Decree to sell only that part of said Rail Road embraced in said mortgage, and the franchises and rights attached thereto in accordance with the terms of the mortgage, and Act of the Legislature by the authority of which the said mortgage was made but without in any way determining what effect such sale, when made will have upon the relations of the purchasers under said sale with the said company or others having rights interests or liens on other parts of the said line of Road but leaving the said Company and others having such rights, interests or liens and the public perfectly free to enforce or protect the same either at law or in equity as may be deemed just and reserving especially to any of the parties to this decree, and the proceedings herein or to their successors or assigns the right to apply hereafter to this Court by Petition, supplemental Bill, cross bill or otherwise to enforce and protect the same this Court retaining jurisdiction of the cause for that purpose intending hereby and such being the force and effect of this decree in manner aforesaid only to give effect to the security created under the authority of law, and in no degree to affect the rights interest and property which may exist in other parts of the line in the general franchises of the company or any other rights which may legally exist consistently with the rights of the creditors and purchasers under such a deed of trust so authorised to be made, which said sale however it is ordered and decreed shall be made subject expressly to all the rights and interests which William F. Colbaugh, John F. A. Sanford and Luther C. Clark or their successors or assigns may have as Trustees for Bond Holders, under a deed of trust, executed by the Peoria & Oquawka Rail Road Company to said parties dated August 2, A. D. 1852, and a certain other deed of trust in confirmation thereof, dated the 19th day of March A. D. 1853 to secure the payment of the principal and interest of Five Hundred Bonds, of One Thousand Dollars each, bearing interest at the rate of eight per cent payable semiannually and now outstanding and with Coupons unpaid since November 1, 1858.

And it is further ordered and decreed that all questions between the parties now in possession of the Road from Peoria to Burlington viz between Moss and his said associates and assigns and The Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Rail Road Company and the Peoria and Oquawka Rail Road Company touching the earnings and revenues of the said Road after the first day of November A. D. 1860, up to which date the special Masters have stated the account down to the time of said sale and the management of said Road for that period of time be reserved and held for the future consideration and orders of the Court.

At the instance of J. M. Walker Esq of Counsel for the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company, the following stipulations are ordered to be entered of Record, and are in the words and figures following, to wit, vs. The Peoria & Oquawka R. R. Co. & al.

A motion having been made in this cause to refer back the Masters report and for leave to take certain evidence on further directions at the suggestion of the Court, the following stipulation is made and executed by and between the counsel of the parties.

It is hereby stipulated that for the purpose of the hearing of this cause the following facts shall be deemed and taken as true

1 that of the two hundred and fifty secured mortgage bonds which remain after deducting the 119 owned by James F. Joy and the 330 pledged to the said Chicago Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company, Fifty belong to said Rail Road Company, and have been so owned since July 1853 and a majority of the remaining 200 to the stock holders of said Company

2. That the said 330 bonds were pledged to the said Company by the Peoria & Oquawka Rail Road Company, some considerable time after the execution and countersigning thereof but before the same had been negotiated sold or otherwise disposed of by said Company.

4. that on the day of 1860 the said Moss & his associates assigned to Charles F. Hillyer, Trustee for the Chicago Burlington & Quincy Rail Road Company & Moss, Harding & Co. the lease of part of said Peoria & Oquawka Rail Road to said Moss & his associates set forth in the pleadings in this case and all their rights and interests in the said Road west of Peoria and the equipments mentioned in the contracts connected with said lease to secure the payment to Moss, Harding & Co. the amount agreed to be paid therefor by the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Rail Road Company, that Company having contracted to purchase the same a copy or the original of said assignment is to be placed in the hands of the Honourable Judge of this Court, to be used in evidence in this cause, so far as he deems it admissible and proper at this stage of the case & material & important to the questions therein, before a final decree is rendered.

5 since the execution of the said assignment The Chicago Burlington & Quincy Rail Road Company has not interchanged cars either passengers or freight at Peoria with the Road east of that point & all freight & passengers going from the road East to the road west of that point & vice versa, have been there transshipped and it claims the right to have all freight and passengers transshipped there, if the interests of the Road west of that point will be promoted by it, & to manage the road in such a manner as will subject it to the least expense & earn the largest amount of money without reference to any other interests & that it can not be required to allow the trains of the Road east to run over the road west of Peoria in addition to its own trains upon the road or itself to draw those trains in addition to its own trains there running & that it can not be required allow its cars to run upon the road east of Peoria if it is not the interest of the Road west of Peoria. It admits, that acting upon this claimed right it has declined to interchange cars, and to allow the trains from the east of Peoria to run west & has declined to draw them or allow its trains to go east & its cars & therefore all freight & passengers have been transshipped at that point going both ways. These stipulations & admissions to be used in this suit alone for which purpose solely it is given

NOTICE AND PUBLICATION CERTIFICATE

September 20, 1862, to October 21, 1862.

NOTICE.—Master's Sale of the West End of the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue and in pursuance of a decree of the Circuit Court of the United States for the Northern District of Illinois, made in a cause in Chancery, therein pending wherein James T. Soultter and David Hoadley, trustees, &c., are complainants, and the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, William S. Moss, Abner C. Harding, Richard Gregg, James Knox, Charles H. Walker, Charles S. Clark, Harvey Lightner, Tobias S. Bradley, and Ivory Quimby, are defendants, and in the cross suit, wherein the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company, William S. Moss and Tobias S. Bradley are complainants, and the said James T. Soultter and David Hoadley, trustees, &c., the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, Abner C. Harding, James Knox, Richard Gregg, Ivory Quimby, Harvey Lightner, Charles S. Clark and Charles H. Walker, are cross defendants, the undersigned, J. T. Moulton, Special Master of the said Court, duly appointed in the said decree for that purpose, will sell at public auction, at the south door of the Post Office and Custom House building, in the city of Chicago, in said State and Northern District of Illinois, on TUESDAY, the twenty first day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, to the highest and best bidder for cash, the following described premises and property, to wit: All the property of the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company, and all its rights, interest, and equity of redemption therein, that is to say, its road west of the Illinois River, and all branches thereof, which had been constructed before the tenth day of September, A. D. 1853 and which has since been constructed or built, including the right of way and land occupied thereby, together with the superstructure and tracks thereon, and all the iron, timber, materials, furniture, and property purchased by said Company for the construction and equipment of the said road and branches, all depot and station grounds, and the buildings thereon, bridges, viaducts, culverts, fences, engines, tenders, cars, tools and machinery, materials, and all other personal property acquired by the said Company, and upon, or used specifically or specially in the operation and management and control and maintenance of the said railroad of the said Company west of the Illinois, together with the revenues and earnings derived or to be derived therefrom and all the rights, privileges and franchises of said Company, of, in and to, and concerning the same. And that the suit in which the said decree is made was brought to foreclose the second mortgage on that portion of the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad which lies west of the Illinois River, and it is therefore hereby declared to be the intention and design to sell only that part of the said railroad embraced in the said mortgage, and the franchises and rights attached thereto, in accordance with the terms of the mortgage and act of the Legislature, by the authority of which the said mortgage was made; and that at said sale the complainants or any of the parties to said cause will, in virtue of said decree be entitled to bid; and that said sale will be made subject to all the rights and interests of which William F. Colbaugh, John F. A. Sandford and Luther C. Clark, or their successors or assigns may have as trustees for bondholders, under a deed of trust executed by the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company to said parties, dated August 2d, A. D. 1852, and a certain other deed of trust, in confirmation thereof, dated the 19th day of March, A. D. 1853, to secure the payment of the principal and interest of five hundred bonds of one thousand dollars each, bearing interest at the rate of eight per cent., payable semiannually and now outstanding, and with coupons unpaid since November 1st, 1858. Notice is also given that it is provided in said decree that the defendants, and all persons claiming under them or to claim under them or any of them, and all persons having a lien subsequent to the said deed of trust, by judgment or decree, or otherwise upon the premises contained in the said mortgage, and his or their heirs or personal representatives, and all persons having any lien by or under such judgment or decree, or otherwise, and all persons claiming under them, be forever barred and foreclosed of and from all equity of redemption and claim of, in, and to the said deeded or mortgaged premises, and every part and parcel thereof; and that the purchaser or purchasers at said sale shall be let into possession of the said mortgaged premises and that any of the parties in this cause, who may be in possession of the said premises, or any part thereof, or any persons who, since the commencement of said suit, have come into possession under them or either of them, deliver possession thereof to such purchaser or purchasers on production of the Master's deed for such premises and a certificate from the Clerk of said Court, after the report of said sale shall have been confirmed, that the same has been confirmed under the rules of said Court.

J. T. MOULTON, Special Master.

MASTER'S DEED, October 21, 1862, to Sidney Bartlett, et. al.
No. 38491.

Filed February 23d A.D. 1863 at 11 o'clock A. M.

This Indenture made this twenty first day of October A.D. 1862, between J. T. Moulton of Chicago a special master designated by the order of the Circuit Court of the United States for the Northern district of Illinois as hereinaftermentioned of the first part and Sidney Bartlett Esq. Nathaniel Thayer and John W. Brooks, of the City of Boston in the State of Massachusetts of the second part:

Whereas at a Session of said Court held at Chicago, on the Eleventh day of July A.D. 1862 it was among other things ordered, adjudged and decreed by the said Court on certain causes then depending in said Court wherein the original Complainants were James T. Souther and David Hoadley Trustees for the holders of bonds issued under the mortgage described in their said bill of Complaint and the original defendants were the Peoria and Oquawka Rail Road Company, The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company William S. Moss, Abner C. Harding, Richard Gregg, James Knox, Charles H. Walker, Charles S. Clark, Harvey Leightner Tobias S. Bradley and Ivory Quimby, and in the Cross suit the said Peoria and Oquawka Rail Road Company, William S. Moss and Tobias S. Bradley were Cross Complainants and the said Hoadley and Souther Trustees, and the Chicago Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company, Abner C. Harding, James Knox, Richard Gregg, Ivory Quimby, Harvey Leightner, Charles S. Clark and Charles H. Walker were the defendants that the mortgaged premises mentioned and set forth and referred to in the said original bill of Complaint in the said cause and hereinafter particularly described should be sold at public auction by and under the direction of J. T. Moulton being one of the masters of said Court but by said decree made special master to make said sale at Chicago after a period of one hundred days from the rendition of said decree after giving public notice of the time and place of such sale according to the rules and practice of said Court,

And whereas the said special master, J. T. Moulton and the party of the first part to these presents, did on the twenty first day of October, after having advertised the same according to the rules and practice of this Court, at the time and place mentioned in said advertisement sell at public auction the said mortgaged premises hereinafter more particularly described agreeable to the order aforesaid; at which time the said premises were struck off to the parties of the second part to these presents for the sum of Two Million, three hundred and twenty thousand dollars, that being the highest sum bidden for the same, but subject to all the rights and interests which William F. Coolbaugh, John F. A. Sanford and Luther C. Clark or their successors or assigns might have therein as trustees for bondholders under a deed of trust Executed by the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company to said parties dated August 2nd AD 1852 and a certain other deed confirming the same dated April 19th AD 1853 to secure the payment of principal and interest of five Hundred bonds of one thousand dollars each bearing interest at the rate of Eight per cent with the Coupons unpaid since November 1st 1858

Now therefore this Indenture witnesseth that the said J. T. Moulton master in Chancery in said Court and specially designated as aforesaid and party of the first part to these presents in order to carry into effect the said sale so made as aforesaid in pursuance of the decree of the said Circuit Court of the United States and in consideration of the premises and of the said sum of Two million three hundred and twenty thousand dollars paid by the party of the second part to these presents to me the said J. T. Moulton master as aforesaid the receipt whereof he doth hereby acknowledge hath granted, bargain and sold, aliened, released and confirmed and by these presents doth grant, bargain, sell, alien, release, convey and confirm unto the said parties of the second part and the survivor or survivors of them and their assigns and the heirs and assigns of the survivor of them forever all the property mentioned and referred to in the said bill of Complaint and described therein and in said decree as follows viz:

All the property of the Peoria and Oquawka Rail Road Company and all its rights, interests and equity of redemption therein, that is to say its road west of the Illinois river and all branches thereof which had been constructed before the tenth day of September A.D. 1853 and which has since been constructed and built including the right of way and the land occupied thereby together with all the superstructure and tracts thereon and all the iron, timber, materials, furniture and property purchased by said Company for the construction and equipment of the said road and branches. All Depot and Station grounds and the buildings thereon, bridges, viaducts, culverts, fences, engines, tenders, cars, tools and machinery materials and other personal property acquired by the said Company and upon or used specifically or specially in the operation and management and control, and maintenance of the said Rail Road of the said Company west of the Illinois river together with all the revenues and earnings derived or to be derived therefrom and all the rights and privileges of said Company of, in and to and concerning the same. The property hereby sold being only that part of the road embraced in said mortgage and the franchises and rights attached thereto in accordance with the terms of said mortgage and the acts of the Legislature by the authority of which the said mortgage was made and the terms of said decree together with the hereditaments and appurtenances to the same belonging or in anywise appertaining.

To Have and to Hold the same and all and singular the said premises above mentioned and described and hereby granted and conveyed or intended to be so unto the parties of the second part their survivor or survivors or to the assigns of them or the survivors of them and the heirs of the survivor of them to the only proper use and benefit and behoof of the said parties of the second part, survivors or assigns or heirs as aforesaid

In witness whereof the said J. T. Moulton master as aforesaid has hereunto set his hand and seal the day and year above written at Chicago Illinois

STATE OF ILLINOIS:

Be it remembered & certified that on the Eighth day of March in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred & Sixty Four at the hour of Twelve o'clock at noon of the said day at the office of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Rail Road Company in the city of Chicago in said State was holden a meeting of all the stockholders or parties interested in & owning that part of the Peoria & Oquaka Rail Road situated & lying & being west of the Illinois River, consisting of all the original purchasers of the same at the Masters Sale under & in virtue of a decree rendered by the Circuit Court of the United States in & for the Northern District of Illinois in a cause wherein James T. Souther & David Hoadly trustees for bondholders were complainants & the Peoria & Oquaka Rail Road Company & many others were defendants which said sale was made on the twentieth day of October A.D. 1862 & of such other parties as they have associated with them under & in accordance with the provision of an Act of the Legislature of the State of Illinois to enable the purchasers of the West End of the Peoria & Oquaka Rail Road sold under mortgage deeds of Trust or otherwise to become a corporation duly approved on the 10th day of June 1863—which said original parties were Sidney Bartlet, Nathaniel Thayer & John W. Brooks which said parties associated with them were John Van Nortwick, Amos T. Hall, Edward J. Hale, Francis H. Peabody, John N. Dennison, & James F. Joy.

And be it further certified & remembered that the said meeting was held in pursuance of a call for the same fixing the time & place thereof in writing signed by all of the said stockholders or parties in interest—and that at the said meeting all of the said parties were represented either by themselves in person or by their proxy & that John Van Nortwick, Amos T. Hall & James F. Joy were present in person & the remaining stockholders were present by their proxy James F. Joy duly authorized, & that at the said meeting the said Van Nortwick was chosen President thereof, & the said Amos T. Hall was appointed Secretary thereof—and that thereafter the said meeting proceeded to ballot for nine directors to constitute a Board of Directors for the year thereafter ensuing or until their successors should be duly elected & upon such balloting there were cast ten thousand votes representing ten thousand shares of stock & that all the said votes were cast for & in favor of each of the following named parties viz. Sidney Bartlet, Nathaniel Thayer, John W. Brooks, Edward J. Hale, Francis H. Peabody, John N. Dennison John Van Nortwick, Amos T. Hall & James F. Joy, who were therefore declared duly elected as such Directors & for such period of time.

And be it further certified that at the said meeting it was on motion Resolved that the name & designation of the company or corporation to be organized for the management of the said road & as a Board of Directors in & for which the said parties were elected as above stated should be the Peoria & Burlington Rail Road Company which name was then & there adopted as the name & designation of said corporation.

And further be it certified that at said meeting it was made to appear that the capital stock of & in the said property was ten thousand shares of one hundred dollars each & that number only & that of the said number of shares John Van Nortwick & Amos T. Hall owned each ten shares—James F. Joy owned fourteen shares—Edward J. Hale, Francis H. Peabody & John N. Dennison each owned ten shares & that Nathaniel Thayer, & Sidney Bartlet & John W. Brooks each owned Thirty Three Hundred & Twelve shares & that the said Thayer, Bartlet, Brooks, Peabody, Hall & Dennison had in writing & by their power of Attorney duly constituted the said James F. Joy their proxy to represent them & each of them & vote upon their shares at the said meeting.

And further be it certified that the said meeting was in accordance with the said call & was held by the terms thereof for the election of Directors & for the transaction of such other business as might come before it & that the said stock had been created by the said Bartlet, Thayer & Brooks the said purchasers by issuing to each of themselves individually & to said other parties who had become interested, certificates of stock signed by themselves jointly in shares of One Hundred Dollars each to the full amount of the interest held by each party & that the whole amount of said stock was One Million of Dollars & that the said call for said meeting & the certificate of the ownership of said stock duly signed by said Bartlet, Thayer & Brooks & the amount thereof—and the proxies or powers of Attorney to represent & vote upon the stock of the absent parties, as above stated given to said Joy, & the form of the stock certificates issued are on file with the said Secretary of said meeting to be recorded with & upon the records of the Corporation to be organized by the said proceedings & the filing of these certificates.

In witness of all which things & statements the said stockholders have all of them hereto set their seals & signatures personally this the Twenty-third day of March A.D. 1864. & the said Peoria & Burlington Rail Road hath hereto annexed its corporate seal by J. W. Brooks, its President therto duly authorized.

CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & QUINCY RAILROAD COMPANY

(Present Company)

The present company was created June 24, 1864 by the Articles of Consolidation between the Peoria & Burlington Rail Road Company and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company, the Articles being filed with the Secretary of State of Illinois July 11, 1864.

This company continued until its corporate existence was extended from June 24, 1914, as a corporation under the General Laws of the State of Illinois relating to Railroads, by action taken pursuant to the provisions of an Act of the Legislature, approved June 7, 1911.

The first meeting of this company was held at Chicago, Illinois, June 24, 1864. The officers and directors of The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company retained their respective offices.

This company was, from the date of its organization, the owner of the following railroad:

1. From a connection with the Pennsylvania Railroad (P. Ft. W. & C. Ry.) at the intersection of Stewart Avenue and West Fifteenth (15th) Place (now vacated) in the City of Chicago; thence southwesterly to Galesburg depot, a distance of one hundred and sixty-one and 48/100 (161.48) miles.

2. From a connection with the line last above described, at Aurora, Illinois, thence northerly to a connection with the Galena & Chicago Union Railroad (now Chicago and Northwestern) at Turner Junction, Illinois, a distance (first main) of 12.02 miles.

3. Peoria, Illinois, westerly via Galesburg to East Burlington, Illinois, a distance (first main) of 93.66 miles.

4. Yates City to Lewistown, 30.14 miles.

5. Quincy to Galesburg, 99.91 miles.

Total mileage owned, 397.21 miles, all in Illinois.

It also owned jointly with the Chicago and Northwestern Railway Company a right of way and the tracks thereon extending from a connection with the St. Charles Air Line property at the west bank of the Chicago River, thence westerly to a connection with this company's main line in Depot Street west of Stewart Avenue, a distance of seventeen hundredths (0.17) miles.

(Lewistown-Rushville)

Of date April 25, 1868, in order to secure the construction of the extension from Lewistown to Rushville, this company executed a contract with James F. Joy, who acted as agent for the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, whereby The Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company conveyed to Joy all of its property, rights and franchises, the said Joy on his part agreeing to provide the means to construct and equip the road and afterwards to operate it.

By deed dated May 7, 1868, James F. Joy, Agent, conveyed the extension from Lewistown to Rushville to the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company.

Of date June 14, 1873 James F. Joy made a deed to the C. B. & Q. Company confirming its title to the Peoria and Hannibal property.

By lease dated March 15, 1899, for twenty-five years, The Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company confirmed its conveyances of date November 4, 1861, and April 25, 1868, to the agents of the Burlington Company.

By deed dated June 1, 1899, this company confirmed its previous conveyances as above particularly set out, and conveyed its corporate rights and franchises to the Burlington Company.

THE JACKSONVILLE AND SAVANNA RAILROAD COMPANY

This company was created by a Special Act of the Illinois Legislature in force February 14, 1855, with authority to build a railroad from Jacksonville to Savanna, and to unite its railroad with any other railroad. Its organization was legalized by an act of the Legislature in force February 21, 1859. With C. B. & Q. aid, the company was able to grade and bridge its line from Yates City to a point four miles South of Canton (St. David) by August 24, 1861, with a track at Yates City connecting with the road of the Peoria and Oquawka Company, then in possession of and operated by the C. B. & Q. Company.

Of date November 4, 1861, The Jacksonville and Savanna Railroad Company made a contract with James F. Joy and J. W. Brooks (who acted in this transaction as the agents of The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company), whereby the said Joy and Brooks became the purchasers of the right of way, roadbed and all other property of this company, and undertook in behalf of their principal to complete, equip and operate the line of railroad from Yates City to a point four miles south of Canton (St. David), where a connection was made with The Peoria & Hannibal Railroad.

Of date November 6, 1861, James F. Joy and J. W. Brooks by deed conveyed to The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company all of the property of The Jacksonville and Savanna Railroad Company, and in this deed the Burlington Company agreed "to operate, control and own and manage the said railroad and all other rights under their said contract and purchase."

The line was completed to Canton May 2, 1862, and has always been operated by the Burlington Company.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved February 14, 1855.

AN ACT to incorporate the Jacksonville and Savanna Railroad Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, repre- sented in the General Assembly, That Franklin Farewell, Willard Dicker-man, Thompson Maple, John W. Ingersoll and William Babcock, and their associates, successors and assigns, are hereby created a body corporate and politic, under the name and style of "The Jacksonville and Savanna Railroad Company," with perpetual succession; and by that name be and they are hereby made capable in law and equity to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, defend and be defended in any court of law and equity in this State, or any other place; to make, have and use a common seal, and the same to renew and alter at pleasure; and shall be and are hereby vested with all the powers, privileges and immunities which are or may be necessary to carry into effect the purposes and objects of this act as hereinafter set forth; and said company are hereby authorized and empowered to locate, construct and finally complete a railroad from the city of Jacksonville, by the way of Liverpool and Canton, to the town of Savanna, on the Mississippi river; said railroad to be laid out and constructed by the most direct and eligible route from the said city of Jacksonville to the said city of Savanna, and for this purpose said company are authorized, upon the most eligible and direct route, to lay out their said road, not exceeding one hundred feet in width, through the whole length, and for the purpose of cuttings, embankments, stone and gravel may take as much more land as may be necessary for the proper construction of and security of said railroad.

§ 2. The capital stock of said company shall consist of two millions of dollars, to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each. The immediate government and direction of said company shall be vested in seven directors, who shall be chosen by the stockholders of said company in the manner hereinafter provided, who shall hold their offices for one year after their election and until others shall be duly elected and qualified to take their places as directors; and the said directors, a majority of whom shall form a quorum for the transaction of business, shall elect one of their number to be the president of the company; that said board of directors shall have power to appoint all necessary clerks, secretary, treasurer and other officers necessary in the transaction of business of said company.

§ 3. The said corporation are hereby authorized by their agents, surveyors and engineers, to cause such examinations and surveys to be made of the ground and country between said city of Jacksonville and the said city of Savanna as shall be necessary to determine the most advantageous route for the proper line or course whereon to construct their said railroad; and it shall be lawful for said company to enter upon and take possession of and use all such lands and real estate as will or may be necessary for the construction and maintenance of said railroad, its depots, side tracks, water stations, engine houses, machine shops and other buildings and appendages necessary to the construction and working of said road: Provided, that all the land or real estate entered upon or taken possession of and by said corporation, for the purpose and accommodation of said railroad, or upon which the site of said railroad shall have been located or determined by the said corporation, shall be paid for by said company, in damages, if any be sustained by the owner or owners thereof, by the use of the same for the purposes of said railroad; and all lands entered upon and taken for the use of said corporation which are not donated to said company, shall be paid for by said corporation, at such price as may be mutually agreed upon by the said corporation and the owner or owners of such lands, and in case of disagreement the price shall be estimated, fixed and recovered in the manner provided for taking lands for the construction of public roads, canals or other public works, as prescribed by the act concerning the right of way, approved March 3, 1845, or according to the provisions of an act entitled "An Act to amend the law condemning the right of [way] for purposes of internal improvement," approved June 22, 1852.

§ 4. If any person shall wilfully, maliciously or wantonly and contrary to law obstruct the passage of any car on said railroad, or any part thereof, or anything belonging thereto, or shall damage, break or destroy any part of the said railroad, or implements or buildings, he, she or they, or any person assisting, shall forfeit* and pay to said company for every such offence treble the amount of damages that shall be proved before any competent court shall have been sustained, and be sued for in the name and behalf of said company, and such offender or offenders shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to an indictment in the same manner as other indictments are found in any county or counties where such offense shall have been committed, and upon conviction every such offender shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, for the use of the county where such indictment may be found, and may be imprisoned in the county jail for any time not exceeding six months, at the discretion of the court.

§ 5. The time for holding the annual meetings of said company for the election of directors shall be fixed and determined by the by-laws of said company; and at all meetings each stockholder shall be entitled to a vote, in person or lawful proxy, one vote for each share of stock he, she or they may hold bona fide in said company, upon which all installments called have been paid.

§ 6. Franklin Farewell, Willard Dickerman, Thompson Maple, John W. Ingersoll and William Babcock are hereby appointed commissioners, who, or a majority of whom, after a meeting duly called by twenty days' notice in newspapers published in Fulton and Morgan counties, are hereby authorized to open subscription books for said stock, at such places as they may deem proper, and keep said books open until one thousand dollars of said capital stock shall be taken. Said commissioners shall require each subscriber to pay ten dollars on each share subscribed at the time of subscribing; the said commissioners shall immediately thereafter call a meeting of stockholders, by giving thirty days' notice in some newspaper printed in the counties of Fulton and Morgan, and at such meeting it shall be lawful to elect the directors of said company; and when the directors of said company are chosen, the said commissioners shall deliver said subscription books, with all sums of money received by them as commissioners to said directors. No person shall be a director in said company unless he shall own at least four shares of the capital stock.

§ 7. That the right of way and the real estate purchased for the right of way by said company, whether by mutual agreement or otherwise, or which shall become the property of said company by operation of law as in this act provided, shall upon the payment of the amount of money belonging to the owner or owners of said land as a compensation for the same, become the property of said company in fee simple.

§ 8. The said corporation may take and transport upon said railroad any person or persons, merchandise or other property, by the force and power of steam or animal or any combination of them, and may fix, establish, take and receive such rates of toll for all passengers and property transported upon the same, as the said directors shall from time to time establish; and the directors are hereby authorized and empowered to make all necessary rules, by-laws, regulations and ordinances that they may deem necessary and expedient to accomplish the designs and purposes and to carry into effect the provisions of this act, and for the transfer and assignment of its stock, which is hereby declared personal property, and transferable in such manner as shall be provided by the by-laws and ordinances of said company.

§ 9. In case of death or removal of the president, vice president, or any director, at any time between the annual elections, such vacancy shall be filled for the remainder of the year, whenever they may happen, by the board of directors; and in case of absence of the president and vice president, the board of directors shall have power to appoint a president pro tempore, who shall [have] and exercise such powers and functions as the by-laws of said corporation may provide; in case it should at any time happen that an election shall not be made on any day on which in pursuance of this act it ought to have been made, the said corporation shall not for that cause be deemed dissolved, but such election shall be held at any time directed by the by-laws of said corporation.

§ 10. That when the lands of any femme covert, person under age, non compos mentis, or out of the State shall be taken in the construction of said railroad, as is provided by this act, the said corporation shall pay the amount that shall be awarded as due to the last mentioned owners respectively, whenever the same shall be lawfully demanded, together with six per cent. per annum. That the damages to be paid by said company for the taking of the land of the persons named in this section shall be estimated and assessed in the manner now in such cases provided by law.

§ 11. Whenever it shall be necessary for the construction of said railroad to intersect or cross a track of any other railroad, or any stream of water or water course, or road or highway on the route of said road, it shall be lawful for the company to construct their railroad across or upon the same: Provided, that the said company shall restore the railroad, stream of water, water course, road or highway thus intersected or crossed to its former state, or in a sufficient manner not materially to impair its usefulness.

§ 12. Said company shall have the power to unite its railroad with any other railroad now constructed, or which may hereafter be constructed within this State on the line of said railroad, or at the terminus thereof, upon such terms as may be mutually agreed upon between the companies so connecting, and for that purpose full power is hereby given to said company to make and execute such contract with other company as will secure the objects of such connection.

§ 13. That the said Jacksonville and Savanna Railroad Company shall have power to borrow money on the credit of the company, not exceeding its authorized capital stock, at a rate of interest not exceeding ten per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, and may execute bonds therefor, with interest coupons thereto annexed, and secure the payment of the same by mortgage or deed of trust on the whole or any part thereof of the road, property and income of the company then existing or thereafter to be acquired, and may annex to such mortgage bonds the privilege of converting the same into the capital stock of the company at par, at the option of the holders, if such election be signified in writing to the company three years before the maturity of said bonds.

§ 14. That the directors of said company be and they are hereby authorized to negotiate and sell the bonds of the said company at such times and in such places, either within or without this State, and at such rates and for such prices as in their opinions will best advance the interests of the company; and if such bonds are thus negotiated or sold at a discount below their par value, such sale and disposition thereof shall be as valid and binding on the company in every respect as if they were sold or disposed of at their par value.

§ 15. That the said company in securing the payment of said bonds by a mortgage or deed of trust on the road, property and income of the company, shall have power to execute a mortgage or deed of trust as aforesaid, to secure the payment of the full amount of bonds which the company may, at time the said deed of trust or mortgage bears date, or at any time thereafter, desire to sell and dispose of, and may execute and sell from time to time, such amounts of said bonds, and of such dates, and payable to such person or persons as to the directors of said company may seem advisable, till the whole amount of bonds mentioned in such mortgage or deed of trust is executed and sold, and the said mortgage or deed of trust shall be as valid and effectually to secure the payment of the bonds so executed and sold, and of every part thereof, as if the same and every part thereof had been executed of even date with said deed of trust or mortgage: Provided, said road shall be commenced within four years and completed within eight years from the passage of this act.

§ 16. This act to be in force from and after its passage.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved February 16, 1857.

AN ACT to amend the charter of the Jacksonville and Savanna Railroad Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That said Jacksonville and Savanna Railroad Company are hereby empowered and authorized to continue the line of its road from Savanna to the city of Galena, on the most passable and practicable route; and shall have, for that purpose, all the rights, powers and privileges that are granted to said company in its said charter; and said line of road, from Savanna to Galena, shall be and become a part and portion of said Jacksonville and Savanna Railroad, and shall be constructed, erected, equipped and operated as such.

§ 2. Said Jacksonville and Savanna Railroad Company are hereby authorized to construct their said road along, upon and across any line of railroad heretofore located and constructed, in whole or in part, by the State, lying between said town of Savanna and city of Galena, and that all the grading, bridging, masonry and right of way done or owned thereon shall, upon such location, be vested in said Jacksonville and Savanna Railroad Company: Provided, however, that should said grading, work, masonry, bridging and right of way be appropriated by any other railroad company, having authority to do so, before the location by said Jacksonville and Savanna Railroad Company of its road on, along and over such work, grading, bridging, and masonry, then the right of said Jacksonville and Savanna Railroad Company thereto shall cease.

§ 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved February 21, 1859.

AN ACT to further amend the charter of the Jacksonville and Savanna Railroad Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the Jacksonville and Savanna Railroad Company, as the same is at present organized under the provisions of an act entitled "An Act to incorporate the Jacksonville and Savanna Railroad Company," approved February 14th, 1855, is hereby declared to be legally organized; and said company shall not only have the rights, powers and privileges conferred by said act, but in addition thereto, shall have power and authority to have, receive, hold, sell and dispose of any donations of real and personal property, for the use of said company, and to acquire, by purchase, and hold any real or personal property for the use of said company, in constructing or operating said railroad, or to sell the same, if found not necessary or proper to be retained for that purpose.

§ 2. The board of directors of said company shall have power, from time to time, to open subscription books, in which to fill up subscriptions to the capital stock of said company. And may obtain subscriptions, by agents or otherwise, to any amount or amounts not exceeding three millions of dollars; and it shall be lawful for the said board to require payment of the sum or sums subscribed to said capital stock, at such times and in such proportions, and on such conditions and from such stockholders as they shall deem fit, under the penalty of the forfeiture of all previous payments thereon, and shall give notice of the payments thus required as herein provided for.

§ 3. The said Jacksonville and Savanna Railroad Company shall have power to issue its bonds in sums not less than five hundred dollars for each bond, bearing interest at not exceeding ten per cent. per annum, for such amount as may be necessary to construct, complete, equip and put into full operation the whole or any part or parts of its said road from Jacksonville, in Morgan county, by Liverpool and Canton, in Fulton county, to Savanna, in Carroll county, and, also, to Galena, in Jo Daviess county; and to sell said bonds at above or below par, and on such terms as said company may determine or agree on; and said company shall never interpose the plea of usury in any action upon any of said bonds, even though they should be sold below par, within or without the limits of this State.

§ 4. Said company shall have power to mortgage or make deeds of trust on all or any part of the property or franchises owned by said company, to secure the payment of such bonds as said company may issue or such sums of money as said company agree to pay, for any purposes connected with the construction or operation of the railroad aforesaid; and it may be provided in said deed of trust or mortgage, or in any contract that the board of directors of said company may make for the sale of said bonds, or for the purchase of rails, or other materials for constructing said road, or for rolling stock; that all or any part of the net revenue of said railroad shall be inevitably pledged and exclusively assessed, annually, or semi-annually, to the payment of the principal and redemption of said mortgage, bonds or any part thereof; and all such contracts shall be legal and binding.

§ 5. The said company shall [have] power, from time to time, to make and ordain such rules and by-laws, and alter and amend the same, as may be necessary for the government of the company, its servants and agents; and the certificate of the secretary or principal clerk of said company, under the seal of said company, shall be received in all courts and places as evidence of said rules and by-laws, the appointment of agents or officers, or any order of said company, and also of the due organization thereof: Provided, that the board of directors of said company may make one by-law which shall be irrevocable by said board, to wit: a by-law providing that a majority of two-thirds of the directors of said board shall be residents of the counties through which the line of said road passes, and that a change of the residence of any director from the counties on said line shall, of itself, make the office of such director vacant, which vacancy shall be filled as in other cases; and after the adoption and entering of said by-law upon the minutes of the proceedings of said board by the secretary of the company, the same shall become and remain in full force until repealed by the General Assembly.

§ 6. When said company shall have decided to unite its road with any other railroad authorized to be built, but not completed, the said company may make such contract in regard to the building of said road, at the joint expense of the two companies, as to them may seem just and equitable.

§ 7. Said company shall have power to consolidate or otherwise unite its railroad or its railroad property and franchises with the property, franchises, and railroad of any other railroad company or companies, now constructed, or which may hereafter be constructed within this State, on the route or at either terminus of said railroad, upon such terms as may be mutually agreed upon between the companies so connecting; and full power is hereby given to said company to make and execute such contracts with any other company or companies as will secure the objects of such consolidation or connections.

§ 8. The said company is hereby authorized to receive subscriptions to the capital stock of the company, payable at any time or in any manner that may be specially agreed upon by the company and the subscribers thereof; and said agreement may bear such interest as may be contracted for; and for securing the payment of the same the said company may take the bond or bonds of said subscriber or subscribers, and a mortgage or mortgages, deed or deeds of trust, upon real estate. Upon a failure to pay any sum or sums of money agreed to be paid, as aforesaid, or the interest on the same, as the same may accrue, the said company may foreclose such mortgage or mortgages, or sell and convey the real estate, agreeably to the provisions of said deed or deeds of trust. The bonds or mortgages or deeds of trust, herein provided for, may be assigned or transferred by the said company, and such assignment shall vest in the assignee or assignees the legal title thereto.

§ 9. The said company may, if it deems it advisable, locate, construct, fully complete and operate said road, or any part or parts thereof, by or in divisions of such length, and with such names or numbers as may, by order of the board of directors, be determined upon.

§ 10. Said company is authorized to build a railroad bridge across the Illinois river, at or near Liverpool, leaving a sufficient draw and space for the safe passage of steamboats and other river craft, and not making any material obstruction to the navigation of said river.

§ 11. The said company shall carry and transport the mail of the United States, on such terms as may be agreed upon, and all such freights and passengers as may be offered, if required so to do, on the terms usual with like railroad companies.

§ 12. That the board of directors are hereby authorized to make and issue calls for the payments of stock that have been or may hereafter be subscribed to the capital stock of the company, in such manner, at such time and in such localities as may, in the opinion of the board of directors or a majority thereof, be for the best interests of the company, or as may be agreed upon between the subscribers and the company.

§ 13. That the board of directors of said company, or a majority thereof, are hereby authorized to accept this act, and the same and all the provisions thereof shall be in force and become binding upon said company and the stockholders thereof, and all other persons or corporations, whenever the same is accepted by the said board of directors, or by a majority thereof, by vote duly entered on the records of said company.

§ 14. This act, as also the original charter of said company and the acts amendatory thereto, shall be deemed public acts, and shall be so received and taken notice of in all courts.

§ 15. This act to take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

DEED, November 4, 1861, The Jacksonville and Savanna Railroad Company to J. W. Brooks et al.

This Indenture, made and entered into this fourth day of November A. D. 1861 between the Jacksonville and Savanna Railroad Company of the first part and J. W. Brooks of Boston, Massachusetts, and James F. Joy of Detroit, Michigan, of the second part, Witnesseth, That Whereas the said party of the first part, has been engaged in the construction of a Railroad a portion of which lies between the Peoria & Oquawka Railroad at Yates City and Canton in Fulton County and point about four Miles South of Canton and, Whereas the said first party has been unable to furnish and complete any part of said road and whereas the said road as an investment is probably utterly without value but some portion of the same in connection with a road extending to Lewistown may be of some value to another Railroad Company with which it may be connected by contributing to its business and is of great value to the locality in which the same is situated, And Whereas the said second parties have been induced by these, among other considerations to undertake to complete the construction of that part of said road between the Peoria & Oquawka Railroad and the point of intersection with the Peoria & Hannibal Railroad about four miles South of Canton and for the compensations and in consideration of the covenants herein contained and made by the said first party to be by it done and performed. Therefore it is agreed by the said first parties that they have hereby sold, granted, bargained, sold & conveyed & do hereby sell, grant, convey & transfer to the said second parties all the said railroad Iron, chairs & spikes, owned by said first parties being 6271 bars of Railroad Iron weighing one thousand & one tons or thereabouts, 7200 chairs, 400 casks of spikes all at Liverpool except about five hundred tons of iron which is in Chicago, also all the ties owned by the said first party, being about Seventy Thousand and all the timber & materials of every description & owned by the said first party, also all the bonds of the said first party issued under a trust deed executed by the said party of the first part to Mess. Studwell & Hooker & being in amount One Million of Dollars to have and to hold the same unto the said parties of the second part their heirs & assigns forever. In consideration Whereof & of other things herein expressed, the said parties of the second part covenant & agree to & with the parties of the first part that they will with the said materials hereby conveyed & with the materials by them to be furnished, finish & complete & put in running order all that portion of the road of the said first party extending from Yates City to the point of intersection with the Peoria & Hannibal Railroad about four miles South of Canton & will either themselves furnish equipment & Rolling Stock to operate & manage the same & also operate & manage & run the same or else they will obtain from the Chicago & Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company an obligation or a contract on their part to furnish such equipments & rolling stock & to operate & manage & run the same. And the said second parties covenant & agree to furnish all the money requisite to complete the said road & to complete the same in all the month of May next & as much earlier as may be conveniently practicable. And the said parties of the second part covenant & agree to pay to Amos C. Babcock & F. Farrell the sum of ten Thousand dollars which they are to receive in full payment of their claims against the property hereby conveyed. And the parties of the first part covenant & agree that the said second parties their heir & assigns shall & may enter into & hold & possess the said road so to be completed by them & receive the revenue and income thereof applying the same after deducting an expense of repairs, operation & management, to the payment of the interest upon the said Bonds hereby sold & conveyed to the said parties of the second part & shall hold & possess & use the same until the said Bonds & interest & principal shall be fully paid & satisfied by the said party of the first part. It is expressly agreed however that when the ten bonds which it is understood have been given to the trustees shall be surrendered to the said first party or to the said second party that then and not otherwise all of the said Bonds shall be canceled, except bonds in principal amounting to Five hundred thousand dollars & that no other bonds shall ever be issued under the said Mortgage and that in that case, that amount of Bonds shall constitute the whole incumbrance upon the road, but that unless the said bonds are surrendered & given up that then the said second parties shall own and have the right as owners to enforce the whole amount of said Bonds. It is further understood & agreed that in case the said ten bonds shall be delivered up by the said trustees & there should be a foreclosure & sale under the said deed of Trust by a reason of any default in the payment of interest the said second parties shall if they then hold the said bonds & become the purchasers at said foreclosure sale, release all of said railroad except that portion which they hereby covenant to build. And it is further agreed by the said party of the first part that the president of the said first party shall immediately proceed to New York & negotiate for the recovery of the said ten bonds & that there shall be no charge against the said second parties except for his expenses & the cost of said Bonds, said cost to be limited by instruction from the said second parties. And the said first parties further covenant and agree that they will procure and complete the title to all the right of way on the said line of road covenanted to be built by the said second parties at a sum, which shall not exceed thirteen hundred and fifty dollars. And the said party of the first part covenants & agrees that the said parties of the second part shall have the right whenever necessary or expedient in any suit or legal proceedings to use the corporate name of the said party of the first part, but at the proper cost & expense of the said party of the second part.

In Witness Whereof the Jacksonville & Savanna Railroad Company have caused their corporate seal to be herewith affixed and the same to be subscribed by their president and the said parties of the second part have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above mentioned.

I, Eugene Whiting, Clerk of the Circuit Court and Ex-Officio Recorder in and for said County of Fulton, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the record of a conveyance from Jacksonville and Savanna Railroad Company to J. W. Brooks and James F. Joy bearing date of November 4th, A. D. 1861; the said instrument having been filed for record in the Recorder's Office of said Fulton County on the 17th day of December, 1861, bearing Serial Number 36577, and being recorded in Book 52 of the Land Records of said Fulton County at page 497, as the same appears upon the records now in my office remaining.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my hand and affixed the official seal of my office this 26th day of January, A. D. 1917, at the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Fulton, State of Illinois, at Lewistown.

DEED, November 6, 1861, J. W. Brooks and James F. Joy to The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company.

Whereas, J. W. Brooks of Boston, Massachusetts, and James F. Joy of Detroit, Michigan, parties of the first part to the following indenture, have made and entered into certain contracts with the Peoria and Hannibal and the Jacksonville and Savannah Railroad Companies, whereby they have become the purchasers of all that part of the railroad of the Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company which lies between Canton in the State of Illinois and Lewiston in said State, subject to a mortgage of one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars, and have purchased the bonds issued under said mortgage, and have also thereby become the purchasers of all the mortgage bonds issued upon the Jacksonville and Savannah Railroad under the trust deed of said road, and also the right to use, occupy, and possess and operate the same until the said bonds are fully paid; meaning and intending by such use, occupation, and management, the use, management, and possession of all that part of said road extending south from the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad at Yates City to the point of intersection with the Peoria and Hannibal Railroad about four miles south of Canton, all of which appears by certain indentures between said Brooks and Joy, said respective corporations bearing date the fourth day of November, A. D. 1861; to which reference is to be had.

And whereas, they have in said arrangement and agreement thus become the possessors and the owners of a portion, and in consequence of the mortgage described in said indenture the probable future owners of the whole, of the continuous railroad south of Yates City, extending thirty miles to Lewiston, nearly all of which is graded and much of it bridged, and for which nearly all the iron chairs and spikes are provided and in Illinois, and for which are provided all the timber and materials.

And whereas, they have also become thereby the owners of about one hundred thousand ties, being about thirty thousand more than is requisite for the completion of said thirty miles of road.

And whereas, the said Brooks and Joy have agreed to advance for the construction of said road and pay of liabilities upon said road certain amounts of money, and furnish railroad iron enough to lay four miles of track with rail weighing not less than fifty pounds to the lineal yard.

And have agreed to furnish in money forty-two thousand and sixty dollars to complete the construction of the said road, and which, it is estimated by the officers and engineers of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, will suffice to complete the same.

And whereas, the same arrangements were made with the design and intent of securing an additional thirty miles of road for that company if they should desire to become purchasers thereof.

Now, therefore, this indenture, made and entered into by and between the said John W. Brooks and James F. Joy of the first part, and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company of the second part, this the sixth day of November, A. D. 1861, witnesseth:—

That the said parties of the first part do hereby covenant and agree to and with the said second party to sell and convey and transfer to the said second party all the right, title, and interest by them, the said first party, acquired under the said contracts, and also the said parcels of railroad and the depot grounds and right of way, and all the appurtenances and privileges thereto appertaining, and all the iron, chairs, and spikes already purchased or hereafter to be purchased for the completion of said parcels of road, and all the timber, ties, and the other material above mentioned and described, and do hereby give, grant, and convey the same to the Chi-ago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, its successors and assigns. To have and to hold and operate and manage the same as they may see fit and prefer; subject, however, to the arrangements, stipulations hereinafter expressed, to be carried out and performed by the said second party, and reserving to the said first party the said one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars of bonds, and which bear interest at eight per cent per annum, payable semi-annually in New York, and five years from November fourth, 1861, to run to maturity.

And the said Brooks and Joy further covenant and agree on their part that they will furnish the requisite iron as above described to lay the four miles of road which it is estimated will be required to complete the same, and also forty-two thousand and sixty dollars ($42,060) required as estimated to complete the said road to Lewiston in order for the equipment and operation of said road from Lewiston to Yates City, as fast as the same may be required to complete the said railroad and put the same in a condition for use.

And they covenant further at any time to give such other covenants, assurances, and such further or other conveyance, transfer, or deed as may at any time be requisite in the opinion of the counsel of the second party to secure to it all the rights possessed by the first party to operate, control, and own and manage the said railroad and all other their rights under their said contract and purchase.

And the said party of the second part on its behalf covenants and agrees, to and with said parties of the first part, that it will enter into and upon the said railroad extending from Yates City to Lewiston, and occupy and possess and operate and manage the same. That as soon as the same is completed and in running order to Lewiston, they will put upon the same the requisite motive power and rolling stock for the operation and management and the transaction of the business of said railroad from Lewiston to Yates City on the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad, and will assume the duty to, and will continue to operate, manage, and control the same as their own property, and will assume the obligations and liabilities incurred by the said Brooks and Joy, except as herein agreed by them on their part.

And the said second party further covenants and agrees that complete and full accounts shall be kept of all the business transacted upon the said road hereby conveyed, and also of all the business which may pass over the whole or any part of the line of roads now or hereafter owned and controlled or to be owned or controlled by it, including the track of the Galena road from the junction to Chicago, to and from the said road hereby sold and conveyed to the said second party, and after deducting fifty per cent of the gross earnings and proceeds of said business for the expense of doing the same, and for the use of its equipments and rolling stock, to apply and pay over the remaining fifty per cent of said gross earnings to the redemption and payment, first of the interest, and second of the principal sums, of the said bonds issued under the said trust deed for one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars, and that the accounts of the said business and revenues shall be open to the examination and inspection of the said parties of the first part and their assigns at all times.

It is understood that the above-named fifty per cent retained by the party of the second part for the use of rolling stock and operating expenses is applicable only as relating to the payment of the interest and principal of the said $125,000 of bonds, and is in no sense to be taken as or instead of the real cost of operating, accounts of which for other purposes must be correctly kept.

And the said second party further covenants and agrees that the accounts of said business and of the revenues thereof shall be made up at the close of every six months, viz., on the last days of April and of October in each year, and the portion applicable to the payment of the interest and principal of the said bonds shall on the first days of May and November in each and every year be applied to the payment thereof, and shall be paid at the place where the principal and interest of said bonds are payable, so far as may be necessary for the payment of the interest, and at the office of said second party in Boston, so far as the amount which may be applicable to the payment of the principal sums is concerned; it being understood that the bondholders are to arrange among themselves the order in which said bonds shall be paid, and if no such arrangement be made, then the said second party shall pay and apply the same to take up such and any of said bonds as may be presented at said office to the extent of the money so applicable, except that it shall not be required to pay any fraction of the amount of a bond, there being insufficient to pay the whole amount thereof.

And the said second party further covenants and agrees that the payments so to be made shall continue to be made each six months until the whole amount of the said one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars of bonds shall be fully paid and satisfied.

And further, that as between the said two parties hereto and the holders of said $125,000 of bonds, the whole of said railroad between Yates City and Lewiston, and all the property and estate of every nature and kind hereby conveyed, shall stand and be charged with the payment thereof as security in the nature of a mortgage until the whole of said amount is fully paid and discharged.

And the said first parties agree that for any possible excess in the cost of completion of said road, as estimated by the president and engineers of the said second party, but which is not anticipated, the said second party shall have and use and own all the said thirty thousand surplus ties and all surplus materials and timber along the line and procured for the construction of said road; it being the intention and expectation of the parties to secure to the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company as far as may be, under their said contract, the ultimate ownership of thirty miles of railroad complete and extending into a fertile country, and of the materials accumulated for constructing the same, at a cost not exceeding the said sum of $125,000 or thereabouts, and payable out of the increased net earnings of that company occasioned by the construction of said thirty miles of railroad.

Note: It will be noted that this instrument bears no evidence of being signed, acknowledged or executed, and Clerk finds no record in Fulton Co., Ills.

SUPPLEMENTAL DEED, December 10, 1861, The Jacksonville and Savanna Railroad Company to John W. Brooks et al. 36578

THIS INDENTURE made and executed this tenth day of December A. D. 1861 by and between the Jacksonville and Savannah Railroad Company of the first part and John W. Brooks and James F. Joy of the second part, Witnesseth—Whereas by an indenture between the said parties bearing date of the fourth day of November last, the party of the second part covenants, among other things, to complete a portion of the road of the party of the first part and in said indenture it is covenanted and agreed that said party of the second part, shall receive certain bonds of said parties of the first part, secured by a mortgage of said road, and shall hold and manage said road, after its completion and apply all the net income thereof to pay the interest on said bonds, until the payment of both principal and interest of said bonds, and whereas in order to ascertain what had been, at any time, the net income of said road and so to determine whether any part of the interest, falling due on said bonds, remains to be paid will require a detailed examination of accounts and whereas it is the intention of both the parties, that if said party of the first part fails to pay said interest, when it falls due, the same as well as the failure to pay the principal at maturity shall constitute a default under said mortgage in no way affected by said agreement to apply the net earnings of said road as aforesaid and subjecting said mortgage to foreclosure. Now it is covenanted and agreed between the parties hereto, that the net earnings and profits of operating said road shall be deemed to be one quarter part of the gross earnings thereof. And as to business done in connection with other railroads the gross earnings shall be deemed to be a division thereof upon the principal of pro rata as to distances carried. And an account of all said gross earnings shall be kept by the party of the second or by the parties or corporation to whom they shall transfer the right to run said road, to periods of thirty days before each instalment of interest fall due upon said bonds, and the net earnings then ascertained shall be paid to the Trustees in conformity to the provisions of said Mortgage, ten days prior to the date when each instalment of interest falls due. And if any balance of the instalment of interest shall remain unpaid the non payment thereof by said corporation shall constitute a default under said mortgage. In case the said net earnings in any instance when the accounts thereof are made up as aforesaid shall exceed the instalment of interest on said bonds, next falling due the surplus may be retained by the party of the second part until the next succeeding instalment of interest shall fall due and then be paid over in manner as aforesaid.

In Witness Whereof the said Corporation has hereunto affixed its common seal and caused the same to be signed by James H. Stipp its President and the said Brooks and Joy have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

THE PEORIA AND HANNIBAL RAILROAD COMPANY

This company was originally incorporated by the name Macomb, Vermont and Bath Railroad Company by Special Act of the Illinois Legislature, in force February 11, 1853. This was amended, by an Act in force February 24, 1854, which changed the company's name to The Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company, with authority to build from Vermont, via Lewistown and Canton to Peoria; and from Vermont via Rushville and Mt. Sterling to a point on the Mississippi River, opposite to Hannibal Missouri.

By an amendment in force February 14, 1857, the company was authorized to divide its line into divisions, and to unite its road with any other railroad.

The first section of the road was built from a connection with The Jacksonville and Savanna road at St. David to Lewistown, a distance of 10.07 miles, and an extension from Lewistown to Rushville of 32.61 miles: a total of 42.68 miles.

Construction on that portion of the line extending from St. David to Lewistown commenced prior to 1860, and by August 24, 1861, the grading was completed and the bridges constructed. After the contract between James F. Joy and J. W. Brooks, as hereinafter set out, construction work progressed and this portion of the line was completed and opened for traffic June 1, 1862.

Construction on the extension from Lewistown to Rushville was commenced in 1868, and the line was completed and opened for traffic to Rushville, July 18, 1869. (Prior to 1868 the Peoria and Hannibal Company had built a road from Peoria to Hollis, Illinois, opposite Pekin, approximately eight miles, and had placed a separate mortgage thereon. Of date, May 22, 1868, the company deeded this eight miles to the Peoria, Pekin and Jacksonville Railroad Company, now a part of the Peoria and Pekin Union Railroad. The C. B. & Q. has never been interested in this portion of the Peoria and Hannibal property.)

The railroad constructed under the charter granted to this company was never operated by it, but was, from the date of its completion, operated by The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company and successor company, the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company.

Of date November 4, 1861, by deed, The Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company conveyed its roadbed, right of way and material on hand to James F. Joy and J. W. Brooks, who acted as agents for The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company. Under this agreement means were provided to complete and equip that section of the road from St. David to Lewistown.

By deed, dated November 6, 1861, James F. Joy and J. W. Brooks conveyed the line extending from St. David to Lewistown to The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company.

Of date April 25, 1868, in order to secure the construction of the extension from Lewistown to Rushville, this company executed a contract with James F. Joy, who acted as agent for the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, whereby The Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company conveyed to Joy all of its property, rights and franchises, the said Joy on his part agreeing to provide the means to construct and equip the road and afterwards to operate it, or to procure a contract from the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company to so construct and equip and operate it.

This contract provided also that The Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company should, contemporaneously therewith, execute $600,000 in bonds to be dated July 1, 1868, and due in ten years, with eight per cent interest, and execute a Deed of Trust to James F. Joy to secure the same, and deliver said bonds to Joy as part payment for the construction, maintenance and operation of both sections of said road. This mortgage was never foreclosed; the bonds were simply held in the C. B. & Q. treasury.

By deed dated May 7, 1868, James F. Joy, Agent, conveyed the extension from Lewistown to Rushville to the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company.

Of date June 14, 1873 James F. Joy made a deed to the C. B. & Q. Company confirming its title to the property of the Peoria and Hannibal company.

By lease dated March 15, 1899, for twenty-five years, The Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company confirmed its conveyances of date November 4, 1861, and April 25, 1868, to the agents of the Burlington Company .

By deed dated June 1, 1899, this company confirmed its previous conveyances as above particularly set out, and conveyed its corporate rights and franchises to the Burlington Company.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved February 11, 1853.

AN ACT to incorporate the Macomb, Vermont and Bath Railroad Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That James B. Kyle, David P. Wells, Jas. M. Campbell, Jesse Burr, Joab Mershon, H. L. Ross, Jas. H. B. Stephens, J. M. Ruggles, Benj. Beasley, Isaac Vail, and such other persons as may associate with them for that purpose, are hereby made and constituted a body corporate and politic, by the name and style of the "Macomb, Vermont and Bath Railroad Company," with perpetual succession, and by that name and style shall be capable in law of taking, purchasing, holding, leasing, selling and conveying estate and property whatever, real, personal or mixed, so far as the same may be necessary for the purposes hereinafter mentioned, and no further; and in their corporate name may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, in all courts of law and equity whatsoever, and may have and use a commonseal, and alter, change and renew the same at pleasure; and may have and exercise all powers, rights, privileges and immunities which are or may be necessary to carry into effect the purposes and objects of this act, as the same are hereinafter set forth.

§ 2. The Macomb, Vermont and Bath Railroad Company shall have full power and authority to locate, and, from time to time, alter, change, relocate, construct, reconstruct and fully to finish, perfect, equip and maintain a railroad, with one or more tracks, commencing at the town of Macomb, in the county of McDonough, and State of Illinois, running from thence, on the most eligible route, to the town of Vermont, in the county of Fulton and State aforesaid, and from thence on the most eligible route to the town of Bath, in the county of Mason, and State aforesaid; and to transport, take and carry property and persons upon said railroad, by power or force of steam, or of any mechanical or other power, or combination of them, which said company may choose to use or apply. And for the purpose of constructing said railroad or way, said company shall have authority and power to lay out, designate and establish their road, in width not exceeding one hundred and fifty feet through the entire line thereof, and may take and appropriate to their own use all such lands so designated for the line and construction of said road, upon first paying, or tendering therefor, such amount of damage as shall have been settled by appraisal, in the manner hereinafter provided, on all such lands as may be taken, or upon any tracts which may be located by said company; and for the purpose of cuttings and embankments, and for the purpose of obtaining stone, sand and gravel, may take and appropriate as much more of land as may be necessary for the proper construction, maintenance and security of said road; and for constructing shops, depots and other suitable, proper and convenient fixtures in connection with and appertaining to said railroad, may take and have, use and occupy any lands, upon either side of said railroad, not exceeding two hundred feet in depth from said railroad; said company taking all such lands as gifts, or purchasing or making satisfaction for the same in the manner hereinafter provided: Provided, that this section shall not be construed to restrict or prevent the construction of public roads or canals or railroads across the road of said company, when deemed expedient, but so as not materially to impair or obstruct the same.

§ 3. The said company, and under their direction, their agents, servants and workmen, are hereby authorized and empowered to enter into and upon the lands and grounds of or belonging to the State, or to any person or persons, bodies politic or corporate, and survey and take levels of the same, or any part thereof, and to set out and ascertain such parts as they shall think necessary and proper for making said railroad, with one or more sets of tracks or rails, and for all the purposes connected with said railroad for which the said corporation by the last preceding section, is authorized to have, take and appropriate any lands, and to fell and to cut down all timber and other trees standing or being within one hundred feet on each side of said line of said railroad, the damage occasioned by the felling of such trees, unless otherwise settled, to be assessed and paid in manner hereinafter provided for assessing and paying damages for lands taken for the use of said railroad company; and also to make, build, erect and set up in and upon the route of said railroad, or upon the land adjoining or nearest the same, all such works, ways, roads and conveyances as may be requisite and convenient for the purposes of said railroad, and also from time to time to alter, repair, amend, widen or enlarge the same, or any of the conveniences above mentioned, as well for the carrying, conveying goods, commodities, timber or other things to and upon the said railroad, as for carrying all manner of materials necessary for the making, erecting, furnishing, altering, repairing, amending or enlarging the works of or connected with said railroad, and to contract and agree with the owner or owners thereof for such timber, gravel, stone, or other materials, or any articles whatever which may be wanted in the construction or repairing of such railroad or any of its appurtenances—they the said company doing as little damage as possible in the execution of the said powers hereby granted, and making satisfaction in the manner hereinafter mentioned for all damages to be sustained by the owners or occupiers of said lands.

§ 4. The said company shall have power and authority to receive, take and hold all such voluntary grants and donations of lands and real estate for the purposes of said railroad, as may or shall be made to said company, to aid in the construction and maintenance and accommodation of said railroad; and said company may contract and agree with the owners and occupiers of any lands which said company may wish to use or occupy, for the purpose of procuring stone, sand, gravel or earth, or other materials to be used in embankments or otherwise in or about the construction, repairs or enjoyment of said railroad, or which said company may wish to use or occupy in any manner or for any purpose or purposes connected with said railroad, for which said company is empowered or authorized by this act to take, have or appropriate any lands, and to receive and to take grants and conveyances of any and all interests and estates therein, to them and their successors or assigns, in fee or otherwise; and in case said company cannot agree with such owners or occupiers of such lands as aforesaid, so as to procure the same by the voluntary deed or act of such owners or occupiers thereof; or if the owners or occupiers thereof, or either or any of them, be a femme covert, infant, non compos mentis, unknown or out of the county in which the land or property wanted is situated, the same may be taken, and [paid] for, if any damages are awarded, in the manner provided for in "An Act to provide for a general system of railroad incorporations," approved November 5th, 1849; and the final decision or award shall vest in the corporation hereby created all the rights, privileges and immunities in said act contemplated: And provided, that any appeal that may be allowed under the provisions of the act above recited, or by virtue of any general law of this State, shall not affect the possession by said company of said lands appraised; and when the appeal may be taken or writ of error prosecuted by any person or persons other than the said company, the same shall not be allowed except on the stipulation of the party so appealing or prosecuting such writ of error that the said company may enter upon and use the lands described in the petition for the uses and purposes therein set forth, upon said company giving bond and security, to be approved by the clerk of said court, that they will pay to the party so appealing or prosecuting such writ of error all costs and damages that may be allowed against them on the final hearing of such appeal or writ of error, within thirty days after the rendition thereof, or forfeit all right to use the land or way so condemned.

§ 5. The capital stock of said company shall be five hundred thousand dollars, which may be increased from time to time by a vote of a majority in interest of stockholders at their annual meeting, or at any special meeting that may be called for that purpose by the directors of said company, to any sum not exceeding the entire amount expended on account of said road; which stock shall be divided in shares of one hundred dollars each, which shall be deemed personal property, and may be issued, certified, transferred and registered in such manner and at such places as may be ordered and provided by the board of directors, who shall have power to require the payment of stock subscribed in the manner, and at the time and in such sums as they may direct, and on the refusal or neglect on the part of stockholders, or any of them, to make payment, on the requisition of the board of directors, the shares of such delinquents may, after thirty days' public notice, be sold at public auction, under such rules as the directors may adopt—the surplus money, if any remains after deducting the payment due and to become due on said stock, with interest and the necessary costs of sale, to be paid to the delinquent stockholder. The board of directors hereinafter named shall cause books to be opened for subscription to the capital stock of said company, at such times and places, and in such manner as they shall direct: Provided, that as soon as fifty thousand dollars of bona fide subscription shall be made to said capital, and five per cent. thereon paid, it shall be lawful for said company to elect a board of directors, not less than five nor more than nine in number, who shall hold their office for one year, and until their successors shall be elected and enter upon the duties of their office. The first election of directors shall be held in the said town of Vermont, thirty days' notice thereof first being given [by] said commissioners, in some newspaper published in said county of Fulton, and subsequent elections shall be held in such manner as the directors shall by by-laws direct.

§ 6. At any election held for directors, each share of stock shall be entitled to one vote, to be given either in person or by proxy, and the person receiving the largest number of votes to be declared duly elected, and to hold their office until the next annual election, and until their successors are elected and qualified. All elections for directors to be conducted by three judges, selected by the stockholders present.

§ 7. After the directors are elected, they shall organize the board, by electing one of their number president, and by appointing a secretary and treasurer.

§ 8. Said company shall have power to purchase with the funds of the company, and contract for and place on the railroad hereby authorized to be constructed, all materials, wagons, carriages and vehicles, of any description, which they may deem necessary and proper [for] the purposes of transportation on said railroad; and they shall have power to charge for tolls and transportation and rates of fare such sums as shall be lawfully established by the by-laws of said company.

§ 9. Said company shall have power to make, ordain and establish all such by-laws, rules, and regulations as may be deemed expedient and necessary to fulfill the purposes and carry into effect the provisions of this act, and for the well ordering and securing the affairs, business and interest of said company: Provided, that, the same be not repugnant to the constitution and laws of the United States or of this State.

§ 10. The said board of directors shall have power to regulate the manner of transportation of persons and property, the width of track, the construction of wheels, the form and size of cars, the weight of loads, and all other matters and things respecting the use of said road and the conveyance and transportation of persons and property thereon.

§ 11. When it shall be necessary for the construction of said railroad to intersect or cross a track of any other railroad, or any stream of water, or water course, or road, or highway, lying on the route of said railroad, it shall be lawful for the company to construct their railroad across or upon the same: Provided, that said company shall restore the railroad, stream of water, water course, road or highway, thus intersected or crossed, to its former state, or in a sufficient manner not materially to impair its usefulness.

§ 12. The said company shall, annually or semi-annually, make such dividend as they may deem proper of the net profits, receipts or income of said company among the stockholders therein, in proper proportion to their respective shares.

§ 13. If any person shall do or cause to be done, or aid in doing or causing to be done, any act whatever, whereby any building or construction, or work of said company, or any engine, machine or structure or any matter or thing appertaining to the same, shall be stopped or obstructed, impaired or weakened, injured or destroyed, the person or persons so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and may be punished, upon conviction, by fine, in any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not exceeding five years, or both, at the discretion of the court, and shall forfeit and pay to said corporation treble the amount of damages sustained by reason of such offense or injury; to be recovered in the name of said company, with costs of suit, in an action of trespass, before any justice of the peace of this State, or before any court having jurisdiction thereof. Said company shall have power to unite its railroad with any other railroad now constructed, or which may hereafter be constructed, to the said town of Macomb, or the said town of Bath, upon such terms as may be actually agreed upon between the companies so connecting; and for that purpose full power is hereby given to said company to make and execute contracts with any other company as will secure the objects of such connection.

§ 14. Said company is hereby authorized to borrow, from time to time, such sum or sums of money as may be necessary for completing and furnishing or operating their said railroad, and issue and dispose of their bonds, in denominations of not less than five hundred dollars, for any amount so borrowed, and to mortgage their corporate property, and purchase or convey the same by deed of trust, to secure the payment of any debt contracted by said company for the purposes aforesaid; and the directors of said company may confer on any bondholder of any bond issued for money borrowed as aforesaid the right to convert the principal due or owing thereon into stocks of said company, at any time, not exceeding ten years from the date of the bonds, under such regulations as the directors of said company may see fit to adopt.

§ 15. The said company hereby chartered shall be required to construct and operate their said road throughout the entire length thereof, according to the terms of this charter, within ten years after the work shall have been commenced thereon; and upon a failure so to do shall forfeit all rights and privileges, tracks contemplated and work done upon said road: Provided, the work shall be commenced on said road within six years after the passage of this act.

§ 16. This act shall be deemed and taken as a public act, and shall be in force from and after its passage.

§ 17. The said company hereby created be and are hereby authorized to extend their said railroad from Macomb to a point opposite or at the city of Burlington, in the State of Iowa, on the most eligible route, and also to extend their railroad from Bath, in Mason county, to some point that may be agreed upon on the Petersburg and Springfield railroad; and for the purpose of such extension, said company are hereby declared to possess all the powers and be subject to all the restrictions contained in this act; and, for the purposes of said extension, said company are authorized to increase their capital stock to such amount as may be necessary to complete such extension, under the same provisions and regulations as herein provided for the increase of the capital stock of said company.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved February 24, 1854.

AN ACT to amend an act entitled "An Act to incorporate the Macomb, Vermont and Bath Railroad Company," approved February 11, 1853.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the name of the Macomb, Vermont and Bath Railroad Company be changed, and that hereafter said company be known and called by the name and style of "The Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company," and that said company be authorized and empowered to survey, locate, construct and fully complete and operate an extension of their said railroad from the town of Vermont, in the county of Fulton, by the way of Lewiston and Canton, in said county, to the terminus of the Peoria and Bureau Valley Railroad, at or in the city of Peoria, and from the town of Vermont aforesaid, by the way of Rushville, in Schuyler county, and Mt. Sterling, in Brown county, to a point on the Mississippi river, as nearly as practicable opposite the city of Hannibal, in the State of Missouri; and for the purpose of constructing their said extension of railroad, said company is authorized, and, under their direction, their agents and workmen are authorized, to enter upon the lands of any and all persons where it may be necessary to make surveys and estimates to locate, construct and operate their said extension of railroad through the whole route hereinbefore specified, and to establish said extended road not exceeding one hundred feet in width, with one or more sets of tracks through the entire line of said road, and may take and appropriate as much more land, timber, stone, earth and sand as may be necessary for constructing said road, and for the purpose of constructing shops, depots, machine houses, and other fixtures necessary in fully operating said road; said company making compensation for any damages arising thereby to the owner or owners of lands as hereinafter specified.

§ 2. The capital stock of said company shall be increased to three millions of dollars, and may be increased, by a vote of the majority of the stockholders, to a sum not exceeding five millions of dollars, and said stock shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, which shall be deemed personal property, and shall be issued, transferred and registered as such, according to the by-laws of the company; and in all meetings of the stockholders each share shall be entitled to one vote, either in person or by proxy.

§ 3. The following named persons, Amos C. Babcock, Lewis W. Ross, Lewis D. Irwin, William K. Johnson, Isaac Underhill, William S. Moss and J. B. Moore are appointed commissioners, who, or a majority of whom, may call a meeting of said commissioners, for the purpose of opening books of subscription to the capital stock of said company, and shall give ten days' notice of said meeting by publication in some newspaper in each of the counties of Peoria, Fulton, Schuyler and Brown. Said commissioners shall keep such subscription books open until the sum of one hundred thousand dollars is subscribed, and as much longer as they shall deem proper. Said commissioners shall require five per cent. to be paid on such subscriptions, by the subscribers thereof, at the time of subscribing, and as soon as practicable thereafter, said commissioners shall call a meeting of the stockholders, by giving the same notice as is required in this section for the opening of books for subscription, for the purpose of electing five directors, which may thereafter be increased to a number not exceeding thirteen, by a vote of the majority of the stockholders, who shall hold their offices for one year, and until their successors are elected; and such election shall be conducted and canvassed by said commissioners, or a majority thereof, and they shall immediately deliver to the directors elected the subscription books and all moneys received by them, when the duties of such commissioners shall cease.

§ 4. When it shall be necessary for said company to use any lands in locating, constructing and operating their said extension of railroad, and the owner or owners thereof cannot agree with said company upon the price to be paid as a compensation for the damage caused, or to be caused thereby, or when such lands belong to femme covert, infants, persons non compos mentis, or persons not residing in this State, then the compensation to be paid for such damages, if any, shall be determined and paid, and the right to use so much of said lands as may be necessary shall be fixed and secured in the manner provided in an act entitled "An act to amend the law condemning right of way for purposes of internal improvement," approved June 22, 1852, and in no other manner, the provisions of the act to which this is an amendment to the contrary notwithstanding.

§ 5. Said company shall not be required to construct the line of their road from the town of Macomb to the town of Bath, and the work on said extended railroad shall be commenced within five years, and completed within eight years after the passage of this act; and this act shall be in force from and after its passage.

§ 6. Sections two, three, four, five, six, and such other parts of the act entitled "An Act to incorporate the Macomb, Vermont and Bath Railroad Company," approved February 11th, 1853, as are inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

AN ACT supplemental to "An Act to amend an act entitled an act to incorporate the Macomb, Vermont and Bath Railroad Company."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the company authorized by "An Act to amend an act entitled an act to incorporate the Macomb, Vermont and Bath Railroad Company," passed at the present special session of the legislature, to construct a railroad from the town of Vermont, in the county of Fulton, by the way of Lewistown and Canton, in said County, to the terminus of the Peoria and Bureau Valley Railroad, at the city of Peoria, and from the town of Vermont aforesaid, by the way of Rushville, in Schuyler county, and Mt. Sterling, in Brown county, to a point on the Mississippi river, as nearly as practicable opposite the city of Hannibal, in the State of Missouri, be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to construct a branch of said road from Rushville, in the county of Schuyler, or from any other convenient and eligible point, southwest of that place, to the city of Quincy, in the county of Adams.

§ 2. In the construction of said branch of said railroad, the said company shall possess, enjoy and exercise all the corporate powers and privileges conferred by their charter, and authorized to use and exercise all the powers for obtaining the right of way, for the use of said company, in and about the construction of said branch of said road, that are given and expressed by the act to provide for a general system of railroad incorporations, approved November 5th, 1849. Said company is also authorized and empowered to increase its capital stock one million of dollars, and to form a connection with any other railroad leading to Quincy.

§ 3. If the Northern Cross Railroad Company shall complete their road to Mt. Sterling, in the county of Brown, in time to meet the road authorized to be constructed from Peoria to Hannibal, in and by the act to which this is a supplement, in such case the said company shall not exercise the privileges and franchises by this act conferred, or construct the said branch hereinbefore authorized, but the said powers, privileges and franchises herein and hereby granted shall cease and be void, anything in this act, or the acts to which this is a supplement, to the contrary notwithstanding.

DEED, November 4, 1861. The Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company to James F. Joy et al. (Agents for The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company).

This Indenture made & entered into this the fourth day of November A. D. 1861 between the Peoria & Hannibal Rail Road Company of the first part & J. W. Brook of Boston in the State of Massachusetts & James F. Joy of Detroit, Michigan, parties of the second part. Witnesseth—That whereas the said first party is desirous, of securing the construction of that part of its line of road between Canton & Lewistown in connection with that part of the Jacksonville & Savannah Rail Road between Yates City & Canton to thereby establish a railroad communication between Lewistown & Chicago & the East & whereas all efforts to that end have heretofore failed & whereas, the said road from Lewistown to Canton & thence to Yates City as an investment is probably of no value in itself, but may be of some utility to another railroad company with which it may be connected as contributing additional business to its line of road & will be of great value to the Country through which it runs & whereas from considerations of this nature among others the said parties of the second part have been induce to enter into a contract to advance the money requisite to complete the said road & to procure it to be equipped & operated & managed so as to accomplish the object of the Country which has been struggling to to complete the same upon the terms & for the consideration herein named to be paid & performed by the said party of the first part.

Therefore, The said Peoria & Hannibal Railroad Company by virtue of the authority conferred upon it by the Legislature of Illinois in contemplation of such possible circumstance have, granted, bargained & sold & do hereby grant, bargain, sell & convey to the said J. W. Brooks & James F. Joy, their heirs, and assigns, all & singular all their line of road extending & lying between Lewistown and Canton in the County of Fulton roadbed, right of way & ground connected therewith, Depot grounds, Stations, Station yards, including Depot ground at Lewistown, Bridges, Viaducts, Culverts & all the rights, appurtenances, privileges & franchises of the said first party thereto so far as by law the same may be conveyed by it, all the railroad Iron chairs & spikes owned by the said first party for the purpose of constructing said road now understood to be in Chicago being of Iron Twelve hundred & Seventeen tons or thereabouts—of spikes seven hundred kegs & seventy-five hundred chairs & also all the ties of the said company & being about—thirty Thousand in number & all upon the line of said railroad & also all other timber & material of any kind owned by said first party & intended for the construction of said road. To have & to hold by the said parties of the second part their heirs & assigns forever to their sole use and benefit. And the said parties of the second part for themselves, their heirs & assigns, Covenant & agree to & with the said party of the first part that they will use such & every, all & singular the said materials & property of every kind in the construction of said road & in completing the same for use & Operation—that said Iron chairs & spikes shall be transported to Yates City & as soon as practicable laid down upon the road hereby conveyed & that no part of the same shall be used for any other purpose than to complete the said road to Lewistown.

And the said second parties further covenant & agree that they will furnish the requisite amount of money necessary to complete the said road & put it in running order as soon as can conveniently be done & will complete the same at as early a period as is consistent with economy having reference to the season of the year & the weather. And they covenant further with either themselves to furnish motive power & rolling stock to run, operate & work said road or to procure a contract with the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Rail Road Company under and by virtue of which that Company shall equip, operate & Manage the same, the rolling stock & furniture for such operation & management to be furnished & the operation of said road to be completed & began as soon as the line is completed from Yates City to Lewistown.

It is however understood & agreed by and between both parties that the said Peoria & Hannibal Rail Road Company shall make & execute One Hundred & twenty five Bonds of one Thousand dollars each payable in five years with semi-annual interest coupon attached at the rate of Eight per cent interest per annum, payable in New York & also a deed of trust in the usual form to Geo. F. & F. B. Porter of Detroit as trustees to secure the payment of said bonds & interest which said Bonds and deed of trust shall have precedence of this deed & shall constitute a lien upon that portion of the road hereby conveyed & shall transfer & deliver the said Bonds to the said second parties. It is understood & agreed by both parties, that the said road being in itself probably unprofitable it is an object of importance not only to secure its construction but its operation management & equipment & that to secure both these ends the parties of the first part are willing to make this conveyance & sale & that in consideration of the said conveyance & sale the said second parties covenant to complete the said road & either to equip, operate & manage the said road themselves, or procure an obligation or contract with the Chicag, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company to do the same. It is however also understood, that if it shall become convenient for the said second parties to lay some portion of the Iron or chairs & spikes obtained for the construction of the road from Yates City to Canton upon the line between Canton & Lewistown, they may do so & exchange an equal quantity of Iron chairs or spikes hereby convey therefor. And the said parties of the second part agree to have the said road completed in all the month May next & as much sooner as is conveniently practicable.

In Witness Whereof the Peoria, and Hannibal Railroad Company have caused their corporate seal to be herewith affixed, and the same to be subscribed by their President and the said parties of the second part have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above mentioned.

TRUST MORTGAGE, November 4, 1861. The Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company to Fredrick R. and George F. Porter, Trustees.

This Indenture made this fourth day of November in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty one between the Peoria and Hannibal Rail Road Company a corporation duly created and organized by and under the laws of the state of Illinois party of the first part, and Fredrick R. Porter and George F. Porter of the city of Detroit in the state of Michigan of the second part, Witnesseth, whereas the said Peoria and Hannibal Rail Road Company pursuant to the terms of the statute of said state of Illinois incorporating it, and the amendments thereto and other statutes of said state affecting it, is engaged in constructing a rail road from the town of Vermont in the county of Fulton, by way of Lewistown and Canton in said county to the terminus of the Peoria and Bureau Valley Rail Road at Peoria; And whereas the said Peoria and Hannibal Rail Road Company are desirous of borrowing money to an amount not exceeding one hundred and twenty five thousand dollars, to aid it in constructing said road to be applied to the purchase and transportation of or in payment for material, superstruction and equipments for said road or some part thereof and has resolved to execute and has executed bonds of said Company therefore as follows, to wit: One hundred and five (105) in sums of one thousand dollars each and forty in sums of Five hundred dollars each, bearing even date with these presents, payable on the fourth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and Sixty Six, bearing interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum, payable semi-annually on the fourth day of each November and May until said principal shall be paid, at the Banking house of the Bank of Commerce in the City of New York where both the principal sum and interest are payable, said bonds to stand all equally secure by these presents according to their amounts, notwithstanding the same may be paid at different times, and are numbered consecutively from number one (1) to one hundred and forty five (145) inclusive, each of said bonds being authenticated by a certificate signed by the said parties of the second part or by one of them.

Now therefore this Indenture witnesseth that the said, The Peoria and Hannibal Rail road company in order to secure the payment of said bonds and the interest thereon and in consideration of the sum of Five dollars to it in hand paid by the said parties of the second part, at the ensealing and delivery of these presents, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged has granted bargained sold transferd and conveyed and by these presents does grant bargain sell transfer and convey to the said parties of the second part their successors in the Trust hereby created and assign all the following present and in future to be aquired property of the said company and all the right interest and equity of redemption therein, that is to say, all that part of the said Rail Road of said party of the first part made and to be made which lies between the depot of the said first party at the said town of Canton in the County of Fulton and state of Illinois and the depot of the said first party at Lewistown in said County and state aforesaid and including the Depots at the said towns of Lewistown and Canton and the right of way and land occupied thereby together with the super-struction and track thereon and all the iron chains and spikes, timber materials furnished and property purchased or to be purchased or purchased for the construction and equipment of the road hereby conveyed and wherever the same may be whether now upon said premises or elsewhere, all depot and Station grounds and the building thereon and to be erected thereon, all the side tracks, bridges, viaducts, culverts, fences, all ties, tools and other personal property of said first party now on said Mortgaged premises or belonging thereto or purchased or procured for the construction thereof though elsewhere situated and all the rights, appurtenances, privileges and franchises of said Company in and to said Mortgaged premises or in any manner belonging thereto, connected therewith, so far as by law, the said first part is authorized to convey the same, together with the net revenues and earnings & profits to be derived from the rail road hereby conveyed.

To have and to hold said premises and every part thereof with the appurtenances unto the said parties of the second part, their successors in said Trust and assigns, but upon the following Trust, that is to say in case the said, The Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company shall fail to pay the principal or any part thereof or any of the interest on any of the bonds secured and intended to be secured hereby at any time when and where the same may become due and payable according to the tenor thereof and for ten days thereafter, then and in such case, all of said bonds, both principal sum and interest shall thereupon immediately become due and payable and upon the request of the holder of any one of said bonds, the said parties of the second part or either of them or their successors in said Trust and assigns may enter into and take possession of all and every part of said premises and as the attorneys in fact or agents of the said first party by themselves or agents duly constituted have, use and employ the same, making from time to time the needful repairs, alterations and additions thereto after deducting the expenses of such use, repairs, alterations and additions apply the proceeds of said premises to the payment of the principal and interest of all said bonds remaining unpaid or the said parties of the second part or either of them, their successors in said trust and assigns at their discretion may as on the written request of the holders of any one of the said bonds then unpaid shall cause the said premises or so much thereof as shall be necessary to pay and discharge the principal and interest of all such of said bonds as may be unpaid, together with all the expenses of sale to be sold at public auction at the North door of the Court house in the City of Chicago in said state of Illinois giving thirty days notice of the time and place and terms of such sale by publishing the same in one of the principal Newspapers in the City of Chicago at the time being and upon such sale to execute to the purchaser or purchasers thereof a good and sufficient deed or deeds of conveyance in fee simple for the same, which shall be a bar against the said The Peoria and Hannibal Rail road Company party of the first part its successors and assigns and all persons claiming under it or them of all right, interest or claims in or to said premises or any part thereof and said Trustees shall after deducting from the proceeds of said sale the cost and expenses thereof and of managing said property apply so much of the said proceeds as may be necessary to the payment of said principal and in trust on said bonds and shall restore the residue thereof to the party of the first part its successors or assigns. It being expressly understood and agreed that in no case shall any claim or advantage be taken of any valuation, appraisal, redemption or extention laws by the said party of the first part, its successors or assigns nor any injunction or stay of proceedings or any process be obtained or applied for by it or them to prevent such entry or sale and conveyance as aforesaid.

It is also hereby expressly agreed and understood that it shall be lawful for the said Company or its as to dispose of the current nett revenues of said road hereby conveyed in such manner as it or they shall elect until default shall be made in the payment of the interest or principal of said bonds or of some one of them. And the said Peoria and Hannibal Rail Road Company for itself, its successors and assigns, does hereby covenant and agree to execute and deliver any further reasonable and necessary conveyance of the said premises or any part thereof to the said parties of the second part, their successors in said Trust and assigns for more fully conveying with effect the object and purposes of these presents and of making them embrace the property and effects so expressed or intended to be conveyed. It is hereby mutually agreed and these presents are upon the express condition that on the payment of the principal sum and interest of said bonds the estate hereby granted to said parties of the second part shall be said and the right to the premises hereby conveyed shall revert to and revert in said first party without and acknowledgment of satisfaction reconveyance, re-entry or other act.

It is also further mutually agreed that the said parties of the second part their successors in said Trust and assigns shall only be accountable for reasonable diligence in the management thereof and shall not be responsible for the acts of any agent employed by them or either of them, when such agent shall be selected or employed with reasonable discretion and that said second parties and their successors in Trust and assigns shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for their labor and services in case they shall be compelled to take possession of said premises or any part thereof or to manage the same.

It is hereby further mutually agreed that neither of said Trustees shall in any manner be liable for any act or acts of his Co-Trustee to which he does not assent and that in case of the death, mental incapacity or resignation or refusal of either of the said Trustees to act in the matter of said Trust all his right, estate, interest, power and control in the premises shall be divested, cease and determine and thereupon the said remaining Trustee shall become vested for the purpose aforesaid with all the right and interest and power requisite to enable him to execute the purposes of this Trust without any further or other appearance or conveyance for the same but should it be desirable or necessary both or either of the parties hereto shall execute and devise any and all necessary release or conveyance for that purpose. It is also expressly understood that said Trustees or either of them in case of the death, refusal to act incapacity or absence of the other and the survivor of them, shall be fully empowered and authorized to execute all the papers of this Trust.

In witness whereof The Peoria and Hannibal Rail Road Company have caused their Corporation seal to be herewith affixed and the same to be subscribed by their President and the said parties of the second part have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above mentioned.

Be it remembered that on this fifth day of November, A. D. 1861 before me a Notary Public residing in said County of Cook duly commissioned by the Governor of Illinois to take acknowledgments and proof of deeds and other instruments in writing under seal to be used or recorded in said state of Illinois personally came Henry L. Bryant, President of the Peoria and Hannibal Rail Road Company, who is known to me to be the person whose name is subscribed to the foregoing conveyance who being by me duly sworn deposes and says that he resides in Lewistown in the County of Fulton and state of Illinois, that he is President of the Peoria and Hannibal Rail Road Company, that he knows the Corporate seal of said Company, that the seal affixed to the foregoing conveyance is the Corporate seal of said Company, that it was affixed by order of said Company and he signed his name to said Conveyance by like order as President of said Company and acknowledged that he executed and delivered the said deed as his free and voluntary act for the uses and purposes therein set forth and that the said Company also executed and delivered said Conveyance as its free and voluntary act for the uses and purposes therein stated.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal of office this fifth day of November, A. D. 1861.

DEED, December 10, 1861. The Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company to J. W. Brooks and J. F. Joy.

This Indenture made and executed this tenth day of December A. D. 1861. by and between the Peoria & Hannibal Rail Road Company of the first part and J. W. Brooks & J. F. Joy of the second part. Witnesseth:

First that by an Indenture between the said parties bearing date the fourth day of November last, the parties of the first part, purposes to convey to the parties of the second part, all and singular the lien of their road extending and lying between Lewistown & Canton, in the County of Fulton and the materials and appurtenances connected therewith, described in said Indenture with a reservation however, that a deed of Trust to Geo. F. &

F. B. Porter should be made by the said Peoria & Hannibal Rail Road Company of said portion of its road and appurtenances to secure the payment of its Bonds to the amount of One Hundred and Twenty Five Thousand dollars, payable at the time and in the manner in said Indenture set forth, which said Deed of Trust it is therein provided should have precedence of said grant so made by said Indenture to said Brook and Joy, and whereas doubts may arise whether the effect of said reservation may not, unexplained, effect the validity and priority of said Deed of Trust or constitute a merger of the whole title in said Brooks & Joy so as to prevent the sale and transfer of said Bonds secured by said Trust, although said Deed of Trust was in point of face, executed and delivered before said Indenture. Now it is hereby agreed and declared by both said parties, that said grant so made by said Indentures was, and is intended to be and shall have effect merely as a grant of the rights of redemption or equity in said portion of said Railroad subject to said Trust Deed and not of the entire title and that said Brooks and Joy shall stand seized and possessed of said road, in Trust, to allow priority to said Deed of Trust, and further, that the delivery of said Bonds to said Brooks & Joy and the execution of said deed of Trust being designed to facilitate the sale and transfer of said Bonds by said Brooks & Joy to third parties shall not be deemed a merger of the whole title in them but shall stand as a separate, independent title and security in the same manner as if made and delivered to strangers to the title, but said Joy & Brooks shall in all other respects subject to said deed of Trust, be deemed the owners of said portion of said Railroad, materials and appurtenances upon the terms and in the manner set forth in said Indenture.

Second, said party of the first part for the consideration set forth in said Indenture, Covenants that it has lawful authority to make and execute the conveyance and covenants in said Indenture contained and that should said Brooks & Joy sell and transfer said portion of said Railroad to Chicago Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company and said road to be completed as provided in said Indenture, thenceforth the covenants of the said parties of the second part as to equipping and operating said road shall cease and be void. It being the understanding of the parties that all the fruits and profits of running such road are to rest in and belong to said Joy & Brooks or to the said Chicago Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company if they shall purchase the same.

In witness whereof said corporation hath set its common seal and caused the same to be executed by Henry L. Bryant its President, and the said Brooks & Joy have hereto set their hands and seals on the day and year first above written, the word "have" on 2nd page interlined before signing.

Clerk.

CONTRACT, April 25, 1868, The Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company to James F. Joy.

This Agreement, made and entered into this twenty-fifth day of April, A. D. 1868, between the Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company, of the first part, and James F. Joy of the city of Detroit, in the State of Michigan, party of the second part, witnesseth:—

That whereas, the said first party is desirous of securing the construction of that part of its line of road between Lewiston in Fulton County and Rushville in Schuyler County, Illinois, embracing two sections thereof, one extending from Lewiston to Vermont, and the other from Vermont to Rushville, to thereby establish a railroad communication between Rushville and Chicago and the East.

And whereas, all efforts to that end have heretofore failed.

And whereas, the said road to Lewiston from Rushville as an investment is probably of no value in itself, but may be of some utility to another railroad company with which it may be connected, as contributing additional business to its line of road, and will be of great value to the country through which it runs.

And whereas, from considerations of this nature among others, the said party of the second part has been induced to enter into a contract to advance the money requisite to complete the said sections of said road, and procure it to be equipped and operated and managed so as to accomplish the object of the country which has been struggling to complete the same, upon the terms and for the consideration herein named, to be paid and performed by the said party of the first part.

Therefore, the said Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company, by virtue of the authority conferred upon it by the Legislature of Illinois, in contemplation of such possible circumstances, have granted, bargained, and sold, and do hereby grant, bargain, sell, and convey to the said James F. Joy, his heirs and assigns, all and singular all their line of road extending and lying between Lewiston in the county of Fulton and Rushville in the county of Schuyler, embracing the aforesaid two sections, the road-bed, right of way, and ground connected therewith, depot grounds, station, station yards, etc., including depot grounds at Rushville, bridges, viaducts, culverts, and all the rights, appurtenances, privileges, and franchises of the said first party therein and thereto, so far as by law the same may be conveyed by it; and also all timber and material of any kind owned by said first party, and on said right of way, or suitable for the construction of said road.

To have and to hold the same and every part thereof to the party of the second part, his heirs and assigns forever, to his and their sole use and benefit.

And the said party of the second part, for himself, his heirs and assigns, covenants and agrees to and with the said party of the first part that he will procure the iron and other materials for the construction of said sections, and pay for the construction thereof, and furnish the requisite amount of money necessary to complete said road from Lewiston to Rushville, and that he will complete said road and put it in running order as soon as it can conveniently be done, and at as early a period as is consistent with economy, having reference to the season of the year and the weather.

And said second party further covenants and agrees with said first party, either himself to furnish motive powers and rolling stock and materials to run, operate, and maintain said road so to be constructed, or to procure a contract with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company; under and by virtue of which that company shall equip, operate, maintain, and manage the same; the rolling stock and furniture for such operation and management to be furnished and the operation of said road to be commenced as soon as the line is completed from Lewiston aforesaid to Rushville.

It is, however, understood and agreed by and between both parties that the said Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company shall make and execute in due form six hundred bonds of one thousand dollars each, of the date of July 1st, A. D. 1868, and payable in ten years, with semi-annual interest coupons attached at the rate of eight per cent interest per annum, payable in New York free of government tax, and also a deed of trust in the usual form, to said James F. Joy as trustee, to secure the payment of said bonds and interest; which said bonds and deeds of trust shall have precedence of the deed, and shall constitute a lien upon those sections and that portion of the road hereby conveyed, and shall transfer and deliver the said bonds to the said second party, as part payment to said second party for the construction, maintenance, and operation of said sections of road.

And said first party also hereby stipulates and agrees, as a further consideration to said second party for the construction, maintenance, and operation of said portion of said road between Lewiston and Rushville, to pay to said second party the sum of two hundred and twenty-three thousand dollars in manner following: seventy-three thousand dollars in Schuyler County bonds of the date of July 1st, A. D. 1868, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable annually in the city of New York, in such manner and at such place there as the State of Illinois shall from time to time pay the interest on the State indebtedness,—which said bonds are issued under the law of the State of Illinois entitled "An act relating to county and city debts, and to provide for the payment thereof by taxation in such counties and cities," approved February 13th, 1865, and are to be duly registered in the office of the auditor of State as in said act provided, which said bonds are to be delivered by said first party to said second party at the time and in the manner and upon the considerations provided in a certain decree made in the Schuyler County circuit court, on the 26th day of October, A. D. 1867, in a certain cause therein then pending, wherein the board of supervisors of Schuyler County was complainant, and the Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company and Lewis D. Erwin were defendants; forty-five thousand dollars in township railroad bonds,—fifteen thousand of the township of Pleasant, and thirty thousand of the township of Vermont in the county of Fulton, in the State of Illinois,—which said bonds bear date July 1st, A. D. 1868, all for one hundred dollars each, and are payable on the first day of July, A. D. 1883, with the privilege of said townships to pay the same at any time after July 1st, A. D. 1873, at the option of said townships, and draw coupon interest at the rate of ten per cent per annum, on the first day of July in each year, at the office of the supervisor in said respective townships, and which said last-mentioned bonds were issued under and in accordance with the provisions of an act entitled "An act to authorize the inhabitants of the various townships of Fulton County to subscribe to stock of railroad companies in said county," approved February 22d, 1867, and which said township bonds are to be delivered by said first party to said second party as the work of construction of said section of said road shall progress, and as and when demanded by said second party, his heirs and assigns; and the remaining one hundred and five thousand in money, to be paid in monthly instalments of ten per cent each, payable on the first day of each month, the first instalment to be paid on the first day of June next. And as additional security for the payment of said last-mentioned sum of money, the said party of the first part does hereby sell, assign, transfer, and set over to said second party, his heirs and assigns, certain subscriptions to the capital stock of said first party made by certain parties residing in Schuyler, Fulton, and adjoining counties, to the amount of one hundred and five thousand dollars, and hereby authorize and empower said second party to collect said subscriptions as the work progresses, when and as he may deem best, using for that purpose his own name or that of said first party, as in his judgment may be deemed the most convenient and proper.

And the said first party agrees to procure and furnish the right of way one hundred feet in width for said road from Lewiston to Rushville, clear of encumbrance, and free of expense to said second party, as soon and as fast as the same may be needed for the construction of said road; and also all grounds that may be reasonably required for depot purposes at the termini and along the line of said road.

It is also mutually understood and agreed that the road from Lewiston to Rushville to be constructed under this agreement being in itself probably unprofitable, it is nevertheless an object of much importance not only to secure its construction, but also its equipment, continuous operation, and maintenance, and that to secure these ends the party of the first part is willing to and does make the sale and conveyance, assignments and transfers herein mentioned and stipulated, and agrees to pay the moneys herein provided for: and that in consideration of said conveyance and sale, assignments and transfers, and other considerations herein specified, the said second party covenants and agrees to complete said road from Lewiston to Rushville as herein stipulated, and either to equip, operate, and manage the same himself, or to procure an obligation or contract with and from the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company to complete, equip, and perpetually to maintain and operate the same.

In witness whereof, the Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company have caused their corporate seal to be hereunto affixed, and the same to be subscribed by their president, and the said party of the second part has hereunto set his hand and seal, the date and year first above mentioned.

DEED, June 14, 1873, James F. Joy to Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company.

This Indenture, made this 14th day of June, A. D. eighteen hundred and seventy-three (1873), between James F. Joy, of Detroit, Michigan, party of the first part, and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, a corporation organized and existing under and in accordance with the laws of the state of Illinois, party of the second part,

Witnesseth: That, Whereas, on the 25th day of April, A. D. 1868, the title to the railroad and property of the Peoria & Hannibal Railroad Company, hereinafter particularly described, became vested in said first party hereto by deed of the same date from said Peoria & Hannibal Railroad Company to said James F. Joy, first party herein, and

Whereas, said first party became the grantee of said railroad and property, as aforesaid, in trust for the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company:

Now, Therefore, in order to vest the title to the railroad and property of the said Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company, hereinafter mentioned, in said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, and in consideration of one dollar to him in hand paid by said party of the second part, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the said party of the first part hereby grants, conveys and quit-claims, and by these presents does grant, convey, and quit-claim unto the said party of the second part, its successors and assigns, all and singular the line of railroad extending and lying between Lewistown, in the County of Fulton, and Rushville, in the County of Schuyler, together with the road bed, right of way and ground connected therewith, depot grounds, stations, station houses, bridges, viaducts, culverts, timber and materials, superstructure, iron, ties, chairs, splices, bolts, nuts, spikes and all the appurtenances, rights, privileges and franchises of said first party therein and thereto so far as by law the same may be conveyed by him.

To Have and to Hold the said railroad and property, and all and singular the said premises and every part thereof, with the appurtenances, unto the said party of the second part, its successors and assigns, forever.

And the said party of the first part, for himself and his heirs, executors and administrators, does covenant, promise and agree, to and with said party of the second part, its successors and assigns, that he hath not made, done, committed, executed, or suffered any act or acts, thing or things whatsoever, whereby or by means whereof the above mentioned railroad property and appurtenances, or any part or parcel thereof, now are, or at any time hereafter shall or may be, impeached, charged or incumbered in any way or manner whatsoever.

In Witness Whereof, the party of the first part has hereunto set his hand and seal the day and year first above written.

AGREEMENT, May 7, 1868, James F. Joy and Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company.

This Indenture, made and executed the seventh day of May, A. D. 1868, by and between James F. Joy of Detroit, Michigan, party of the first part, and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company of the second part, witnesseth:—

First—That the said Joy has by contract with the Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company, dated April 25, A. D. 1868, purchased of said corporation all that part of its road now being built and completed, consisting of two sections thereof, lying between Lewiston in Fulton County and Rushville in Schuyler County, Illinois, with all the depot lands, rights of way, and all other rights, franchises, property, easements, privileges, and appurtenances belonging thereto, subject to a mortgage made thereon by said corporation to secure the payment of six hundred bonds of one thousand dollars each, dated July 1st, A. D. 1868, payable in ten years, with semi-annual coupons for the interest thereon at the rate of eight per cent per annum, payable in New York, free from government tax; and in and by said contract with said Joy, said corporation as a consideration for the covenants of said Joy contained in said contract to complete the building of said road, and to cause the same to be equipped and run in the manner therein set forth, has delivered and transferred said bonds to said Joy, and has, in addition to the conveyance of said sections of said road, also delivered or contracted to deliver and to pay to said Joy certain securities and moneys described in said contract, for full description of all which reference is to be had to said contract of said Joy with said corporation.

Second—That it has thereupon been agreed between the said Joy and said party of the second part that said Joy shall transfer and convey, and he does hereby transfer and convey, to said party of the second part, the said sections of the said road thus purchased by and conveyed to him, subject to the mortgage aforesaid, with all the property, rights, franchises, and easements described and referred to in said agreement between said Joy and said Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company, saving and excepting said bonds, securities, and payments, made and delivered or to be made and delivered to said Joy by said railroad company, all of which are to be retained by said Joy.

And further, that said Joy shall proceed to complete the building of said railroad; and it has also been agreed, and said party of the second part doth hereby agree, that whensoever said road shall be so far completed as to be ready to run, said party of the second part shall furnish the equipment or rolling stock necessary to run said road, and will operate and maintain the same in the manner provided in the covenants of said Joy with said Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company, in his said agreement with them set forth.

Third—And the said party of the second part, in consideration of the premises, doth hereby further covenant and agree with said Joy, and with each and all the parties to whom said Joy may sell said bonds, that it will, after it shall commence to operate and run said road, cause to be kept distinct and separate accounts of all business of said road, and also of all business which may pass to or from it over the whole or any part of the line of roads now or hereafter owned by it; and after deducting fifty per cent of the gross earnings and proceeds of said business, apply the remaining fifty per cent, first to the payment of the interest of, and second to the purchase of, said six hundred one thousand dollar mortgage bonds so issued by the Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company as aforesaid, upon the terms and in the manner following, that is to say:—

Said party of the second part, in the months of December and June in each year, until all of said bonds have been purchased by it, or until it shall have notified its readiness to purchase all of the same in the manner hereinafter set forth, will cause an account to be made up of the gross earnings aforesaid for the six months next preceding the first day of each of said months, and will on the first days of January and July following, apply such part of fifty per cent thereof as may be necessary for the payment of the interest on such of said mortgage bonds as shall then from time to time remain outstanding or not purchased by it.

And the surplus of said fifty per cent of said gross earnings, whenever the same shall amount to not less than fifty thousand dollars, will apply to the purchase of said mortgage bonds if the same can be purchased at a rate not exceeding par and accrued interest, and to the end will cause advertisements for a reasonable period to be published in one or more newspapers in the cities of New York and Boston, inviting proposals for the sale to it of said bonds at not exceeding the rate aforesaid; and if at the date fixed at the opening of said proposals, offers sufficient to absorb the fund aforesaid shall not have been made to sell said bonds to the party of the second part, the balance of the fund thus proposed to be applied shall be retained by it and added to the next semi-annual sum applicable to the payment of interest and to the purchase of said bonds.

And if at or after the expiration of five years from the date of said bonds, any sums then thus retained, together with the semi-annual sums applicable to the purchase of said bonds, be sufficient to purchase all of the same at the rate aforesaid, and proposals to sell the whole of the same to said party of the second part shall not have been made as aforesaid, or shall not be made upon notice published twice a week for three successive weeks in the newspapers aforesaid, fixing a further period of thirty days for such proposals, said party of the second part is to retain to its own use any surplus, and its obligation to purchase said bonds and pay said interest is to cease.

And further, inasmuch as the completion of said road may be delayed so that an insufficient sum will be realized to pay interest due on said mortgage bonds the first day of January next, or on the first days of July and January next succeeding, said party of the second part hereby agrees to pay said interest, retaining the amount thus paid out of the fifty per cent of gross earnings first realized.

Fourth—It is further agreed, by and between said Joy and said party of the second part, that if the proceeds of the sale of said mortgage bonds, and of said securities so delivered to said Joy by said Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company, together with the moneys paid or to be paid to said Joy by said corporation under their said agreement with him, shall, contrary to the expectation of both parties hereto, be insufficient to build and complete said road, said party of the second part will pay to said Joy such sum of money as may be necessary to complete the same.

And the said Joy, on his part in consideration thereof, hereby agrees to pay over to the party of the second part any surplus which may remain of the money or proceeds of securities aforesaid, after the completion of said road.

In witness whereof, the parties hereto have subscribed this instrument, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy R. R. Company by Nathaniel Thayer, Sidney Bartlett, and John W. Brooks, thereto duly authorized, and have affixed hereto their respective seals the day and year above written.

THE CHICAGO, BURLINGTON AND QUINCY RAILROAD COMPANY,

By S. BARTLETT,
J. W. BROOKS,
N. THAYER,

Committee.

TRUST MORTGAGE, April 25, 1868, The Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company to James F. Joy, Trustee.

This mortgage covers the Peoria and Hannibal Railroad, and secures an issue of bonds amounting to $600,000. These bonds are dated July 1, 1868, have ten years to run, bear interest at the rate of eight per cent, payable semi-annually, and mature July 1, 1878.

This Indenture, made this twenty-fifth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, between the Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company, a corporation duly created and organized by and under the laws of the State of Illinois, party of the first part, and James F. Joy, in the city of Detroit and State of Michigan, of the second part, witnesseth:—

Whereas, the said Peoria and Hannibal Rail Road Company, pursuant to the terms of the statutes of said State of Illinois incorporating it, and the amendments thereto, and other statutes of said State affecting it, is engaged in constructing a railroad from the town of Rushville in the county of Schuyler, by way of Vermont, Lewiston, and Canton in said county, to the terminus of the Peoria and Bureau Valley Rail Road at Peoria. And whereas, the said Peoria and Hannibal Rail Road Company are desirous of borrowing money to an amount not exceeding six hundred thousand dollars, to aid it in constructing the two sections of said road between Lewiston and Rushville, to be applied to the purchase and transportation of or in payment for iron, materials, superstructures, and equipments for said road or such part thereof, and has resolved to execute and has executed bonds of said company therefor, as follows, to wit: six hundred (600) in sums of one thousand dollars ($1,000) each, bearing date the first (1st) day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, payable on the first (1st) day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, bearing interest at the rate of eight per centum per annum, free of government tax, and payable semi-annually on the first day of each July and January, until said principal shall be paid, at the banking house of the Bank of Commerce in the city of New York, where both principal sum and interest are payable; said bonds to stand all equally secured by these presents, according to their amounts, notwithstanding the same may be issued at different times, and are numbered consecutively from one (1) to six hundred (600) inclusive, each of said bonds being authenticated by a certificate signed by the said party of the second part.

Now, therefore, this indenture witnesseth that the said The Peoria and Hannibal Rail Road Company, in order to secure the payment of said bonds and the interest thereon, and in consideration of the sum of five dollars to it in hand paid by the said party of the second part, at the ensealing and delivery of these presents, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, has granted, bargained, sold, transferred, and conveyed, and by these presents does grant, bargain, sell, transfer, and convey to the said party of the second part, his successors in the trust hereby created, and assigns, all the following present and in future to be acquired property of the said company, and all the right, interest, and equity of redemption therein, that is to say: all that part of the said Rail Road of said party of the first part, made and to be made, which lies between the depot of the said first party at the said town of Rushville, in the county of Schuyler and State of Illinois, and the depot of the said first party at Lewistown, in the county of Fulton in the State aforesaid, embracing the aforesaid two sections of said road, and including the depot at the said town of Rushville, and the right of way and the land occupied thereby, together with the superstruction and track thereon, and all the iron chairs and spikes, timber, materials furnished, and property purchased or to be purchased for the construction and equipment of the section of road hereby conveyed, and wherever the same may be, whether now upon said premises or elsewhere, all depot and station grounds and the buildings thereon and to be erected thereon, all the side tracks, bridges, viaducts, culverts, fences, ties, tools, or other personal property of said first party, now on said mortgaged premises, or belonging thereto, or purchased or procured for the construction thereof, though elsewhere situated; and all the rights, appurtenances, privileges, and franchise of said company in and to said mortgaged premises, or in any manner belonging thereto or connected therewith, so far as by law the said first party is authorized to convey the same, together with the net revenues and earnings and profits to be derived from the said Rail Road hereby conveyed.

To have and to hold the said premises and every part thereof, with the appurtenances, unto the said party of the second part, his successors in said trust and assigns, but upon the following trust, that is to say: in case the said Peoria and Hannibal Rail Road Company shall fail to pay the principal or any part thereof, or any of the interest on any of the bonds

secured and intended to be secured hereby, at any time when and where the same may become due and payable according to the tenor hereof, and for ten days thereafter, then and in such case all of said bonds, both principal sum and interest, shall thereupon immediately become due and payable, and upon request of the holders of any one of said bonds, the said party of the second part, or his successors in said trust and assigns, may enter into and take possession of all or any part of said premises, and as the attorney in fact or agent of the said first party, by himself or agent duly constituted, have, use, and employ the same, making from time to time the needful repairs, alterations, and additions thereto, and after deducting the expenses of such use, repairs, alterations, and additions, apply the proceeds of said premises to the payment of the principal sum and interest of said bonds remaining unpaid; or the said party of the second part, his successors in said trust and assigns, at his or their discretion, may, or on the written request of the holders of any one of the said bonds, then unpaid, shall cause the said premises, or so much thereof as shall be necessary to pay and discharge the principal and interest of all of said bonds as may be unpaid, together with all the expenses of sale, to be sold at public auction, at the north door of the court-house in the city of Chicago, in said State of Illinois, giving thirty days' notice of the time and place and terms of such sale by publishing the same in one of the principal newspapers in the city of Chicago at the time being, and upon such sale to execute to the purchaser or purchasers thereof a good and sufficient deed or deeds of conveyance in fee simple for the same, which shall be a bar against the said The Peoria and Hannibal Rail Road Company, party of the first part, its successors and assigns, and all persons claiming under it or them, of all right, interest, or claim in or to said premises, or any part thereof; and said trustee shall, after deducting from the proceeds of such sale the costs and expenses thereof, and of managing said property, apply so much of the said proceeds as may be necessary to the payment of said principal and interest on said bonds then unpaid, and shall restore the residue thereof to the party of the first part, its successors or assigns: it being expressly understood and agreed that in no case shall any claim or advantage be taken of any valuation, appraisement, redemption, or extension laws, by the said party of the first part, its successors or assigns, nor any injunction or stay of proceedings or any process be obtained or applied for by it or them, to prevent such entry or sale and conveyance as aforesaid. It is also hereby expressly agreed and understood that it shall be lawful for the said company or its successors to dispose of the current net revenues of said road hereby conveyed, in such manner as it or they shall elect, until default shall be made in the payment of the interest or principal of said bonds or of some one of them.

And the said Peoria and Hannibal Rail Road Company, for itself, its successors and assigns, does hereby covenant and agree to execute and deliver any further reasonable and necessary conveyance of the said premises, or any part thereof, to the said party of the second part, his successors in said trust and assigns, for more fully carrying into effect the objects and purpose of these presents, and of making them embrace the property and effects so expressed or intended to be conveyed. It is hereby mutually agreed, and these presents are upon the express condition that upon the payment of the principal sum and interest of said bonds, the estate hereby granted to the said party of the second part shall be void, and the right to the premises hereby conveyed shall revert to and revest in said first party, its successors and assigns, without any acknowledgment of satisfaction, reconveyance, re-entry, or other act. It is also further mutually agreed that the said party of the second part, his successors in said trust and assigns, shall only be accountable for reasonable diligence in the management thereof, and shall not be responsible for the acts of any agent employed by him, when such agent shall be selected or employed with reasonable discretion; and that the said second party, and his successor in said trust and assigns, shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for his labor and services, in case he shall be compelled to take possession of said premises or any part thereof, or manage the same. It is hereby further mutually agreed that in case of the death, mental incapacity, or resignation, or refusal of said trustees to act in the matter of said trust, all his right, estate, interest, power, and control in the premises shall be divested, cease, and determine (and upon the appointment of another to said trust, which may be done by the mutual agreement of said railroad company and the majority of the holders of said bonds; and in case of failure to agree, the holders of the majority of said bonds may apply to any court in the State of Illinois having jurisdiction in the premises, to appoint some proper person); and such new trustee shall become vested for the purpose aforesaid with all the right and interest and power requisite to enable him to execute the purpose of this trust, without any further or other assurance or conveyance for the same: but should it be desirable or necessary, both or either of the parties hereto shall execute and deliver any and all necessary release or conveyance for that purpose. And said second party hereby accepts the trust hereby created.

In witness whereof, the said Peoria and Hannibal Rail Road Company has caused its corporate seal to be hereto affixed, and the same to be subscribed by its president, and the said party of the second part has hereunto set his hand and seal the day and year first above written.

AGREEMENT, June 15, 1888, The Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company and Sidney Bartlett, H. H. Hunnewell and Henry Parkman, Trustees, and James F. Joy, Trustee.

This Agreement, made and entered into this fifteenth day of June, A. D. One Thousand, Eight Hundred and Eighty-Eight (1888), by and between the Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company, a corporation of the State of Illinois, party of the first part, and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company and Sidney Bartlett, H. H. Hunnewell and Henry Parkman, Trustees, parties of the second part;

Witnesseth: Whereas, the first party, of date April 25th, 1868, executed and caused to be recorded a first mortgage or trust deed upon its entire road and property and franchises, as described in said mortgage, to James F. Joy, Trustee, to secure certain bonds to be issued for the construction and completion of its road; and

Whereas, bonds of date July 1, 1868, and having (ten) years to run to maturity, were duly and regularly issued and certified by the trustees under said mortgage, to the amount of Six Hundred Thousand (600,000) Dollars in the aggregate, said bonds bearing interest from their date at the rate of eight (8) per cent per annum, payable semi-annually; and

Whereas, said bonds were sold on the market; and the said Sidney Bartlett, H. H. Hunnewell and Henry Parkman, as Trustees, under a certain mortgage or trust deed, executed to them of date July 1st, 1873, by the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, have become the purchasers and are now the holders of a majority of said bonds; and

Whereas, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company has become the purchaser and is now the holder of all the remainder of said bonds; all of which said bonds, together with the interest thereon up to this date, at the rate of eight (8) per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, are now due and wholly unpaid; and

Whereas, the party of the first part has made application to the parties of the second part for an extension of the time of payment of the said bonds and interest:

Now Therefore, it is agreed between the parties hereto that the first party will pay the principal of all said bonds, aggregating $600,000, as aforesaid, on the first day of July, A. D. 1903, and will pay interest thereon from and after this date at the rate of eight (8) per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, on the first day of July and the first day of January in each year. The first party further agrees to pay, on the said first day of July, 1903, all the interest now due upon said bonds and unpaid, together with interest upon said overdue interest at the rate of six (6) per cent per annum.

In consideration whereof, the parties of the second part agree to extend the time of payment of the principal of said bonds and of the interest now due thereon until said July 1, 1903, and to forbear to sue or institute proceedings before said date to foreclose the mortgage securing said bonds by reason or on account of any default thereon which has occurred previous to the date hereof.

It is further stipulated and agreed between the parties that the said debt evidenced by said bonds and interest shall be and remain in all respects secured by said mortgage or trust deed, of date April 25, 1868, to James F. Joy, Trustee, with full right and power in the second parties and in said trustee to enforce said mortgage and all their legal rights and remedies thereunder, in all respects the same as if this agreement for extension had not been made, except as herein modified as to time of payment.

And it is expressly agreed and understood that nothing herein contained shall be held or construed to impair the right of any person or parties entitled thereto to sue for and recover any installment or amount of interest hereafter falling due upon said bonds, or any one of them, as above provided, or to foreclose said mortgage on account of such future default in the payment of interest; but all such rights and remedies of suit and of foreclosure, in default of payment of such interest, are preserved in full force, as set forth in the mortgage.

It is further understood and agreed that the agreement for extension of time of payment and promise to pay said bonds and interest July 1st, 1903, is to be stamped upon each of said bonds in such form as may be agreed upon.

In witness whereof, the parties hereto have set their hands and seals, the day and year first above written.

The undersigned, trustee in the certain trust deed or mortgage executed by the Peoria & Hannibal Railroad Company, of date April 25, 1868, hereby assents and agrees to the annexed and foregoing contract, of date June 15, 1888, between said Railroad Company and the holders of the bonds issued under said mortgage, for an extension of said mortgage and of the time of payment of said bonds and the overdue interest thereon until July 1st, 1903.

And I hereby continue my acceptance of said trust.

JAS. F. JOY, Trustee.

AGREEMENT, May 8, 1905. The Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company and Henry Parkman, et al., Trustees.

This Agreement made this 8th day of May 1905, by and between the Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company, a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Illinois, party of the first part, and Henry Parkman, George H. Richards and A. G. Stanwood, Trustees, parties of the second part, Witnesseth:

Whereas on the 25th day of April, 1868, the party of the first part, in order to obtain funds for the construction of its railroad from the Town of Rushville, in the County of Schuyler, by way of Vermont, Lewiston and Canton in said county, to the terminus of the Peoria and Bureau Valley Railroad at Peoria in the State of Illinois, conveyed to James F. Joy, Trustee, and his successors in trust,

“All the following present and in the future to be acquired property of said company, and all the right, interest and equity of redemption therein, that is to say, all that part of the said railroad of said party of the first part (Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company) made and to be made, which lies between the depot of the said first party at the said town of Rushville in the County of Schuyler and State of Illinois, and the depot of the said first party (Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company) at Lewiston in the County of Fulton in the State aforesaid, embracing the aforesaid two sections of said road, and including the depot at the said town of Rushville and right of way and land occupied thereby, together with the superstruction and track thereon and all the iron chairs and spikes, timber, materials furnished and property purchased or to be purchased for the construction and equipment of the sections of road hereby conveyed, and wherever the same may be whether now upon said premises or elsewhere, and all depot and station grounds and the buildings thereon and to be erected thereon, all the side tracks, bridges, viaducts, culverts, fences, all ties, tools and other personal property of said first party (Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company) now on said mortgaged premises or belonging thereto or purchased or procured for the construction thereof though elsewhere situated, and all the rights, appurtenances, privileges and franchises of said company in and to said mortgaged premises, or in any manner belonging thereto or connected therewith so far as by law, the said first party (Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company) is authorized to convey same, together with the net revenue and earnings and profits to be derived from the railroad hereby conveyed,” in trust nevertheless to secure the payment of an issue of bonds for the total sum of six hundred thousand dollars ($600,000), which trust deed was acknowledged on the 25th day of April, 1868, and recorded as follows, in the Recorder's office of Schuyler County on May 25th, 1868, in Book 38 on page 224; and in the recorder's office of Fulton County on May 14th, 1868, in Book 73 at page 366.

And Whereas said trust was accepted by the said James F. Joy, and the said James F. Joy acted as trustee thereunder until September 24th, 1896, when he died,

And Whereas the said trust is still in esse and unexecuted but cannot be administered for want of a trustee.

And Whereas it is provided in and by said trust deed that

In case of the death, mental incapacity or resignation or refusal of said trustee to act in the matter of said trust, all his right, estate, interest, power and control in the premises shall be divested, cease and determine, and upon the appointment of another to said trust, which may be done by mutual agreement of said railroad company, and the majority of the holders of said bonds* * * such new trustee shall become vested for the purpose aforesaid with all the right and interest and power requisite to enable him to execute the purposes of this trust without any further or other assurance or conveyance for the same.

And Whereas the parties of the second part are the holders and owners of a majority of said bonds, to wit, all of said bonds.

Now Therefore, in consideration of the premises and of one dollar and other good and valuable considerations, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, it is agreed that Geo. B. Dunbar, of Chicago, Illinois, be and he is hereby appointed trustee in the place and stead of James F. Joy, deceased, with all the right, interest and power held and enjoyed by the said James F. Joy under said trust deed.

In Witness Whereof the parties hereto have caused this instrument to be executed the day and year first above written.

LEASE, March 15, 1899, The Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company to Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company.

This Indenture of Lease, made and entered into this fifteenth day of March, A.D. 1899, by and between the PEORIA & HANNIBAL RAILROAD COMPANY, a corporation created, organized, and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Illinois, party of the first part, and the CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & QUINCY RAILROAD COMPANY, a corporation created, organized, and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the same state, party of the second part;

Witnesseth: THAT, Whereas, the party of the first part is the owner of and maintains a railroad extending from a point about four (4) miles south of the town of Canton, in Fulton County, Illinois, southerly, via Lewistown and Vermont, to Rushville, in Schuyler County, Illinois, a distance of about forty-two (42) miles; and,

Whereas, the said first party has heretofore, in order to procure funds to pay for the construction and equipment of its road, and other lawful purposes, been compelled to borrow large sums of money, for which it has issued its mortgage bonds, and for which it is now liable with interest; and,

Whereas, the said party of the second part owns a line of railroad extending from Chicago to said point near Canton, to a connection with the railroad of the first party; and it is believed to be for the mutual interest of the two Companies and of the public, that the said first party's railroad and property shall be leased to and operated by the second party; and,

Whereas, with this purpose in view, meetings of the respective boards of directors of said corporations have been duly and legally called and held, at which the lease and agreements herein contained were considered and agreed upon:

NOW, THEREFORE, this Indenture Witnesseth: That the party of the first part, the Peoria & Hannibal Railroad Company, in consideration of the stipulations and agreements herein contained, to be kept and performed by the party of the second part, has granted, demised, and leased, and does hereby grant, demise, and lease, to the said party of the second part, the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, its successors and assigns, for the period hereinafter stated, all and singular its railroad above described, and extending from said point near Canton to Rushville, together with all rights of way and depot and other lands, or interests therein, belonging to or connected with the said railroad; all station houses and other buildings and structures belonging thereto, or used in connection therewith; together with all fixtures and appurtenances of said railroad, and all other property, of every kind and description belonging to or appertaining to the said railroad, or any part thereof.

To Have And To Hold the said railroad, and the premises and property above mentioned and described, unto the said Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, for the period hereinafter named.

The said party of the second part, in consideration of the premises, does hereby covenant and agree with the party of the first part, its successors and assigns to take immediate possession of the said demised railroad and other property above mentioned and described, and to keep the said railroad equipped, and to maintain and operate the same in such manner as to furnish reasonable accommodations to the public, and to pay or cause to be paid all taxes and assessments that may be lawfully charged or assessed against said railroad and property, or any part thereof, and to keep the said railroad and property and equipment in good condition and repair, and to return the same to the party of the first part, at the expiration of this lease, in as good condition and repair as they are at the commencement thereof.

The said party of the second part, in addition to the foregoing, and as rental for the use of the railroad and other property, demised as aforesaid, agrees to pay the interest upon all the bonds issued by the party of the first part, as aforesaid, and now outstanding, and the interest upon any renewals or extensions or replacements of said bonds, or any of them, as and when the several installments of the said interest mature and become due and payable; the interest coupons attached to the said several bonds being taken up and cancelled by the party of the second part as they respectively mature.

This lease shall take effect on the date hereof, and shall continue in force for the period of twenty-five (25) years from March fifteenth, 1899.

In Witness Whereof, the parties hereto have caused their corporate names to be hereunto, and to one other original, subscribed by their respective Presidents, and their corporate seals to be attached and attested by their respective Secretaries, the day and year first above written.

[U. S. REVENUE STAMP]

DEED, June 1, 1899, The Peoria & Hannibal Railroad Company to Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company.

This Indenture, Made this first day of June, A. D. 1899, by and between The Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company, party of the first part, and the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, party of the second part, both being corporations created, organized, and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Illinois, Witnesseth, That,

Whereas, The first party, being thereto duly authorized by law, is the owner of the following described railroad in the State of Illinois, to-wit:

Beginning at Lewistown, in Fulton County, extending thence south-westerly to Rushville, in Schuyler County, a distance of about thirty-two and sixty-six hundreths (32.66) miles; and,

Whereas, The railroad of the first party connects with the railroads of the second party, and forms therewith a continuous and connected line of railroad; and,

Whereas, The second party is now in possession of and operating the said above described railroad, in connection with its own railroads, and has offered to purchase the remaining interests, property, and franchise of the first party in and to said railroad, upon the terms and conditions hereinafter stated, which have been agreed to by the directors of both the said companies, and approved by the stockholders owning and holding two-thirds in amount of the capital stock of the parties of the first and second parts, in manner and form as required by law:

Now, Therefore, This Indenture Witnesseth: That the said party of the first part, for and in consideration of five dollars to it in hand paid, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and other good and valuable considerations, has granted, bargained, and sold, and by these presents does grant, bargain, sell and convey, release, assign, and transfer, to the said party of the second part, all and singular the said above described railroad, and all its right, title and interest therein; together with all rights of way, road-bed, bridges, and depot and other lands, or interest therein; and all station houses and other buildings and structures of whatever kind belonging thereto; together with all the fixtures and appurtenances appertaining to the said railroad, or in any manner connected therewith; also all rights, privileges, and franchises of the said party of the first part, in and to the aforesaid railroad; together with all other present and in future to be acquired property, of every kind and description, belonging to the said first party, except its franchise to be a corporation.

To Have and to Hold, the said railroad and lands, tenements, rights, privileges, and franchises, and other property, above mentioned and conveyed, to the said second party, its successors and assigns, forever.

And the said party of the second part covenants and agrees with the said party of the first part to equip the said railroad, or cause the same to be equipped, and to maintain and operate the same in such manner as to furnish reasonable accommodations to the public; to pay, or cause to be paid, all taxes and assessments that may be lawfully levied, charged, or assessed upon the said railroad and property, or any part thereof; and to assume all contracts, bonds, and other obligations, of whatsoever kind, and pay and discharge all debts and liabilities, both principal and interest, of the said party of the first part, as they may severally mature; and to issue and deliver to the owners and holders of the capital stock of the first party, one share of its own capital stock for every fifteen shares of the capital stock of said first party, upon the surrender and transfer to it of such shares of the first party's stock.

And to the end that the second party may have, hold, use, exercise, and enjoy the railroad and property and franchises of the first party, hereby conveyed and intended to be conveyed, and whether now existing or hereafter acquired, as fully as might be done by the first party, if this conveyance had not been made, the first party agrees to execute from time to time any additional assignment, conveyance, or assurance, and to perform any act, which the counsel of the second party may advise; and, for the purposes aforesaid, the first party agrees, if the second party shall so desire and advise, that it will keep up and maintain its corporate existence and organization.

In Witness Whereof, the parties hereto have caused their corporate names to be hereunto subscribed by their respective Presidents, and their corporate seals to be attached and attested by their respective Secretaries, all on the day and year first above written.

THE BURLINGTON BRIDGE

The steel Railroad Bridge across the Mississippi River at Burlington, Iowa, was begun in January, 1867, and completed in August, 1868. It was built by the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company as a part of its railroad.

Being across a navigable stream, specific authority from Congress was necessary, and is found in the Act of Congress in force July 25, 1866, which granted to the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company the right to construct this Bridge, "having first obtained authority therefor from the States of Illinois and Iowa."

Authority from the State of Illinois is found in the Eighth Section of the General Law approved February 28, 1854, (see page 3) specifically authorizing railroad companies formed under the Act to "construct their road across or over any stream into any adjoining State by such bridge or bridges as may be necessary to the convenience of the extension or consolidation of said road."

The Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company was formed under this Law, which became, and has always been held to be, a part of its Charter.

Additional authority from Illinois is found in a Special Act of the Illinois Legislature, in force February 12, 1853, authorizing "The Peoria and Burlington Railroad Bridge Company to build a bridge across the Mississippi River at Burlington," and giving to the Bridge Company the power "to sell the privileges of said Company to any company or corporation, on such terms as they may agree upon."

This Act was procured in the interest of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, which acquired the franchises of said Bridge Company.

The authority from the State of Iowa is found in Chapter 130 of the Laws of Iowa, passed by the General Assembly of that State (1864) authorizing any Railroad to construct a railroad bridge across the Mississippi River, "extending towards any point of the opposite bank that may be selected by such Company."

The bridge at Burlington is thirty-eight hundredths of a mile in length, of which thirty-two hundredths are in Illinois and six hundredths are in Iowa.

This bridge was entirely rebuilt, as a double-track railroad bridge. The work of rebuilding began in July, 1890, and was completed and the bridge put into service as a double-track bridge in October, 1892.

ACT OF CONGRESS

Approved July 25, 1866.

AN ACT to authorize the construction of certain bridges and to establish them as post roads.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That it shall be lawful for any person or persons, company or corporation, having authority from the States of Illinois and Missouri for such purpose, to build a bridge across the Mississippi river at Quincy, Illinois, and to lay on and over said bridge, railway tracks, for the more perfect connection of any railroads that are or shall be constructed to the said river at or opposite said point, and that when constructed, all trains of all roads terminating at said river, at or opposite said point, shall be allowed to cross said bridge for reasonable compensation, to be made to the owners of said bridge, under the limitations and conditions hereinafter provided. And in case of any litigation arising from any obstruction or alleged obstruction to the free navigation of said river, the cause may be tried before the District Court of the United States of any State in which any portion of said obstruction or bridge touches.

§ 2. And be it further enacted, That any bridge built under the provisions of this act may, at the option of the company building the same, be built as a draw bridge, with a pivot or other form of draw, or with unbroken or continuous spans: Provided, that if the said bridge shall be made with unbroken and continuous spans, it shall not be of less elevation, in any case, than fifty feet above extreme high water mark as understood at the point of location, to the bottom chord of the bridge, nor shall the spans of said bridge be less than two hundred and fifty feet in length, and the piers of said bridge shall be parallel with the current of the river; and the main span shall be over the main channel of the river and not less than three hundred feet in length; and provided, also, that if any bridge built under this act shall be constructed as a draw bridge, the same shall be constructed as a pivot draw bridge, with a draw over the main channel of the river at an accessible and navigable point, and with spans of not less than one hundred and sixty feet in length in the clear on each side of the central or pivot pier of the draw, and the next adjoining spans to the draw shall not be less than two hundred and fifty feet; and said spans shall not be less than thirty feet above low water mark, and not less than ten above extreme high water mark, measuring to the bottom chord of the bridge, and the piers of said bridge shall be parallel with the current of the river; and provided, also, that said draw shall be opened promptly, upon reasonable signal, for the passage of boats whose construction shall not be such as to admit of their passage under the permanent spans of said bridge, except when trains are passing over the same; but in no case shall unnecessary delay occur in opening the said draw, during or after the passage of trains.

§ 3. And be it further enacted, That any bridge constructed under this act, and according to its limitations, shall be a lawful structure, and shall be recognized and known as a post route; upon which, also, no higher charge shall be made for the transmission over the same of the mails, the troops, and the munitions of war of the United States, than the rate per mile paid for their transportation over the railroads or public highways leading to the said bridge.

§ 4. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, a corporation whose road has been completed to the Mississippi river and connects with a railroad on the opposite side thereof, having first obtained authority therefor from the States of Illinois and Iowa, to construct a railroad bridge across said river upon the same terms, in the same manner, under the same restrictions, and with the same privileges as is provided for in this act in relation to the bridge at Quincy, Illinois.

§ 5. And be it further enacted, That a bridge may be constructed at the town of Hannibal, in the State of Missouri, across the Mississippi river, so as to connect the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad with the Pike County and Great Western Railroads of Illinois, on the same terms and subject to the same restrictions as contained in this act for the construction of the bridge at Quincy, Illinois.

§ 6. And be it further enacted, That a bridge may be constructed across the Mississippi river between Prairie du Chien, in the State of Wisconsin, and North McGregor, in the State of Iowa, with the consent of the legislatures of Wisconsin and Iowa, on the same terms and subject to the same restrictions as are contained in this act for the construction of the bridge at Quincy, Illinois.

§ 7. And be it further enacted, That the Keokuk and Hamilton Mississippi Bridge Company, a corporation existing under the laws of the State of Iowa, and the Hancock County Bridge Company, a corporation existing under the laws of the State of Illinois, be, and are hereby authorized to construct and maintain a bridge over the Mississippi river between Keokuk, Iowa, and Hamilton, Illinois, of the same character, description and construction, as provided in this act for the bridges at Quincy and Burlington; and the said bridge, in its use and operation, shall be subject to the same restrictions that apply to said bridges at Quincy and Burlington, by the terms of this act.

§ 8. And be it further enacted, That the Winona and Saint Peter Railroad Company, a corporation existing under the laws of the State of Minnesota, is hereby authorized to construct and operate a railroad bridge across the Mississippi river, between the city of Winona, in the State of Minnesota, and the opposite bank of the said river, in the State of Wisconsin, with the consent of the legislatures of the States of Minnesota and Wisconsin; and said bridge, by this section authorized, is hereby declared a post route, and subject to all the terms, restrictions and requirements contained in the foregoing section of this act.

§ 9. And be it further enacted, That a bridge may be constructed and maintained across the Mississippi river, between Dunleith, in the State of Illinois, and Dubuque, in the State of Iowa, with the consent of said States previously given or hereafter acquired, with the same privileges, upon the same terms, and under the same restrictions as are contained in this act for the construction of a bridge at Quincy, Illinois.

§ 10. And be it further enacted, That any company authorized by the legislature of Missouri, may construct a bridge across the Missouri river, at the city of Kansas, upon the same terms and conditions provided for in this act.

§ 11. And be it further enacted, That the "Saint Louis and Illinois Bridge Company," a corporation organized under an act of the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, approved February fifth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, and an act amendatory of the same, approved February twentieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, and also confirmed in its corporate powers under an act of the legislature of the State of Illinois, approved eighteen hundred and sixty-four, or any other bridge company organized under the laws of Missouri and Illinois, be, and the same is hereby empowered to erect, maintain and operate a bridge across the Mississippi river, between the city of Saint Louis, in the State of Missouri, and the city of East Saint Louis, in the State of Illinois, subject to all the conditions contained in said act of incorporation and amendments thereto, and not inconsistent with the following terms and provisions contained in this act. And in case of any litigation arising from any obstruction or alleged obstruction to the free navigation of said waters, the cause may be tried before the District Court of the United States of any State in which any portion of said obstruction or bridge touches.

§ 12. And be it further enacted, That the bridge authorized by the preceding section to be built, shall not be a suspension bridge, or draw bridge, with pivot or other form of draw, but shall be constructed with continuous or unbroken spans, and subject to these conditions: First—that the lowest part of the bridge or bottom chord shall not be less than fifty feet above the city directrix at its greatest span. Second—that it shall have at least one span five hundred feet in the clear, or two spans of three hundred and fifty feet in the clear of abutments. If the two latter spans be used, the one over the main steamboat channel shall be fifty feet above the city directrix, measured to the lowest part of the bridge at the centre of the span. Third—no span over the water, at low water mark, shall be less than two hundred feet in the clear of abutments.

§ 13. And be it further enacted, That the right to alter or amend this act, so as to prevent or remove all material obstructions to the navigation of said river by the construction of bridges, is hereby expressly reserved.

BURLINGTON BRIDGE.

AN ACT to incorporate the Burlington Bridge Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Julius Manning, James W. Grimes, Abner C. Harding, Peter Sweat, Eleazer A. Paine, Rudolphus Rouse, John S. Pollock and Harman G. Reynolds, and their associates, are hereby created a body corporate and politic, by the name and style of "The Peoria and Burlington Railroad Bridge Company," with power to build, maintain and use a railroad bridge over the Mississippi river or that portion of said river within the jurisdiction of the State of Illinois, at or near the city of Burlington, and in such manner as shall not materially obstruct or interfere with the free navigation of said river, and to connect by railroad or otherwise such bridge with any railroad, either in the State of Illinois or Iowa, terminating at or near such point; to unite and consolidate their privileges and franchises with any and all bridge or railroad companies in either of said States; to fix the amount of capital stock; to divide, transfer and increase the same; to borrow money and pledge or mortgage its property and franchises; to condemn according to law property for the uses and purposes of said company; to contract, bargain and agree with any such railroad company or companies for and in the construction and maintenance of such bridge; to sell or lease said bridge or the use of the same, or the privileges of said company to any company or corporation, on such terms as they may agree upon.

§ 2. This act to take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

LAWS OF IOWA, 1864.—CHAPTER 130.

AN ACT to authorize the construction of Railroad Bridges across the Mississippi and Missouri Rivers.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa, That any railroad company now organized or hereafter to be organized, or bridge company incorporated in pursuance of the laws of this State, is hereby authorized and empowered to construct a railroad bridge across the Mississippi river connecting with the eastern terminus of the railroad of any such company, and abutting on the Iowa bank of said river at such place as shall be designated therefor by the board of supervisors of the county wherein said abutting is to be made, and extending toward any point of the opposite bank that may be selected by such company.

§ 2. That any railroad company or bridge company that now is or may hereafter become incorporated in pursuance of the laws of this State, is hereby authorized and empowered to construct a railroad bridge, across the Missouri river, connecting with the western terminus of the railroad of any such company, and abutting on the Iowa bank of said river at such place as shall be designated therefor by the board of supervisors of the county wherein said abutting is to be made, and extending toward any point on the opposite bank that may be selected by such company.

§ 3. No bridge shall be built under the provisions of this act until the plan thereof shall first be submitted to and approved by the said board of supervisors.

§ 4. The provisions of this act so far as practicable or applicable, shall apply and be extended to any railroad company, incorporated in pursuance of the laws of the State of Wisconsin, Illinois, Kansas, or the Territory of Nebraska, where such railroad extends to the bank of either of said rivers opposite the State of Iowa.

§ 5. Any such railroad corporation or bridge company shall have authority to issue its bonds or obligations for an amount not exceeding the cost of any such bridge, and of its railroad in the State of Iowa, and to secure the payment thereof by a mortgage on the same; and shall also have authority to issue certificates of common and preferred stock, the preferred stock to be issued only on condition that the holders of four-fifths of the common stock give their written consent thereto.

§ 6. Any such railroad or bridge companies are hereby authorized, with the consent of said board of supervisors, to construct the said bridges with suitable roads and footways for teams and foot passengers, with permission to charge toll for the same at rates to be approved by said board of supervisors.

§ 7. Any of said companies are hereby authorized to establish a ferry across either of said rivers at or near the terminus of said roads, to be used solely for the use of said companies for railroad freight and passengers until said bridges are constructed and ready for use.

§ 8. Each company acting under the provisions of this act, shall elect at least one director of such company, who shall be a citizen of and reside in the State of Iowa.

§ 9. Each foreign railroad company acting under the provisions of this act, shall be liable to be sued in any court of competent jurisdiction in this State, and the service of the original notice on the resident director provided in Section 8 of this act shall be sufficient to give the court jurisdiction of such company.

§ 10. Nothing in this act shall be construed so as to repeal or modify any law now in force relating to railroads or bridges.

§ 11. No bridge erected under and by virtue of this act or any law of this State shall be so located or constructed as unnecessarily to impede, injure or obstruct the navigation of either of said rivers.

§ 12. This act being deemed of immediate importance, shall take effect upon its publication in the Iowa Homestead, and Iowa State Register, papers published in Des Moines.

APPROVED April 5, 1864.

I hereby certify that the foregoing act was published in the Iowa State Register, April 27th, A. D. 1864, and in the Iowa Homestead April 27th, A. D. 1864.

JAMES WRIGHT,
Secretary of State.

THE CHICAGO TERMINAL

The Aurora Branch road was completed in 1852, from Aurora, north to Turner Junction (now West Chicago) in Du Page County, where it connected with the Galena & Chicago Union (now Chicago and North Western).

The Galena & Chicago Union Railroad, started in 1848, was the first railroad that was built and owned and operated in the State of Illinois with private capital, all the early projects undertaken by the State itself having by that time become financial failures.

The Burlington Company, on December 13, 1851, in order to get into Chicago, made a contract with the Galena Company, whereby it secured the right to use the thirty miles from Turner Junction to Kinzie Street, which was its only means of entrance into the city for thirteen years, or until 1864, when it built its own line into the city direct from Aurora, via Naperville, a distance of 36.42 miles.

The original location of the Chicago and North Western road in Chicago was from Kinzie Street west to Harlem (now Oak Park) and the Burlington used their Kinzie Street Station and Terminals from 1852 until 1856.

In the year 1855, the North Western built a cut off four and a half miles long from a point near Western Avenue south to Ogden Avenue and thence easterly to a connection with the St. Charles Air Line—joining with the Burlington, the Illinois Central and the Michigan Central in building the St. Charles Air Line, which was completed in 1856.

On the 28th of June, 1856, the contract of the Burlington with the North Western was modified so as to provide for the C. B. & Q. entering over the main line of the North Western as far as Western Avenue, and thence southerly over the cut off to the St. Charles Air Line, through which it connected with the Illinois Central, and it made a contract with the Illinois Central of date November 25, 1856, for the use of depot and terminal facilities on the Lake Front at the foot of Randolph Street, jointly with the Michigan Central.

The original contract of the C. B. & Q. with the Illinois Central in November, 1856, was confirmed in a more formal contract that was dated December 22, 1858, taking effect December 1, 1857.

The C. B. & Q. renewed this contract with the Illinois Central in 1862, for a further period of two years, or until June, 1864, and there were successive renewals, so that the Burlington was occupying this Illinois Central-Michigan Central Union Depot for its terminal, and also its general offices, at the time of the Chicago Fire, in October, 1871, which completely destroyed the premises.

Meantime, in 1864, the Burlington Company had extended its line from Aurora directly east to a connection with the St. Charles Air Line, after which it gave up the use of the North Western from West Chicago, and ever since 1864, has operated its own line directly into the city.

After the great fire, there was a long delay in securing passenger terminal facilities. The Burlington Company in December, 1878, still occupied the temporary structures that were hastily provided after the fire. This very unsatisfactory condition continued until the fall of 1880, at which time the Burlington completed arrangements with the Pennsylvania Company to use what was known as the Chicago Union Passenger Station, on the west side at Canal and Adams Streets, and thereafter discontinued the use of the Illinois Central passenger terminal at Randolph Street. The Burlington has ever since continued the use of the Chicago Union Station, which was entirely rebuilt in 1925, and is now occupied under a contract that is dated July 2, 1915. The passenger terminals, therefore, of the Burlington in Chicago were:

1. From 1852 to 1856 (four years) the old Kinzie Street Station of the North Western on the North Side;
2. From 1856 to 1881 (25 years) the Lake Front at Randolph and Michigan.
3. From 1881 to 1927 (46 years) the Chicago Union Passenger Station, Canal and Adams Street, on the West Side.

Its general office building at the corner of Jackson and Clinton, was built in 1912. From 1883 to 1912, (29 years) it had its own separate office building at Franklin and Adams Streets.

AGREEMENT dated December 13, 1851, between Aurora Branch Railroad Company and Galena and Chicago Union Railroad Company.

This agreement, made and concluded this thirteenth day of December, A.D. 1851, by and between the Aurora Branch Rail Road Company, of the first part, and the Galena and Chicago Union Railroad Company, of the second part, both being corporations established by the Laws of the State of Illinois,

Witnesseth, That to promote the greater convenience of the public, and to facilitate the despatch of the Joint Business of the two Companies, meaning by "Joint Business" any business participated in by them, which shall pass over the whole or any portion of the road of the second party, between Chicago and the junction of the two roads, and over any portion or the whole of the road of the first party, whether relating to the transportation of passengers or freight, as well as for the purpose of defining their separate relations to each other in the transaction of said joint business, the said parties hereby mutually agree with each other as follows:

First—The taking of goods or passengers upon one of these roads to pass upon the other, shall not, by reason of this instrument, (except when it is specifically provided,) affect the remedy of either against the other, nor give the public any rights of action against both, or either separately, which they would not otherwise have.

Second—Each party, upon its respective road, shall furnish, for the joint business which may originate or be left upon it, as suitable and proper, Depot Accommodations, as it may have and use for its own separate business, and each will exercise the same care and vigilance, as well in selling tickets to passengers and giving them proper information, as in receiving and delivering all freight offered for transportation, including the loading and unloading for the joint business, as for its separate business.

Each party will also collect and be answerable to the other for the dues and receipts on joint account accruing on its separate road, and as soon as practicable, and not longer than six working days after the close of each month, render and settle an account of the same and pay over to the other party its proportion thereof.

Third—The party of the first part will furnish, repair and operate all necessary and suitable Motive Power to transport the trains for the joint business upon the road of the second party, between the junction of the two roads and the City of Chicago as well as upon their own road, and will transport the trains used therefor promptly and without unnecessary delay, and will furnish the men to manage such Motive Power and the oil for the same. Such trains to be run under the direction of the agent of the second party as fully as are the trains of the separate business of the second party, and the men upon or in the management of such Motive Power shall be as fully under the direction of the agent of the second party, as if they were in the service of that party, and subject to be suspended upon like grounds. In arranging the time at and in which the trains of the joint business shall pass over the road of the second party, the second party shall be as liberal and fair with them as with their own trains, showing no partiality or favor to their own trains over those operated by the first party for the joint business. The time of starting the trains of the joint business upon the road of the second party may be named from time to time by the first party, who shall give two weeks' notice to the second party of any change they desire; and the second party shall only modify or change such time of starting sufficiently, not unnecessarily to interfere with the previously established time of their own trains.

The second party will furnish the fuel and water to the locomotives of the first party when upon their road and at their stations, and generally upon their road render the same assistance and service to the trains of the joint business (excepting that the first party shall oil them) as they do to the trains of their separate business, so that it shall not be necessary for the first party to have any men upon the road of the second party in addition to the usual number they send with their trains. The second party shall suspend or discharge any of their men for the same faults with reference to the trains for the joint business, as would result in a suspension or discharge had it referred to their own trains.

Fourth—The party of the first part shall furnish all necessary and suitable Passenger, Freight and other cars for the joint business and shall sufficiently equip them with conductors, brakemen, baggagemen, and other necessary agents and servants to take charge thereof; also furnish oil and stove fuel necessary for the same, it being agreed by the party of the first part that such conductors and other servants of theirs, while upon the road of the party of the second part, shall be as fully under the direction of the agent of that road, as if they were in the service of that road, and subject to be suspended on like grounds. Said party of the first part shall also take all risk and liability and indemnify from all cost and expenses, the other party for injury, damage or loss which may happen to such cars or to their servants employed in managing them, or to the passengers or freight carried on joint account, while they are upon or passing over the road of the second party, as fully as if such cars and servants, passengers and freight, were upon or passing over their own road, such risk and liability to extend to any such servants, passengers or freight which may happen to be in, or upon the cars of the party of the second part or of any other connected Rail Road Company, whose business passes over the whole or any portion of the road of the first party to or from the road of the second party, as well as to passengers, servants or freight in and upon their own cars as aforesaid. It is, however, understood, in regard to the said first party's liability for the safe care and custody of joint freight, while upon the road of the second party, that such liability shall not commence upon freight to go from the road of the second party until it is delivered upon the cars, and to the train of the first party, and shall terminate, upon freight coming from the road of the party of the first part when it is delivered to the servants of the second party, at the station of its destination, who shall receive it upon its arrival.

Fifth—The party of the first part shall have the right to fix upon and to alter and adjust the tariff for the passengers and freight of the joint business; but said party shall not fix the said tariff from any point upon the road of the second party to any point upon the road of the first party within ten miles of the junction of the two roads, any lower than the same is fixed by the second party, from the same points respectively to points the same distance beyond the junction upon the road of the second party, to the prejudice or injury of the second party, as to its share of the earnings or revenue from the passengers or freight in question.

Sixth—The mode of division of the revenue from the joint business shall be as follows, subject only to the contingent modification provided for in the seventh article hereof:—The whole money earned upon the two roads in the transportation of any property or passengers in the joint business, shall be presumed to have been earned upon each road in proportion to the distance it has passed over each road, allowing to every mile it may be carried a uniform rate of compensation, or dividing the whole money earned by the number of miles the passenger or freight has been carried to get the earnings of each mile, and this multiplied by the miles carried upon each road will give the revenue earned upon each road. The whole of the revenue accrued or earned upon the road of the first party shall belong to it. Of the whole monies earned or accrued upon the road of the second party, seventy dollars out of every one hundred shall belong to it; and the balance, being thirty dollars out of every one hundred shall belong to the party of the first part; and after this rate shall all money thus earned upon the joint freight and passenger business upon the road of the second party be divided. The money earned in joint business by the transportation of Expresses, shall be divided in the same manner as above specified for the division of the revenues from the passenger and freight business. The money earned for the transportation of the United States Mails upon the road of each party, shall belong to each respectively, provided only, that if the Post Office Department pay an extra compensation to the party of the second part, by reason of the mails which pass to and from Chicago, and over the road of the party of the first part, then in that case, the said extra compensation only shall be divided in the same manner as the revenues from the passenger and freight business.

Seventh—The party of the first part shall have the right to elect to and provide the depot accommodations for the joint business in the City of Chicago at any time within one year from the date of this instrument, and at any time thereafter, by giving to the party of the second part two years' notice of their intention to do so, provided that such depot shall be so located as that it shall promote the joint business of the parties to this contract, and shall not in any wise work any injury to the said party of the second part.

Whenever the first party shall provide their own depots in Chicago, as aforesaid, they shall cease to use the depots of the second party at that place, and shall do all the loading and unloading, keeping of accounts and collecting dues, and, in short, perform all the services and assume all the responsibilities at Chicago with reference to the joint business, which were before performed and assumed by the second party. In case the said first party shall provide their own depot accommodations in the City of Chicago, then from and after the time when they cease to use the Chicago depots of the party of the second part, they shall furnish all the fuel for the motive power of the joint business, and the water at the City of Chicago; but the second party shall furnish the necessary water for such motive power at their usual watering places between Chicago and the junction of the two roads.

Whenever these provisions go into effect, by reason of the first party having provided their own depot accommodations and fuel, as aforesaid, then the mode of division of the revenues of the joint business, as set forth in the sixth article of this instrument, shall be so modified, that in every case where the second party was to receive seventy dollars out of every one hundred, they shall receive but fifty dollars out of every one hundred; and where the first party was to receive thirty dollars out of every one hundred dollars, they shall receive fifty dollars out of every one hundred: the first party still receiving all the money earned in the joint business upon its own road as before provided. In other respects the said provisions as to dividing the revenues shall not be changed.

Eighth—Should any passenger or freight get into or upon the cars or trains of the joint business, in their passage over the road of the second party, such passengers or freight not passing over any portion of the road of the first party, the money collected for the transportation of such freight or passengers shall, all of it, be immediately paid over to the party of the second part: it not being intended by this instrument to interfere in any manner with the separate business of the second party.

Ninth—If, in the execution and performance of this contract, questions of difference shall arise between the parties hereto in relation to the management of said road between the Junction and Chicago, or in relation to agents and employees, and adjustment of the tariff under this contract, or as to the meaning of this contract, or any part thereof, or if in practice it shall be found that some other provisions should have been inserted herein, or some contained herein should be modified or changed, in order to secure the objects designed by this contract; or if in practice it shall be found by either party, that any provision or stipulation herein, operates injuriously or unjustly to the interests of said party, it is mutually agreed by the parties hereto, that in every such case, in order to carry out the general scope and intent of this contract, if the parties in interest cannot agree, the matter which may be the subject of controversy at any time or times, shall be referred to three umpires, two of whom shall be presidents or superintendents of railroads, and practically acquainted with the operation thereof, and the third shall be a legal person: one to be chosen by each party to this contract, and the third by the persons so chosen: whose decision of the matter to them referred, shall be final and conclusive: provided, that when any one of the contingencies happens, contemplated by this ninth article, either party shall notify the other, in writing, thereof, stating the umpire that has been selected on their part; and if within twenty days the other party shall not select the umpire on their part, and give notice in writing to the other party, it shall be optional with the party that has chosen such umpire to select the other, which two shall have the right to appoint the third; and their decision shall be final and conclusive between the parties.

Tenth—This contract shall take effect and be in force for the term of thirty years from and after the first day of January, A. D. 1852.

In witness whereof, the said parties have hereunto respectively set their seals: the Aurora Branch Rail Road Company acting by their President and Secretary, and the Galena and Chicago Union Rail Road Company, acting by their President and Secretary, both on the day and year first above written.

SUPPLEMENTAL AGREEMENT, June 28, 1856. The Chicago Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company and the Galena and Chicago Union Railroad Company.

Whereas, certain Articles of Agreement were made and concluded by and between the Aurora Branch Rail Road Company, now known as the Chicago, Burlington, and Quincy Railroad Company, as party of the first part, and the Galena and Chicago Union Railroad Company, party of the second part, and bearing date the thirteenth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, for the regulation of joint business between the said Corporate Companies. And, whereas, the said Corporate Companies have agreed to modify and change the said agreement, in some respects, for and during the term of five years, to be reckoned and computed from the first day of May now last past. It is therefore mutually agreed between the said parties, that, from and after the said first day of May now last past, the said party of the first part shall only pay to the said party of the second part, twenty-seven per cent. of the whole money earned or accrued upon the Road of the second party, for the use of the said Road, in lieu and stead of fifty per cent., as was agreed to be paid by the said first contract, under the said contract so to be hereby modified as aforesaid, and for Station Service and Fuel, to be rendered and furnished by the said party of the second part, the said party of the first part shall pay, in lieu of twenty per cent., the sum of twenty-five per cent., making the sum thus to be paid for the said five years only fifty-two per cent., in lieu and stead of seventy per cent., as was heretofore stipulated to be paid by the said agreement, first made between the said parties, and herein referred to.

It is further agreed between the said parties, that the said party of the first part shall be entitled to the use of the Railroad Track, known as the Chicago, St. Charles & Mississippi Air Line Railroad, from its junction with the Railroad Track of the said party of the second part to the City of Chicago, for all purposes necessary for the transportation of freight and passengers to and fro thereon, and when the said Chicago, St. Charles & Mississippi Air Line Railroad Track shall be used, the distance thereon shall be reckoned and computed to be the same, and not greater than that of the road of the said party of the second part, and the same aggregate compensation, and no more, shall be paid to the said party of the second part for the use of one of said roads as for the use of the other, without regard to the relative lengths of said roads. The said last named road to be used upon the same terms and conditions as those upon which the road of the said second party is used, and not otherwise.

It is further agreed, that if the said party of the first part shall furnish and perform station service and do station duty for passengers, at any other station than that of the said party of the second part, that the said party shall be compensated therefor, by the said party of the second part, at the rate of three and one-half cents upon each passenger paying fare to the said party of the first part, and passing over the road of the said party of the second part; anything in this, or the contract of which this is a modification, to the contrary notwithstanding.

It is further agreed by and between the said parties, in consideration of the reduction of compensation, hereby agreed upon, to be paid to the said party of the second part, that the said party of the first part will cause all passengers and freight which it may control, to & from Chicago, to pass over the road of the said party of the second part, and will not charge a less rate per mile for the transportation of passengers or freight destined to pass to, or coming from any point beyond Amboy on the Illinois Central Rail Road, than that charged for the like service to be rendered upon the road of the said party of the second part, for the transportation of passengers and freight upon the ten miles of its road nearest the junction of the two roads of the said parties—the object, spirit, and intent of this agreement being to prevent all competition or rivalry between the said roads of the said parties, to the prejudice of either.

It is hereby further agreed by and between the said parties, that the said party of the second part shall not be required to perform any station service, or furnish fuel for the said party of the first part, after one year from the said first day of May now last past, but that the said party of the second part shall furnish water for the use of the Locomotives of the said party of the first part, at stations, as is provided in the contract hereby modified.

And it is hereby further mutually agreed by and between the said parties, that each shall account for, and pay over, to the other, each and every week, as near as may be ascertained, the amount of money which may have accumulated in its hands belonging to the other, leaving accurate settlements to be made between them at the end of each month, or within six days thereafter, as is provided for in the contract of which this is a modification; at which time abstracts of the joint business shall be furnished by each company to the other, and the books of each shall be open to the other to verify the same.

And it is hereby agreed by and between the said parties, that the said first party shall at all times within the said period of five years send and transmit all passengers and freight to and from Chicago going over its line of road, over the road of the said second party, and shall not encourage the building of any road to Chicago, or make a connection with any other railroad to that City, so as within that time to diminish the profits or divert business from the road of the said second party, and will not, within the said five years, do any act itself either directly or indirectly, or make any arrangements with any other railroad company or companies, or otherwise connecting with Chicago so as in any manner to affect unfavorably the interest of, or diminish the business which would naturally go over the road of the said party of the second part.

The said party of the second part, hereby reserves to itself the right to terminate this contract upon giving two years previous notice to the said party of the first part, naming the time when the same shall terminate and cease.

In witness whereof, the said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, heretofore known as the Aurora Branch Railroad Company, and the Galena and Chicago Union Rail Road Company have caused their respective seals to be hereunto affixed, and the same to be subscribed by their respective Presidents at Chicago, this day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred fifty-six.

AGREEMENT, November 25, 1856, between Illinois Central Railroad Company and The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company.

OFFICE OF CHICAGO BURLINGTON & Q. LINE

J. H. Done Esq.,

Supt., Ill. C. R. R.

Dear Sir,

Having heretofore had several conversations relative to the transfer of the business of the C. B. & Q. Road from the depots of the C. & G. Co. to those of the Ill. C. R. R. Co. I now make you this proposition.

The Ill. C. R. R. shall furnish to us depot accommodations & do our depot service and generally furnish to us the same accommodations and service as the Galena Co. now does, except ground upon which to do the lumber trade, shall defray all the expense of wood upon the track of the C. & G. R. R. and all the expenses of doing depot service upon the lumber grounds for which services & accommodations the C. B. & Q. Co. will pay your Co. 25 per cent of the gross earnings of the latter Co. upon the track of the Galena road from the Junction into the Ill. C. R. R. depots, estimating the distance to be 30 miles, this arrangement to continue five years from May 1st.

It is however understood that the depot service connected with the lumber trade may be done & other wood furnished by the C. B. & Q. Co. the expenses thereof to be paid by the Ill. C. R. R. Co.

Yours truly,

JAMES F. JOY.

Chicago, June 25th, 1856

James F. Joy, Esq.,

Dear Sir,

The proposition contained in your letter of yesterday relative to depot service & depot accommodations in Chicago of the C. B. & Q. R. R. is accepted—

We will endeavor to have the addition to our Depot track which may be required to furnish proper facilities to the business put in without delay so as to admit your freight trains to our depot grounds, at an early date not later than the 1st of August next.

Yours truly,

J. H. DONE.

The foregoing propositions & acceptance being made by the authority of the proper officers of the two companies viz., The Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Rail Road Company, & The Illinois Central Rail Road Company it is understood shall & does constitute a contract between them relative to the transactions of the business therein provided for, showing the terms upon which, and the time for which the business shall be done by the Illinois Central Rail Road Company & shall become operative on the 1st of December, A. D. 1856 and the transfer of business shall be made as rapidly as practicable.

AGREEMENT, December 22, 1858, between Illinois Central Railroad Company and The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company.

An Agreement made and concluded this twenty-second day of December A. D. 1858 between the Illinois Central Rail Road Company party of the first part and the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Rail Road Company, party of the second part

Witnesseth: That the party of the first part agrees to furnish and provide all necessary, proper and convenient depots, depot grounds, tracks, buildings and appurtenances in the City of Chicago, State of Illinois on and in connection with the present depot grounds situated at the Junction of Chicago River and Lake Michigan for the prompt and convenient transaction of all the freight and passenger business of Road of the second party in the City of Chicago, excepting only their lumber business beyond such, as the second party may find it convenient to do upon the grounds especially set apart for them.

The party of the first part, further agrees, that the party of the second part shall have at all times the right to use the tracks extending from and to the above mentioned depot grounds and the Union track near their round house, also the tracks extending to & from said round house and the cattle yards for the purpose of conveying stock to & from said yards and the usual use of any yards owned or controlled by the first party for the convenient and prompt delivery and receipt of stock.

The party of the first part further agrees that they will set apart proper and convenient tracks, buildings and grounds for the accommodation of the business of said second party and so as to separate it as much as may be practicable from that of their own or other roads and so as to enable the said second party to do their own switching and all other station service with the least possible delay or interference from said first party or others using portions of said depot, grounds and tracks.

For the purposes aforesaid, in part, the said first party hereby set apart for the sole use of said second party the lower floor of the west half of their present main freight-house and sufficient storage room in the second story for estrayed freight and baggage, the west track now leading into the same with all the tracks and grounds lying between said track and the tracks and grounds of the Michigan Central Rail Road Company, including the transfer freight house and the dock and landing on the Chicago river lying north of that part of the main freight house and grounds above described; the said first party reserving the right for a passage for teams across the said grounds at north end of said main freight house, and also the right to the use of not exceeding one half of that portion of said transfer freight house which is owned by said first party; also the right to reduce the platform in the main freight house west of the present tracks, sufficient to lay down a third track, in which case the middle track in said main freight house shall be used jointly for the transfer of cars.

The said second party shall have the sole use of the grain house B and the tracks leading to and into it with sufficient tracks adjoining to accommodate their trains and cars, which said tracks shall be constructed, laid down, and connected with the main tracks at the proper place or places within a reasonable time, and until they shall be laid down and ready for use, they the said second party shall have the right to use grain house A and all tracks necessary for the proper, prompt and sufficient accommodation of their trains & business.

The said first party further agrees that all grain delivered at said grain houses by said second party, shall be taken from the car in a prompt and satisfactory manner and without cost or expense to the second party and delivered to consignees upon terms as favorable as those charged to the Illinois Central Rail Road Company or its consignees, or for similar facilities by other grain warehouses.

But in case the parties to the agreement find it equally convenient in periods of limited business to discharge the grain delivered by their cars in other grain houses upon their depot grounds, it shall be done provided the capacity of grain house B shall at all times be reserved for the accommodation of the second parties.

The said second party shall also have the exclusive right to the use of the two tracks now occupied by them in the passenger house and the same joint rights of occupancy of other tracks and parts of the building and premises they now enjoy, with the right also to do their own station service or have it performed jointly upon such terms as may be from time to time agreed upon.

The said first party shall also provide and designate a convenient track alongside of one of their slips to be used by the second party together with the use of such slip in connection therewith when their business may require it beyond the dock accommodation already provided for in this agreement.

All the buildings, tracks, grounds and appurtenances before mentioned are to be maintained and kept in good order condition and repair by said first party and at their own expense.

In consideration of the foregoing premises, agreements privileges and facilities, which are to be maintained, kept, furnished and provided by said party of the first part for and during the full term of four years from and after the first day of December A. D. 1857, the party of the second part hereby agrees to pay to the party of the first part at the rate of forty thousand dollars per annum payable in equal monthly payments commencing on the first day of July 1857 and terminating on the first day of December A. D. 1861.

It is further agreed that this contract shall be terminated and peaceable surrender of possession made by the second party on the first day of December 1861.

It is agreed that from and after the first day of January next the accommodation that may be required by the C. B. & Q. R. Rd. Co. and furnished by the Ills. Cent. R. Rd. Co. shall be according to this contract and not qualified by any reference to past accommodation and that the compensation to be paid by the C. B. & Q. R. Rd. Co. to the Ills. Cent. R. Rd. Co. for the year commencing July 1, 1857, shall be thirty-five thousand dollars instead of forty thousand dollars.

In Witness Whereof the said Illinois Central Rail Road Company and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company have caused their respective seals to be hereto affixed and the same to be subscribed by their respective presidents this twenty second day of December, 1858.

AGREEMENT, December 22, 1858, between Illinois Central Railroad Company and The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company.

It is agreed between the Illinois Central Company and the C. B. & Q. R. R. Co. that if they cannot settle between themselves the bills which either may have against the other having reference to the Depot service at Chicago of the C. B. & Q. R. R. Co. such bills or accounts shall be left to referees, one to be chosen by each Company and in case these two cannot agree they may appoint a third when the decision of the majority shall be final upon the questions submitted to them. It being understood that the C. B. & Q. R. R. Co. will claim that the bills which the Illinois Central R. R. Co. may have against them for use of engines for training as well as other bills & expenses of both Companies for Depot service are larger than they would have been if the Depot accommodation provided by the Ills. Cent. R. Rd. Co. had been more convenient and in accordance with this contract in that matter and if such positions are denied by the Ills. Cent. R. Rd. Co. or if from any cause they cannot settle the value and might of these considerations shall be also a subject for the referees to consider in case of disagreement. It is understood that all bills and accounts included in this agreement shall be presented & settled as soon as possible.

AN AGREEMENT made and entered into this First day of June, 1862.

Between the Illinois Central Rail Road Company, party of the first part, and The Chicago Burlington & Quincy Rail Road Company party of the second part. Witnesseth

That the party of the first part for the considerations hereinafter mentioned agrees to furnish to the said second party the rights to use the tracks of the said first party between the Junction of its Main line and the St. Charles Air line and a point where the North line of Randolph Street in the City of Chicago, if extended would cross said Main line for all the Passenger trains of the said Second party, subject always to the police rules and regulations that may from time to time be adopted by the said first party for the government of its line—

And it is further agreed that the said party of the first part leases to the said party of the second part, the use of the undivided half of the two tracks now used by the said second party's Passenger trains in the Central Union Passenger Depot and the joint use of the track now used by all trains coming into said Depot and the joint use of the platform, Passenger grounds, receiving rooms and receiving and discharging baggage rooms, and all of the Ticket office now used by said second party to continue for the term of two years from the first of June 1862—

It is agreed that the said first party shall do all switching at rates now established and other Station Service, except the cleaning, lighting and making fires in the said second party's cars.

It being expressly understood that the rights above leased consist of the undivided half thereof, which is the only interest belonging to said first party.

In consideration of the foregoing the said second party agrees to pay to the Treasurer of the said first party, the sum of Seven Thousand dollars per annum for the use of the track between the Junction of the Main line and the St. Charles Air Line, and the North line of Randolph Street, and Two Thousand dollars per annum for the use of the rights leased in the Passenger House as above mentioned Payments to be made monthly.

It is further agreed that the said second party for the considerations hereinbefore mentioned will also pay monthly to the first party hereto Thirty (30%) per cent. of the entire expenses of switching for Passenger Depot, lighting, watering, and heating the same, wages of Depot Master, and the men in his employ, excluding such service as said second party performs for themselves including all the general charges connected with the Passenger Depot service

It is further agreed that if the track should be injured from any cause so as to prevent the passage of trains, the said first party will not be responsible for damages for such delay, but if said interruption of trains should exceed three days at any one time a pro-rata deduction of rent shall be made for such time.

This Contract to remain in force from the first day of June 1862 until the first day of June 1864, when the said second party agrees to withdraw from the track and Depot above referred to.

In Witness Whereof the said Illinois Central Rail Road Company and the Chicago Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company have caused their respective seals to be affixed this the First day of June 1862.

Chicago

DEAR SIR:

This Company will after the 1st July admit your passenger trains as heretofore over its track into the Depot with similar accommodations for the term of three years charging monthly at the rate of Eight thousand dollars per annum for the use of track and four thousand dollars per annum for one half interest in passenger Depot with 30% of the current expenses of Depot service.

We are not prepared to enter into a permanent engagement to bring in your passenger trains chiefly owing to the conflict which is found to occur in the working of the contract with the Michigan Central in cases of collision our remedy is too frail, the injured in case of accident prefer their legal remedy against our Company as the owners of the Railway track, if such accidents occur through the negligence of our lessees, our defence in court will be the basis of settlement with them, it is obvious that we cannot sustain the double relation of defendant & claimant,—Should our difficulties with the Michigan Central in this regard be placed on a reasonable basis, and a principal established which will avoid such in future we shall be ready to treat with you for a permanent footing and right for passenger trains to our Depot.

Another motive for deferring this permanent arrangement is this, we propose constructing a special track from Calumet to Chicago for the separate use of the Michigan Central Company with which your intimate relations exist, and upon the construction thereof shall with their assent and co-operation be prepared to admit your trains in perpetuity upon that track upon equitable terms if such can be devised to the satisfaction of both parties.

Yours Respectfully,

AGREEMENT September 7, 1880, between the Pennsylvania Co., Chicago and Alton Railroad Co., Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway Co., Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Co., and Pennsylvania Railroad Company and Pittsburg, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway Company, Regarding Union Passenger Station.

This Indenture Made this seventh day of September in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty between the Pennsylvania Company, as first party, the Chicago and Alton Railroad Company, as second party, the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway Company, as third party, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, as fourth party, and the Pennsylvania Railroad Company as fifth party, bears witness:

Whereas, The first party is in possession of the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway and all its equipments, and is operating and maintaining the same under a lease to the fifth party for the term of nine hundred and ninety-nine years, from July 1st, 1869; and,

Whereas, The first party is about to construct a general passenger depot, with suitable appurtenances and accommodations, in the city of Chicago, upon lands already owned by the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway Company, and upon other lands soon to be acquired for use in connection with said railway; said lands owned and to be acquired being described as follows: A part of blocks sixty-nine, seventy, seventy-one and seventy-two, in school section addition to the city of Chicago, and being a continuous tract of land extending from the north side of Van Buren street to the south side of Madison street, intersected, however, by Jackson, Adams and Monroe streets, having a frontage of seventeen hundred and eighty-two feet on Canal street; a depth of one hundred and thirty-five feet along the north side of Van Buren street, and a depth of one hundred and thirty-two feet along the south side of Madison street; a map of said lands, and a ground plan of said passenger depot, tracts and appurtenances being hereto attached and marked "Exhibit A;" and,

Whereas, The second, third and fourth parties wish to acquire the right to use said passenger depot, tracks and appurtenances, jointly with said first party, and with such other company or companies as may hereafter, under the provisions of this Agreement, be admitted to a joint use of said passenger depot and appurtenances, and the first party is willing to grant a right to such joint use to said second, third and fourth parties, upon the terms and conditions, and for the consideration hereinafter mentioned:

Now Therefore, It is covenanted and agreed between the parties as follows:

I. The first party shall at once begin, and with reasonable diligence, complete the construction of said general passenger depot, also the tracks and other appurtenances to said depot, according to the plan hereto attached.

II. The first party hereby grants and conveys to the second, third and fourth parties, their successors and assigns, the right to use jointly with said first party, said general passenger depot, also said tracks and other appurtenances, when the same shall be completed, during the entire period of the unexpired term of said lease, to-wit, nine hundred and ninety-nine years from the first day of July, A. D. 1869, and of any renewal thereof, subject, always, however, to the strict performance by the second, third and fourth parties respectively, of all the obligations herein stipulated to be by them severally performed.

III. The first party shall be charged with the duty of insuring said depot, and of repairing, renewing and maintaining said depot, tracks and appurtenances, also of paying all premiums of insurance, and all taxes and assessments which may be lawfully levied or assessed upon said depot, tracks and appurtenances or upon the land whereon the same may be constructed, or upon any part of either of them. The first party shall furnish to the other parties using said depot, statements, monthly, as hereinafter provided, of all payments made by it on account of items named in this Article.

IV. In consideration of the construction of said general passenger depot and appurtenances, by said first party, and the provision made for the accommodation therein of the second, third and fourth parties, and of the rights and privileges herein granted to said parties, said second, third and fourth parties each accept the grant and transfer of a right to use the same in common, and covenant and agree that they will each continue to use the same upon the terms and conditions herein named, for the full period above specified; and that for the right to use said general passenger depot, tracks and appurtenances, jointly with said first party, as herein provided, said second, third and fourth parties will each pay to said first party a fixed annual rental; which rental, so to be paid by each party, shall amount to one-fourth the interest, at seven per centum per annum, on a sum to be made up of the value of said entire tract of land on which said depot, tracks and appurtenances are to be constructed, and the total cost of said depot, tracks and appurtenances, according to the annexed plan, which amounts, so to be paid by said second, third and fourth parties respectively, shall be paid to the Treasurer of the first party, in lawful money of the United States of America, in four equal quarterly payments, on the first Monday of each of the following months in every year of the term aforesaid, January, April, July and October.

The fixed rental stipulated for in this Article shall begin to accrue from the date of the completion of said passenger depot, and its occupation by the parties hereto. The interest on purchase money paid by the first party for lands bought since November 1, 1879, for use in connection with said passenger depot, and used therefor, also interest on payments made by said first party during the construction of said depot and appurtenances, shall be calculated to the time of occupation of said depot, as aforesaid, and be added to the cost of the same.

It is agreed that, in the event of the parties hereto not being able to agree upon the value of said land, said value shall be determined as follows: All the land owned by said Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway Company, prior to November 1, 1879, and intended to be used for said passenger depot purposes, shall be appraised by three competent disinterested persons, one to be appointed by the first party, and one by the second, third and fourth parties hereto, and the two thus appointed shall choose the third; and the value of said lands so agreed upon by all of said appraisers shall be accepted by the parties hereto. All the lands bought for use in connection with said depot since November 1, 1879, shall be valued at the price paid therefor by the first party. As to lands bought by first party since November 1, 1879, partly for passenger and partly for freight purposes, the relative value of the part needed for passenger depot purposes shall be fixed by the appraisers above provided for, but on the basis of the price paid for the entire tract by the first party. And for the purpose of fixing definitely and finally the amount of said annual rental, and the quarterly payments thereof, on the basis above named, the first, second, third and fourth parties shall, after the appraisal of said land as aforesaid, and after the final completion of the depot, tracks and appurtenances, as aforesaid, and when the entire cost thereof shall be known, unite in a written certificate of the value of said land, and of the cost of said depot and appurtenances, also of the amount of said annual rental and of said quarterly payments; said certificate to be signed by each of the parties, and appended to this Agreement.

V. In addition to the regular fixed rental, payable under the terms of Article IV, the second, third and fourth parties shall each pay to the first party, their proportion of the expenses of repairing, renewing, maintaining and operating said depot, tracks and appurtenances, including herein the salaries of the depot master and assistants, all ticket and baggage agents, watchmen and employes of every kind; including, also, premiums of insurance, taxes and assessments, as well on the lands to be occupied by said depot, tracks and appurtenances, as upon said improvements thereon; including also claims for damage to person or property caused by the employes paid in common and appointed as hereinafter provided; which proportion so to be paid by the second, third and fourth parties respectively, shall be determined by the ratio which the number of engines and cars in passenger trains of each of said parties arriving at and departing from said depot, bears to the whole number of engines and cars in passenger service arriving at and departing from said depot. It being agreed that each locomotive engine and tender shall be counted as one car. And the several parties hereto mutually covenant and agree that they will each make use of said passenger depot during the period herein contemplated in respect to all passenger trains arriving at or departing from Chicago on their respective lines of railway.

The first party shall render statements of all payments made by it each month on account of the various items named in this Article, on or before the twentieth day of each succeeding month, and the second, third and fourth parties shall each pay monthly their several proportions of said amounts, computed on the basis aforesaid, in lawful money of the United States, to the Treasurer of the first party, within ten days after the receipt of the statements aforesaid. It being mutually agreed that all revenues received from the rent of rooms or privileges in said passenger depot shall be applied in reduction of the joint expense of maintaining and operating said depot, and the balance, if any remains, shall be applied in reduction of fixed rental in the proportion paid by each party hereto. Either party making use of any part of said depot, not likewise used in common by the other parties, shall pay reasonable rent for such special use, as if the same were leased to an outside party.

VI. The first party shall appoint a depot master, who shall have charge of said passenger depot and appurtenances, and who shall control the movement of all trains therein, also such watchmen and other employes as may be necessary to conduct the passenger business at such station. Said first party shall also appoint, with the concurrence of a majority of the parties using said depot, a ticket agent, and a general baggage master, with the necessary assistants, who shall sell tickets and handle all baggage for the parties who may be using said passenger depot. Said ticket agent shall execute a bond with reasonable sureties to the first party, with suitable conditions to protect all parties using said depot. In case any deficiency shall occur in the accounts of said agent, the first party shall immediately apportion such deficiency between the several parties using said depot, on the basis of the cash receipts of each party from the time the accounts of said agent were last checked in the interest of said parties. Each party shall promptly pay to the first party, and the first party shall promptly disburse to the parties entitled to receive the same, the proportion of such deficiency due from each party, calculated on the basis aforesaid; said first party shall also, without delay, prosecute the bond given by said agent, and any sum that may be recovered thereon, less the expense of collecting the same, shall be divided among the parties using said depot, in the proportion that they shall have contributed to bear the loss growing out of said deficiency. Any person appointed as provided for in this Article shall be removed on good cause shown, or on the request in writing of a majority of the parties using said passenger depot. The train employes of each party shall be subject to the control of said depot master in respect to the movement of their trains, while the same are within the limits of said passenger depot grounds. Each party to this contract reserves the right to place a suitable clerk or other employe, at its own expense, and for a limited time, not exceeding thirty days in any one period, in the General Ticket Office, with power to such clerk or employe to observe and make note of the course of ticket sales and the conduct of the General Ticket Agent herein provided to be employed, with a view of determining whether said General Ticket Agent preserves the strict equality and impartiality in respect to each party to this agreement as is herein intended shall be done.

VII. Each party shall be responsible for loss or damage to person or property, except property used in common at said depot, which may arise out of the conduct or neglect of its own employes; claims for loss or damage to person or property, including property used in common at said depot, arising out of the conduct or neglect of employes paid in common, shall be adjusted by the first party, and all moneys so paid by it shall be charged to the current account of expenses of operating and maintaining said depot, and paid as provided in Article V.

VIII. The general managers of the parties using said depot shall arrange the time of the arrival and departure of their respective trains, and adopt rules for the government of all joint employes; and each party shall receive equal and impartial privileges in the use of said depot and appurtenances.

IX. It is agreed that the following named companies shall be admitted to a joint use of said depot and appurtenances, in case they, or either of them, shall so desire, and shall become a party to this agreement by subscribing to the copy of the same, which shall be in the possession of each of the parties hereto: The Michigan Central, the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and St. Louis, and the Chicago and Northwestern; also, that with the exception of the parties hereto, and of the companies just named, no other companies shall be admitted into said depot, except with the unanimous consent of the parties occupying the same. In case of the admission of any company or companies as herein provided, the basis of fixed rental shall be changed so that the same shall be borne equally by all the companies using said depot; and the cost of operation and maintenance shall be borne on the basis of wheelage as hereinbefore provided. It being also understood that in the event of the admission of any other company or companies as a party to this agreement, as herein provided, the duties and privileges of such company or companies, respectively, shall be precisely the same as are herein defined in respect to the second, third and fourth parties.

X. If, by reason of increase of business, or the admission of other companies to a joint use of said depot, it should, in the opinion of all the parties occupying the same, become necessary to make additions, or changes in the nature of betterments, to said depot or appurtenances, the same shall be made by the first party, and the second, third and fourth parties shall each pay one-fourth the interest, at seven per cent, per annum on the cost of such additions or betterments; such additional payments to be made at the same time and in the same manner, and as an addition to the fixed rental provided for in Article IV of this Agreement; Provided, nothing herein contained shall require the first party, against its consent, to purchase additional land, or make use of land not contained in the plot hereto annexed, for the purpose of said additions or betterments.

XI. In case of the total destruction of said depot by fire or other causes, the same shall be rebuilt or replaced under direction of the first party; but the cost thereof shall be borne by the parties occupying the same, on the basis of wheelage, computed during the period of one year next preceeding the destruction of the same, as is herein provided for current expenses of operation and maintenance.

XII. If either the second, third or fourth party shall at any time make default in the payment of any or either of the amounts herein provided by it to be paid, and such default shall continue for the space of thirty days after such payment shall have become due, then, and in that event, at the election of the first party, but not otherwise, all the right of such party, in default, to the use or enjoyment of any of the premises herein named, whether by virtue of this agreement or otherwise, shall at once cease and determine; and such defaulting party shall and will surrender and yield to the party or parties not in default, undisturbed and peaceable possession of said depot, tracks and appurtenances; and in the event of either the said second, third or fourth party retiring from said premises in default, as aforesaid, it is agreed that the other party, or parties, remaining in possession with said first party will each pay, as rental, such proportion of the interest at seven per centum per annum on said sum made up of the value of land and cost of depot, tracks and appurtenances, as aforesaid, as each company shall bear to the whole number of companies continuing to occupy said depot and premises, and will also further pay such proportion of the expense of operating and maintaining said depot and appurtenances, as the business done by such party, or parties, shall bear to the total passenger business done at said depot, computed on the basis provided in Article V.

XIII. The fifth party, as lessee of the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway, under the lease mentioned in the preamble to this Agreement, hereby assents to and affirms the execution of this Agreement on the part of the first party. It further agrees that if, for any cause, the first party shall cease to operate and control the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway under said lease, and the fifth party should, in consequence thereof, resume the operation of the said Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway under said lease, and fifth party will assume the obligations herein stipulated to be performed by the first party, and will protect the second, third and fourth parties in the enjoyment of the rights and privileges hereby conferred upon them, so long as said fifth party shall continue in possession of said Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway. But nothing herein contained shall require either the first party, or the fifth party to insure the second, third and fourth parties, or either of them, in the use of the passenger depot and appurtenances herein described, any longer than said lease of the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway shall continue in force and effect.

XIV. This contract may be altered or amended with the consent of all parties hereto, but not otherwise.

XV. If at any time, a difference of opinion shall exist in respect to the rights or duties of either party under this agreement, or under the rules which may be adopted by the Board of General Managers for the government of joint employes, the question in dispute shall be referred to a Board of Arbitrators, consisting of three competent disinterested persons, one of whom shall be chosen by each party to the dispute, and the two so chosen shall select a third. The party desiring such arbitration shall give written notice of the same to each of the parties to this agreement, setting forth therein, definitely, the point or points in dispute, and name the person selected by such party to act as arbitrator.

In event that the parties, on whom such notice shall be served, shall not, within fifteen days of such service, name a second disinterested person to act as arbitrator, the party serving such notice shall select the second, and the two thus chosen shall select a third.

The Board of Arbitrators, thus chosen, shall proceed at once to hear, consider and determine the matter submitted to them; and shall give to each of the parties to such matter of difference, notice, which shall not be less than ten days, of the time and place of hearing; and at the time and place appointed, shall proceed with the hearing, unless for good cause, of which the arbitrators shall be the judges, it shall be postponed to some later day or days. And the determination of the arbitration thus constituted, or a majority of the persons composing the same, to be made in writing, and a copy thereof to be delivered to each of the parties, shall be final and conclusive upon the parties in reference to all matters thus submitted.

In Testimony Whereof, The parties have caused this Agreement to be executed by their proper officers, and their several corporate seals to be hereto affixed, the day and year first above written.

In Consideration of the sum of one dollar in hand paid, receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway Company hereby assents to and confirms the foregoing agreement; and further hereby covenants and agrees, that in case the lease of the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, mentioned in the foregoing agreement, should for any reason be forfeited or otherwise cease before the termination of the period therein named, to wit: nine hundred and ninety-nine years from July 1, 1869, said Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway Company will continue to said Chicago and Alton Railroad Company, Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway Company, and Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, the rights and privileges conferred upon said companies respectively, in the foregoing Agreement; upon condition that said companies will each strictly and faithfully perform all the conditions and covenants therein stipulated to be performed by them respectively: Provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall, in any manner, be construed to be a release of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company from its full responsibility as lessee, or from the payment of either or any of the sums of money required in said lease by it to be paid, or from the full and complete performance by it of either or any of the obligations devolved upon said Pennsylvania Railroad Company in said lease, or be construed to recognize or consent to the possession or operation of the demised property by the first party, except as agent of the fifth party herein mentioned.

AGREEMENT, September 7, 1880, between Pennsylvania Company, Chicago and Alton Railroad Company, Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, Pennsylvania Railroad Company, Joliet and Chicago Railroad Company and Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway Company.

USE OF TRACKS IN CHICAGO

This Agreement, Entered into this seventh day of September, in the year 1880, between the Pennsylvania Company as first party, the Chicago and Alton Railroad Company as second party, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company as third party, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company as fourth party, the Joliet and Chicago Railroad Company as fifth party, and the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway Company as sixth party, bears witness:

Whereas, The fifth and sixth parties are the owners, as tenants in common, of certain real estate in Chicago, Illinois, with two main tracks thereon, situated between Sixteenth street and the north side of Van Buren street, the same being now and for a long time a part of the main line of railway of said respective parties; and,

Whereas, The first party is in possession of and is operating the entire railway of the sixth party under a lease of the same to the fourth party, dated June 7, 1869, and extending for a term of nine hundred and ninety-nine years, from July 1, 1869; and the second party is in possession of and is operating the entire railway of the fifth party, under a perpetual lease.

Whereas, The third party wishes to connect the tracks of its railway north of and near Sixteenth street with the two main tracks now constructed as aforesaid, and with such other tracks as may be hereafter constructed at that point, by the first and second parties, for the purpose of using jointly with the first and second parties, said tracks between said point of connection near Sixteenth street and the north line of Van Buren street, for the passage of its passenger trains, and said tracks between said point of connection near Sixteenth street and a point near the north line of Twelfth street for the passage of its freight trains; and the first and second parties are willing to grant a right to such joint use on the terms and conditions following:

Now, Therefore, It is covenanted and agreed between the parties as follows:

I. The first and second parties hereby grant and convey to the third party, its successors and assigns, a right to use jointly with the first and second parties, but for the passage of its engines and cars in passenger, mail and express service only, said two main tracks between said connection near Sixteenth street and the north line of Van Buren street; also, any other track or tracks parallel with and contiguous to said two main tracks which may be hereafter constructed between said points, for the accommodation of the passenger, mail and express business of the parties hereto; the object of this grant being to enable the third party to reach and enjoy the facilities of the new General Passenger Depot now being constructed on lands of the sixth party between Madison and Van Buren streets in said city.

The first and second parties also further grant and convey to the third party, its successors and assigns, a right to use jointly with the first and second parties, for the passage of its engines and cars in freight service, so much of the tracks hereinbefore described as are or may be situated between Sixteenth street and Twelfth street.

II. The grant herein made, includes the right of the third party to make, at its own expense, necessary connections with the tracks described and the tracks of its own railway; and the third party agrees to furnish, at its own expense, frogs, switches, switch posts, and such other material as may be necessary to effect such connection of tracks, in a manner that shall be satisfactory to the first and second parties.

III. The third party hereby accepts the grant of right of joint use as herein set forth, and agrees to pay annually to each of the first and second parties respectively, as fixed rental or compensation for use of said two main tracks as now constructed, one-sixth of the interest, at seven per centum per annum, on the sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars which sum, amounting to twenty-nine hundred and sixteen dollars and sixty-six cents, due and payable to each of the first and second parties annually, the third party agrees to pay to the treasurer of each of said parties, in lawful money of the United States of America, in four equal quarterly payments on the first Monday of each of the following months: January, April, July and October. It being the intention of the first and second parties to purchase additional land and construct additional tracks, immediately adjacent to the two main tracks already constructed, for the accommodation of joint business between Sixteenth street and Van Buren street, the third party covenants and agrees that in addition to the fixed rental hereinbefore stipulated to be by it paid, in respect to said two main tracks, it will pay to said first and second parties, respectively, one-sixth the interest at seven per centum per annum on the cost of real estate and of materials and construction required in providing said additional tracks, which additional payment of fixed rental shall be made at the time and in the manner hereinbefore set forth in respect to the rental of said existing two main tracks.

IV. The first party shall be charged with the duty of maintenance of the tracks herein described, and of payment of all taxes and assessments which may be lawfully levied or assessed upon the same, and every part thereof; and the third party agrees that, in addition to the fixed rental above mentioned, it will pay to the first party its just and proper proportion of such expense of maintenance; also, of taxes and assessments, and the wages of joint employes, including its proportion of any moneys the first and second parties may contribute towards the erection of viaducts over or tunnels under said tracks so to be jointly used; such payments to be made monthly, upon bills to be presented by the first party, and within ten days of the time when such bills may be presented. That just and proper proportion of current expenses to be paid by the third party, as recited in this paragraph, shall be determined by the ratio which the car and engine mileage of the third party bears to the total car and engine mileage of all parties using said tracks. The total and individual car and engine mileage on the tracks in question, shall be determined by actual count, at such times and for such periods as the parties may agree upon. But a new count and computation of mileage shall be made at any time, on request of either party. And until such request for new count and computation shall be made, the ratio previously determined and agreed upon shall continue in force.

V. The general managers of the parties using said tracks shall arrange the time of the movement of their respective trains over the same. They shall also provide rules for the management of joint employees. The first party shall appoint the same, subject to removal on the joint request of the second and third parties, or for good cause, on request of either the second or third party.

VI. Each party shall be responsible for loss or damage caused by conduct or neglect of its own employees, to persons or property. Loss or damage caused by conduct or neglect of joint employees shall be adjusted by the first party, and all moneys so paid by it shall be charged to the joint current account of expenses of maintaining said tracks and operating trains thereon.

VII. If the third party shall, at any time, make default in the payment of any or either of the amounts herein provided by it to be paid, and such default shall continue for the space of ninety days after written notice of said default shall have been served, then, at the election of either the first or second party, to whom such payment shall be due and unpaid, and on written notice thereof, but not otherwise, the rights of the third party, under this agreement, shall wholly cease and determine; and, upon service of said last mentioned notice, the third party shall surrender peaceable possession of the tracks, herein described, to the first and second parties.

VIII. Should the first and second parties, at any future time, grant to any other company or companies the right to use, in common with the parties hereto, their tracks between Sixteenth street and the north line of Van Buren street, then the division of rental and operating expenses shall be readjusted on the basis of the number of roads using said tracks, and the car and engine mileage of each thereon.

IX. The grant herein made to the third party shall continue during the unexpired term of the lease of the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, namely, nine hundred and eighty-eight years from July 1, 1880, subject always, however, to the faithful performance by the third party of each and all the obligations herein stipulated to be by it performed, and provided that no assignment of the rights and privileges conferred upon the third party in this agreement to any other company shall be of any effect without the assent thereto, in writing, of the first and second parties.

X. The fourth party, as lessee of the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway, under the lease mentioned in this agreement, hereby assents to and affirms the execution of this agreement, on the part of the first party. It further agrees that if, for any cause, the first party shall cease to operate and control the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway, under said lease, and the fourth party shall, in consequence thereof, resume the operation of said Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway, under said lease, said fourth party will assume the obligations herein stipulated to be performed by the first party, and will protect the third party in the enjoyment of the rights and privileges hereby conferred upon it, so long as said fourth party shall continue in possession of said Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway. But nothing herein contained shall require either the first party or the fourth party to insure the third party in the use of the tracks herein described, any longer than said lease of the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway shall continue in force and effect.

XI. The fifth party, as lessor of the Joliet and Chicago Railroad, hereby assents to and confirms this agreement. It further agrees that if, for any cause, the second party shall cease to operate and control the Joliet and Chicago Railroad, under the lease of the same herein mentioned, and the fifth party shall in consequence thereof resume the operation and control of the same, the fifth party will assume the obligations herein stipulated to be performed by the second party, and will protect the third party in the enjoyment of the rights and privileges herein conferred upon it, during the period of the grant herein made to the third party.

XII. The sixth party, as lessor of the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway, hereby assents to and confirms this agreement. It further covenants that, in case the lease of the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company shall for any reason be forfeited, or otherwise cease before the termination of the period herein named, to-wit: nine hundred and eighty-eight years, from July 1, 1880, the sixth party will continue to the third party the rights and privileges conferred upon said third party in this agreement, upon condition that said third party will strictly and faithfully perform all the conditions and covenants herein stipulated to be by it performed. Provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall, in any manner, be construed to be a release of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company from its full responsibility as lessee, or from the payment of either or any of the sums of money required in said lease by it to be paid, or from the full and complete performance by it of either or any of the obligations devolved upon said Pennsylvania Railroad Company in said lease, or be construed to recognize or consent to the possession or operation of the demised property by the first party, except as agent of the fourth party herein mentioned.

XIII. If, at any time, a difference of opinion shall exist in respect to the rights or duties of either party under this agreement, or under the rules which may be adopted by the General Managers of the parties hereto, for the government of joint employes, the question in dispute shall be referred to a Board of Arbitrators, consisting of three competent disinterested persons, one of whom shall be chosen by each party to the dispute, and the two so chosen shall select a third. The party desiring such arbitration shall give written notice of the same to each of the parties to this agreement, setting forth therein, definitely, the point or points in dispute, and name the person selected by such party to act as arbitrator.

In event that the parties, on whom such notice shall be served, shall not, within fifteen days of such service, name a second disinterested person to act as arbitrator, the party serving such notice shall select the second, and the two thus chosen shall select a third.

The Board of Arbitrators, thus chosen, shall proceed at once to hear, consider and determine the matter submitted to them; and shall give to each of the parties to such matter of difference, notice, which shall not be less than ten days, of the time and place of hearing; and at the time and place appointed, shall proceed with the hearing, unless for good cause, of which the arbitrators shall be the judges, it shall be postponed to some later day or days. And the determination of the arbitration thus constituted, or a majority of the persons composing the same, to be made in writing, and a copy thereof to be delivered to each of the parties, shall be final and conclusive upon the parties in reference to all matters thus submitted.

In Testimony Whereof, The parties to this agreement have caused the same to be executed by their proper officers, and their respective corporate seals to be hereto affixed, duly attested, the day and year first above written.

ORDINANCE

March 23, 1914

Granting to The Union Station Company, a corporation its successors and assigns, the right to construct, maintain and operate a railroad passenger station in the City of Chicago, and the right also to construct, maintain and operate certain railroad tracks and facilities in connection therewith in this ordinance described.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. That, subject to the provisions, conditions and limitations hereof, permission and authority be, and the same are, hereby granted to The Union Station Company, a corporation of the State of Illinois, to construct, maintain, use and operate a railroad passenger station and facilities, as follows:

(a) A station building and appurtenances located within the present east curb line of South Clinton street, the present north curb line of West Jackson boulevard, the present south curb line of West Adams street, and the east curb line of South Canal street, as located in Section two hereof; provided that no space within the streets in this paragraph mentioned, shall be occupied above the roadways and sidewalks thereof;

(b) A concourse, trainsheds and appurtenances located within the east curb line of South Canal street, as located in Section two hereof, the present north curb line of West Jackson street, the present south curb line of West Adams street and the present South Branch of the Chicago River; provided that no space within the streets mentioned in this paragraph shall be occupied above the roadways and sidewalks thereof;

(c) Tracks, buildings and facilities, of every kind, necessary or convenient for the construction, maintenance, use and operation of said passenger station, upon private premises, the limits of which are the present north line of Carroll avenue on the north, the present south line of West Twelfth street on the south, the North and South Branches of the Chicago River on the east, and the east line of North and South Canal streets as widened as hereinafter provided, on the west;

(d) Express and mail buildings, and similar buildings, tracks and facilities, accessory and incidental to and appropriate and convenient for the construction, maintenance, use and operation of said station upon the streets and alleys within the limits in the preceding paragraph described, and also four main tracks and a siding crossing North Canal street in the block between Fulton street and Carroll avenue; provided that nothing in this ordinance contained shall be construed to or shall authorize any use of West Water street between West Lake street and West Washington street except for the relocation of the same number of tracks that are now located in said street between said points, subject to existing ordinances.

The tracks, buildings and facilities in this section described are to be constructed, maintained, used and operated in accordance with the requirements as hereinafter set forth and the general ordinances of the City of Chicago; provided, however, that the permission and authority in this ordinance conferred shall not permit The Union Station Company to construct, maintain, use or operate any track or tracks on North or South Canal streets, except in the block between Fulton street and Carroll avenue, where the use shall be limited to four main tracks and a siding, or to construct, maintain, use and operate any track or tracks in or along any street or streets extending in an easterly and westerly direction, except for the purpose of crossing such street or streets, or to construct any buildings on or over North Canal street or South Canal street, or any facilities in said street above the level of the roadways and sidewalks thereof, except tracks between Fulton street and Carroll avenue as above provided, or any buildings upon any other street or alley to a height of more than sixty feet above Chicago City datum or to a depth of more than fifteen feet below Chicago City datum, nor in any event shall any building, tracks or facilities be constructed on any street or alley within the limits described in the foregoing paragraph (c) above the level of any viaduct now constructed or hereafter to be constructed on such street or alley:

(e) The Union Station Company agrees for itself and for the railroad companies using the said station and facilities that at least two of the tracks of the said railroad companies shall be constructed as through connecting tracks.

§ 2. From the south curb line of West Lake street to the north curb line of West Washington street the curb lines of North Canal street shall remain as at present.

From the south curb line of West Washington street to the north curb line of West Twelfth street, the west curb line of North and South Canal street shall be parallel with the present west line of North and South Canal street and shall lie twenty (20) feet east thereof.

From the south curb line of West Washington street to the north curb line of West Twelfth street, the east curb line of North and South Canal street shall be parallel with the present west line of North and South Canal street and shall be eighty (80) feet east thereof, except between West Adams street and West Jackson boulevard, where said east curb line shall be parallel with and eighty-five (85) feet east of said west line of said street and between West Harrison street and West Twelfth street, where said east curb line shall be parallel with and ninety (90) feet east of said west line of said street.

The present grades of streets hereinafter mentioned in this section are changed as follows:

Grades on South Canal street from West Madison street to West Twelfth street.

At the intersection of West Madison street the grades of the northwest and southwest curb corners shall remain unchanged. The grades of the northeast and southeast curb corners shall be eighteen (18) feet above city datum.

At the intersection of West Monroe street the northwest and southwest curb corners shall be twenty-three and five-tenths (23.5) feet above city datum. The northeast and southeast curb corners shall be twenty-four (24) feet above city datum.

At the intersection of West Adams street, the northwest and southwest curb corners shall be twenty-five and five-tenths (25.5) feet above city datum, and the northeast and southeast curb corners shall be twenty-six (26) feet above city datum.

At the intersection of West Jackson boulevard the northwest and southwest curb corners shall be twenty-five and five-tenths (25.5) feet above city datum, and the northeast and southeast curb corners shall be twenty-six (26) feet above city datum.

At the intersection of West Van Buren street the northwest and southwest curb corners shall be twenty-one and five-tenths (21.5) feet above city datum, and the northeast and southeast curb corners shall be twenty-two (22) feet above city datum.

At the intersection of West Harrison street, the northwest and southwest curb corners shall be twenty-three and five-tenths (23.5) feet above city datum, and the northeast and southeast curb corners shall be twenty-four (24) feet above city datum.

At the intersection of Polk street, the northwest and southwest curb corners shall be twenty-four and five-tenths (24.5) feet above city datum, and the northeast and southeast curb corners shall be twenty-five (25) feet above city datum.

At the intersection of Taylor street, the northwest and southwest curb corners shall be twenty-four and five-tenths (24.5) feet above city datum, and the northeast and southeast curb corners shall be twenty-five (25) feet above city datum.

From the south curb line of Taylor street the grade shall descend at a uniform rate of two (2) feet in one hundred (100) feet, to a point three hundred sixty-five (365) feet south of the south curb line of Taylor street. At this point the elevation shall be seventeen and seven-tenths (17.7) feet above city datum at the east curb line of South Canal street and seventeen and two-tenths (17.2) feet above city datum at the west curb line of South Canal street.

At the intersection of West Twelfth street, the northwest and southwest curb corners shall be seventeen and two-tenths (17.2) feet above city datum, and the northeast and southeast curb corners shall be seventeen and seven-tenths (17.7) feet above city datum.

All intermediate grades on South Canal street between West Madison street and West Twelfth street shall vary uniformly between the points herein established.

Grades on East and West streets from West Lake street to West Twelfth street.

In West Lake street the floor of the viaduct shall extend level at an elevation of twenty-three (23) feet above city datum, from an intersection with the present surface of the street at a point one hundred seventy-nine (179) feet east of the east line of North Canal street to a point two hundred seventy-nine (279) feet east of the east line of North Canal street; thence it shall descend on a uniform grade to intersect the level of the floor of the river bridge. The floor of the river bridge shall be at an elevation of twenty-two (22) feet above city datum.

In West Randolph street the floor of the viaduct over the tracks of The Union Station Company shall be twenty-two and twenty-five one-hundredths (22.25) feet above city datum and shall connect with the present grades of West Randolph street.

In West Washington street the grade shall remain unchanged until a new viaduct is constructed between North Canal street and the west bank of the South Branch of the Chicago River.

In West Madison street the floor of the river bridge shall be at the present elevation of twenty-two (22) feet above city datum at the east break in the floor. It shall rise to a level of twenty-three (23) feet above city datum at the west break in the floor. From this point the floor of the viaduct over the tracks of The Union Station Company shall extend at an elevation of twenty-three (23) feet above city datum to a point one hundred sixty-seven (167) feet east of the east curb line of Canal street; thence it shall descend at a uniform rate to an elevation of eighteen (18) feet above city datum at the east curb line of Canal street.

In West Monroe street the curbs shall rise to the east from their present elevation of fourteen (14) feet above city datum at the east curb line of South Clinton street to an elevation of twenty-three and five-tenths (23.5) feet above city datum at the west curb line of South Canal street. The floor of the viaduct over the tracks of The Union Station Company shall be twenty-four (24) feet above city datum from the east curb line of South Canal street to the west break in the floor of the river bridge. Thence the grade shall descend to an elevation of twenty-three (23) feet above city datum at the east break in the floor of the river bridge.

In West Adams street the curbs shall rise to the east from their present elevation of fourteen (14) feet above city datum at the east curb line of South Clinton street to an elevation of twenty-five and five-tenths (25.5) feet above city datum at the west curb line of South Canal street. The floor of the viaduct from the east curb line of South Canal street to the west break in the floor of the river bridge shall be twenty-six (26) feet above city datum. The east break in the floor of the river bridge shall be at an elevation of twenty-three and seventy-five one-hundredths (23.75) feet above city datum.

In West Harrison street the curbs shall rise to the east from their present elevation of fourteen (14) feet above city datum at the east curb line of South Clinton street to an elevation of twenty-three and five-tenths (23.5) feet above city datum at the west curb line of South Canal street. The grade shall rise from an elevation of twenty-four (24) feet above city datum at the east curb line of South Canal street to an elevation of twenty-five (25) feet above city datum at a point one hundred and thirty-two (132) feet east of the east curb line of South Canal street produced from the north. The elevation of the floor of the river bridge shall be twenty-two (22) feet above city datum at the east break in the floor and twenty-three (23) feet above city datum at the west break in the floor. The floor of the viaduct shall rise on a uniform grade of five-tenths (0.5) feet in one hundred (100) feet from an elevation of twenty-three (23) feet above city datum at the west break in the floor of the river bridge to an elevation of twenty-five (25) feet above city datum. Thence it shall run level to said point one hundred and thirty-two (132) feet east of the east curb line of South Canal street. The east approach to the river bridge shall descend at a uniform rate of three (3) feet in one hundred (100) feet from the east break in the floor of the river bridge to meet the present surface of the street. The approach to the north in Franklin street shall descend at a uniform rate of three (3) feet in one hundred (100) feet to an intersection with the present surface of Franklin street.

In Mather street the curbs shall descend at a uniform rate from their present elevation of fourteen (14) feet above city datum at the east curb line of South Clinton street to an elevation of six (6) feet above city datum at the west line of South Canal street.

In Polk street the curbs shall rise to the east from their present elevation of fourteen (14) feet above city datum at the east curb line of South Clinton street to an elevation of twenty-four and five-tenths (24.5) feet above city datum at the west curb line of South Canal street. The floor of the viaduct shall rise at a uniform rate of five-tenths (0.5) feet in one hundred (100) feet from the present elevation of twenty-three (23) feet above city datum at the west break in the floor of the river bridge to an elevation of twenty-six (26) feet above city datum. It shall extend level at an elevation of twenty-six (26) feet above city datum to a point thirty-three (33) feet east of the east curb line of South Canal street. Thence it shall descend at a uniform rate to an elevation of twenty-five (25) feet above city datum at the east curb line of South Canal street.

In Forquer street the curbs shall descend at a uniform rate from their present elevation of fourteen (14) feet above city datum at the east curb line of South Clinton street to an elevation of six (6) feet above city datum at the west line of South Canal street.

In Taylor street the curbs shall rise to the east from their present elevation of fourteen (14) feet above city datum at the east curb line of South Clinton street to an elevation of twenty-four and five-tenths (24.5) feet above city datum at the west curb line of South Canal street. The grade shall rise from an elevation of twenty-five (25) feet above city datum at the east curb line of South Canal street to an elevation of twenty-seven (27) feet above city datum at a point eighty (80) feet east of the east curb line of South Canal street. From this point the floor of the viaduct shall extend level at an elevation of twenty-seven (27) feet above city datum to a point three hundred sixty-two (362) feet east of the east curb line of South Canal street, where it shall meet the present elevation of the viaduct.

In De Koven street the northwest curb corner at the intersection of South Canal street shall be at an elevation of nineteen and six-tenths (19.6) feet above city datum. The southwest curb corner at the intersection of South Canal street shall be at an elevation of eighteen and eight-tenths (18.8) feet above city datum. The curbs shall rise at a uniform rate from their present elevation of thirteen (13) feet above city datum at the east curb line of South Clinton street to connect with the grades at the west curb line of South Canal street as herein established.

In Bunker street the curbs shall rise at a uniform rate from their present elevation of thirteen and three-tenths (13.3) feet above city datum at the east curb line of South Clinton street to connect with the grades at the west curb line of South Canal street as herein established.

In West Twelfth street the floor of the river bridge shall be at an elevation of thirty (30) feet above city datum at the west break in the floor. From this point the grade shall run level at an elevation of thirty (30) feet above city datum to a point four hundred ten (410) feet east of the east curb line of South Canal street. Thence the grade shall descend at a uniform rate of three (3) feet in one hundred (100) feet to an elevation of seventeen and seven-tenths (17.7) feet above city datum at the east curb line of South Canal street. From the west curb line of South Canal street, where the grade is seventeen and two-tenths (17.2) feet above city datum, as hereinbefore established, the grade shall descend at a uniform rate of three (3) feet in one hundred (100) feet, to connect with the present surface of the street.

Grades on North Canal street from West Lake street to West Kinzie street and grades in West Kinzie street from North Canal street to Orleans street.

The grade of North Canal street shall rise at a uniform rate of three (3) feet in one hundred (100) feet from its present elevation of fifteen and five-tenths (15.5) feet above city datum at a point twenty (20) feet north of the north line of West Lake street to an elevation of twenty-nine (29.0) feet above city datum; thence it shall rise at a uniform rate to an elevation of thirty-four (34.0) feet above city datum at the south line of West Kinzie street.

The grade of West Kinzie street shall extend level at an elevation of thirty-four (34.0) feet above city datum from the west curb line of North Canal street to the east break in the floor of the river bridge across the North Branch of the Chicago River. Thence it shall descend at a uniform rate of two and six-tenths (2.6) feet in one hundred (100) feet to an elevation of twenty-five and six-tenths (25.6) feet above city datum at the east line of Kingsbury street. Thence it shall descend at a uniform rate of three and two-tenths (3.2) feet in one hundred (100) feet to an elevation of seventeen and nine-tenths (17.9) feet above city datum at the west line of Orleans street. Thence it shall descend at a uniform rate of two (2) feet in one hundred (100) feet to an elevation of sixteen and three-tenths (16.3) feet above city datum at the east line of Orleans street; thence it shall descend at a uniform rate of three and two-tenths (3.2) feet in one hundred (100) feet to an intersection with the present surface of West Kinzie street. The grade of Orleans street shall descend from the elevations herein stated at the intersection of West Kinzie street at a uniform rate of three and two-tenths (3.2) feet in one hundred (100) feet to an intersection with the present surface of Orleans street.

There shall be a lower roadway on North Canal street from Fulton street to West Kinzie street. The grade of this lower roadway on North Canal street shall be seven and five-tenths (7.5) feet above city datum at the intersection of Fulton street. From this elevation the grade of Fulton street shall rise at a uniform rate of three (3) feet in one hundred (100) feet toward the west to an intersection with the present surface of Fulton street. The grade of the lower roadway on North Canal street shall descend at a uniform rate of three (3) feet in one hundred (100) feet from an elevation of seven and five-tenths (7.5) feet above city datum at Fulton street to an elevation of not less than five and seven-tenths (5.7) feet above city datum at a point sixty (60) feet north of the north line of Fulton street. Thence it shall extend approximately level to a point three hundred (300) feet north of the north line of Fulton street. Thence it shall rise at a uniform rate of two and one-tenth (2.1) feet in one hundred (100) feet to an intersection with the present surface of North Canal street at an elevation of approximately eleven (11) feet above city datum. Thence it shall extend at the present grade to an elevation of twelve and eight-tenths (12.8) feet above city datum at the intersection of West Kinzie street. The grade of the lower roadway in West Kinzie street shall extend level from the west curb line of North Canal street at an elevation of twelve and eight-tenths (12.8) feet above city datum to a point one hundred and thirty-five (135) feet west of the line of Kingsbury street. Thence it shall descend at a uniform rate of two (2) feet in one hundred (100) feet to an elevation of ten and one-tenth (10.1) feet above city datum at the west line of Kingsbury street. The grade of the intersection of Kingsbury street and the lower roadway on West Kinzie street shall be ten and one-tenth (10.1) feet above city datum. Thence the grade of Kingsbury street shall rise to the north at a uniform rate of three (3) feet in one hundred (100) feet to an intersection with the present surface of Kingsbury street. The grade of the new lower portion of West Kinzie street east of Kingsbury street and adjoining the present south line of West Kinzie street shall rise from the east line of Kingsbury street at a uniform rate of two and five-tenths (2.5) feet in one hundred (100) feet to an elevation of seventeen and one-tenth (17.1) feet above city datum at the center line of Orleans street.

Grades in North Clinton street between West Kinzie street and Fulton street.

The grade of North Clinton street shall extend level at an elevation of seven and eight-tenths (7.8) feet above city datum across the tracks of the railroad companies using the Union Station from a point fifteen (15) feet north of the center line of the north track to a point fifteen (15) feet south of the center line of the south track. Thence the grade shall rise to the north and to the south at a uniform rate of three (3) feet in one hundred (100) feet to intersect the present surface of North Clinton street.

For greater certainty, a drawing is on file in the Department of Public Works, in the City of Chicago, entitled "Profiles, Lake Street to 12th Street," and marked "Department of Public Works, Drawing No. 621." This drawing shows present grades in dotted lines and proposed grades in full lines.

Nothing in this section contained shall be held or considered in any way to limit the right of the city hereafter to pass an ordinance or ordinances changing the grades or curb lines herein established; provided, however, that in any such ordinance or ordinances, provision shall be made for adequate head-room for the railroad tracks or any of them herein authorized.

§ 3. If in the construction of said station, and the rearrangement of tracks and the changes of grades of said streets, or any of them, above-mentioned, or in the prosecution of any of the work by this ordinance authorized, it shall become necessary to change, alter, reconstruct, remove or destroy any pipes, wires, conduits, street railway tracks and property, or other property, belonging to the City of Chicago, or to any public utility corporation or to any individual, such work shall be done solely at the cost and expense of The Union Station Company, and all damage to or cost of alteration of such property shall be borne, assumed, and paid by The Union Station Company, provided that the City of Chicago or any public utility corporation acting under a permit or ordinance grant from the City of Chicago whose utilities are so affected, shall have the permission, right and privilege to perform any work necessitated by any such rearrangement or reconstruction of tracks or changes in grades as hereinabove provided for, the cost of the same to be borne by The Union Station Company in conformity with the provisions of this section.

§ 4. Upon the changes of grade in the portions of streets mentioned in Section 2 being made, The Union Station Company shall at its own sole cost and expense repave and curb with such material and upon such specifications as may be directed by the Commissioner of Public Works, said portions of said streets, and shall reconstruct and repair as may be directed by said Commissioner of Public Works the sidewalks upon both sides of the portions of said streets named in Section 2, and shall maintain said repaving, curbing and sidewalks in good order and repair, satisfactory to the Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Chicago, ordinary wear excepted for a period of ten years from the completion of said work. Any street railway company occupying any of the said streets within the territory designated in Sections 1 and 2 of this ordinance shall, when, and as the grade of said streets shall be changed, as in this ordinance provided, conform the grade of its track or tracks to the change of grade of said streets as in Section 2 required, and reconstruct and restore its tracks and property, but at the sole cost and expense of The Union Station Company as in Section 3 of this ordinance provided, but nothing in this ordinance shall operate or be held to relieve said street railway companies of or from any liability now existing, however created, at their own expense, after the changes, restoration and reconstruction of street railway tracks and property, provided for or necessitated by this ordinance shall have been completed, to pave and maintain such streets between or on either side of their said tracks in the manner now or hereafter required by ordinance.

§ 5. All of the main, outlying and branch sewers which may be disturbed by carrying out the provisions of this ordinance shall be rearranged or reconstructed, in such manner as shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of Public Works and no change shall be made which shall affect the city drainage or that of the property of any person or corporation, unless The Union Station Company shall first make a satisfactory agreement for such rearrangement or reconstruction with the City of Chicago and with such individuals and corporations as may be injured thereby, or shall obtain such rights as against individuals and corporations by condemnation according to law. All cost, charge and expense of any rearrangement or reconstruction occasioned by the work done under the provisions of this section shall be paid by The Union Station Company.

The changes in streets, in street grades, in viaducts and in sewers, within the territory described in Section 1 hereof, are to be shown in detail upon plans (designated "Union Passenger Station Grade and Sewer Plans") filed with and approved by the Commissioner of Public Works.

§ 6. (1) The Union Station Company is hereby authorized and permitted to use the entire width of South Canal street underneath the surface of the street and sidewalks between the present south curb line of West Adams street and the present north curb line of West Jackson boulevard, and to use the space underneath the sidewalk on the east side of South Clinton street, between the present north curb line of West Jackson boulevard and the present south curb line of West Adams street; and underneath the sidewalks on the north side of West Jackson boulevard and on the south side of West Adams street from the present east curb line of South Clinton street to the new west curb line of South Canal street, and under the east forty feet of North and South Canal streets as widened as provided in Section 8 of this ordinance from the present south line of West Washington street to the alley now connecting South Canal street with West Harrison street, including the space under a strip equal to said forty feet extended across all intersections of streets from West Washington street to the alley north of West Harrison street so as to permit the use of said space as a continuous strip of ground and as a part of said Union Station from West Washington street to the alley north of West Harrison street, provided The Union Station Company shall at its own cost rearrange and properly relocate, as may be directed by the Commissioner of Public Works, any water pipes or other public property the alteration and relocation of which may be necessary by reason of the rights granted to and exercised by The Union Station Company under this ordinance.

(2) The Union Station Company further agrees that the City of Chicago may construct, or authorize to be constructed, subways in West Lake street, West Randolph street, West Madison street, West Monroe street, West Adams street, West Jackson boulevard, West Van Buren street, West Congress street if extended, West Harrison street, Polk street, Taylor street, West Twelfth street, West Fourteenth street, West Sixteenth street, North and South Canal streets and North and South Clinton streets, the roofs of such subways to be at such levels not above fifteen feet below Chicago City datum as may hereafter be determined by those in charge of subway construction, when approved by the Commissioner of Public Works, and that The Union Station Company will construct the foundations of such structures as it or its associated companies may erect upon or in said streets, between Canal street and the Chicago River, in such a manner as to allow the construction of said subways, and The Union Station Company shall in no event use or permit to be used any of the space in the above streets, between Canal street and the Chicago River, or other space in this section referred to, for a depth lower than fifteen feet below Chicago City datum (except for foundations), and The Union Station Company expressly agrees, by the acceptance of this ordinance, that if the City of Chicago shall at any future time desire to construct subways, in any of the streets or in or under streets vacated by this ordinance, in this ordinance referred to, such subways may be constructed at the levels in this paragraph provided for, beneath the space occupied by The Union Station Company, and any railroad company then using the passenger station and facilities herein authorized, and The Union Station Company further expressly agrees to discharge and release the said City of Chicago from any claim, of any kind, nature or description, on the part of The Union Station Company or any railroad company using the passenger station and facilities herein authorized, for compensation for the land taken for such subways, or damages to the remainder of the land of The Union Station Company or any railroad company using the passenger station and facilities herein authorized, resulting from the taking of such portion for the construction of such subways. The Union Station Company shall remove or adjust at its own expense, under the supervision and direction of the Commissioner of Public Works, any foundations of buildings or structures interfering with the construction of such subways.

The Union Station Company agrees that in case subways are located in any of the streets mentioned in this paragraph, or in other streets which, under the terms of this ordinance, The Union Station Company acquires the right to use, either by vacation or otherwise, as well as under any property, which it or any railroad company now or hereafter using the passenger station and facilities herein authorized now owns or hereafter acquires, and under which streets or alleys or property the City of Chicago shall construct or authorize to be constructed subways, The Union Station Company or such other railroad company shall co-operate with the City of Chicago, or with such parties as may be authorized to construct said subways, to the end that such sections of such subways as are constructed at the time that the buildings or structures of The Union Station Company are constructed, may be jointly designed and jointly constructed, so as to most economically construct such subways and buildings and structures, and to least interfere with the rights of both parties.

It is hereby made a condition of this ordinance that The Union Station Company agrees that there shall be reserved to the City of Chicago at all times the necessary, appropriate and convenient rights and easements (in addition to the easements and rights with respect to viaducts and subways otherwise in this ordinance granted to the city) for the installation, construction and maintenance of all sewer pipes and water mains and other like utilities in all streets in this ordinance mentioned whether vacated or not or which are affected in any way by the railroad improvements herein provided for under the tracks or property of The Union Station Company; such installation, construction and maintenance to be conducted, however, in such a manner as not to interfere with the operation of said railroad properties and facilities herein described, except for such temporary interference as may from time to time be occasioned by the installation, construction, reconstruction, re-location and repair of such pipes, mains and utilities.

(3) The Union Station Company shall at all times support and maintain the roadway and sidewalk over any and all space occupied by it or any railroad company now or hereafter using the passenger station and facilities herein authorized pursuant to the provisions of this ordinance, in good condition and repair, all to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Chicago, and in accordance with plans and specifications which shall be submitted to and approved by him.

(4) The Union Station Company is hereby permitted and authorized, as a necessary part and for the use of its said passenger station, facilities and appurtenances, to construct, lay, maintain and operate plants for the generation of electricity, heat, light and power, and the distribution of the same, by means of wires, pipes, conduits and cables, over, along, upon or under the streets, sidewalks and viaducts, within the limits of said station and facilities as hereinbefore described, subject, however, to the general ordinances of the City of Chicago, and the limitations as to buildings prescribed in Section 1 of this ordinance.

§ 7. (1) Inasmuch as the Chicago & Alton Railroad Company, the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railway Company, the CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & QUINCY RAILROAD COMPANY, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway Company and the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Company are the owners of or interested in lands, easements, railway tracks and facilities used by them for passenger or freight purposes or for both passenger and freight purposes between West Twelfth street and Carroll avenue, and North and South Canal street and the North and South Branches of the Chicago River, which will in whole or in part be needed and acquired by The Union Station Company, and a re-arrangement of said railway tracks and facilities is necessary in order to construct, maintain and operate said Union Passenger Station, facilities and appurtenances and to permit any of said railroad companies to retain a part of or their entire freight tracks, buildings and facilities, therefore permission and authority are hereby granted to The Union Station Company to acquire, and to any of said named or other railroad companies to lease or convey to The Union Station Company and to interchange with each other on terms as they may mutually agree upon, any of their lands, tracks and facilities and easements, rights, estates and franchises, which any railroad company may own or may have acquired on, under, over or across any street or streets in the City of Chicago, between West Twelfth street on the south and Carroll avenue on the north, South Canal street and North Canal street on the west and the North and South Branches of the Chicago River on the east, and after such acquisition, interchange and conveyance of any of such lands, tracks or facilities or any of such easements, rights, estates and franchises, said railroad companies and The Union Station Company respectively shall own, hold and enjoy the same as fully and completely and in the same manner as they were formerly owned and enjoyed by the company owning the same prior to such acquirement, interchange or conveyance.

(2) The Union Station Company and said railroad companies or any of them are hereby permitted and authorized, subject to the provisions of this ordinance, to relocate and change the grades of the existing railroad tracks in such a manner as not to interfere with the grades of streets or viaducts as in this ordinance established and subject to the approval of the Commissioner of Public Works, and to construct, maintain and operate such additional passenger and freight tracks as it or they may find necessary or convenient in any street or alley between the north line of Carroll avenue and the south line of West Twelfth street, the west line of North Canal street between the north line of Carroll avenue and the north line of West Lake street, the north line of West Lake street between the west line and the east line of North Canal street, the east line of North Canal street south of the north line of West Lake street and the east line of South Canal street, and the North and South Branches of the Chicago River, except in West Water street between West Lake street and West Washington street, the use of which shall be limited to the relocation of the same number of tracks that are now located in said street between said points, subject to existing ordinances; and to construct, maintain and operate such structures and such tracks at such grades not interfering with the grades of streets or viaducts as in this ordinance established and subject to the approval of the Commissioner of Public Works, and use such space as may be found necessary or convenient by it, or them or any of them, under the viaducts now existing or hereafter to be constructed under this ordinance east of the east line of North and South Canal street, on West Lake street, West Randolph street, West Washington street, West Madison street, West Monroe street, West Adams street, West Jackson boulevard, West Van Buren street, West Congress street, if extended, West Harrison street, Polk street, Taylor street, and West Twelfth street.

§ 8. (1) The Union Station Company is hereby permitted and authorized to extend the viaducts on West Madison street, West Van Buren street, West Harrison street, Polk street, Taylor street and West Twelfth street, respectively, to the east line of South Canal street as widened, as hereinafter provided in this section, and to connect the same with the bridges upon said streets, respectively, over the South Branch of the Chicago River; and The Union Station Company and said railroad companies, or any of them, are hereby permitted and authorized to construct such structures and to maintain and operate such additional passenger and freight tracks at such changes of grade not interfering with the grades of streets or viaducts as in this ordinance established and subject to the approval of the Commissioner of Public Works, and use such space as it or they or any of them may find necessary or convenient under said viaducts, so extended on West Madison street, West Van Buren street, West Harrison street, Polk street, Taylor street, and West Twelfth street.

(2) The Union Station Company shall, at its own cost, extend, rebuild or reconstruct, to the full width of the streets, at the time of such extension, rebuilding or reconstruction whenever and at such time or times as required by the Commissioner of Public Works, upon plans and specifications to be approved by him, those parts of the streets and viaducts, including roadway surfaces and sidewalks, and restore street railway tracks and property therein, if any, upon West Lake street, West Randolph street, West Madison street, West Adams street, West Jackson boulevard, West Van Buren street, and West Harrison street, extending from the west bank of the South Branch of the Chicago River to the east line of North and South Canal street, including the approaches thereto, on the west side of the South Branch of the Chicago River. The Union Station Company shall also, at its own cost, rebuild and reconstruct to a width of eighty (80) feet, those portions of the streets and viaducts, including roadway surfaces and sidewalks, and restore street railway tracks and property therein, if any, upon Polk street and Taylor street extending from the west bank of the South Branch of the Chicago River to the east line of South Canal street, and shall construct the approaches thereto on the west side of the Chicago River. The increase in the width of said Polk and Taylor streets and of the viaducts thereon shall be made on the south side thereof, between the east line of South Canal street and the west bank of the South Branch of the Chicago River. Whenever, in the opinion of the Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Chicago, the condition of the present viaduct upon West Washington street has become such as to make it necessary to replace or reconstruct the same, The Union Station Company shall reconstruct such viaduct, to the full width of said West Washington street, upon plans and specifications to be approved by said Commissioner of Public Works. If and whenever any of said streets upon which viaducts are constructed (except Polk street and Taylor street) shall be widened from North La Salle street or South La Salle street to the east line of the South Branch of the Chicago River, then and in that event The Union Station Company will, at its own cost, widen so much of such viaducts, or any of them, as may extend over any property which may be owned, leased, controlled or used by The Union Station Company, or any railroad company then using the passenger station and facilities (including freight or passenger tracks) herein authorized, and the approaches thereto between North and South Canal street and the South Branch of the Chicago River, to conform with the changed conditions of such streets or any of them.

(3) The Union Station Company shall, when and as ordered so to do by the City Council of the City of Chicago, pay such proportion of the entire cost of construction of a new viaduct (together with its approaches) not exceeding one hundred eighteen (118) feet in width, extending from South Canal street to the west line of the South Branch of the Chicago River upon West Twelfth street, as is represented by the ratio that all the railroad tracks (both main and switch) maintained by said company or any railroad company or companies then using the passenger station and facilities herein authorized, bear to the entire number of tracks of all kinds maintained beneath said viaduct so to be constructed; provided that there shall first be deducted from the cost of the construction of said viaduct such sum of money, if any, as any street railway company or companies shall be required to pay toward the cost of the construction of said viaduct, but this proviso shall not be deemed or taken to impose any obligation on any street railway company to contribute to the cost of construction of said viaduct; provided further, however, that should all parties concerned in the construction of said viaduct agree on a different basis of prorating the cost of the construction thereof, then The Union Station Company shall pay its pro rata share of the cost of the construction of said viaduct in accordance with such agreement.

(4) The Union Station Company, by the acceptance of this ordinance, agrees that whenever the City of Chicago shall extend West Congress street from Franklin street to the west line of the South Branch of the Chicago River, said company shall procure a grant to the City of the right to extend said street upon a viaduct across the property then owned, leased, controlled or used by said Company, or any railroad company then using the passenger station and facilities herein authorized without the payment of any compensation or damages on account of such extension to said companies or any of them, and The Union Station Company shall, at its own cost, construct, upon plans and specifications to be approved by the Commissioner of Public Works, a viaduct over such property owned, leased, controlled or used by The Union Station Company, or any railroad company then using the passenger station and facilities (including freight or passenger tracks) herein authorized, including the approaches thereto on the west side of the South Branch of the Chicago River, of the full width of such street, as it may be laid out east of the east approach to the bridge upon said street over the South Branch of the Chicago River.

(5) The Union Station Company, by the acceptance of this ordinance, agrees that it will procure a grant to the city of the right to extend West Monroe street upon a viaduct at the grade hereinbefore established over and across the property then owned, leased, controlled or used by said company or any railroad company then using the passenger station and facilities (including freight or passenger tracks) herein authorized, without the payment of any compensation or damages on account of such extension to said companies, or any of them. The Union Station

Company shall construct upon plans and specifications to be approved by the Commissioner of Public Works, a bridge with the abutments therefor across said South Branch of the Chicago River from the west end of the east approach to said bridge on the east line of said South Branch of the Chicago River to the west line of said South Branch of said river, and shall receive credit for the cost of such construction as provided in Section 16 hereof and shall at its own expense construct a viaduct connecting with said bridge and extending from the west line thereof to the east line of South Canal street.

(6) The Union Station Company by the acceptance of this ordinance agrees that it will procure within adequate time to secure the completion of the work in this paragraph provided for, a grant to the City of the right to construct and continue the improvement hereafter in this paragraph described over and across any property owned, leased, controlled or used by said company or any railroad company or companies, without the payment of any compensation or damages by the City on account of such construction or continuance, to said companies, or any of them. The nature, character, locality and description of said improvement shall be as follows: Said improvement shall be located in North Canal street between the north line of West Lake street and the north line of West Kinzie street, and in West Kinzie street between the west line of North Canal street and a point approximately sixty-six (66) feet east of the east line of Orleans street; an approach and viaduct shall be constructed in North Canal street commencing at approximately the north line of West Lake street and thence extending north in North Canal street to the north line of West Kinzie street; West Kinzie street between the west line of North Canal street and the east line of Orleans street shall consist of a two-level street; said street shall be eighty (80) feet in width except between the east line of Kingsbury street and the west line of Orleans street, where a strip of land fifty (50) feet in width adjoining the present south line of West Kinzie street, shall be acquired by The Union Station Company and dedicated for street purposes and added to said street between said points; the lower level of said West Kinzie street between said west line of North Canal street and said east line of Orleans street shall be the surface of said street between said points and of said strip fifty (50) feet in width between said east line of Kingsbury street and said west line of Orleans street; the upper level of said portion of West Kinzie street shall consist of a continuation of said viaduct in North Canal street, eastward in West Kinzie street, of the width of eighty (80) feet, descending to the present surface of said street at a point approximately sixty-six (66) feet east of the east line of Orleans street; a two-level bridge shall be constructed across the North Branch of the Chicago River in said West Kinzie street, the upper and lower levels of which shall connect with and form part of the upper and lower levels of said street respectively.

The grades, materials and mode of construction of said entire improvement shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of Public Works and The Union Station Company shall construct the same in its entirety upon such plans and specifications as may be approved by said Commissioner of Public Works and subject to his supervision and approval; the cost thereof shall be borne as provided in Section 16 hereof. The Union Station Company shall also indemnify and save harmless said City of Chicago from any damages to property abutting upon said improvement on account of the construction and maintenance thereof.

(7) The Union Station Company shall maintain in good order and condition so much of each of the viaducts and approaches in this section described, including roadway surfaces and sidewalks as shall be over the property owned, leased, controlled or used by said company, or any railroad company then using the passenger station and facilities (including freight or passenger facilities) herein authorized; and in the event that it shall fail so to do, after thirty days' written notice from the Commissioner of Public Works, then the City of Chicago may do or cause to be done the work necessary to maintain said viaduct and approaches, or any of them, and on demand collect from The Union Station Company the cost of doing said work, together with an additional ten per cent. upon the total of such cost, for superintendence by the City.

(8) It is hereby provided as one of the conditions and limitations of this ordinance and of the rights granted to The Union Station Company hereunder, that The Union Station Company shall procure a grant to said City of Chicago of a perpetual easement for street purposes in and to a strip of land east of and adjacent to the present east line of North and South Canal street, twenty (20) feet in width, extending from the north line of West Twelfth street to the south line of West Washington street, except across street intersections between said points, and shall pay all cost and expense of widening said North and South Canal street as hereinabove provided, including the cost of changing, restoring and reconstructing any street railway tracks and property in said part of said street; provided, however, that The Union Station Company or any railroad company or companies using said station, shall be entitled to use the space underneath said twenty (20) foot strip between the present south line of West Washington street and the alley now connecting South Canal street with West Harrison street, including the space under a strip equal to said twenty (20) feet extended across all intersections of streets from West Washington street to said alley (being part of the east forty (40) feet of said street, referred to in paragraph 1 of Section 6 hereof) and all the space underneath South Canal street between the south line of West Harrison street and the north line of Taylor street, including the space under all street intersections of South Canal street with east and west streets between said points so as to permit the use of said space as a continuous strip of ground, upon condition that The Union Station Company shall support and maintain the roadway and sidewalks over any and all such space so used and occupied by it or any railroad company or companies using said station, in good condition and repair, to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Chicago and in accordance with plans and specifications which shall be submitted to and approved by him; and prior to the acceptance of this ordinance by The Union Station Company, it shall procure and file with the City Clerk of said city, good and sufficient conveyances approved by the Corporation Counsel of said city, conveying said easement in and to said twenty (20) foot strip to the said City of Chicago.

(9) The Union Station Company shall also construct and maintain on the east line of North and South Canal street as herein widened, between the south line of West Washington street and the north line of West 12th street, except across street intersections, a suitable wall or screen at such points and of such height and material and in accordance with such plans and specifications as may be approved by the Commissioner of Public Works. Any space utilized by The Union Station Company or such railroad company, or companies underneath South Canal street between the south line of West Harrison street and the north line of Taylor street, including the space underneath street intersections between said points, shall be utilized in such a manner as to afford convenient access to any facilities located within said space for the receipt and delivery of freight, from Mather and Forquer streets and Gilpin place. If any railroad tracks are extended to lands west of South Canal street the same shall be covered by substantial buildings adapted to the purpose for which the same may be built upon any lands west of the west line of said street. The Union Station Company hereby agrees to light properly to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Gas and Electricity of the City of Chicago, all the space underneath South Canal street between West Harrison street and Taylor street, including the space under all street intersections of South Canal street with east and west streets between said points. The sidewalks in Mather street, Gilpin place and Forquer street between South Clinton and South Canal streets shall be connected with the sidewalk on the west side of South Canal street maintained by The Union Station Company as herein provided, by steps and hand railings, of such dimensions and character as shall be satisfactory to and approved by the Commissioner of Public Works.

(10) The Union Station Company shall pay all damages if any shall be found to be occasioned to real estate, by reason of the change of grade on South Canal street, and the portions of the east and west streets connecting therewith lying west of the South Branch of the Chicago River, in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance, and the question of such damages and the amount thereof, shall, if the person, firm or corporation owning property alleged to be so damaged shall so elect, be settled and fixed by a board of arbitration to be appointed in the following manner:

The Chairman of the Finance Committee of the City Council shall, within thirty (30) days from and after the date of acceptance of this ordinance by the Company, nominate and appoint one competent and impartial person to serve as the first member of the board of arbitration, and shall forthwith give the Company notice in writing of said selection, whereupon the Company shall, within thirty (30) days from the date of the receipt of such notice, nominate and appoint a competent and impartial person to serve as the second member of the said board of arbitration, and shall forthwith give the Chairman of the Finance Committee notice in writing of the selection so made by said Company and the two members of said Board of Arbitration so nominated and appointed shall, within thirty (30) days after the notice given by the Company to the said Chairman of the Finance Committee, nominate and appoint some competent and impartial and disinterested person to serve as the third member of the said board. In the event that the first two members of the said board, appointed respectively by the Chairman of the Finance Committee and the Company shall be unable to agree within thirty (30) days upon the nomination and appointment of the third member of said board, then and in such case a majority of the persons then legally elected and acting as judges of the Circuit Court of Cook County shall, within five (5) days after notice in writing shall have been served upon the Chief Justice of said court by either of the first two members of said board, appointed as aforesaid, informing him of their inability to agree, select the third member of said board.

The board of arbitration so appointed shall thereupon promptly and as soon as practicable, proceed to consider the claim or claims of every person, firm or corporation owning property within the vicinity of the improvement herein authorized and claiming damage to such property by reason of the change of grade on South Canal street and the portions of the east and west streets lying west of the South Branch of the Chicago River, in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance, taking into account in considering such claim or claims the benefits if any to the property involved resulting from such change of grade. No such claim for damages, however, shall be passed upon or award made in favor of such claimant until such claimant shall have formally submitted in writing his or its claims for damages to be passed upon by said board of arbitration and shall have agreed to be bound by the decision of said board of arbitration and to accept as final and conclusive its decision as to the amount of damages done to his or its property. In each case where a claim is so submitted to the board of arbitration by any claimant, the board of arbitration may, in its discretion, where its award is accepted and a release and discharge of all claims against the Company given by said claimant, upon receipt by him or it of the amount of the award made by said board, allow to said claimant such sum as it shall deem reasonable and proper, not to exceed, however, five (5) per cent, of the amount of its award, as an attorney's fee, whenever said claimant shall have been represented by an attorney before said board of arbitration in his or its behalf.

The board of arbitration, when it shall have arrived at a decision as to the amount of damage, if any, caused to the property of any person, firm or corporation, submitting his or its claim to said board, shall give notice in writing to the claimant so submitting his or its claim, setting forth in such notice the decision of the said board in regard to such claim and, if it has decided that the property of said claimant has been damaged, setting forth the amount which, in the opinion of said board should be paid to such claimant as compensation for the damage done to his or its property.

All claims for damages caused or alleged to be caused by reason of the change of grade on South Canal street and the portions of the east and west streets connecting therewith, lying west of the South Branch of the Chicago River, in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance, and which it is desired by the person, firm or corporation owning such property to submit to the board of arbitration herein provided for, for arbitration, shall be submitted within two years from and after the time when the Company first begins the actual use and operation of the said improvement.

All expenses necessarily incurred in the arbitration of any claim submitted under the provisions of this ordinance to the said board of arbitration shall be borne by the Company, including the reasonable and proper compensation of each member of the board of arbitration, and such expenses shall from time to time be promptly paid by the Company upon the presentation of a bill or voucher therefor made by the said board. Any disputed question as to the expenses and compensation under the provisions of this paragraph shall be left for final determination by the Corporation Counsel of the City.

Any vacancy created by the death of any member of the said board, or by its inability or refusal to serve upon said board, shall be filled in the same manner as provided for the original appointment of said board, and by either the Chairman of the Finance Committee, or the Company, if their respective appointees shall fail for any such reason to serve, or in the event that the third member of the said board shall for any such reason fail to serve, then the vacancy so created shall be filled as hereinbefore provided for the original appointment of said third member.

The Company shall within thirty (30) days after the rendition of an award of damages by the said board of arbitration, pay to the person, firm or corporation in whose favor such award of damages shall have been made the amount declared by said board of arbitration to be a fair and reasonable amount to compensate such person, firm or corporation for the damages suffered by him or it.

(11) It is hereby expressly provided as one of the terms, limitations and conditions of this ordinance, that by the acceptance hereof The Union Station Company and the companies occupying and using the Union Station terminal property, agree that if the City of Chicago or any other governmental agency acting at the request of said city and having lawful authority therefor, desires and makes provision and is proceeding to straighten the South Branch of the Chicago River by creating a new channel for said river, so that the west line of said river shall be a line beginning at a point on the present west line of said South Branch of the Chicago River at its intersection with the present south line of Polk street, at a distance of nine hundred thirty-nine and eighty-nine one-hundredths (939.89) feet east of the present east line of South Canal street, measuring along said south line of Polk street, thence by a straight line to a point on the north line of West Twelfth street, ten hundred eighty-six and eight-tenths (1086.8) feet east of the present east line of South Canal street measuring along said north line of West Twelfth street, thence extending south parallel with said present east line of South Canal street to an intersection with the present west bank of said South Branch of the Chicago River between West Sixteenth street and West Eighteenth street; or if said westerly line of said river shall be established with the consent of the City Council of the City of Chicago on any line east of said line, (but in no event upon a line farther west than that above described); and the east line of said South Branch of said river shall be a line parallel with and 200 feet distant easterly from the west line of said South Branch of said river as above described; then and in that event The Union Station Company, through its officers and engineers, will endeavor to secure the coöperation of any other railroad corporation owning lands upon the route of said proposed new channel to the end that the assistance of any such other railroad corporations may be secured in effecting said improvement by means of the straightening of said channel of the Chicago River.

It is expressly understood and agreed that any change in the channel of the Chicago River so contemplated and proposed, need not follow the exact route hereinabove described, but may be approximately in the general line and within the general limits above stated, provided that no part of such route shall in any event be west of the west line described in the preceding paragraph hereof. The Union Station Company and the companies occupying The Union Station Company property under the terms of this ordinance hereby further agree that, if and when provision is made by law for the straightening of the river as herein provided, and the other property necessary therefor is acquired, it, or they, or any or either of them, (the lands of which lie or may hereafter be situated within the proposed route of said river channel, if straightened) will upon payment of compensation therefor as hereinafter provided, convey to the City of Chicago, or such governmental power as has charge and control of straightening said river channel, any interest in and to lands which it, they, or any of them, may own or control, necessary or convenient for the purpose of the straightening of said river channel.

And it is hereby expressly agreed that compensation for or damages on account of any such interest in lands so to be conveyed for the purpose of straightening said river channel shall be ascertained and fixed by a board or boards of arbitration which shall be constituted as follows: The said city shall appoint one of the members of such board (which appointment shall be made by the Mayor of said city and be subject to the approval of the City Council) and shall notify the railroad company the property of which is required for the proposed improvement, in writing, of the name and address of such member, and within 30 days after such notice such railroad company shall appoint a member of such board and shall notify the Mayor of said city, in writing, of the name and address of such member so appointed by it. In the event that such railroad company fails to appoint such member within the time specified herein, then said city shall be entitled to appoint the second member of such board in the manner above provided for the appointment of the first member. The two members appointed in either of the ways aforesaid shall select the third member of such board. In the event that they do not agree upon the selection of such third member within thirty days from the appointment of the second member of such board in either of the ways aforesaid, then a majority of the persons then legally elected and acting as judges of the Circuit Court of Cook County, may appoint the third member of such board upon the application of said city or of such company after the giving of 10 days' written notice of such application to the other party. In the event of the death or refusal to serve of any of the members of such board, the party by which such member was appointed shall have the power to fill the vacancy within 30 days after notice to the other party. Any vacancy caused by the death, resignation or refusal to serve of the third member of such board, may be filled by agreement of the other two members of such board or if they fail to agree within 30 days after such vacancy shall occur then a majority of the persons then legally elected and acting as the judges of the Circuit Court of Cook County, may fill such vacancy, upon the application of said city or of such company after giving 10 days' written notice of such application to the other party. Such board of arbitrators shall have power to fix the times and places for the presentation of evidence by the respective parties and within 30 days after the conclusion of such evidence shall make its finding and award in writing in reference to the questions of compensation or damages, or both, as above provided, upon the evidence submitted. Any finding or award by such board or a majority of the members thereof shall be binding upon the parties to such arbitration without any appeal and in consideration of the obligation herein imposed, said City of Chicago agrees and undertakes that such compensation and damages, or either of them, as may be awarded by any such board shall be paid to the company or companies concerned within one year from the making of such finding or award.

The obligation herein created in reference to the straightening of said branch of the Chicago River shall be taken and held, for a period of fifteen years from the passage of this ordinance to be a covenant running with the land now or hereafter within said period owned or held by The Union Station Company or any railroad company or companies using the station herein authorized, and lying within the area which may be selected for a channel in accordance with the provisions hereof for straightening said South Branch of the Chicago River and as such shall be binding upon the successors and assigns of, and purchasers from The Union Station Company or such railroad company or companies, or any of them, for said period of fifteen years. At the end of said period of fifteen years the obligation herein imposed in reference to straightening said South Branch of the Chicago River shall cease and determine, unless in the meantime the conditions herein prescribed for the performance of said obligation shall have been fulfilled. In the event that the line adopted for the straightening of said river is located farther west than said west line hereinabove described then each and all of the obligations herein assumed in reference to the straightening of the South Branch of the Chicago River shall be null and void.

§ 9. In case passenger subways shall be built in West Madison street, West Monroe street, West Adams street, West Jackson street, West Van Buren street, West Congress street, if extended, West Harrison street, South Clinton street or South Canal street, or any of them, or at any point between West Harrison street on the south and West Madison street on the north, South Clinton street on the west and the South Branch of the Chicago River on the east, permission and authority are hereby granted The Union Station Company to construct, maintain, use and operate pedestrian passageways under any streets or alleys within the limits prescribed in paragraph (c) of Section I hereof, to provide for interchange of passenger traffic between said subway or subways and said passenger station. Said passageways hereinabove mentioned shall be of such dimensions, construction and general detail as shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of Public Works, as shown upon plans and specifications to be placed on file with him and the route of such passageways shall follow as closely as in his judgment shall be practicable the shortest line between such Union Station and such subway or subways, but in no event shall said passageways be so located as to interfere with the construction or operation of the passenger subways herein referred to.

§ 10. Permission and authority are hereby given to The Union Station Company, whenever the same shall be necessary for the prosecution of the work herein authorized to obstruct temporarily, any street, avenue and alley to such an extent and for such length of time as may be approved by the Commissioner of Public Works; and it is also hereby authorized whenever the same shall become necessary, to erect and maintain temporary structures and false work in any of said streets and alleys during the construction of said station and facilities, subject to like approval of said Commissioner of Public Works. No changes of any kind shall be made or work done in any street or alley as herein authorized, by The Union Station Company, except upon plans and specifications approved by and under the supervision of the Commissioner of Public Works, and upon a permit of said Commissioner of Public Works allowing such work to proceed, provided, however, that if any street or alley so obstructed shall contain street railway tracks and such obstruction shall necessitate the building of new tracks or the making of new connections with existing tracks, in order to accommodate street railway traffic, the cost thereof shall be paid by The Union Station Company; reasonable notice of making all such obstructions shall be given to the street railway companies.

In all cases where in complying with the provisions of this ordinance it is necessary to change or reconstruct street railway tracks and property, the work shall be done by the street railway companies owning the same and the cost thereof shall be paid by The Union Station Company.

§ 11. The permission and authority hereby granted to The Union Station Company are upon the express condition that it shall indemnify the City of Chicago and hold it harmless from any and all damage and expense (including damages to private property) to which it may be subjected by reason of The Union Station Company's using and occupying any of the streets and alleys within the limits hereinbefore described and the change of the grades of any of the streets and alleys, including the approaches to the viaducts, and relocation of sewers, as herein provided, and The Union Station Company shall, at its own cost and charge, defend any suits in law or equity which may be brought against the City of Chicago and The Union Station Company, or against either of them by reason of any acts or things done under the permission and authority in this ordinance granted to The Union Station Company, and The Union Station Company shall pay all the judgments, interest and costs which may be finally rendered against the City of Chicago, and The Union Station Company or either of them, by reason of the change of grades of the streets and alleys, and relocation of sewers, pipes, wires, conduits or other similar utilities herein mentioned; if the change of grades, as herein authorized shall require raising the plane of any of the existing bridges over the South Branch of the Chicago River, The Union Station Company shall pay the cost of such raising; provided, further, however, that in the event of suits in law or equity brought against the City of Chicago for damages or for equitable relief by reason of any acts done by The Union Station Company, in pursuance of the permission and authority hereby granted, wherein The Union Station Company shall not be a party defendant with said City of Chicago, the Corporation Counsel of said City of Chicago, shall at least five days before the return day of the process therein, give notice in writing of such suit to the Superintendent of The Union Station Company.

§ 12. In the event that The Union Station Company shall, for a period of thirty days, after being notified by said Commissioner of Public Works, fail, neglect or refuse to proceed with due diligence to do any work with respect to bridges, viaducts, paving, curbing, sidewalks, or other public improvements, in and by this ordinance required to be done by it, then said Commissioner of Public Works shall be and he is hereby authorized to cause said work to be done; and The Union Station Company shall, upon demand of the City of Chicago, pay the entire cost thereof to the City of Chicago, with ten per cent. added to such cost for superintendence by the City of Chicago.

§ 13. All those parts of West Water street lying within blocks twenty-two (22) and fifty-one (51); also all that part of Fulton street lying north of and adjoining the north line of block twenty-two (22)—all in Original Town of Chicago in Section nine (9), Township thirty-nine (39) North, Range fourteen (14), East of the Third Principal

Meridian; also all those parts of Stewart avenue lying within blocks sixty-one (61) to sixty-four (64), both inclusive, and seventy-three (73) to seventy-six (76), both inclusive [except therefrom the north ten (10) feet of blocks sixty-two (62) and seventy-five (75), and the south ten (10) feet of said blocks sixty-three (63) and seventy-four (74)]; also that part of Gilpin place lying within block sixty-four (64) (except the west twenty (20) feet thereof); also all that part of Forquer street lying within block sixty-three (63) (except the west twenty (20) feet thereof); also all that part of De Koven street lying within blocks sixty-two (62) and seventy-five (75) [except therefrom the west twenty (20) feet of block sixty-two (62)]; also all that part of Bunker street lying within block sixty-one (61) (except the west twenty (20) feet thereof); also all of the public alleys in blocks sixty-three (63) and sixty-seven (67),— all in School Section Addition to Chicago in Section sixteen (16), Township thirty-nine (39) North, Range fourteen (14), east of the Third Principal Meridian; said parts of said streets being further described as all that part of Fulton street lying between the east line of North Canal street and the west line of the North Branch of the Chicago River; also all that part of West Water street lying between the south line of Fulton street and the north line of West Lake street and the east line of North Canal street, and between the south line of West Washington street and the north line of West Madison street; also all those parts of Stewart avenue lying between the south line of Polk street and the north line of Taylor street, and between the south line of Taylor street and the north line of West 12th street; also all that part of Gilpin place, Forquer street and Bunker street lying between the west line of Stewart avenue and the east line of South Canal street; also all that part of De Koven street lying east of the east line of South Canal street; also all of the public alleys in the block bounded by West Van Buren street, West Harrison street, Stewart avenue and South Canal street; also all of the public alleys in the two blocks bounded by Gilpin place, Taylor street, Stewart avenue and South Canal street, as colored in red and indicated by the words "To be Vacated" on the plat hereto attached, which plat for greater certainty is hereby made a part of this ordinance; be and the same are hereby vacated and closed, inasmuch as said portions of said streets and alleys are no longer required for public use and the public welfare, convenience and safety will be best conserved by their vacation and discontinuance. The vacation herein provided for is made on the express condition that upon the acceptance of this ordinance The Union Station Company shall within thirty (30) days thereafter file for record in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of Cook County, Illinois, a certified copy of this ordinance.

It is expressly understood and agreed that nothing herein contained shall prejudice the rights of the City of Chicago in and to an easement in a strip of land ten (10) feet in width, next to and adjoining the west bank of the Chicago River between the north line of West Madison street and the south line of Fulton street which said easement was forever reserved to the public as an open wharf, for passengers to land with ordinary baggage free of charge, under the ordinances passed by the Common Council of said City of Chicago, September 12, 1853, and December 10, 1855, respectively, pursuant to the provisions of an act entitled "An Act to adjust and settle the title to the wharfing privileges in Chicago and for other purposes," approved February 27, 1847.

§ 14. Inasmuch as The Union Station Company does not now own all of the property situated in Blocks 65 to 68, both inclusive, in said School Section Addition, abutting upon the streets located therein, all that part of Stewart avenue lying within Blocks 65 to 68, both inclusive; also all that part of Sebor street lying within Block 66; also all that part of Ellsworth street lying within Blocks 65 and 66 (except therefrom the south 243 feet, more or less) all in School Section Addition to Chicago in Section sixteen (16), Township thirty-nine (39) North, Range Fourteen (14) East of the Third (3rd) Principal Meridian, said parts of said streets being further described as all that part of Stewart avenue lying between the south line of West Van Buren street and the north line of West Harrison street and between the south line of West Harrison street and the north line of Polk street; also all that part of Sebor street lying between the west line of Ellsworth street and the east line of Stewart avenue; also all that part of Ellsworth street lying between the south line of West Harrison street and the north line of Polk street (except therefrom the south 243 feet, more or less) as colored in red and indicated by the words "To be Vacated" on the plat hereto attached, which plat for greater certainty is hereby made a part of this ordinance,—be and the same are hereby vacated and closed inasmuch as said portions of said streets are no longer required for public use, and the public welfare, convenience and safety will be best conserved by their vacation and discontinuance, upon (a) The Union Station Company's filing with the City Clerk of the City of Chicago the written consent of the Chicago and Alton Railroad Company, or its grantee, or other owners of the property abutting said portions of said streets in this section described; (b) the payment to the City of Chicago of the sum of six hundred eighty-five thousand four hundred fifty-two and 04/100 ($685,452.04) dollars toward a fund for the payment and satisfaction of any and all claims for damages which may arise from the vacation of said portions of said streets; (c) The Union Station Company's depositing in the City Treasury of the City of Chicago a sum sufficient to defray all costs and expenses of constructing a sidewalk and curb across the entrances to the streets herein vacated similar to the sidewalk and curb in West Van Buren street, West Harrison street and Polk street, between South Canal street and the Chicago River; and (d) The Union Station Company's filing for record in the Office of the Recorder of Deeds of Cook County, Illinois, a certified copy of this ordinance. The provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section shall not be available to or inure to the benefit of any person or corporation other than The Union Station Company and the City of Chicago.

§ 15. All the work hereinbefore required or authorized to be done by The Union Station Company upon or in connection with the public streets of the city shall be done and performed under the superintendence and subject to the inspection and approval of the Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Chicago, and the cost of all work authorized or required to be done by this ordinance, including the cost of inspection thereof, shall be paid by The Union Station Company.

At least ten (10) days prior to the commencement of any part of such work, the plans and specifications therefor shall be submitted to the Commissioner of Public Works for his examination, and if found to be in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance, and the general ordinances of the City of Chicago, insofar as this ordinance contains specific provisions and if they shall be satisfactory to the Commissioner of Public Works in regard to matters and details which by this ordinance or the general ordinances of the city are left to his discretion and judgment, such plans shall be approved by him, and after such approval all work outlined and included therein shall be constructed in strict conformity therewith. Said plans to be known as "filing plans" shall embody:

1. A general plan or exhibit on a scale of one inch equaling one hundred feet of all right of way, tracks, retaining walls, abutments and appurtenances, such as it is proposed to establish in compliance with the provisions of this ordinance.

2. A detail drawing or exhibit of each viaduct provided for in this ordinance, the outside dimensions of which shall be twenty (20) inches in width by thirty-six (36) inches in length. Said detail drawings shall each embody the following features:

- (a) A plan on a scale of one inch equaling twenty feet of the viaduct, showing the number of tracks to be constructed across the street, the abutments and columns, the limits of the right of way referring to the nearest lot or street line (reference to the nearest lot or street line in each case to be the nearest foot), the widths of roadway and sidewalks of the viaduct and the approaches, drainage provisions, all underground revisions and improvements, and street car lines where they exist.

- (b) A cross section of the viaduct showing its dimensions, the elevation of the street at the crown of the same, the amount of crown of the roadway, the elevation of curbs, the rate of slope of the sidewalks, all underground revisions and improvements.

- (c) Each drawing to bear the title and date of passage of this ordinance.

- (d) Blank spaces for signatures of the following City officers in the order listed:

Commissioner of Gas and Electricity.

Engineer of Track Elevation.

Commissioner of Track Elevation.

Engineer of Streets.

Superintendent of Streets.

Engineer of the Board of Local Improvements.

Superintendent of Sewers.

Engineer of Water Pipe Extension.

Superintendent of Water Pipe Extension.

City Engineer.

Commissioner of Public Works.

Corporation Counsel.

3. Where any public improvement is required to be changed on account of plans submitted under this ordinance, before the said plans shall be approved by any officer of the City of Chicago, an estimate shall be made of the changes required in such public improvement, and the amount or amounts so estimated shall be placed to the credit of the proper officer of the City of Chicago to pay for such changes.

4. Wherever in this ordinance it is provided that any work in respect to construction, repair or maintenance shall be done or performed by The Union Station Company, it is understood and agreed that the cost thereof shall be borne by said Company, except where otherwise specifically provided.

§ 16. Inasmuch as by a certain ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance granting to the Pennsylvania Company, operating the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway, its successors and assigns, the right to lay down and maintain two additional tracks in Stewart avenue from a point at or near Archer avenue, to a point immediately north of West Fifteenth place; also additional tracks in Stewart avenue from a point immediately north of West Fifteenth place to the north line of West Twelfth street; and the right to construct, maintain and operate railroad tracks and facilities necessary to its freight terminal station and coach yard located between West Fifteenth place, Polk street, the South Branch of the Chicago River and Stewart avenue; also granting certain rights to the CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & QUINCY RAILROAD COMPANY," certain rights and privileges are granted to the Pennsylvania Company and to the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, by the City of Chicago, the value of which is hereby fixed at the sum of nine hundred thirty-one thousand one hundred thirty-nine and 45/100 dollars ($931,139.45); and inasmuch as by a certain other ordinance, entitled, "An Ordinance granting to the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway Company, and The Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Company, and their respective successors and assigns, the right to construct, maintain and operate additional tracks across certain streets in the City of Chicago," certain rights and privileges are granted to the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway Company, and the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Company, the value of which is hereby fixed at the sum of two hundred ninety-two thousand four hundred twenty-seven and 82/100 dollars ($292,427.82); and inasmuch as by this ordinance certain rights and privileges are granted to

The Union Station Company, the value of which is hereby fixed at the sum of one million four hundred sixty-two thousand nine hundred ninety-one and 65/100 dollars ($1,462,991.65) the total value of all such rights and privileges being the sum of two million six hundred and eighty-six thousand five hundred fifty-eight and 92/100 dollars ($2,686,558.92);

And inasmuch as all of said grants of rights and privileges in all said ordinances are essential to the proper construction and operation of the Union Passenger Station Terminal and facilities in this ordinance authorized:

And inasmuch as the following items of credit are hereby allowed to The Union Station Company:

1. For the grant of the perpetual easement in and to the strip of land on the east side of North and South Canal street, described in paragraph 8 of Section VIII of this ordinance.....$ 760,753.88
 2. For the construction by The Union Station Company of a bridge, including the abutments therefor, across the South Branch of the Chicago River in West Monroe street, extended, in accordance with paragraph 5 of Section VIII of this ordinance....$ 500,000.00
 3. For the construction of that part of the improvement described in paragraph 6 of Section VIII of this ordinance, consisting of a two-level bridge, including the abutments therefor, across the North Branch of the Chicago River in West Kinzie street$ 600,000.00

The total of said items of credit being the sum of one million eight hundred sixty thousand seven hundred fifty-three and 88/100 dollars.....$1,860,753.88

It is therefore made a condition of this ordinance and of the grants and privileges in this and in said ordinances contained, that The Union Station Company shall, within the time limited for the acceptance of this ordinance, pay to the City of Chicago the sum of eight hundred twenty-five thousand eight hundred five and 04/100 dollars ($825,805.04), which is the difference between the total value of said rights and privileges granted under said ordinances and this ordinance and the total of said credits hereinabove set forth.

In the event that the actual cost of the construction of said bridges mentioned in Items 2 and 3 hereinabove set forth should be less than said sums respectively credited to The Union Station Company, on account thereof, the difference between such actual cost of said bridges, including the abutments therefor, and said credits, or either of them, shall, upon demand by said city, after the construction of said bridges, and the ascertainment of such actual cost, be paid by The Union Station Company to the said City, in addition to the sum hereinbefore provided to be paid by said Company. For the purpose of ascertaining the actual cost of said bridges, the Company hereby agrees, on the completion of each of said bridges, to furnish to the Commissioner of Public Works of said City a sworn statement showing the actual cost thereof.

§17. The grants made and privileges conferred under this ordinance may be revoked and forfeited by the City Council of the City of Chicago, and this ordinance and all of the privileges hereby granted shall thereupon become null and void, in the event and whenever The Union Station Company shall, for a period of ninety (90) days after notice from the City of Chicago, fail, neglect or refuse to comply with or to perform any one or all of the requirements and conditions herein imposed, and unless within six (6) months after the acceptance of this ordinance The Union Station Company shall begin the work herein authorized and required, including the acquisition of the lands and easements therefor, and shall perform said work and prosecute any proceedings necessary to acquire such lands and easements with all due diligence; and shall, within five years after the acceptance of this ordinance, complete the passenger station and facilities herein authorized, and shall within the same period of five years construct the improvements in North and South Canal streets, West Kinzie street and West Monroe street and also re-construct the existing viaducts in east and west streets as provided in Section VIII of this ordinance, unless prevented by strikes, riots, the act of God or a public enemy, or restrained by injunction or other order or process of a court of competent jurisdiction not obtained through collusion of The Union Station Company, in which event the time that The Union Station Company shall be so prevented, as aforesaid, shall be added to the time hereby given for the completion of so much of said work as may be so prevented, provided The Union Station Company shall give notice in writing to the Corporation Counsel of the City of Chicago of the institution of said legal proceedings or strikes. The City of Chicago shall thereupon have the right to intervene in any suit or proceedings brought by any person or persons seeking to enjoin or restrain or in any manner interfere with the prosecution of said work, and move for a dissolution of such injunction or restraining order, and for any other proper order in such suit. Should, however, said Company be delayed in the prosecution of said work authorized to be done under the provisions of this ordinance, by reason of any delay on the part of the City of Chicago or any of its officers in the performance of the duties imposed upon the city and its officers by this ordinance in respect to the work herein authorized to be done by The Union Station Company, then and in that case the time which The Union Station Company shall be so delayed shall be added to the time during which said Company is required by the terms of this ordinance to complete so much of said work as may be so delayed.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to or shall prevent The Union Station Company from thereafter constructing and operating such additional tracks and accessories as said Company may from time to time find necessary or convenient for the operation of the station and facilities herein authorized, only, however, within the limits defined in Section I hereof and subject to the provisions of this ordinance.

The permission and authority hereby granted to and the terms and provisions herein imposed upon The Union Station Company shall inure to and be binding upon its successors, lessees and assigns.

The Union Station Company shall within six months of the passage hereof file with the City Clerk its acceptance of this ordinance and its bond, payable to the City of Chicago, in form to be approved by the Corporation Counsel of the City of Chicago, in the penal sum of two million ($2,000,000) dollars, with the CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & QUINCY RAILROAD COMPANY, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway Company, The Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Company and the Pennsylvania Company, operating the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railway, or any three of said last mentioned companies, as sureties, conditioned for the faithful observance and performance by The Union Station Company of all the terms and conditions of this ordinance on its part to be kept and performed, and the conveyances of easements in the twenty-foot strip in Canal street in Section VIII described; said CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & QUINCY RAILROAD COMPANY, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway Company, The Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Company and the Pennsylvania Company shall also within six months of the passage hereof, file with the City Clerk their acceptance of this ordinance, respectively, whereupon this ordinance shall be in full force and effect.

ORDINANCE

March 23, 1914

Granting to the Pennsylvania Company, operating the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway, its successors and assigns, the right to lay down and maintain two additional tracks in Stewart avenue from a point at or near Archer avenue, to a point immediately north of West Fifteenth place; also additional tracks in Stewart avenue from a point immediately north of West Fifteenth place to the north line of West Twelfth street; and the right to construct, maintain and operate railroad tracks and facilities necessary to its freight terminal station and coach yard located between West Fifteenth place, Polk street, the South Branch of the Chicago River, and Stewart avenue; also granting certain rights to the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. (1) That subject to the provisions, conditions and limitations in this ordinance contained, permission and authority are hereby granted to the Pennsylvania Company, operating the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway, to lay down, maintain and operate two additional tracks at about the level of its present tracks, with necessary switches, connections, crossovers and turnouts in Stewart avenue, and Stewart avenue projected, in the City of Chicago, from a point fifty-three (53) feet more or less south of the north line of Archer avenue, to connect with the easterly two of the present four main tracks as the same are now constructed and operated, thence north on or near the easterly side of Stewart avenue projected, across the South Branch of the Chicago River to a point immediately north of West Fifteenth place, there to connect with the joint tracks of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway and the Chicago and Alton Railroad Company.

(2) Permission and authority are further granted to said Pennsylvania Company to construct, maintain, renew and operate at about the level of its present tracks one additional track in Stewart avenue from West Fifteenth place to a point at or near West Thirteenth place and five additional tracks in Stewart avenue from a point at or near West Thirteenth place to the north line of West Twelfth street, together with all necessary connections, switches, crossovers and turnouts.

(3) Permission and authority are further granted to said Pennsylvania Company and the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company to rearrange their present tracks and construct, maintain, renew and operate railroad tracks and freight terminal stations with coach yards and appurtenances, together with all necessary connections, side tracks, switches, crossovers, turnouts, stations, freight elevators, cranes, team tracks, engine houses, store houses and buildings, approaches and other facilities, within the territory bounded on the south by the south line of West Fifteenth place projected eastwardly, on the north by the south line of Polk street, on the west by the east line of South Canal street, and on the east from the south line of West Fifteenth place to the north line of West Twelfth street, by a line 1,086.8 feet east of and parallel with the east line of South Canal street, and from the north line of West Twelfth street to the south line of Polk street, by the west line of the South Branch of the Chicago River. Within said territory said companies shall have the right to construct, maintain and operate such number of tracks as may be necessary and convenient for the construction, maintenance, use and operation of said terminals and facilities as hereinbefore provided. The tracks and facilities in this paragraph described are to be constructed, maintained, used and operated in accordance with the requirements as hereinafter set forth and the general ordinances of the City of Chicago; provided, however, that the permission and authority in this ordinance conferred shall not permit the Pennsylvania Company or the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company to construct any buildings on or over West Fourteenth street or to occupy the same except by tracks as herein authorized, unless and until a viaduct or subway is constructed in said street over or under the tracks of said Companies, as hereinafter provided. In the event of the construction of such viaduct no building or structure shall be constructed in said street above the level thereof, nor in any event shall any building be constructed on any street within the limits described in this paragraph above the level of any viaduct now constructed or hereafter to be constructed on such street.

(4) Permission and authority are also granted for the construction, within the limits described in the preceeding paragraph hereof, of such narrow gauge tracks in addition to railroad tracks hereinbefore mentioned in paragraph 3 of this section as may be necessary for the accommodation of freight trucks using the subways of the Illinois Tunnel Company.

(5) The grade of all tracks authorized in this ordinance shall be satisfactory to and approved by the Commissioner of Public Works.

(6) Permission and authority are also granted to connect all driveways and teamways upon the property of said companies between West Van Buren street and West Twelfth street, both inclusive, with all streets and viaducts.

§ 2. Inasmuch as various railroad companies are the owners of or interested in lands, easements, railway tracks and facilities used by them for railroad purposes within the limits defined in paragraph 3 of Section 1, hereof, which will in whole or in part be required by said Pennsylvania Company and said Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company and other railroad companies, and a rearrangement of said railway tracks and facilities is necessary in order to construct, maintain and operate the terminals, facilities and appurtenances herein authorized, and to permit any of said railroad companies to retain or convey a part of their tracks and facilities, therefore permission and authority are hereby granted to said Pennsylvania Company and said Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, and to any other railroad companies to acquire, lease or convey and to interchange with each other on terms as they may mutually agree upon, any of their lands, tracks, facilities and easements, rights, estates and franchises, which any railroad company may own or may have acquired on, under, over or across any street or streets, within the limits defined in paragraph 3 of Section 1 hereof, and after such acquisition, interchange and conveyance of any of such lands, tracks or facilities or any of such easements, rights, estates and franchises said railroad companies respectively shall own, hold and enjoy the same as fully and completely and in the same manner as they were formerly owned and enjoyed by the company owning the same prior to such acquirement, interchange or conveyance.

§ 3. The two additional main tracks hereinbefore authorized in or near Stewart avenue shall cross the South Branch of the Chicago River upon a lift bridge of such material, plan and design as shall be satisfactory to the authorities of the Federal Government, the Sanitary District and the City of Chicago; said bridge shall be constructed at or near the location of the present lift bridge of the Pennsylvania Company and Chicago and Alton Railroad Company now in course of construction.

§ 4. (1) All the work herein required to be done upon or in connection with the public streets of the city shall be done and performed under the supervision and subject to the approval of the Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Chicago, and the cost of all work, authorized or required to be done by this ordinance in or upon public streets, including the cost of changing, restoring and reconstructing street railway tracks and property therein, if any, including the cost of inspection thereof, shall be paid by the Pennsylvania Company.

(2) No work shall be begun under this ordinance unless at least ten days prior thereto, plans and specifications thereof shall have been submitted to the Commissioner of Public Works for his examination, and unless the same shall have been approved by him. Such approval shall be given if the same are found to be in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance and the general ordinances of the city in so far as this ordinance contains specific provisions, and if they shall be satisfactory to the Commissioner of Public Works in regard to the matters and details which by this ordinance and the general ordinances of the city are left to his decision and judgment. After such approval all work outlined and included therein shall be constructed in strict conformity therewith. Said plans, to be known as "Filing Plans," shall embody:

(a) A general plan on a scale of 100 feet to one inch, of all right of way, tracks, and appurtenances proposed to be built in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance.

(b) Title and date of passing of the ordinance.

(c) Spaces for signatures of the officers of the various departments of the City of Chicago authorized to approve such plans.

(3) Wherever in this ordinance it is provided that any work in respect to construction, repair or maintenance shall be done or performed by the Pennsylvania Company, it is understood and agreed that the cost thereof shall be borne by said Company, except where otherwise specifically provided.

§ 5. (1) Permission and authority are hereby given, whenever the same shall be necessary for the prosecution of the work herein authorized to obstruct temporarily, any street, avenue and alley to such an extent and for such length of time as may be approved by the Commissioner of Public Works; and whenever the same shall become necessary, to erect and maintain temporary structures and false work in any of said streets and alleys during the construction of said terminals and facilities, subject to like approval of said Commissioner of Public Works. No changes of any kind shall be made or work done in any street or alley as herein authorized, except upon plans and specifications approved by and under the supervision of the Commissioner of Public Works, and upon a permit of said Commissioner of Public Works allowing such work to proceed, provided, however, that if any street or alley so obstructed shall contain street railway tracks and such obstruction shall necessitate the building of new tracks or the making of new connections with existing tracks, in order to accommodate street railway traffic, the cost thereof shall be paid by the Pennsylvania Company.

(2) Where any public improvement is required to be changed on account of plans submitted under this ordinance, before the said plans shall be approved by any officer of the City of Chicago, an estimate shall be made of the changes required in such public improvement, and the amount or amounts so estimated shall be placed to the credit of the proper officer of the City of Chicago to pay for such changes.

(3) If the construction of said terminals and facilities, and the rearrangement of tracks, or in the prosecution of any of the work by this ordinance authorized, it shall become necessary to change, alter, reconstruct, remove, or destroy any pipes, wires or conduits, street railway tracks and property, or other property, belonging to the City of Chicago, or to any public utility corporation or to any individual, such work shall be done solely at the cost and expense of said Pennsylvania Company, and all damage to or cost of alterations of such property shall be borne, assumed, and paid by said Pennsylvania Company, provided, that the City of Chicago or any public utility corporation acting under a permit or ordinance grant from the City of Chicago the utilities of which are so affected, shall have the permission, right and privilege to perform any work necessitated by any such rearrangement or reconstruction of tracks or changes in grades as hereinabove provided for, the cost of the same to be borne by said Pennsylvania Company in conformity with the provisions of this section.

§ 6. Said Pennsylvania Company further agrees that the City of Chicago may construct, or authorize to be constructed, subways in Polk street, Taylor street, West 12th street, West 14th street, West 16th street and West 18th street, the roofs of such subways to be at such levels not above 15 feet below Chicago City datum as may hereafter be determined by those in charge of subway construction, when approved by the Commissioner of Public Works, and that the foundations of such structures as said Pennsylvania Company or its associated companies may erect upon or in said Polk street, Taylor street, West 12th street, West 14th street or any of them, shall be erected in such a manner as to allow the construction of said subways, and the said Pennsylvania Company shall in no event use or permit to be used any of the space in the above streets, for a depth lower than 15 feet below Chicago City datum (except for foundations), and said Pennsylvania Company expressly agrees, by the acceptance of this ordinance, that if the City of Chicago shall at any future time desire to construct subways in any of said streets, such subways may be constructed beneath the space in said streets or any of them occupied by said Pennsylvania Company, or any other railroad company then using the terminals and facilities herein authorized, and the said Pennsylvania Company further expressly agrees to discharge and release the said City of Chicago from any claim of any kind, nature or description, on the part of said Pennsylvania Company or any other railroad company using the terminals and facilities herein authorized, for compensation for the land taken for such subways, or damages to the remainder of the land of said Pennsylvania Company or any other railroad company using the terminals and facilities herein authorized, resulting from the taking of such portion for the construction of such subways. Said Pennsylvania Company shall remove or adjust at its own expense, under the supervision and direction of the Commissioner of Public Works, any foundations of buildings or structures interfering with the construction of such subways.

The said Pennsylvania Company agrees that in case subways are located in any of said streets, as well as under any property which it or any railroad company now or hereafter using the terminals and facilities herein authorized now owns or hereafter acquires, and under which streets or property the City of Chicago, shall construct or authorize to be constructed subways, the Pennsylvania Company or such other railroad company shall co-operate with the City of Chicago, or with such parties as may be authorized to construct said subways, to the end that such sections of such subways as are constructed at the time that the buildings or structures of the said Pennsylvania Company are constructed, may be jointly designed and jointly constructed, so as to construct most economically such subways and buildings and structures, and to interfere least with the rights of both parties.

§ 7. Said Pennsylvania Company shall, at its own cost, rebuild and reconstruct to a width of eighty (80) feet those portions of the streets and viaducts, including roadway surfaces and sidewalks upon Polk street and Taylor street, which extend over any property which may be owned, leased, controlled or used by said Pennsylvania Company or any other railroad company then using the terminals and facilities herein authorized, unless said work is performed by The Union Station Company as hereinafter set forth. The increase in the width of said streets and viaducts shall be made on the south side thereof.

The Pennsylvania Company shall, when and as ordered so to do by the City Council of the City of Chicago, pay such proportion of the entire cost of construction of a new viaduct (together with its approaches) not exceeding one hundred and eighteen (118) feet in width extending from South Canal street to the west line of the South Branch of the Chicago River upon West Twelfth street, as is represented by the ratio that all the railroad tracks (both main and switch) maintained by said company and also the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company and any other railroad company or companies then using the terminals and facilities herein authorized, bear to the entire number of tracks of all kinds maintained beneath said viaduct; provided that there shall first be deducted from the cost of the construction of said viaduct such sum of money, if any, as any street railway company or companies shall be required to pay toward the cost of the construction of said viaduct, but this proviso shall not be deemed or taken to impose any obligation on any street railway company to contribute to the cost of construction of said viaduct; provided further, however, that should all parties concerned in the construction of said viaduct agree on a different basis of prorating the cost of the construction thereof, then the said Pennsylvania Company shall pay its pro rata share of the cost of the construction of said viaduct in accordance with such agreement.

Whenever the City Council of the City of Chicago shall pass an ordinance or ordinances providing for the construction of viaducts or subways in West Eighteenth, West Sixteenth or West Fourteenth streets, or any of them, as the said streets are now or may hereafter be laid out east of South Canal street, and west of the South Branch of the Chicago River, and in the case of West Fourteenth street and West Sixteenth street or either of them provision is also made for bridges in said streets respectively over the South Branch of the Chicago River, connecting such viaducts on said last mentioned streets or either of them with the east bank of said South Branch of said river, then the Pennsylvania Company and the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company and any other railroad company then using any part of the terminals or facilities authorized herein, or in the ordinance granting certain rights to The Union Station Company, to which reference is hereinafter made, shall grant to the city without expense to the city the necessary easements or rights for the construction of such viaducts or subways respectively in any property then owned or used by or held for the said companies or any of them; and the said companies and each of them will, without cost to the City of Chicago, construct the portions of said viaducts or subways respectively upon and over the property of said companies, respectively, or in the streets abutting upon or adjacent to such property; and will thereafter widen said parts of said viaducts respectively as and when the streets on which the same are built are thereafter widened by said city immediately east or west of such parts, and will at all times maintain said portions of said viaducts and subways respectively, including the roadway and sidewalks, and shall reconstruct said portions of the same respectively, whenever in the opinion of the Commissioner of Public Works the condition thereof has become such as to necessitate such reconstruction.

Said Pennsylvania Company shall maintain so much of each of the viaducts and approaches in this section described, including roadway surfaces and sidewalks, as shall be over the property owned, leased, controlled or used by said company, or any railroad company then using the terminals and facilities herein authorized, in good order and condition; and in the event that it shall fail so to do, after thirty days' written notice from the Commissioner of Public Works, then the City of Chicago may do or cause to be done the work necessary to maintain said viaducts and approaches, or any of them, and on demand collect from said Pennsylvania Company the cost of doing said work, together with an additional ten per cent. upon the total of such cost, for superintendence by the city.

Nothing in this ordinance shall operate or be held to relieve any railroad company or any street railway company of or from any liability now existing, however created, at its or their expense, after the changes, restoration and reconstruction of street railway tracks and property, provided for or necessitated by this ordinance, shall have been completed, to construct and maintain said viaducts or subways or to pave and maintain their proper proportion of such streets in the manner now or hereafter required by law or ordinance, provided, however, that if any street or alley so obstructed shall contain street railway tracks and such obstruction shall necessitate the building of new tracks or the making of new connections with existing tracks, in order to accommodate street railway traffic, the cost thereof shall be paid by the Pennsylvania Company; reasonable notice of making all such obstructions shall be given to the street railway companies.

In all cases where in complying with the provisions of this ordinance it is necessary to change or reconstruct street railway tracks and property, the work shall be done by the street railway companies owning the same and the cost thereof shall be paid by the Pennsylvania Company.

The obligation herein expressed in reference to the viaducts in Polk street, Taylor street and West Twelfth street is included in the obligation imposed upon the Union Station Company by virtue of an ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance granting to The Union Station Company, a corporation, its successors and assigns, the right to construct, maintain and operate a railroad passenger station in the City of Chicago, and the right also to construct, maintain and operate certain railroad tracks and facilities in connection therewith in this ordinance described." Nothing in this ordinance contained shall be construed to or shall alter or affect the obligation of The Union Station Company in reference to said viaducts, and each of them, under said ordinance, and in the event that said ordinance is accepted and said obligation is performed by The Union Station Company in accordance therewith, the obligation of said Pennsylvania Company in reference to said viaducts herein expressed, in so far as the same is included in said obligation of The Union Station Company, shall be null and void, except that said Pennsylvania Company shall be liable as a guarantor of the performance of said obligation by The Union Station Company so far as the same affects the portions of said viaducts over the property of said Pennsylvania Company and any other railroad company or companies using the terminals and facilities herein authorized. But if said ordinance imposing said obligation in reference to said viaducts upon The Union Station Company shall not be passed or accepted or if the obligation imposed upon The Union Station Company in reference to said viaducts shall not be performed in accordance with the terms of said ordinance, then the entire obligation imposed by this ordinance upon said Pennsylvania Company in reference to said viaducts shall be in full force and effect.

§ 8. It is hereby expressly provided as one of the terms, limitations and conditions of this ordinance, that by the acceptance hereof the Pennsylvania Company and the companies occupying and using the terminals and facilities herein authorized, agree that if the City of Chicago or any other governmental agency acting at the request of said city and having lawful authority therefor, desires and makes provision and is proceeding to straighten the South Branch of the Chicago River by creating a new channel for said river, so that the west line of said river shall be a line beginning at a point on the present west line of said South Branch of the Chicago River, at its intersection with the present south line of Polk street, at a distance of nine hundred thirty-nine and eighty-nine one-hundredths (939.89) feet east of the present line of South Canal street, measuring along said south line of Polk street, thence by a straight line to a point on the north line of West Twelfth street ten hundred eighty-six and eight-tenths (1086.8) feet east of the present east line of South Canal street measuring along said north line of West Twelfth street, thence extending south parallel with said present east line of South Canal street to an intersection with the present west bank of said South Branch of the Chicago River between West Sixteenth street and West Eighteenth street; or if said westerly line of said river shall be established with the consent of the City Council of the City of Chicago, on any line east of said line (but in no event upon a line farther west than that above described), and the east line of said South Branch of said river shall be a line parallel with and 200 feet distant easterly from the west line of said South Branch of said river as above described; then and in that event said Pennsylvania Company, through its officers and engineers, will endeavor to secure the co-operation of any other railroad corporation owning lands upon the route of said proposed new channel to the end that the assistance of any such other railroad corporations may be secured in effecting said improvement by means of the straightening of said channel of the Chicago River.

It is expressly understood and agreed that any change in the channel of the Chicago River so contemplated and proposed, need not follow the exact route hereinabove described, but may be approximately in the general line and within the general limits above stated, provided that no part of such route shall in any event be west of the west line described in the preceding paragraph hereof. Said Pennsylvania Company and the companies occupying the terminals and facilities under the terms of this ordinance hereby further agree that if and when provision is made by law for the straightening of the river as herein provided, and the other property necessary therefor is acquired, it or they or any or either of them, (the lands of which lie or may hereafter be situated within the proposed route of said river channel, if straightened), will, upon payment of compensation therefor as hereinafter provided convey to the City of Chicago, or such governmental power as has charge and control of straightening said river channel, any interest in and to lands which it, they, or any of them, may own or control, necessary or convenient for the purpose of the straightening of said river channel.

And it is hereby expressly agreed that compensation for or damages on account of any such interest in lands so to be conveyed for the purpose of straightening said river channel shall be ascertained and fixed by a board or boards of arbitration, which shall be constituted as follows: The said city shall appoint one of the members of such board (which appointment shall be made by the Mayor of said city and be subject to the approval of the City Council) and shall notify the railroad company the property of which is required for the proposed improvement, in writing, of the name and address of such member, and within 30 days after such notice such railroad company shall appoint a member of such board and shall notify the Mayor of said city, in writing, of the name and address of such member so appointed by it. In the event that such railroad company fails to appoint such member within the time specified herein, then said city shall be entitled to appoint the second member of such board in the manner above provided for the appointment of the first member. The two members appointed in either of the ways aforesaid shall select the third member of such board. In the event that they do not agree upon the selection of such third member within 30 days from the appointment of the second member of such board in either of the ways aforesaid, then a majority of the persons then legally elected and acting as judges of the Circuit Court of Cook County may appoint the third member of such board upon the application of said city or of such company after the giving of 10 days' written notice of such application to the other party. In the event of the death or refusal to serve of any of the members of such board, the party by which such member was appointed shall have the power to fill the vacancy within 30 days after notice to the other party. Any vacancy caused by the death, resignation or refusal to serve of the third member of such board, may be filled by agreement of the other two members of such board or if they fail to agree within 30 days after such vacancy shall occur, then a majority of the persons then legally elected and acting as judges of the Circuit Court of Cook County may fill such vacancy, upon the application of said city or of such company after giving 10 days' written notice of such application to the other party. Such board of arbitrators shall have power to fix the times and places for the presentation of evidence by the respective parties and within 30 days after the conclusion of such evidence shall make its finding and award in writing in reference to the questions of compensation or damages, or both, as above provided, upon the evidence submitted. Any finding or award by such board or a majority of the members thereof, shall be binding upon the parties to such arbitration, without any appeal, and in consideration of the obligation herein imposed, said City of Chicago agrees and undertakes that such compensation and damages, or either of them, as may be awarded by any such board shall be paid to the company or companies concerned within one year from the making of such finding or award.

The obligation herein created in reference to the straightening of said branch of the Chicago River shall be taken and held for a period of fifteen years from the passage of this ordinance, to be a covenant running with the land now or hereafter within said period owned or held by said Pennsylvania Company or any railroad company or companies using the terminals and facilities herein authorized, and lying within the area which may be selected for a channel in accordance with the provisions hereof for straightening said South Branch of the Chicago River, and as such shall be binding upon the successors and assigns of and purchasers from said Pennsylvania Company or such other railroad company or companies, or any of them, for said period of fifteen years. At the end of said period of fifteen years, the obligation herein imposed in reference to straightening said South Branch of the Chicago River shall cease and determine, unless in the meantime the conditions herein prescribed for the performance of said obligation shall have been fulfilled. In the event that the line adopted for the straightening of said river is located farther west than said west line hereinabove described, then each and all of the obligations herein assumed in reference to the straightening of the South Branch of the Chicago River shall be null and void.

§ 9. The permission and authority hereby granted to said Pennsylvania

Company are upon the express condition that it shall indemnify the City of Chicago and hold it harmless from any and all damages and expense (including damages to private property) to which it may be subjected by reason of the use and occupation by said Pennsylvania Company or any other railroad company or companies using the terminals and facilities herein authorized, of any of the streets and alleys within the limits hereinbefore described, and relocation of sewers, as herein provided, and said Pennsylvania Company shall, at its own cost and charge, defend any suit in law or equity which may be brought against the City of Chicago and said Pennsylvania Company or other railroad companies, or against any of them, by reason of any acts or things done under the permission and authority in this ordinance granted, and said Pennsylvania Company shall pay all the judgments, interest and costs which may be finally rendered against the City of Chicago, and said Pennsylvania Company or other railroad companies, or any of them, by reason of the relocation of sewers herein mentioned; provided, however, that in the event of suits in law or equity brought against the City of Chicago for damages or for equitable relief by reason of any acts done by said Pennsylvania Company or other railroad companies, or any of them, in pursuance of the permission and authority hereby granted, wherein the Pennsylvania Company shall not be a party defendant with said City of Chicago, the Corporation Counsel of said City of Chicago shall, at least five days before the return day of the process therein, mail notice in writing of such suit to the Resident Vice-President of said Pennsylvania Company.

§ 10. All that part of Dodge street lying northeasterly of the northeasterly line of Block two (2) and west of the east line of said Block two (2) produced north (except therefrom the north fifty-two (52) feet of said Block two (2)); also all that part of Ellsworth street lying west of and adjoining the west line of Blocks two (2), seven (7) and ten (10), except therefrom the north fifty-two (52) feet of said Block two (2); also all that part of Forsyth avenue lying within Blocks one (1), eight (8) and nine (9), (except therefrom the north fifty-two (52) feet of said Block one (1)), also all that part of West Twelfth place south of and adjoining the south line of Blocks one (1) and two (2), and the south line of said Block one (1) produced east sixty-six (66) feet and produced west across Forsyth avenue; also all that part of West Thirteenth place south of and adjoining the south line of Blocks seven (7) and eight (8) and the south line of said Block eight (8) produced east sixty-six (66) feet and west across Forsyth avenue; also all that part of the south thirty-four (34) feet of West Fourteenth street north of and adjoining the north line of Block fourteen (14), lying west of the west line of Dodge street produced south; also all of the north and south public alleys in Blocks two (2), seven (7) and ten (10), (except therefrom the north fifty-two (52) feet of said Block two (2)),—all in Canal Addition to Chicago in northeast quarter (N. E. $\frac{1}{4}$), Section twenty-one (21), Township thirty-nine (39) North, Range fourteen (14), East of the Third Principal Meridian; also all that part of Stewart avenue east of and adjoining the east line of Blocks one

(1), six (6) and seven (7), and the east line of said Block six (6) produced north and south sixty (60) feet, and the east line of said Block seven (7) produced south sixty-six (66) feet, (except therefrom the north fifty-two (52) feet of said Block one (1)); also all that part of West Twelfth place south of and adjoining the south line of Block one (1); also all that part of West Thirteenth street south of and adjoining the south line of Block six (6); also all that part of West Thirteenth place south of and adjoining the south line of Block seven (7); also all of the public alleys in Blocks one (1) and seven (7),—all in Brinard and Evan's Addition to Chicago in northwest quarter (N. W. $\frac{1}{4}$), Section twenty-one (21), Township thirty-nine (39) North, Range fourteen (14), East of the Third Principal Meridian; also all that part of Stewart avenue east of and adjoining the east line of Blocks sixty-one (61), sixty (60), fifty-one (51) and fifty (50), and the east line of said Block fifty-one (51) produced north and south sixty-six (66) feet; also all that part of Liberty street lying within Block sixty-one (61); also all that part of Barber street lying within Block sixty (60); also all that part of West Fourteenth place lying south of and adjoining the south line of Block sixty (60); also all that part of West Fifteenth street lying within Block fifty-one (51); also all that part of West Fifteenth place lying south of and adjoining the south line of Block fifty-one (51); also all that part of Depot place lying within Block fifty (50); also all of the public alleys in Block sixty (60),—all in Canal Trustees' New Subdivision of blocks in northwest quarter (N. W. $\frac{1}{4}$), Section twenty-one (21), Township thirty-nine (39) North, Range fourteen (14), East of the Third Principal Meridian (except Blocks fifty-seven (57) and fifty-eight (58)) also all that part of Stewart avenue east of and adjoining the east line of Block forty-three (43) in Canal Trustees' Subdivision of west half (W. $\frac{1}{2}$) of Section twenty-one (21) Township thirty-nine (39) North, Range fourteen (14), East of the Third Principal Meridian, and so much of the southeast quarter (S. E. $\frac{1}{4}$) as lies west of the South Branch of the Chicago River; said parts of said streets being further described as all that part of the triangular portion of Dodge street lying south of a line fifty-two (52) feet south of the south line of West Twelfth street and west of the west line of Dodge street produced north; also all that part of Ellsworth street, Forsyth avenue and Stewart avenue lying between the north line of West Fourteenth street and a line fifty-two (52) feet south of and parallel to the south line of West Twelfth street; also all that part of Stewart avenue lying between the south line of West Fourteenth street and the north line of West Sixteenth street and between the south line of West Sixteenth street, and the north line of West Eighteenth street; also all that part of West Twelfth place, West Thirteenth street, Liberty street, Barber street, West Fourteenth place, West Fifteenth street, West Fifteenth place and Depot place, lying between the east line of South Canal street and the west line of Stewart avenue; also all that part of West Twelfth place lying between the east line of Stewart avenue and the west line of Dodge street; also all that part of West Thirteenth place lying between the east line of South Canal street and the west line of Dodge street; also all that part of the south thirty-four (34) feet of West Fourteenth street lying between the east line of Stewart avenue and the west line of Dodge street produced south; and said alleys being further described as all of the north and south public alleys in the three blocks bounded by West Twelfth street, West Fourteenth street, Dodge street and Ellsworth street; also all of the public alleys bounded by West Twelfth street, West Thirteenth place, Stewart avenue and South Canal Street; also all of the public alleys in the block bounded by West Fourteenth street, West Fourteenth place, Stewart avenue and South Canal street, as colored in red and indicated by the words "To Be Vacated" on the plat hereto attached, which plat, for greater certainty, is hereby made a part of this ordinance; be and the same are hereby vacated and closed, inasmuch as said streets and alleys and such portions of said streets and alleys are no longer required for public use, and the public welfare will be best conserved by their vacation and discontinuance. The vacation herein provided for is made on the express condition that upon the acceptance of this ordinance by the Pennsylvania Company, said Pennsylvania Company shall within thirty days thereafter file for record in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of Cook County, Illinois, a certified copy of this ordinance.

§ 11. (1) The grants made and privileges obtained under this ordinance may be revoked by the City of Chicago, and this ordinance shall become null and void, in the event, and whenever the grantee shall fail for a period of ninety days after notice from the City of Chicago to comply with any or all of the requirements and conditions herein imposed, and unless the work of constructing said railway tracks, terminals and facilities be begun within one year and completed within four years from the passage of this ordinance, unless prevented by strikes, riots, the act of God or a public enemy, or restrained by injunction or other order or process of a court of competent jurisdiction not obtained through collusion, in which event the time that such completion shall be so prevented, as aforesaid, shall be added to the time hereby given for the completion of said work, provided said Pennsylvania Company shall give notice in writing to the Corporation Counsel of the City of Chicago of the institution of said legal proceedings. The City of Chicago shall thereupon have the right to intervene in any suit or proceeding brought by any person or persons seeking to enjoin or restrain or in any manner interfere with the prosecution of said work, and move for a dissolution of such injunction or restraining order, and for any other proper order in such suit. Should, however, the prosecution of said work authorized to be done under the provisions of this ordinance, be delayed by reason of any delay on the part of the City of Chicago or any of its officers in the performance of the duties imposed upon the city and its officers, by this ordinance in respect to the work herein authorized to be done, then and in that case the time during which such completion shall be so delayed shall be added to the time during which such completion is required by the terms of this ordinance, as to the part or parts of the work so delayed.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the Pennsylvania Company and the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, or either of them, from thereafter constructing and operating such additional tracks as said Company may from time to time find necessary or convenient for the operation of the said terminals and facilities herein authorized, only, however, within the limits defined in Section One hereof and as authorized by and subject to the provisions of this ordinance.

SECTION 12. (1) The permission and authority hereby granted to and the terms and provisions herein imposed upon said Pennsylvania Company and said Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company shall inure to and be binding upon their successors, lessees and assigns.

(2) The permission and authority herein granted are upon the express condition that within the time limited for the acceptance of this ordinance, The Union Station Company shall pay to the City of Chicago the sum of eight hundred twenty-five thousand eight hundred five and 04/100 dollars ($825,805.04), fixed as provided in Section 16 of an ordinance entitled "An ordinance granting to The Union Station Company, a corporation, its successors and assigns, the right to construct, maintain and operate a railroad passenger station in the City of Chicago and the right also to construct, maintain and operate certain railroad tracks and facilities in connection therewith in this ordinance described," said sum to be so paid by The Union Station Company as provided in Section 16 of said ordinance.

(3) The said Pennsylvania Company shall within six (6) months after the passage of this ordinance, file with the City Clerk its acceptance of this ordinance and its bond payable to the City of Chicago, in form to be approved by the Corporation Counsel of the City of Chicago, in the penal sum of one million ($1,000,000) dollars, with the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company as surety, conditioned upon the faithful observance and performance of all and singular the conditions and provisions of this ordinance; whereupon this ordinance shall be in full force and effect. Said bond and the liability of the surety thereon shall be kept continually in force.

(4) The rights and privileges in this ordinance granted are upon the express condition that a certain ordinance entitled "An ordinance granting to The Union Station Company, a corporation, its successors and assigns, the right to construct, maintain and operate a railroad passenger station in the City of Chicago, and the right also to construct, maintain and operate certain railroad tracks and facilities in connection therewith in this ordinance described" shall be passed and accepted in accordance with the terms thereof.

AGREEMENT July 2, 1915 between Chicago Union Station Company and Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company et. al.

This Agreement, made this second day of July, A. D. 1915, by and between CHICAGO UNION STATION COMPANY, a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Illinois, hereinafter designated the Station Company, CHICAGO, BURLINGTON AND QUINCY RAILROAD COMPANY, CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE AND ST. PAUL RAILWAY COMPANY, THE PITTSBURGH, CINCINNATI, CHICAGO AND ST. LOUIS RAILWAY COMPANY and PENNSYLVANIA COMPANY (assignee of The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, operating the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway), hereinafter designated the Proprietary Companies, THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD COMPANY (lessee of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway). PITTSBURGH, FORT WAYNE AND CHICAGO RAILWAY COMPANY, and ILLINOIS TRUST AND SAVINGS BANK, hereinafter designated the Trustee: WITNESSETH

Whereas, the Station Company has acquired the title, including the leasehold interests of the Proprietary Companies, of the property in the City of Chicago, Illinois, used by them for passenger station purposes under an agreement dated September 7, 1880, and, under authority granted by an ordinance passed by City Council of Chicago, March 23, 1914, proposes to construct, maintain and operate a union passenger station and facilities upon premises now owned or to be acquired as shown by plan No. 213, dated April 12, 1915, identified by the signatures of representatives of the Station Company and the Proprietary Companies, which plan is hereto attached, made a part hereof, and marked "Exhibit A"; and

Whereas, the outstanding capital stock of the Station Company is owned by the Proprietary Companies in the following proportions: Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company twenty-five per cent. (25%); Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway Company twenty-five per cent. (25%); The Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway Company twenty-five per cent. (25%); and Pennsylvania Company twenty-five per cent. (25%); and

Whereas, Pennsylvania Company is in possession of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway, and is operating and maintaining the same by virtue of the assignment to it of the lease from Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Company to The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, dated June 7, 1869, for a term of nine hundred and ninety-nine (999) years; and

Whereas, each of the Proprietary Companies, except Pennsylvania Company, owns and each operates a line of railway into the City of Chicago; and each of the Proprietary Companies is in need of an adequate and appropriate terminal passenger station and facilities in the said city; and

Whereas, the Proprietary Companies have made advances to, and expended money for the benefit of, the Station Company, and by the issue of mortgage bonds of the Station Company, guaranteed by the Proprietary Companies for the purpose of inducing the purchase of the said bonds on the faith of the said guaranty, desire to reimburse themselves for such advances and expenditures and desire to enable the Station Company to complete the construction of the said station and facilities;

Now, therefore, in consideration of the premises and of the covenants and agreements hereinafter set forth it is covenanted and agreed between the parties hereto as follows:

Section 1. The Station Company will, with reasonable diligence, construct and thereafter maintain the said union station and facilities, all in accordance with the said general plan No. 213, dated April 12, 1915, attached hereto as said "Exhibit A," which general plan may be modified in detail by unanimous vote of the Board of Directors of the Station Company, and will make the necessary connections with the tracks of the Proprietary Companies at the property line of the Station Company, according to plans agreed upon between the Station Company and each of the said Proprietary Companies, and will comply with all other conditions required by the said ordinance of March 23, 1914. The said station and facilities shall at all times be such as may be reasonably necessary for handling the passenger, mail and express traffic of the said Proprietary Companies, and the equivalent of any additional operating facility furnished for any of the said Proprietary Companies shall be furnished upon demand by the Station Company for any of the other of the said Proprietary Companies.

§ 2. The Station Company hereby grants to each of the said Proprietary Companies the equal right of using in common, for handling its passenger, mail, and express traffic, the said station and facilities, during, and for the full period from the effective date hereof until July 3, 1963, and for such further time as the station and facilities may be used or the term of corporate existence of the said Station Company may be extended or renewed from time to time; provided, that the said facilities, the common use of which is hereby granted, shall also include the property and appurtenances which the Station Company may hereafter acquire and retain.

§ 3. Each of the said Proprietary Companies agrees that, on the terms and conditions of this agreement and during the entire period specified in Section Two, it will use the said station and facilities for all of its trains handling passenger, mail, and express traffic arriving at, departing from, or operating within the limits of the said City of Chicago, except as otherwise provided from time to time by the unanimous vote of the Board of Directors of the Station Company.

The use hereby granted to each of the Proprietary Companies is for its own traffic only, and the said Proprietary Companies, under the cover of this agreement, shall not use, or permit to be used, the said station and facilities for the purpose of providing any other railroad or railroad company with terminal facilities in the City of Chicago.

§ 4. The Station Company shall operate the said station and facilities; no discrimination shall be made in favor of or against any company using the said station and facilities.

Any employee, not an officer provided for in the By-Laws of the Station Company, if deemed unsatisfactory by any of the Proprietary Companies, shall be removed upon written demand, specifying the reason therefor.

§ 5. For the considerations aforesaid, it is hereby agreed between the Station Company, the Proprietary Companies, and the Trustee, and for the benefit of each and all of the present and future holders of all of the bonds issued or to be issued, or reissued or exchanged, under or as provided in the First Mortgage, dated July 1, A. D. 1915, by the said Station Company to Illinois Trust and Savings Bank, Trustee, as follows:

The Proprietary Companies shall and will jointly and severally guarantee the payment by the Station Company of both the interest and principal of all and every of the said bonds, whether in temporary or definitive form, according to their tenor, by causing their guaranty to be placed on each of the said bonds issued or to be issued, or reissued or exchanged, under or as provided in the said First Mortgage, substantially in the form following:

(Form of Guaranty.)

Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway Company, The Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway Company, and Pennsylvania Company, for value received, do hereby, jointly and severally, unconditionally guarantee to the holder of the within bond the payment of the principal thereof and of the indebtedness represented thereby, and of the interest on the said bond and indebtedness, as such principal and the installments of the said interest shall respectively become due; and in case of the failure of Chicago Union Station Company punctually to make payment of either the principal or the interest as the same shall become due, do hereby jointly and severally agree punctually to make such payments.

In witness whereof the said guarantor companies have caused their respective corporate names and the signatures or the engraved facsimile signatures of their respective presidents or vice presidents to be hereunto affixed and this guaranty to be countersigned on behalf of each of them by Illinois Trust and Savings Bank, their agent duly appointed for that purpose.

The respective corporate names of the Proprietary Companies and the signatures or the engraved facsimile signatures of their respective Presidents or Vice-Presidents shall be affixed to the said guaranty. The engraved facsimile signature of any person who shall have been President or Vice-President of any of the Proprietary Companies may be used for that purpose notwithstanding the fact that he may have ceased to be such President or Vice-President at the time when such bonds shall be guaranteed. The Trustee shall countersign such guaranty upon bonds issued from time to time under the said First Mortgage to an aggregate principal amount not to exceed $60,000,000.00 at any one time outstanding, upon receipt from time to time by the Trustee of a copy of a resolution of the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee of each of the Proprietary Companies, certified by its Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under its corporate seal, approving the guaranty of such bonds to a specified amount and stating the interest rate, terms of redemption and any variations from the forms of bonds recited in the First Mortgage. The Trustee shall also countersign without any such resolution the guaranty upon bonds issued by the Station Company and authenticated by the Trustee in accordance with the provisions of the said mortgage to replace bonds mutilated, lost or destroyed, or to effect exchanges of coupon and registered bonds or transfers of registered bonds. The Proprietary Companies adopt respectively the engraved signatures to the guaranty upon the First Mortgage Gold Bonds of Chicago Union Station Company to be issued under the mortgage dated July 1, 1915, and authorize Illinois Trust & Savings Bank to countersign the said guaranty on behalf of each of the Proprietary Companies; and its countersignature of any guaranty shall be conclusive evidence of the validity and due execution thereof by each of the Proprietary Companies.

The Proprietary Companies and each of them assent to all the terms and conditions of the said bonds, and of the said First Mortgage, and hereby waive presentation or demand of any of the said bonds and of any interest coupons, and waive protest of the said bonds and of any interest coupons, and waive notice of presentation, demand and protest, and of any sale of the mortgaged premises or other trust estate in pursuance of the said First Mortgage, whether by the Trustee thereunder or in judicial proceedings. The obligations of the Proprietary Companies shall not be affected by any action taken under the said First Mortgage in the exercise of any right or power thereby conferred or by any failure or omission on the part of the Trustee under the said First Mortgage to enforce any rights given thereunder or conferred thereby, or by any failure or omission on the part of the holder of any of the said bonds to enforce any right of such bondholder against the Station Company or any successor corporation, or by any action of the Trustee under the said First Mortgage, or of any bondholder against the Station Company or any successor corporation under the said bonds or the said First Mortgage, or by any action of the Trustee or of any bondholder in granting indulgence to the Station Company or any successor corporation, or in waiving defaults on the part of the Station Company or any successor corporation under the said bonds or the said First Mortgage; and no proceedings taken for the enforcement of the said First Mortgage or for the sale thereunder of the mortgaged premises or trust estate shall affect the obligations of the Proprietary Companies or any of them.

The provisions of this Section Five may be enforced directly by the holders of the said bonds, as well as by the Trustee and its respective successors in the trust under the said First Mortgage, from time to time as often as occasion may arise, and shall not be subject to modification or change, anything in this agreement to the contrary notwithstanding. The Trustee is made a party to and has executed this agreement only for the purposes of this Section Five, and the Trustee shall not be considered or held to be a party to any of the provisions contained in the other sections of this agreement.

§ 6. The Proprietary Companies agree that the gross annual rental to be paid by them for the use of the said station and facilities shall be a sum of money sufficient to pay interest on bonds and other capital obligations of the Station Company, all taxes and special assessments, and a dividend of not less than five per cent. (5%) annually on the outstanding capital stock. Before apportioning this amount among the Proprietary Companies, there shall first be deducted all rentals received from any railway company, other than the parties hereto, that may use the said station and facilities, and the net amount to be paid shall be divided as follows: Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company twenty-five per cent. (25%); Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway Company twenty-five per cent. (25%); The Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway Company twenty-five per cent. (25%); and Pennsylvania Company twenty-five per cent. (25%). All other income received from the use and occupation by the Station Company of any part of its property and from privileges and concessions granted by the Station Company shall be divided in the proportion that each of the railway companies using the station pays of the gross rental, each company's amount to be credited to its rental. Each of the Proprietary Companies agrees to pay its net rental, so determined, upon written notice from the Station Company twenty days before any interest, taxes, special assessments or dividend becomes payable.

§ 7. Each month the expense of operating, maintaining and renewing in kind the said station and facilities shall be determined so far as is practicable. Before making an apportionment among the Proprietary Companies there shall first be deducted the payments made on that account by all railway companies, other than the parties hereto, using the station and facilities, and, of the balance, each of the Proprietary Companies agrees to pay to the Station Company monthly, upon bills rendered, that proportion which the number of its locomotives and cars using or required to use the said station and facilities during the month bears to the total number of such locomotives and cars of all the Proprietary Companies, each locomotive to be counted as two (2) cars. In suburban or local trains, the origin and destination of whose runs are between Chicago and points within fifty-two miles of the said station, the cars shall be counted as four-fifths of a car. The locomotives and cars in trains which arrive by one and depart by another of the railways using the station and are, therefore, routed through the station, and locomotives and cars in all other trains arriving at the said station or departing therefrom, shall be counted respectively on entering and on leaving the said station; but locomotives and cars moving between the station and yards, engine houses, and storage tracks, and locomotives engaged in switching passenger, mail or express trains, shall not be counted.

The Station Company shall render monthly to each of the Proprietary Companies a statement of all expenses incurred in the maintenance, renewal, and operation of the said station and facilities apportioned among the Proprietary Companies in the manner in this Section set forth, and for this purpose each of the Proprietary Companies agrees to furnish to the Station Company a statement of all locomotives and cars not using but required to use the said station and facilities and the records of each Proprietary Company shall be open for inspection by an authorized agent of the Station Company. The books and accounts of the Station Company shall be open for inspection by an authorized agent of any of the Proprietary Companies.

§ 8. Any expenditures from time to time incurred by the Station Company in performance of its obligations under Section Four of the ordinance of March 23, 1914, not a part of the expenses of maintenance and operation of the station and facilities, shall be borne by the Proprietary Companies in proportion to their interests in the capital stock of the Station Company at the date of the execution of this agreement.

§ 9. At the end of each fiscal year of the Station Company, adjustment shall be made in order that the rental paid by each of the Proprietary Companies shall be on the basis stated in Section 6, and that each Proprietary Company's part of the expense of operation, maintenance and renewal shall be in proportion to its use of the said station and facilities, during that entire period.

§ 10. If any railway company using the said station and facilities defaults in the payment of any sum required to be paid for rental or for expense of maintenance, renewal or operation, the deficiency in rental shall be borne by the remaining companies in the proportion that each bears of the total rental not in default, and the deficiency in the expense of maintenance, renewal and operation shall be borne by the remaining companies in the proportion that each bears of the total expense for maintenance, renewal and operation not in default, for the period respecting which said default occurred. If and when such amounts, with interest, are paid by a defaulting company, they shall be credited to the contributing companies in proportion to the amounts advanced by them.

§ 11. Each of the Proprietary Companies agrees to pay all amounts due by it under Section 6 in accordance with the provision therein contained and all other sums due hereunder within thirty days after bills have been rendered by the Station Company. Payment shall not be delayed by reason of any dispute as to the correctness of the bills and it is agreed that any errors shall be subsequently adjusted. If any of the said Proprietary Companies shall fail to pay any sum due hereunder on or before the date when same shall become due and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, the Station Company may thereafter bring suit against such defaulting Company, and any net sum so recovered shall be divided among the other companies in the proportion advanced by each because of such default. The obligation of each Proprietary Company to make all of the payments required by this agreement is absolute and unconditional. No termination or suspension of any rights of any Proprietary Company shall limit or affect the obligation of the Proprietary Company whose rights are terminated or suspended to pay the sums under this agreement required to be paid during the full term of this agreement and extension or extensions thereof.

In the event that any of the said Proprietary Companies ceases to make use of the said station and facilities, as hereinbefore provided, for any reason whatsoever, the portion of the expense of operation, maintenance and renewal of said station and facilities to be borne by the Proprietary Company whose traffic is withdrawn shall be determined by ascertaining from the records of that Proprietary Company, or its successor in possession for operation, using the basis stated in Section 7, the locomotives and cars handling such traffic into, between points within, or out of said City of Chicago and counting the number of locomotives and cars so ascertained as though they had in fact made use of said station and facilities. Under such circumstances and for the purpose mentioned each Proprietary Company, for itself and for its successor in possession for operation, hereby grants to the Station Company's authorized agent the right to examine its books and records.

If, for any reason, the said portion of the expense of operation, maintenance and renewal to be borne by the withdrawing Proprietary Company cannot be determined in the manner provided in the preceding paragraph of this section, then the portion of the expense of operation, maintenance and renewal to be borne by the withdrawing Proprietary Company shall be determined by the proportion of the maximum number of its locomotives and cars using, or required to use, the said station and facilities in any fiscal year of the five years immediately preceding its withdrawal bears to the total number of locomotives and cars of all railway companies using or required to use the same during the said period.

§ 12. If any Proprietary Company shall fail to pay any sum required herein within thirty days after bills have been rendered, or shall fail to perform or to comply with any other covenant or condition by it herein stipulated to be performed or complied with, and if, for a period of ninety days after a written demand shall have been made by the Station Company, such default in payment or in performance or compliance shall continue, the Station Company shall have the right to exclude such defaulting Proprietary Company from the use of the said station and facilities, and, upon giving such notice in writing to the defaulting company, the rights of that Proprietary Company shall thereupon be terminated and it shall be excluded from the use of the said station and facilities. Any Proprietary Company so excluded under this section shall be entitled at any time within a period of one year after such exclusion, but no longer, to be reinstated to the use and enjoyment of all the rights and privileges granted to it hereunder, provided that it shall perform and comply with covenants and conditions of this agreement and shall within such year pay to the Station Company all sums for which it is in default, with interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent. (7%) per annum from the date of such default. Any dividend payable to any Proprietary Company in default shall be withheld and credited upon its account.

§ 13. The Station Company shall bear all loss, damage, and expense to persons and property arising from the acts or omissions of the officers, agents, and employes of the Station Company engaged in the administration, operation, maintenance, and renewal of the station and facilities; also loss by any unlawful act of any person whomsoever, and all sums so paid by the Station Company shall be charged to the current expense of operation and maintenance and divided in accordance with Section 7.

All loss, damage and expense, to persons or property, arising from an act or omission of a sole employe of any of the Proprietary Companies, or to defects in the locomotives or cars in its possession, shall be borne by that Company.

In case of loss, damage and expense to persons or property due to the acts or omissions of the sole employes of more than one of the railway companies using the station and facilities or to defects in locomotives or cars in their possession, each company so participating in the responsibility shall bear the loss, damage and expense to and on its own trains, to its employes, and to persons and property in its care and custody, and they shall divide equally all loss, damage and expense to property or persons sustained by all other parties.

Loss, damage or injury to persons or property caused by the joint negligence of employes of the Station Company and of one or more of the railway companies using the station and facilities shall be equally divided between the companies participating in the responsibility.

All other loss, damage and expense shall be charged to the current expense for operation and maintenance and shall be divided in accordance with Section 7.

§ 14. The Station Company shall keep the station and facilities properly insured and the cost shall be included in the expense of operation, maintenance and renewal mentioned in Section 7. In the event of the total or partial destruction of the station and facilities by fire or other causes not covered by Section 13 the same or the equivalent shall be rebuilt or replaced by the Station Company, and the cost thereof, less the amount of insurance received, shall be charged to the current expense for maintenance, renewal and operation.

§ 15. It is agreed that other railway companies may be admitted to the common use of the station and facilities by the unanimous consent of the parties hereto not in default.

§ 16. In case of any difference or dispute as to the construction or interpretation of this agreement upon which the parties are unable to agree, the matter concerning which there is a controversy shall be submitted to three competent disinterested arbitrators, one of whom shall be appointed by the party or parties holding to one contention, and the other by the party or parties holding to the contrary contention involved in such difference or dispute, and the two so appointed shall elect a third disinterested and competent person, and the decision of this Board, or of a majority, shall be final and conclusive between the parties.

Should one of the parties neglect to appoint an arbitrator as aforesaid for the period of twenty days after written notice to make such appointment, then and in that event the other party or parties shall select another competent disinterested person, and these shall select an additional competent disinterested person and the three so chosen shall hear and decide such differences, and their decision, or that of a majority, shall be final and conclusive between the parties.

In case the two arbitrators, chosen in either of said ways, fail to agree within thirty days on a third arbitrator, then the third arbitrator shall be appointed by the United States District Judge, Northern District, Illinois, senior in service, and the three so chosen shall hear and decide such differences, and their decision, or that of a majority, shall be final and conclusive between the parties.

Each company involved in an arbitration proceeding shall assume its individual expense, and all joint expense shall be divided equally among the companies taking part in the arbitration.

This section shall not apply to any matter requiring the unanimous vote of the Board of Directors of the Station Company, or to any matter arising under the provisions of Sections 5 or 21 hereof.

§ 17. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, hereby assents to, and affirms the execution of, this agreement, and hereby guarantees the performance by Pennsylvania Company of the obligations herein assumed by it.

§ 18. In the event of the termination by lapse of time, or otherwise, of the lease of Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Company to The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, dated June 7, 1869, Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Company, or its lessee, or assignee, for a period of one year thereafter, and conditional upon its exercising an option which it has for the purchase of Station Company stock owned by Pennsylvania Company, shall have the right to accept the benefits of this contract. Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Company agrees that, if it makes use of the said station and facilities, it will assume all of the obligations of Pennsylvania Company and The Pennsylvania Railroad Company under this contract; in which event all of the parties hereto agree that Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Company will thereafter be substituted for Pennsylvania Company as one of the herein designated "Proprietary Companies" but Pennsylvania Company and The Pennsylvania Railroad Company shall not be released or discharged from their obligations hereunder except by the unanimous vote of the Board of Directors of the Station Company.

§ 19. The Station Company covenants and agrees that in case the corporate existence of the said Station Company for any reason is not renewed or extended, it will not sell, lease, or transfer, or permit to be sold, leased, or transferred, the said station and facilities and property covered by this agreement, so as to deprive the Proprietary Companies or any of them, of the right to enter upon and use the said station and facilities and property, in the manner and upon the terms provided in this agreement; and any sale (except in the enforcement of the said First Mortgage), lease, or transfer of the said station and facilities and property made, or permitted, by the said Station Company or by its stockholders, shall be subject to the terms of this agreement, which shall remain in full force and effect, notwithstanding such sale, lease, or transfer; and this covenant shall be construed as a covenant imposed upon and running with the lands, property and rights of the Station Company.

§ 20. The covenants of this agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the respective parties hereto, their successors, lessees, grantees and assigns. No assignment by any of the Proprietary Companies of its rights under this agreement, whether in connection with the sale of the assigning Proprietary Company's railway and other property, or otherwise, shall release such assigning Proprietary Company from any of its obligations under this agreement. If any of the Proprietary Companies shall consolidate with any railway company, the consolidated company shall be liable to make all payments and to perform all obligations which would be obligatory upon each of the constituent companies, if such consolidation had not been made, and shall likewise succeed to all the rights, privileges and advantages of said constituent companies.

§ 21. This agreement is in all respects subject and subordinate to the said First Mortgage and the rights of the Trustee and the holders of the bonds issued or to be issued thereunder; and shall be in full force and effect from and after August 1, A. D. 1915.

In witness whereof, The parties hereto have caused this agreement to be executed by their proper officers duly authorized and their respective corporate seals to be hereto affixed and attested by their respective Secretaries, the day and year first above written.

ST. CHARLES AIR LINE

The following is a description of this property :

From the west bank of the south branch of the Chicago River, near Sixteenth Street, thence easterly and northerly to a connection with the Illinois Central Railroad at the north line of Block Twenty-one (21) in the North West fractional quarter of Section Twenty-two (22), Township Thirty-nine (39) North, Range Fourteen East, near Twelfth (12th) Street, Chicago, a distance of seventy-one hundredths (0.71) miles.

It was originally authorized to be built in Twelfth Street, but that location was abandoned.

Construction was commenced in May, 1855, and it was completed and opened for traffic in May, 1856; the tracks were elevated in 1899.

The St. Charles Air Line is not a railroad company nor a corporation of any kind. It is simply a tract of land with railroad tracks thereon and a bridge over the south branch of the Chicago River, owned in fee simple jointly and as tenants in common by four railroad companies, viz., the Illinois Central, the Michigan Central, the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, and the Chicago & North Western. The property is operated by the Illinois Central through a Superintendent.

It was originally projected in 1852 as a branch of the Illinois Central but, by the year 1855, its importance as a means of connecting these four roads for interchange of traffic became so apparent that they joined together in its construction, each company paying one-fourth of the cost, the principal motive at the time being to enable the Burlington Company and the North Western Company to secure access to the passenger station on the Lake front at the corner of Lake and Randolph Streets, which was being built by the Michigan Central and the Illinois Central jointly and was opened for business June 12, 1856.

This station was used by the North Western for about one year, and by the Burlington for twenty-five years, or until 1881.

Of date June 7, 1852, the City Council of Chicago passed a resolution reciting the fact that proceedings were then pending before it for location of the Illinois Central Railroad within its limits, and that it was desirable that a branch from said railroad should be constructed from a point on the same at or near Twelfth Street, to the south branch of the Chicago River, and to such other points as may be stipulated between the City of Chicago and said Company; but, inasmuch as the right to build and operate such branch is not clearly conferred upon the company by its charter, the City Council united with the Illinois Central Railroad Company and petitioned the Legislature of Illinois to amend the charter of the said Railroad Company so as to confer upon it the power to construct and operate such branch.

Of date June 14, 1852, a City Ordinance was passed which granted the Illinois Central Railroad Company permission to construct and maintain its road within the city limits, and to locate and construct a line of road from Twelfth Street to, and across, the South branch of the Chicago River, and thence north to Kinzie Street. This Ordinance was embraced in, and became a part of, the contract or stipulation between the City of Chicago and the Illinois Central Railroad Company, dated March 28, 1853.

Of date June 22, 1852, the Legislature amended the charter of the Illinois Central Railroad Company and authorized it "to locate, construct and operate a lateral branch or track from its eastern branch, as now located at or near Twelfth Street, in the City of Chicago, to the south branch of the Chicago River, on such terms and conditions and in such manner as may be stipulated between the Common Council of said City of Chicago and the said Company."

Of date August 23, 1855, Mr. R. B. Mason, Engineer of the Illinois Central Railroad Company, petitioned the City of Chicago, reciting that by Section 4 of the Ordinance of June 14, 1852, permission was given to the Company to construct and maintain a side track from its main track, etc., reciting further, that the Company desires to construct such side track from its main track to the south branch without proceeding through Twelfth Street or any other street, but on a line 190 feet north of Sixteenth (formerly North Street) Street, for the reason that the proposed line would be nearly one-half mile farther from the business district of the city than Twelfth Street; and also, by procuring a right of way crossing the streets at right angles, they would, as far as possible, obviate the objection of running through the streets and occupying the same for said tracks.

Of date August 27, 1855, the city passed a resolution prescribing that the said branch line should commence "at the south branch of the Chicago River, about 190 feet north of North Street, and proceeding thence easterly upon such land as the company may procure by purchase or otherwise, to, and intersect with, its main track upon the lake shore."

Of date February 16, 1865, the Legislature of Illinois legalized the ownership of the four railroads interested in the Air Line. This Act made it lawful for the four above named railroad companies "to own jointly and jointly to maintain and operate that piece of railroad situate in the City of Chicago and County of Cook, now constructed and used by them, extending from a point on the west bank of the south branch of the Chicago River, north and near Eighteenth Street, where their railroad bridge now crosses said branch, eastward to the junction with the Illinois Central Railroad at or near the roundhouse of the latter company, with authority jointly to own and maintain the said bridge across the said south branch of the Chicago River, and the right of way and land upon which said railroad is constructed, together with such side-tracks and other tracks forming connections with other railroads as now are, or may hereafter be, constructed and used by them in connection with said piece of railroad."

The land was acquired by the Illinois Central about the year 1855, the titles being originally taken in the names of George Sedgwick and John W. Brooks, for convenience, and who in turn conveyed them to the four railroad companies of date March 1, 1864, so that since said date the land, tracks, bridge and appurtenances have been held by each of the several owners as tenants in common, each owning an undivided one-fourth interest in the said property.

ORDINANCE, June 7, 1852

AN ORDINANCE to aid the Illinois Central Railroad Company to obtain an Amendment to their charter.

[Passed June 7, 1862.]

Be it ordained by the Common Council of the city of Chicago:

1. City Joins with Company to Secure Branch Road. Section 1. That the mayor be instructed to unite with the Illinois Central Railroad Company in an application to the legislature of the state of Illinois, for such amendment or addition to the act incorporating said company as will confer upon it power to construct and operate such branch as may be stipulated for between the common council of the city of Chicago and the said company.

2. Request to Representatives to Act. Sec. 2. That the senators and representatives of the county of Cook, in the legislature, be respectfully requested to aid in carrying out the object of the foregoing section.

(Laws and Ordinances, Chicago, 1873, page 284)

ACT OF LEGISLATURE, June 22, 1852

AN ACT to amend the charter of the Illinois Central Railroad company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the people of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the Illinois Central Railroad company be and is hereby empowered and authorized to locate, construct and operate a lateral branch or track from its eastern branch, as now located at or near Twelfth street in the city of Chicago, to the south branch of the Chicago river, on such terms and conditions and in such manner as may be stipulated between the common council of said city of Chicago and the said company.

APPROVED, June 22, 1852.

(Laws of Illinois Second Session 1852, page 130)

AGREEMENT AND ORDINANCE, granting right of way into the city of Chicago, to Illinois Central Railroad Co.

(Ordinance adopted 14 June, 1852)

(Agreement dated 28 March, 1853)

Agreement between the Common Council of the City of Chicago and the Illinois Central Railroad Company.

To all to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting:

Whereas, the Common Council of the City of Chicago, in the State of Illinois, under and by authority conferred by the laws of said State and the charter of said city, did, on the fourteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, pass and adopt in due and legal manner and form, "an ordinance concerning the Illinois Central Railroad" in the words and figures hereinafter set forth or mentioned, as by reference to said ordinance or a copy thereof hereinafter contained, reference being had thereto, will more fully and at large appear.

And whereas, at a meeting of the Board of Directors of the said Illinois Central Railroad Company, held at the office of said Company in the city of New York, on the second day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in accordance with the several provisions of the Charter and By-Laws of said company, the following proceedings were had, as appears by reference to the Records of said Company kept at their said office, that is to say:

“The President submitted a certified copy of the Resolution of the Common Council of Chicago, passed on the 14th day of June, 1852, granting permission to the Illinois Central Railroad Company to lay down, construct and maintain within the limits of the City of Chicago, and along the margin of the lake within and adjacent to the same, a railroad, with one or more tracks, and to operate the same with locomotive engines and cars, under certain rules and regulations, as follows:

AN ORDINANCE

CONCERNING THE ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD COMPANY.

Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of Chicago:

Section 1. That permission is hereby granted to the Illinois Central Railroad Company, to lay down, construct and maintain within the limits of the City of Chicago, and along the margin of the lake within and adjacent to the same, a railroad, with one or more tracks, and to operate the same with locomotive engines and cars, under such rules and regulations, with reference to speed of trains, the receipt, safe-keeping and delivery of freight, and arrangements for the accommodation and conveyance of passengers, not inconsistent with the public safety, as said company may from time to time establish, and to have the right of way and all powers incident to and necessary therefor, in the manner and upon the terms and conditions following, to wit: The said road shall enter said city at or near the intersection of its southern boundary with Lake Michigan, and following the shore on or near the margin of said lake northerly to the southern bounds of the open space known as Lake Park, in front of canal section fifteen, and continue northerly across the open space in front of said section fifteen to such grounds as the said company may acquire between the north line of Randolph street and the Chicago river, in the Fort Dearborn addition to said city, upon which said grounds shall be located the depot of said railroad within the city, and such other buildings, slips or apparatus as may be necessary and convenient for the business of said company. But it is expressly understood that the City of Chicago does not undertake to obtain for said company any right of way, or other right, privilege or easement, not now in the power of said city to grant or confer, or to assume any liability or responsibility for the acts of said company.

Sec. 2. The said company may enter upon and use in perpetuity for its said line of road, and other works necessary to protect the same from the lake, a width of three hundred feet, from the southern boundary of said public ground, near Twelfth street, to the northern line of Randolph street; the inner or west line of the ground to be used by said Company to be not less than four hundred feet east from the west line of Michigan avenue, and parallel thereto.

Sec. 3. The said company may extend their works and fill out into the lake to a point in the southern pier not less than four hundred feet west from the present east end of the same, thence parallel with Michigan avenue to the north line of Randolph street extended, but it is expressly understood that the Common Council does not grant any right or privilege beyond the limits above specified, nor beyond the line that may be actually occupied by the works of said company. It is further expressly understood that, should any damage or obstruction occur to the harbor of Chicago, clearly traceable to the construction of said works contemplated by sections two and three hereof, then the said company shall be held responsible for the same.

Sec. 4. Permission and right of way are hereby given to the said company to construct and maintain a side track from its main track, beginning at or south of Twelfth street, proceeding through said street, or such line as may be prescribed by the Common Council, westerly to the south branch of the Chicago river; thence crossing the said south branch by a bridge, or other mode to be approved by the Common Council which shall not obstruct navigation; thence proceeding northerly to Kinzie street, following as far as practicable the streets nearest to said branch, on such sides of the center of streets as the Common Council may prescribe; said track not to be laid west of the west line of Canal street; and also a track leading from the last mentioned track at or near its intersection with the eastern line of the said south branch of the Chicago river, along the line of said south branch, into Market street, following, as far as possible, the streets nearest the river and on such sides of such streets as the Common Council may direct; thence along the west line of Market street northerly to Lake street; and they may also extend the track of said road from their track or grounds south of the south pier, across the Chicago river to North Water street by means of a drawbridge, or other mode which shall not obstruct navigation, and which may be approved by the Common Council.

Sec. 5. And the said tracks shall be so constructed, furnished and operated as to meet the demands of business upon the streets and lines through and along which they shall run. The said side tracks, stations, depots, turn-outs, switches, turn-tables, buildings and bridges along said lines, as well as the motive power to be used and the rate of speed thereon, to be subject to such regulations as the Common Council may from time to time prescribe for the government of side tracks of railroads within the inhabited portions of the city; said side tracks shall be open to the use of other railroad companies and railroads connecting therewith, upon just and equitable terms, to be agreed upon by the parties interested, and in case of disagreement, by arbitration.

Sec. 6. The said company shall erect and maintain on the western or inner line of the ground pointed out for its main track on the lake shore, as the same is hereinbefore defined, such suitable walls, fences or other sufficient works, as will prevent animals from straying upon or obstructing its tracks, and secure persons and property from danger, said structure to be of suitable materials and slightly appearance, and of such heights as the Common Council may direct, and no change therein shall be made except by mutual consent: Provided, however, that the company shall construct such suitable gates at proper places at the ends of the streets, which are now or may hereafter be laid out, as may be required by the Common Council, to afford safe access to the lake: And provided, also, that in case of the construction of an outside harbor, streets may be laid out to approach the same, in the manner provided by law, in which case the Common Council may regulate the speed of locomotives and trains across them.

Sec. 7. The said company shall erect and complete within three years after they shall have accepted this ordinance, and shall forever thereafter maintain a continuous wall or structure of stone masonry, pier work or other sufficient material, of regular and sightly appearance, and not to exceed in height the general level of Michigan avenue, opposite thereto, from the north side of Randolph street to the southern bound of Lake Park before mentioned, at a distance of not more than three hundred feet east from and parallel with the western or inner line, pointed out for said company, as specified in section two hereof, and shall continue said works to the southern boundary of the city, at such distance outside of the track of said road as may be expedient, which structure and works shall be of sufficient strength and magnitude to protect the entire front of said city between the north line of Randolph street and its southern boundary from further damage or injury from the action of the waters of Lake Michigan, and that part of the structure south of Lake Park shall be commenced and prosecuted with all reasonable dispatch, after the acceptance of this ordinance.

Sec. 8. The said company shall not in any manner, nor for any purpose whatever, occupy, use or intrude upon the open ground known as Lake Pake, belonging to the City of Chicago, lying between Michigan avenue and the western or inner line before mentioned, except so far as the Common Council may consent, for the convenience of said company, while constructing or repairing the works in front of said ground.

Sec. 9. The said company shall erect no buildings between the north line of Randolph street and the south line of the said Lake Park, nor occupy nor use the works proposed to be constructed between these points, except for the passage of, or for making up or distributing their trains; nor place upon any part of their works between said points any obstruction to the view of the lake from the shore, nor suffer their locomotives, cars or other articles to remain upon their tracks, but only erect such works as are proper for the construction of their necessary tracks and protection of the same.

Sec. 10. The said company in constructing their said line of works in front of Lake Park and the public grounds, shall make and keep open, through the same, such culverts or ways as the Common Council shall prescribe, from the open lake to the space inside of the western line before mentioned, as will afford room for the uninterrupted flow of the water through the same.

Sec. 11. The said company shall lay down, construct, operate and maintain a track, with suitable turn-outs, switches and turn-tables through Twelfth street, or through such other street north of North street as the Common Council may designate, from their main track on the lake shore, to connect with the said tracks to be constructed by the Chicago and Rock Island Railroad Company, or procure the same to be done, as provided by an ordinance of the City of Chicago, passed April 2, 1852, so soon as the said track on the east side of the south branch of the river shall be completed: Provided, that the City of Chicago shall furnish the right of way to the said company, free of cost, before requiring said track to be constructed.

Sec. 12. Upon the acceptance of this ordinance by the said company (which shall be within ninety days of the passing of the same) a contract or agreement embodying the provisions herein contained, and stipulating that the permission, rights and privileges hereby conferred upon said company shall depend upon the performance on their part of the requirements made upon them by this ordinance shall be executed, sealed and delivered on the part of the City of Chicago by the Mayor thereof, and on the part of the Illinois Central Railroad Company by the President thereof, both in usual legal form.

I, H. W. Zimmerman, Clerk of the City of Chicago, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of an ordinance passed by the Common Council of said City, on the 14th day of June, A. D. 1852.

Witness my hand and the Corporate Seal of said City, this 8th day of July, 1852.

[SEAL]

H. W. ZIMMERMAN,
Clerk.

The resolutions were read to the Board and separately considered, whereupon it was,

On motion,

Resolved, That the Illinois Central Railroad Company do hereby accept the ordinance of the Common Council of the City of Chicago, passed on the 14th day of June, 1852, and the officers of the company are hereby directed and empowered to prepare and duly execute, under the corporate seal of this corporation, the agreement or contract necessary for the proper execution of the provisions of the ordinance above named, and of the plans of this company, as authorized on the part of the City of Chicago, by the 12th section of the said ordinance.

On motion,

Resolved, That the Chicago location substantially as described in the ordinance of the Common Council of Chicago, be adopted, approved and confirmed, and that the necessary maps, drawings and descriptions be prepared by the Chief Engineer and duly certified by him and the other officers of the company, in order to file and record the same in the manner prescribed by law.

Now know ye, That this Agreement, made and concluded this twenty-eighth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, by and between the Common Council of the City of Chicago, in the State of Illinois, of the first part, and The Illinois Central Railroad Company, a corporation created by an Act of the Legislature of the State of Illinois, of the second part, Witnesseth, That in consideration of the acceptance of the said ordinance, according to the terms and requirements thereof, as hereinbefore recited or set forth, and of the agreements and matters herein contained, all and singular the permission, grants, conveyances, rights, privileges, easements, immunities, possession, franchises, exemptions, releases and benefits given and granted, or intended to be given and granted, by virtue of and according to the true intent and meaning of the said ordinance, hereinbefore recited and set forth, and made part of this agreement, are hereby confirmed and ratified and made forever binding upon the said City of Chicago, subject to the conditions and provisions in said ordinance contained and made part and parcel of this agreement.

And this Indenture further Witnesseth, That for and in consideration of the consent, grants, covenants and agreements on the part of the said City of Chicago, as aforesaid, made, entered into and concluded, and herein ratified and confirmed, the said Illinois Central Railroad Company do hereby covenant and agree to and with the said City of Chicago, and the Common Council thereof, that they do and will ratify and confirm all and singular the provisions, stipulations, covenants and agreements in said ordinance, and the said acceptance thereof, contained or provided for, and on their part to do and perform, according to the true intent and meaning thereof, all the things required to be done, by the terms of said ordinance, upon the acceptance thereof, in manner and form, and at the times and upon the conditions, and subject to the reservations and forfeitures therein contained, it being stipulated and agreed that the permission, rights and privileges conferred upon said party of the second part by said ordinance, and herein confirmed, shall depend upon the performance on the part of the said party of the second part, of the requirements made upon them by said ordinance as herein recited, set forth, ratified and confirmed.

And the said parties do hereby mutually and severally declare and affirm this agreement to be made in accordance with the terms of said ordinance, and the acceptance thereof as above recited and set forth, and for the purpose of confirming, ratifying and establishing the same as of binding and perpetual obligation between said contracting parties, hereby agreeing and covenanting each with the other to stand to, abide by, and to do and perform all the obligations therein contained according to the true intent, meaning and interpretation thereof, forever, subject to the limitations, restrictions and forfeitures therein contained.

In Witness Whereof, the Common Council of the City of Chicago in behalf of said City of Chicago, party of the first part, have caused their corporate seal to be hereto affixed, and these presents to be signed by Charles M. Gray, the Mayor of said city, and the Illinois Central Railroad Company, the said party of the second part, have caused their corporate seal to be hereunto affixed, and these presents to be signed by Robert Schuyler, their President, the day and year last above written.

Sealed and delivered in the presence of

ORDINANCE, December 15, 1862

AN ORDINANCE concerning The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company.

[Passed December 15, 1862]

Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of Chicago:

1. Permission to Lay Tracks Granted. Section 1. That permission and authority be, and is hereby, given to the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad company to lay down, maintain and operate one or more railroad tracks, together with all such turn-outs, switches and turn tables as may be deemed necessary, on the alley next north of North street in said city, and on such lands as said company may acquire next south of and adjoining said alley, and in continuation of the same, from the south branch of the Chicago river to and across May street, and from May street, on such lands as it may acquire, to or near the point on the western limits of the city at which Evans street crosses said limits, with the right to cross all intervening streets.

2. Additional Tracks Allowed, also Connections, etc.—Conditions. Sec. 2. Said company is also hereby authorized to lay down, maintain and operate one or more railroad tracks, with such turn-outs and switches as they shall deem necessary, on any ground which they now own or may hereafter acquire by purchase, donation, condemnation or otherwise, from its depot grounds on North street, to South street, east of the east line of Stewart avenue, to Lumber street, and east of the east line of Lumber street, from its intersection with Stewart avenue to South street, and west of the south branch of the Chicago river, and from the south branch of the Chicago river to Stinson street, on any lands it may acquire within one block on either side of South street, and from South street to the St. Charles and Mississippi Air-Line Railroad, on any lands it may acquire between Stinson street and Lisle or Reuben street, and to lay down, maintain and operate any such track or tracks and turn-outs across any street or streets and alleys within the district aforesaid, and also all such as may be necessary to the convenient use of any depot grounds the said company may now own or hereafter acquire in the vicinity of or adjoining said line of road, and the grounds of the Union track road as now laid between the said south branch of the Chicago river and the Illinois Central Railroad, and to form connections with it and other roads, and also to acquire and use all such depot grounds, and to erect thereon such buildings as said company may deem necessary for the convenient transaction of its business: Provided, that convenient crossings shall be made and maintained by said company, where such track or tracks cross any such street or alley, and proper warning tables shall be erected in conspicuous places at or near such crossings; said company shall be subject to all laws and ordinances that are now in force, or may hereafter be passed, to regulate railroads within the said city.

3. Track in North Street Authorized. Sec. 3. Said company is hereby authorized to lay down, maintain and operate a single railroad track in North street, and fifteen feet south of the north line thereof, from a point two hundred feet west of the west end of the freight depot of said company, on block forty-eight (48) in canal trustees' subdivision of the northwest quarter of section twenty-one (21) in township thirty-nine (39) north of range fourteen (14) east to the slip constructed in North street, at its intersection with the south branch of the Chicago river.

4. Steam Power Authorized. Sec. 4. Said company may use and operate said railroad tracks with locomotive engines and cars, under the regulations and rules with reference to speed, motive power and manner of running the same, as the common council of said city may, from time to time, impose and make.

5. Company to Keep North street in Repair. Sec. 5. Said company shall be required to keep that portion of North street, in which said track shall be laid, in good repair, and pay all damages said city may sustain by reason of suits or otherwise on account of the laying down and using said track, on said part of North street, as provided for by section three of this ordinance.

ORDINANCE, August 8, 1853.

AN ORDINANCE to amend an ordinance in relation to the Chicago, St. Charles and Mississippi Air-line Railroad.

[Passed August 8, 1853]

Be it ordained by the Common Council of the city of Chicago:

5. Permission to Lay Tracks Within Limits. Section 1. That permission be, and is hereby, granted to the Chicago, St. Charles and Mississippi Air-line Railroad Company to construct, maintain and operate in the west division of said city one or more railroad tracks upon any land south of Madison street or north of Lake street, and also any other railroad track within said city west of the west line of sections twenty (20), seventeen (17) and eight (8) which said company may procure by purchase or otherwise; and to lay down said track or tracks across any street within the boundaries above described, wherever any such street crosses their intended line of railroad; and also to construct and use all depots which may be necessary to accommodate the business of said company: Provided, that convenient crossings be made by said company where the said track or tracks cross the line of streets, and sufficient warning tables be erected in some conspicuous place at or near said crossings; said company to be subject to all laws and ordinances that are now in force or may hereafter be passed to regulate railroads within said city.

6. Limit of Speed of Locomotives. Sec. 2. Said company may run their trains by locomotives, within the limits herein described, at a speed not exceeding five miles per hour, subject to such ordinances as may, from time to time, be passed by the common council of said city establishing and regulating speed and motive power within said city.

7. Right to Construct Bridge Across South Branch of Chicago River—Proviso. Sec. 3. Said company may construct, maintain and use a railroad draw-bridge across the south branch of the Chicago river, at any point south of Twelfth street in said city, for the purpose of connecting their track with the track of any other railroad company, which may be approved by the common council: Provided, said bridge shall be so constructed as not materially to interrupt or impede the navigation of said south branch. And the said company may join any other railroad company in the erection and use of any railroad bridge heretofore authorized, or which may hereafter be authorized, to be constructed across said south branch, and the said company and any other railroad company may jointly use each other's track or tracks and bridge, and form material connection within said city, upon terms as may be agreed upon by the parties interested.

LETTER FROM CITY ENGINEER OF CHICAGO

Of date, August 23, 1855, Mr. R. B. Mason then City Engineer addressed the following communication to the City Council.

"To the Honorable, The Common Council of the City of Chicago:

The Illinois Central Railroad Company respectfully represents that by the fourth section of an ordinance of the Common Council entitled: 'An Ordinance concerning the Illinois Central Railroad,' passed June 14, 1852, permission and right of way were given to said company to construct and maintain a side track from its main track, beginning at, or south of 12th street, and proceeding through said street, or such line as should be prescribed by the Common Council, westerly to the South branch of the Chicago River; thence crossing the said south branch by a bridge, or other mode to be approved by the Common Council, which should not obstruct navigation.

And the said Company further represent that they are desirous of constructing such side track from their main track to the said south branch, without proceeding through 12th street or any other street, but upon a line about 190 feet north of North street, for the reasons, first, that such proposed line will be nearly one-half mile further from the center of business in the City of Chicago than 12th street, and secondly, that by procuring the right of way, and crossing the streets at right angles, they will as far as possible obviate the objection to running through the streets and occupying the same for their said track.

The said Company therefore respectfully requests that the Common Council will, in pursuance of said ordinance, prescribe that the line of their said track shall commence at the south branch of the Chicago River, about 190 feet north of North street, and running thence easterly upon such land as said Company may procure by purchase or otherwise, to, and intersect with their main track upon the lake shore.

And the said Company further represent that they desire to propose to cross the said south branch at a point about 190 feet north of North street, by a swing bridge, which shall be so constructed and used as not to obstruct the navigation of the river, and they respectfully request the Common Council to approve of such place and mode of crossing the river.

R. B. MASON,
Engineer.''

Chicago, August 23, 1855

CHICAGO CITY ORDINANCE OF 1855

Of date August 27, 1855, the City Council passed the following ordinance:—

- "Whereas, by the fourth section of an ordinance of the Common Council, passed June 14, 1852, permission and right of way were given to the Illinois Central Railroad Company to construct and maintain a sidetrack from its main track, beginning at or south of Twelfth street, and proceeding through said street, on such line as might be prescribed by the Common Council, westerly to the south branch of the Chicago River; thence crossing the said south branch by a bridge or other mode to be approved by the Common Council, which should not obstruct navigation.

And, whereas, the said Company has petitioned that the Common Council would prescribe the line of such side track and approve of the place and mode of crossing the said south branch by a swinging bridge which shall not obstruct navigation, as proposed by said Company.

Therefore, resolved, that the following be and hereby is designated and prescribed as the line for such sidetrack: Commencing at the south branch of the Chicago River about one hundred and ninety feet north of North street, and proceeding thence easterly upon such land as the Company may procure, by purchase or otherwise, to and intersect with its main track upon the lake shore.

Resolved, further, that the Common Council do hereby approve of the place and mode proposed by said Company of crossing the south branch of the Chicago River, at a point about one hundred and ninety feet north of North street by a bridge turning upon its center and leaving an opening of at least sixty feet in the clear on each side of the bridge when open, which shall be so constructed and used as not to obstruct the navigation of the river.

Provided, however, and it is expressly understood, that the City of Chicago does not assume any liability or responsibility for the acts of said Company in obtaining the right of way, or in constructing or using the said sidetrack or bridge."

Passed August 27, 1855.

Copies of the land deeds and leases and operating agreements, and details of the track elevation which was completed in June 1899 at a cost of $365,-486.70 are set forth in full in a pamphlet issued April 26, 1902.

QUIT CLAIM DEED, March 1, 1864 George Sedgwick et ux to Michigan Central Railroad Company, Illinois Central Railroad Company, The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company and Galena and Chicago Union Railroad Company

This Indenture, made the first day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, between George Sedgwick and Martha P. Sedgwick, his wife, of Chicago, in the County of Cook and State of Illinois, parties of the first part, and the Michigan Central Railroad Company, the Illinois Central Railroad Company, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, and the Galena and Chicago Union Railroad Company, parties of the second part.

Witnesseth, That the said parties of the first part, for and in consideration of the sum of $40,000 in hand paid by the said parties of the second part, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, and the said parties of the second part forever released and discharged therefrom, have remised, released, sold, conveyed and quitclaimed, and by these presents do remise, release, sell, convey and quitclaim unto the said party of the second part and their assigns forever, all the right, title, interest, claim and demand, which the said parties of the first part have in and to the following described lots, pieces or parcels of land, to-wit:

The North thirty feet of block thirty-five, and lot one, in block thirty-six, in Assessor's Subdivision of the northeast quarter of section twenty-one, in township thirty-nine north, of range 14 east, being a strip of land thirty feet wide from the south branch of the Chicago River, extending east to lot forty-two, in Wilder's South Addition; also forty-two, nineteen and twelve, in Wilder's South Addition; also lots five and six, in block twenty-six; lots five and six, in block twenty-seven, and lot six, in block twenty-eight, in Assessor's Subdivision of the north-west fractional quarter of section twenty-two, in township thirty-nine north, of range fourteen east; also all that part of lots three, four and five, in block twenty-eight; lots one, two and three, in block twenty-nine, and lot two, in block twenty-one, in Assessor's Subdivision, and lot seven, in Maher's Subdivision of the north-west fractional quarter of section twenty-two, in township thirty-nine north, of range fourteen east, which is described as follows, to-wit: A strip of land ten feet wide on the south and east sides and thirty feet wide on the north and west sides of the center line of the main track of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad Extension (so-called), as the same is now laid down and used over and across said premises.

To have and to hold the same, together with all and singular, the appurtenances and privileges thereunto belonging, or in anywise thereunto appertaining; and all the estate, right, title, interest and claim whatever, of the said parties of the first part, either in law or equity, to the only proper use, benefit and behoof of the said parties of the second part, and their assigns forever.

For the purposes of a railroad—called the St. Charles Air Line Extension—to be occupied, used and operated by and under the direction, management and control of the said parties of the second part. But this instrument is intended and declared to be an absolute conveyance of the premises, and no contingent or reversionary interest is reserved by the grantors in case the premises should for any reason cease to be used for the purpose of a railroad as contemplated by this grant.

In witness whereof, the said party of the first part hereunto set hand and seal the day and year first above written.

STATE OF MASSACHUSETTS, }
COUNTY OF SUFFOLK. } ss.
CITY OF BOSTON. }

Be it remembered, that on this fifteenth day of April, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and sixty four, in the City and County aforesaid, before me,

Geo. T. Angell, a Commissioner, residing in said County, duly appointed and commissioned by the Governor of the State of Illinois, to take depositions, affidavits, and the acknowledgment and proof of the execution of deeds and other instruments in writing under seal, to be used or recorded in said State of Illinois, also a Notary Public in and for the County of Suffolk, personally appeared, John W. Brooks and Charlotte L. Brooks, his wife, who are personally known to me to be the persons whose names are subscribed to the foregoing deed as having executed the same, and acknowledged that they had executed the same for uses and purposes therein expressed. And the said Charlotte L. Brooks, wife of the said John W. Brooks, being of lawful age and having been by me separate and apart from her said husband, examined and the contents of said deed fully made known and explained to her, acknowledged that she had executed the same, and relinquished her dower to the lands and tenements therein mentioned, voluntarily and without compulsion of her said husband. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and official seals as Commissioner of Illinois and Notary Public in said Suffolk, as said Boston, this April 15th, A. D. 1864.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved February 16, 1865.

The St. Charles Air Line.

AN ACT to enable the Illinois Central Railroad Company, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, the Michigan Central Railroad Company, and the Chicago and Northwestern (late the Galena and Chicago Union) Railroad Company, to own, jointly, a certain piece of railroad in the city of Chicago.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That it shall be competent and lawful for the Michigan Central Railroad Company, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, the Chicago and Northwestern (late the Galena and Chicago Union) Railroad Company, and the Illinois Central Railroad Company, and their respective successors, to own jointly, and jointly to maintain and operate that piece of railroad, situate in the city of Chicago, and county of Cook, now constructed and used by them, extending from a point on the west bank of the south branch of the Chicago river, north and near Eighteenth street, where their railroad bridge now crosses said branch, eastward to the junction with the Illinois Central Railroad, at or near the round-house of the latter company, with authority jointly to own and maintain the said bridge across the said south branch of the Chicago river, and the right of way and land upon which said railroad is constructed, together with such side tracks and other tracks forming connections with other railroads, as now are or may hereafter be constructed and used by them in connection with said piece of railroad.

ELEVATION ORDINANCE. Passed May 17, 1897. Approved May 22, 1897. An ordinance of the City of Chicago

Requiring the elevation of the tracks of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad within certain limits, and requiring the Chicago, Madison and Northern Railroad Company, the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company, the Chicago and Western Indiana Railroad Company, The Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company, the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Company, the Chicago, Alton and St. Louis Railroad Company, respectively, to change certain of their tracks within the City of Chicago, in order to eliminate grade crossings of the Chicago and Western Indiana Railroad and Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway with Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway and the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Companies.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. That the Illinois Central Railroad Company, the Michigan Central Railroad Company, the Chicago and North-Western Railway Company, and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, proprietors of a certain railroad in the City of Chicago, commonly called the St. Charles Air Line, which extends from its connection with the Illinois Central Railroad north of and near 16th Street westerly to and across the South Branch of the Chicago River, and the Chicago, Madison and Northern Railroad Company, the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company, the Chicago and Western Indiana Railroad Company, the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company, the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Company, and the Chicago, Alton and St. Louis Railroad Company are all hereby ordered and required to change the plane of certain of their tracks; the tracks of St. Charles Air Line Railroad, the Chicago, Madison and Northern Railroad Company, the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company, the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Company, and the Chicago Alton and St. Louis Railroad Company are to be elevated, while the tracks of the Chicago and Western Indiana Railroad Company and Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company are to be depressed, within certain limits, in manner and upon the same conditions hereinafter specified; that is to say:

Paragraph 1. The proprietors of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad are required to begin elevation at a point on the existing tracks of the Illinois Central Railroad, near what is known as Park Row Station of said railroad; from this initial point said elevated roadbed and tracks of the said St.

Charles Air Line shall rise on any suitable gradient for a distance of about 1,860 feet, where an elevation of not less than 29.10 feet above city datum shall be attained; thence shall continue at the same elevation, curving to the right for a distance of 800 feet, more or less, to the east line of Indiana Avenue; thence said elevated roadbed and tracks shall continue on a level grade and in a westerly direction to a point about on the west line of Wabash Avenue, where an elevation of not less than 29.10 feet above the city datum shall be attained; thence said elevated roadbed and tracks shall continue on a descending gradient of about forty-four hundredths of one per centum and in a westerly direction for a distance of about 820 feet to the west line of Dearborn Street, where an elevation of not less than 25.5 feet above city datum shall be attained; thence by deflecting line of said St. Charles Air Line Railroad to the south by a reverse curve on a descending gradient of about forty-four hundredths of one per centum for a distance of about 425 feet to the west line of South Clark Street, where an elevation of not less than 23.50 feet shall be attained and crossing said South Clark Street at a distance of about 85 feet south of its present crossing; thence said elevated roadbed and tracks shall continue on a descending gradient in a northwesterly direction for a distance of about 65 feet to the most easterly track of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway, where the elevation shall be 23.1 feet above city datum; thence said elevated roadbed and tracks shall continue curving in a northwesterly direction on a descending gradient for a distance of about 270 feet to a point about 10 feet west of the most westerly track of the Chicago and Western Indiana Railroad, where the elevation of said St. Charles Air Line shall not be less than 21.50 feet above city datum, as it shall be located when the proposed change of line and depression of tracks are made as hereinafter mentioned; said last mentioned course to cross at a grade the tracks of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company, the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Company, and the Chicago, Alton and St. Louis connection to said last mentioned railway companies, and to cross over the proposed depressed tracks of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company and the Chicago and Western Indiana Railroad. Thence said elevated roadbed and tracks of the said St. Charles Air Line Railroad shall proceed in a westerly direction and shall descend on the most suitable gradient to permit the connection of the said tracks with the existing tracks of the Chicago and Northwestern Railway Company, and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, east of the tracks of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway in Stewart Avenue.

Paragraph 2. From a point near center line of South Clark Street, and on the proposed elevated roadbed and tracks of the said St. Charles Air Line Railroad, the roadbed and tracks of the Chicago, Madison and Northern Railroad Company shall be elevated and diverge to the south from said elevated roadbed and tracks of the said St. Charles Air Line, the said elevated roadbed and tracks of the said Chicago, Madison and Northern Railroad Company shall continue in a westerly and southern direction and on a descending gradient to a point about 10 feet west of the most westerly track of the said Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway, as it shall be located about 30 feet north of its present location, when the proposed change of line and depression of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe tracks will have been made as hereinafter provided; the elevation of the said elevated roadbed and tracks of the Chicago, Madison and Northern Railroad Company at said last mentioned point shall not be less than 21.50 feet above city datum; said last mentioned course to cross at grade the main tracks of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company and Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Company, the switching tracks of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway and the tracks connecting the said St. Charles Air Line Railroad with the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern railway and the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway tracks; and to cross over the proposed depressed tracks of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway as hereinafter provided; thence in a southerly direction from said last mentioned point, said elevated roadbed and tracks of the said Chicago, Madison and Northern Railroad Company shall descend on the most suitable gradient to permit a connection with the existing roadbed and tracks of said Company at the most desirable point at or north of the 18th Street viaduct.

Paragraph 3. From the most desirable point on the existing tracks of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company and the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Company, the tracks of said Railway Companies shall rise on the most suitable gradient convenient and practicable to said Companies to a point about 15 feet north of the northwesterly track of the said Chicago and Western Indiana Railroad Company, as it shall be located about 15 feet north of its present location when the proposed change of line and depression of said Chicago and Western Indiana Railroad tracks will have been made; the elevation of the proposed elevated roadbed and tracks of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company and the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Company at said last mentioned point shall not be less than 21.50 feet above city datum; thence said elevated roadbed and tracks of said Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company and Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Company shall continue in a southerly direction and on an ascending gradient for a distance of about 260 feet to a point where the elevation of said elevated roadbed and tracks shall be not less than 23.10 feet above city datum, which point is at the crossing of said tracks with the tracks of the said St. Charles Air Line Railroad and Chicago, Madison and Northern Railroad as they shall be located as herein provided; thence said elevated roadbed and tracks shall continue in a southerly direction, and they shall descend on a gradient of about two-tenths of one percentum for a distance of about 940 feet to a point about on the south line of 18th street, where an elevation of not less than 21.70 feet above city datum shall be attained. Thence said elevated roadbed and tracks shall continue in a southerly direction, and shall descend to intersect the plane of the now elevated roadbed and tracks of said Companies at a point not further north than 50 feet north of the north line of Archer Avenue, as provided in an ordinance dated and passed July 9th, A. D. 1894.

Paragraph 4. From a point about 400 feet northeasterly of the intersection of 15th and Dearborn Streets, or from such other point as may be most convenient for said Company, on the plane of the existing tracks of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company, the tracks of said Railway Company shall be depressed on the most suitable gradient convenient and practicable to said Company, to a point about 10 feet east of the east line of South Clark Street, where the elevation of the most southerly of said depressed tracks shall not be more than 3.0 feet above city datum, as they shall be located when the proposed change of line and depression of said Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway tracks will have been made; thence in a southwesterly direction from said last mentioned point and on a level gradient across South Clark Street to a point about ten feet west of Clark Street; thence said depressed tracks of the said Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company shall rise on an ascending gradient to a point about ten feet south of the most southerly elevated tracks of the Chicago, Madison and Northern Railroad Company, where an elevation not exceeding four feet above city datum may be attained, and crossing in the last two mentioned courses under South Clark Street proposed viaduct, and under the proposed elevated tracks of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company and the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Company, the St. Charles Air Line, the Chicago, Alton and St. Louis connection, and the tracks of the Chicago, Madison and Northern Railroad Company, as hereinbefore described; thence said depressed tracks of said Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company shall continue in a southerly direction and shall rise on the most suitable gradient convenient and practicable to said Company to a connection with the present tracks of the said Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company. Provided, that the grade of Dearborn Street and the grade of 15th Street shall be changed and depressed to the same plane as said Santa Fe tracks shall be changed and depressed where the said tracks shall cross said streets.

Paragraph 5. From a point about 375 feet north of the north line of 15th Street, or from such other point as may be most convenient for said Company, on the plane of the existing tracks of the Chicago and Western Indiana Railroad Company, the tracks of said Railroad Company shall be depressed on the most suitable gradient convenient and practicable to said Company to a point about 10 feet east of the east line of South Clark Street, where the elevation of the north main track of said depressed tracks shall not be more than 4 feet above city datum, as they shall be located about 15 feet north of and parallel with their present location when the proposed change of line and depression of said Chicago and Western Indiana Railroad tracks shall have been made; thence said depressed tracks shall continue and in a southwesterly direction from said last mentioned point and on a level grade to a point about 10 feet south of the most southerly proposed elevated Y tracks connecting the St. Charles Air Line with the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway and the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway, and crossing in said last mentioned course under South Clark Street proposed viaduct and under the proposed elevated tracks of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company and Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Company, and also under the proposed elevated tracks of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad and said Y tracks; thence said depressed tracks of the said Chicago and Western Indiana Railroad shall continue in a southerly direction, and they shall rise on the most suitable gradient convenient and practicable to said Company to a connection with the present tracks of the said Chicago and Western Indiana Railroad Company.

Paragraph 6. From a point on the proposed elevated connecting switching track of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company immediately west of the main track of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Company, and about 10 feet south of the most easterly track of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company where the same crosses underneath the said connecting switching track of said Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company; and where the proposed elevated roadbed and tracks of the Chicago Alton and St. Louis Railroad Company diverges to the west from said last mentioned point, the said elevated roadbed and tracks of said railway company shall continue in a southwesterly direction on a descending gradient of about three-tenths of one percentum for a distance of about 325 feet to a point where the elevation of the proposed elevated roadbed and tracks shall not be less than 21.5 feet above city datum, and about 10 feet west of the most westerly track of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company, as they shall be located and depressed as hereinbefore described; and crossing in said last mentioned course at grade the proposed elevated roadbed and tracks of the said St. Charles Air Line Railroad, and crossing over and above the said depressed tracks of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company; thence said elevated roadbed and tracks of the Chicago, Alton and St. Louis Railroad Company shall continue in a southerly direction, and they shall descend on the most suitable, convenient and practicable gradient to said Railway Company, to interest the present plane of the existing tracks of said Chicago, Alton and St. Louis Railroad Company at a point about 55 feet southwesterly of the center of 18th Street viaduct.

Paragraph 7. In consideration of the benefits accruing to the City of Chicago by the performance of the work herein specified to be done by the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company, said Company is hereby granted the right to maintain its present six tracks from 16th Street to 18th Street, between La Salle Street and Wentworth Avenue, and to elevate them to the level herein specified for the main tracks of said Company, between 16th Street and 18th Street. Also to cross the 18th Street subway with one or more tracks on suitable bridges between La Salle Street and Wentworth Avenue, and to cross 19th Street, between La Salle Street and Wentworth Avenue, with six tracks at such elevation above the present grade of said 19th Street as said Railway Company may desire. Also to lay and maintain, between 19th and 20th Streets, a track from its main tracks to and connecting with the said tracks between La Salle Street and Wentworth Avenue. That so much and such parts of 16th Street, 17th Street and 19th Street as lie between the east line of the right of way of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company and the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Company and the east line of Wentworth Avenue, be and the same are hereby vacated. The right is also granted to said Railway Company to make such changes in the grade of La Salle Street, between 16th and 20th Streets, as may be necessary to afford safe and convenient access to the property and tracks of said Company after the same shall have been elevated as herein provided.

Permission is also hereby granted to the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company to elevate its tracks leading to its yard, lying between 16th and 18th Streets, and to make such changes in the location of said tracks as said Company may deem necessary.

Permission is also hereby granted to the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company and to the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Company to elevate the two "Y" tracks of said St. Charles Air Line, and to make such changes in their location as said Companies may deem necessary.

Paragraph 8. Permission and authority are hereby granted the Chicago, Madison and Northern Railroad Company to change the easterly connection of that railroad with the St. Charles Air Line Railroad, from the location hereinbefore mentioned in Section 1, Paragraph 2, to any desirable point west of State Street on the proposed elevated track of said St. Charles Air Line, and to have the privilege of using and maintaining the most convenient and practicable gradient to enable said Chicago, Madison and Northern Railroad Company to cross above and over the tracks of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company and Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Company, thereby eliminating the grade crossing of these railroads as provided in this ordinance.

Paragraph 9. Nothing in this ordinance shall prevent the various companies owning the tracks mentioned herein from changing the location of said tracks by the mutual agreement of those interested as they may deem necessary, provided that no change of location shall be made that will prevent the separation of the grades of said tracks as contemplated in this ordinance.

The railway companies named in this ordinance are hereby authorized to make such changes in the position and alignment of their respective tracks and switch connections as may be desirable to carry out the provisions of this ordinance.

Paragraph 10. All elevations of railroad tracks mentioned in this ordinance shall refer to the top of the rail.

SECTION 2. The elevated or depressed road beds of said railways, as provided for in this ordinance, may be wide enough to provide for two main tracks for each and every roadbed herein named, together with such additional main tracks, side tracks and switches as shall be deemed necessary by the proprietors or corporations of said railroads, provided that at no time shall the St. Charles Air Line and the proprietors thereof, and the Chicago, Madison and Northern Railroad, together, construct and operate more than four tracks east of Clark Street, and where the said tracks are elevated they shall be supported and carried (except at the intersection of such public streets, avenues and alleys as are by the terms of this ordinance to be provided with subways, upon a superstructure of steel, or iron trestle work, or upon a solid embankment of earth, or other material, as may be preferred by said proprietors or corporations. Such unoccupied spaces, or areas, outside the boundary lines of the intersecting streets, avenues and alleys as may be left beneath said elevated structure, may be used by the owners thereof for any lawful purpose. In case said Railroad Companies, or any of them, required by this ordinance to elevate their tracks, respectively, shall use an embankment of earth or stone, or other material, instead of steel or iron structural work, the side slopes and lateral dimensions of said embankment will be determined by the natural angle of repose of the embankment material used; but whenever it may become necessary for the purpose of keeping said embankments entirely within the lines of the right of way of said Railway Company, such embankments shall be confined between retaining walls of stone or brick masonry or concrete. If such retaining walls shall be less than five (5) feet high, the same shall be surmounted by a substantial iron picket fence of such height and strength as to effectually prevent all persons from trespassing upon the elevated tracks of said Companies, respectively. In case said Railroad Companies, or any of them, are required by this ordinance to depress their tracks, then said tracks shall be protected by retaining walls of brick, stone or concrete, surmounted by substantial iron picket fence of such height and strength as to effectually prevent all persons from trespassing upon the depressed roadbed and tracks of said Companies, respectively.

SECTION 3. The said elevated tracks shall be carried across all intersecting streets, avenues and alleys, which, by the terms of this ordinance, are to be provided with subways, on suitable bridges of one, two or three spans, whose superstructure shall consist of iron or steel main girders, with iron or steel main floor, or ordinary track stringers; but should the latter method be adopted, some suitable device shall be provided to prevent storm water, dirt, oil and other substances from dropping from such elevated structure upon the subways beneath. The said bridges shall be supported on abutments of concrete, stone or brick masonry, or on rows of iron or steel columns, braced together laterally and erected on and anchored to masonry foundations, constructed within the lines of the railroad right of way and in the curb lines of the intersecting avenues and streets.

SECTION 4. Paragraph 1. At the point where the said St. Charles Air Line Railroad is intersected and crossed by Indiana Avenue, Michigan Avenue, Wabash Avenue, South State Street, Dearborn Street, South Clark Street, and all intervening alleys, subways shall be constructed passing beneath said elevated tracks, and such subways shall conform to the descriptions, specifications, dimensions and other particulars contained in schedules set forth and embodied in Section 4a of this ordinance, and subways shall be constructed beneath the said elevated tracks of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company and the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Company, where said elevated tracks are crossed by 18th Street; and said subways shall conform to the description, specifications, dimensions and other particulars contained in the schedules set forth and embodied in Section 4a of this ordinance.

Paragraph 2. At the point where the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company's tracks and the tracks of the Chicago and Western Indiana Railroad Company cross South Clark Street, a viaduct shall be constructed, passing over and above said depressed tracks, and such viaduct shall conform to the descriptions, specifications, dimensions and other particulars contained in the schedules set forth and embodied in Section 4a of this ordinance.

SECTION 4a. The several subways, viaducts and alley openings hereinbefore referred to in Section 4 of this ordinance, and which shall be constructed in accordance with the elevation upon which such tracks are to be placed, shall, as to their size and dimensions, locations and other details, be in accordance with the following schedule:

Subway in Indiana Avenue, 66 Feet Wide. Under the St.
Charles Air Line.

There shall be no depression of street.

Width between walls, 66 feet.

Width of roadway, 38 feet.

Width of sidewalks, 14 feet.

Clear headroom, 14 feet.

Two lines of posts may be placed in said subway at curb lines and inside thereof to support girders.

Subway in Michigan Avenue, 100 Feet Wide. Under the St. Charles Air Line. According to South Park Commissioners' Specifications.

Clear headroom, 14 feet.

Said subway shall be constructed of such dimensions and according to such plans as may be agreed upon between the South Park Commissioners and the St. Charles Air Line. There shall be no depression of street.

Subway in Wabash Avenue, 100 Feet Wide. Under the St.
Charles Air Line.

There shall be no depression of street.

Width between walls, 100 feet.

Width of roadway, 50 feet.

Width of sidewalks, 25 feet.

Clear headroom, 14 feet.

Two lines of posts may be placed in said subway at curb lines and inside thereof to support girders.

Subway in South State Street, 100 Feet Wide. Under the
St. Charles Air Line.

There shall be no depression of street.

Width between walls, 100 feet.

Width of roadway, 60 feet.

Width of sidewalks, 20 feet.

Clear headroom, 13 feet.

Two lines of posts may be placed in said subway at curb lines and inside thereof to support girders.

Subway in Dearborn Street, 66 Feet Wide. Under the
St. Charles Air Line.

There shall be no depression of street.

Width between walls, 66 feet.

Width of roadway, 38 feet.

Width of sidewalk, 14 feet.

Clear headroom, 12 feet.

Two lines of posts may be placed in said subway at curb lines and inside thereof to support girders.

Subways at each of the four alleys, respectively, running north and south and crossing said St. Charles Air Line, between Indiana avenue and Dearborn street.

Width of subway shall be clear full width of each alley.

Clear headroom shall be 14 feet, except as to the westernmost alley, which shall have 12 feet clear headroom.

There shall be no depression of any alley below present grade.

Subway in South Clark Street, 80 Feet Wide. Under the St. Charles Air Line.

Depression of street shall not exceed 1.6 feet where the wagon roadway is to be depressed; also the depression of street shall not exceed 3.1 feet where the street railway tracks are to be depressed, making the elevation of floor of roadway not less than 10.0 feet above city datum, and the elevation of top of rails of street railway not less than 8.5 feet above city datum; the level of floors shall extend to each portal of subway; and from this level the south approach of wagon roadway shall extend on an approaching grade of not to exceed 2 feet in 100 feet to intersect the present surface of Clark Street, and the south approach of the street railway roadway shall extend on an approaching grade of not to exceed 4 feet in 100 feet. The north approach to subway shall extend on a grade not to exceed 5 feet in 100 feet, which continued northerly will form the south approach to the viaduct to be constructed over the said tracks of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company and the Chicago and Western Indiana Railroad Company, as hereinafter provided.

Width between walls of subway, 80 feet.

Width of roadway, 42 feet.

Width of one sidewalk, 12 feet.

Width of street railway roadway, 26 feet.

Clear headroom, wagon roadway, 12 feet.

Clear headroom, street railway roadway, 13½ feet.

Depression of sidewalk shall be uniform with roadway and about 1 foot above level of same. A suitable wall or fence must be constructed, about 3 feet high, dividing the wagon roadway from street car roadway, and a line of posts may be placed in said subway at curb lines, and on wall dividing wagon roadway from street car roadway and inside thereof, to support girders.

Viaduct on South Clárk Street, Over the Depressed Tracks of the Chicago and Western Indiana Railroad Company and the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company.

The elevation of the floor of viaduct shall not exceed 21.25 feet above city datum, making it 9.75 feet above present surface of street, on a line immediately over the north rail of the most northwesterly track of the Chicago and Western Indiana Railroad Company as it shall be located and depressed as provided in Section 1, Paragraph 5; from this point the grade of the floor of said viaduct shall descend in a southerly direction to a point where an elevation of not more than 20.25 feet above city datum shall be attained, which point shall be located about 7 feet south of the south rail of the most southeasterly track of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company, as it shall be located and depressed as provided in Section 1, Paragraph 4. From said last mentioned point the south approach shall descend on a grade of not to exceed 5.0 feet in one hundred feet, as measured along a line parallel with and 20 feet west of the east line of South Clark Street to an intersection with the present surface of South Clark Street, said rate of grade being continued, descending southwardly, to an intersection with the subway floor as provided in Section 4a in specifications for subway in South Clark Street under the St. Charles Air Line tracks.

The north approach of said viaduct shall begin about 7 feet north of the north rail of the most northwesterly track of the Chicago and Western Indiana Railroad Company, as it shall be located and depressed as provided in Section 1, Paragraph 5. From said last mentioned point the north approach shall descend on a grade of not to exceed 4.5 feet in 100 feet to the intersection of the present surface of South Clark Street.

Width of viaduct, south end, 80 feet.

Width of wagon roadway, 42 feet.

Width of street car roadway, 26 feet.

Width of one sidewalk, 12 feet.

Width of viaduct, north end, 80 feet.

Width of wagon roadway, 42 feet.

Width of street car roadway, 26 feet.

Width of one sidewalk, 12 feet.

The north and south approaches to viaduct shall be constructed so as to retain the filling or embankment entirely within lines of the street by substantial retaining walls of stone masonry or concrete; subject to the direction and approval of the Commissioner of Public Works.

Substantial and ornamental picket fence and railings shall be provided for viaducts and approaches.

The sidewalk shall be uniform with roadway and about one foot above level of same where practicable.

Said viaduct shall be constructed of wrought iron and steel, and the roadway shall be paved with granite blocks, and the design, materials and workmanship subject to the direction and approval of the Commissioner of Public Works.

Said viaduct and approaches shall be constructed jointly by the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company and the Chicago and Western Indiana Railroad Company.

Clear headroom over the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway and the Chicago and Western Indiana Railroad at the above viaduct shall not be less than 16 feet.

Subway in 18th Street, 66 Feet Wide. Under the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway and the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway.

The depression of street shall not exceed 4.2 feet below original grade of street, making the elevation of floor of subway not less than 8.0 feet above city datum; this level shall extend 10 feet beyond each portal of subway; from this level each approach shall extend on a grade not to exceed 4.0 feet in 100 feet to intersect the present surface of street.

Width between walls, 66 feet.

Width roadways, 42 feet.

Width sidewalks, 12 feet.

Clear headroom, 12½ feet.

The sidewalk shall be depressed uniform with roadway and about one foot above level of same.

Two lines of posts may be placed in said subway at curb lines and inside thereof to support girders.

SECTION 5. All such excavations shall be made in the streets as may be required for the depression of such subways and the approaches thereto, but the depressed portion of the streets shall be restored to serviceable condition for the use of the public as soon as practicable, and all water-pipes, conduits, sewers and other similar substructures belonging to the city that may be disturbed by such excavations, or required to be moved or deflected from the position in which they are found, shall be replaced, or suitable expedients and arrangements shall be devised and provided to restore them as fully as may be to their former state of usefulness; but the gradients of the sewers shall not be reduced in any event; all such work shall be done by the respective railroad companies, as indicated in Section 4a, and at their sole expense, and under the immediate supervision and to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Chicago.

SECTION 6. The grades of all the streets and alleys in which any subways are to be built in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance, or where viaducts shall be built in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance, or where streets shall be depressed or raised in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance, along the line of the several subways, viaducts and their approaches, shall be and the same are hereby changed so as to conform to the grades of such subways, viaducts and approaches, as they shall be, either depressed or elevated, and constructed pursuant to the provisions of this ordinance.

SECTION 7. Provision shall be made for the drainage of the several depressed subways provided for in this ordinance by the construction of receiving basins, properly located in or immediately adjacent to said subways, which said receiving basins shall be connected with and discharge their contents into the adjacent city sewers. In case the lowest point of the surface of any of said subways should be below the grade of the adjacent sewer, some other adequate means of drainage, satisfactory to the Commissioner of Public Works, must be devised and provided for by said railroad companies at their expense.

SECTION 8. Paragraph 1. The subways and the approaches thereto, so to be constructed by said Companies in said streets and avenues aforesaid, shall all conform to the following structural requirements, namely. The roadways shall be paved with a single course of vitrified brick of standard quality, laid at right angles with the curb lines, and set on a solid foundation of hydraulic cement concrete, not less than six inches thick or deep when solidly tamped in place, and otherwise finished and properly crowned ready for the brick wearing surface, between which and the concrete there shall be interposed a layer of screened sand not less than half an inch thick. The curbs shall be of sound, hard limestone of standard dimensions and finish, and the sidewalks in subways shall be finished and paved with Portland cement concrete, of standard quality and workmanship, and, with the curbing and roadway paving, shall be made, finished and put in permanent place, in accordance with the requirements of the Department of Public Works of the City of Chicago. The approaches to subways shall be excavated to the grades established by this ordinance and shall be in all other respects restored as near as may be to their condition before being so excavated.

Paragraph 2. As to streets in this section mentioned, which are already paved or provided with sidewalks, such paving and sidewalks shall be restored with the present material, when the same is in good condition, by said Railroad Company at its own expense in such portions of said streets as are required to be constructed by said Company, except that said Railway Company is not required to restore any part of the paving of approaches or subways which it will be the duty of any street railway company or other corporation itself to restore, under existing laws or ordinances.

Paragraph 3. Said Company shall pave the entire length and width of the roadway in such portions of the subways as are required to be constructed by said Company, except that such Company shall not be required to pave any parts of the subways to be occupied by or adjacent to street railway tracks, which, by reason of existing laws or ordinances, it will be the duty of any street railway company or other corporation itself to pave.

Paragraph 4. Any street railway company occupying any of the streets in the City of Chicago crossed by said elevated or depressed railway shall, when and as the grade of such street shall be changed, as in this ordinance provided, at its own expense, without claim for damages, conform the grade of its said track or tracks to the said change of grade on said streets; and nothing in this ordinance shall operate to be held to relieve such street railway company from any liability now existing, however created, to pave or bear the expense of paving such streets between or on either side of the rails of its said tracks, in the manner and form as now required.

It is further provided that the Mayor and the Commissioner of Public Works, if they see fit, may grant to the Chicago City Railroad Company permission to operate its Clark Street cars (temporarily while Clark Street, at 16th Street, is obstructed and traffic interrupted by the work in this ordinance contemplated) through and by means of the electric overhead trolley over and along any street or streets north of 22d Street having street car tracks thereon, and owned and operated by said Chicago City Railway Company, and upon which said Company has a right to run and operate its cars. No tracks of any other company shall be used by said Chicago City Railway Company without the consent of such other company.

The Mayor and the Commissioner of Public Works shall designate where the poles for the overhead construction and suspension wires shall be placed, and all such temporary work to be used as aforesaid shall be instantly removed upon the order and direction of the Mayor of the City of Chicago, and if the Company fails or refuses to comply with such order, the Commissioner of Public Works shall at once remove said poles and overhead construction at the cost and expense of said Company. The understanding being that the rights herein to operate cars shall only be temporary, and while the obstruction exists at 16th Street crossing at Clark Street aforesaid.

Paragraph 5. Nothing in this ordinance contained shall be so construed as to require the said Railway Companies, or either of them, to assume or pay any incidental or consequential damages to adjacent property or business, caused by the passage and enforcement of this ordinance, or by the excavation, elevation, depression or change of grade made in any of the public avenues, streets or alleys, or to defend any suit or suits which may be brought against any party or parties for the recovery of any such damages. But it is understood that all such damages, if there are any, shall be adjusted and paid by the City of Chicago, and said city will assume the defense of any and all suits brought for the recovery of the same, intervening therein if necessary for such purpose, and will wholly relieve said Railway Companies from defending the same, and will assume and pay all judgments recovered therein. The above stipulations in this paragraph contained are, however, upon the condition precedent that in case any suit be brought against any of said Companies, said Company will, at least five days before the return day of the summons therein, give notice in writing of such suit and of such service to the Mayor and to the Corporation Counsel of said city, for the purpose of enabling such defense to be made by the city.

SECTION 9. All the work hereinbefore in this ordinance required to be done by said Companies upon or in connection with the public avenues and streets of the city shall be done and performed under the superintendence and subject to the inspection and approval of the Commissioner of Public Works of said city. At least ten days prior to the commencement of any part of such work, the plans and specifications therefor shall be submitted to said Commissioner of Public Works for his examination, and if found to be in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance, in so far as this ordinance contains specific provisions, and in the absence of such specific provisions if they shall be satisfactory to the Commissioner of Public Works in regard to matters and details which by this ordinance are left to his discretion and judgment, such plans shall be approved by him; and after such approval all of the work outlined and included therein shall be constructed in strict conformity therewith.

SECTION 10. Permission and authority are hereby given to said Companies, whenever the same shall be necessary in the prosecution of the work they are herein authorized or required to perform, to obstruct temporarily any public street, avenue or alley, to such extent and for such length of time as may be approved by the Commissioner of Public Works; and they are also hereby authorized, whenever the same shall become necessary, to erect and maintain temporary structures and false work in any of the said streets and avenues during the construction of their said elevated or depressed railroad, subject to the like approval of said Commissioner of Public Works.

Section 11. The elevation of the roadbed and tracks of the said St. Charles Air Line Railroad, as required by the provisions of this ordinance, and the use and operation of said tracks when so elevated, being impracticable unless and until the roadbed and tracks of the elevated railroad built by the Chicago and South Side Rapid Transit Railroad Company, now owned and operated by the South Side Elevated Railroad Company, which elevated railroad crosses the said St. Charles Air Line Railroad between Wabash Avenue and State Street, north of and near 16th Street, shall be raised at the crossing to a sufficient height above the elevated tracks of the said St. Charles Air Line Railroad to prevent any obstruction to, or interference with the construction, maintenance, use and operation of such elevated tracks, said South Side Elevated Railroad Company(successor to said Chicago and South Side Rapid Transit Railroad Company) is hereby ordered and required to elevate the plane of the roadbed and tracks of its said elevated road at the crossing aforesaid, to such a height above the roadbed and tracks of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad when raised to the elevation herein required, that there shall be a minimum clearance of headway of not less than seventeen (17) feet between the elevated tracks of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad and the lowest part of the overhead structure of said South Side Elevated Railroad Company. The tracks of said elevated railroad company on each side of said crossing to be adjusted to connect with the tracks laid upon the said overhead structure at the said crossing in such manner and at such gradients as said elevated railroad company shall deem proper. And upon and in accordance with the petition of the owners of the land representing more than one-half of the frontage of Harrison Street between Victoria Alley, sometimes called Golden Court, and Wabash Avenue, permission and authority be, and the same are, hereby granted to said South Side Elevated Railroad Company (successor to said Chicago and South Side Rapid Transit Railroad Company), its successors and assigns, to construct and operate for the period of fifty years from and after March 26, A. D. 1888, a double track elevated railroad on Harrison Street, in Chicago, Illinois, from Victoria Alley, sometimes called Golden Court, to Wabash Avenue, to connect and with all curves, columns and construction necessary or proper to connect the present elevated railroad and tracks of said South Side Elevated Railroad Company with the elevated road and tracks of the Union Elevated Railroad Company on Wabash Avenue. The elevated road hereby authorized shall be of what is known as lattice work construction, with the columns set upon or immediately within the curb lines, and otherwise shall conform to, and be constructed and operated under and in accordance with the terms of the ordinances heretofore passed granting authority to said Chicago and South Side Rapid Transit Railroad Company to construct and operate an elevated railroad. Said South Side Elevated Railroad Company shall begin the elevation of its said road at said crossing as soon as reasonably practicable after all other railroad companies have filed with the Mayor of Chicago their agreements referred to in Section 17 of this ordinance.

The work of such elevation shall be fully and finally completed within ninety days after such acceptance shall be filed by the other of said railroad companies; and in case of failure or default on the part of said South Side Elevated Railroad Company, its successors or assigns, to complete the work and construction of such elevation within the period of ninety days from and after the acceptance of this ordinance by said other railroad companies, said Company shall pay to the City of Chicago as assessed, agreed and liquidated damages, the sum of two hundred ($200) dollars per day for each and every day that such default shall continue and such elevation of the structure and tracks of the South Side Elevated Railroad Company shall remain unfinished and incomplete it being agreed that the said sum of two hundred ($200) dollars per day is not a penalty but is the actual amount of damages that will be sustained by the City of Chicago through such any default on the part of said South Side Elevated Railroad Company, but the foregoing provisions in relation to the payment of said damages shall not be in any way held to interfere with the rights to be derived by the city under the provisions contained in Section thirteen (13) of this ordinance, but shall be deemed and construed as an additional and further remedy in behalf of the city in case of default on the part of said South Side Elevated Railroad Company. The time of delay, if any, occasioned by strikes, riots or unavoidable accidents shall be added to the ninety (90) days above provided for the completion of said work.

SECTION 12. The various railway companies mentioned in Section 1 of this ordinance, and who are required to elevate or depress their tracks, shall commence the work of such elevation and depression at once, whenever the South Side Elevated Railroad Company's elevated road shall be raised at the crossing of that road by the St. Charles Air Line Railroad to the elevation required by the 11th section of this ordinance; provided this ordinance shall have been accepted by the said several railways hereby required to elevate their tracks. After such work has commenced the same shall be prosecuted continuously and with all practical diligence, and shall be fully and finally completed within two years after the elevation of the track of the said South Side Elevated Railroad Company at said crossing, unless prevented by strike or restrained by injunction or other order or process of a court of competent jurisdiction. The time during which said railway companies shall be prevented by strike, or strikes, or legal proceedings, as aforesaid, shall be added to the time hereby limited for the completion of said work; provided said railway companies give notice to the Corporation Counsel of the City of Chicago of the institution of said legal proceedings. The City of Chicago shall thereupon have the right to intervene in any suit or proceedings brought by any person or persons seeking to enjoin or restrain, or in any manner interfere with the prosecution of said work, and move for a dissolution of such injunction and restraining order, and for any other proper order in such suit.

SECTION 13. Each and every one of the companies required by this ordinance to elevate or depress its tracks, including the South Side Elevated Railroad Company, shall do its portion of the work in accordance with the terms hereof in apt and proper time so as not to interfere with the proper and orderly prosecution of such work as a whole. Should any company fail or neglect so to prosecute its work, the Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Chicago shall have and is hereby given the right, power and authority to give ten days notice in writing to such delinquent company to prosecute such work. If such company shall fail or neglect to comply with said notice, the Commissioner of Public Works may take charge of and cause such work to be done, and the expenses thereof shall thereupon be paid by such delinquent company.

SECTION 14. Permission and authority are hereby granted to the Illinois Central Railroad Company to connect its tracks with the tracks of the said St. Charles Air Line Railroad, at such point east of Indiana Avenue as may be agreed upon between the Illinois Central Railroad Company and the proprietors of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad, by means of an ascent or incline to be constructed on land owned by either, and to maintain such connection in perpetuity, and to change the grade or vary the line thereof from time to time as it may deem proper.

SECTION 15. When the work of elevating the St. Charles Air Line Railroad, as required by the provisions of this ordinance, is completed, the proprietors of said railroad, their successors and assigns, shall have the right to maintain and operate the said railroad in its new and altered location and in its new and altered and elevated condition as said proprietors have heretofore had to maintain and operate such railroad in and along the route and upon the site heretofore occupied by it.

SECTION 16. When the said several railroads in Section 1 of this ordinance mentioned shall have elevated or depressed their respective tracks in accordance with this ordinance, so that the same shall be ready for use, then and thereupon all provisions of the ordinances of the City of Chicago relating to the speed of railway trains, the length of trains, the number of cars to constitute a train, and the maintenance of gates, flagmen, watchmen, signals and signal towers shall cease to be applicable to said railroads; provided, however, this ordinance is not to be construed as a waiver or surrender by the City of Chicago of any of its police powers, or of the right at any time hereafter to pass necessary and reasonable police ordinances in relation to the matters last above enumerated. After such elevation and depression, it shall be unlawful for any person or persons, save employes of said companies, or either of them, in the discharge of their duties, to enter or be upon, or to walk along or across the said elevated structure or depressed roadway at any place. If any person shall wilfully trespass upon the said elevated or depressed roadway, such person and all others aiding, abetting or assisting therein, shall be liable to a fine of not less than $5.00 nor more than $100.00 for each and every such offense.

SECTION 17. This ordinance shall take effect from and after its passage, approval and publication; provided, however, this ordinance shall be null and void, except as to the grant of the right of way to said South Side Elevated Railroad Company, contained in Section 11, unless each and every one of said companies which are by this ordinance permitted and required to elevate or depress their railroad tracks, except South Side Elevated Railroad Company, shall, through the authorized officers of said several companies, file with the Mayor of the City of Chicago within thirty days from the passage and approval by the Mayor of this ordinance, agreement or agreements duly executed, whereby said railway company shall undertake to do and perform all the matters and things required of them respectively by this ordinance. After the filing of said agreement or agreements by all of said several companies, and not before, this ordinance shall not be materially modified or amended without the consent of any company affected by any proposed modification, unless such company or companies shall be in default in the performance of the several matters and things required by this ordinance and undertaken to be done by such agreement. No act or default of any of the other companies shall avoid or impair any of the rights hereunder of the said South Side Elevated Railroad Company so long as it shall perform the matters and things expressly required of it by this ordinance. Nothing in this ordinance contained shall be a waiver or surrender of the police power of the city, or deprive the city of the right to properly exercise such power.

COUNTY OF COOK. } ss.

I, William Loeffler, City Clerk of the City of Chicago, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a true and correct copy of an ordinance for the elevation of the tracks of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad and requiring other roads to change the plane of their tracks, passed by the City Council of the City of Chicago on the 17th day of May, A. D. 1897, and approved by his Honor, the Mayor, on the 22d day of May, A. D. 1897, original of which ordinance is on file in this office, and that I am the lawful custodian of the same.

Witness my hand and the corporate seal of said City of Chicago this 29th day of May, A. D. 1897.

[SEAL]

WM. LOEFFLER,
City Clerk.

NOTE.—On the 19th day of June, 1897, written acceptances of the foregoing ordinance were filed with the City Clerk of the City of Chicago by the following railroad companies:

Illinois Central R. R. Co.
Chicago, Madison and Northern R. R. Co.
Chicago and North-Western Ry. Co.
Chicago, Burlington and Quincy R. R. Co.
Michigan Central R. R. Co.

On the same day Hon. Carter H. Harrison, Mayor of the City of Chicago, acknowledged the receipt of said acceptances by the several railroad companies.

TEN PARTY CONTRACT, August 1, 1899.

Agreement relating to the elevation, depression, relocation and reconstruction of railroad tracks in the vicinity of 16th and Clark Streets, Chicago.

This Agreement, made this first day of August, A. D. 1899, by and between the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company, party of the first part, hereinafter called the Lake Shore Company, the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Company, party of the second part, hereinafter called the Rock Island Company, the Chicago and Western Indiana Railroad Company, party of the third part, hereinafter called the Western Indiana Company, the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad Company in Chicago, party of the fourth part, hereinafter called the Santa Fe Company, the Chicago, Madison and Northern Railroad Company, party of the fifth part; hereinafter called the Madison and Northern Company, the Chicago and Alton Railroad Company, party of the sixth part, hereinafter called the Alton Company, the Illinois Central Railroad Company, party of the seventh part, the Michigan Central Railroad Company, party of the eighth part, the Chicago and North-Western Railway Company, party of the ninth part, and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, party of the tenth part, which said parties of the seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth parts are the proprietors of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad.

Witnesseth: That Whereas, heretofore on the 17th day of May, A. D. 1897, the Council of the City of Chicago passed an ordinance requiring the several railroad companies parties to this agreement to elevate or depress the tracks of their railroads at and near Clark Street in said City, which ordinance was afterward duly approved by the Mayor of said City and accepted by said companies, and

Whereas, it was provided by the terms of said ordinance that the tracks of the railroads of the Western Indiana Company and the Santa Fe Company should be depressed and pass in a subway under the tracks of the railroads of the Madison and Northern Company, the Lake Shore Company, the Rock Island Company, and the St. Charles Air Line Railroad, and under Clark Street, and

Whereas, it was further provided by the terms of said ordinance that the tracks of the railroad of the Western Indiana Company should be moved north about fifteen (15) feet from their original position, and that the tracks of the railroad of the Santa Fe Company should be moved to the north about twenty-three (23) feet, that those of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad should be moved south about eighty-five (85) feet from where said tracks were originally laid across Clark Street, and those of the Madison and Northern Company should be moved south so as to join the St. Charles Air Line Railroad tracks at Clark Street, and

Whereas, on the 25th day of January, A. D. 1898, all of the parties hereto agreed upon a general plan of the tracks of the railroads of said parties as they should be finally relocated after the elevation, depression and reconstruction of the same in the manner provided by the terms of the aforesaid ordinance, a copy of which general plan is hereto attached, marked Exhibit A, and

Whereas, the railroad companies parties hereto have constructed the retaining walls necessary for the said subway and the abutments, pedestals and steel bridges necessary to support and carry the said elevated tracks and the steel viaduct on Clark Street, and have elevated or depressed, relocated and reconstructed the tracks of their several railroads in the manner provided by the terms of the aforesaid ordinance and as shown on the aforesaid Exhibit A, and

Whereas, the relocation and reconstruction of the tracks of the railroads of the Western Indiana Company, the Santa Fe Company, the Madison and Northern Company, the Lake Shore Company, the Alton Company, and of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad, has deprived those companies and the proprietors of the said Air Line Railroad of the use and occupancy of some parts of the lands, rights of way and easements heretofore acquired, occupied and enjoyed by them, and has made it necessary for them to occupy, and they have occupied with the tracks of their railroads as relocated and reconstructed, other lands, rights of way and easements, and

Whereas, on the 25th day of January, A. D. 1898, aforesaid, the proprietors of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad had a right of way for said railroad thirty (30) feet in width along, adjacent to, and south of the north line of block thirty-five (35) in Assessor's Second Division of the east fractional Northeast Quarter of Section Twenty-one (21), Township thirty-nine (39) north, Range fourteen (14) east of the Third Principal Meridian in the City of Chicago, County of Cook, and State of Illinois, between the west line of Clark Street and the east bank of the Chicago River, and

Whereas, the Santa Fe Company, on the said 25th day of January, A. D. 1898, by virtue of an agreement with the Rock Island Company and the Lake Shore Company, dated the 23rd day of January, A. D. 1889, and an agreement with the proprietors of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad, dated the 4th day of January, A. D. 1895, had acquired and had a right of way for its two main tracks and connecting tracks across blocks thirty-four (34) and thirty-five (35) in the Section, Township and Range aforesaid, between the west line of Clark Street and the north line of Sixteenth Street, and

Whereas, the Madison and Northern Company, on the said 25th day of January, A. D. 1898, by virtue of an agreement with the Lake Shore Company and the Rock Island Company, dated the 1st day of May, A. D. 1889, and an agreement with the Santa Fe Company, dated the 23d day of April, A. D. 1889, had acquired and had a right of way for the tracks of its railroad across the aforesaid block thirty-five (35) between the west line of Clark Street and the north line of 16th Street, and

Whereas, the Western Indiana Company, on the said 25th day of January, A. D. 1898, by virtue of a contract with the Lake Shore Company and the Rock Island Company, dated the 2nd day of November, A. D. 1882, and an agreement with the proprietors of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad, dated the 26th day of June, A. D. 1891, has acquired and had a right of way for the four main tracks of its railroad across blocks thirty-four (34) and thirty-five (35) in the Section, Township and Range aforesaid, between the west line of Clark Street and the north line of 16th Street, and

Whereas, it is the intention and purpose of all of the parties hereto that the said companies so deprived of the use and occupancy of a part or all of such lands and easements shall be protected and confirmed in the permanent use and occupancy with the tracks of their railroads of such other lands, rights of way and easements as were made necessary by the relocation of said tracks in the manner provided by the terms of the said ordinance and as the said tracks are now relocated and reconstructed;

Now, therefore, to establish and confirm each of the several railroad companies parties hereto, their successors and assigns, in the right to occupy with the tracks of their railroads as they are now relocated and reconstructed, the lands, rights of way and easements aforesaid, and for and in consideration of the payment by each of the parties hereto of large sums of money for the purpose of elevating, depressing, removing, relocating and reconstructing the tracks, roadbeds and grounds of the railroads of said parties in the manner provided by the aforesaid ordinance and as shown on the plan hereto attached and marked Exhibit A, which sums of money it is hereby acknowledged have been expended upon the work of Joint Track Elevation and Depression at 16th and Clark Streets in the City of Chicago, County of Cook, and State of Illinois, embracing the elevating, depressing, removing, relocating and reconstructing the tracks, roadbeds and grounds of the railroads of the parties hereto, and upon other work connected therewith for the benefit of the said parties, it is hereby understood and agreed:

That all of the parties hereto, their successors and assigns, shall have and enjoy all of the rights, privileges and easements hereinafter specified, to-wit:

1. That the Madison and Northern Company had the right to elevate, relocate and reconstruct, and has elevated, relocated and reconstructed, and shall have the right to permanently maintain and operate the two elevated main tracks of its railroad as they are now located and constructed over and across block thirty-five (35) in Assessor's Second Division of the east fractional northeast quarter of section twenty-one (21), Township thirty-nine (39) north, Range fourteen (14) east of the Third Principal Meridian, between 16th and Clark Streets, and over and across lots one (1), two (2), three (3), four (4), and five (5) in block six (6) in Canal Trustees' new Subdivision of blocks in the southeast fractional quarter of Section twenty-one (21), Township thirty-nine (39) north, Range fourteen (14) east of the Third Principal Meridian, between 16th Street, and the strip of land described as Grove Street, all in the City of Chicago, County of Cook and State of Illinois, and that it, the said Madison and Northern Company, has constructed and that it shall have the right to permanently maintain the steel bridges and the metal posts supporting them which carry the two main tracks of its railroad over the two depressed main tracks of the railroad of the Santa Fe Company at and near 16th Street, and that it, the said Madison and Northern Company, had and shall continue to have the right to cross at grade with the two elevated main tracks of its railroad the two elevated main tracks of the railroad of the Lake Shore Company, the two elevated main tracks of the railroad of the Rock Island Company, and the two elevated joint south wye switching tracks of the railroads of the Lake Shore and Rock Island Companies, and to cross at grade with the north main track of its railroad the south main track of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad near Clark Street, and to connect its two main tracks with the main tracks of the said St. Charles Air Line Railroad, as provided by the terms of the aforesaid ordinance, and as shown on the plan hereto attached, marked Exhibit A.

2. That the proprietors of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad had the right to elevate, relocate and reconstruct, and have elevated, relocated and reconstructed, and shall have the right to permanently maintain and operate the two elevated main tracks of the said St. Charles Air Line Railroad with the necessary switch connections as they are now located and constructed over and across block thirty-five (35) in Assessor's Second Division of the east fractional northeast quarter of Section twenty-one (21), Township thirty-nine (39) north, Range fourteen (14), east of the Third Principal Meridian, in the City of Chicago, County of Cook and State of Illinois, between the Chicago River and Clark Street, and that the proprietors of the said St. Charles Air Line Railroad had and shall continue to have the right to cross at grade with the two elevated main tracks of said Air Line Railroad the two elevated main tracks of the Lake Shore Company and the joint elevated switching track of the railroads of the Lake Shore and Rock Island Companies between the bridge of said Air Line Railroad over the subway aforesaid and Clark Street, and to cross at grade with the southerly of its said main tracks the northerly of the said joint south wye switching tracks of the Lake Shore and Rock Island Companies, and with the northerly of its said main tracks the joint north wye switching track of the railroads of the Lake Shore and Rock Island Companies, between its bridge over the said subway and the Chicago River; also to cross at grade with the two elevated main tracks of said St. Charles Air Line Railroad with the two elevated main tracks of the railroad of the Rock Island Company, and to cross at grade with the southerly elevated main track of its said railroad the northerly elevated main track of the railroad of the Madison and Northern Company near Clark Street; also that the proprietors of the said Air Line Railroad had the right to construct and have constructed, and shall have the right to permanently maintain the steel bridges and the metal posts supporting them which carry the two elevated main tracks of said Air Line Railroad over the four depressed main tracks of the Western Indiana Company and the two depressed main tracks of the Santa Fe Company between the Chicago River and Clark Street, as provided by the terms of the aforesaid ordinance and as shown on the plan hereto attached, marked Exhibit A.

3. That the Lake Shore Company had the right to elevate, relocate and reconstruct, and has elevated, relocated and reconstructed, and shall have the right to permanently maintain and operate the two elevated main tracks of its railroad between Fifteenth and Sixteenth Streets and, jointly with the Rock Island Company, the two elevated joint south wye switching tracks and the elevated joint north wye switching track connecting the said main tracks with the tracks of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad near the Chicago River, also the elevated joint switching track connecting its said main tracks with the tracks of the railroads of the Alton and Western Indiana Companies at the south line of Sixteenth Street and with the tracks of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad near Clark Street as the said tracks are now located and constructed over and across blocks thirty-four (34) and thirty-five (35) in Assessor's Second Division of the east fractional northeast quarter of Section twenty-one (21), Township thirty-nine (39) north, Range fourteen (14) east of the Third Principal Meridian in the City of Chicago, County of Cook and State of Illinois, and that it, the said Lake Shore Company, had and shall continue to have the right to cross at grade with the two elevated main tracks of its railroad the two elevated main tracks of the railroad of the Madison and Northern Company and the two elevated main tracks of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad; also to cross at grade with the two elevated joint south wye switching tracks of the Lake Shore and Rock Island Companies aforesaid the two elevated main tracks of the railroads of the Madison and Northern Company and the elevated joint Alton connecting switching track of the Lake Shore and Rock Island Companies, also to cross at grade with the said elevated joint Alton connecting switching track the two elevated main tracks of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad and the two joint south wye switching tracks of the railroads of the said Lake Shore and Rock Island Companies; also to cross at grade with the most northerly of the said elevated joint south wye switching tracks the most southerly of the elevated main tracks of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad, and with the elevated joint north wye switching track the most northerly of the said main tracks, and to connect the said elevated joint wye switching tracks with the main tracks of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad near the Chicago River, and that it, the said Lake Shore Company, had the right to construct and has constructed, and shall have the right to permanently maintain the several steel bridges and the metal posts supporting them which carry the said main and switching tracks of its railroad over the four depressed main tracks of the railroad of the Western Indiana Company and over the two depressed main tracks of the railroad of the Santa Fe Company as now located and constructed, in the manner provided by the terms of the aforesaid ordinance and as shown on the plan hereto attached, marked Exhibit A.

4. That the Rock Island Company had the right to elevate, relocate and reconstruct, and has elevated, relocated and reconstructed, and shall have the right to permanently maintain and operate the two elevated main tracks of its railroad between Fifteenth and Sixteenth Streets, and, jointly with the Lake Shore Company, the two elevated joint south wye switching tracks and the elevated joint north wye switching track connecting the said main tracks with the tracks of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad near the Chicago River; also the elevated joint switching track connecting its said main lines with the tracks of the railroads of the Alton and Western Indiana Companies at the south line of Sixteenth Street and with the tracks of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad near Clark Street as the said tracks are now located and constructed over and across blocks thirty-four (34) and thirty-five (35) in Assessor's Second Division of the east fractional northeast quarter of Section twenty-one (21), Township thirty-nine (39) north, Range fourteen (14) east of the Third Principal Meridian, in the City of Chicago, County of Cook and State of Illinois, and that it, the said Rock Island Company, had and shall continue to have the right to cross at grade with the two elevated main tracks of its railroad the two elevated main tracks of the railroad of the Madison and Northern Company and the two elevated main tracks of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad; also to cross at grade with the two elevated joint south wye switching tracks of the Lake Shore and Rock Island Companies aforesaid the two elevated main tracks of the railroads of the Madison and Northern Company and the elevated joint Alton connecting switching track of the Lake Shore and Rock Island Companies, also to cross at grade with the said elevated joint Alton connecting switching track the two elevated main tracks of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad and the two elevated joint south wye switching tracks of the railroads of the said Lake Shore and Rock Island Companies; also to cross at grade with the most northerly of the said elevated joint south wye switching tracks the most southerly of the elevated main tracks of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad, and with the elevated joint north wye switching track the most northerly of the said main tracks, and to connect the said elevated joint wye switching tracks with the main tracks of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad near the Chicago River, and to connect its elevated north wye switching track with the said elevated joint north wye switching track, and that it, the said Rock Island Company, had the right to construct, and has constructed, and shall have the right to permanently maintain the several steel bridges and the metal posts supporting them which carry the said two main tracks of its railroad over the four depressed main tracks of the railroad of the Western Indiana Company and over the two depressed main tracks of the railroad of the Santa Fe Company as now located and constructed, in the manner provided by the terms of the aforesaid ordinance and as shown on the plan hereto attached, marked Exhibit A.

5. That the Alton Company had the right to elevate, relocate and reconstruct, and has elevated, relocated and reconstructed, and shall have the right to permanently maintain and operate the tracks of its railroad on the said strip of land, described as Grove Street, northerly from Eighteenth Street to a connection with the elevated joint switching track of said Alton Company and the Western Indiana Company (described in Section six [6] of this instrument) at or near the east line of said so-called Grove Street as now located and constructed, in the manner provided by the terms of the aforesaid ordinance and as shown on the plan hereto attached and marked Exhibit A; provided that the Western Indiana Company shall provide, put in place and permanently maintain at its sole cost and expense the frog, switch, and all other necessary material for the proper operation of such connecting switch as shall be necessary thereto.

6. That the Western Indiana Company had the right to depress, relocate and reconstruct, and has depressed, relocated and reconstructed, and shall have the right to permanently maintain and operate the tracks of its railroad extending into and through the subway aforesaid between Eighteenth Street and Fifteenth Street as they are now depressed, relocated and reconstructed upon and across blocks six (6), seven (7), and eight (8) in Canal Trustees' New Subdivision of blocks in the southeast fractional quarter of Section twenty-one (21), Township thirty-nine (39) north, Range fourteen (14) east of the Third Principal Meridian, and upon and across blocks thirty (30), thirty-one (31), thirty-two (32), thirty-three (33), thirty-four (34), and thirty-five (35), in Assessor's Second Division of the East fractional northeast quarter of Section twenty-one (21), and upon and across lots thirty-four (34), thirty-five (35), and thirty-six (36) in Wilder's South Addition in the same fractional quarter-section, township and range, all in the City of Chicago, County of Cook and State of Illinois, as provided by the terms of the aforesaid ordinance, and as shown on the plan hereto attached, marked Exhibit A; and that the said Western Indiana Company had the right to construct and has constructed, and shall have the right to permanently maintain and operate as now located and constructed, an elevated switching track connecting with the most easterly main track of the railroad of the said Company near Eighteenth Street and extending northeastwardly to and along said so-called Grove Street parallel with and west of the tracks of the railroad of the said Alton Company (described in Section five [5] of this instrument) and connecting with said tracks at the east line of said so-called Grove Street, as shown on the plan hereto attached and marked Exhibit A, and shall construct and maintain the connecting switch as provided in Section five (5).

7. That the Western Indiana Company and the Alton Company jointly had the right to construct, and have constructed, and shall have the right to permanently maintain and operate an elevated railroad switching track connecting with their said switching tracks at the east line of said so-called Grove street, as described in Sections five (5) and six (6) of this instrument and the conditions thereunder, and extending northeasterly as now located and constructed across lots one (1) and two (2), in block six (6), in Canal Trustees' New Subdivision of blocks in the southeast fractional quarter of Section twenty-one (21), Township thirty-nine (39) north, Range fourteen (14), east of the Third Principal Meridian, in the City of Chicago, County of Cook and State of Illinois, a distance of one hundred and twenty-five (125) feet, more or less, to a connection with the elevated joint switching track of the Lake Shore Company and the Rock Island Company (described in Section three [3] of this instrument) at the south line of Sixteenth Street, as shown on the plan hereto attached and marked Exhibit A.

8. That the Santa Fe Company had the right to depress, relocate and reconstruct, and has depressed, relocated and reconstructed, and shall have the right to permanently maintain and operate the tracks of its railroad extending into and through the subway aforesaid between Eighteenth Street and Fifteenth Street as they are now depressed, relocated and reconstructed over and across block six (6), in Canal Trustees' New Subdivision of blocks in the southeast fractional quarter of Section twenty-one (21), Township thirty-nine (39) north, Range fourteen (14), east of the Third Principal Meridian, and over and across blocks thirty-five (35), thirty-four (34), thirty-three (33), thirty-two (32) and thirty-one (31), in Assessor's Second Addition of the east fractional northeast quarter of Section twenty-one (21), and over and across lots thirty-four (34), thirty-five (35) and thirty-six (36) in Wilder's South Addition in the last above described quarter-section, township and range, all in the City of Chicago, County of Cook and State of Illinois, as provided by the terms of the aforesaid ordinance and as shown on the plan hereto attached and marked Exhibit A.

9. That the Western Indiana Company and the Santa Fe Company jointly had the right to construct and have constructed, and shall have the right to permanently maintain and operate a pump-house and pumping plant in the northwesterly retaining wall of the said subway, and under the ground northwesterly of said wall, for the purpose of draining said subway, including three lines of cast iron pipes laid from said pump-house to the Chicago River upon the land of the Lake Shore and Rock Island Companies, and that said drain pipes, pump-house and pumping plant as they are now located and installed are now and shall remain the property of the said Western Indiana and Santa Fe Companies jointly; and the said Companies shall have the right to enter upon the land above and adjacent to said cast iron pipes, and to excavate and make repairs to said pipes, if such should be necessary, provided that such work shall be done in such a manner as not to unreasonably obstruct or interfere with the traffic on the railroad tracks thereon; or to unreasonably obstruct or interfere with the use by the said Lake Shore and Rock Island Companies of the land so entered upon; provided further that the cost and expense of such repairs, shall be borne by the Western Indiana Company and the Santa Fe Company jointly in the proportion of two-thirds by the Western Indiana Company and one-third by the Santa Fe Company.

10. That the Lake Shore Company shall have the right to reconstruct the elevated switching track of its railroad between the subway aforesaid and the north end of its freight yard south of Sixteenth Street, and to cross at grade with its said elevated switching track the two elevated main tracks of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad and the two elevated main tracks of the railroad of the Madison and Northern Company, in the manner provided by the terms of the aforesaid ordinance and as shown on said plan hereto attached, marked Exhibit A; provided that the crossing frogs for the crossing of the Madison and Northern Company as above shall be, provided, maintained and policed by that Company, and the crossing frogs for the crossing of the Air Line Railroad shall be provided, maintained and policed by the Lake Shore Company.

11. That the right of way established for and confirmed to the Madison and Northern Company, as described in Section one (1) of this instrument, lying between Clark Street and Sixteenth Street, in the City of Chicago, County of Cook and State of Illinois, is bounded by lines described as follows:

Beginning at a point in the west line of Clark street seventy and four-tenths (70.4) feet north from the north line of Sixteenth Street and running thence southwesterly on a straight line three hundred and twenty (320) feet to a point in the north line of Sixteenth Street distant three hundred and eleven and six-tenths (311.6) feet west from the west line of Clark Street measured along the north line of Sixteenth Street; thence west along the north line of Sixteenth Street one hundred and thirty-eight and nine-tenths (138.9) feet; thence northeasterly on a curved line deflecting to the right having a radius of four hundred and sixty-seven and three-tenths (467.3) feet a distance of sixty-eight (68) feet to a point distant nineteen and eight-tenths (19.8) feet north at right angles from the north line of Sixteenth Street; thence northeasterly on a straight line parallel with the line first above described and thirty-five and six-tenths (35.6) feet distant northerly at right angles therefrom three hundred and fifteen (315) feet to the south boundary line of the right of way of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad; thence southeasterly on a curved line deflecting to the left having a radius of three hundred and ninety-one (391) feet seventy-eight and five-tenths (78.5) feet to a point in the west line of Clark Street distant eighty-one (81) feet north from the north line of Sixteenth Street; thence south along the west line of Clark Street ten and six-tenths (10.6) feet to the place of beginning, as shown on Exhibit C hereto attached, containing thirteen thousand and seventy-six (13,076) square feet.

12. That the right of way established for and confirmed to the St. Charles Air Line Railroad as described in Section two (2) of this instrument, lying between the Chicago River and Clark Street, in the City of Chicago, County of Cook and State of Illinois, is bounded by lines described as follows, to wit:

Beginning at a point in the west line of Clark Street eighty-one (81) feet north of the north line of Sixteenth Street and running thence north along the west line of Clark Street thirty-five (35) feet; thence northwesterly on a curved line deflecting to the right having a radius of three hundred and seventy-five (375) feet a distance of one hundred and thirty-five and two-tenths (135.2) feet; thence northwesterly on a straight line, said line being a tangent from last above described curved line, one hundred and one (101) feet to a point distant two hundred and twenty-seven and six-tenths (227.6) feet west at right angles from the west line of Clark Street and thirty (30) feet south at right angles from the north line of block thirty-five (35) aforesaid; thence west on a line parallel with the north line of said block thirty-five (35), and thirty (30) feet south at right angles therefrom one hundred and forty-one and six-tenths (141.6) feet; thence southeasterly on a curved line deflecting to the right having a radius of three hundred and seventy-five (375) feet a distance of one hundred and eight and two-tenths (108.2) feet, thence southeasterly on a straight line parallel with the third above described line and thirty-two and four-tenths (32.4) feet distant southwesterly at right angles therefrom one hundred and thirty-six and nine-tenths (136.9) feet; thence southeasterly on a curved line deflecting to the left having a radius of three hundred and ninety-one (391) feet, one hundred and thirty-eight (138) feet to the place of beginning, as shown on Exhibit C hereto attached, containing nine thousand seven hundred and forty-one (9741) square feet.

13. That the right of way established for and confirmed to the Western Indiana Company, as described in Section six (6) of this instrument, between Clark Street and Sixteenth Street in the City of Chicago, County of Cook and State of Illinois, is bounded by lines described as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at a point in the west line of Clark Street three hundred and twenty and ninety-one one-hundredths (320.91) feet north of the north line of Sixteenth Street, and running thence southwesterly on a straight line diverging from the west line of Clark Street with an angle of fifty-seven degrees and seventeen minutes ($57^{\circ} 17'$) five hundred and ninety-four and fifty-two one-hundredths (594.52) feet to a point in the north line of Sixteenth Street distant five hundred and sixteen one-hundredths (500.16) feet west of the west line of Clark Street; thence west along the north line of Sixteenth Street one hundred and six and sixty-seven one-hundredths (106.67) feet; thence northeasterly on a straight line seven hundred and twenty-one and three-tenths (721.3) feet to a point in the west line of Clark Street three hundred and eighty-nine and thirty-seven one hundredths (389.37) feet north from the north line of Sixteenth Street measured along the west line of Clark Street; thence south along the west line of Clark Street sixty-eight and forty-six one-hundredths (68.46) feet to the place of beginning, as shown on Exhibit C, hereto attached, containing thirty-seven thousand eight hundred and ninety-six (37,896) square feet.

14. That the right of way established for and confirmed to the Santa Fe Company, as described in Section eight (8) of this instrument, lying between Clark Street and Sixteenth Street in the City of Chicago, County of Cook, and State of Illinois, is bounded by lines described as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at a point in the west line of Clark Street three hundred and twenty and ninety-one one-hundredths, (320.91) feet north of the north line of Sixteenth Streets and running thence southwesterly on a straight line diverging from the west line of Clark Street with an angle of fifty-seven degrees and seventeen minutes ($57^{\circ} 17'$) and along the southeasterly boundary line of the right of way of the Western Indiana Company two hundred and ninety-five (295) feet; thence southwesterly on a straight line deflecting to the left from the last above described line with an angle of twelve degrees and two minutes ($12^{\circ} 2'$) two hundred and two and five-tenths (202.5) feet; thence southwesterly on a straight line diverging to the right from a prolongation of the last above described line with an angle of two degrees and forty-seven minutes ($2^{\circ} 47'$) twenty-eight and seven-tenths (28.7) feet to a point in the north line of Sixteenth Street distant four hundred and thirteen (413) feet west of the west line of Clark Street; thence east along the north line of Sixteenth Street forty-eight (48) feet; thence northeasterly on a straight line parallel with the second above described line and thirty-two and six-tenths (32.6) feet distant southeasterly at right angles therefrom one hundred and seventy-four (174) feet; thence northeasterly on a curved line deflecting to the right having a radius of three hundred and seventy-five (375) feet, to which line the last above described line is tangent, seventy-eight and five-tenths (78.5) feet to a point twenty-eight and five-tenths (28.5) feet distant southeasterly at right angles from the line first above described; thence northeasterly on a straight line parallel with the first above described line and twenty-eight and five-tenths (28.5) feet distant southeasterly at right angles therefrom two hundred and fourteen and five-tenths (214.5) feet to the west line of Clark Street; thence north along the west line of Clark Street thirty-three and eighty-seven one-hundredths (33.87) feet to the place of beginning, as shown on Exhibit C hereto attached, containing fifteen thousand one hundred and twenty-eight (15,128) square feet.

15. That all of the lands, rights of way and easements, west of Clark Street vacated by the removal, relocation and reconstruction of the tracks of the railroads of the Companies parties of the third, fourth, fifth, seventh eighth, ninth and tenth parts, and for which the said parties have been provided with other and equivalent lands, rights of way and easements, as provided in Sections one (1), two (2), six (6) and eight (8) of this instrument, and as more particularly described in Sections eleven (11), twelve (12), thirteen (13) and fourteen (14) herein, being no longer required for the use of the railroads of said parties, are hereby conveyed to the parties of the first and second parts, so and the rights of said parties of the third, fourth, fifth, seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth parts to the lands, rights of way and easements so vacated shall cease, and the parties of the first and second parts shall have full control, and use of the same and shall have the right, jointly or severally, to construct additional tracks thereon and within the limits thereof extended, over and across said subway, provided that the lowest point of the girder bridges necessary to carry the additional tracks above specified and of those described in Sections one (1), two (2), three (3) and four (4) herein shall be maintained at an elevation of not less than twenty (20) feet above City datum. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to give or grant to said parties of the third, fourth and fifth parts, or to either of them, any other or different right, title or interest in or easement over and upon the lands of the parties of the first and second parts now occupied by the railroads and tracks of said parties of the third, fourth and fifth parts as so relocated and reconstructed, than said parties respectively may have had in, over and upon the lands of the parties of the first and second parts which were occupied by the railroads and tracks of said parties of the third, fourth and fifth parts, prior to said relocation and reconstruction, and it is understood and agreed that nothing in this instrument is intended to or shall relieve any of the parties hereto from obligations heretofore assumed and now in force and binding upon them regarding interlocking or safety appliances at grade crossings or the use of tracks at such crossings wherever there are grade crossings under said plan, Exhibit "A".

16. That the said proprietors of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad shall convey to the Lake Shore Company and the Rock Island Company by a good and sufficient deed of conveyance that part of the land and right of way heretofore acquired for the tracks of the said St. Charles Air Line Railroad which by reason of the relocation and reconstruction of said tracks has been vacated, as shown on Exhibit B hereto attached; and contemporaneously therewith the Lake Shore Company and the Rock Island Company shall convey to the said proprietors of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad, by a good and sufficient deed of conveyance, the land and right of way for the tracks of the said St. Charles Air Line Railroad as they are now located and constructed, as shown on the aforesaid Exhibit A, and as the said land and right of way is shown on Exhibit C hereto attached and described in Section twelve (12) of this instrument, reserving to themselves, the said Lake Shore Company and the Rock Island Company, such easements and rights of way across the lands so to be conveyed as have been and are now enjoyed by them, the said Lake Shore Company and said Rock Island Company, since the elevation and reconstruction of their railroads, and also reserving to themselves, said Lake Shore Company and said Rock Island Company, all the easements, rights of way and rights and privileges which it is in this contract provided the said Lake Shore Company and Rock Island Company shall have, enjoy and maintain, and said conveyances shall be made subject to all the easements, rights of way and privileges so reserved.

17. That the Western Indiana Company shall convey to the Santa Fe Company by a good and sufficient deed of conveyance the lands and right of way for the tracks of the railroad of the said Santa Fe Company as they are now located and constructed between the east line of Clark Street and the west line of Dearborn Street, the northwesterly boundary line of the lands and right of way to be so conveyed being a line drawn midway between the most southerly main track of the railroad of the Western Indiana Company and the most northerly main track of the railroad of the Santa Fe Company, as said tracks are shown on said Exhibit A, and as the said lands and right of way are shown on Exhibit C hereto attached.

18. That the Santa Fe Company shall convey to the Madison and Northern Company by a good and sufficient deed of conveyance or by a lease for nine hundred and ninety-nine years (999) years the land and right of way for the tracks of the railroad of the said Madison and Northern Company as they are now located and constructed south of Sixteenth Street, as shown on Exhibit A, and as the said lands and right of way are shown on Exhibit C hereto attached.

19. That the masonry in the retaining walls, abutments and fences embraced in the work covered by this agreement shall be maintained by the several parties hereto as hereunder in this section provided, that is to say:

(a) The Western Indiana Company shall maintain the retaining walls designated by the letters B, C, D, E, I, Q, and R and the fences thereon, and abutments numbered I, III, VI, XI and XII, as shown on Exhibit A and as located and described on Exhibit D hereto attached.

(b) The Santa Fe Company shall maintain the retaining walls designated by the letters F, G, H, J, K, L and P-2 and the fences thereon, and the abutments numbered II, IV, V, VII, IX, X, XIII, XIV, XV and XVI, as shown on Exhibit A and as located and described on Exhibit D hereto attached.

(c) The Lake Shore Company shall maintain the retaining wall designated by the letter A and the fence thereon, as shown on Exhibit A and as located and described on Exhibit D hereto attached.

(d) The Lake Shore and Rock Island Companies shall maintain the retaining wall designated by the letter M-2 and the fence thereon, as shown on Exhibit A and as located and described on Exhibit D hereto attached.

(e) The Madison and Northern Company shall maintain the retaining walls designated by the letters N, S and T and the fences thereon, and that part of the abutment numbered VIII, situated on its right of way, as shown on Exhibit A and as located and described on Exhibit D hereto attached.

(f) The St. Charles Air Line Railroad shall maintain the retaining walls designated by the letters O, M-1 and P-1 and the fences thereon, and that part of the abutment numbered VIII, situated on its right of way, as shown on Exhibit A and as located and described on Exhibit D hereto attached.

And the parties so maintaining said retaining walls, abutments and fences, shall render bills monthly against the parties hereto for such proportion of the cost and expense of such maintenance as each of them has contributed to the cost of construction of said walls, abutments and fences, which proportion is shown on Exhibit D hereto attached and made a part of this agreement, and the parties against whom such bills are rendered shall promptly pay the same to the parties so maintaining such walls, abutments and fences.

That the retaining walls, abutments and fences referred to above in this section are located and described on said Exhibit D, and the percentages of the cost thereof to each of the parties hereto are also shown on said Exhibit.

20. The Lake Shore and Rock Island Companies shall maintain at their own cost and expense the iron or steel bridges, including the posts supporting them, which carry the elevated main tracks and the elevated joint switching tracks of said Companies over the depressed main tracks of the Western Indiana and Santa Fe Companies.

The proprietors of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad shall maintain at their own cost and expense the iron or steel bridges, including the posts supporting them which carry the elevated main tracks of said Air Line Railroad over the depressed main tracks of the Western Indiana and Santa Fe Company.

The Madison and Northern Company shall maintain at its own cost and expense the iron or steel bridges, including the posts supporting them, which carry the elevated main tracks of the railroad of said Company over the depressed main tracks of the Santa Fe Company.

That the posts supporting the iron or steel bridges which carry the elevated tracks of the railroads of the Lake Shore Company, the Rock Island Company, the Madison and Northern Company, and of the Air Line Railroad and the Clark Street Viaduct over the depressed tracks of the Western Indiana Company and the Santa Fe Company, shall be protected by the construction of walls of concrete masonry on the line of said posts longitudinally with the depressed tracks, and that the cost and expense of the construction and maintenance of the walls so provided for the protection of the posts supporting the bridges carrying the tracks of the elevated railroads shall be borne jointly by the companies benefited thereby, that is to say:

The Western Indiana Company and the Santa Fe Company shall pay one-half the cost of construction and maintenance of such protection walls under said railroad bridges; the Lake Shore and Rock Island Companies one-half of the cost of construction and maintenance of such protection walls under their said bridges; the Madison and Northern Company, one-half the cost of construction and maintenance of such protection walls under its bridges; and the proprietors of the St. Charles Air Line Railroad one-half of the cost of construction and maintenance of such protection walls under their bridges; the Western Indiana Company and the Santa Fe Company shall bear the entire cost and expense of constructing and maintaining the said protection walls under the Clark Street Viaduct, and the cost and expense hereby assumed by the last named Companies shall be borne two-thirds by the Western Indiana Company and one-third by the Santa Fe Company.

21. That Exhibit "B," hereto attached, shows the boundary lines of the lands, rights of way and easements of the Santa Fe Company, the Western Indiana Company, the Madison and Northern Company and the St. Charles Air Line Railroad as they were located prior to the first day of March, A. D. 1898.

22. That Exhibit "C," hereto attached shows the boundary lines of the lands, rights of way and easements of the Companies named in the preceding section as they are located, established and confirmed by the terms of this instrument.

23. And whereas, In order that the duties and obligations of all the parties hereto regarding the providing, maintaining and policing the several crossing frogs and switches made necessary and now in use in the elevated tracks of said parties at and near Sixteenth and Clark Streets in the City of Chicago, County of Cook and State of Illinois, shall be clearly understood and defined, the said crossing frogs are indicated by the letters, A, B, C, D, E, F, G, H, I, J, K, L, M, N, O, P, Q, R, S, T, U, V, W, X, Y, Z and AA, and the said switches are indicated by the figures 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11 on the plan hereto attached, marked Exhibit A, and it is further understood and agreed:

That the several crossing frogs and switches above specified shall be provided and maintained, and until such time as an interlocking plant shall be provided shall be policed in the manner as follows:

(a) That the Lake Shore Company shall provide, maintain and police those designated by the letters A, B, G and H. The Rock Island Company shall provide, maintain and police those designated by the letters C, D, E and F. And the Rock Island Company and the Lake Shore Company jointly shall provide, maintain and police those designated by the letters R, S, T and U, as shown on said Exhibit A.

(b) That the Madison and Northern Company shall provide, maintain and police those designated by the letters I, J, K, L, M, N, O, P, V, W, X and Y, as shown on Exhibit A.

(c) That the St. Charles Air Line Railroad shall provide, maintain and police those designated by the letters AA, Q and Z, as shown on Exhibit A.

That the switches hereinbefore mentioned shall be provided, maintained and policed as follows:

(d) The Rock Island Company shall provide, maintain and police that one numbered 11 on said Exhibit A.

(e) The Lake Shore and Rock Island Companies shall jointly provide, maintain and police those numbered 4 and 10 on said Exhibit A.

(f) The Air Line shall provide, maintain and police those numbered 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7 and 8 on said Exhibit A.

(g) The Western Indiana Company shall provide, maintain and police that one numbered 9 on said Exhibit A.

The exhibits hereinbefore referred to are hereto attached, authenticated by the signatures of the Chief Engineer or other duly authorized officer of each of the parties hereto and made a part of this agreement.

In witness whereof, The parties hereto have severally caused these presents to be subscribed in their names and behalf by their respective Presidents or Vice-Presidents, and their respective corporate seals duly attested to be hereunto affixed on the day and year first above written.

TRUST MORTGAGES

TRUST MORTGAGE, January 1, 1858.

ROBERT B. FORBES, J. N. A. GRISWOLD, AND EDWARD L. BAKER, Trustees.

This mortgage covers the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad (consisting of the Chicago and Aurora Railroad and the Central Military Tract Railroad, consolidated), subject to prior mortgages existing upon those roads, and secures an issue of bonds amounting to $5,000,000. These bonds are dated Jan. 1, 1858, have twenty-five years to run, and mature Jan. 1, 1883. Interest at the rate of eight per cent, payable semi-annually.

This Indenture, made this first day of January, A. D. 1858, between the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, a corporation duly constituted as such under the law of the State of Illinois, party of the first part, and Robert B. Forbes, of the city of Boston and State of Massachusetts; John N. A. Griswold, of the city of New York, State of New York; and Edward L. Baker, of New Bedford, in the State of Massachusetts, of the second part:—

Whereas, the said party of the first part, under the acts incorporating said company, have constructed and are operating a railroad from the junction of the Galena and Chicago Union Railroad (at a point about thirty miles from Chicago) to Galesburg, in the State of Illinois, a distance of about one hundred and thirty-nine miles to the point of junction with the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad, and have equipped the same with locomotives, tenders, passenger, baggage, and freight cars, for transaction of business between Chicago and Burlington, in the State of Iowa. And whereas, by reason of the large equipment required for said road, and other expenditures for depot grounds and other purposes, authorized by the various acts of the General Assembly of the State of Illinois, there exists a large floating debt which it is important to liquidate and pay off. And whereas, there exists a funded debt against the said company, which was created before the consolidation of the two companies which now compose the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company,—viz., the Chicago and Aurora Railroad Company and the Central Military Tract Railroad Company,—which said debt exists in the following form, viz.: six hundred and forty bonds of one thousand dollars each, of the said Chicago and Aurora Railroad Company, dated July 1, A. D. 1852, and payable July 1, A. D. 1867, and bearing interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum, and secured by a first mortgage on that part of the road of this company formerly known as the Chicago and Aurora Railroad; five hundred and twenty-three bonds, of one thousand dollars each, dated October 1, A. D. 1854, and payable October 1, A. D. 1869, bearing interest at the same rate, which said bonds are secured to be paid by a second mortgage on said road; eight hundred bonds, of one thousand dollars each, of the said Central Military Tract Railroad Company, dated July 1, A. D. 1852, payable July 1, A. D. 1864, bearing interest at the rate of seven per cent, and secured by a first mortgage on that part of the road of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company known formerly as the Central Military Tract Railroad; four hundred and fifty bonds of the Central Military Tract Railroad Company, of one thousand dollars each, dated May 1, A. D. 1854, and payable May 1, A. D. 1868, bearing interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum, and convertible into stock until May 1, 1864, and secured by a second mortgage upon the said road; seventeen bonds of the said Central Military Tract Company, dated April 1, A. D. 1854, and payable April 1, A. D. 1868, and bearing interest at eight per cent, payable semi-annually; and eighty-eight bonds of said company, dated March 1, A. D. 1856, and payable March 1, A. D. 1876, and bearing interest at the rate of eight per cent, and also convertible until March 1, 1866. And whereas, by an act of the General Assembly of the State of Illinois, passed February 8, 1854, the company is authorized to construct a branch from its main line, from the village of Aurora to and into the city of Chicago, and to acquire and hold depot and station grounds and such other lands as may be required for the business of the company in said city. And whereas, depot grounds of great value have been there acquired, and it may become not only expedient but of the highest importance to construct said road from Aurora into the city of Chicago. And whereas, it is desirable to consolidate the said debt and replace the bonds now out, and representing it, by bonds bearing the name and style of "Bonds of the Consolidated Company," and also to provide means of paying off the existing floating debt, and for the construction, when expedient, of said road into Chicago, and for other purposes. And whereas, to accomplish these things, the said company has resolved, at a meeting of the board of directors thereof, duly held for that purpose, on the twenty-third day of December, A. D. 1857, to raise money by loan for the payment of four hundred thousand dollars of said floating debt, and to provide for an issue of bonds for the same and for other the said purposes: and in order to secure the payment thereof, and also to provide a means by which the holders of the said bonds of the said Chicago and Aurora and the Central Military Tract Railroad Companies may substitute for them, at their option, bonds of the consolidated company, bearing date the first day of January, A. D. 1858, with interest at the rate of eight per cent, payable semi-annually in New York, and having twenty-five years to run to maturity, have further resolved to issue its bonds, of one thousand dollars each, dated January 1, A. D. 1858, and having twenty-five years to run to maturity, to such an amount as, with the present bonds existing and outstanding and above described, will make a total amount of (5) five millions of dollars, but of which only fourteen hundred and eighty-two bonds shall be offered for sale until the construction of said road into Chicago shall be undertaken; and twenty-five hundred and eighteen, say Nos. 1 to 2,518 inclusive, to be issued only as the holders of the bonds of the said Chicago and Aurora and Central Military Tract Railroad Companies may desire to exchange the outstanding bonds of those companies therefor, and are to be only issued and used and exchanged for the present existing bonds of those companies, or sold to pay the same as hereinafter provided; and the remaining one thousand bonds are to be issued for the construction of said road into Chicago when resolved upon. Provided, however, that if said road into Chicago should be constructed by other means, or if any of said outstanding bonds, which are convertible into stock, should be so converted, then the residue of such bonds herein provided to be issued may be issued and used for any such other purposes as may be determined by said corporation in the manner hereinafter provided. And said corporation has further resolved to execute a mortgage upon the road of the company, its depot grounds and equipments, of every nature and kind, to secure the payment of the bonds so made and issued or to be issued, and which said mortgage should be the only lien or incumbrance upon the property so mortgaged, except only the mortgages above mentioned and described, and which should be a first mortgage upon said road from Aurora into Chicago, and on the depot grounds at Chicago.

Now, therefore, this indenture witnesseth, that the said party of the first part, in order to secure the payment of the said bonds and interest, and in consideration of the sum of one dollar to them at the sealing and delivering of this instrument in hand paid by the said parties of the second part, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have granted, bargained, sold, transferred, and conveyed, and by these presents do grant, bargain, sell, transfer, and convey unto the said parties of the second part (who hereby accept the trust herein contained), and to the survivor or survivors, and successor or successors in the said trust or assigns, the following present and future to be acquired property of the said parties of the first part, pertaining to the said road, including said road, which is already or which may hereafter be constructed, and its appurtenances; the right of way and land occupied, acquired, and to be acquired thereby, together with the superstructure thereon, or to be constructed thereon, or procured therefor, inclusive of the iron rails, equipments, and superstructure purchased, or to be purchased therefor, bridges, viaducts, fences, depot grounds, and buildings thereon, including the depot grounds at Chicago, engines, tenders, cars, tools, machinery, contracts, and all other personal property, right thereto, or interest therein, together with the tolls and rents to be levied therefrom, and all the franchises, rights, or privileges of the said party of the first part, in and to and concerning the said road constructed or to be constructed, and its appurtenances, and said depot grounds; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the party of the first part from selling, hypothecating, or disposing of securities received in payment of stock or otherwise, or of lands or any other property of the said company, not necessary to be retained for their roadway or depot grounds, nor required for the construction or convenient use of said road; nor from collecting moneys due the company on stock subscription, or otherwise, provided they shall diligently proceed to collect and faithfully apply all such means to the proper construction and equipment of their said road, the fulfilment of their contracts, and the payment of the obligations hereby incurred; and provided also, that no default shall have been made in the payment of the interest of any of the above-described bonds.

To have and to hold the said premises, and every part thereof, with the appurtenances, unto the said parties of the second part, the survivor or survivors of them and assigns, upon the following trusts, that is to say: In case the party of the first part shall fail to pay the principal, or any part thereof, or any of the interest on any of the said bonds issued or to be issued under this indenture, at any time when the same may become due and payable according to the tenor thereof, when demanded, or shall neglect to set apart and apply the sinking fund as is hereinafter mentioned (provided the earnings of the road should be sufficient to pay the amount necessary for that object), then, after sixty days from such default, upon request of the holder or holders of any of such bonds, the said parties of the second part, the survivor or survivors, or the successor or successors of them in the said trust, or their assigns, shall have power to enter into and upon, and to take possession of all or any part thereof of the said railroad, and all and singular the property and effects hereby conveyed; and as the attorney in fact, or agent of the said party of the first part, by themselves or agent, or substitute duly appointed, to have, use, and employ the same, making from time to time all needful repairs, alterations, and additions thereto; and after deducting the expense of such use, repairs, alterations, and additions, and indemnifying themselves from all loss, damage, or liability arising in their management of said road, apply the proceeds thereof to the payment of the interest and principal of all said bonds remaining unpaid, whether the said bonds shall have fallen due or otherwise.

And the said parties of the second part, the survivor or survivors, successor or successors in said trust, and their assigns, in case of such default, at their or his discretion, may, or on the written request of the holders of at least one half of the bonds then unpaid, shall cause either the whole of said premises, or, at their discretion, so much thereof as shall be necessary to pay and discharge the principal and interest of all such said bonds as may then be unpaid as aforesaid, and whether the same have matured or otherwise, to be sold at public auction, in the city of New York, or in the city of Chicago in the said State of Illinois, giving at least sixty days' notice of the time, place, and terms of said sale by publishing the same in two daily newspapers in each of the cities aforesaid, and shall execute to the purchaser or purchasers a good and sufficient deed of conveyance, in fee simple, for the same, which shall be a bar against the party of the first part, their successors and assigns, and all persons claiming under them, of all rights, interests, or claims in or to said premises or property so sold and conveyed, or any part thereof. And it is further agreed, that at any sale as aforesaid of the whole or any part of the premises by the said trustees, they may, if they think it for the interest of the bondholders, become bidders and purchasers of the same, provided they shall not bid or pay therefor a sum that shall exceed the amount due, and to become due, to said bondholders, and upon such purchase, the premises which shall be sold shall be thenceforth held in trust for said bondholders in proportion to their respective debts or claims against said corporation.

And the said trustee or trustees shall, in case they do not buy the same for account of the bondholders as above provided, after deducting from the proceeds of said sale the cost and expenses thereof and of managing such property, apply so much of the proceeds as may be necessary to the payment, as aforesaid, of the said principal, and of the interest due or unpaid on said bonds, and shall restore and pay the residue thereof, if any there shall be, to the party of the first part; it being hereby expressly understood, that in no case shall any claim or advantage be taken of any valuation, appraisement, or extension laws, by said party of the first part, nor any injunction or stay of proceedings to be applied for or obtained by them, to prevent such entry or sale as aforesaid.

And it is hereby expressly understood and declared, that in case the said parties of the second part, their survivors or successors, should for any reason omit to avail themselves of any such neglect or default as aforesaid, of the party of the first part, that such omission shall not in any manner prejudice or impair the rights and remedies of the said parties of the second part, the survivor or survivors, successor or successors, or assigns, to avail themselves of any other or further neglect or default of the said party of the first part.

And the said party of the first part hereby covenants and agrees, for the consideration aforesaid, at any time or times hereafter, to execute and deliver any further reasonable and necessary conveyance of the premises, or any part thereof, to the parties of the second part, or to their survivors, successors, or assigns, for the more effectual vesting the premises hereby granted, or intended to be, in said parties of the second part, and for more fully carrying into effect the object hereof, particularly for the conveyance of any property subsequently to the date hereof acquired, by the party of the first part, and comprehended in the description contained in the premises as by the said party of the second part, the survivor, successor, or assigns, or their counsel learned in the law, shall be reasonably advised or required.

And the said party of the first part hereby covenants as aforesaid, that the money borrowed for the purpose aforesaid, upon the security of the said bonds, shall be faithfully applied in the manner and for the purposes aforesaid.

And the said party of the first part further covenants and agrees, for the consideration aforesaid, that for the further security of said bonds authorized to be issued hereunder, and secured hereby, they will annually, on the first day of January in every year, until the principal of said bonds shall be fully paid, set apart from the earnings of said road for the preceding year, after first paying the necessary expenses of running and maintaining said road, and deposit in such bank or other safe place of deposit as shall be designated by the parties of the second part, a sum of money that shall be sufficient, with the accumulation thereon at an interest of seven per cent annually, to pay the entire principal of the said amount of the fourteen hundred and eighty-two bonds to be issued under this mortgage for sale, on or before the maturity of said bonds, and all other bonds issued in exchange for others pursuant hereto, provided the same shall be so exchanged within five years from the date of this instrument, and on all bonds which may be issued for the construction of the said road from Aurora to Chicago, or for other purposes, as is provided herein; and that the said sinking fund or sum so set apart, as soon as practicable thereafter, shall be invested by the company, under the approval of said trustees, in the purchase of the bonds issued under this mortgage, for the payment of which said sinking fund shall be set apart, so long as the same can be purchased at or under ten per cent above par; and when they cannot be purchased at or under that price, then the said sum shall be invested in any of the bonds secured by mortgage, on any part of the property which can be purchased at the same or a less rate; or if neither can be purchased at that rate, then, at the discretion of said second parties and the said company, either in the said bonds of the company at the current rate, or in other securities; but such other securities shall, under the approval of said trustees, be resold whenever it can be advantageously done for the purpose of buying the said bonds of the company; and the said bonds and coupons of the company, when so purchased by the company, for the use of said sinking fund, shall, as soon as purchased, be cut and cancelled, and thereupon returned annually to said trustees, their survivors, successors, or assigns, to be retained by them.

And it is expressly understood, that the bonds of the company to be purchased for said sinking fund and cancelled shall be, upon notice published at least one month, inviting proposals from holders, for sale to the company for that purpose, and the lowest bid shall be accepted; said notice to be published both in Boston and New York newspapers.

It is hereby expressly declared, that this mortgage is made subject to the prior mortgages above described and stated, executed upon the Central Military Tract Railroad and the Chicago and Aurora Railroad, except as to the line to be constructed from Aurora to Chicago and its appendages, and the Chicago depot grounds not covered by said mortgage, and as to which this will be and is a first mortgage; but it also is expressly understood and agreed, that the holders of the bonds issued under those mortgages may at any time not less than one year before the maturity thereof, deliver them up to the company and receive in exchange therefor the bonds to be issued under this mortgage, which, for such as are now convertible into stock, shall be convertible for the period of ten years from the date hereof, in the same manner as in the existing bonds is prescribed for those which are convertible; and this agreement shall also apply to the said bonds of the companies (late so known) not secured by those mortgages, or either of them.

It is further understood and expressly agreed, by the parties hereto, that if all of the bonds secured by either or both of the said two second mortgages shall be cancelled, or surrendered up and exchanged, then either or both of the said second mortgages, respectively, shall be taken and deemed to be extinguished; and if the bonds, both of the first and second mortgages, shall be all converted, surrendered up, or exchanged, or become cancelled by purchase or otherwise, then both the said first and second mortgages shall be taken to be, and be extinguished, and the said bonds shall be secured to be paid by this mortgage alone, but in no other case.

It is, however, further in like manner agreed, that unless all of the bonds secured by the said second mortgages shall become thus extinguished, all those which shall be surrendered to the company, in exchange for bonds issued under this indenture, shall be held by the said trustees as collateral security for the bonds which shall be issued hereunder, and the said trustees shall be, to the extent of the bonds so exchanged, bondholders under the said second mortgages, but always in trust for the benefit of the holders of the bonds secured by this indenture. And in like manner, unless all the bonds, both of the said first and second mortgages, shall be extinguished or exchanged, then all the bonds under the said first mortgages which may be exchanged, as herein provided, for bonds under this mortgage shall be held by said trustees as collateral security, and they shall be the holders of said bonds; but as trustees as above provided, for the holders of bonds issued hereunder and for their benefit.

And all said bonds, both of the first and second mortgages, when so exchanged, shall be specially indorsed by the company before delivery to the said trustees, stating the said exchange and the purposes for which they are to be thenceforth held, and in such a way and manner that they can never thenceforth be negotiated or sold, or pass into the hands of any other parties in good faith so as in any manner to endanger their safety; it being the intention that the said first and second mortgages shall continue and remain valid and effectual securities for the payment of the moneys secured to be paid thereby, except in the sole case that the said bonds shall all, in the manner above mentioned, be surrendered and exchanged, or shall be so surrendered and exchanged, in such a manner and to such an extent that with those paid, the entire amount thereof shall have ceased to be outstanding: in which case all of said mortgages shall be deemed and taken to be extinguished, and this shall constitute the only mortgage upon the property herein described. And it is further agreed, that in case any of said outstanding bonds shall not, by the holders thereof, be exchanged for the new bonds hereby proposed to be issued, within the period hereinbefore set forth, being one year before their maturity, that thereupon the remaining bonds, intended as aforesaid for the purposes of said exchange, may be issued and disposed of by said corporation, to enable them to pay such outstanding bonds at maturity. And it is further expressly agreed and understood, that none of the bonds to be issued under this indenture shall be so issued and countersigned by the said trustees, until and unless they shall be satisfied that the same are required to be issued, according to the true intent of the provisions hereof; and further, that no part of said bonds, except those provided to be used in exchange for outstanding bonds, and for raising four hundred thousand dollars in money towards paying the floating debt, shall be issued or countersigned by said trustees, without the consent of a majority of the stockholders in interest at any annual meeting, or at any called meeting of the stockholders for the purpose, of which meeting at least six weeks' notice has been given, or the consent in writing of a majority of the stockholders in interest, after a circular has been sent out to the stockholders, stating the necessity for, and asking liberty to make such issue.

And it is expressly understood and agreed, that the bonds to the amount of one million of dollars, which are authorized to be issued under this mortgage, shall be applied solely and only to the construction of the road from Aurora to Chicago and its appurtenances, unless said road shall be built by other means, and that none of said bonds shall be issued or sold until it shall be deemed expedient to undertake said construction, and then specially for that purpose, unless said road shall be built by other means; in which event they may be issued and disposed of as hereinbefore provided.

And it is hereby mutually agreed, and these presents are upon this express condition, that on payment of principal and interest of all said bonds, the estate hereby granted to said second parties, their survivors, successors or assigns, shall be void, and the right of the premises hereby conveyed shall revert and revest in the party of the first part, without any acknowledgment of satisfaction, reconveyance, or any other act.

And it is mutually agreed, that the said parties of the second part shall only be accountable for gross neglect or wilful default in the management hereof, and shall not be responsible for the acts of each other, or of agents employed by them, when such agent is selected with reasonable discretion; that when bonds are exchanged, as herein contemplated, the new bond shall be countersigned by said parties of the second part, their successors or assigns, or a majority thereof, and that the parties of the second part shall be entitled to a reasonable compensation for any labor and service performed by them in the discharge of this trust.

And it is further agreed, by and between said parties, that whenever a vacancy among said parties of the second part, or their successors, shall occur, by death or resignation, or inability to discharge the duties of said trust, the remaining person or persons, parties of the second part, shall immediately proceed and make an appointment of a successor or successors from among the holders of said bonds or obligations, by indorsing such appointment, in writing, upon one part of this indenture; and the person or persons so appointed shall indorse his acceptance of such appointment upon this indenture, and thereupon such person or persons shall become one of the party or parties of the second part, with the same powers and duties as if he or they had been originally such parties of the second part; and the surviving or remaining parties of the second part shall, by appropriate instruments, vest in the party or parties so appointed the necessary legal estate and interest, to enable them to execute said trust. And in case said vacancy shall not be filled within sixty days from the occurrence thereof, by said remaining trustee or trustee, as aforesaid, then and thereupon such vacancy may be filled by the parties of the first part, from among the holders of said bonds, in the manner aforesaid, such bondholder or bondholders, so chosen as last aforesaid to fill such vacancy, to be the bona fide owner of not less than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) of said bonds at par.

All such resignations so made as aforesaid shall be in writing, indorsed hereon, or on a duplicate original copy hereof, and signed by the party so resigning; and any such disability certified hereon by the remaining trustee or trustees, and confirmed by the vote of the directors of the party of the first part, shall be taken and deemed to be conclusive in the premises.

And it is further mutually agreed, by the parties of these presents, that if in the event of the resignation or inability of either of said trustees, ascertained as aforesaid, and before the appointment and acceptance of a successor to such trustee, there shall remain two trustees, qualified to act, and it shall become necessary or expedient, in their judgment, that any act within the scope of the duty of said trustees should be performed, the same shall and may be performed by said two remaining trustees; and further, that in relation to all the duties herein provided to be performed by said three trustees, the same may, except where other provision is expressly made herein, be executed and performed by a majority of said trustees, after a meeting or consultation of all said trustees.

And the said parties of the second part do hereby severally accept the trust herein mentioned, and severally covenant faithfully to administer and execute the same.

In witness whereof, the said parties of the first part have caused the corporate seal of said company to be hereto affixed and to seven other original indentures of the same tenor in all respects, and the same to be signed by Isaac H. Burch, director, & one of the executive committee (John Van Nortwick, their president, being ill), and Amos T. Hall, their treasurer, both for that purpose duly authorized, the day and year first above written.

And the said parties of the second part have affixed their seals and signatures hereto, and to said seven other original indentures.

RELEASE, December 31, 1885, John N. A. Griswold, W. J. Ladd and Henry Parkman, Trustees, to Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company.

This Indenture, Made and entered into this thirty-first day of December A. D. 1885, by and between John N. A. Griswold of the city of Newport, and State of Rhode Island, and W. J. Ladd and Henry Parkman of the city of Boston and State of Massachusetts, successors in trust to Robert B. Forbes and Edward L. Baker, respectively, duly appointed such successors under and in accordance with the terms of the Trust Mortgage hereinafter mentioned, parties of the first part; and, The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, a corporation organized and existing under the Laws of the State of Illinois, party of the second part.

Witnesseth: That Whereas, on the First day of January, 1858, the said party of the second part executed to the said Robert B. Forbes, J. N. A. Griswold and Edward L. Baker, Trustees therein, its Trust Mortgage covering all the property of said Railroad Company in the State of Illinois, then owned or thereafter to be acquired including all the rights, privileges and franchises of said railroad Company, in and to the same, which said

Trust Mortgage secured an issue of Bonds of One Thousand Dollars each, to the total amount of Five Millions of Dollars, bearing date January First, 1858, running twenty-five years to maturity, bearing interest at eight per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, both principal and interest payable in the City of New York, and

Whereas, the party of the second part, has purchased, taken up and retired the entire issue of said five millions of bonds together with all of the coupons originally attached to the same and the entire indebtedness secured by said Trust Mortgage is fully paid and discharged, and the said Company has in all other respects fully complied with the provisions of said Trust Mortgage.

Now Therefore, the said parties of the first part for and in consideration of the sum of One Dollar to them in hand paid by the said party of the second part, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, have remised, released, quit-claimed and conveyed, and by these presents do remise, release, quit-claim and convey, unto the party of the second part, its successors and assigns, all the railroad, equipment, appurtenances and other property of said Railroad Company, situated, lying and being in the State of Illinois, which were conveyed and intended to be conveyed in Trust to said Forbes, Griswold and Baker by said Trust Mortgage, including right of way and land acquired thereby, together with the superstructure thereon and subsequently procured therefor, rails, bridges, viaducts, fences, depot grounds and buildings thereon, including the depot grounds at Chicago, engines, tenders, cars, tools, machinery, contracts and all other personal property, right thereto or interest therein, and all franchises, rights and privileges pertaining to said road and its appurtenances and said depot grounds in Chicago aforesaid, meaning and intending to release and convey hereby unto the said second party, its successors and assigns, all the railroad, premises, property, equipment, appurtenances and all other property, both real and personal, rights, privileges and franchises which were conveyed in Trust to said Forbes, Griswold and Baker by the Trust Mortgage herein above mentioned.

To Have and To Hold the same premises and every part thereof with the appurtenances, rights, privileges and franchises unto the said party of the second part, its successors and assigns, forever.

In Witness Whereof, the said John N. A. Griswold, W. J. Ladd and Henry Parkman as such trustees, have hereunto set their hands and seals on the day and year first above written.

TRUST MORTGAGE, September 1, 1860.THE CHICAGO, BURLINGTON AND QUINCY RAIL ROAD COMPANY
to

HANS REIMER CLAUSSEN, SIDNEY BARTLETT, AND CHARLES G. LORING, Trustees.

This mortgage covers the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad (subject to the mortgage of Jan. 1, 1858, for $5,000,000), and secures an issue of bonds amounting to $1,200,000. These bonds are dated July 1, 1860, have thirty years to run, bear interest at the rate of four and one half per cent for the first fifteen years, and thereafter at the rate of four per cent, payable semi-annually, and mature July 1, 1890.

This Indenture, made this first day of September, A. D. 1860, between the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, a corporation duly constituted as such under the laws of the State of Illinois, party of the first part, and Hans Reimer Claussen, of Davenport, in the State of Iowa, Sidney Bartlett and Charles G. Loring, of the city of Boston, State of Massachusetts, trustees of such bondholders of the first mortgage on the Northern Cross Railroad Company, who have entered or shall hereafter enter into an agreement bearing date June 4, 1860, hereinafter stated, parties of the second part:—

Whereas, in accordance with a special law, passed by the Legislature of the State of Illinois, for the benefit of the Chicago and Aurora, the Central Military Tract, and Northern Cross Railroad Companies, and approved January 16, 1855, and also agreeably to a general law passed by the Legislature of the State of Illinois, and approved February 12, 1855, for the purpose of aiding in the construction and operation of the Northern Cross road, an agreement was executed bearing date January 1, 1855, between the Northern Cross Railroad Company, of the first part, the Central Military Tract Railroad Company, of the second part, the Chicago and Aurora Railroad Company, of the third part, and John M. Forbes, John Eliot Thayer, and Louis A. von Hoffman, as trustees of the bondholders of the second mortgage on the Northern Cross Railroad, of the fourth part; by which agreement it was covenanted between said parties of the second, third, and fourth parts, that certain bonds issued by said parties of the first part, amounting to one million of dollars capital, and secured by a second mortgage on said Northern Cross Railroad, connecting at Galesburg with the two other roads above mentioned, should be purchased by each party of the second and third parts, from and after the first day of January, 1857, to the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars semi-annually, so long as said bonds can be purchased at par, upon certain terms and in manner as is more fully stated in said contract, to which reference is hereby made. And whereas, the said parties of the second and third parts, now legally consolidated under the name of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, have bought, in assumed compliance with said contract of January 1, 1855, of said Northern Cross second mortgage bonds, the amount of nearly two hundred thousand dollars. And whereas, the validity of said contract has been controverted by said company, and an injunction has been issued restraining the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company from buying any more bonds in accordance with said contract of January 1, 1855. And whereas, a compromise has been made with certain of the holders of said second mortgage Northern Cross Railroad Company's bonds, by which compromise the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company agrees to buy the bonds of said bondholders, who have consented, or will consent, to said compromise, made at Frankfort-on-the-Main, June 4, 1860, in the manner therein set forth.

Whereas, by such purchases, the said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company has acquired a right of redeeming the first mortgage created on said Northern Cross Railroad.

And whereas, the manner of purchasing or redeeming said first mortgage, and also of paying for the said second mortgage bonds has been agreed upon in said contract of June 4, 1860, between the representatives of the owners of certain of said bonds of the one part, and the Hon. Charles H.

Warren, as attorney in fact for the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, of the second part, which said contract of June 4, 1860, has been unanimously approved by the directors of said company, has also been ratified by a majority of all the stockholders of the same, in a meeting duly notified and held at Chicago, August 24, A. D. 1860, and is conceived in the following terms:—

“An agreement made this 4th day of June, 1860, between such holders of the first and such holders of the second mortgage bonds of the Northern Cross Railroad Company as become parties hereto, of the first part, and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, of the second part.

I. NORTHERN CROSS FIRST MORTGAGE.

§ 1. The party of the second part agrees to buy all the Northern Cross first mortgage bonds which are held by the bondholders parties hereto, at par of the principal, and to pay therefor in bonds of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, which bonds are to be payable in thirty years from the first July, 1860, with coupons attached. The interest on these bonds is to be paid half-yearly, and is to be as follows: for the first fifteen years, four and a half per cent per annum, and for the second fifteen years, four per cent per annum.

§ 2. These bonds are to be secured by a mortgage upon the said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road, which mortgage is to be for the sum of $1,200,000, the party of the second part stipulating that no bonds are to be issued under said mortgage excepting in exchange for first mortgage bonds of the Northern Cross Railroad; and further stipulating that the whole amount of mortgage debt of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road, and of the Central Military Tract Railroad, and of the Chicago and Aurora Railroad, united, having precedence of the mortgage hereinbefore agreed to be given, shall not exceed the sum of $5,000,000.

§ 3. On the first day of July, 1876, the party of the second part agree to pay the sum of $25,000, for the redemption of their said bonds at par, and thereafterwards at least the same sum semi-annually, for the like purpose; but the whole loan to be redeemed on or before the first July, 1890, agreeably to § 1,—these amounts, as well as the coupons of the new bonds, to be paid to Messrs. John Goll & Sons, in Frankfort, at fl. 2.24 kr. per dollar, and their receipts therefor are to be a full discharge to the mortgagors.

§ 4. All past due coupons of the first mortgage bonds on the Northern Cross Railroad are to be given up and delivered to the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road, except that they are to be held as collateral security with said bonds in the manner hereinafter provided.

§ 5. As collateral security for the payment of said bonds hereby agreed to be given, the present first bonds now holden by the parties hereto of the first part are to be deposited with the New York Life and Trust Company; and upon the failure of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road to comply with any of the conditions of this contract, said bonds are to be at the disposal of the present holders thereof, or their respective assigns or successors.

§ 6. As the coupons of the new bonds are paid, the depositary is to deliver to the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road the corresponding coupons of the bonds so lodged as collateral.

§ 7. The present trustees of the Northern Cross bondholders are not in any manner to interfere with any of the bonds so deposited, until a breach of this contract on the part of the party of the second part; and until such breach, the said party of the second part are to exercise all the rights of ownership of said deposited bonds, for the purpose of taking possession of said Northern Cross Railroad, of foreclosing the mortgage on the same if they deem it expedient, and for any other purpose not inconsistent with the security intended to be provided for by this contract.

§ 8. If the parties of the second part should, by any means, become the owners of the Northern Cross road, then they will issue their bonds, bearing an interest of 8 per cent, corresponding in time of payment with the old Northern Cross first mortgage bonds, and in amount with the new bonds hereinbefore provided for, then not redeemed,—which 8 per cent bonds are to be secured by a first mortgage on the Northern Cross road, and to be deposited as collateral security as aforesaid, in lieu of the old Northern Cross 8 per cent bonds. This first mortgage not to be more than required for this special purpose.

§ 9. Should the Northern Cross road be purchased by parties other than the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road, that portion of the purchase money which would be applicable to the bonds deposited as collateral security as aforesaid shall be paid to the trustees under the mortgage provided for in the first clause hereof, and be by them invested, and with its accumulations await the maturity of said bonds.

§ 10. If this purchase money should be less than thirty per cent of the new bonds mentioned in said first clause then unredeemed, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road will make up that amount by paying the difference to the trustees, to be invested as aforesaid.

§ 11. It is understood and hereby expressly agreed that any change of the proprietors of the Northern Cross road shall not alter or diminish any of the obligations of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road arising out of this contract.

§ 12. It is agreed that any vacancy occurring among the present trustees under the first and second mortgage of the Northern Cross road shall be filled by agreement between the remaining trustee or trustees and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road; or if they cannot agree, the depositary aforesaid shall fill said vacancy.

§ 13. As trustees under the new mortgage provided for in the first clause hereof, the bondholders shall appoint one, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road shall appoint one, and the two shall appoint the third; or if they cannot agree, the president of the said corporation named as depositary shall appoint the third.

§ 14. The validity of this contract is not to be affected by any outstanding claims against said Northern Cross road, even although such claims may have precedence of all mortgages thereon.

II. NORTHERN CROSS SECOND MORTGAGE.

§ 15. In regard to the holders of second mortgage bonds, parties hereto, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road stipulate and agree as follows: that instead of the $50,000 to be paid semi-annually to said second bondholders, according to the terms of the contract of January 1st, 1855, they will pay $25,000 semi-annually; the first payment to be made on the first of January, 1861. Said payment, and all subsequent ones, which are to be made on the first of January and first of July, are to be made to Messrs. John Goll & Sons, at the rate of exchange before named, and their receipt is to be in full discharge,—this sum of $25,000 to be paid if all the second bondholders become parties hereto, and pro rata to those who do become parties, if all do not; and these payments are to be made until the whole of the par of the second mortgage bonds held by the parties of the first part hereto are paid.

§ 16. All past due coupons ever attached to the said second mortgage bonds are to be delivered to the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road. (See § 18.)

§ 17. If for any reason this contract should be defective, or for any reason abrogated, or if the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road should fail to perform their part of it, then the second bondholders, parties hereto, are to be remitted to all their rights under the contract of January 1, 1855, without any prejudice to such rights from anything herein contained; and with this proviso, the said second bondholders, parties hereto, agree to such modification of said contract of January, 1855.

§ 18. As collateral security for the performance of this contract, the said second mortgage bonds and all their coupons now unpaid are to be deposited with the same depositary, and to be kept upon the same terms and conditions as those hereinbefore provided for in regard to the first; and in case the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road become the owners of the Northern Cross road, they are to give a new second mortgage thereon, and coupons (like § 8) to secure said bonds. This second mortgage is not to be more than is necessary for this special object.

§ 19. Should any bondholders not parties to this contract obtain, directly or indirectly, by reason of any voluntary agreement or bargain to be made by the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road, any better conditions than those hereby made with the parties hereto, for the same description of bonds, then the said road and its successors shall be bound in honor and in law to keep the parties hereto not worse off than the most favored bondholders of their class respectively.

§ 20. The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road shall not be held to be in default in regard to any payment provided for by this contract, till the expiration of thirty days from the time named for such payment; but if there be any delay, even for the thirty days, interest at the rate of six per cent per annum is to be paid by them.

§ 21. Should the said depositary resign that trust, or should the parties parties hereto desire to change said depositary, or should the trustees of the new bonds be of opinion that the interest of either party requires such change, then the said trustees may appoint a new depositary.

§ 22. In case of the dissolution of the firm of John Goll & Sons, the bondholders shall name some other person in Frankfort, to whom the payments hereinbefore provided for shall be made, in lieu of said Goll & Sons.

§ 23. As the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road makes payments of the new bonds to be issued as herein provided, a corresponding amount of the first bonds lodged as collateral, with coupons, is to be delivered to them, and until they are so delivered the said road shall not be obliged to make further payments. And as to the second mortgage bonds, before they shall be redelivered to the parties hereto in consequence of a failure of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road to fulfil this contract, all sums that shall have been paid shall be credited and indorsed on the bonds accordingly.

§ 24. The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road agree to make the following payments:—

a. To pay the balance due upon the former drawings of $200,000 of the second mortgage bonds, which is now in arrear.

b. To pay to John Goll & Sons $1,625 on account of expenses to which the second mortgage bondholders are subjected.

c. To pay the fees of the gentleman of the law who shall draw out a contract upon the basis hereby established (if such further instruments shall be deemed necessary by the parties of the first part).

§ 25. When this contract is finally executed, all the bonds held by the parties thereto are to be stamped or marked as follows: 'Subject to the contract of June the fourth, 1860.'

§ 26. The new bonds and coupons of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road are to be dated July first, 1860, and sent to John Goll & Sons on or before November first, 1860; whereupon they are to deliver to the depositary the present bonds, according to the foregoing agreement.

§ 27. No bondholders to be allowed to become a party to this agreement after the first of August next, except by the consent of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road.

§ 28. Whenever in this contract the Northern Cross Railroad is mentioned, the road now called the Quincy and Chicago road is intended.

§ 29. The first bondholders, parties hereto, hereby nominate and appoint Dr. H. R. Claussen, attorney at law, notary public and justice of the peace at Davenport, Iowa, as the trustee under the new bonds, to be named by them as provided in Article 13.

§ 30. The parties of the first part will, simultaneously with the execution hereof, give to Charles H. Warren, Esq., a list of the numbers of the bonds they represent.

In witness whereof, all the parties aforesaid have interchangeably set their hands to this German and English version hereof."

Now, therefore, this indenture witnesseth that the said party of the first part, in order to secure the payment of one million and two hundred thousand dollars principal, and interest thereon, or such part thereof as may belong to persons who have or may become parties to said contract of June 4, 1860, for the benefit of the bondholders of the first mortgage on the Northern Cross Railroad, and in consideration of the sum of one dollar paid at the sealing and delivering of this instrument by the said parties of the second part, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have granted, bargained, sold, transferred, and conveyed unto the said parties of the second part (who hereby accept the trust herein contained), and to the survivor or survivors, and successor or successors in the said trust or assigns, their railroad now in operation from the junction of the Galena and Chicago Union Railroad (at a point about thirty miles from Chicago), to Galesburg, in the State of Illinois, a distance of about one hundred and thirty-nine miles, to the point of the junction with the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad, with all the appurtenances now thereto belonging, and hereafter to be acquired, including the right of way and land occupied, acquired and to be acquired thereby, together with the superstructure thereon, or to be constructed thereon or procured therefor, inclusive of the iron rails, equipments, and superstructure purchased or to be purchased therefor, bridges, viaducts, fences, depot grounds and buildings thereon, including the depot grounds at Chicago, engines, tenders, cars, tools, machinery, and all other goods and chattels, right thereto or interest therein, and all the franchises, rights, and privileges of the said party of the first part in and to and concerning the said railroad, constructed or to be constructed, and its appurtenances and said depot grounds: but nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the party of the first part from selling, hypothecating, or disposing of land or any other property of the said company, not necessary to be retained for their roadway or depot grounds, nor required for the construction or convenient use of said road; nor from collecting moneys due the company: provided, that no default shall have been made in the payment of the interest and of the payments upon the principal due to the bondholders herein mentioned.

And it is distinctly agreed and understood that said railroad, property and estate, rights and franchises, of whatever nature, hereby conveyed, are subject to a mortgage heretofore made by said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company to R. B. Forbes, J. N. A. Griswold, and E. L. Baker, by indenture bearing date January 1, 1858, under which said railroad company have issued, and are authorized to issue hereafter, bonds or other obligations to the extent of five millions of dollars, for the purpose, among other things, of extinguishing prior mortgages upon said road made by the Central Military Tract and Chicago and Aurora Railroad Companies, and this conveyance is made subject to the right of said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company to issue said bonds for five millions of dollars: provided, that the amount of all the incumbrances on the road prior to this mortgage shall in no event exceed five millions of dollars, and provided also, that on the premises aforesaid no new incumbrance shall be created giving priority to this mortgage.

And it is understood and agreed that the bonds issued under this mortgage shall be countersigned by the trustees, or a majority of them.

To have and to hold the said premises, and every part thereof, with the appurtenances, unto the said parties of the second part, the survivor or survivors of them and assigns, upon the following trusts, that is to say: In case the party of the first part shall fail to pay the principal, or any part thereof, or any of the interest on any of the said bonds issued or to be issued under this indenture, at any time when the same may become due and payable, or any other interest due according to the said contract of June 4, 1860, then, after thirty days from such default, upon request of the holder or holders of any of such bonds, the said parties of the second part, the survivor or survivors, or the successor or successors of them in the said trust, or their assigns, shall have power to enter into and upon, and to take possession of all or any part thereof of the said railroad, and all and singular the property and effects hereby conveyed; and as the attorney in fact, or agent of the said party of the first part, by themselves or agent, or substitute duly appointed, to have, use, and employ the same, making from time to time all needful repairs, alterations, and additions thereto; and after deducting the expense of such use, repairs, alterations, and additions, and indemnifying themselves from all loss, damage, or liability arising in their management of said road, and their own reasonable compensation, apply the proceeds thereof to the payment of the interest and principal of all said bonds remaining unpaid, whether the said bonds shall have fallen due or otherwise.

And the said parties of the second part, the survivor or survivors, successor or successors in said trust, and their assigns, in case of such default, at their or his discretion, may, or on the written request of the holders of at least one half of the bonds then unpaid, shall cause either the whole of the said premises subject to said prior mortgages, or at their discretion so much thereof as shall be necessary to pay and discharge the principal and interest of all such said bonds as may then be unpaid as aforesaid, and whether the same have matured or otherwise, to be sold at public auction, in the city of New York, or in the city of Chicago, in the said State of Illinois, giving at least sixty days' notice of the time, place, and terms of said sale, by publishing the same in two daily newspapers in each of the cities aforesaid, and shall execute to the purchaser or purchasers a good and sufficient deed of conveyance, in fee simple, for the same, which shall be a bar against the party of the first part, their successors and assigns, and all persons claiming under them, of all rights, interests, or claims in or to said premises or property so sold and conveyed, or any part thereof. And it is further agreed that at any sale as aforesaid of the whole or any part of the premises by the said trustees, they may, if they think it for the interest of the bondholders, become bidders and purchasers of the same, provided they shall not bid or pay therefor a sum that shall exceed the amount due, and to become due, to said bondholders; and upon such purchase, the premises which shall be sold shall be thenceforth held in trust for said bondholders, in proportion to their respective debts or claims against said corporation, but subject to all expenses and compensation as aforesaid.

And the said trustee or trustees shall, in case they do not buy the same for account of the bondholders as above provided, after deducting from the proceeds of said sale the cost and expenses thereof, and of managing such property, and their own reasonable compensation, apply so much of the proceeds as may be necessary to the payment, as aforesaid, of the said principal, and of the interest due or unpaid on said bonds, and shall restore and pay the residue thereof, if any there shall be, to the party of the first part; it being hereby expressly understood that in no case shall any claim or advantage be taken of any valuation, appraisalment, or extension laws, by said party of the first part, nor any injunction or stay of proceedings to be applied for or obtained by them, to prevent such entry or sale as aforesaid.

And it is hereby expressly understood and declared that in case the said parties of the second part, their survivors or successors, should for any reason omit to avail themselves of any such neglect or default as aforesaid, of the party of the first part, that such omission shall not in any manner prejudice or impair the rights and remedies of the said parties of the second part, the survivor or survivors, successor or successors, or assigns, to avail themselves of any other or further neglect or default of the said party of the first part.

And the said party of the first part hereby covenants and agrees, for the consideration aforesaid, at any time or times hereafter, to execute and deliver any further reasonable and necessary conveyance of the premises, or any part thereof, to the parties of the second part, or to their survivors, successors, or assigns, for the more effectual vesting the premises hereby granted, or intended to be, in said parties of the second part, and for more fully carrying into effect the object hereof, particularly for the conveyance of any property subsequently to the date hereof acquired, by the party of the first part, and comprehended in the description contained in the premises, as by the said party of the second part, the survivor, successor, or assigns, or their counsel learned in the law, shall be reasonably advised or required.

And it is hereby mutually agreed, and these presents are upon this express condition, that on payment of principal and interest of all said bonds, the estate hereby granted to said second parties, their survivors, successors, or assigns, shall be void, and the right of the premises hereby conveyed shall revert and revest in the party of the first part, without any acknowledgment of satisfaction, reconveyance, or any other act.

And it is mutually agreed that the said parties of the second part shall only be accountable for gross neglect or wilful default in the management hereof, and shall not be responsible for the acts of each other, or of agents employed by them, when such agent is selected with reasonable discretion; and that the parties of the second part shall be entitled to a reasonable compensation for any labor and service performed by them in the discharge of this trust.

And it is further agreed, by and between said parties, that whenever a vacancy among said parties of the second part, or their successors, shall occur, by death or resignation or inability to discharge the duties of said trust, the remaining person or persons, parties of the second part, shall immediately proceed and make an appointment of a successor or successors, by indorsing such appointment, in writing, upon one part of this indenture, and the person or persons so appointed shall indorse his acceptance of such appointment upon this indenture, and thereupon such person or persons shall become one of the party or parties of the second part, with the same powers and duties as if he or they had been originally such parties of the second part; and the surviving or remaining parties of the second part shall, by appropriate instruments, vest in the party or parties so appointed the necessary legal estate and interest, to enable them to execute said trust. And in case said vacancy shall not be filled within sixty days from the occurrence thereof, by said remaining trustee or trustees, as aforesaid, then and thereupon such vacancy may be filled by the president of the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company, or the depository of said bonds.

All such resignations so made as aforesaid shall be in writing, indorsed hereon, and on the duplicate original copies hereof, and signed by the party so resigning; and any such disability certified hereon by the remaining trustee or trustees, and confirmed by the vote of the directors of the party of the first part, shall be taken and deemed to be conclusive in the premises.

And it is further mutually agreed, by the parties of these presents, that if in the event of the resignation or inability of either of said trustees, ascertained as aforesaid, and before the appointment and acceptance of a successor to such trustee, there shall remain two trustees qualified to act, and it shall become necessary or expedient, in their judgment, that any act within the scope of the duty of said trustees should be performed, the same shall and may be performed by said two remaining trustees; and further, that in relation to all the duties herein provided to be performed by said three trustees, the same may, except where other provision is expressly made herein, be executed and performed by a majority of said trustees, after a meeting or consultation of all said trustees.

And the said parties of the second part do hereby severally accept the trust herein mentioned, and severally covenant faithfully to administer and execute the same.

In witness whereof, the said parties of the first part have caused the corporate seal of said company to be hereto affixed, and to seven other original indentures of the same tenor in all respects, and the same to be signed by John Van Nortwick, their president, and Amos T. Hall, their treasurer, both for that purpose duly authorized, the day and year first above written.

And the said parties of the second part have affixed their seals and signatures hereto, and to said seven other original indentures.

JOHN VAN NORTWICK,
President.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

County of Suffolk, ss.

Be it remembered, that on this the twenty-fourth of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, before me, Benjamin H. Currier, a commissioner of the State of Illinois, duly appointed to take the acknowledgment and proof of deeds and other instruments to be recorded in said State of Illinois, and also to administer oaths, dwelling in the city of Boston, personally appeared John Van Nortwick, president, and Amos T. Hall, treasurer of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, personally known to me to be the president and treasurer of said company, and whose signatures are attached to the foregoing instrument as such president and treasurer, and being duly sworn, do depose and say, that they were president and treasurer of said company, respectively, at the date of the execution of the foregoing instrument, and are still such president and treasurer, respectively, and that said instrument was executed by and under a resolution of the board of directors of the said company, and that under and by virtue of said resolution, the seal of said company has been affixed to the said instrument by them, and that the seal thereto attached is the seal of said company, and that they did then and there acknowledge that the said seal was affixed thereto, and that the said indenture was executed and was delivered by the said company as aforesaid, acting through them by virtue of the said resolution, as the free act and deed of the said company, and for the uses and purposes therein expressed, and that the said seal is the seal of the said company, and that the said signatures are their signatures, as said president and treasurer, respectively, and that said instrument is the deed of said company.

In witness whereof, I have hereto set my hand and official seal, as such commissioner, at my office, in Boston, in the county of Suffolk and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, on this twenty-fourth of September, A. D. 1860.

TRUST MORTGAGE, November 1, 1864.

to

NATHANIEL THAYER, SIDNEY BARTLETT, AND JOHN W. BROOKS, Trustees.

This mortgage covers the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad, and secures an issue of bonds amounting to $1,500,000. These bonds are dated Oct. 1, 1864, have twenty-six years to run, bear interest at the rate of seven per cent, payable semi-annually, and mature Oct. 1, 1890.

Whereas, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company and the Peoria and Burlington Railroad Company have in accordance with the provisions of law consolidated their stock, property, and effects, and become one corporation under the corporate name of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company. And whereas, by said consolidation the said company has become the proprietor and owner of the railroad extending from the westerly bank of the Illinois River at Peoria, in the State of Illinois, to the easterly bank of the Mississippi River, formerly belonging to the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company, and known as the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad.

And whereas, by virtue of the laws of the State of Illinois, and especially by virtue of the act authorizing the purchasers of the Peoria and Oquawka road, as above described, under the decree foreclosing the mortgage upon the same, to form a new corporation for the management of the same, and to consolidate its stock, property, and effects when so organized with any road with which it might connect or intersect, it is expressly authorized to issue its bonds to raise money for the payment of obligations made and entered into in acquiring the title of and to the same, and for the purpose of repairing, putting in order, reconstructing the same when necessary, and fully equipping the same, and for other necessary purposes.

And whereas, for all these purposes it may become requisite to issue bonds to an amount which shall not exceed in all the sum of fifteen hundred thousand dollars. And whereas, it has been resolved to issue presently some portion of said amount, all of which may be ultimately issued. And whereas, it has been resolved that the said bonds shall be in amount one thousand dollars each, and shall bear interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum, and payable both principal and interest in the city of New York, and coming to maturity on the first day of October, A. D. 1890, and bear date the first day of October, A. D. 1864; and to execute a mortgage or deed of trust to secure the punctual payment of the principal and interest of said bonds upon the said railroad from the Illinois River to the Mississippi River, as above described, together with all its appurtenances of every nature and kind.

Now, therefore, this indenture, made and entered into this first day of November, A. D. 1864, by and between the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, party of the first part, and Nathaniel Thayer and Sidney Bartlett, of Boston, and John W. Brooks, of Milton, all in the State of Massachusetts, as trustees for the purposes herein stated,— Witnesseth, that the said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, by virtue of the authority aforesaid, in order to secure the punctual payment of the said bonds and interest, and in consideration of the sum of one dollar to it paid at the ensealing and delivery of these presents, the receipt whereof is hereby confessed, has granted, bargained, sold, transferred, and conveyed, and by these presents does grant, bargain, sell, transfer, and convey to the said parties of the second part, and their successors in the trust hereby created, all of the following-described property of the said party of the first part, that is to say: all of that part of its line of railroad extending from the westerly bank of the Illinois River at Peoria to the easterly bank of the Mississippi River at East Burlington, including the right of way and the land occupied thereby, station grounds, depot grounds, together with all the superstructures and tracks thereon, and all bridges, viaducts, culverts, fences, and all other appurtenances thereto belonging, of every nature and kind, together with the revenue, earnings, and proceeds thereof, and all the franchises, rights, and privileges of said party of the first part appertaining and belonging thereto. But nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the first party from selling any lands or other property not necessary to be retained at any time for its roadway or depot or station grounds, nor required for the convenient use of the said road; provided, that no default shall be made or shall have been made in the payment of the interest or principal of any of the above-described bonds.

To have and to hold the said premises and every part thereof, with the appurtenances, unto the said parties of the second part, their successors in the said trust and assigns, but upon the express trust following, that is to say: in case the said parties of the first part shall fail to pay the principal or any part thereof, or the interest or any part thereof, of any of the said bonds at any time when the same may become due and payable according to the tenor thereof, when the same shall be demanded, then after sixty days from such default, the parties of the second part or their successors in said trust may, and on the application of the holders of one fifth of such unpaid bonds it shall be their duty to, enter into and take possession of all or any part of said premises, and as the attorneys in fact, or agent of said parties of the first part, by themselves or agents or substitutes duly constituted, have, use, and employ and operate the same, making from time to time all needful repairs, alterations, and additions thereto; and after deducting the expenses of such use, repairs, alterations, and additions, apply the proceeds thereof to the payment of the principal and interest of all said bonds remaining unpaid. Or the said parties of the second part, their successors in said trust, at their discretion may, and on the written request of the holders of one fifth of the number of said bonds then unpaid shall cause the said premises to be sold at public auction in the city of New York or Boston or Chicago,—giving notice thereof, and of the time and place of such sale, and the terms thereof, and the specific property to be sold, in one of the principal daily newspapers published in each of said cities, for the period of at least six weeks before said sale,—and upon such sale to execute to the purchaser or purchasers thereof a good and sufficient deed of conveyance in fee simple for the same, which shall be a bar against the party of the first part and their successors and assigns, and all persons claiming under them, of all right, title, interest, and claim in and to the said premises, and every part thereof; and the said trustees shall, after deducting from the proceeds of the said sale the costs and expenses thereof, and of managing said property, apply so much of the proceeds as may be necessary to the payment of said principal and interest due and unpaid on the said bonds, and shall restore the residue thereof to the parties of the first part: it being expressly understood that in no case shall any claim be made for the benefit of, nor any advantage be taken of, any valuation, appraisement, or extension laws, whether now existing or hereafter to be passed, by the party of the first part to prevent such entry or sale, or to prevent a sale under any decree, or to prevent any decree being made by any court of proper jurisdiction for the absolute sale of said property under and by virtue of such decree, without any right or period or term for redemption on such sale.

And the parties hereby covenant, for the considerations aforesaid, to execute and deliver any further reasonable and necessary conveyance of the premises, or any part thereof, to the parties of the second part, their successors and assigns in the said trust, for the more fully carrying into effect, particularly for the conveyance of any property hereafter acquired in connection with the said road, and for the proper accommodation of its business, and not comprehended in the description contained in this instrument.

And it is further mutually agreed that upon the full payment of said bonds and interest, the estate hereby granted shall cease and become void; the said granted premises shall revert and revest in the party of the first part in law and in fact, without any acknowledgment of satisfaction, reconveyance, re-entry, or any other act.

And it is further mutually agreed that the said second parties, their successors in said trust, and assigns, shall be entitled to receive proper compensation for every labor or service performed by them in the discharge of their trust, in case they shall be compelled to take possession of said premises or any part thereof, and operate and manage the same.

And it is further mutually agreed that it shall not be required that all shall act together in the discharge of their trust, but that at any time a majority of their number shall be competent to do any act or discharge any duty connected with said trust.

And it is further agreed, by and between said parties, that whenever a vacancy among said parties of the second part or their successors shall occur by death or resignation or inability to discharge the duties of said trust, the remaining person or persons, parties of the second part, shall immediately proceed and make an appointment of a successor or successors from among the holders of said bonds or obligations, by indorsing such appointments in writing upon one part of this indenture, and the person or persons so appointed shall indorse his acceptance of such appointment upon this indenture, and thereupon such person or persons shall become one of the party or parties of the second part, with the same powers and duties as if he or they had been originally such parties of the second part, and the surviving or remaining parties of the second part shall by appropriate instruments vest in the party or parties so appointed the necessary legal estate and interest to enable them to execute said trust; and in case said vacancy shall not be filled within sixty days from the occurrence thereof by said remaining trustee or trustees, as aforesaid, then and thereupon such vacancy may be filled by the parties of the first part from among the holders of said bonds in the manner aforesaid: such bondholder or bondholders so chosen as last aforesaid to fill such vacancy to be the bona fide owner of not less than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) of said bonds at par.

And it is further agreed that the bonds to be issued under this mortgage shall be executed by the properly authorized officers of the party of the first part, and signed also and countersigned by the said trustees, or a majority of them; and further, inasmuch as all may not be issued at the same time, it is expressly provided and agreed that all the bonds which may be at any time issued under this mortgage or deed of trust shall be equally secured thereby, none having preference or priority over others, whatever may be the priority of time at which they may be issued or made and delivered or sold.

And it is further understood and agreed that the said trustees and their successors, in case it should ever become necessary to enter upon and take possession of the property herein described upon the trusts hereby created, inasmuch as they must appoint agents for that purpose, shall not be liable for any act or negligence or default of such agent, but only for reasonable care and caution in the selection and appointment of a suitable and proper person for the management and care of said property.

In witness whereof, the said parties of the first part have caused the corporate seal of said company to be hereto affixed, and the same to be signed by John Van Nortwick, their president, and Amos T. Hall, their treasurer, both for that purpose duly authorized, this first day of November, A. D. 1864.

And said parties of the second part have affixed their seals and signatures hereto.

TRUST MORTGAGE, July 1, 1873.

to

SIDNEY BARTLETT, JOHN W. BROOKS, AND H. H. HUNNEWELL, Trustees.

This mortgage covers (subject to certain prior mortgages) the main line of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad, and its branches in Illinois, viz.: the Ottawa, Oswego and Fox River Valley Railroad, the Chicago and Rock River Railroad, the Illinois Grand Trunk Railway, the Dixon, Peoria and Hannibal Railroad, the Peoria and Hannibal Railroad, the American Central Railway, the Quincy and Warsaw Railroad, the Carthage and Burlington Railroad, and also the Keokuk and St. Paul Railroad in Iowa; and secures an issue of bonds amounting to $30,000,000. These bonds are dated July 1, 1873, have thirty years to run, bear interest at the rate of seven per cent currency, or six per cent gold, payable semi-annually, and mature July 1, 1903.

(These bonds are issued in part to fund the indebtedness secured by the prior mortgages on the main line and branch roads.)

This Indenture of Mortgage, made this first day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three (1873), by and between the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, a corporation created and organized by and in conformity to the laws of the State of Illinois, of the first part, and Sidney Bartlett, John W. Brooks, and H. H. Hunnewell, of Boston, in the State of Massachusetts, trustees, for the uses and purposes and upon the terms and conditions hereinafter stated, of the second part, witnesseth:—

That whereas, the said party of the first part is authorized, by its charter and amendments thereto, and the laws aforesaid, to execute trust mortgages of its railroad and branches, and its franchises connected therewith, and of its other property, real, personal, and mixed, to secure the payment of bonds issued for the objects and purposes hereinafter set forth.

And whereas, said first party has outstanding bonds differing in dates, times of maturity and rate of interest, and secured by three several trust mortgages on different parts of its railroad, that is to say: twenty-five hundred and ninety-two (2,592) eight per cent inconvertible, and one hundred and fifty (150) eight per cent convertible sinking-fund bonds, each for the sum of $1,000, maturing January first, A. D. 1883, of the date of January first, A. D. 1858, and secured by a trust mortgage executed by the company on that part of its railroad, franchises, and appurtenances connected therewith, extending from its junction with the Galena and Chicago Union (now the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad), to Galesburg, and from Chicago to Aurora, in all one hundred and seventy-seven (177) miles, and amounting in all to two million seven hundred and forty-two thousand dollars ($2,742,000).

Also five hundred and ninety-three (593) bonds of one thousand dollars each, and six hundred and ninety-six bonds of five hundred dollars each, all of the date of July first, A. D. eighteen hundred and sixty (1860), payable in gold in thirty (30) years from their date, at Frankfort-on-the-Main, at the rate of four and one half ($4\frac{1}{2}$) per cent interest to July first, eighteen hundred and seventy-five (1875), and at four (4) per cent from that date to July first, A. D. eighteen hundred and ninety (1890), payable semi-annually at Frankfort-on-the-Main, in all amounting to nine hundred and forty-one thousand (\$941,000) dollars, and which bonds are secured by the second mortgage of the company on its railroad, franchises, and appurtenances, from the junction aforesaid to Galesburg, one hundred and thirty-nine (139) miles; also six hundred and eighty (680) seven per cent bonds of one thousand dollars (\$1,000) each, of the date of October first, A. D. eighteen hundred and sixty-four (1864), maturing October first, A. D. eighteen hundred and ninety (1890), secured by a first trust mortgage dated November first, A. D. eighteen hundred and sixty-four (1864), executed by the company on that part of its railroad, franchises, and appurtenances therewith connected, extending from Peoria to Burlington, a distance of ninety-six (96) miles, and amounting to six hundred and eighty thousand (\$680,000) dollars.

Also certain bonds not secured by mortgage, dated January first, A. D. eighteen hundred and seventy-two (1872), maturing January first, A. D. eighteen hundred and ninety-six (1896), with interest at the rate of seven (7) per cent, interest payable semi-annually at the office of the company in the city of Boston, Massachusetts, and amounting to seven millions and twenty-two thousand dollars ($7,022,000).

And whereas, aside from its bonds aforesaid, the said first party is indebted for the balance of moneys on account of the purchase of the Northern Cross Railroad made in April, A. D. eighteen hundred and sixty-four (1864), of which there are six semi-annual instalments, not yet matured, of twenty-one thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars ($21,750) each, amounting to one hundred and thirty thousand five hundred dollars ($130,500), and are also indebted in the balance to be paid Northern Cross bondholders when called for, two hundred fifty-six thousand two hundred and seven dollars ($256,207), and also a balance due on account of construction and equipment, now in the form of floating indebtedness, amounting to one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000), in all one million nine hundred sixteen thousand seven hundred and seven dollars ($1,916,707); and there should also be purchased certain bonds to keep good the sinking fund under existing mortgages.

And whereas, said first party is also by contract under contingent liability annually to purchase, at the lowest price at which they may be had, at not above par and accrued interest, bonds issued by corporations, by the proceeds of which its several branch roads in part were constructed, to the extent of the fund which may be created by setting aside about forty (40) per cent of the gross earnings on its road upon the business to and from said branch roads.

The branch bonds now outstanding to which this contingent liability attached are in amount and character as follows:—

Those issued by the American Central Railway Company, in amount seven hundred and thirty-six thousand dollars ($736,000);

By the Dixon, Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company, eight hundred thousand dollars ($800,000);

By the Illinois Grank Trunk Railway, nine hundred and sixty thousand dollars ($960,000);

By the Keokuk and St. Paul Railroad Company, one million dollars ($1,000,000);

By the Ottawa, Oswego and Fox River Valley Railroad Company, twelve hundred and sixty thousand dollars ($1,260,000);

By the Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company, six hundred thousand dollars ($600,000);

By the Quincy and Warsaw Railroad Company, eight hundred thousand dollars ($800,000);

By the Carthage and Burlington Railroad Company, six hundred thousand dollars ($600,000),—making in the aggregate six million seven hundred and fifty-six thousand dollars ($6,756,000).

All of which said branch bonds bear interest at the rate of eight (8) per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, and are secured by trust mortgages, executed by the said several companies issuing said bonds upon the railroad, franchises, and property at the date thereof owned by said companies respectively.

And whereas, the rapid increase of the traffic and business of the company has hitherto demanded and will in the future require from time to time extensions of double track, the substitution of steel for iron rails, and additional equipment, and that other the facilities of the company for the transaction of its business should be enlarged and increased, the cost and expense of all which it is deemed important to anticipate and provide for.

And whereas, it is desirable to fund all said several classes of absolute indebtedness into bonds of one class as nearly uniform in character as may be, to be secured by a single mortgage, and also with bonds of the same class and like character secured by the same mortgage to provide for such contingent liability, and for defraying the cost of construction incurred, and to be required by the exigencies of the company and the increase of its business as hereinbefore stated; and for this purpose the said company accordingly resolved at a meeting of its board of directors duly called and held at Boston, on the twenty-sixth (26th) day of June, A. D. 1873, to issue its bonds in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000) each, not to exceed in the aggregate thirty millions dollars ($30,000,000), dated July first, A. D. eighteen hundred and seventy-three (1873), to have thirty (30) years to run to maturity, to be payable, both principal and interest, at the office of said company in the city of Boston, Massachusetts, to bear interest at the rate of seven (7) per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, both principal and interest, in currency, or at the rate of six (6) per cent per annum, payable semi-annually in gold, both principal and interest, either or both kinds of which said bonds to be issued and used as said company may from time to time determine to be for its interest, and for the purposes aforesaid, in such order and at such times as that in no case shall there be outstanding at any time hereafter, of such bonds, an amount which, together with the then existing outstanding bonds shall exceed in amount the aforesaid sum of thirty millions dollars ($30,000,000); all of which said bonds are to be of the same date, though issued at different times, and are to stand equally secured by this trust mortgage, and are as to each class to be numbered consecutively from No. 1 to the highest number which may be issued, inclusive; each of which said bonds is to be authenticated by a certificate thereon signed by at least two of the three trustees in this trust mortgage.

Now, therefore, this indenture witnesseth: That the said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, party of the first part, in order to secure the payment of its said bonds and the interest thereon, and in consideration of the sum of five dollars ($5) to it in hand paid by said parties of the second part, at the ensembling and delivery of these presents, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, has granted, bargained, sold, transferred, and conveyed, and by these presents does grant, bargain, sell, transfer, and convey to the said parties of the second part, their survivors and successors in said trust and assigns, all the following described property, to wit: all the present and in future to be acquired property of said railroad company, party of the first part, in and relating to its said railroad, and all the right, title, interest, and equity of redemption therein, that is to say: all the main line of railroad of said first party, now made and to be made, constructed and to be constructed, extending from Chicago to Quincy, from Peoria to Burlington, from Yates City to Lewistown, and from Turner Junction to Aurora, in all four hundred (400) miles; and also all the right, title, and interest of said party of the first part in and to its several branch roads situated within the State of Illinois and its Keokuk branch in Iowa, including its leasehold interests therein; to wit,—

Its branch road known as the Ottawa, Oswego and Fox River Valley Railroad, extending from Geneva to Streator;

The branch known as the Chicago and Rock River Railroad, extending from Shabona Grove to Rock Falls;

The branch known as the Illinois Grand Trunk Railway, extending from Mendota to the Mississippi River at East Clinton;

The branch known as the Dixon, Peoria and Hannibal Railroad, extending from Buda to Elmwood;

The branch known as the Peoria and Hannibal Railroad, extending from Lewistown to Rushville;

The branch known as the American Central Railway, extending from Galva to New Boston and Keithsburg on the Mississippi River;

The branch known as the Quincy and Warsaw Railroad, extending from Quincy to Carthage;

The branch known as the Carthage and Burlington Railroad, extending from Carthage to East Burlington,—all situated in the State of Illinois; and also,

The branch known as the Keokuk and St. Paul Railroad, extending from Keokuk to Burlington in the State of Iowa.

Said branch roads in all amounting to four hundred twenty-five and one quarter ($425\frac{25}{100}$) miles, of which said branch roads the said party of the first part is the lessee for ninety-nine (99) years, nine hundred and ninety-nine (999) years, or in perpetuity, and is the owner of the whole or the large majority of the stock in the companies by which said branch roads were respectively constructed, including herein the rights of way of said main line and branches, and all second and side tracks, of which there are 199 miles, the road beds, superstructures, iron ties, chairs, splices, bolts, nuts, spikes; all the lands, depot grounds, station houses, depots, viaducts, fences, bridges, timber, and materials, property purchased or to be purchased for the construction of said main line and branches and each of them; all the engines, tenders, cars, and machinery, all other kinds of rolling stock of said party of the first part, now owned or that may hereafter be acquired by it for or to be used on said main line or branches; all the revenues and income of the said main line and branches; all the rights, privileges, and franchises of said first party relating to said main line of railroad and to the branches thereof, or any of them, and property acquired by virtue thereof, now in possession or which may hereafter be acquired, including all machine shops, implements, and tools contained therein, or along the line of said railroads, although the same may not be herein specifically mentioned.

To have and to hold the said main line of railroad and branches, and each of them, and other the property above mentioned, or intended to be, all and singular the said premises and every part thereof, with the appurtenances, unto the said parties of the second part, the survivors or the survivor of them, and their successors in said trust and assigns; but for the following purposes and upon the following express trust, that is to say:—

In case the said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company shall fail to pay the principal or any part thereof, or any of the interest on any of the bonds secured or intended to be secured hereby, at any time when and where the same may become due and payable according to the tenor thereof, and for sixty (60) days thereafter, then and in such case, at the written request of the holders of one sixth ($\frac{1}{6}$) of said bonds, the said parties of the second part, their successors in said trust or assigns, may, upon being indemnified by said parties, enter into and take possession of all and singular the main line of said railroad and branches, and all other the property hereby conveyed or intended to be conveyed, and as attorneys in fact or agents of said first party, by themselves or their agents duly constituted, have, use, and employ the same, making from time to time all needful repairs, alterations, and additions thereto, and indemnifying themselves from loss, damage, or liability arising from the management of said trust, apply the proceeds of said railroad, branches, and other the property hereby conveyed, to the payment of the principal and interest of all such of said bonds as may at that time remain unpaid, whether the same have matured or otherwise; or said second parties, their survivors or successors in said trust or assigns, at their discretion may, and on the written request of the holders of one thirtieth ($\frac{1}{30}$) of said bonds then unpaid, shall, upon being indemnified by the said parties, cause the same premises to be sold at public auction at Chicago in the State of Illinois, after giving sixty (60) days' notice of the time and place and terms of such sale, by publishing the same at least four times in each week in one or more of the principal newspapers for the time being published in each of the cities of New York, Chicago, and Boston, and upon such sale to execute to the purchaser or purchasers thereof a good and sufficient deed or deeds of conveyance in fee simple for all the property held by said company under such title, and a suitable and effective conveyance and assignment for all leaseholds and other the property held by said company and sold by said second parties, which conveyances shall be a bar against the said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, party of the first part, its successors and assigns, and all persons claiming under it or them, of all right, title, interest, or claim in or to said premises or any part thereof; and the said trustees shall, after deducting from the proceeds of such sale the cost and expense thereof and of managing said property, and enough to indemnify and save themselves harmless from and against all liabilities arising from this trust, apply and appropriate so much of the proceeds of said property as may be necessary to the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds then remaining unpaid, whether the same may be then due and payable or otherwise, and shall restore the residue thereof to said party of the first part, its successors and assigns: it being expressly understood and agreed that in no case shall any claim be made or advantage taken of valuation, appraisement, redemption, or extension laws by said first party, its successors or assigns, nor any injunction or stay of proceedings be prayed for or had, or any process be obtained or applied for by it or them to prevent such entry, sale, and conveyance as aforesaid.

It is also expressly understood and declared that in case said parties of the second part, their survivors or successors in said trust or assigns, shall for any reason omit to avail themselves of any such default as aforesaid, such omission shall not prejudice or impair the rights or remedies of said parties of the second part, their survivors or successors in said trust or assigns, to avail themselves of any other or further neglect or default of said first party. Nor shall the above remedies for default exclude the parties of the second part from any other legal or equitable remedies in the premises.

And said first party, for itself and its successors, hereby covenants and agrees to execute and deliver any further reasonable and necessary conveyance and assignment of said premises, or any part thereof, to said parties of the second part, their survivors or successors in said trust or assigns, which counsel of the trustees of the second part at any time may advise for the more effectual vesting the title to the property hereby granted or intended to be conveyed to said parties of the second part, their survivors or successors and assigns, and for more fully carrying into effect the objects and purposes of these presents.

It is hereby expressly understood and declared that this trust mortgage is made subject to prior mortgages hereinbefore mentioned, executed by said first party on the main line of its road as hereinbefore stated, and is also subject to said several mortgages executed by said several branch railroad companies hereinbefore also mentioned, and the said several liens thereby created, securing the bonds respectively issued under said mortgages.

It is hereby also mutually agreed and understood that it shall be lawful for said party of the first part, its successors and assigns, to dispose of the current net revenues of said railroads and property hereby conveyed as it or they shall deem proper, until default shall be made in the payment of the principal or interest of the bonds hereby secured or any part thereof; and that upon the full and final payment of the principal and interest of said bonds issued under and secured by this instrument, the estate hereby granted to said parties of the second part shall be void, and the right and title to the premises and property hereby conveyed shall revert to and revest in said party of the first part, its successors and assigns, without any acknowledgment, satisfaction, reconveyance, re-entry, or other act.

The said party of the first part hereby covenants that all the bonds issued under this trust mortgage and the proceeds thereof shall be used and appropriated for the objects and purposes herein mentioned, and not otherwise.

It is expressly understood and agreed that of said bonds the amount of twenty millions of dollars thereof shall be set aside and held by the parties of the first part, and they and the proceeds thereof shall be used and appropriated exclusively and only for the funding, paying off, and discharging the bonded and other indebtedness of the said first party, its said contingent liabilities hereinbefore mentioned, and to keep good said sinking fund, and that of said twenty millions of such bonds, so many thereof as may be required for that purpose may be exchanged at par for said seven (7) per cent bonds of said first party, dated January first (1st), A. D. eighteen hundred and seventy-two (1872), and payable January first (1st), A. D. eighteen hundred and ninety-six (1896), heretofore issued and now outstanding, and the holders thereof shall have the right to make such exchange at the office of said first party in the city of Boston, at any time after the execution and delivery hereof; all of which said outstanding seven per cent bonds, when so exchanged and taken up by said first party, shall be cancelled by said first party, who shall cause to be written on the face of the same the date of such exchange.

It is also hereby mutually agreed and understood that said party of the first part may use, of said twenty millions of dollars of bonds or the proceeds thereof, so many or so much thereof as may be required from time to time to discharge its contract, obligations, and liabilities hereinbefore mentioned, in exchange for or to purchase the said so-called branch bonds issued and secured by said several railroad companies under and by whose corporate names the said several branch roads were constructed; and may also, with such bonds or the proceeds thereof, at its option purchase other of said branch bonds at the lowest price at which they can be obtained, at not above par and accrued interest, whenever it shall deem it for its interest to make such purchase; or it may exchange said bonds for said branch bonds at its discretion.

It is hereby expressly understood that when any of such branch bonds are purchased or taken up by exchange by said first party, they shall not be nor shall they be deemed or taken to be cancelled or discharged, and such is not the intention of either of the parties hereto; but that all of said branch bonds, whenever and so fast as they shall be purchased or exchanged, shall be by said first party delivered over to the custody of said parties of the second part, their successors in said trust and assigns, to be held by them:—

First, as an additional security for the payment of the principal and interest of the bonds issued and secured under this trust mortgage; and Second, for the benefit and security of the party of the first part, its successors and assigns.

And the remainder of said twenty millions of bonds, so as aforesaid set apart, shall be issued from time to time by said parties of the second part, their successors in said trust and assigns, as they or the proceeds thereof shall be required by said party of the first part or its successors, to pay for, take up, and discharge the other of the indebtedness of said party of the first part hereinbefore mentioned.

It is hereby expressly understood and agreed that the balance of said bonds, amounting to ten millions of dollars, are to be issued and used only when and so fast as the same or the proceeds thereof are required by said first party, its successors and assigns, for the payment of the cost and expense of new construction and equipment on its main line or branches, and the increase of the facilities rendered necessary by the increase in the magnitude of its business, and as its exigencies shall from time to time demand, as hereinabove mentioned; and in no case shall any of said last-mentioned bonds be certified by said parties of the second part, their successors in said trust and assigns, except upon the written application of the party of the first part, expressed through a resolution of its board of directors adopted at a regular meeting or a special meeting called for that purpose, wherein it shall be stated what amount of bonds are required at that time, and for what specific object or purpose the same or the proceeds thereof are to be used.

It is hereby also expressly understood and agreed that whenever and so fast as any of the mortgage bonds issued by this company and secured by the three several mortgages hereinbefore mentioned shall be in any form paid off or taken up, they shall immediately thereupon be and be deemed to be discharged and cancelled; and the said first party shall cause the word "cancelled" to be written upon the face thereof, and shall deliver the same to said second parties, their survivors and successors and assigns; and when all of such bonds now outstanding secured by said mortgages respectively shall be paid or taken up, then the said mortgages shall respectively be deemed and taken to be extinguished, and said party of the first part shall cause the same to be discharged of record.

It is hereby mutually agreed that said parties of the second part, their survivors and successors in said trust and assigns, shall only be accountable for gross negligence or wilful default in the management thereof, and shall not be responsible for the acts of each other to which they do not severally assent, nor for the acts of any agent employed by them when such agent shall have been selected with reasonable discretion; and that said parties of the second part, their survivors, successors in said trust or assigns, shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for their labor and services in the management of said trust.

It is further agreed by and between the parties hereto that whenever a vacancy among the parties of the second part, their survivors or successors or assigns, shall occur by death, resignation, or inability to discharge the duties of said trust, the remaining trustees shall immediately proceed to make an appointment of successor or successors by indorsing such appointment in writing on one part of this indenture, and the person or persons so appointed shall indorse his acceptance of such appointment upon this indenture; and in case said vacancy shall not be filled within sixty (60) days from the occurrence thereof, by said remaining trustee or trustees as aforesaid, then the holders of one thirtieth ($\frac{1}{30}$) of the bonds secured by this mortgage and then outstanding may apply to any court in the State of Illinois having jurisdiction of the premises to appoint a new trustee or trustees to supply such vacancy; and such new trustee or trustees appointed in either manner shall become one of the party or parties of the second part, and vested for the purposes aforesaid with all rights, interests, and powers requisite to enable him or them to execute with the others this trust, without any further assurance or conveyance of the same; but should it be desirable or necessary, the parties hereto shall execute and deliver, or cause to be executed and delivered, such releases and conveyances as counsel shall advise to be necessary: it being further expressly understood that the remaining trustee or trustees shall in the mean time, and until the said vacancy shall be so filled, be fully empowered to execute all the purposes of this trust.

And further, that in relation to the duties herein provided to be performed by the said three trustees, the same may be executed and performed by a majority thereof, all of said trustees who shall be in the United States having notice of and right to join in every and all acts to be done or performed; and that each and every of the stipulations and agreements herein contained shall be binding upon the successor or successors, survivor or survivors and assigns, respectively, of the parties hereto.

The said parties of the second part do hereby severally accept the trusts created by these presents.

In witness whereof, the said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, party of the first part, has caused its corporate name to be hereunto, and to six other originals, subscribed, and its corporate seal to be hereto attached by its president, and the same to be attested by its secretary; and the said parties of the second part have also hereunto, and to six other originals, set their hands and seals, all on the day and year first above written.

STATE OF ILLINOIS, }
COUNTY OF COOK, } ss.

Be it remembered that on this 28 day of August A. D. 1873, before me, a notary public residing in the city of Chicago, county of Cook and State of Illinois, duly commissioned by the governor of the State of Illinois to take acknowledgments and proofs of deeds and other instruments in writing, under seal, to be used or recorded in said State of Illinois, personally came James M. Walker, president of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, who is known to me to be the person whose name is signed to the foregoing deed of conveyance, who, being by me duly sworn, deposes and says that he resides in Chicago, in the county of Cook and State of Illinois, that he is president of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, that he knows the corporate seal of said company, that the seal affixed to the foregoing conveyance is the corporate seal of said company, that it was affixed by order of said company, and that he signed the corporate name of said company to said conveyance by like order as president of said company; and acknowledged that he executed and delivered the said deed on behalf of said company as his free and voluntary act, and that the said company also executed said conveyance as its free and voluntary act, for the uses and purposes therein set forth.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and official seal this 28th day of August A. D. 1873.

TRUST MORTGAGE, May 2d, 1887.CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & QUINCY RAILROAD COMPANY
to

THE NEW ENGLAND TRUST COMPANY.

NEBRASKA EXTENSION MORTGAGE,

Maturing May 1st, 1927.

This Indenture, made and entered into this second day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, by and between the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Illinois, and existing in Nebraska pursuant to the laws of that State, party of the first part (hereinafter referred to as the first party), and the New England Trust Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Massachusetts, Trustee, for the purposes and uses, and upon the terms and conditions herein stated, party of the second part (hereinafter referred to as the Trustee).

Whereas, the first party is the owner of the Republican Valley Railroad, in the State of Nebraska, upon one portion or section of which railroad, to wit, that portion extending from the town of Hastings, in Adams County, to the town of Aurora, in Hamilton County, in said State, a distance of about twenty-seven and seventy-five hundredths (27.75) miles, there is no incumbrance; and

Whereas, the following named corporations, organized and existing under the laws of the State of Nebraska, have built and now own the following described railroad of standard gauge, to wit:—

The Nebraska and Colorado Railroad Company.

From the town of DeWitt, in the county of Saline, in a westerly direction to the town of Curtis, in Frontier County, a distance of two hundred and eight and eighty-three hundredths (208.83) miles.

From the town of Strang, in Fillmore County, in a northerly direction to the town of Fairmount, in said Fillmore County, a distance of fifteen and forty-three hundredths (15.43) miles.

From the said town of Strang, in a southerly direction to the town of Chester, in Thayer County, a distance of twenty-nine and seventy-six hundredths (29.76) miles.

From the town of Edgar, in Clay County, in a southerly direction to the town of Superior, in Nuckolls County, a distance of twenty-six and fifty-three hundredths (26.53) miles.

From the town of Holdrege, in Phelps County, in a northeasterly direction to the town of Kenesaw, in Adams County, a distance of thirty-nine and ninety hundredths (39.90) miles.

From the said town of Holdrege, in a southwesterly direction to the town of Oxford, in Furnas County, a distance of twenty and seventy-seven hundredths (20.77) miles.

The mileage of said road now built as aforesaid is three hundred and forty-one and twenty-two hundredths (341.22) miles.

The Grand Island and Wyoming Central Railroad Company.

From the town of Grand Island, in Hamilton County, in a northwesterly direction to a point near the northwest corner of section twenty-six (26), township twenty-four (24), north of range thirty-seven (37) west, a distance of about two hundred (200) miles.

The Omaha and North Platte Railroad Company.

From the city of Omaha, in Douglas County, in a southwesterly direction to the town of Ashland, in Saunders County, and thence in a northwesterly direction to the town of Wahoo, in said Saunders County, a distance of about forty-eight (48) miles; and

Whereas, the aggregate number of miles of single main track of the said several roads above named, now built as aforesaid, including the said section of the Republican Valley Railroad, is about six hundred and seventeen (617) miles; and

Whereas, the said railroad companies are duly authorized by law to borrow money and execute bonds, and to mortgage their property to secure the payment thereof; and in order to provide means for the construction of their respective roads and branches, built and to be built, have placed thereon, and upon the properties and franchises connected therewith, first mortgages to secure bonds, at the rate of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) per mile for single track of main line and branches, and ten thousand dollars ($10,000) per mile additional for second track, said bonds to be issued only upon constructed road; and

Whereas, the said companies have issued their bonds under said mortgages, amounting in the aggregate to eleven million seven hundred and eighty-four thousand and four hundred dollars ($11,784,400), to wit:—

The Nebraska and Colorado Railroad Company, to the amount of six million eight hundred and twenty-four thousand and four hundred dollars ($6,824,400);

The Grand Island and Wyoming Central Railroad Company, to the amount of four million dollars ($4,000,000); and

The Omaha and North Platte Railroad Company, to the amount of nine hundred and sixty thousand dollars ($960,000).

All of said bonds being dated May 2, 1887, maturing May 1, 1927, and bearing interest at the rate of six per centum (6%) per annum, payable semi-annually, on the first days of May and November in each year, at the office of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, in the city of Boston, Massachusetts, where the principal is also payable; and

Whereas, the first party is the owner of all the said bonds; and

Whereas, the said railroads above described connect with the railroad of the first party, and form therewith continuous and connected lines of railroad, and the first party is in possession of and operating the constructed portions thereof; and

Whereas, the first party contemplates aiding, by purchase of their bonds and otherwise, other railroad corporations now organized or hereafter to be organized in the States of Nebraska, Kansas and Colorado, and the Territories of Wyoming and Dakota, in the construction of their roads and branches, which are or will constitute extensions of, or be connected with, the general system of railroads now owned and operated by the first party, and further contemplates becoming the owner in fee, by purchase or consolidation, of the railroads and branches, built and to be built, and the property and franchises of the said Nebraska and Colorado Railroad Company, the Grand Island and Wyoming Central Railroad Company, and the Omaha and North Platte Railroad Company, and in like manner contemplates becoming the owner in fee of the railroads and branches and property of other corporations of the above-named States and Territories; and

Whereas, the first party did, at a meeting of its Board of Directors, duly called, and held at its office, in the city of Boston, Massachusetts, on the eleventh (11th) day of February, 1887, by unanimous vote, resolve to issue a series of coupon and registered bonds, the coupon bonds of said series to be of the denomination of one thousand dollars ($1,000), numbered consecutively from one to the highest number that may be issued, dated the second day of May, 1887, maturing May 1, 1927, bearing interest at a rate not to exceed four per centum (4%) per annum, payable semi-annually, on the first days of May and November in each year, at its office in the city of Boston, Massachusetts, or at its agency in the city of New York, N. Y., or at such other place or places as its Board of Directors may designate; the registered bonds of said series to be of the denomination of five thousand dollars ($5,000), numbered consecutively from one to the highest number that may be issued, dated the second day of May, 1887, maturing May 1, 1927, bearing interest at a rate not to exceed four per centum (4%) per annum, payable semi-annually, on the first days of May and November in each year, at its office in the city of Boston, Massachusetts, where the principal of both coupon and registered bonds shall be payable.

The coupon bonds shall be in the following form, to wit:—

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

CHICAGO, BURLINGTON AND QUINCY RAILROAD COMPANY.

NEBRASKA EXTENSION MORTGAGE SINKING FUND BOND.

Know all Men by these Presents,

That the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, a corporation duly created and organized under the laws of the State of Illinois, is indebted to the New England Trust Company in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000) in the lawful money of the United States of America, which the said railroad company promises to pay at its office in Boston, Massachusetts, to the bearer hereof, or in case of registration to the registered holder, on the first day of May, A. D. 1927, together with interest thereon from and after the first day of May, A. D. 1887, at the rate of per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, at the office of the company, in Boston, Massachusetts, or at its agency in the city of New York, N. Y., or at such other place or places as the directors of said railroad company may from time to time designate, on the first days of May and November in each year, on the presentation and surrender of the annexed coupons as they severally become due, in accordance with their provisions. Said coupons to be paid to the bearer thereof, whether the bond is registered or not; and the company may, but shall not be obliged to, require proof of ownership of any coupon before paying the same, and payment thereof to the person presenting the same shall, in any case, discharge the company.

This bond shall pass by delivery unless registered, or, if registered, by transfer upon the books of the company, in the city of Boston, or at such other places as the company may hereafter appoint. After registration of ownership, certified hereon by the Treasurer or Transfer Agent, this bond shall not pass by delivery unless the last transfer on the books of the company shall have been to bearer; the bond to be subject to successive registrations and transfers to bearer, at the option of the lawful holder.

This bond is one of a series secured in the manner set forth in a mortgage executed by said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company to the New England Trust Company, of even date herewith, upon railroad of the mortgagor and first mortgage bonds of companies whose roads form part of its general railroad system.

For the further security of this bond, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company has agreed to devote in each year a sum equal to one per cent (1%) of the par value of the bonds issued under said mortgage, to the purchase and cancellation of such bonds, in the mode and upon the terms set out in the mortgage, at a price not to exceed one hundred and ten (110) and accrued interest. In case of insufficient offerings to absorb said sum, the amount thereof unexpended is, each year, to be returned to the general funds of the company, and the obligation to purchase bonds therewith shall cease.

Any five coupon bonds of this series may, at the option of the owner, be exchanged for a registered bond (without coupons) for $5,000, at the office of the railroad company, in the city of Boston.

This bond is to be valid only when authenticated by a certificate hereon, signed by the Trustee.

In witness whereof, the said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company has caused its corporate seal to be affixed to this bond, and the same to be duly signed under the date of May 2, A. D. 1887.

Know all Men by these Presents,

That the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, a corporation duly created and organized under the laws of the State of Illinois, is indebted to the New England Trust Company, in the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) in the lawful money of the United States of America, which the said railroad company promises to pay at its office in Boston, Massachusetts, to the registered holder hereof, on the first day of May, A. D. 1927, together with interest thereon, from and after the first day of May, A. D. 1887, at the rate of _____ per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, at the office of the company in Boston, Massachusetts, on the first days of May and November in each year.

This bond may be transferred at the option of the registered holder upon the books of the company, in the city of Boston, Massachusetts, or at such other place or places as the company may hereafter appoint.

This bond is one of a series secured in the manner set forth in a mortgage executed by said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company to the New England Trust Company, of even date herewith, upon railroad of the mortgagor and first mortgage bonds of companies whose roads form part of its general railroad system.

For the further security of this bond, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company has agreed to devote in each year a sum equal to one per cent (1%) of the par value of the bonds issued under said mortgage, to the purchase and cancellation of such bonds, in the mode and upon the terms set out in the mortgage, at a price not to exceed one hundred and ten (110) and accrued interest. This bond is to be valid only when authenticated by a certificate hereon, signed by the Trustee.

In witness whereof, the said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company has caused its corporate seal to be affixed to this bond, and the same to be duly signed under the date of May 2, A. D. 1887.

CHICAGO, BURLINGTON AND QUINCY RAILROAD COMPANY,

By

Now, therefore, the first party, in order to secure the payment of the said bonds and of the interest thereon, when and as the same become due and payable, and in consideration of the sum of one dollar ($1.00), to it in hand paid by the Trustee, before the execution and delivery of these presents, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, has granted, bargained, sold, transferred and conveyed, and by these presents does grant, bargain, sell, transfer and convey to the Trustee, its successor or successors in said trust, for the purposes hereinafter set forth, all of the following described property of the first party now owned or hereafter to be acquired, and all of its right, title, interest and equity of redemption therein, to wit:—

All of the said section of said Republican Valley Railroad, extending from the town of Hastings, in Adams County, to the town of Aurora, in Hamilton County, Nebraska.

Also, all standard gauge railroads and their branches in either of the States of Nebraska, Kansas or Colorado, or the Territories of Wyoming or Dakota, and the property and franchises appurtenant to and connected therewith, of which the first party may become the owner in fee, and which it shall specifically convey to the Trustee, as hereinafter provided.

Also, the said hereinbefore described bonds of the Nebraska and Colorado Railroad Company, and the Grand Island and Wyoming Central Railroad Company, and the Omaha and North Platte Railroad Company, amounting in the aggregate to eleven million seven hundred and eighty-four thousand four hundred dollars ($11,784,400).

And also, in addition to the bonds specifically mentioned herein, all such other bonds owned by the first party, and secured by first mortgages upon standard gauge railroads which are extensions of or connected with its railroad system, in the States of Nebraska, Kansas or Colorado, or the Territories of Wyoming or Dakota, as shall hereafter be deposited by the first party with the Trustee, in the manner hereinafter provided.

To have and to hold the said aforementioned and described railroads and railroad bonds, and all other the property, rights, titles, interests, privileges and franchises above mentioned or intended to be included, and every part thereof, with the appurtenances, unto the Trustee, its successor or successors in said trust, but upon the following trusts; that is to say:—

The first party shall have the right to deposit with the Trustee, in addition to the bonds hereinbefore specifically described and deposited, other bonds that may be issued by the said Nebraska and Colorado Railroad Company, or the Grand Island and Wyoming Central Railroad Company, or the Omaha and North Platte Railroad Company, for finishing the construction of their railroads and branches which they are or may be authorized by law to build, and may elect to build, and also other bonds owned by the first party, of railroad companies of said States of Nebraska, Kansas or Colorado, or said Territories of Wyoming or Dakota, whose railroads shall, when built, be extensions of or connected with its railroad system, as security for bonds to be issued hereunder; provided, that such deposited bonds shall not mature before May 1, 1927, shall draw interest at the rate of not less than five per centum (5%) per annum, payable semi-annually, and be secured by first mortgages upon the railroads, properties and franchises of the respective corporations executing and issuing the same; and provided further, that such bonds shall not exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) per mile for single-track railroad, and ten thousand dollars ($10,000) additional per mile for second track, not including side and spur tracks.

The first party shall also have the right to convey to the Trustee, in addition to the section of the Republican Valley Railroad above mentioned, any other railroad or railroads of standard gauge, or any portions or parts thereof and their branches in either of said States or Territories, of which it may become the owner in fee; provided that said road or roads, when built, shall be extensions of or connected with the general railroad system of the first party, and shall, at the time of such conveyance, be free and clear of all incumbrances; and provided further, that the mileage of the railroads conveyed by this instrument, and of such roads as may be hereafter conveyed to the Trustee, and of the railroads mortgaged to secure bonds deposited and to be deposited with the Trustee, shall in no case exceed in the aggregate fifteen hundred (1,500) miles of single-track railroad, and an equal amount of second track.

Bonds secured hereunder shall be certified and delivered by the Trustee at the rate of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) per mile for single-track railroad, and ten thousand dollars ($10,000) per mile additional for second track, not including side and spur tracks, for each mile of the said Republican Valley Railroad between Hastings and Aurora, and for each mile of other railroad that may be conveyed to it, in accordance with the foregoing provisions for the future conveyance of railroads, and also to an amount equal at par to the aggregate amount of such bonds so deposited with the Trustee, upon the written application of the first party, expressed through a resolution of its Board of Directors, adopted at a regular meeting, or at a special meeting called for that purpose, stating the amount and rate of interest of the bonds secured hereunder then so to be issued, and accompanied by a certificate in writing from the Chief Engineer of the first party, verified by his affidavit, showing the number of miles of single track and the number of miles of second track then completed of said section of said Republican Valley Railroad, and of other railroad or railroads owned in fee by the first party, free and clear of all incumbrances, that have been conveyed to the Trustee, as hereinbefore stipulated and provided, and the number of miles of each of the various railroads whose bonds are so deposited with the Trustee.

Whenever any five coupon bonds of this series are offered for exchange into a registered bond (without coupons) for $5,000, the first party shall issue and the Trustee shall certify one such registered bond in exchange therefor, and the coupon bonds, so exchanged, shall be cancelled: and the Trustee shall, whenever requested so to do by the first party, certify new registered bonds in exchange for a like amount of registered bonds previously issued, upon the cancellation of the registered bonds so offered for exchange.

In case, and as soon as the first party shall become owner in fee by purchase, consolidation or otherwise of any railroad or railroads belonging to any of the railroad companies whose bonds are deposited with the Trustee as security for the bonds issued hereunder, such railroad or railroads, and the property and equipment belonging and appurtenant thereto, shall immediately inure to the Trustee, its successor or successors in said trust, for the objects and purposes of this trust; and the first party shall thereupon make apt and suitable conveyances thereof to the Trustee or its successors in said trust, to be held under this mortgage for the security of the bonds issued hereunder; and thereupon, or at any time thereafter, at the option of the first party, it shall have the right to withdraw such bond or bonds as are secured by mortgage thereon from the operation of this indenture; and the Trustee, upon request of the first party, in writing therefor, shall cancel and re-deliver the same to the first party, and it shall thereupon cause such mortgage to be discharged of record. But no bonds shall be issued or certified by the Trustee on account of road, the mortgage upon which has been so cancelled and the deposited bonds withdrawn, if bonds secured hereunder have already been issued on account of such deposited bonds.

The first party agrees that all locomotives, cars and other equipment, at any time owned by it and set apart for use upon its railroads in the States of Nebraska, Kansas and Colorado, and the Territories of Wyoming and Dakota, shall be suitably designated and marked, and as additional security for the bonds issued hereunder, the first party hereby transfers and conveys to the Trustee a pro rata share thereof on the basis of mileage, that is, such proportionate share of said equipment as the mileage of the railroads now or hereafter covered by this instrument, or by mortgage to secure bonds deposited with the Trustee, bears to the total mileage of all roads owned or operated by the first party in said States and Territories.

The Trustee shall collect the interest on all of the deposited bonds; and when so collected, shall immediately pay over the same to the first party, as long as it shall not be in default in the payment of the interest or principal of the bonds secured hereunder.

All bonds of the first party issued in compliance with the terms of this instrument shall, in all respects, be equally secured by these presents, and upon all the property conveyed without preference, priority or discrimination, on account of or with reference to the actual times of the actual issue of said bonds or any of them.

The first party hereby covenants and agrees to and with the Trustee that all taxes and assessments that may be lawfully levied or assessed upon any railroad or railroads now or hereafter covered by this mortgage, or upon any of the railroads belonging to the companies whose bonds are so deposited with the Trustee, shall be paid as they respectively become due and payable.

In case of any default in the payment of any taxes or assessments, for the payment of which the first party is responsible, as hereinbefore provided, for the period of three (3) months after notice, in writing, by the Trustee, to the first party requiring payment of the same, or in case the first party shall fail to pay the principal or any part thereof, or any of the interest on any of its bonds secured or intended to be secured hereby, at any time when and where the same may become due and payable, according to the tenor thereof, and for three (3) months thereafter, then, and in that case, the Trustee or its successor or successors in said trust, at its or their discretion, may, and upon the written request of the holders of one tenth ($\frac{1}{10}$) of the bonds issued hereunder and then unpaid, upon being indemnified by the parties making the application, shall, either:

First—Sell at public auction, at Lincoln, Nebraska, at such time or times as it or they may appoint, first giving notice of the time, place and terms thereof by advertisement, for the term of four (4) weeks, in some daily newspaper, published in Boston, Massachusetts, Chicago, Illinois, and Lincoln, Nebraska, respectively, and wherever else required by law, the bonds then held by them as security; and also, if at that time authorized or permitted by law, foreclose, by sale, said section of said Republican Valley Railroad and any other railroad or railroads, with the property and equipment belonging or appurtenant thereto that may have become subject to this indenture, in the manner hereinbefore provided. The sale of such bonds, railroads, property and equipment shall be for cash, but the bonds secured hereby, or any of them shall, if offered, be received in payment of any bid which shall be accepted at such sale, at the value of each bond, which shall be fixed by the ratio of the amount of the bid to the full amount then due on all said bonds. The proceeds of such sale shall be applied: First, in payment of the expenses connected with such sale and trust, including the compensation of the Trustee, and all charges incurred by it as such Trustee; and Second, in payment of the unpaid interest and principal of the bonds secured hereby, then unpaid, whether then due and payable or not, ratably and without discrimination as to persons; and if, after paying in full said expenses, bonds and interest, there shall be any money remaining in the hands of the Trustee, it shall pay the same to the first party, its successor or successors.

The Trustee shall have power to adjourn said sale from time to time at its discretion; and if adjourned to another date, it may make said sale at the time appointed, without further notice by advertisement; and the Trustee shall have power to make and deliver to the purchasers at such sale, good and sufficient deeds of conveyance of the property sold, which shall be a perpetual bar, both in law and equity, against the first party and all other persons whomsoever lawfully claiming the railroads, premises and property so sold, or any part thereof, by, from, through or under it.

And it is further declared and agreed that the receipt of the Trustee shall be a sufficient discharge to the purchaser or purchasers of the premises and property which shall be sold as aforesaid for his or their purchase money, and such purchaser shall not, after the payment of such purchase money, be liable to see to its application upon or to the purposes or trusts of these presents, or in any manner answerable for any loss, misapplication or non-application of such purchase money, or any part thereof, or be obliged to inquire into the necessity or expediency of or for any such sale; or

Second—If said section of said Republican Valley Railroad and such other railroads, property and equipment as may have become subject to this indenture in the manner herein provided, cannot at the time be lawfully so foreclosed by sale at auction, in manner aforesaid, then and in that case, the Trustee shall sell such deposited bonds by public auction in manner aforesaid, and shall foreclose the equity of redemption to said section of said Republican Valley Railroad, and such other railroad or railroads, property and equipment by appropriate legal proceedings, and use and dispose of the money received under any such sale, sales, foreclosure or foreclosures, in the manner hereinbefore directed; or Third—If, at the time of such default by the first party, the obligors in said bonds then so held by the Trustee shall also be in default, then the Trustee, if it deem it best for the security of the bonds issued hereunder, or is so advised by counsel, shall, instead of selling the deposited bonds as above provided, cause proper and apt proceedings to be instituted and prosecuted in some court of competent jurisdiction to foreclose the mortgage or mortgages by which said bonds shall be secured, and also to foreclose this mortgage upon said section of said Republican Valley Railroad, and any other railroad or railroads, and the property and equipment belonging or appurtenant thereto that may at that time have become subject to this indenture in the manner hereinbefore provided; and the Trustee shall appropriate and dispose of the money received under such foreclosures in the manner hereinbefore directed; provided, however, that none of the remedies herein provided shall exclude the Trustee or its successor or successors, if it shall so elect, from any other legal or equitable remedy it may be entitled to in the premises.

But so long as the first party shall pay the interest which shall accrue and become due on the bonds secured hereby, no proceedings for the foreclosure of any mortgage executed to secure bonds deposited with the Trustee shall be instituted without the first party's request for the same in writing.

And it is also agreed that the first party will not at any time, nor in any manner, take, apply for or avail itself of any injunction or stay of proceedings, or plead, use, interpose or take advantage of any extension, stay, valuation or redemption law, or any other law of any State or Territory in which the property is or shall be located, now in force, or which may hereafter be in force, which may in any way alter, affect, impair or impede the rights or remedies of the holders of the bonds issued hereunder, or of the Trustee, or of its successors, as herein declared, or which shall affect or change the time, place, means or mode of perfecting, enjoying or enforcing any such rights, interests or remedies, as the same are herein declared and set forth.

In case the Trustee, its successor or successors in said trust, shall, for any reason, omit to avail itself of any such default as aforesaid, such omission shall not prejudice or impair the rights or remedies of the Trustee, or its successors in said trust, to avail itself of any other or further neglect or default of the first party.

Until default shall be made hereunder, the first party shall receive from the Trustee all of the interest collected by it on all deposited bonds, and shall dispose of the same as it, the first party, shall deem proper, and shall also retain possession of any railroad or railroads which may by the terms hereof be covered by this indenture, and shall receive and dispose of the current revenues of all such railroads, and of the property and equipment belonging or appurtenant thereto, as it shall deem proper.

And the first party, for itself and its successors, hereby agrees to execute and deliver any further reasonable and necessary conveyance and assignment of said premises, or any part thereof, to said Trustee, or its successors in said trust, which counsel of the Trustee at any time may advise for the more effectually vesting the title to the property hereby granted or intended to be conveyed, in the Trustee, its successor or successors, and for the more fully carrying into effect the objects and purposes of these presents.

If the first party shall well and truly pay the principal of the bonds issued under and secured by this instrument, and all interest thereon, when the same shall become payable, according to the true meaning and intent of these presents, then all the estate, right, title and interest of the Trustee, and its successor or successors in the trust hereby created, shall cease, determine and become void, and the right and title to the premises and property conveyed hereunder shall revert to and revest in the first party, its successors and assigns, without any acknowledgment of satisfaction, reconveyance, re-entry or other act, and all bonds then held by the Trustee shall be transferred and delivered by it to the first party, or its order.

The Trustee shall have full power in its discretion, upon the written request of the first party, to convey by way of release or otherwise, to the persons designated by the first party, any lands which belong to said section of said Republican Valley Railroad, or to any other railroad or railroads which shall be conveyed to the Trustee, or become subject to this indenture, in the manner hereinbefore provided, if, in the judgment of the Trustee, each land shall not be necessary or material for present or future use in connection with the said railroads; and also to convey, as aforesaid, on like request, any lands not occupied by the track, which may become disused by reason of a change of the location of any track, station-house, depot, shop or other building, and which the first party may deem it expedient to disuse or abandon by reason of such change, and to consent to any such change, and to such other changes in the location of the track, or depot, or other buildings, as in its judgment shall have become expedient, and to make and deliver the conveyances necessary to carry the same into effect; but any lands which may be acquired for permanent use in substitution for any so released and conveyed, which, in the judgment of the Trustee, shall be essential to the security of the holders of bonds issued hereunder, shall become subject to the operation of these presents, and shall be expressly conveyed to the Trustee.

The first party shall, however, have power to sell from time to time in its discretion, any equipment, machinery and materials in the ordinary course of its business, to be replaced by new, which shall immediately vest in the Trustee, without any further conveyance.

Schedules, signed by the Trustee, shall be attached to two originals of this mortgage, one such original to be held by the Trustee and one by the first party, showing what railroads, bonds and other property have been from time to time conveyed or transferred to or deposited with the Trustee for the security of the bonds issued hereunder.

SINKING FUND.

The first party further covenants and agrees that it will set aside, on the first day of May, in each year, up to and including the year 1926, a sum equal to one per cent of the par value of all the bonds which have then been issued hereunder, and apply the same to the purchase of such bonds, at a price of not to exceed one hundred and ten (110) and accrued interest, in the manner hereinafter prescribed; that is to say:

The first party shall give notice in the cities of Boston, Massachusetts, and New York, New York, by public advertisement, three times a week, for two successive weeks, in one daily newspaper published in each of the said cities, stating the amount applicable to the purchase of bonds, and the day and hour (which shall not be later than the fifth day of June in each year) when tenders will be opened, to sell to it, on the lowest terms, bonds issued hereunder; such tenders to be addressed to and opened by the Trustee.

In the event that no bonds, or that an insufficient amount of bonds to absorb said sum, are obtained by the above method, then the amount thereof unexpended shall be returned to the general funds of the company, and the obligation to purchase bonds therewith shall cease.

As soon as bonds are purchased, it shall be the duty of the first party to cancel the same and the interest coupons thereon.

On or before the first day of August, in each year, the first party shall furnish to the Trustee a statement showing the amount set apart in that year for the purchase of bonds, the amount of bonds purchased and cancelled, and the cost of the same; and shall submit said bonds to it for examination, and said Trustee shall thereupon furnish to the first party, a written certificate that it has examined the cancelled bonds and made a record thereof, and that the first party has fulfilled its obligations to the sinking fund for that year.

It is further mutually agreed that the said Trustee, its successor and successors in said trust, shall only be accountable for gross negligence or wilful default in the management thereof, and shall not be responsible for the acts of any agent employed by it, when such agent shall have been selected with reasonable discretion.

And that said Trustee, its successor or successors in said trust, shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for its labor, services and expenses in the management of the same.

In the event of the resignation or inability to act, of said Trustee, or any Trustee of these presents, which inability shall be determined and declared by resolution of the Board of Directors of the first party, the first party shall, by a vote of its directors, proceed to designate a successor or successors in said trust, and shall notify the bondholders of such designation by an advertisement in one daily newspaper in each of the cities of Boston and New York, to be published three times a week for three successive weeks, and thereupon, unless the holders of a majority in amount of the bonds then outstanding shall, in writing, within thirty days from the last publication of such notice, notify the first party of their dissent from such appointment, the same shall stand, and shall by the first party be indorsed hereon.

In case such majority of the bondholders shall dissent as aforesaid from said appointment designated by the first party, and no agreement is made between the first party and such majority upon an appointment to fill such vacancy, within sixty (60) days from the last publication of said notice to the bondholders, then, upon the application of any bondholder, under these presents, after notice to the first party, or upon the application of the first party, a new Trustee or Trustees may be appointed by the judge of any court having jurisdiction of the premises.

If either the first party, or a majority in interest of the bondholders hereunder, shall desire to remove any Trustee or Trustees of these presents, and substitute other Trustee or Trustees in its or their place, they shall have the right so to do in the manner following, to wit: Such majority of the bondholders shall have the right, in a written communication to the first party, to express their desire for such change, and shall designate a successor or successors to take the place of the Trustee or Trustees they desire to have removed; and if such change and such new appointment shall be assented to by a vote of the directors of the first party, such new appointment shall stand, and it shall be, by the first party, indorsed hereon.

In like manner the first party, by vote of its directors, may declare its desire to make such change of Trustee or Trustees hereunder, and designate a successor or successors to succeed in said trust, and shall notify the bondholders thereof by an advertisement in one daily newspaper in each of the cities of Boston and New York, to be published three times a week for three successive weeks; and thereupon, if a majority in interest of the holders of all the outstanding bonds shall in writing, within thirty days from the last advertisement, notify the first party of their dissent from such appointment of Trustee or Trustees, such appointment shall be void, otherwise, the appointment shall stand, and be by the first party endorsed hereon.

The person or persons, or corporation, so chosen or appointed in whatever manner as Trustee, or named in such judge's appointment, shall thereupon be and become the Trustee or Trustees for the time being of these presents as fully to all intents and purposes as if these presents had been in the first place executed and delivered to such person, persons or corporation.

But, should it be thought desirable or necessary by the counsel of the Trustee or Trustees, the parties hereto shall execute and deliver, or cause to be executed and delivered, such releases and conveyances as counsel shall advise to be necessary.

And each person or corporation appointed or chosen as Trustee, in whatever method, shall indorse an acceptance of such appointment upon this indenture.

It is further understood that during a vacancy for any cause, the remaining Trustee or Trustees, if any, shall, until such vacancy shall be filled, be fully empowered to execute all the provisions of this trust.

And that each and every of the stipulations and agreements herein contained shall be binding upon the successor or successors, survivor or survivors, and assigns, respectively, of the parties hereto.

The said Trustee hereby accepts the trust created by these presents.

In witness whereof, the said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, party of the first part, has caused its corporate name to be hereunto, and to twenty-four (24) other originals, subscribed, and its corporate seal to be hereto attached by its President, and the same to be attested by its Secretary, and the said Trustee has also hereunto, and to the twenty-four (24) other originals, caused its corporate name to be subscribed, and its corporate seal to be hereto attached, by its President, and the same to be attested by its Secretary, all on the day and year first above written.

On this twenty-first day of February, A. D. 1887, before me, a Notary Public in and for said County of Suffolk, duly commissioned to take acknowledgments and proof of deeds and other instruments in writing, under seal, personally came C. E. Perkins, President, and T. S. Howland, Secretary, of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, to me known to be such President and Secretary, and to be the persons who executed the foregoing instrument, and whose names are thereto subscribed as such officers, and severally duly acknowledged the same to be their free and voluntary act and deed as such President and Secretary, and the free and voluntary act and deed of the said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, for the uses and purposes therein expressed; and the said C. E. Perkins and T. S. Howland, being by me first duly sworn, did depose and say: that they are respectively President and Secretary, as hereinbefore stated, of said railroad company; that they know the corporate seal of the said company; that the seal affixed to the foregoing instrument is the corporate seal of said railroad company; that it was affixed thereto by order of said company duly made, and that they signed their respective names thereto as such President and Secretary by the like order.

In witness whereof, I hereunto set my hand and official seal, this twenty-first day of February, A. D. 1887.

TRUST MORTGAGE, July 1, 1899.

CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & QUINCY RAILROAD COMPANY,
to

THE NEW ENGLAND TRUST COMPANY.

ILLINOIS DIVISION MORTGAGE.

Maturing July 1, 1949; redeemable after July 1, 1929.

Indenture, made this first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, by and between the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Illinois, party of the first part, hereinafter called "the Company," and The New England Trust Company, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Massachusetts, Trustee, party of the second part, hereinafter called "the Trustee;"

Whereas, the Company owns certain connected railroads and railroad property, hereinafter to be specifically described, in the States of Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, and Minnesota, and may from time to time hereafter wish to build, buy, or otherwise acquire, in the said States, or any of them, or elsewhere, other railroads and property; and,

Whereas, certain of the railroads and property by this Indenture to be conveyed are subject to prior liens of former mortgages or deeds of trust, executed to secure existing bonds, issued or assumed by the Company, and now payable or outstanding and maturing at different dates hereafter; and

Whereas, in some cases the payment of said existing bonds is further secured by the pledge or hypothecation of underlying bonds secured by mortgages or deeds of trust upon certain of said railroads; and,

Whereas, the Company holds in its treasury, and desires present payment of, certain other existing bonds not pledged, issued pursuant to mortgages or deeds of trust upon certain of said railroads, and also holds certain unsecured obligations, issued by certain companies formerly owning certain of said railroads; and,

Whereas, the Company desires to provide means for retiring the said several existing bonds, issued or assumed by it, as aforesaid, either at or before the maturity thereof; and,

Whereas, the growing business of its railroads will make it necessary for the Company, in the future, and from time to time, to make improvements, additions, and betterments thereto, and to procure additional equipment therefor, for all of which it desires to provide the means of payment; and,

Whereas, it may become necessary or expedient for the Company to buy, build, or otherwise acquire, for the purpose of connecting its various railroads, bridges across the Mississippi River, or elsewhere; and,

Whereas, the Company is authorized to execute mortgages of its railroads, property, and franchises, to secure the payment of bonds issued to provide for the cost of the construction or acquisition and equipment of the same, and of any improvements, additions, and betterments thereto; and has duly resolved to issue, from time to time hereafter, coupon and registered bonds, for the purposes aforesaid, not exceeding the principal sum of Eighty-five Million Dollars (\$85,000,000); to be issued in the manner hereinafter set forth; to be equally secured by a mortgage upon the railroads, property, and franchises in this Indenture described; to be dated the first day of July, 1899; to mature the first day of July, 1949; to bear such rate of interest, not exceeding five (5) per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually on the first days of January and July in each year, as from time to time shall be determined by its Directors, and as shall be designated in the bonds when issued; to be payable, at maturity, in lawful money of the United States of America, at the office or agency of the Company in the City of Boston, the interest to be payable, in like lawful money, at said office or agency or at such other office or agency in the City of New York or elsewhere as the Company, through its Directors, may from time to time determine; to be redeemable, in like lawful money, at the office or agency in said Boston, at the option of the Company, on any day when interest falls due after July 1, 1929, upon six months' notice, at par with accrued interest, for all bonds issued bearing interest at a less rate than three and one-half ($3\frac{1}{2}$) per cent. per annum, and at one hundred and five (105) per cent. and accrued interest for all bonds issued bearing interest at a rate of not less than three and one-half ($3\frac{1}{2}$) per cent. per annum; to be certified by the Trustee, and issued under and in accordance with the terms of this Indenture, and not otherwise; the coupon bonds to be of one series, of such denomination, or of several series of such different denominations, as the Directors may from time to time prescribe; if of one series, to be numbered consecutively from one (1) to the highest number issued, and if of more than one series, each series to be appropriately designated and numbered consecutively from one (1) to the highest number issued; to pass by delivery unless registered, and to be exchangeable into registered bonds without coupons, upon the conditions and in the manner in said bonds and in this Indenture set forth; the registered bonds without coupons to be of several series, of the denomination of Five Thousand Dollars (\$5,000) or any multiple thereof as the Directors may from time to time prescribe, the several respective series thereof to be appropriately designated and numbered consecutively from one (1) to the highest number that shall be issued; the said coupon bonds and the coupons thereto attached, the said registered bonds and the Trustee's certificate attached to each of said bonds, to be respectively and substantially in form as follows, viz.:

CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & QUINCY RAILROAD COMPANY.

ILLINOIS DIVISION MORTGAGE PER CENT. BOND.

The Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, hereinafter called the Company, promises to pay to the bearer, or if registered, to the registered holder of this bond or assigns in lawful money of the United States of America, on the first day of July, 1949, at the office or agency of the Company in the City of Boston, Massachusetts, and to pay interest thereon in like lawful money from and after the first day of July, 1899, at the rate of per cent. (%) per annum, payable semi-annually on the first days of January and July in each year, at said office or agency of the Company in Boston, or at such office or agency of the Company in the City of New York, or elsewhere as its Directors may from time to time designate, but only upon presentation and surrender, as they severally mature, of the coupons therefor annexed hereto. The Company may, but shall not be obliged to, require proof of ownership of any coupon before paying the same; and payment thereof to the person presenting the same, shall in any case discharge the Company.

Upon any interest day after July 1, 1929, the Company may redeem this bond upon six (6) months' notice at and accrued interest; and if the Company, in the exercise of the option aforesaid, shall decide to redeem this bond, and shall give notice as in the mortgage hereinafter referred to is more particularly provided, then and in such case, interest upon this bond shall cease upon the day fixed in said notice for redemption.

This bond is one of a series of Coupon Bonds, issued and to be issued under and in pursuance of, and all equally secured by an Indenture of Trust and Mortgage dated July 1, 1899, and executed by the Company to The New England Trust Company, of Boston, Trustee, upon the property and franchises of the Company mentioned in said Indenture, to which reference is hereby made for a statement of the property and franchises mortgaged, the nature and extent of the security, the rights of the holders of said bonds under the same, and of the terms and conditions upon which said bonds are issued and secured.

This bond shall pass by delivery, unless registered in the owner's name on the books of the Company at its office or agency in either said Boston or said New York, such registration being noted on the bond by the proper officer of the Company. After such registration this bond shall pass only by transfer on the Company's books by the registered owner, or his attorney, thereto duly authorized, the transfer being similarly noted on the bond by such officer of the Company, unless the last transfer shall have been made and registered to bearer, in which case, the bond shall again pass by delivery until again registered. The coupons shall in all cases be payable to bearer, whether the bond itself is registered or not.

Coupon bonds bearing interest at the same rate, and amounting at par to Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), or any multiple thereof, may be exchanged at the option of the holder for a registered bond or bonds without coupons, bearing interest at the same rate and of the same aggregate amount, at the office or agency of the Company in said Boston.

No recourse shall be had for the payment of the principal or interest of this bond, to any stockholder, officer, or director of the Company, either directly or through the Company, by virtue of any statute, or by the enforcement of any assessment or otherwise.

This bond shall not become obligatory for any purpose until it shall have been authenticated by the certificate, hereon endorsed, of the Trustee under said Indenture. The War Revenue tax has been paid by stamps on the mortgage.

In witness whereof, the said Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company has caused this bond to be signed by its President, or one of its Vice-Presidents, and countersigned by its Assistant Treasurer, and its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed, and coupons for said interest with the engraved signature of its Assistant Treasurer to be hereunto attached, this first day of July, 1899.

CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & QUINCY RAILROAD COMPANY.

ILLINOIS DIVISION MORTGAGE PER CENT. BOND.

The Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, hereinafter called the Company, promises to pay to the registered holder hereof or assigns, Dollars ($) in lawful money of the United States of America, on the first day of July, 1949, at the office or agency of the Company in the City of Boston, Massachusetts, and to pay interest thereon in like lawful money from and after the semi-annual interest day next preceding the date of the first registration hereof, or from the date of such registration if made upon an interest day, at the rate of per cent. (%) per annum, payable semi-annually on the first days of January and July in each year, at said office or agency of the Company in Boston, or at such office or agency of the Company in the City of New York, or elsewhere, as its Directors may from time to time designate.

Upon any interest day after July 1, 1929, the Company may at its option redeem this bond, after six (6) months' notice, at and accrued interest; and if the Company, in the exercise of the option aforesaid, shall decide to redeem this bond, and shall give notice as in the mortgage hereinafter referred to is more particularly provided, then and in such case, interest upon this bond shall cease upon the day fixed in said notice for redemption.

This bond is one of a series of registered bonds, without coupons, issued and to be issued under and in pursuance of, and all equally secured by an Indenture of Trust and Mortgage dated July 1, 1899, and executed by the Company to The New England Trust Company, of Boston, Trustee, upon the property and franchises of the Company mentioned in said Indenture, to which reference is hereby made for a statement of the property and franchises mortgaged, the nature and extent of the security, the rights of the holders of said bonds under the same, and of the terms and conditions upon which said bonds are issued and secured.

This bond is transferable by the registered holder hereof, or by his attorney thereto duly authorized, on the books of the Company, at its office or agency in said Boston or said New York, such transfer being noted on the bond by the proper officer of the Company, as provided in said Indenture.

No recourse shall be had for the payment of the principal or interest of this bond, to any stockholder, officer or director of the Company, either directly or through the Company, by virtue of any statute, or by the enforcement of any assessment or otherwise.

This bond shall not become obligatory for any purpose until it shall have been authenticated by the certificate, hereon endorsed, of the Trustee under said Indenture. The War Revenue tax has been paid by stamps on the mortgage.

In witness whereof, the said Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company has caused this bond to be signed by its President, or one of its Vice-Presidents, and countersigned by its Assistant Treasurer, and its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed, this first day of July, 1899.

[L. S.]

Vice-President.

Assistant Treasurer.

(Form of Trustee's Certificate.)

The New England Trust Company of Boston, Massachusetts, hereby certifies that this bond is one of a series, issued under and described in the within named Indenture of trust and mortgage, dated July 1, 1899.

THE NEW ENGLAND TRUST COMPANY,

by Registrar.

Now, therefore, this Indenture witnesseth:

That, in order to secure the payment of the principal and interest of all bonds issued under this Indenture, according to their tenor and effect, and the performance of the covenants and obligations hereinafter contained, and in consideration of the acceptance by the Trustee of the trusts hereby created, of the purchase and acceptance of said bonds by the said holders thereof, and of one dollar ($1) by the Trustee in hand paid upon the execution and delivery of this Indenture, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, the Company doth hereby grant, bargain, sell, convey, transfer, and assign unto the said Trustee, its successors and assigns, subject, however, to the priority of lien of existing mortgages, the following described railroads, property, franchises, and privileges, viz.:—

Beginning at Chicago, Illinois, thence extending by way of Aurora, Montgomery, Earlville, Mendota, Buda, Galva, Galesburg, Monmouth, Gladstone and Carthage Junction, to the Mississippi River, and across said river to and into the City of Burlington, Iowa, to the north line of Locust Street in said City, a distance of about two hundred and four (204) miles;

Beginning at Oregon aforesaid, thence extending to Forreston, a distance of about eighteen (18) miles;

Beginning at Galena Junction, thence extending to Galena, a distance of about four (4) miles;

Together with all the road beds, rights of way, station grounds, railroad yards, terminal grounds, and other lands and property held by the Company for the use and operation of its said railroads or appurtenant thereto, lying and situate in Chicago, Quincy, and East St. Louis, Illinois, in Burlington, Iowa, south of the north line of Locust Street aforesaid, Clinton and Dubuque, Iowa, and Winona, St. Paul and Minneapolis, Minnesota, and elsewhere.

Also, all telegraph and telephone lines, tools, supplies, and material, buildings, real estate, and all other real and personal property of whatsoever description, now owned or hereafter acquired by the Company for the use and operation of said railroads, or any of them, and appurtenant thereto; and all franchises, easements, rights, and privileges, now or hereafter appurtenant to said railroads and other property, or any part thereof;

Also, such proportionate share of all locomotives, cars, and other equipment at any time owned by it and set apart for use upon its railroads east of the Missouri River, as the mileage of the railroads conveyed, pursuant to this Indenture, shall bear to the total mileage of all railroads owned by the Company east of the Missouri River;

Also, all rents, issues, profits, tolls, and income of the railroads and other property aforesaid now, or at any time hereafter, subject to the lien of this Indenture.

To have and to hold all and singular the premises and property above described, with their appurtenances, unto the said Trustee, its successors in said trust and assigns, to its and their own use and behoof forever; subject, however, to prior liens of existing mortgages as aforesaid, and also subject to all reservations, if any, contained in any conveyance under which the Company has acquired, or shall hereafter acquire, title to any of the railroads or property conveyed by this Indenture;

In trust, nevertheless, for the equal and proportionate benefit of all holders of bonds issued under and secured by this Indenture, without preference, priority, or distinction, as to lien or otherwise, of any one bond over any other bond by reason of priority in the issue or negotiation thereof;

It being hereby declared and covenanted with each holder of said bonds that all of the same which are executed, certified, and issued, shall be equally secured by this Indenture, in accordance with, and subject to, the covenants and trusts following, that is to say:

ARTICLE I.

On any interest day after July 1, 1929, the Company, at its option, may redeem all of the bonds secured by this Indenture and then outstanding, upon six (6) months' notice, at par and accrued interest for all bonds issued bearing interest at a less rate than three and one-half ($3\frac{1}{2}$) per cent. per annum, and at one hundred and five (105) per cent. and accrued interest for all bonds issued bearing interest at a rate of not less than three and one-half ($3\frac{1}{2}$) per cent. per annum; and if the Company, in the exercise of the option aforesaid, shall decide to redeem the said bonds and shall fix the day of redemption, and shall give notice as hereinafter provided, and shall stand ready and able well and truly to redeem all said bonds pursuant to the terms of this Indenture; then and in such case interest upon all of the bonds aforesaid shall cease upon the day so fixed for redemption.

The notice shall be given in the manner following, viz.: Appropriate attested resolutions of the Directors fixing the day of redemption shall be delivered to the Trustee; and an appropriate notice, fixing the day of redemption and stating the terms thereof and the place at which bonds will be redeemed, and declaring that from and after said day of redemption the interest on said bonds shall cease, shall be published daily in a newspaper of each of the cities of Boston and New York for four consecutive weeks, the last publication to be at least six months before the day fixed for redemption.

The Directors may also give additional notice if circumstances shall in their judgment so require.

ARTICLE II.

SECTION 1. Bonds and coupons issued pursuant to this Indenture shall be of the tenor and form hereinbefore set forth; coupons shall be authenticated by the engraved signature of the present or any future Treasurer or Assistant Treasurer of the Company, and each bond shall bear a certificate of the Trustee, also of the tenor and form hereinbefore set forth, which certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the validity of the issue of said bonds under this Indenture.

Bonds executed by officers of the Company, at the time duly authorized to execute the same may be delivered, certified, and issued, notwithstanding such officers, at the time of such delivery, certification, and issue, may have ceased to be officers of the Company.

Any of said bonds may be originally issued as coupon bonds, with or without registration, or as registered bonds without coupons, at the pleasure of the Company.

Coupon bonds shall be of one series, of such denomination, or of several series of such different denominations, as the Directors may from time to time prescribe; if of one series, to be numbered consecutively from one (1) to the highest number issued, and if of more than one series, each series to be approximately designated and numbered consecutively from one (1) to the highest number issued; exchangeable into registered bonds without coupons, upon the conditions and in the manner in said bonds and in this Indenture set forth; the registered bonds without coupons may be of several series, of the denomination of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) or any multiple thereof as the Directors may from time to time prescribe; the several respective series thereof to be appropriately designated and numbered consecutively from one (1) to the highest number issued.

§ 2. Of the authorized issue there shall be reserved, by the Trustee, bonds to the aggregate principal sum of Fifty-five Million Dollars ($55,000,000), to enable the Company to pay and discharge the following bonds and other obligations, whether the same be outstanding, or held by the Company, or in sinking funds of the Company, that is to say:

$28,924,000 of Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad seven (7) per cent. consolidated mortgage bonds and scrip, maturing July 1, 1903;

$2,320,000 of Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad five (5) per cent. bonds of the Chicago & Iowa Division, maturing February 1, 1905;

$2,315,000 of Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad five (5) per cent. sinking fund bonds, maturing October 1, 1901;

$1,076,000 of Ottawa, Oswego & Fox River Valley Railroad eight (8) per cent. mortgage bonds, maturing July 1, 1900;

$8,053,500 of Chicago, Burlington & Northern Railroad first mortgage five (5) per cent. bonds, maturing April 1, 1926.

$3,450,000 of Chicago, Burlington & Northern Railroad second mortgage six (6) per cent. bonds, maturing June 1, 1918.

$908,000 of Chicago, Burlington & Northern Railroad equipment mortgage five (5) per cent. bonds, maturing February 1, 1903;

$400,000 of Chicago, Burlington & Northern Railroad six (6) per cent. funding notes, maturing April 1, 1926.

$1,163,200 of Illinois Valley & Northern Railroad six (6) per cent. mortgage bonds, maturing January 1, 1928.

$243,800 of Galesburg & Rio Railroad six (6) per cent. mortgage bonds, maturing May 1, 1927.

$840,000 of Quincy, Alton & St. Louis Railroad five (5) per cent. mortgage bonds, maturing February 1, 1902.

§ 3. The Trustee shall certify and deliver bonds for the purposes provided in section two (2) hereof, in the manner following, viz.:

Whenever and as often as the Company shall surrender to the Trustee any of the bonds or other obligations aforesaid, whether cancelled or uncanceled, the Trustee, upon the demand or demands of the Company expressed through attested resolutions of its Directors, shall certify and deliver to the Company, bonds secured by this Indenture for an amount equal, at par of each, to the amount of existing bonds or other obligations surrendered, and for such additional amount as shall be equal to the premiums, if any, paid by the Company therefor, and so shall continue from time to time until all the existing bonds, and other obligations, aforesaid, have been surrendered. The certificate of the Treasurer or Assistant Treasurer of the Company setting forth the premiums paid shall be conclusive on the Trustee and the Company.

And if any issue of existing bonds so surrendered to the Trustee has been secured by the pledge or hypothecation of underlying bonds issued under any mortgage or deed of trust upon any railroad, or part thereof, conveyed by this Indenture, the Company, when and as it rightfully may, shall withdraw such underlying bonds from the pledgee thereof, and shall deposit them with the Trustee, whether cancelled or uncanceled. The Trustee shall hold all such existing bonds, and such underlying bonds, so surrendered to it as aforesaid, for the further security of the bonds secured by this Indenture, until such time as the lien or liens of the mortgages or deeds of trust securing the same shall have been fully discharged or satisfied, or adequate provision made therefor, and shall further hold said existing bonds and underlying bonds for the better security of the title of the Company until the Company shall, by attested resolution of its Directors, demand to have them cancelled, and thereupon the Trustee shall, to the extent that they have not been cancelled, cancel the same, and deliver them to the Company; provided, however, that no such existing bonds shall be so cancelled or delivered to the Company unless all prior liens securing underlying bonds, deposited as aforesaid for the further security of such existing bonds, shall have been fully satisfied, or adequate provision made therefor. The report of Counsel of the Trustee to it on the question whether the lien or liens of the mortgages or deeds of trust securing any of the existing or any of the underlying bonds aforesaid have been fully discharged or satisfied, or whether adequate provision has been made therefor, shall be conclusive on the Trustee and the Company.

If, after the surrender to the Trustee of ninety-five (95) per cent. of all the existing bonds and obligations hereinbefore enumerated, and after the Trustee shall have set aside an amount of bonds equal, at par of each, to the amount of said existing bonds and obligations not so surrendered, there be unissued any residue of bonds of the aforesaid reserve of Fifty-five Million Dollars ($55,000,000), then the Trustee, without any other or further condition precedent, shall certify and deliver to the Company such residue of the bonds reserved as aforesaid and then remaining unissued, upon the demand or demands of the Company expressed through attested resolutions of its Directors.

§ 4. The Trustees reserving the Fifty-five million dollars ($55,000,000) of bonds, as before provided, shall certify and deliver to the Company, upon its demand or demands, expressed from time to time through attested resolutions of its Directors, and without any other or further conditions precedent:

First—Bonds to an amount not exceeding One million dollars ($1,000,000), to be used in the discretion of the Directors, for facilitating and promoting the discharge of the debts in Section II. of this Article enumerated; and

Second—Bonds to the amount of Fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000), to be used in reimbursing the Treasury of the Company for expenditures heretofore made in the acquisition of or in procuring or aiding in the construction of the railroads hereinbefore conveyed, and of the terminals and other property thereto appurtenant.

§ 5. The remainder of the bonds authorized by this Indenture shall be, from time to time, certified by the Trustee and issued by the Company only when and as the same, or the proceeds thereof, shall be required by the Company for the cost of additions, improvements, and betterments, of and to the railroads and property conveyed by this Indenture, or of additional equipment therefor, or of building, buying, or otherwise acquiring additional railroads or other property in the States of Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa or Minnesota aforesaid or elsewhere and of additions, improvements, and betterments thereto and equipment therefor, or of buying, building, or otherwise acquiring, for the purpose of connecting its various railroads, bridges across the Mississippi River or elsewhere; and in any such case, the Trustee shall certify and deliver bonds, upon the demand or demands of the Company, expressed through attested resolutions of its Directors, which resolutions shall state the cost of the addition, improvement, betterment, equipment, or, in the proper case, the cost of building, buying, or otherwise acquiring additional railroads, bridges or other property as aforesaid, and also the amount of bonds which then may be rightfully certified and delivered and issued by the Company, and shall be accompanied by the affidavit or affidavits of the Chief Engineer, showing that an expenditure for such purposes has been made which at least equals the amount of bonds so presently demanded.

§ 6. The Trustee shall certify, and deliver to the Company, bonds rightfully demanded by it, as is provided by this Indenture, all at one time, or in such parts and at such time or times, as may be designated by its Directors in appropriate resolutions as aforesaid.

§ 7. The Trustee shall not certify and deliver bonds in an aggregate principal sum exceeding Eighty-five Million Dollars ($85,000,000) at any one time outstanding.

The Trustee may from time to time, and at any time hereafter, require from the Company statements, showing the aggregate amount of bonds issued and then outstanding and secured by this Indenture, and may, for its information in this behalf, have reasonable access to the books of the Company.

§ 8. Coupon bonds issued under this Indenture shall pass by delivery, unless registered in the name of the owner upon the books of the Company at its office or agency in Boston, or in New York, such registration being noted on the bond by the proper officer of the Company. After such registration, such bonds shall pass only by transfer on the books of the Company, by the registered owner, or his attorney thereto duly authorized, and the transfer shall be in like manner noted on the bond by such officer of the Company, unless the last transfer shall have been made and registered to bearer, in which case such bonds shall again pass by delivery until again registered. The coupons shall in all cases be payable to bearer, whether the bonds themselves be registered or not.

Whenever coupon bonds issued under this Indenture, bearing interest at the same rate, and amounting at par to Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), or any multiple thereof, are offered in exchange for a registered bond or bonds without coupons, the Company shall issue, and the Trustee shall certify in exchange therefor, a registered bond or bonds to the same aggregate amount, also bearing interest at the same rate.

The Company shall deliver all bonds surrendered as aforesaid to the Trustee, which shall cancel the same, together with all coupons not yet matured, and return the same to the Company.

Every registered bond without coupons issued under this Indenture shall be transferable by the registered holder thereof, or by his attorney thereto duly authorized, on the books of the Company, at its office or agency in said Boston, or said New York. In every such case the transfer shall be noted on the bond by appropriate entry, signed by the proper officer of the Company.

§ 9. In case any bond issued under this Indenture is mutilated, lost, or destroyed, the Company, if its Directors shall so determine, and upon such terms as they may prescribe, may issue a new bond of like tenor, kind, and date, to be executed on behalf of the Company, by its officers for the time being, and to be certified by the Trustee upon demand of the Company.

ARTICLE III.

The Company shall maintain the properties conveyed by this Indenture in good condition and repair, and operate the same according to law; shall pay the principal and interest of all bonds issued under this Indenture according to the terms thereof; shall pay all taxes and assessments, federal, state, or municipal, upon said properties, or any part thereof; shall maintain an office or agency in Boston, and in New York, for the registration of bonds, in books to be kept for the purpose, in accordance with the provisions of said bonds and of Article II. hereof; shall dispose of said bonds only in the manner provided in this Indenture, and shall apply the proceeds thereof only to the purposes in this Indenture prescribed; shall at all times hereafter upon request in writing, execute and deliver to said Trustee such further reasonable or necessary conveyances of the property and franchises intended to be conveyed by this Indenture, whether now owned or hereafter to be acquired, as may be required for the more fully assuring to the said Trustee said property and franchises, and for carrying into effect the objects and purposes of this Indenture; and covenants that it will not apply for, or avail itself of any injunction or stay of proceedings, or plead, or in any way take advantage of, any extension law, stay law, valuation law, redemption law, appraisement law, or any other law of any State or Territory in which any property conveyed by this Indenture is or shall be located or found, whether now in force or which may hereafter be in force, which in any way may alter, impair, or impede the rights or remedies of the holders of the bonds issued, or of the Trustee, or which shall effect or change the time, place, means or mode of perfecting or enforcing such rights or remedies.

ARTICLE IV.

Upon the request of the Company from time to time, expressed through attested resolutions of its Directors, and subject to the conditions and limitations in this article prescribed, but not otherwise, the Trustee shall release from the lien and operation of this Indenture any part of the mortgaged premises then subject thereto.

If the property which the Company desires to have so released is real estate, track, or rights of way which, in the judgment of the Company, is no longer necessary for use in connection with its railroad, the proceeds of any sale thereof, if in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000), shall be paid to the Trustee and used by it in the purchase of bonds issued under this Indenture; or, if the Company so elect, shall be used by it, with the consent of the Trustee, in making additions to the railroads and property conveyed by this Indenture, in the purchase of additional real estate, or in the improvement and betterment of the mortgaged premises.

Any and all real estate acquired by the Company in exchange for or to take the place of any real estate released or withdrawn from the lien and operation of this Indenture shall become and be subject to the lien hereof as fully as if specifically mortgaged hereby; but, if requested by the Trustee, the Company shall convey the same to the Trustee by appropriate deed, upon the trusts and for the purposes of this Indenture.

No part of the track, or of the rights of way conveyed by this Indenture, shall be released therefrom unless the same shall no longer be necessary in the use and operation of the Company's railroads, nor if thereby the continuity of any line or railroad remaining subject to this Indenture shall be broken.

The attested resolution or resolutions of the Directors, describing the railroad or the real estate which the Company desires to have released from the lien of this Indenture, and the price to be paid therefor, and certifying that such railroad or real estate, as the case may be, is no longer needed by the Company for use in connection with the properties conveyed by this Indenture, shall be conclusive upon the Trustee, which shall thereupon execute and deliver any and all instruments necessary and proper to fully release and discharge such railroad or real estate from the lien and operation of this Indenture, in such manner and form as counsel may advise.

The Trustee shall cancel and return to the Company all bonds that it may purchase, in accordance with the provisions of this article.

The Company may sell, exchange or otherwise dispose of any equipment or other personal property that in its judgment shall have become unsuitable or is not needed for the purposes of its business, substituting therefor property of equal value, which shall at once, and without further conveyance, be covered by and subject to this Indenture.

All moneys in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000) received as compensation for property taken from the Company by exercise of the power of eminent domain shall be paid to the Trustee, and used by it in the purchase of bonds issued under this Indenture; or, if the Company so elect, shall be used by it, with the consent of the Trustee, in making additions to the railroad and property conveyed by this Indenture, in the purchase of additional real estate, or in the improvement and betterment of the mortgaged premises.

ARTICLE V.

No recourse shall be had for the payment of the principal or interest of any bond issued under this Indenture, to any stockholder, officer, or director of the Company, either directly or through the Company, by virtue of any statute, or by the enforcement of any assessment, or otherwise.

ARTICLE VI.

Until default, continuing as hereinafter provided, in the payment of the principal or interest of the bonds, or any of them, secured by this Indenture, or in some other undertaking of the Company in this Indenture contained, the Company shall possess, manage, operate, use, and enjoy the properties herein conveyed, and shall receive and dispose of all the incomes, revenues, profits, and tolls thereof, as if this Indenture had not been made.

ARTICLE VII.

* SECTION 1. If the Company shall fail to pay the principal, or any part thereof, or the interest, or any part thereof, of any of the bonds secured by this Indenture, when and where the same shall become due and payable, according to the tenor and effect thereof, and such default shall continue for sixty (60) days; or if it shall fail to perform any other covenant or obligation in this Indenture undertaken by it, and if such default shall continue for sixty (60) days after notice thereof given to it in writing by the Trustee, then, and in any such case:

First—The Trustee, in its discretion, may, and, upon the request in writing of the holders of a majority in interest of said bonds then outstanding, shall, enter upon all and singular the mortgaged premises, and use, operate, and enjoy the same, making from time to time all needful repairs, additions, and alterations, and, after deducting all operating expenses, including taxes and its own reasonable charges and compensation, together with the cost of such repairs, additions, and alterations, shall apply the net income to the payment, pro rata, of the interest due and unpaid upon said bonds, in the order in which said interest is payable, and of the principal when due, either by the terms of the said bonds or under the provisions of this Indenture, and may retain and continue such possession and use until the whole of the interest and principal of all of the said bonds shall be paid; or,

Second—The Trustee, in its discretion, may, and, on the written request of the holders of a majority in interest of said bonds then outstanding, shall, cause the mortgaged premises to be sold at public auction, first giving notice of the time, place, and terms thereof by advertisement published three times a week for four successive weeks in a newspaper in each of the cities of Boston, New York, and Chicago, respectively, the last publication to be at least ten (10) days before the day of sale; and, upon such sale, shall execute and deliver to the purchaser good and sufficient conveyances, in fee simple, which shall be a bar against the Company, and all persons claiming under it, of all right, title, interest, or claim in or to said mortgaged premises, or any part thereof. The sale of said mortgaged premises shall be for cash; but the bonds secured hereby, or any of them, shall, if offered, be received in payment of any bid which shall be accepted at such sale, at the value of each bond and the interest due thereon and unpaid, which value shall be fixed by the ratio of the amount of the bid, after deducting therefrom all expenses of the trust together with any sums necessary to cancel all prior liens, to the full amount then due on all of the said bonds.

In case of such sale, the Trustee may, on request in writing of a majority in interest of the holders of said bonds then outstanding, bid off the mortgaged premises and property, at a price not exceeding the amount due on such bonds, and the interest thereon due or accrued and unpaid, together with such amount as may be necessary to discharge all prior liens and all costs and expenses of the trust added; and, in case of any sale under this Indenture, no purchaser, other than said Trustee, shall be responsible for the application of the purchase money.

The Trustee, after deducting from the proceeds of such sale all costs and expenses incurred by it, in and about the execution of its trust, together with such further sum, if any, including counsel fees and its own reasonable compensation, as shall be necessary to discharge all prior liens and protect it against all liabilities incurred, or to be thereafter incurred by it, arising out of or in consequence of said trust, shall apply said net proceeds to the payment of the principal and interest of the said bonds remaining unpaid, whether then or thereafter payable, and shall pay over the residue thereof, if any, to the said Company.

The Trustee shall have power to adjourn said sale from time to time, at its discretion, and in case of any adjournment, may make said sale at the time appointed, without further notice; or,

Third—The Trustee may, in its discretion, and, on the written request of the holders of a majority in interest of said bonds then outstanding, shall, institute and carry on appropriate legal proceedings for the foreclosure and enforcement of this Indenture, by the sale of the mortgaged premises, or otherwise, under decree or judgment of court.

§ 2. In case of default in payment of interest on any of said bonds, continuing for sixty (60) days, the said Trustee may, in its discretion, and, at the request in writing of the holders of a majority in interest of said bonds then outstanding, shall, declare the principal of all of the said bonds to be at once due and payable, and written notice of such declaration being served upon the Company within ten (10) days thereafter, the said principal shall be held and deemed to be due and payable, as of the date of said declaration, for all purposes whatever, incidental to or growing out of said Indenture; provided, however, that, at the request in writing of the holders of a majority in interest of said bonds then outstanding, the Trustee may thereafter vacate and set aside said declaration, whereupon said principal shall become due and payable, according to the tenor of said bonds, and as if said original declaration had never been made.

§ 3. In case of any default as aforesaid, the Trustee shall at all times proceed under the direction of the holders of a majority in interest of the bonds hereby secured, then outstanding, whose action in the premises shall bind all bondholders as effectually as if directly authorized by them.

If, after any default as aforesaid, and the institution of foreclosure proceedings, the Company shall make all payments, and do all other acts and things necessary to cure such default, and to make the estate and security of the bondholders as beneficial and effectual as if such default had not taken place, the Trustee may, and upon the request in writing of the holders of a majority in interest of the bonds then outstanding, shall discontinue such foreclosure proceedings, and shall restore the possession of the mortgaged premises to the Company; provided, however, that the rights of the Trustee, or of bondholders, as respects any subsequent or future default, shall be thereby in no wise prejudiced or affected.

The rights of entry and sale, hereinbefore granted, shall be deemed to be cumulative remedies, and shall not deprive the Trustee, or bondholders acting through the Trustee, of any legal or equitable remedy appropriate to enforce the provisions of this Indenture; provided, that all such proceedings shall be taken by the Trustee, its successor or successors in trust, and not by bondholders, either individually or collectively, except as hereinafter provided.

§ 4. No holder of any bond or coupon, hereby secured, shall institute any proceedings under this Indenture, or institute any suit or action at law or in equity, for the enforcement of the trusts thereof, unless such holder shall have previously given to the Trustee written notice of the occurrence of some default, and of the continuance thereof, as hereinbefore provided; nor unless the holders of twenty-five (25) per cent. in amount of the bonds hereby secured, then outstanding, shall have made written request upon the Trustee, and shall have afforded to it reasonable opportunity either to proceed to exercise the powers hereby granted, or to institute such action, suit, or proceeding in its own name; nor unless adequate security and indemnity shall have been offered to the Trustee against all costs, expenses, and liabilities to be incurred therein or thereby; it being understood and intended that no one or more holders of bonds and coupons shall affect, disturb, or prejudice the lien of this Indenture, by his or their action, or shall enforce any right given by this Indenture, except in the manner herein provided, and that all proceedings at law or in equity and all acts of the Trustee to enforce the provisions of this Indenture, shall be instituted and maintained in the manner herein provided and for the equal benefit of all holders of such outstanding bonds and coupons.

ARTICLE VIII.

Any request or other action of bondholders, contemplated or provided for by this Indenture, may be manifested by one instrument, or any number of concurrent instruments of like tenor, signed or executed by such bondholders personally, or by an agent having written authority. Proof of the execution of any such instrument or instruments, or of the authority in writing of any agent signing the same, and of the ownership of coupon bonds, transferable by delivery, shall be sufficient for the purposes of this Indenture, when made in the following manner.

The fact and date of execution of any such instrument may be proved by the certificate of any notary public, that the signer of such instrument, on his own behalf, or on behalf of some other person or party, for whom he is authorized to sign, acknowledged the execution thereof, or by an affidavit of a witness of such execution.

The amount of coupon bonds, transferable by delivery, held by any person signing such instrument personally, or by attorney, together with the denominations and issue numbers of the bonds so held, and the date of holding, may be proved by a writing, executed by any trust company, bank, bankers, or other depository, wherever situated, certifying that, at the date therein mentioned, such person had on deposit with such depository the bonds described in such certificate.

Ownership of registered bonds without coupons, and of coupon bonds that have been registered, shall be proved by a copy or copies from the books kept for the purpose of such registration, attested by the proper officer of the Company.

The proof of ownership of bonds, herein provided for, shall be conclusive in favor of the Trustee, as regards any request or action taken by the Trustee under any instrument or instruments, hereinbefore described.

The bearer of coupon bonds, not registered, and the bearer of interest coupons, may be treated by the Company and the Trustee as the absolute owner of such bonds or coupons, for the purpose of receiving payment thereof, and for all other purposes.

In all cases of instruction or request by bondholders to the Trustee, the Trustee may require such bondholders to deposit their bonds with it.

ARTICLE IX.

If at or at any time after the maturity of the bonds secured by this Indenture, the Company shall pay both principal and interest of all the bonds issued, or shall deposit with the Trustee, for the purpose of paying all such bonds outstanding, a sum of money sufficient to pay the same, together with all accrued and unpaid interest thereon; or if the Company shall exercise its option as is hereinbefore provided for in Article I. hereof to redeem the bonds secured by this Indenture after July 1, 1929, and shall fully redeem all the same pursuant to the provisions of this Indenture in this behalf, or shall deposit with the Trustee for the purpose of such redemption, a sum of money sufficient therefor, and in either such case shall also pay all other proper expenses and charges of the trust, and shall also have performed all of the other things required of it by this Indenture, then the estate, right, title, and interest of the Trustee shall cease and determine, and all the railroads and other property, and all estate, right, title, or interest therein conveyed by this Indenture, shall revert to and revest in the Company; yet it shall be the duty of the Trustee to discharge and satisfy the lien of this Indenture, and to make such reasonable deeds of release to the Company as by counsel of the Company may be advised.

ARTICLE X.

The word "Trustee," as used in this Indenture, shall be construed to mean the Trustee or Trustees for the time being; and substituted or new Trustees shall have all the rights and powers of the original Trustee.

The Trustee shall have the right to employ suitable counsel and agents, whose compensation, together with all reasonable expenses of the trust, including a reasonable compensation to the Trustee for its services, shall be paid by the Company, as the same are incurred, or otherwise, out of the trust estate, on which they are hereby made a first charge.

In no case shall the Trustee be required to act, for the enforcement of any provisions of this Indenture, until furnished with sufficient funds for the purpose, or suitably indemnified. Nor shall it prior to notice to it in writing of any default on the part of the Company be taken to have notice thereof, and until called upon in writing to act for the enforcement of the provisions hereof the duty of the Trustee shall be confined to such matters as are specifically mentioned herein.

The Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment, or mistake of law or fact, made in good faith, nor except for its own wilful neglect or breach of trust, nor for any act or thing done or omitted by its counsel, agents, or attorneys, selected in good faith. Nor shall the Trustee, in any event, be liable for any recital of fact contained herein, or in the bonds hereby secured, nor have any duty or responsibility as to the validity hereof, or the security hereby afforded, nor as to the execution, acknowledgment, or recording hereof.

ARTICLE XI.

The Trustee may be notified by the Company, through an attested resolution of its Directors, or, after default such and continuing as is hereinbefore provided, by a majority in interest of the holders of bonds issued under this Indenture then outstanding, through appropriate instrument in writing, signed by them, that its services are no longer required. Thereupon, in either case, at the expiration of ten (10) days from the service upon the Trustee of such resolution or written instrument, the office of Trustee under this Indenture shall become vacant.

Any Trustee may resign the trust hereby created, by notice in writing to said Company, given three (3) months before such resignation shall take effect, or for such shorter time as the Company may accept as adequate notice.

In case of any vacancy in the office of Trustee, from any cause whatever, the Company through its Directors shall, by appropriate instrument in writing, appoint a successor or successors, and give notice thereof by advertisement, published at least once a week, for three (3) consecutive weeks, in a newspaper, in each of said cities of Boston, New York, and Chicago; and, unless a majority in interest of the holders of the bonds then outstanding shall, within thirty (30) days from the date of such last publication, make objection, by instrument in writing, signed by them and delivered to the Company, said appointment or appointments shall, at the expiration of said thirty (30) days, be considered as assented to and confirmed by the holders of said bonds. If, however, such objection, by a majority in interest of said bondholders, shall be made, as aforesaid, the Company shall thereupon apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a Trustee or Trustees.

In case of any vacancy in the office of Trustee, all the power and estate of the outgoing Trustee shall cease; but its or his successors, heirs, executors, or administrators shall, on demand, execute such conveyance or conveyances as may vest in the Trustee or Trustees, appointed in his or its place, all the property and rights theretofore held by him or it.

ARTICLE XII.

The New England Trust Company, of Boston, Massachusetts, Trustee, party of the second part, hereby accepts the trusts in this Indenture declared and provided, and covenants to perform the same upon the terms and conditions hereinbefore set forth.

In witness whereof, the parties hereto have caused their corporate names to be hereunto subscribed and their corporate seals to be hereto affixed by their respective Presidents, and the same to be attested by their respective Secretaries, the day and year first above written.

GENERAL MORTGAGE

Dated March 2, 1908; Maturing March 1, 1958.

CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & QUINCY RAILROAD COMPANY.

to the

CENTRAL TRUST COMPANY OF NEW YORK,

and

OLIVER M. SPENCER,

Trustees.

This Indenture, made this second day of March, one thousand nine hundred and eight, by and between the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, a corporation created and existing under the laws of the State of Illinois, hereinafter called the "Railroad Company," party of the first part, and the Central Trust Company of New York, a corporation created and existing under the laws of the State of New York, and Oliver M. Spencer, a citizen of the State of Missouri, parties of the second part, hereinafter called the "Trustees," and where they are to be distinguished called respectively the "Trust Company" and the "Individual Trustee," Witnesseth:

Whereas, the Railroad Company owns certain railroads and property, hereinafter specifically described, situated in the States of Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, South Dakota, Wyoming and Montana, and may from time to time hereafter find it expedient to build, buy, or otherwise acquire in said States, or elsewhere, additional railroads and property; and

Whereas, the Railroad Company owns, or may deem it desirable hereafter to construct or acquire, for the purpose of connecting said railroads with its railroads in adjoining States, railroad bridges across the Mississippi or Missouri Rivers, or elsewhere; and

Whereas, the Railroad Company desires to provide for the refunding of its existing obligations, for the acquisition of additional properties and for additional equipment, betterments and improvements; and

Whereas, the Railroad Company has heretofore made expenditures to build, acquire and improve certain of the said railroads, terminals and bridges across the Mississippi or Missouri Rivers, which have been properly charged to construction account, and for which it is now desired to reimburse the treasury; and

Whereas, the Railroad Company is duly empowered by law to execute mortgages of its railroads, property and franchises to secure the payment of bonds issued to provide for the purposes aforesaid, and by due corporate action first taken has determined to issue, from time to time hereafter, coupon and registered bonds, for the purposes aforesaid, not exceeding the principal sum of Three Hundred Million Dollars ($300,000,000.00), to be issued in the manner hereinafter set forth; to be equally secured by a mortgage upon the railroads, property and franchises in this indenture described; to be dated the second day of March, 1908; to mature the first day of March, 1958; to bear such rate of interest, not exceeding five (5) per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of March and

September in each year, as from time to time shall be determined by its Directors, and as shall be designated in the bonds when issued; to be payable, at maturity, in lawful money of the United States of America at the office or agency of the Railroad Company, in the City of New York; the interest to be payable, in like lawful money, at said office or agency, or at such other office or agency in the City of Boston, or elsewhere, as the Railroad Company, through its Directors, may from time to time designate; to be authenticated by a certificate of the Trust Company, and issued in accordance with the terms of this indenture, and not otherwise; both coupon and registered bonds to be respectively of one series, or of such several series and of such denomination or denominations as the Directors may from time to time prescribe; the coupon bonds to pass by delivery, unless registered, and to be exchangeable into registered bonds and registered bonds into coupon bonds, upon the conditions and in the manner in said bonds and in this indenture set forth; provided, however, that bonds issued in exchange shall be of the same aggregate amount and bear the same rate of interest as those surrendered for exchange, and that no registered bonds without coupons shall be issued except of the denominations of five thousand dollars ($5,000.00), ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00), or fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00), each series of bonds to be appropriately designated and numbered from one to the highest number issued. The said coupon bonds and the coupons thereto attached, the said registered bonds, and the Trust Company's certificate attached to each of said bonds to be respectively and substantially in the form as follows:

GENERAL MORTGAGE

PER CENT. BOND.

The Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, hereinafter called the "Railroad Company," promises to pay to the bearer, or if registered to the registered holder of this bond or assigns, Dollars ($), in lawful money of the United States of America, on the first day of March, 1958, at the office or agency of the Railroad Company in the City of New York, and to pay interest thereon in like lawful money from and after the first day of March, 1908, at the rate of per cent. (%) per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of September and March in each year, at said office or agency of the Railroad Company in New York, or at such office or agency of the Company in the City of Boston, Massachusetts, or elsewhere, as the Directors may from time to time designate, but only upon presentation and surrender, as they severally mature, of the coupons therefor annexed hereto. The Railroad Company may, but shall not be obliged to, require proof of ownership of any coupon before paying the same, and payment thereof to the person presenting the same shall in any case discharge the Railroad Company.

This bond is one of a series of coupon bonds, issued and to be issued under and in pursuance of, and all equally secured by, an indenture of

Trust and Mortgage, dated March 2, 1908, and executed to the Central Trust Company of New York and Oliver M. Spencer, Trustees, by the Railroad Company, upon the property and franchises conveyed by said indenture, to which reference is hereby made for a statement of the property and franchises mortgaged the nature and extent of the security, the rights of the holders of said bonds under the same, and of the terms and conditions upon which said bonds are issued and secured.

This bond shall pass by delivery, unless registered in the owner's name on the books of the Railroad Company at its office or agency in said City of New York or at its office or agency in said City of Boston, such registration being noted on the bond by the proper officer of the Railroad Company. After such registration, this bond shall pass only by transfer on the Railroad Company's books by the registered owner, or his attorney, thereto duly authorized, the transfer being similarly noted on the bond by such officer of the Railroad Company, unless the last transfer shall have been made and registered to bearer, in which case the bond shall again pass by delivery until again registered. The coupons shall in all cases be payable to bearer, whether the bond itself is registered or not.

Coupon bonds bearing interest at the same rate, and amounting at par to five thousand dollars ($5,000.00), ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) or fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00) may be exchanged at the option of the holder for a registered bond or bonds without coupons, bearing interest at the same rate and of the same aggregate amount, at the office or agency of the Railroad Company in the City of Boston, Massachusetts, or elsewhere, as the Directors may from time to time designate.

No recourse shall be had for the payment of the principal or interest of this bond, to any stockholder, officer, or director of the Railroad Company, either directly or through the Railroad Company, by virtue of any statute, or by the enforcement of any assessment or otherwise.

This bond shall not become obligatory for any purpose until it shall have been authenticated by the certificate, hereon endorsed, of the Trust Company, Trustee under said indenture.

In Witness Whereof, the said Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company has caused this bond to be signed by its President, or one of its Vice-Presidents, and countersigned by its Treasurer, or one of its Assistant Treasurers, and its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed, and coupons for said interest with the engraved signature of its Treasurer to be thereunto attached, this second day of March, 1908.

CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & QUINCY RAILROAD COMPANY.

GENERAL MORTGAGE

PER CENT. BOND.

The Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, hereinafter called the "Railroad Company," promises to pay to the registered holder hereof or assigns, _____ Dollars ($ _____), in lawful money of the United States of America, on the first day of March, 1958, at the office or agency of the Railroad Company in the City of New York, and to pay interest in like lawful money from and after the semi-annual interest day next preceding the date of the first registration hereof, or from the date of such registration if made upon an interest day, at the rate of _____ per cent. (_____ %) per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of September and March in each year, at said office or agency of the Railroad Company in the City of New York, or at such office or agency of the Company in the City of Boston, Massachusetts, or elsewhere, as its Directors may from time to time designate.

This bond is one of a series of registered bonds, without coupons, issued and to be issued under and in pursuance of and all equally secured by an indenture of Trust and Mortgage, dated March 2, 1908, and executed to the Central Trust Company of New York and Oliver M. Spencer, Trustees, by the Railroad Company, upon the property and franchises conveyed by said indenture, to which reference is hereby made for a statement of the property and franchises mortgaged, the nature and extent of the security, the rights of the holders of said bonds under the same, and of the terms and conditions upon which said bonds are issued and secured.

This bond is transferable by the registered holder hereof, or by his attorney, thereto duly authorized, on the books of the Railroad Company, at its office or agency in the City of New York or at its office or agency in said City of Boston, Massachusetts, such transfer being noted on the bond by the proper officer of the Railroad Company, as provided in this indenture. This bond also, in the manner prescribed in said indenture, and upon the payment of the charge therein provided, is exchangeable for coupon bonds of the same aggregate principal sum, and bearing interest at the same rate as this bond.

No recourse shall be had for the payment of the principal or interest of this bond, to any stockholder, officer or director of the Railroad Company, either directly or through the Railroad Company, by virtue of any statute or by the enforcement of any assessment or otherwise.

This bond shall not become obligatory for any purpose until it shall have been authenticated by the certificate, hereon endorsed, of the Trust Company, Trustee under said indenture.

In Witness Whereof, the said Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company has caused this bond to be signed by its President, or one of its Vice-Presidents, and countersigned by its Treasurer, or one of its Assistant Treasurers, and its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed, this second day of March, 1908.

President.

(Form of Trustee's Certificate.)

The CENTRAL TRUST COMPANY OF NEW YORK hereby certifies that this bond is one of a series, issued under and described in the within named indenture of Trust and Mortgage, dated March 2, 1908.

CENTRAL TRUST COMPANY OF NEW YORK, Trustee,
by

[L. S.]

Vice-President.

And, Whereas, by appropriate corporate action the Railroad Company, being thereunto fully empowered by law, has duly resolved to execute and deliver a mortgage of its railroads, property and franchises hereinafter conveyed, to secure the payment of bonds issued for the purposes and not exceeding the amount aforesaid, said mortgage to be in the form in this indenture set forth:

Now, Therefore, in order to secure the payment of the principal and interest of all bonds issued under this indenture, according to their tenor and effect, and the terms of this indenture, and the performance of the covenants and obligations hereinafter contained, and in consideration of the acceptance by the Trustees of the trusts hereby created, of the purchase and acceptance of said bonds by the holders thereof, and of one dollar ($1.00) by the Trustees in hand paid, upon the execution and delivery of this indenture, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, the Railroad Company doth hereby grant, bargain, sell, convey, transfer and assign unto the said Trustees, their successors and assigns, subject, however, to the priority of liens of existing mortgages and to the terms of this indenture, the following described railroads, property, franchises and privileges, to wit:

(b) All the locomotives, cars and rolling stock, roadbeds, rights of way, station grounds, railroad yards, and other lands and property owned by the Railroad Company as appurtenant to its said railroads, now or hereafter subject to the lien of this indenture, or any of them; also all terminals lying and situate in Chicago, Aurora, Galesburg, Peoria, and East St. Louis, in the State of Illinois; St. Paul, Minneapolis and Winona, in the State of Minnesota; St. Louis, Hannibal, Kansas City and St. Joseph, in the State of Missouri; Clinton, Dubuque, Burlington, Ottumwa, Des Moines and Council Bluffs, in the State of Iowa; Omaha and Lincoln, in the State of Nebraska, Denver, in the State of Colorado, and elsewhere; also all telegraph and telephone lines, all tools, supplies and material, shops, buildings, works, real estate, and all other real and personal property of whatsoever description now owned or hereafter acquired by the Railroad Company as appurtenant to the said railroads now or hereafter subject to the lien of this indenture, or any part of them; and all leases, trackage, contracts, franchises, easements, rights and privileges, now or hereafter appurtenant to said railroads and property, or any of them; also all rents, issues, profits, tolls and income of the railroads or other property now or hereafter subject to the lien of this indenture.

(c) Such additional railroads, additional main or other tracks, buildings, shops, works, yards and terminals, bridges across the Mississippi or Missouri Rivers, or elsewhere, and all other property as the Railroad Company may hereafter build, buy or otherwise acquire with the proceeds of bonds issued under the provisions of Section 5 of Article I of this indenture.

But, nevertheless, all other railroads, extensions, branches, property and franchises of the Railroad Company, by it hereafter acquired, other than by means of the proceeds of bonds issued hereunder, together with the appurtenances thereof and the rolling stock and equipment for use thereon, and the terminals connected therewith, and the property acquired for use thereon or for the purposes thereof, shall be free from the lien of this indenture, and nothing herein contained shall be construed as creating or imposing thereon any lien or encumbrance; and

Saving and excepting also from the lien of this indenture any lands or real property, or interest therein, not hereinbefore expressly described, and not used for, or not appurtenant or incidental to, the maintenance or operation of the railroads or the carrying on of the business of the Railroad Company.

To have and to hold all and singular the railroads, premises and property above described, unto the said Trustees, their successors in said trust and assigns, to their own use and behoof forever; subject, however, to the prior lien of existing mortgages, as aforesaid, and also subject to all reservations, if any, contained in any conveyance under which the Railroad Company has acquired, or shall hereafter acquire, title to any of the railroads or property conveyed, or to be conveyed, by this indenture.

In trust, nevertheless, for the equal and proportionate benefit of all holders of bonds issued or to be issued under and secured by this indenture, without preference, priority or distinction as to lien or otherwise, of any bond over any other bond by reason of priority in the issue or negotiation thereof;

It being hereby declared and covenanted with each holder of said bonds that all of the same which are executed, authenticated and issued shall be equally secured by this indenture, in accordance with, and subject to, the covenants, uses and trusts following, that is to say:

ARTICLE I.

SECTION 1. Bonds and coupons issued pursuant to this indenture shall be of the tenor and form hereinbefore set forth; coupons shall be authenticated by the engraved signature of the present or of any future Treasurer or Assistant Treasurer of the Railroad Company, and each bond shall be authenticated by a certificate of the Trust Company, also of the tenor and form hereinbefore set forth, which certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the validity of the issue of said bonds under this indenture.

Bonds executed by the officers of the Railroad Company, at the time of such execution duly authorized to execute the same, may be authenticated, delivered and issued, notwithstanding such officers, at the time of such authentication, delivery and issue, may have ceased to be officers of the Railroad Company.

Any of said bonds may be originally authenticated and issued as coupon bonds, with or without registration, or as registered bonds without coupons, at the pleasure of the Railroad Company.

Coupon bonds shall be respectively of one series, or of such several series and of such denomination or denominations as the Directors may from time to time prescribe. Registered bonds without coupons shall be issued only of the denominations of five thousand dollars ($5,000.00), ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00), or fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00); coupon bonds shall pass by delivery, unless registered, and shall be exchangeable into registered bonds and registered bonds into coupon bonds, upon the conditions and in the manner in said bonds and in this indenture set forth; each series of bonds shall be appropriately designated, and numbered consecutively from one to the highest number issued.

On request of the Railroad Company, but always subject to and within the provisions of this indenture, bonds shall be authenticated and delivered in advance of the recording of this indenture; but the Railroad Company shall cause this indenture to be fully recorded as required by law, with all convenient speed.

§ 2. Of the authorized issue there shall be reserved, to be executed by the Railroad Company and to be authenticated and delivered, as hereinafter set forth, by said Trust Company, bonds to the aggregate principal sum of One Hundred and Seventy-five Million Dollars ($175,000,000.00), to enable the Railroad Company to pay and discharge the following bonds, whether the same be outstanding or held by the Railroad Company or in sinking funds of the several mortgages securing the same; subject, however, as to the bonds held in sinking funds, to the provisions of Section 3 of this Article, that is to say:

$50,835,000 of Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad, Illinois Division, 3½ per cent. bonds, maturing July 1, 1949;

$34,165,000 of Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad, Illinois Division, 4 per cent. bonds, maturing July 1, 1949;

$600,000 of Lincoln & Northwestern Railroad 7 per cent. bonds, maturing January 1, 1910.

§ 3. The said Trust Company shall authenticate and deliver to the Railroad Company, or upon its order, bonds for the purposes provided for in Section 2 hereof, in the manner following, to wit:

Whenever and as often as the Railroad Company shall surrender to the Trust Company any of the bonds aforesaid, whether canceled or uncanceled, together with all unmatured coupons attached or belonging to the same, the Trust Company, upon the demand or demands of the Railroad Company, expressed through attested resolutions of its Directors, shall authenticate and deliver to the Railroad Company, or upon its order, bonds secured by this indenture for an amount equal, at par of each, to the amount of such bonds or other obligations surrendered, and for such additional amount as shall at par be equal to the premiums, if any, paid by the Railroad Company therefor, as set forth in said resolution or resolutions, and so shall continue from time to time until all the existing bonds and other obligations aforesaid shall have been surrendered. The certificate of the Treasurer, or Assistant Treasurer, of the Railroad Company, setting forth the premiums paid, shall be conclusive upon the Trust Company and the Railroad Company.

In case any of the existing bonds enumerated in Section 2 hereof have been, or shall hereafter be redeemed, purchased or acquired, pursuant to sinking fund provisions of any mortgage or deed of trust securing said bonds, and are deposited and remain, whether canceled or uncanceled, with the trustee or trustees of said existing mortgage or deed of trust for the benefit of a sinking fund; then, from time to time, upon the production by the Railroad Company of a certificate from the trustee or trustees of such existing mortgage or deed of trust to the effect that bonds in the amount specified in such certificate have been redeemed, purchased or acquired pursuant to the sinking fund provisions of such existing mortgage or deed of trust and that such bonds have been deposited and then remain with said trustee or trustees, the Trust Company shall authenticate and deliver to the Railroad Company, or upon its order, bonds reserved under this section, in the same way and to the same amount as would be done if such existing bonds, instead of being deposited and remaining in the sinking fund as aforesaid, had been surrendered to the said Trust Company in compliance with this section.

And if any issue of existing bonds, so surrendered to the Trust Company, has been secured by the pledge or hypothecation of underlying bonds issued under any mortgage or deed of trust upon any railroad, or part thereof, conveyed by this indenture, the Railroad Company, when and as it rightfully may, shall withdraw such underlying bonds from the pledgee thereof, and shall deposit them with the Trust Company, whether canceled or uncanceled. The Trust Company shall hold all such existing bonds, and such underlying bonds, so surrendered to it as aforesaid, for the further security of the bonds secured by this indenture, until such time as the lien or liens of the mortgages or deeds of trust securing the same shall have been fully discharged or satisfied, or adequate provision made therefor; and shall further hold said existing bonds and underlying bonds until the said Company shall, by attested resolution of its Directors, demand to have them delivered to the Railroad Company, and thereupon the Trust Company shall deliver them to the Railroad Company, first canceling those not already canceled; provided, however, that no such existing bonds shall be so canceled or delivered to the Railroad Company unless all prior liens securing underlying bonds, deposited as aforesaid for the further security of such existing bonds, shall have been fully satisfied, or adequate provision made therefor. The Trust Company may act upon the certified resolutions of the Directors, or the properly certified opinion of counsel for the Railroad Company that the lien or liens of the mortgages or deeds of trust securing any of the existing or any of the underlying bonds aforesaid shall have been fully discharged or satisfied, or that adequate provision has been made therefor.

If, after the surrender to the Trust Company of ninety-five (95) per cent. of all the existing bonds hereinbefore enumerated, and after the Trust Company shall have set aside the amount of bonds equal, at par of each, to the amount of said existing bonds and obligations not so surrendered, there be unissued any residue of bonds of the aforesaid reserve of One Hundred and Seventy-five Million Dollars ($175,000,000.00); then the Trust Company, without any other or further condition precedent, shall authenticate and deliver to the Railroad Company such residue of the bonds reserved as aforesaid, and then remaining unissued, upon the demand or demands of the Railroad Company expressed through attested resolutions of its Directors.

Whenever any bonds, which it is provided herein shall be refunded, have been lost, stolen or destroyed, so that they cannot be presented and surrendered by the rightful owners thereof for payment upon their maturity, but shall be paid by the Railroad Company upon the giving of indemnity satisfactory to the Directors, bonds under this indenture in lieu thereof shall be authenticated by the Trust Company and delivered to the Railroad Company, upon the giving of proper indemnity to the Trust Company.

A certificate signed, or purporting to be signed by the President or other executive officer, and by the General Auditor or the Treasurer, of the Railroad Company, as to the facts pertinent to the right to authenticate and deliver refunding and extension bonds as aforesaid, shall, as regards the Trust Company, be conclusive evidence of such facts and be full authority for action of the Trust Company on the faith thereof, in accordance therewith.

No bond held in, for, or on account of any sinking fund, for which a bond secured by this indenture shall be issued as in this Article provided shall thereafter be reissued in any manner or form.

§ 4. The said Trust Company, reserving the One Hundred and Seventy-five Million Dollars ($175,000,000.00) of bonds, as before provided, shall authenticate and deliver to the Railroad Company, upon its demand or demands, expressed from time to time through attested resolutions of its Directors, stating that the bonds are to be authenticated and issued pursuant to the provisions of this section, and without any other or further condition precedent:

First—Bonds not exceeding in amount Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000.00), to be used in the discretion of the Directors, for facilitating and promoting the discharge of the debts in Section 2 of this Article enumerated; and

Second—Bonds to the amount of Forty-five Million Dollars ($45,000,000.00), to be used in reimbursing the treasury of the Railroad Company for expenditures heretofore made in the acquisition of, or in procuring or aiding in the construction of the railroads and railroad bridges hereinbefore conveyed, and of the terminals and other property thereto appurtenant, and of improvements and additions thereto

§ 5. The remainder of the bonds authorized by this indenture shall be, from time to time, authenticated by the said Trust Company, and issued by the Railroad Company, only when and as the same, or the proceeds thereof, shall be required by the Railroad Company for the cost of additions, improvements and betterments of and to the railroads and property conveyed by this indenture, or of additional equipment therefor, or of building, buying or otherwise acquiring additional railroads and terminals, or of acquiring all or any part of the capital stock, bonds or other evidence of indebtedness representing the same, additional main, side or other tracks, yards, buildings, shops or works, and of additions, improvements and betterments thereto and equipment therefor, or of buying, building or otherwise acquiring, for the purpose of connecting its various railroads, bridges across the Mississippi River or the Missouri River, or elsewhere.

Before authenticating and delivering bonds in pursuance of this section, there shall be delivered to the Trust Company a copy of a resolution of the Directors of the Railroad Company certified by its Secretary or Assistant Secretary, calling for the authentication and delivery of such bonds, and also a certificate or certificates signed and verified by the President, or a Vice-President, and by the Chief Engineer and the chief accounting officer of the Railroad Company, setting forth:

(a) That expenditures have been made for one or more of the purposes for which said bonds may be issued, indicating the particular property constructed or acquired, and stating the amount of the expenditures made or incurred by the Railroad Company, in the construction or acquisition thereof;

(b) That such expenditures are not in excess of the fair value of such property and the interest therein acquired by the Railroad Company, and that no portion of such expenditures has been included in any previous certificate furnished hereunder; and that no bonds or proceeds of bonds were previously received in respect thereof, under this indenture;

(c) Any other matters upon which the right of the Trust Company to authenticate and deliver bonds may depend, in whole or in part.

The Trust Company may accept all statements in said resolutions and certificates contained as conclusive, but in its discretion may verify the truth of the statements of such resolutions or certificates, and may require such further evidence in respect thereto as may seem to it necessary.

Every such certificate furnished under this section, shall be accompanied by such instruments and conveyances, satisfactory to the Trustees hereunder, as may be necessary to vest in the Trustees all the new property so constructed or acquired in respect of which bonds, or the proceeds of bonds, are applied for.

Thereupon the Trust Company shall authenticate and deliver to the Railroad Company, bonds reserved hereunder, to an amount equal, at par, to the expenditure so certified for the purposes aforesaid.

§ 6. The Trust Company shall authenticate and deliver to the Railroad Company bonds demanded by it, as is provided by this indenture, all at one time, or in such parts and at such time or times, as may be designated by its Directors in appropriate resolutions as aforesaid.

Before authenticating and delivering any coupon bond hereby secured the Trust Company shall detach and shall cancel all coupons thereof then matured, and deliver the same to the Railroad Company.

§ 7. The said Trust Company shall not authenticate and deliver bonds in an aggregate principal amount exceeding Three Hundred Million Dollars ($300,000,000.00) at any one time outstanding.

The Trust Company may, from time to time, and at any time hereafter, require from the Railroad Company statements showing the aggregate amount of bonds then outstanding and secured by this indenture, and, for their information in this behalf, may have reasonable access to the books of the Railroad Company.

§ 8. Coupon bonds issued under this indenture shall pass by delivery, unless registered in the owner's name on the books of the Railroad Company, at its office or agency in the City of Boston, Massachusetts, or at its office or agency in the City of New York, or elsewhere if the Directors shall so prescribe; such registration being noted on the bond by the proper officer of the Railroad Company. After such registration, such bonds shall pass only by transfer on the books of the Railroad Company, by the registered owner, or his attorney thereto duly authorized, the transfer being similarly noted on the bond by such officer of the Railroad Company, unless the last transfer shall have been made and registered to bearer, in which case such bonds shall again pass by delivery until again registered. In all cases, the coupons shall be payable to bearer, whether the bonds themselves be registered or not.

Whenever coupon bonds issued under this indenture, bearing interest at the same rate, and amounting at par to five thousand dollars ($5,000.00), ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00), or fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00), are offered in exchange for a registered bond or bonds without coupons, the Railroad Company, upon the payment of the charges therefor, shall issue, and the Trust Company shall authenticate in exchange therefor, a registered bond or bonds, without coupons, for the same aggregate amount of principal, and bearing interest at the same rate; and whenever a registered bond or bonds, without coupons, issued under this indenture, is offered in exchange for registered bonds of other denominations, the Railroad Company, upon payment of the charges therefor, shall issue, and the Trust Company shall authenticate in exchange therefor, other registered bonds for the same aggregate amount of principal and bearing interest at the same rate.

Whenever any registered bond without coupons, issued under and secured by this indenture, shall be surrendered for exchange for coupon bonds, the Railroad Company, upon payment of the charges therefor, shall issue, and the Trust Company shall authenticate, and in exchange for such bonds shall deliver coupon bonds for the same aggregate principal sum, and bearing interest at the same rate, as such registered bond, with the coupons maturing on and after the first day of March or September next after the date of such exchange.

The Railroad Company shall cancel all bonds and unmatured coupons surrendered, as aforesaid, and deliver the same to the Trust Company, which shall cancel its certificate thereon, and return the bonds to the Railroad Company.

Every registered bond, without coupons, issued under this indenture, shall be transferable by the registered holder thereof, or by his attorney thereunto duly authorized, on the books of the Railroad Company, at its office or agency in the City of Boston, Massachusetts, or at its office or agency in the City of New York, or elsewhere, if the Directors shall so prescribe. In every such case the transfer shall be noted on the bond by the appropriate entry, signed by the proper officer of the Railroad Company.

The Railroad Company, (1) for any exchange of coupon bonds for registered bonds, (2) for any transfer of registered bonds without coupons, and (3) for any exchange of registered bonds without coupons for coupon bonds, at its option, may require the payment of a sum sufficient to reimburse it for any stamp tax or governmental charge, and in addition thereto such further sum as may be necessary to meet other expenses connected therewith, such further sum, however, not to exceed one dollar for each new bond issued upon such exchange or transfer.

§ 9. In case any bond issued under this indenture shall be mutilated, lost or destroyed, the Trust Company, upon the demand of the Railroad Company, shall authenticate and deliver a new bond of like tenor and date (including coupons in case of a coupon bond), bearing the same serial number, in exchange and substitution for, and upon cancellation of, the mutilated coupon bond and its coupons, or the mutilated registered bonds, or in lieu of and substitution for the coupon bond and its coupons, or the registered bond, so destroyed or lost. The applicant for such substituted bond shall furnish to the Railroad Company and to the Trust Company evidence satisfactory to both of them of the mutilation, destruction or loss of such coupon bond and its coupons, or of such registered bond, and shall also furnish indemnity satisfactory to both of them in their discretion.

ARTICLE II.

The Railroad Company covenants that it will maintain, or cause to be maintained, the properties conveyed by this indenture, in good condition and repair, and operate the same according to law; that it will pay the principal and interest of all bonds issued under this indenture according to the terms thereof; that it will pay or cause to be paid all taxes and assessments, federal, state or municipal, upon said properties, or any part thereof, or upon the earnings or income thereof; provided, nevertheless, that the Railroad Company shall not be deemed or held to be in default in respect to its obligation to pay any such tax, assessment, or other charge so long as the Railroad Company in good faith and by proper legal proceedings shall contest the validity thereof. That it will maintain an office or agency elsewhere if the Directors shall so prescribe, for the registration of bonds, in books to be kept for the purpose, in accordance with the provisions of said bonds and of Article I hereof; that it will dispose of said bonds only in the manner provided in this indenture, and apply the proceeds only to the purposes in this indenture prescribed; that it will at all times hereafter, upon request in writing, execute and deliver to said Trustees such further reasonable and necessary conveyances of the property and franchises intended to be conveyed by this indenture, whether now owned or hereafter to be acquired, as may be required for the more fully assuring to the said Trustees, said property and franchises, and for carrying into effect the objects and purposes of this indenture; that it will not apply for or avail itself of any injunction or stay of proceedings; or plead or in any way take advantage of any extension law, stay law, valuation law, redemption law, appraisement law, or any law of any State or Territory, in which any property conveyed by this indenture is or shall be located or found, whether now in force or which hereafter may be in force, which in any way may alter, impair, or impede the rights or remedies of the holders of the bonds issued, or of the Trustees, or which shall affect or change the time, place, means or mode of perfecting or enforcing such rights or remedies.

The Railroad Company, from time to time, may make changes or alterations in, or substitutions for, any leases or contracts for trackage rights subject to this indenture, but in any such event, any such modified, altered or substituted leases or contracts for trackage rights forthwith shall become bound by, and be subject to, the terms of this indenture in the same manner as those previously existing.

ARTICLE III.

SECTION 1. Upon the request of the Railroad Company from time to time, expressed through attested resolutions of its Directors, and subject to the conditions and limitations in this Article prescribed, but not otherwise, the Trustees shall release from the lien and operation of this indenture any part of the mortgaged premises then subject thereto. If the property which the Railroad Company desires to have so released is real estate, track or rights of way, which, in the judgment of the Railroad Company, is no longer necessary for use in connection with its railroad, the proceeds of any sale thereof, if in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), shall be paid to the Trust Company and used by it in the purchase of bonds issued under this indenture; or, if the Railroad Company so elect, shall be used by it, with the consent of the Trust Company in making additions to the railroads and property conveyed by this indenture, in the purchase of additional real estate, or in the improvement and betterment of the mortgaged premises. Any and all of the real estate acquired by the Railroad Company in exchange for, or to take the place of, any real estate released or withdrawn from the lien and operation of this indenture, shall become and be subject to the lien hereof as fully as if specifically mortgaged hereby; but, if requested by the Trust Company, the Railroad Company shall convey the same to the Trustees by appropriate deed, upon the trusts and for the purposes of this indenture. No part of the track or of the rights of way conveyed by this indenture shall be released therefrom, unless the same shall no longer be necessary in the use and operation of the Company's railroads, nor if thereby the continuity of any line of railroad remaining subject to this indenture shall be broken.

§ 2. The Railroad Company may sell, exchange or otherwise dispose of any equipment or other personal property that in its judgment shall have become unsuitable or is not needed for the purposes of its business, substituting therefor property of equal value, which shall at once and without further conveyance be covered by and become subject to this indenture.

All moneys in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), received as compensation for property taken from the Railroad Company by the exercise of the power of eminent domain shall be paid to the Trust Company and used by it in the purchase of bonds issued under this indenture, or, if the Railroad Company so elect, shall be used by it, with the consent of the Trust Company, in the purchase of additional real estate, or in the improvement and betterment of the mortgaged premises.

§ 3. In no event shall any purchaser or purchasers of any property, sold or disposed of under any provision of this Article, be required to see to the application of the purchase money.

§ 4. In case the mortgaged premises shall be in the possession of a receiver lawfully appointed, the powers in and by this Article conferred upon the Railroad Company may be exercised by such receiver, with the approval of the Trustees; and, if the Trustees shall be in possession of the mortgaged premises under any provision of this indenture, then all the powers of this Article conferred upon the Railroad Company may be exercised by the Trustees in their discretion.

§ 5. A certificate of the Railroad Company, under its corporate seal, signed and verified by the affidavit of its President or a Vice-President, may be received by the Trustees as conclusive evidence of any of the statements therein set forth, and shall be full warrant to the Trustees for any action taken or suffered by them under the provisions of this Article on the faith thereof; but in their discretion the Trustees may require such further or additional evidence as to them may seem reasonable. If the Trustees shall determine to make any further inquiry, or require further or additional evidence, they may examine the books, records and premises of the Railroad Company personally, or by their agents or attorneys. The expenses of such examination shall be paid by the Railroad Company and until paid shall be secured by this indenture.

ARTICLE IV.

SECTION 1. Nothing contained in this indenture, or in any bond hereby secured, shall prevent any lawful consolidation or merger of the Railroad Company with any other corporation, or any conveyance and transfer, subject to the continuing lien of this indenture and to all the provisions thereof, of all the mortgaged premises as an entirety to a railroad corporation at that time existing under and by virtue of the laws of the United States or of any State thereof, and lawfully entitled to acquire the same: provided, however, that such consolidation, merger or sale shall not impair the lien and security of this indenture, or any of the rights or powers of the Trustees, or of the bondholders hereunder; and that, upon any such consolidation, merger or sale, the due and punctual payment of the principal and interest of all of said bonds according to their tenor, and the due and punctual performance and observance of all the covenants and conditions of this indenture, shall be assumed by the corporation formed by such consolidation or merger or purchasing as aforesaid.

§ 2. In case the Railroad Company, pursuant to Section 1 of this Article, shall be consolidated or merged with any other corporation, or shall sell, convey and transfer, subject to this indenture, all the mortgaged premises as an entirety as aforesaid; the successor corporation formed by such consolidation, or into which the Railroad Company shall have been merged, or which shall have purchased and received a conveyance and transfer as aforesaid, upon executing and causing to be recorded an indenture with the Trustees, satisfactory to the Trustees, whereby such successor corporation shall assume the due and punctual payment of the principal and interest of said bonds and the performance of all the covenants and conditions of this indenture, shall succeed to, and be substituted for, the Railroad Company, party of the first part hereto, with the same effect as if it had been named herein as such party of the first part; and such successor corporation thereupon may cause to be signed and may issue, either in its own name or in the name of the Railroad Company, any or all of such bonds which shall not theretofore have been signed by the Railroad Company and delivered to the Trust Company; and upon the order of said successor corporation and subject to all the terms, conditions and restrictions herein prescribed, the Trust Company shall authenticate and deliver any of such bonds which shall have been previously signed and delivered by the officers of the Railroad Company to the Trust Company for authentication, and any of such bonds which such successor corporation shall thereafter cause to be signed and delivered to the Trust Company for that purpose. All the bonds so issued shall in all respects have the same legal rank and security as the bonds theretofore or thereafter issued in accordance with the terms of this indenture, as though all of said bonds had been issued at the date of the execution hereof.

ARTICLE V.

No recourse under or upon any obligation, covenant, or agreement contained in this indenture, or in any bond or coupon, hereby secured, or because of the creation of any indebtedness hereby secured, shall be had against any stockholder, officer or director of the Railroad Company, or of any successor corporation, either directly or through the Railroad Company, by the enforcement of any assessment, or by any legal or equitable proceeding by virtue of any statute or otherwise; it being expressly agreed and understood that this indenture, and the obligations hereby secured, are solely corporate obligations, and that no personal liability whatever shall attach to, or be incurred by, the stockholders, officers, or directors of the Railroad Company, because of the incurring of the indebtedness hereby authorized, or under or by reason of any of the obligations, covenants or agreements contained in this indenture, or in any of the bonds or coupons hereby secured, or implied therefrom; and that any and all personal liability of every name and nature, and any and all rights and claims against every such stockholder, officer or director, whether arising at common law or in equity, or created by statute or constitution, are hereby expressly released and waived, as a condition of, and as part of the consideration for the execution of this indenture and the issue of the bond and interest obligation secured thereby.

Nothing in this indenture, expressed or implied, is intended or shall be construed to enlarge the security of the holders of any of said outstanding existing bonds, specified in Article I hereof, or to create any trust in their favor, or to give to any person or corporation, other than the parties hereto, and the holders of bonds, issued under and secured by this indenture, any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or in respect of this indenture, or any covenant, condition, or provision herein contained; all the covenants, conditions and provisions of this indenture being intended to be, and being, for the sole and exclusive benefit of the parties hereto and of the holders of the bonds hereby secured.

ARTICLE VI.

Until default, continuing as herein provided, in the payment of the interest or principal of the bonds, or any of them, secured by this indenture or in some other undertaking of the Railroad Company in this indenture contained, the said Company shall have all such right to possess, manage, operate, use and enjoy the property herein conveyed, and to receive and dispose of all the incomes, revenues, profits, and tolls thereof, as if this indenture had not been made.

ARTICLE VII.

SECTION 1. If the Railroad Company shall fail to pay the principal, or any part thereof, or the interest, or any part thereof, of any of the bonds secured by this indenture, when and where the same shall become due and payable, according to the tenor and effect thereof, and if such default shall continue for six (6) months, or if it shall fail to perform any other covenant or obligation in this indenture undertaken by it, and if such default shall continue for six (6) months after notice thereof, given to it in writing by the Trust Company; then and in any such case;

First—The Trustees, in their discretion may, and upon the request in writing of the holders of twenty-five (25) per cent. in amount of said bonds then outstanding, shall, enter upon all and singular the mortgaged premises, and use, operate and enjoy the same, making from time to time all needful repairs, additions and alterations, and, after deducting all operating expenses, including taxes and their own reasonable charges and compensation, together with the cost of such repairs, additions and alterations, apply the net income to the payment pro rata of the interest due and unpaid upon said bonds in the order in which said interest is payable and of the principal when due, either by the terms of the said bonds or under the provisions of this indenture, and may retain and continue such possession and use until the whole of the interest and principal of all of the said bonds shall be paid; or,

Second—The Trustees in their discretion may, and on the written request of the holders of twenty-five (25) per cent. in amount of said bonds then outstanding, shall, cause the mortgaged premises to be sold at public auction, first giving notice of the time, place and terms thereof by advertisement published three times a week for four consecutive weeks in a newspaper in each of the cities of New York, Boston, Chicago and St. Louis, and all such other, if any, places as may be required by law, respectively, the last publication to be at least ten (10) days before the day of sale: and, upon such sale, shall execute and deliver to the purchaser a good and sufficient conveyance, in fee simple, which shall be a bar against the Railroad Company, and all persons claiming under it, of all right, title, interest, or claim in, or to, said mortgaged premises, or any part thereof. The sale of said mortgaged premises shall be for cash; but the bonds secured by this indenture, or any of them, shall, if offered, be received in payment of any bid which shall be accepted at such sale, at the value of each bond and the interest due thereon and unpaid, which value shall be fixed by the ratio of the amount of the bid, after deducting therefrom all expenses of the trust, together with any sums necessary to cancel all prior liens, to the full extent then due on all of the said bonds.

In case of such sale, the Trustees may, on request in writing of a majority in interest of the holders of said bonds then outstanding, bid off the mortgaged premises and property, at a price not exceeding the amount due on such bonds, and the interest thereon due or accrued and unpaid, together with such amount as may be necessary to discharge all the prior liens and all costs and expenses of the trust; and, in case of any sale under this indenture, no purchaser, other than said Trustees, shall be responsible for the application of the purchase money.

The Trustees, after deducting from the proceeds of such sale all costs and expenses incurred by them in and about the execution of the trust, together with such further sum, if any, including counsel fees and their own reasonable compensation, as shall be necessary to discharge all prior liens and protect them against all liabilities incurred, or to be thereafter incurred by them, arising out of or in consequence of said trust, shall apply said net proceeds to the payment pro rata of the principal and interest of the said bonds remaining unpaid, whether then or thereafter payable, and shall pay over the residue thereof, if any, to the said Railroad Company.

The Trustees shall have power to adjourn said sale from time to time at their discretion, and, in case of any adjournment, may make said sale at the time appointed without further notice; or,

Third—The Trustees may, in their discretion, and, on the written request of the holders of twenty-five (25) per cent. in amount of said bonds then outstanding, shall, institute and carry on appropriate legal proceedings for the foreclosure and enforcement of said indenture, by the sale of the mortgaged premises, or otherwise, under decree or judgment of court.

In case of such sale, whether made under the power of sale hereby granted or pursuant to judicial proceedings, the whole of the principal sums of the bonds hereby secured, if not previously due, shall at once become due and payable, anything in said bonds or in this indenture to the contrary notwithstanding.

§ 2. In case of default in payment of interest on any of said bonds, containing for six (6) months, the said Trustees may, in their discretion, and, at the request of the holders of a majority in interest of said bonds then outstanding, shall, declare the principal of all of the said bonds to be at once due and payable; and, written notice of such declaration being mailed to the Railroad Company within ten (10) days thereafter, the said principal shall be held and deemed to be due and payable, as of the date of said declaration, for all purposes whatever, incidental to or growing out of said indenture: provided, however, that, at the request in writing of the holders of a majority in interest of said bonds then outstanding, the Trustees may thereafter vacate and set aside said declaration, whereupon said principal shall become due and payable, according to the tenor of said bonds, and as if said original declaration had never been made.

§ 3. Anything in this indenture to the contrary notwithstanding, the holders of a majority in interest of the amount of bonds hereby secured and then outstanding, from time to time shall have the right to direct and to control the action of the Trustees, and the method and place of conducting any and all proceedings for any sale of the premises hereby conveyed, or mortgaged, or for the foreclosure of this indenture after the same shall have been begun or instituted.

If, after any default as aforesaid, and the institution of foreclosure proceedings, the Railroad Company shall make all payments and do all other acts and things necessary to cure such default, and shall pay all expenses of the Trustees incurred in respect thereto, and shall make the estate and security of the bondholders as beneficial and effectual as if such default had not taken place; the Trustees may, and, upon the request in writing of a majority in interest of the bonds then outstanding, shall, discontinue such foreclosure proceedings, and shall restore the possession of the mortgaged premises to the Railroad Company or its assigns; provided, however, that the rights of the Trustees, or of the bondholders, as respects any subsequent or future default, shall be thereby in no wise prejudiced or affected.

§ 4. The Railroad Company, after any default hereunder, may waive any period of grace herein reserved, or any condition precedent to the right of the Trustees to enforce their lien and security under this indenture by reason of such default; and at any time thereafter, before full payment of the bonds secured hereby, and whenever it shall deem expedient for the better security of such bonds, although there be then no default entitling the Trustees to enter into possession, the Railroad Company, with the consent of the Trustees, may surrender and deliver to the Trustees full possession of the whole or any part of the property, premises and interests hereby conveyed, or intended so to be, for any period fixed or indefinite. Upon such surrender and delivery to the Trustees with their consent, the Trustees shall enter into and upon the premises so surrendered and delivered, and shall take and receive possession thereof, for such period, fixed or indefinite, as aforesaid, without prejudice, however, to their right at any time subsequently, when entitled thereto by any provision hereof, to insist upon and to maintain such possession, though beyond the expiration of any prescribed period. Upon any such voluntary surrender and delivery of said property and premises, or of any part thereof, the Trustees, from the time of their entry, shall work, maintain, use, manage, control and employ the same in accordance with the provisions of this indenture, and shall receive and apply the income and revenues as hereinbefore provided. Upon application of the Trustees, and with the consent of the Railroad Company, if there be then no subsisting default hereunder, and without such consent, if there shall then be a subsisting default entitling the Trustees to enter as hereinbefore provided, a receiver may be appointed to take possession of, and to operate, maintain and manage the whole or any part of said property, wheresoever the same may be situated, with all the rights, powers and duties by this section conferred upon the Trustees; and the Railroad Company shall transfer and deliver to such receiver all such property in its possession wheresoever the same may be situated.

§ 5. The rights of surrender, entry and sale, hereinbefore granted, shall be deemed to be cumulative remedies, and shall not deprive the Trustees, or bondholders acting through the Trustees, of any legal or equitable remedy appropriate to enforce the provisions of this indenture; provided that all such proceedings shall be taken by the Trustees, their successor or successors in trust, and not by bondholders, either individually or collectively, except as hereinafter provided.

ARTICLE VIII.

Any request or other action of bondholders, contemplated in or provided for by this indenture, may be manifested by one instrument, or any number of concurrent instruments of like tenor, signed or executed by such bondholders personally, or by an agent having written authority. Proof of the execution of any such instrument or instruments, or of the authority in writing of any agent signing the same, or of the ownership of coupon bonds, transferable by delivery, shall be sufficient for the purpose of this indenture, when made in the following manner:

The fact and date of execution of any such instrument may be proved by the certificate of any notary public, that the signer of such instrument, on his own behalf, or on behalf of some other person or party, for whom he was authorized to sign, acknowledged the execution thereof, or by an affidavit of a witness of such execution.

The amount of coupon bonds, transferable by delivery, held by any person signing such instrument personally, or by attorney, together with the denominations and issue numbers of the bonds so held, and the date of holding, may be proved by a writing, executed by any trust company, bank, bankers, or other depository, wherever situated, certifying that, at the date therein mentioned, such person had on deposit with such depository the bonds described in such certificate.

The Railroad Company and the Trustees may deem and treat the person in whose name any coupon bond shall be registered as the absolute owner thereof, for the purpose of receiving payment of, or on account of, the principal thereof, and for all other purposes except to receive payment of interest represented by outstanding coupons; and all such payments made to any such registered holder for the time being, or upon his order, shall be valid and effectual to satisfy and discharge the liability upon such bond to the extent of the sum or sums so paid.

The bearer of coupon bonds, not registered, and the bearer of interest coupons, may be treated by the Railroad Company and the Trustees as the absolute owner of such bonds or coupons, for all purposes. Neither any coupon belonging to any bond hereby secured, nor any claim for interest on any registered bond, which in any way, at or after maturity, shall have been transferred or pledged separate and apart from the bond to which it relates, shall, unless accompanied by such bond, be entitled, in case of a default hereunder, to any benefit of, or from, this indenture, except after the prior payment in full of the principal of the bonds issued hereunder, and of all coupons and interest obligations not so transferred or pledged.

In all cases of instruction or request by bondholders to the Trustees, the Trustees may require such bondholders to deposit their bonds with the Trust Company and to indemnify the Trustees from and against all expenses, charges, costs and liabilities, in such amounts and in such manner as the Trustees may require.

ARTICLE IX.

If at the maturity of the bonds secured by this indenture, or at any time thereafter, the Railroad Company shall pay both principal and interest of all bonds issued, or shall deposit with the Trust Company, for the purpose of paying all such bonds outstanding, a sum of money sufficient to pay the same, together with all accrued and unpaid interest thereon, and shall also pay all other proper expenses and charges of the trust, and shall also have performed all of the other things required of it by this indenture; then the estate, right, title and interest of the Trustees shall cease and determine, and all the railroads and other property and all estate, right, title and interest therein conveyed by this indenture shall revert to and revest in the Railroad Company; yet it shall be the duty of the Trustees to discharge and satisfy the lien of this indenture, and to make such reasonable deeds of release to the Railroad Company or its assigns, as by counsel of the Railroad Company may be advised.

ARTICLE X.

SECTION 1. Unless the Railroad Company shall be in default in payment of the interest or the principal of some bond or bonds hereby secured; or unless the Railroad Company shall be in default in the due performance and observance of some covenant or condition of this indenture, and such default shall have continued beyond the period of grace, if any, herein provided for in respect of such default; and the Trustees shall have entered, or shall have elected to enter, into possession, under the power of entry by this indenture conferred; or unless the Railroad Company voluntarily shall have surrendered to the Trustees possession of the mortgaged premises as by this indenture authorized, the Trustees (except with the assent of the Railroad Company) shall not collect, or be entitled to collect, the dividends on any stock, nor interest on any bonds or other claims of indebtedness now or hereafter pledged with or assigned to the Trustees under this indenture, and the Railroad Company shall be entitled to receive all interest paid, and dividends declared, in respect of any bonds or other claims of indebtedness or stocks transferred to or pledged with, the Trustees, pursuant to any of the provisions of this indenture; and from time to time (subject to the covenants in respect thereof in this section contained), upon request of the Railroad Company, the Trustees shall deliver to it the coupons for such interest, in order that the Railroad Company may receive payment thereof, for its own use, and shall deliver to the Railroad Company suitable orders in favor of the Railroad Company, or its nominee, for the payment of such interest or dividends, as the case may be; and the Railroad Company may collect such interest and dividends, but not by any proceeding which the Trustees shall deem to be prejudicial to the trusts hereunder; and the Trustees shall at once pay over to the Railroad Company any such interest and dividends that may be collected or received by them.

If any such coupon, or if any evidence of any such claim for interest, delivered to the Railroad Company, as aforesaid, shall not, upon maturity, promptly be paid and canceled, the Railroad Company shall return the same to the Trustees; and in case of the payment of any such interest, the Railroad Company shall, upon demand of the Trustees, furnish them with satisfactory evidence of the cancellation and extinguishment thereof.

Except as in this indenture otherwise expressly provided:

(a) The Railroad Company shall not be entitled to receive, and the Trustees shall not pay over to the Railroad Company, any part of the prinprincipal of any bond or of any other claim of indebtedness pledged or assigned to the Trustees hereunder.

(b) The Railroad Company shall not be entitled to receive, and the Trustees shall not pay over, any interest on any bond, or on any other claim of indebtedness, which shall have been collected or paid out of the proceeds of any sale of any property covered by a mortgage securing such bond or claim of indebtedness, or out of the proceeds of the sale of any other property of a company liable upon such bond or claim of indebtedness, in case of dissolution or liquidation of such debtor company; it being the intention that the Railroad Company shall only be entitled to receive payment made out of the rents, revenues, income, or proceeds of operation of such properties.

(c) The Railroad Company shall not sell, assign or transfer any such claim to interest or dividend so delivered or assigned to it by the Trustees, except subject to the provisions of this indenture.

(d) The Railroad Company shall not collect any such interest or dividends, by legal proceedings, or by enforcement of any security therefor, except with assent of the Trustees, nor in any manner which the Trustees shall deem prejudicial to the trusts hereunder.

(e) Until actually paid or discharged, every such coupon or right to dividends, and other claims of indebtedness, shall remain subject to the lien of this indenture.

§ 2. Unless the Railroad Company shall be in default in payment of the interest or the principal of some bond or bonds hereby secured; or unless the Railroad Company shall be in default in the due performance and observance of some covenant or condition of this indenture, and such default shall have continued beyond the period of grace, if any, herein provided, in respect of such default, and the Trustees shall have entered, or shall have elected to enter, into possession, under the power of entry by this indenture conferred, or unless the Railroad Company voluntarily shall have surrendered to the Trustees possession of the mortgaged premises, as by this indenture authorized, the Railroad Company shall have the right to vote upon all shares of stock pledged hereunder, for all purposes not inconsistent with the provisions or purposes of this indenture, and with the same force and effect as though such pledge had not been made; and from time to time, upon demand of the Railroad Company, the Trustees forthwith shall execute and deliver to the Railroad Company, or its nominees, suitable powers of attorney or proxies for such purposes.

§ 3. The Trustees shall be empowered to cause to be registered in their names, as Trustees, any and all coupon bonds pledged with them hereunder, or to cause the same to be exchanged for registered bonds, of any denomination, without coupons, or to cause the same to be stamped "Non-negotiable. Held by the Central Trust Company of New York and Oliver M. Spencer, Trustees, under General Mortgage of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, dated March 2, 1908." The Trustees shall cause to be transferred into their names, as Trustees hereunder, all registered bonds and all shares of stock at any time delivered and assigned to them, to be held by them under this indenture. The Trustees may do what ever may be necessary for the purpose of maintaining or preserving the corporate existence of any and all companies, any of whose shares shall, at any time, be pledged hereunder, and, for such purposes, from time to time, it may sell, assign, transfer, and deliver so many shares of the stocks of the several companies as may be necessary to qualify persons to act as directors of, or in any other official relation to, said companies.

§ 4. If any default shall occur in the payment of the principal or interest of any mortgage, bond or other claim of indebtedness at any time pledged hereunder, or of any other bond or other claim of indebtedness secured by the same instrument that secures a bond or bonds or other claim of indebtedness held by the Trustees hereunder, then, in any such case, the Trustees, upon the written request of the Railroad Company, and the furnishing to the Trustees of reasonable indemnity against expense or liability, shall cause proper proceedings to be instituted and prosecuted, in some court of competent jurisdiction, to enforce the lien by which such bonds or other claims of indebtedness are secured.

The Trustees, however, shall not be liable for any error of judgment in respect of such proceedings, or their outcome.

If the Railroad Company shall be in default in payment of the principal or interest of any of the bonds hereby secured, and such default shall have continued for a period of six (6) months, or in case a Receiver of the mortgaged premises shall have been appointed, or in case the Trustees shall have entered, or shall have elected to enter into possession of the mortgaged premises under the power herein conferred, or by the voluntary action of the Railroad Company, then the Trustees, in their discretion may institute such proceedings without such written request.

In case, at any time, any company whose capital stock in whole or in part is held by the Trustees under this indenture, shall be dissolved or liquidated, or in case all or any of the property of such company shall be sold upon the insolvency of such company, at any judicial or other sale, or in case any property covered by a mortgage securing any bonds or other claim of indebtedness held by the Trustees hereunder shall be sold upon foreclosure of such mortgage, then, in any such case, if by the Railroad Company requested in writing thereto, and provided with the necessary funds therefor, the Trustees shall purchase, or cause to be purchased, such property either in the name, and on behalf, of the Railroad Company, or in their own name, or by purchasing trustees; using, as far as permissible, such bonds, claims of indebtedness or stock, as the case may be, to make payment for such property, and, in case of any such purchase, the Trustees shall cause the title to the property so purchased to be vested in the Railroad Company, subject to the lien of this indenture.

The Trustees may also, in any case, take such steps as in their discretion shall be calculated best to protect their interests hereunder, in respect of any bonds or stocks subject to the lien hereof, and for that purpose may join in any plan of reorganization in respect of any such bonds or stock, and may accept new securities issued in exchange therefor under the plan.

On demand, the Railroad Company will forthwith pay, or satisfactorily provide for, all expenditures incurred by the Trustees under this section.

§ 5. The assignment or pledge hereunder of shares of stock of any company or companies shall not prevent the consolidation or merger of any one or more of such companies with, or the sale, conveyance or transfer of the property, or of any part thereof, to the Railroad Company; provided that such consolidation, merger or sale, shall not have the effect of impairing or decreasing the aggregate value of the property mortgaged or pledged by this indenture, of which fact the Trustees shall be judges, whose decision thereon shall be conclusive upon all parties interested hereunder.

In event of the consolidation or merger of any such company with, or the sale of its property to, the Railroad Company, this indenture immediately shall become and be a lien upon the property of the company so consolidated or merged with, or sold to the Railroad Company, with the same force and effect as if expressly conveyed by this indenture, and the same shall be as complete a lien upon such property as that herein created by the pledge, to the Trustees hereunder, of the stock or bonds, as the case may be, of such constituent companies.

The assignment or pledge hereunder of any shares of stock of any company or companies, shall not prevent the consolidation or merger of any such companies with each other; nor shall it prevent the sale of the property of any such company; provided, however, that any such consolidation, merger, or sale shall be made only on such terms as that the same shall not have the effect of impairing or decreasing the aggregate value of the property mortgaged or pledged by this indenture; of which fact the Trustees shall be judges, whose decision thereon shall be conclusive upon all parties interested hereunder.

Any stock, bonds, or other securities, issued by any such consolidated, merged, or purchasing company in exchange for any stock theretofore held by the Trustees, shall be assigned to and deposited with the Trustees, and shall become subject to the lien of this indenture, with the same force and effect as if expressly pledged by this indenture.

The Trustees may do any and all things proper for carrying into effect the purposes of this section, and, in order to facilitate the consolidation or the merger, in whole or in part, of any company, the Trustees may transfer into the name of the Railroad Company, under such restrictions as they may deem sufficient for protection of the holders of the bonds secured hereby, the shares of any company about to be so merged; but the certificates in the name of the Railroad Company forthwith shall be delivered to and held by the Trustees hereunder, and simultaneously the Railroad Company shall execute such instruments as the Trustees shall require, in order to enable them to transfer such shares back into their own names, if at any time they shall deem such a course expedient for the protection of the holders of the bonds hereby secured.

§ 6. The Trustees, in their discretion, may, and if requested in writing by the Railroad Company, shall, consent to the extension or renewal of any bond or other claim of indebtedness, that may be pledged hereunder, and of the mortgages securing the same; and, in case of the renewal of any such bond, or other claim of indebtedness, the Trustees may surrender the same to the issuer thereof, or its successor, and, in lieu thereof may receive renewal bonds, or other claims of indebtedness, bearing such rates of interest, and maturing at such time as the Trustees may deem reasonable; provided that such extended or renewal bonds, or other claims of indebtedness shall be secured by a lien and charge upon the same property equal or superior to that of the bonds, or other claim of indebtedness, renewed or extended; of which fact the Trustees shall be judges, whose decision thereon shall be conclusive upon all parties interested hereunder. All bonds or other claims of indebtedness, received in exchange for, or in renewal of bonds or other claims of indebtedness, previously pledged hereunder, shall by the Trustees be held subject to all the terms and provisions of this indenture, in the same manner, and to the same extent, as those in exchange for which, or in renewal of which, the same shall have been received.

§ 7. Any moneys at any time received by the Trustees, or demandable by them, on account of the principal of any bond or other claim of indebtedness pledged hereunder, and also any moneys at any time received by the Trustees, or demandable by them, as a distributive proportion, accruing from distribution of capital, upon any stock pledged hereunder, shall be used by the Trustees in the purchase of bonds secured by this indenture; or, if the Railroad Company, not being in default upon any condition of this indenture, shall so elect, and so require in writing, may, in whole or in part, be used under direction of the Railroad Company, in the acquisition of other unincumbered property, stocks, bonds, or other claims of indebtedness of one or more of the kinds mentioned in Section five (5) of Article I, of this indenture, having a value at least equal to the amount of such money so expended therefor; of which freedom from prior incumbrances and value the Trustees shall be judges, whose decision thereon shall be conclusive upon all parties in interest under this indenture.

All such new property, stocks, bonds, or other claims of indebtedness so acquired, shall, forthwith upon acquisition, be transferred to the Trustees, in manner and form satisfactory to them, to be by them held under the trusts of this indenture.

§ 8. At any time when the Railroad Company shall not be in default under some provision of this indenture, the Trustees, in their discretion, may release to the Railroad Company, or to its assigns, any shares of stock, or any bonds or other claims of indebtedness, pledged hereunder, upon receiving in substitution therefor the transfer of other unincumbered property, stocks, bonds, or other claims for indebtedness, of one or more of the kinds mentioned in Section five (5) of Article I of this indenture, having a value at least equal to that of the stock, bonds, or other claims of indebtedness so released; the same to be held by the Trustees under the trusts of this indenture; of which freedom from incumbrance and value the Trustees shall be judges, whose decision shall be conclusive upon all parties interested under this indenture.

§ 9. Purchases, if any there shall be, of bonds secured by this indenture, made by the Trustees under the provisions of Section 7 of this Article, or under the provisions of Sections 1 and 2 of Article III, of this indenture, shall be made in such manner as the Trustees, in their discretion, shall deem most advantageous for the trusts hereby created. All bonds so purchased forthwith shall be retired and canceled.

ARTICLE XI.

SECTION 1. The words "Trust Company," wherever used in this indenture, shall be taken to mean the Central Trust Company of New York, Trustee, as aforesaid, or such other Trust Company as may succeed it in trust except when the contrary intention clearly appears. The words "Individual Trustee" or "Trustees" shall further be held to relate to those at the time being, whether original or successors, and substituted or new Trustees shall have all the rights and powers of the original Trustee or Trustees.

The word "Directors," wherever used in this indenture, shall be taken to refer to the Directors of the Railroad Company, or its successors.

§ 2. The Trustees shall not be answerable for the default or misconduct of any agent or attorney appointed by them in pursuance hereof, if such agent or attorney shall have been selected with reasonable care, or for anything whatever, in connection with this trust, except wilful misconduct or gross negligence. The Trustees shall not be personally liable for any debts contracted by them, or for damages to persons or property carried or injured, or for salaries or non-fulfilment of contracts, during any period wherein the Trustees shall manage the trust property or premises upon entry or voluntary surrender as aforesaid. The Trustees shall not be under any obligation to take any action towards the execution or enforcement of the trust hereby created, which in their opinion will be likely to involve them in expense or liability, unless one or more of the owners of the bonds hereby secured shall, as often as required by the Trustees, furnish them reasonable indemnity against expense or liability; nor shall the Trustees be required to take notice of any default hereunder, and they may conclusively assume that the Railroad Company has not made default hereunder, unless and until notified in writing of a default by the owners of at least twenty-five (25) per cent. of the bonds hereby secured then outstanding, distinctly specifying the default desired to be brought to the attention of the Trustees, or to take any action in respect of any default unless requested in writing to take action in respect thereof by the owners of not less than twenty-five (25) per cent. of the bonds hereby secured then outstanding, and tendered reasonable indemnity as aforesaid, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding; but neither any such notice or request, nor this provision therefor, shall affect any discretion herein given to the Trustees to determine whether or not they shall take action in respect of such default, or to take action without such request. The Trustees shall be protected in any action taken or suffered by them on the faith of any certificate, document or paper believed by them to be genuine. The Trustees shall not be responsible for the recording of this indenture or for the filing of the same as a chattel mortgage. The Trustees' are not responsible for the truth or accuracy of the recitals herein contained, which are made solely by the Railroad Company.

The Trustees shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for all services rendered in the execution of the trusts hereby created and which shall be payable by the Railroad Company, and until paid, such compensation of the Trustees and their expenses and liabilities in connection with the trust hereby created shall be secured by the lien of this indenture, and shall be paid from and out of the mortgaged premises and property prior to any payment therefrom of, or on account of the bonds hereby secured or the coupons or claims for interest thereto appertaining. The Trustees may consult with counsel and shall not be liable for any action taken or suffered by them in good faith in accordance with the opinion of counsel.

§ 3. The Trustees, or any trustee hereafter appointed, may resign and be discharged of the trusts created by this indenture by giving notice thereof to the Railroad Company and to the bondholders, by publication, at least twice a week, for four successive weeks, in a newspaper at that time published in each of the cities of New York, N. Y.; Boston, Massachusetts; Chicago, Illinois; and St. Louis, Missouri.

The Trustees may be removed at any time by an instrument in writing under the hands of three-quarters in amount of the owners of the bonds secured hereby and then outstanding, an original of which shall be filed with the Trustees.

§ 4. In case at any time the said Trustees, or any trustee hereafter appointed, shall resign or be removed or otherwise become incapable of acting, a successor or successors may be appointed by the owners of a majority in amount of the bonds hereby secured and then outstanding, by an instrument or concurrent instruments, signed by such bondholders or their attorneys in fact duly authorized; provided, nevertheless, and it is hereby agreed and declared, that, in case at any time there shall be a vacancy in the office of trustee hereunder, the Railroad Company, by an instrument executed by order of its Board of Directors, may appoint a trustee to fill such vacancy until a new trustee shall be appointed by the bondholders or as hereinafter authorized. The Railroad Company shall thereupon publish notice of such appointment once a week for six successive weeks in a newspaper published in each of the cities of New York, N. Y.; Boston, Massachusetts; Chicago, Illinois; and St. Louis, Missouri; but any new trustee so appointed by the Railroad Company shall immediately and without further act be superseded by a trustee appointed in the manner above provided by the bondholders prior to the expiration of six months after such publication of notice. In case no such appointment shall be made by the bondholders prior to the expiration of such six months, a new trustee, to supersede the trustee appointed by the Railroad Company, may nevertheless be appointed by any judge of the United States Circuit Court for the Eighth Circuit or by any court of competent jurisdiction in the premises, upon the application of the owners of one-quarter in amount of the bonds issued hereunder, then outstanding. Every such trustee, appointed in place of the Central Trust Company of New York, or its successor in the trust, shall always be a trust company in good standing, doing business in the City of New York, and having a capital and surplus and undivided profits aggregating at least Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000.00), if there be such a trust company, willing and able to accept the trust upon reasonable or customary terms.

Any new trustee appointed hereunder shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the trustee last in office and also to the Railroad Company, an instrument, accepting such appointment hereunder; and thereupon such new trustee shall become vested with all the estates, properties, rights, powers and trusts of its (or his) predecessor in the trust hereunder with like effect as if originally named as trustee herein, without any further act, deed or conveyance; but the trustee ceasing to act shall, nevertheless, on the written request of the new trustee, and at the cost of the Railroad Company, execute and deliver an instrument transferring to such new trustee, upon the trusts herein expressed, all the estates, properties, rights, powers and trusts of the trustee so resigning or removed, and shall duly assign, transfer and deliver any stocks, bonds, or other property and moneys held by such trustee to the new trustee so appointed in its (or his) place, provided that all sums payable to such trustee under any of the provisions of this indenture shall first be paid in full.

Should any deed, conveyance, or instrument in writing from the Railroad Company be required by any new trustee, for more fully and certainly vesting in and confirming to such new trustee such estates, rights, powers and trusts; any and all such deeds, conveyances and instruments in writing shall, upon request, be made, executed, acknowledged and delivered by the Railroad Company.

The said Oliver M. Spencer, Trustee, and his successor or successors in trust, shall from time to time make, execute and deliver to the Trust Company, aforesaid, and to any successor or successors in trust thereof, such letters of attorney and other powers as may be advised by counsel for the Railroad Company, as appropriate or expedient to give effect to the provisions of this indenture or any of them.

Any request in writing by the Trust Company or by any trust company appointed in succession to it, to the Individual Trustee herein, or to any individual trustee appointed in succession to him, shall be sufficient warrant for the Individual Trustee or his successor to take such action as may be so requested.

Any certificate which it is herein provided may be accepted by the Trust Company as conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated, shall be full warrant and protection to the Individual Trustee for any action on the faith thereof.

ARTICLE XII.

The Central Trust Company of New York and Oliver M. Spencer, Individual Trustee, parties of the second part, hereby accept the trusts in this indenture declared and provided, and covenant to perform the same upon the terms and conditions hereinbefore set forth.

In Witness Whereof, the corporations parties hereto have caused their corporate names to be hereunto, and to twenty-four (24) other originals, subscribed by their respective Presidents or Vice-Presidents, and their corporate seals to be affixed and attested by their respective Secretaries or Assistant Secretaries; and the said Oliver M. Spencer has to each thereof set his hand and seal, all upon the day and year first above written.

$600,000 of Lincoln & Northwestern Railroad 7 per cent. bonds, maturing January 1, 1910.

And Whereas, In some of the Mortgages or Deeds of Trust, securing said existing bonds the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, or its predecessors, to the rights of which it has succeeded, were and are authorized to issue for certain purposes and upon certain contingencies, bonds in excess of the said amounts now outstanding;

And Whereas, It has now been agreed to limit the respective issues of said enumerated existing bonds to the amounts above specified, and by appropriate corporate action of the corporations parties hereto this Supplemental Agreement has been duly approved and authorized to be executed,

THIS SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURE WITNESSETH:

That in consideration of the premises and the receipt of one dollar ($1.00) by the Trustees, in hand paid, said Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company does hereby agree and covenant with the said Trustees and their successors, that it will not request, cause to be certified, issue or accept bonds issued under any of said mortgages or deeds of trust, which would have the effect of increasing the total amount of the bonds secured by such mortgage or deed of trust, at any one time outstanding, beyond that expressed in the said General Mortgage, as outstanding at the date thereof.

This Supplemental Indenture shall have the same force and effect as if its provisions had been incorporated in the said General Mortgage in the same instrument.

In Witness Whereof, The corporations parties hereto have caused their corporate names to be hereunto and to twenty-four (24) other originals, subscribed by their respective Presidents or Vice-Presidents, and their corporate seals to be affixed and attested by their respective Secretaries or Assistant Secretaries, and the said Oliver M. Spencer has to each thereof set his hand and seal, upon the day and year first above written.

FIRST AND REFUNDING MORTGAGE, February 1, 1921.

to

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK,

Frazier L. Ford, Trustees.

An Indenture, dated the first day of February, 1921, by and between Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, a corporation created and existing under the laws of the State of Illinois, hereinafter called the "Railroad Company," party of the first part, and The First National Bank of the City of New York, a corporation, created and existing under the laws of the United States of America, hereinafter called the "Corporate Trustee," and Frazier L. Ford, a citizen of the State of Missouri, hereinafter called the "Individual Trustee," the Corporate Trustee and the Individual Trustee, collectively, being hereinafter called the "Trustees," parties of the second part.

Whereas, the Railroad Company owns certain railroads, and properties, hereinafter more specifically described, located in the States of Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, South Dakota, Wyoming and Montana, and also the shares of capital stock of certain railroad, bridge, depot, and terminal companies owning railroads or facilities connected or used with the said railroads so owned by the Railroad Company; and

Whereas, the Railroad Company may from time to time hereafter, purchase or otherwise acquire the railroads and properties of the said railroad, bridge, depot and terminal companies, of which it now owns the whole or a portion of the capital stock, or may acquire additional shares of the capital stock, bonds or other securities thereof, and may purchase or acquire other railroads and properties, or the stocks, bonds or other securities of the companies owning such other railroads and properties; and

Whereas, the Railroad Company has heretofore executed and delivered certain mortgages or collateral trust indentures to secure bonds issued or to be issued under said mortgages or collateral trust indentures, and certain portions of the railroads owned by the Railroad Company and hereinafter conveyed to the Trustees, are now subject to the lien of the said mortgages, or mortgages securing bonds deposited under said collateral trust indentures, and the railroads and properties of other companies, of which the ownership or control may be acquired, or with which the Railroad Company may be consolidated or merged, may be subject at the time of such acquisition, consolidation or merger to the lien of mortgages securing other bonded indebtedness, or which companies may have bonded or other indebtedness not secured by mortgage; and

Whereas, the Railroad Company desires to provide for the retirement or refunding, before, at or after maturity, of the bonded indebtedness secured by any or all of such indentures of mortgage or deeds of trust, and for the payment or refunding of other indebtedness of itself and of the companies mentioned in the preceding paragraph, and also to provide for the enlargement, improvement and betterment of the railroads and property owned by it or leased to it, and for the acquisition of stocks and bonds of other companies, and for other expenditures for its corporate purposes hereinafter specified, and intends to make such provision by the execution and delivery of this indenture of mortgage or deed of trust upon the railroads, properties and franchises of the Railroad Company, and by the issuance of bonds hereunder; and

Whereas, the Railroad Company has heretofore made expenditures for the purpose of constructing, enlarging and improving certain of its existing railroads and properties hereinafter conveyed to the Trustees, acquiring equipment, or purchasing the shares of capital stock or bonds of railroad, bridge, depot, terminal or other companies, or retiring or discharging the bonded indebtedness of the Railroad Company, all of which expenditures were at the time when made and are now properly chargeable to capital account, but which have not been heretofore capitalized and for which it now desires to reimburse its treasury by the issuance of bonds hereunder; and

Whereas, at a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Railroad Company, duly held pursuant to notice at the office of the Railroad Company in the City of Chicago, State of Illinois, on the 1st day of December, 1921, a quorum being present, the execution and delivery of this mortgage or deed of trust and the creation of a bonded indebtedness secured by said mortgage as in this indenture of mortgage provided, was duly authorized; and

Whereas, at a special meeting of the stockholders of the Railroad Company, duly called and held at its principal office in the City of Chicago, Illinois, on the 18th day of January, 1922, the consent, concurrence and approval of stockholders owning more than two-thirds in amount of all the capital stock of the Railroad Company issued and outstanding were duly given in the manner and form required by law to the execution and delivery of this indenture of mortgage, to the parties hereto of the second part and their respective successors as Trustees, and of the bonds from time to time hereunder to be issued and hereby to be secured, for the purposes and up to the limit of the amount herein stated and in conformity with the provisions hereof; and

Whereas, the bonds of each particular series issued after February 1, 1921, are to bear date the first day of February or the first day of August next preceding the date on which such series is authorized, to mature on such date subsequent to the date of issue, and on or prior to February 1, 1921, to bear such rate of interest, to be payable semi-annually, to be subject or not subject to redemption, to be exempt or not exempt from taxes, to be convertible or not convertible into shares of the capital stock of the Railroad Company, and to be subject or not subject to sinking fund provisions, all as may be determined by the Board of Directors of the Railroad Company at the time of issue, and as shall be expressed in the bonds of each particular series; and

Whereas, any of the coupon bonds of any particular series as may be deemed expedient by the Board of Directors of the Railroad Company shall be issued in the denomination of $1,000, and may also at the election of the Board of Directors be issued in the denominations of $500 or $100, payable as to principal and interest in the Borough of Manhattan, City of New York, in gold coin of the United States, and

Whereas, registered bonds without coupons payable in gold coin of the United States of America shall be of the denomination of $1,000, and may be also of such other denominations as from time to time may be authorized by the Board of Directors of the Railroad Company, and

Whereas, the forms of the coupon bonds and of the coupons to be attached thereunto, and of the registered bonds which are to be secured by this indenture, and of the certificates for the authentication of said bonds (subject to such appropriate insertions, omissions or variations as may be permitted by the terms hereof and as may be necessary and/or convenient with respect to bonds of different series) are to be severally and respectively substantially as follows, to wit:

First and Refunding Mortgage Gold Coupon.....Per Cent Bond.

Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company (hereinafter called the "Railroad Company"), a corporation of the State of Illinois, for value received, hereby promises to pay to bearer, or, if this bond be registered, then to the registered holder hereof, on the first day of....., at the office or agency of the Railroad Company in the Borough of Manhattan, City of New York, State of New York, the sum of..... dollars, in gold coin of the United States of America of the standard of weight and fineness as it existed on the first day of February, 1921, and to pay interest thereon from, at the rate of per cent per annum, such interest to be payable at such office or agency, in like gold coin, semi-annually on the first day of February and the first day of August in each year until the payment of said principal sum, but only upon presentation and surrender of the coupons therefor hereto attached as they severally mature.

This bond is one of the First and Refunding Mortgage Bonds (coupon or registered) of the Railroad Company, issued and to be issued, in one or more series, under and pursuant to, and all equally secured by, an indenture of mortgage or deed of trust dated February 1, 1921, duly executed by the Railroad Company to The First National Bank of the City of New York, a corporation of the United States of America and Frazier L. Ford, as Trustees, to which indenture and any and all supplements thereto, reference is hereby made for a description of the railroads, properties and franchises mortgaged or pledged to said Trustees, or their successors, the nature and extent of the security, and the rights of the holders of said bonds and of the Trustees in respect of such security.

At any time the authorized issue of bonds under said indenture is limited to an amount which, together with all then outstanding prior debt of the Railroad Company or of a successor corporation (as such prior debt is defined in the indenture aforesaid) after deducting therefrom the bonds then reserved under the provisions of said indenture to retire prior debt before, at or after maturity, shall be equal to three times the par value of the then outstanding, fully paid capital stock of the Railroad Company or of a successor corporation.

In case of certain defaults specified in said indenture, the principal of all such bonds may be declared and may become due and payable in the manner and with the effect provided in said indenture.

Unless registered as herein provided this bond shall pass by delivery. Any coupon bond may be registered as to principal in the owner's name at the office or agency of the Railroad Company in the Borough of Manhattan, City of New York, such registry being noted on the bond, after which no transfer shall be valid unless made by the registered owner, in person or by attorney, and similarly noted on the bond; but the same may be discharged from registry by like transfer to bearer noted on the bond; whereupon transferability by delivery shall be restored. Such registration, however, shall not affect the negotiability of the coupons for the interest on the bond, and such coupons shall continue to be payable to bearer and to be transferable by delivery merely, and payment thereof shall fully discharge the Railroad Company in respect of the interest therein mentioned, whether or not the bond be registered. In the manner prescribed in said indenture and upon payment of the charges therein provided, the holder of any coupon bond or bonds for $1,000 (or $500 or $100 if issued) at his option, may surrender for cancelation such bond or bonds in the principal amount of $1,000, or multiples thereof, with all unmatured coupons, in exchange for a registered bond or bonds without coupons of the same series for the same aggregate principal amount. Any such registered bond, in like manner, and upon payment of the charges provided in said indenture, may in turn be exchanged for a coupon bond or coupon bonds of the same series for the same aggregate principal amount and bearing all unmatured coupons.

No recourse shall be had for the payment of the principal of or the interest upon this bond, or for any claim based hereon, or otherwise in respect hereof or of said indenture under which this bond is issued, against any incorporator, stockholder, officer or director, past, present or future, of the Railroad Company or of any successor corporation, whether by virtue of any constitution, statute or rule of law or by the enforcement of any assessment or penalty or otherwise, all such liability being, by the acceptance hereof and as part of the consideration of the issue hereof, expressly released as provided in said indenture.

This bond shall not be entitled to any security or benefit under said indenture, and shall not become valid or obligatory for any purpose, until it has been authenticated by the execution of the certificate, hereon endorsed, by The First National Bank of the City of New York, as Corporate Trustee, or its successor in trust under said indenture.

In witness whereof the Railroad Company has caused this bond to be signed by its President or a Vice President, and its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed and attested by its Secretary or an Assistant Secretary, and coupons for said interest, bearing the engraved facsimile signature of its Treasurer, to be attached hereto. Dated the day of

This bond is one of the First and Refunding Mortgage Bonds (coupon and registered) of the Railroad Company, issued and to be issued, in one or more series, under and pursuant to, and all equally secured by, an indenture of mortgage or deed of trust dated February 1, 1921, duly executed by the Railroad Company to The First National Bank of the City of New York, a corporation of the United States of America and Frazier L. Ford, as Trustees, to which indenture and any and all supplements thereto reference is hereby made for a description of the railroads, properties and franchises mortgaged or pledged to said Trustees or their successors, the nature and extent of the security, and the rights of the holders of said bonds and of the Trustees in respect of such security.

At any time the authorized issue of bonds under said indenture is limited to an amount which, together with all then outstanding prior debt of the Railroad Company or of a successor corporation (as such prior debt is defined in the indenture aforesaid) after deducting therefrom the bonds then reserved under the provisions of said indenture to retire prior debt before, at or after maturity, shall be equal to three times the par value of the then outstanding fully paid capital stock of the Railroad Company or of a successor corporation.

In case of certain defaults specified in said indenture, the principal of all such bonds may be declared and may become due and payable in the manner and with the effect provided in said indenture.

This bond is transferable only in the manner prescribed in said indenture at the office or agency of the Railroad Company in the Borough of Manhattan, City of New York, upon surrender and cancelation of this bond; and upon any such transfer a new registered bond without coupons of the same series will be issued to the transferee, in exchange therefor. This bond also, in the manner prescribed in said indenture, is exchangeable for coupon bonds of the same series for the same aggregate principal amount and bearing all unmatured coupons. Any such coupon bonds, bearing all unmatured coupons, in like manner may in turn be exchanged for a registered bond or bonds without coupons of the same series for the same aggregate principal amount. For such transfer or exchange a charge may be made as provided in said indenture.

No recourse shall be had for the payment of the principal of or the interest upon this bond, or for any claim based hereon, or otherwise in respect hereof or of said indenture under which this bond is issued, against any incorporator, stockholder, officer or director, past, present or future, of the Railroad Company or of any successor corporation, whether by virtue of any constitution, statute or rule of law or by the enforcement of any assessment or penalty or otherwise, all such liability being, by the acceptance hereof and as part of the consideration of the issue hereof, expressly released, as provided in said indenture.

This bond shall not be entitled to any security or benefit under said indenture, and shall not become valid or obligatory for any purpose, until it has been authenticated by the execution of the certificate, hereon endorsed, by The First National Bank of the City of New York, as Corporate Trustee, or its successor in trust under said indenture.

In witness whereof, the Railroad Company has caused this bond to be signed by its President or a Vice President, and its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed and attested by its Secretary or an Assistant Secretary. Dated the.....day of

The aforesaid branch lines of railroad now owned by the Railroad Company having an aggregate length of about.....4,278.85 miles.

Total mileage of main and branch lines now owned by the Railroad Company having an aggregate length of about.....8,998.50 miles.

Of the aforesaid main lines of railroad: those portions of main line extending from Chicago, Illinois, via Plattsmouth, etc., to Denver, Colorado (main line item (1)), between Lincoln and Cobb, Nebraska, used as freight line, a distance of about 7.32 miles, and between Graham and Portal, near Galesburg, Illinois, used as freight line, a distance of about 3.85 miles; that portion of main line extending from Aurora, Illinois, via Savanna, etc., to St. Paul, Minnesota (main line item (2)), between South Junction and North Junction, near La Crosse, Wisconsin, a distance of about 6.67 miles; that portion of main line extending from Barstow to Savanna, Illinois (main line item (4)), between Fenton Junction, and Ebner, Illinois (known as Fenton-Thompson cut-off), a distance of about 12.81 miles; that portion of main line extending from Concord via Centralia, etc., to Metropolis, Illinois (main line item (6)), between Herrin and Metropolis, Illinois, a distance of about 38.44 miles, and those portions of main line extending from Fromberg, Montana, via Casper, etc., to Northport, Nebraska (main line item (21)), between Fromberg, Montana, and Orin, Wyoming, a distance of about 360.78 miles, and between Wendover and Guernsey, Wyoming, a distance of about 8.09 miles; and of the aforesaid branch lines of railroad: branch line item (15) extending from West Frankfort Junction to West Frankfort, Illinois, a distance of about 3.66 miles; branch line item (48) extending from Chaleo to Yutan, Nebraska, a distance of about 12.75 miles and branch line item (73) extending from Frannie to Cody, Wyoming, a distance of about 41.97 miles, a total of main and branch lines of about 496.34 miles, are free from the lien of any mortgage except this indenture.

About 5,384.62 miles of the aforesaid main and branch lines of railroad located in the States of Iowa and Missouri, Nebraska, South Dakota, Colorado and Wyoming and Montana are, in addition to the lien of this indenture, subject only to the lien of the General Mortgage of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company to Central Trust Company of New York (now Central Union Trust Company of New York), and Oliver M. Spencer, Trustees, dated March 2, 1908, maturing March 1, 1958, and securing $75,120,000 of 4 per cent bonds, certified by the trustees, of which $65,247,000 have been issued and sold and are now outstanding in the hands of the public, and $9,873,000 are in the Railroad Company's treasury, of a total authorized issue of $300,000,000, of which the remainder in excess of said $75,120,000 or any thereof, hereafter may not be issued (except as provided in Section 4 of Article Three of this indenture) as expressly covenanted by the Railroad Company in Section 5 of Article Five hereof.

About 1,646.13 miles of the aforesaid main and branch lines of railroad located in the States of Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Iowa are, in addition to the lien of this indenture, subject only to the liens of said General Mortgage and of the Illinois Division Mortgage of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company to The New England Trust Company, dated July 1, 1899, maturing July 1, 1949, and redeemable after July 1, 1929, securing $85,000,000 of bonds authorized, of which all have been certified by the trustees and all but $573,000, now in the treasury of the Railroad Company, have been issued and sold and are now in the hands of the public. $50,451,000 of the outstanding bonds bear 3½ per cent interest, and $33,976,000 bear 4 per cent interest per annum.

About 1,471.41 miles of the aforesaid main and branch lines of railroad located in the States of Nebraska, Kansas and Wyoming are in addition to the lien of this indenture, subject only to the liens of said General Mortgage and of the Nebraska Extension Mortgage of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company to The New England Trust Company, Trustee (Note 1), dated May 2, 1887, maturing May 1, 1927, securing an authorized issue of $29,441,000 4 per cent bonds of which $18,294,000 are now outstanding in the hands of the public, and $1,730,000 are in the treasury of the Railroad Company. No further bonds under this mortgage may be issued as expressly covenanted by the Railroad Company in Section 5 of Article Five hereof.

3. Also any and all other lines of railroad, wherever located, and any interest therein owned by the Railroad Company at the date of the execution and delivery of this indenture.

4. All and singular, the main tracks, additional to first main track, now owned by the Railroad Company, and used as part of and in connection with, any of the said main or branch or other lines of railroad, the same having at the date hereof, an aggregate length of about.....
.....1,030.80 miles.

5. All and singular the spur tracks, industry tracks, yard tracks, side tracks, turnouts, passing tracks and shop tracks, now owned by the Railroad Company, and used, or provided for use, in connection with any of the said main or branch or other lines, the same having, at the date hereof, an aggregate length of about.....3,260.63 miles.

Together with all and singular the franchises, rights and privileges now or hereafter appurtenant to or used in connection with the lines of railroad above mentioned, or any branch thereof.

Second. Appurtenances of the above described lines of railroad, subject as to the portions thereof embraced therein respectively, to the above mentioned mortgages:

NOTE 1. The Nebraska Extension Mortgage is a direct lien on about 296.91 miles only, but is secured by deposit of $23,494,000 first mortgage bonds of underlying companies, which have conveyed their roads to the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company. The balance of the mileage, or about 1,174.50 miles, is subject to the liens of those underlying mortgages.

All telegraph and telephone lines, and rights to use the same, now existing or as the same may hereafter exist, including all poles, wires and instruments, all rights of way, station and depot grounds, all tunnels, roadbeds, spurs, double tracks, turnouts, switches, sidings and turntables, all superstructures, bridges, stringers, ties, rails, frogs, chairs, bolts, splices, and other railroad appurtenances, all terminals and terminal properties, docks, wharves, ferries, landings and boats, all station houses, warehouses, freight houses, engine houses, car houses, water stations, water tanks, water supply, water treating plants, coaling stations, timber treating plants, machine shops and other structures, all furniture, machinery, tools, implements, materials, and supplies, now or hereafter owned by the Railroad Company, appurtenant to any of said main and other lines of railroad and branches above described (except the former general office building of the Railroad Company and premises adjacent thereto, located at the northeast corner of South Franklin and West Adams streets, in the City of Chicago, Illinois (Note 1) and all tolls, revenues, earnings, income, rents, issues and profits thereof, and also all the estate, right, title, interest, property, possession, claim and demand whatsoever as well in law as in equity, of the Railroad Company of, in and to the said railroads, branches, premises and property, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances and the franchises appertaining or hereafter to appertain thereto.

Third. Any and all lines of railroad, extensions and branches, telegraph and telephone lines and lines of water transportation, including the franchises appurtenant thereto, and any and all terminal properties, depots, shops, machinery, tools, docks, wharves, ferries, landings, boats, rolling stock and other equipment, and any and all bonds, stocks and other property of every kind or description (notwithstanding that the same are not now particularly set forth in this indenture) which, from time to time, in the manner hereinafter provided, shall be purchased, acquired or constructed by the use of deposited moneys paid out as in this indenture hereinafter provided or by the use of any bonds secured by this indenture except bonds, (1) issued or to be issued under the provisions of Section 5 of Article Three of this indenture, and (2) issued or to be issued

NOTE 1. The premises excepted are more particularly described as follows:

Sub-lot One (1) and the private alley Twenty (20) Feet in width adjoining said lot on the east and extending the full length of said lot north and south; also

Sub-lot Two (2) and the private alley or court approximately Twenty (20) Feet in width adjoining said lot on the north and extending the full width of said lot, all in Field and Perkins Subdivision of Lots Five (5), Six (6), Seven (7), and that part of Lot Eight (8) lying east of the east line of Franklin Street in Block Ninety-three (93) of School Section Addition to the City of Chicago, Illinois;

Also all that part of original Lot Six (6), Block Ninety-three (93) School Section Addition to the City of Chicago, Illinois, described as follows:

Beginning at a point on the east line of original Lot Seven (7), Block Ninety-three (93), School Section Addition to Chicago, Forty (40) Feet north of the north line of Adams Street; thence east along a line parallel with the north line of Adams Street Ten (10) Feet; thence north along a line parallel with said east line of said original Lot Seven (7) Eighty (80) Feet; thence west along a line parallel with the north line of Adams Street Ten (10) feet to the said east line of said original Lot Seven (7); thence south along said east line of said original Lot Seven (7) Eighty (80) feet to the place of beginning.

under the provisions of Section 6 of Article Three of this indenture, to reimburse the Railroad Company for and on account of moneys expended for the acquisition of property that shall have been subjected to the lien of this indenture or upon property that shall be subject thereto; together with all and singular the franchises, rights and privileges appurtenant to or used in connection with such lines of railroad, extensions, branches, telegraph and telephone lines and lines of water transportation, and any and all the rents, issues, profits, tolls and other income thereof.

Fourth. Subject to the right of the Railroad Company to be reimbursed for, and on account of, the cost or value thereof, as provided in Section 6 of Article Three of this indenture, any and all additions, improvements and betterments now or hereafter acquired or constructed to or upon or in connection with any and all lines of railroad, extensions, branches, telegraph and telephone lines and lines of water transportation now or at any time hereafter subject to this indenture, any and all property, real or personal, of every kind and description, acquired for use upon, or in connection with, or for the purpose of, such lines of railroad, extensions or branches, telegraph and telephone lines and lines of water transportation; and any and all corporate rights, privileges and franchises which the Railroad Company now has, or hereafter may or shall acquire, possess or exercise or be entitled to exercise in, to, upon or in respect of such lines of railroad, extensions or branches, telegraph and telephone lines and lines of water transportation or any part thereof, necessary for, or appertaining to, the construction, maintenance or operation of such lines of railroad or any such extension or branch, telegraph and telephone lines and lines of water transportation or any part thereof; and any and all the rents, issues, profits, tolls and other income of such lines of railroad, and of any and all such extensions, branches, telegraph and telephone lines and lines of water transportation; and also any and all the rights, privileges, franchises, properties, real or personal, rights and things, which the Railroad Company may or shall hereafter possess, or become entitled to possess, for the purposes of, or in connection with, such lines of railroad or any such extension, branch, telegraph and telephone lines or lines of water transportation.

Fifth. (a) All engines, tenders, cars and other rolling stock and equipment now appurtenant to any of said lines of railroad or acquired for use thereon, including 1912 locomotives, 665 passenger coaches and chair cars, 9 parlor (lounging) cars, 44 dining cars, 5 combination dining and parlor (cafe) cars, 32 business cars, 48 postal cars, 250 combination cars, 245 baggage cars, 28 express refrigerator cars (cream and milk cars), 7 horse express cars, 3 electric motor cars, 28,071 box cars, 71 furniture cars, 2,564 refrigerator cars, 6,551 stock cars, 1,711 automobile cars, 1,443 flat cars, 26,295 coal cars, 333 tank cars, 15 barrel cars, 74 wooden ore cars, 1,570 ballast cars, 791 caboose cars, 278 cinder cars, 1,486 boarding cars, 15 derricks, 19 steam derricks, 48 steam cranes, 18 steam shovels, 19 steam pile drivers, 4 rotary snow plows, 24 snow plows, 1 snow flanger, 17 Lidgerwood unloaders, 4 ballast plows, 27 ballast spreaders, 48 water cars (tank cars), 14 water cars (auxiliary tanks), 0.86 miles; said capital stock owned by the Railroad Company not being subject to any pledge except that of this indenture.

(16) 81 shares of the capital stock of The Iowa Transfer Railway Company (except one share held by director), being 20 per cent of the entire amount of issued and outstanding capital stock of the said company. The said company owns a system of trackage at Des Moines, Iowa, providing facilities for the interchange of cars at that point, with a total track mileage of about 3.39 miles; said capital stock owned by the Railroad Company not being subject to any pledge except that of this indenture.

Ninth—All shares and capital stock of the aforesaid railroad, bridge, depot and terminal companies and of any companies successors thereto which the Railroad Company now owns, except qualifying shares held by directors, or to which it is now entitled, or which (subject to Section 6 of Article Three of this indenture) it may acquire or to which it may hereafter become entitled.

Tenth—Any and all property of every name and nature, including stocks, bonds or other securities, from time to time hereafter by delivery or by writing of any kind for the purposes hereof conveyed, mortgaged, pledged, assigned or transferred by the Railroad Company, or by anyone in its behalf, to the Trustees, who hereby are authorized to receive any property at any and all times, as and for additional security, and, also, when and as hereinafter provided, as substituted security, for the payment of the bonds issued or to be issued hereunder, and to hold and apply any and all such property subject to the terms hereof.

To have and to hold the premises, railroads, properties, real or personal, rights, franchises, estates, appurtenances and stocks, bonds or other securities, hereby conveyed and assigned, or intended to be conveyed or assigned, or which may be hereafter conveyed or assigned by indentures supplemental hereto, unto the Trustees, their successors and assigns forever;

Subject, however, as to the properties severally embraced therein, or subject thereto, to the several prior liens, mortgages, pledges and excepted property and rights mentioned, and as to the properties covered thereby, to be mentioned in any indenture supplemental hereto, and to all other existing rights, liens, charges and claims of record upon and against the railroads, properties and franchises hereby conveyed and mortgaged, or pledged or so intended to be;

Subject, also, to the condition that nothing in this indenture is intended or shall be construed to limit the right or power of the Railroad Company, which hereby is expressly reserved, to own and hold or in any manner acquire free from the lien of this indenture lines of railway, branches, extensions, rolling stock and equipment, stocks or bonds or any other property whatsoever or interest therein not specified or included in the granting clauses hereof;

But in trust, nevertheless, for the equal, proper and proportionate benefit and security, severally and respectively, of all and every the present and future holders of any and every bond issued under and secured by this indenture (which hereinafter are termed the First and Refunding bonds), as well all those presently issued as all hereafter issued in addition thereto or by way of substitution or exchange, in accordance with the terms of this indenture, and for enforcing the payment thereof, when payable, in accordance with the true intent and meaning of the stipulations of this indenture, and of the said bonds and interest obligations respectively, without preference, priority or distinction, as to lien or otherwise, of any one bond over any other bond, by reason of priority in the execution, delivery or negotiation thereof, and so that each and every bond, issued and to be issued as aforesaid, shall have under and by this indenture, the same right, lien and privilege as every other bond of the issue; and so that the principal and interest of every such bond shall, subject to the terms hereof, be secured hereby equally and proportionately with every other such bond, as though all had been made, executed, delivered and negotiated simultaneously with the execution and delivery of this indenture; it being intended that the lien and security of all such bonds shall take effect from the day of the date of this indenture, without regard to the date of actual issue, sale or disposition thereof; and so that the lien and security of this indenture, and of all bonds issued hereunder, shall take effect from the day of the date hereof, as though upon such day all such bonds actually had been issued, sold, and delivered to, and were then in the hands of, innocent holders for value.

And hereby it is expressly covenanted that all such bonds, and the coupons for interest thereon, are to be issued, authenticated, delivered, received and negotiated, and that the mortgaged and pledged properties and franchises are to be held by the Trustees, subject to the following further covenants, conditions and provisions, viz:

ARTICLE ONE.

LIMITATION IN AMOUNT AND ISSUE OF BONDS.

SECTION 1. The authorized issue of bonds under this indenture is limited so that the amount thereof at any one time outstanding, together with all outstanding prior debt of the Railroad Company after deducting therefrom the amount of all bonds reserved under the provisions of this indenture to retire prior debt before, at or after maturity, shall never exceed three times the par value of the then outstanding, fully paid capital stock of the Railroad Company.

Whenever hereafter the amount of such capital stock outstanding shall be increased, thereupon the limit of the authorized issue of bonds hereunder shall be increased to an amount which, together with all then outstanding prior debt of the Railroad Company after deducting therefrom the amount of all bonds then reserved under the provisions of this indenture to retire prior debt before, at or after maturity, shall be equal to three times the amount of such outstanding, fully paid capital stock as increased.

In determining at any time and from time to time the limit of the authorized issue of bonds hereunder, the prior debt to be added is that which at the time may remain unpaid of the principal of the bonds specified in Section 1 of Article Three of this indenture and of the bonds which hereafter shall be included in prior debt under Sections 2 and 3 of said Article Three (but not including any such bonds deposited with and held by the Corporate Trustee as provided in Section 4 of said Article Three), and the reserved bonds to be deducted are the bonds issuable under this indenture and as provided in said Article Three reserved for the purpose of refunding such prior debt. If, however, there is or at any time there shall be any prior debt of the Railroad Company which is not specified in Section 1 of said Article Three or which shall not be specified as provided in Sections 2 and 3 of said Article Three, the prior debt not so specified shall nevertheless be included in and form a part of the prior debt to be added as aforesaid in determining the limit of the authorized issue of bonds hereunder.

By "prior debt" as used in this Article One is meant that mortgage lien bonded indebtedness of the Railroad Company, or of a successor corporation, or of a corporation whose properties are acquired by the Railroad Company by purchase or merger or consolidation, which is entitled to a lien and rank prior and superior to the lien and rank of this indenture and the bonds issued hereunder; together with any bonded indebtedness whether secured or unsecured, for which bonds shall have been reserved to be issued under Section 3 of Article Three of this indenture.

§ 2. Bonds shall not be issued hereunder, or deposited cash be paid (as hereinafter in Section 6 of Article Three defined), in respect of the acquisition of property subject to a prior mortgage or other lien, nor shall railroads or real property subject to a prior mortgage or other lien be acquired and subjected to the lien of this indenture, unless in either case sufficient bonds hereunder shall be available, within the limitations provided in this article, to be reserved, and shall be reserved, to retire such prior debts at maturity.

§ 3. Bonds shall not be issued hereunder in respect of the acquisition of the shares of the capital stock of any company or companies, or unsecured bonds or obligations of any company or companies, to a face amount which, when added to the total amount, if any, of "deposited cash" (as hereinafter defined) paid by the Corporate Trustee in respect of such acquisition, shall exceed one-third of the total face amount of bonds outstanding hereunder following such acquisition.

ARTICLE TWO.

FORM, EXECUTION, DELIVERY, REGISTRY AND EXCHANGE OF BONDS.

SECTION 1. From time to time the bonds issuable under this indenture shall be executed on behalf of the Railroad Company by its President or any one of its Vice Presidents, under its corporate seal attested by its Secretary or an Assistant Secretary, and shall be delivered to the Corporate Trustee for authentication by it; and thereupon, as provided in this indenture and not otherwise, the Corporate Trustee shall authenticate the said bonds and shall deliver the same to the Railroad Company on its written order. Only such bonds as shall bear thereon endorsed a certificate of authentication substantially in the form hereinbefore recited, executed by the Corporate Trustee, shall be secured by this indenture or be entitled to any right or benefit hereunder. No bond and no coupon thereunto appertaining shall be valid or obligatory for any purpose until such certificate shall have been duly endorsed on such bond; and such authentication by the Corporate Trustee upon any such bond shall be conclusive evidence that the bond so authenticated has been duly issued hereunder and that the holder is entitled to the benefit of the trust hereby created.

On request of the Railroad Company bonds shall be authenticated and shall be delivered hereunder in advance of the registration or recording of this indenture, or of the delivery to the Corporate Trustee of any of the stocks, pledged under this indenture; but the Railroad Company with all convenient speed shall cause this indenture to be recorded as a mortgage upon railroads and real property, and shall deliver to the Corporate Trustee all such stocks upon which this indenture is a first lien, and which are not required otherwise to be held under agreements heretofore made.

In case any of the officers of the Railroad Company who shall have signed and sealed any of the bonds issuable under this indenture shall cease to be such officers of the Railroad Company before the bonds so signed and sealed shall have been actually authenticated and delivered by the Corporate Trustee, such bonds, nevertheless, may be authenticated and delivered and issued as though the persons who signed and sealed such bonds had not ceased to be officers of the Railroad Company; and also any such bond may be signed and sealed in behalf of the Railroad Company by such persons as at the actual date of the execution of such bond shall be the proper officers of the Railroad Company, although at the date of such bond any such person shall not have been an officer of the Railroad Company. The coupons to be attached to coupon bonds shall be attested by the engraved facsimile signature of the present Treasurer or of any future Treasurer of the Railroad Company, and the Railroad Company may adopt and use for that purpose the engraved facsimile signature of any person who shall have been such Treasurer, notwithstanding the fact that he may have ceased to be such Treasurer at the time when such bonds shall be actually authenticated and delivered.

Bonds may be issued originally either as coupon bonds or registered bonds.

The Corporate Trustee shall not authenticate or deliver any coupon bond unless all coupons thereon then matured shall have been detached and canceled.

In every registered bond without coupons, either issued originally as such, or delivered as hereinafter provided in exchange for a coupon bond or coupon bonds or in subdivision of a registered bond of larger denomination, the date specified in the bond, from which the same shall bear interest, shall be the semi-annual interest date next preceding the date of authentication unless such date of authentication be the first day of February, or the first day of August, in which case the bond shall bear interest from such date of authentication.

The bonds to be secured by this indenture shall be issued in series as from time to time shall be authorized by the Board of Directors of the Railroad Company.

The bonds of each such series shall be distinctively designated by a serial letter or otherwise, and shall bear date either the first day of February, or the first day of August, as the case may be, next preceding the date on which such series shall have been authorized.

In authorizing the issue of any series, the Board of Directors of the Railroad Company shall determine (1) the date of maturity of such series, which date shall be not later than February 1, 2121, (2) the rate of interest (which shall be the same for all bonds of the same series and shall be payable semi-annually on the first day of February and the first day of August in each year) to be borne by the bonds of such series, (3) whether or not the bonds of such series at the election of the Railroad Company shall be redeemable, in whole or in part, before maturity, and if redeemable, the time within which, and the terms and conditions upon which, such series, or any part thereof, may be redeemed, (4) whether (and if so to what extent) or not the bonds and interest thereon of such series shall be payable without deduction for any tax or taxes which the Railroad Company may be required to pay thereon, or to retain therefrom, under any law of the United States of America, or of any state, or of any county or municipality therein, (5) whether or not the bonds of such series shall be convertible into shares of the capital stock of the Railroad Company, and if convertible, the extent to, the terms and conditions upon, and the character of the stock into, which the same are convertible, and (6) whether or not the Railroad Company will provide a sinking fund for the redemption or payment of said series of bonds, or any part thereof; all and singular of which time, terms and conditions shall be appropriately expressed in such bonds.

In authorizing the issue of any series, the Board of Directors of the Railroad Company may determine that such bonds shall contain such other or different provisions as are authorized in this indenture.

Except as in this indenture otherwise expressly authorized, and except as to appropriate variations in the form of coupon bonds and the form of registered bonds without coupons as in this indenture provided, all bonds of the same series shall be identical in tenor.

Coupon bonds having a maturity of over fifty (50) years may have attached thereto at the time of original issue interest coupons for the first fifty (50) years only, and the Railroad Company agrees that it will cause to be attached thereto thereafter, upon application of the bondholder, interest coupons as required for each successive period of fifty (50) years, or in case of any period to maturity of less than fifty (50) years, for such lesser period.

The coupon bonds shall be issued in the denomination of $1,000, and may also at the election of the Railroad Company, to be expressed by action of its Board of Directors, be issued in the denomination of $500 or $100. The registered bonds without coupons shall be issued in the denomination of $1,000, and may also, at the election of the Railroad Company, expressed as above provided, be issued in other denominations. Coupon bonds of one denomination may, at the election of the Railroad Company, be made interchangeable for a like principal amount of coupon bonds of other denominations, of the same series, authorized by this indenture.

§ 2. The Railroad Company shall keep at an office or agency to be maintained by it in the Borough of Manhattan, City of New York, or at some bank or trust company in said Borough, a sufficient registry of bonds issued hereunder, which at all reasonable times shall be open for inspection by the Corporate Trustee; and the Railroad Company, under such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, will register therein all bonds without coupons and, upon presentation for such purpose, coupon bonds. The holder of any coupon bond secured hereby may have the ownership thereof as to principal only registered on such register at the said office or agency and such registration noted on the bond by the Railroad Company. After such registration no transfer shall be valid unless made on such register by the registered owner in person or by his duly authorized attorney, and similarly noted on the bond by the Railroad Company. Upon presentation to the Railroad Company, at such office or agency, of any such coupon bond registered as to principal, accompanied by delivery of a written instrument of transfer in a form approved by the Railroad Company, executed by the registered holder, such bond shall be transferred upon such bond register. The registered holder of any such coupon bond registered as to principal, shall also have the right to cause the same to be registered as payable to bearer, in which case transferability by delivery shall be restored, and thereafter the principal of such bond when due shall be payable to the person presenting the bond; but any such bond registered as payable to bearer may be registered again in the name of the holder with the same effect as a first registration thereof. Successive registrations and transfers as aforesaid may be made from time to time as desired. Each registration and transfer of a coupon bond shall be noted thereon by the bond registrar of the Railroad Company. Registration of any of the coupon bonds as to principal, however, shall not affect the negotiability of the coupons belonging to such bond, but every such coupon shall continue to pass by delivery merely and shall remain payable to the bearer.

A registered bond without coupons of a denomination larger than $1,000, if such denomination is issued hereunder, may be subdivided into a like principal amount of registered bonds without coupons of the denomination of $1,000, or of any other denominations higher than $1,000 if authorized hereunder, into which the same is divisible, of the same series, and likewise registered bonds without coupons of the denomination of $1,000, or higher denominations, if authorized, may be consolidated into a registered bond without coupons of any authorized higher denomination, of the same series and like principal amount.

§ 3. Whenever any coupon bond secured by this indenture, together with all unmatured coupons thereto appertaining, shall be surrendered for exchange for a registered bond, the Railroad Company shall issue, and the said Corporate Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in exchange for such coupon bond, a like amount of the principal thereof in said registered bonds without coupons of the same series, bearing the same rate of interest, which shall have endorsed thereon the serial letter or letters borne by the coupon bond or bonds so surrendered for exchange. Whenever any registered bond without coupons hereby secured, together with a written instrument of transfer in a form approved by the Railroad Company, executed by the registered holder, shall be surrendered for exchange for a coupon bond or bonds, the Railroad Company shall issue and the said Corporate Trustee shall authenticate and deliver in exchange for such registered bond a like amount of the principal thereof in said coupon bonds of the same series, bearing the same rate of interest, each respectively bearing one of the serial letters endorsed upon the registered bond so surrendered, and with coupons for interest thereto attached, maturing on and after the next ensuing interest due date on such surrendered registered bond. Whenever any such registered bond shall be surrendered for transfer, together with a written instrument of transfer in a form approved by the Railroad Company, executed by the registered holder, the Railroad Company shall issue, and the said Corporate Trustee shall authenticate and deliver to the transferee a like amount of the principal thereof in new registered bonds, without coupons, of the same series, bearing the same rate of interest, which shall have endorsed thereon the same serial letter or letters of coupon bonds which were endorsed upon the registered bond so surrendered. In every case of any such exchange or transfer the said Corporate Trustee forthwith shall cancel the surrendered bond, and, if a coupon bond, the coupons appertaining thereto, and shall deliver the same to the Railroad Company.

All such transfers or exchanges, unless otherwise covenanted in the bond, shall be made only at the office or agency of the Railroad Company in the Borough of Manhattan, City of New York.

Whenever any bond shall be issued as a registered bond there shall be reserved by the Railroad Company unissued an aggregate amount of coupon bonds equal to the amount of the registered bond so issued, and an appropriate statement with respect to such reservation and the serial letter or letters of the coupon bonds so reserved unissued shall by the Railroad Company be endorsed on the registered bond issued in lieu thereof or in exchange therefor.

Any bond issued hereunder whether in registered or in coupon form may, notwithstanding the provisions of this section or in addition to the requirements thereof, bear such numbers, letters or other marks of identification or designation, and may be endorsed with such legends or recitals in respect of the bond or bonds for which it is exchangeable, as may be determined by the Board of Directors of the Railroad Company and approved by the Corporate Trustee, and as may be required to comply with the rules and regulations of any stock exchange or to conform with usage in respect thereof; and like provision may be made in connection with the issue of coupon bonds of the denomination of $100 or of $500 or of registered bonds without coupons, for the reservation of appropriate numbers or other designating marks of the coupon bonds exchangeable in place thereof as required by such stock exchange rules and regulations or usage.

For any exchange of a coupon bond for a registered bond, or of a registered bond for a coupon bond, and for any transfer of a registered bond, or for any exchange of coupon bonds for coupon bonds of another denomination, or for any subdivision or consolidation of registered bonds without coupons, the Railroad Company, at its option, may require the payment of a sum sufficient to reimburse it for any stamp tax or other governmental charge or other expense connected therewith, and also the further sum of not exceeding two dollars for each new bond issued upon such transfer or exchange.

In case the Railroad Company shall determine to issue coupon bonds of the denominations of $500 or $100, the holders thereof shall have no right to exchange the same for registered bonds without coupons unless such right is stated in the bonds, and appropriate omissions may be made in the form of bond hereinabove recited to that end.

§ 4. In case any bond issued under this indenture shall become mutilated or be destroyed or lost, the Railroad Company in its discretion may execute, and thereupon the Corporate Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, a new bond of like tenor and date, bearing in the case of a coupon bond the same serial letter and the same coupons as the one mutilated, destroyed or lost, and in the case of a registered bond without coupons, having endorsed thereon the same serial letter or letters of coupon bonds as were endorsed upon the bond so mutilated, destroyed or lost, in exchange and substitution for and upon cancellation of the mutilated bond and its coupons or the mutilated registered bond without coupons, or in lieu of or substitution for the bond and its coupons, or the registered bond without coupons, so lost or destroyed. The applicant for such substitute bond shall furnish to the Railroad Company and to the Corporate Trustee evidence to their satisfaction, respectively, of the destruction or loss of such bond, and said applicant shall also furnish such indemnity to both the Railroad Company and the Corporate Trustee, respectively, as in their discretion they may require. The Railroad Company may require the payment of a sum not exceeding two dollars for each new bond issued under this section, and the payment of any stamp tax or other governmental charge or other expense connected therewith.

§ 5. The Railroad Company and the Trustees may deem and may treat the bearer of any coupon bond hereby secured which shall not at the time be registered as hereinbefore authorized, and the bearer of any coupon for interest on any bond whether or not such bond shall be registered, as the absolute owner of such bond or coupon, as the case may be, for the purpose of receiving payment thereof, and for all other purposes, and neither the Railroad Company nor either of the Trustees shall be affected by any notice to the contrary.

The Railroad Company and the Trustees may deem and treat the person in whose name any registered bond without coupons issued hereunder, shall be registered upon the books of the Railroad Company as hereinbefore provided, as the absolute owner of such bond for the purpose of receiving payment of, or on account of, the principal and interest of such bond and for all other purposes; and may deem and treat the person in whose name any coupon bond shall be so registered as the absolute owner thereof, for the purpose of receiving payment of, or on account of, the principal thereof, and for all other purposes, except to receive payment of interest represented by outstanding coupons.

§ 6. Without unreasonable delay, the Railroad Company will cause engraved bonds to be prepared and executed. Until the engraved bonds shall be prepared, the Railroad Company may execute, and, upon the request of the Railroad Company, the Corporate Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in lieu of such engraved bonds and subject to the same provisions, limitations and conditions, temporary printed bonds of any denomination, substantially of the tenor of the bonds hereinbefore recited, with or without coupons, and with appropriate omissions, insertions and variations as may be required. Pending the preparation of the engraved bonds, such temporary bonds shall be exchangeable for other temporary bonds of like aggregate principal amount, whether of the same or different denominations, in accordance with the provisions of this article. Such temporary bonds shall be exchangeable, without expense to the holder, for the engraved bonds in lieu of which they are issued, and upon preparation of such engraved bonds, the Railroad Company shall prepare and execute, and, upon cancellation of such surrendered bonds, the Corporate Trustee shall authenticate and shall deliver, in exchange therefor, engraved bonds for the same aggregate principal amount as the temporary bonds surrendered and otherwise in accordance with said temporary bonds. Until so exchanged, the temporary bonds in all respects shall be entitled to the same lien and security of this indenture as the engraved bonds issued and authenticated hereunder. Interest on such of said temporary bonds as may be registered shall be paid to the registered holder thereof, and on such of said temporary bonds as may not be registered shall be paid to the bearer thereof and such payment noted thereon if such temporary bonds shall have been issued without coupons, or, if such temporary bonds shall have been issued with coupons, shall be paid on presentation and surrender of such coupons as they mature. On request of the Railroad Company, such bonds may be authenticated and delivered hereunder in advance of the recording of this indenture, or of the delivery to the Corporate Trustee of any of the stocks pledged under this indenture.

§ 7. Whenever requesting the authentication of any bonds hereunder, the Railroad Company shall cause to be delivered to the Corporate Trustee a certified copy of a resolution, duly adopted by the Board of Directors of the Railroad Company, calling for the authentication and delivery of a specified amount of such bonds and specifying the character of registration (if any), the denominations, terms and dates of maturity and of optional redemption (if redeemable), the rate of interest, convertibility into capital stock (if convertible), exemption from taxes (if exempt), and other particular provisions of the bonds the authentication of which is requested, and the bonds authenticated shall conform to such specifications; and in every case the Railroad Company shall deliver to the Corporate Trustee a writing setting forth a copy of such resolution, having appended thereto a certificate signed by the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary of the Railroad Company under its corporate seal, setting forth that such resolution was duly adopted by said Board of Directors.

Every order of the Railroad Company required to be delivered to either of the Trustees preliminary to any action authorized to be taken by such Trustee upon such order, shall be in writing and shall be signed by the President or any Vice President or the Treasurer of the Railroad Company.

Except in exchange for like principal amounts at the time outstanding under this indenture, the Corporate Trustee shall not in any case authenticate any bonds hereunder unless there shall have been filed with it (1) an opinion of counsel (who may be of counsel for the Railroad Company) to the effect that, except as therein shall be specified, no authorization of the issue of such bonds at the time is required by law to be given by any public service commission, railroad commission or other governmental body, and (2) a copy, authenticated in such manner as may be satisfactory to the Corporate Trustee, of any order or certificate specified in such opinion, authorizing such issue of bonds and made or given by any governmental authority so specified.

The Railroad Company whenever requesting the authentication of any bonds under Section 6 of Article Three hereof, and whenever taking any action requiring the reservation of any bonds under said article, besides complying with the other requirements of this indenture, shall cause to be delivered to the Corporate Trustee a certificate signed by the President or a Vice President and by the Comptroller or some other officer having general supervision of accounts of the Railroad Company, setting forth: (a) the aggregate amount of bonds issued hereunder at the time outstanding; (b) the amount of prior debt of the Railroad Company as defined in Article One hereof then outstanding; (c) the amount of bonds then reserved under this indenture to retire such prior debt, and (d) the aggregate par amount of the fully paid capital stock of the Railroad Company then outstanding.

ARTICLE THREE.

ISSUE OF BONDS.

First and Refunding bonds shall be executed by the Railroad Company, and authenticated and delivered by the Corporate Trustee as in this indenture provided, to the amount and for one or more of the purposes specified in this article.

SECTION 1. Bonds issuable hereunder in the principal amount of $178,414,000, shall be and are hereby reserved for issue, from time to time, for the purpose of exchanging, redeeming, purchasing, retiring, refunding or paying, before, at, or after maturity, or reimbursing the Railroad Company for the payment of, prior debt of the Railroad Company, evidenced by the following bonds, all of which are the direct obligation of the Railroad Company, whether the said bonds be outstanding in the hands of the public, or held by the Railroad Company, viz.:

(1) Bonds in the principal amount of $75,120,000, issued and outstanding or certified by the trustee and in the treasury of the Railroad Company under the provisions of the General Mortgage of the Railroad Company, dated March 2, 1908, maturing March 1, 1958, to Central Trust Company of New York (now Central Union Trust Company of New York), and Oliver M. Spencer, Trustees, securing a total authorized issue of $300,000,000 of bonds hereinbefore more specifically described in the granting clauses hereof.

(2) Bonds in the principal amount of $85,000,000 issued and outstanding, or certified by the trustee and in the treasury of the Railroad Company, under the provisions of the Illinois Division Mortgage of the Railroad Company, dated July 1, 1899, maturing July 1, 1949, redeemable after July 1, 1929, to The New England Trust Company, Trustee, securing a total authorized issue of $85,000,000 bonds, all of which are issued or certified as hereinbefore more specifically described in the granting clauses hereof.

(3) Bonds in the principal amount of $18,294,000 issued and outstanding or in the treasury of the Railroad Company, under the provisions of the Nebraska Extension Mortgage of the Railroad Company to The New England Trust Company, Trustee, dated May 2, 1887, maturing May 1, 1927, and securing a total authorized issue of $29,441,000 bonds, hereinbefore more specifically described in the granting clauses hereof.

It is expressly covenanted in Section 5 of Article Five hereof that (except as provided in Section 4 of this Article Three) bonds shall not be issued under any of the said several mortgages or deeds of trust mentioned above in this section, which shall have the effect to increase the amount of the principal of the bonds at any time outstanding under any of such mortgages or deeds of trust; provided, however, any such bonds now certified by the trustees under the mortgage or deed of trust in respect to such bonds, which remain unsold in the treasury of the Railroad Company shall be included in the said principal amount of bonds above specified, and shall be considered as outstanding for the purposes of this section.

§ 2. First and Refunding bonds from time to time shall be reserved hereunder for issue, from time to time, as provided in this article, for the purpose of refunding, purchasing, paying or retiring, before, at or after maturity, or reimbursing the Railroad Company for the payment of, the bonds secured by mortgage prior to the lien of this indenture upon railroads or real property hereafter conveyed by the Railroad Company to the Trustees by indenture or indentures supplemental hereto, executed as provided in Article Eleven hereof. The amount of bonds so to be reserved shall be a principal amount equal to the principal amount remaining unpaid of the prior debt enumerated in such supplemental indenture or indentures. Mortgages which are such liens upon any property which may hereafter be acquired by the Railroad Company and be conveyed to the Trustees by indenture or indentures supplemental hereto, as aforesaid, shall be specified and described in such supplemental indenture or indentures, and the principal amount of the bonds secured thereby shall be stated therein and thereafter shall be regarded as forming a part of the prior debt of the Railroad Company whenever prior debt is mentioned in this indenture or in any indenture supplemental hereto. Prior debt of the Railroad Company shall also include the indebtedness secured by lien prior to the lien hereof against which bonds are required to be reserved by the Corporate Trustee under paragraph (2) of Section 6 of this article.

§ 3. First and Refunding bonds may, subject to the provisions of Article One, at the election of the Railroad Company, to be expressed by resolution of its Board of Directors, a duly certified copy of which shall be delivered to the Corporate Trustee, be from time to time reserved hereunder for issue, from time to time, as provided in this article, for the purpose of refunding, purchasing, paying or retiring, before, at or after maturity, or reimbursing the Railroad Company for the payment of, a like principal amount of the bonded indebtedness of any company, including debenture bonds, and evidenced by an issue of bonds, which hereafter shall be consolidated with or merged into, or whose railroad property hereafter shall be acquired by the Railroad Company, although such bonded indebtedness may not be secured by mortgage; provided, however, that the railroad property acquired through consolidation, merger or purchase shall be conveyed by the Railroad Company to the Trustees by, and that such bonded indebtedness shall be specified and the amount thereof stated in, an indenture or indentures supplemental to this indenture, executed as provided in Article Eleven hereof.

The bonded indebtedness against which the Railroad Company shall so elect to reserve First and Refunding bonds, and which shall be so specified and the amount thereof stated in any supplemental indenture, shall be regarded as forming a part of the prior debt of the Railroad Company, whenever prior debt is mentioned in this indenture or in any indenture supplemental hereto.

§ 4. Whenever the Railroad Company shall tender or shall cause to be tendered to the Corporate Trustee any of the obligations, canceled or uncanceled, constituting part of the prior debt, to retire which bonds are then reserved under this article, either in bearer form or accompanied by proper instruments of assignment and transfer, with all unmatured coupons thereunto belonging, whether before, at or after maturity thereof, the Corporate Trustee, in exchange therefor, shall authenticate and deliver to the Railroad Company, or upon its order, First and Refunding bonds in an aggregate principal sum equal to the face amount of the obligations so tendered to the Corporate Trustee. All such obligations delivered to the Corporate Trustee shall be held by it without impairment of the lien of such obligations and as additional security under this indenture. Bonds so held by the Corporate Trustee shall be stamped, "Not negotiable, held in trust for the purposes declared in the First and Refunding Mortgage of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, dated February 1, 1921."

If any issue of bonds constituting a part of the prior debt which are surrendered to the Corporate Trustee as herein provided, has been secured by the pledge or hypothecation of underlying bonds issued under a mortgage or deed of trust upon any railroad, or part thereof, conveyed by this indenture, the Railroad Company, when and as it rightfully may, shall withdraw such underlying bonds from the pledge thereof, and shall deposit them with the Corporate Trustee, whether canceled or uncanceled, to be held by such Trustee for the further security of the bonds secured by this indenture, until such time as the lien or liens of the mortgages or deeds of trust securing the same shall have been fully discharged or satisfied, or adequate provision made therefor, whereupon, provided, there shall not be outstanding any bonds of any other issue constituting part of the prior debt secured by mortgage, the lien of which is junior to the lien of the mortgage securing such deposited bonds, and prior to the lien of this indenture upon any part of the property and premises covered by the mortgage securing such deposited bonds, such underlying bonds shall be canceled by the Corporate Trustee, if not already canceled, and delivered to the Railroad Company, upon delivery to the Corporate Trustee of a certified copy of a resolution of the Board of Directors of the Railroad Company requesting such action.

At any time or times at or after the maturity, or within twelve months before such maturity, of any obligations constituting part of the prior debt, to retire which bonds are then reserved under this article, the Railroad Company may sell First and Refunding bonds reserved for such purpose, in order to provide the means to purchase or pay such of the obligations constituting part of the prior debt as shall not theretofore have been delivered to the Corporate Trustee under this indenture, and which have matured or are to mature within twelve months; and the Corporate Trustee shall authenticate and shall deliver to the Railroad Company, or upon its order, First and Refunding bonds in an aggregate principal sum equal to the face amount of such obligations constituting part of the prior debt as have matured, or are to mature within twelve months; provided, that cash (other than cash receivable by the Corporate Trustee pursuant to the provisions of Section 6 of Article Nine of this indenture) equal to the principal amount of the First and Refunding bonds so authenticated and delivered shall simultaneously be deposited with the Corporate Trustee in exchange therefor. Out of the money so received by the Corporate Trustee, it shall, on demand of the Railroad Company, and upon delivery to the Corporate Trustee of the obligations, canceled or uncanceled, either in bearer form or accompanied by proper instrument of assignment and transfer, so purchased by the Railroad Company, pay to the Railroad Company, or upon its order, a sum equal to the face amount of such obligations so purchased.

Whenever all bonds of a particular issue constituting part of the prior debt, shall have been deposited with the Corporate Trustee or provision shall have been made satisfactory to the Corporate Trustee for the payment or retirement of any bonds not so deposited, and if there shall not be outstanding any bonds of any other issue constituting part of the prior debt secured by mortgage the lien of which is junior to the lien of the mortgage securing such deposited bonds and prior to the lien of this indenture upon any part of the property and premises covered by the mortgage securing such deposited bonds, then, upon delivery to the Corporate Trustee of a certified copy of a resolution of the Board of Directors of the Railroad Company requesting such action, all the deposited bonds of such issue constituting part of the prior debt shall be canceled by the Corporate Trustee and surrendered to the Railroad Company, and the Railroad Company shall procure the mortgage or other instrument securing the same to be canceled, released and discharged of record, and all bonds and other obligations or securities mortgaged or pledged thereunder shall thereupon be delivered to the Corporate Trustee as further security hereunder, subject as to underlying bonds to the prior provisions of this section.

In case any of the prior debt, to acquire, retire or refund which, First and Refunding bonds are or shall be reserved pursuant to this article, shall be paid or retired without the issue of the bonds so reserved for that purpose, the amount of the bonds then reserved shall be reduced by an amount equal to the principal of such prior debt so paid or retired; provided, that in the case of the purchase or the retirement of any obligations constituting part of the prior debt, from the general funds of the Railroad Company, the Railroad Company may afterwards, within a period of five (5) years reimburse itself by the exchange of such obligations for First and Refunding bonds pursuant to this article; provided, further, if at the respective maturities of any of the following specified issues of prior debt bonds, viz.: Illinois Division Mortgage bonds and Nebraska Extension Mortgage bonds, it shall be obligatory upon the Railroad Company, in observance of its covenants in the premises contained in its aforesaid General Mortgage, to deliver to the trustee under said mortgage any of such matured prior debt bonds which shall have been acquired and shall be held by the Corporate Trustee under the provisions of this indenture, then upon the written order of the Railroad Company the Corporate Trustee shall deliver all of such matured prior debt bonds then held by it to the trustee under said General Mortgage; provided, however, that in exchange therefor, the Corporate Trustee shall receive, to be held by it under this indenture as part of the trust estate, General Mortgage bonds for a principal amount equal to the principal amount of the prior debt bonds delivered to the said General Mortgage trustee. In case the Railroad Company should determine so to proceed, it may cause such General Mortgage bonds to be issued in the first instance to refund maturing prior debt bonds of any of the two issues above specified, provided, that such General Mortgage bonds so issued forthwith shall be pledged under this indenture; and in any such case, upon such pledge of such General Mortgage bonds, the Corporate Trustee under this indenture shall authenticate and deliver to the Railroad Company bonds reserved under this Article Three for a principal amount not exceeding either the principal amount of such General Mortgage bonds so pledged under this indenture or the principal amount of prior debt bonds refunded thereby.

A certificate signed by the President or any Vice President, and the Secretary or Assistant Secretary of the Railroad Company, as to any facts pertinent to the right under Sections 1, 2, 3 and 4 of this article to authenticate and deliver First and Refunding bonds, may be received by the Corporate Trustee as conclusive evidence of such facts and shall constitute full authority for the action of the Corporate Trustee in accordance therewith.

§ 5. The First and Refunding bonds hereunder in the principal amount of $73,000,000, shall after the execution and delivery hereof and without other condition precedent than the demand or demands of the Railroad Company, expressed through duly certified copies of resolutions of the Board of Directors of the Railroad Company, and duly certified copies of orders of the Interstate Commerce Commission authorizing the issuance of said bonds or the portion thereof from time to time demanded by the Railroad Company, to be delivered to the Corporate Trustee, be authenticated and delivered by the Corporate Trustee to the Railroad Company for the purpose of reimbursing the Railroad Company for moneys expended during the five (5) year period ended February 1, 1921, in constructing, purchasing, enlarging and improving and making additions and betterments to the lines of railroad and properties hereinbefore conveyed to the Trustees, purchasing equipment, acquiring the shares of capital stock or bonds of railroad, bridge, depot, terminal and other companies, or retiring or discharging the bonded indebtedness of the Railroad Company, none of which expenditures have been made or reimbursed out of any moneys received by the Railroad Company from bonds issued under any prior mortgage of the Railroad Company or from the issue and sale of its capital stock, and all of which expenditures were when made and are now properly chargeable to capital account under the rules and regulations of the Interstate Commerce Commission. The bonds so delivered to the Railroad Company, or their proceeds, shall be held and may be used by it for its general corporate purposes, freed and discharged from any and all restrictions other than such as may be expressed in any order or orders of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

§ 6. From time to time, First and Refunding bonds may be executed by the Railroad Company, and authenticated and delivered, or deposited cash (as the term "deposited cash," is hereinafter in this section defined) may be paid out, by the Corporate Trustee, to pay for or in reimbursement of expenditures made after February 1, 1921, for some one or more of the following purposes:

I. The construction, completion or acquisition by the Railroad Company of (1) any line or lines of railroad, or any part thereof, or any interest or right therein, now or at any time hereafter subject to the lien of this indenture, or (2) any extensions or branches, or any part thereof, or any interest or right therein, of any line of railroad, extension or branch, now or at any time hereafter subject to the lien of this indenture.

II. (a) The construction, completion or acquisition by the Railroad Company of additional main or other tracks, terminal properties, telegraph or telephone lines, elevators, warehouses, depots, shops, machinery, tools, docks, wharves, piers, landings; coal, oil, lumber or other lands, or interests therein, required to furnish supplies for the operation of the railroads of the Railroad Company; waterpower sites, generating stations, transmission lines, and other structures, appliances and property necessary or useful for the operation of its railroads by electric or other power; and all other additions, betterments and improvements (except rolling stock, floating, and other equipment for which provision is hereinafter made) upon, along or pertaining to, or for use in connection with, or in extension of, any line of railroad or other property of the Railroad Company then subject to this indenture; (b) the construction or acquisition of any of the said additions and betterments or other property mentioned in paragraph (a) hereof, upon or in connection with any line of railroad, extension, or branch thereof or other property, owned by any company, not less than 90 per centum of the capital stock (including not less than 90 per centum of the number of outstanding shares having voting rights) of which is, at the time of such construction or acquisition, subject to the lien of this indenture; and any line of railroad, extension, or branch thereof, or other property, now or at any time hereafter leased to the Railroad Company, and the leasehold interest of the Railroad Company wherein is subject to the lien of this indenture; but no bonds shall be issued under this subparagraph (b) in respect of additions to or betterments on leased lines, unless at or prior to the authentication and delivery of such bonds the Railroad Company shall, by appropriate supplemental indenture delivered to the Trustees, agree to create a sinking fund, payable in annual installments, sufficient to provide for the retirement, within the period of the lease of such line to the Railroad Company, of all First and Refunding bonds issued in respect of additions to and betterments on such leased line, or unless the Railroad Company shall, by appropriate supplemental indenture delivered to the Trustees, agree to pay to the Corporate Trustee, at or before the date of termination of such lease to the Railroad Company, an amount in cash sufficient to cover the aggregate cost of the additions to or betterments on such leased line made by the use of First and Refunding bonds, and in such event the Railroad Company shall upon the renewal of such lease (provided such an amount of cash shall so have been paid to the Corporate Trustee), be entitled to the authentication and delivery of First and Refunding bonds to an aggregate face amount equal to the aggregate cost of such additions to or betterments on such leased line; provided, that at or prior to the authentication and delivery of such First and Refunding bonds upon such renewal the Railroad Company shall, by appropriate supplemental indenture delivered to the Trustees, agree to create a sinking fund, payable in annual installments, sufficient to provide for the retirement, within the period of such lease as so renewed, of all First and Refunding bonds issued upon such renewal in respect of the cost of such additions and betterments. If the Railroad Company shall acquire the fee in and to any such leased line of railroad, extension, or branch thereof, or other property, in respect of which a sinking fund has been created or payment of cash has been made or agreed to be made by the Railroad Company by such supplemental indenture to cover the cost of additions and betterments thereto, and such leased lines or property shall become subject to the lien of this indenture, thereupon all further obligation of the Railroad Company under such supplemental indenture shall cease, and the Railroad Company shall be entitled (a) to withdraw from any deposited cash in the hands of the Corporate Trustee an amount equal to the sinking fund payments so made, or (b) to have authenticated and delivered to it a principal amount of bonds hereunder equal to said sinking fund payments so made.

III. The construction or acquisition by the Railroad Company of rolling stock, cars, steam or electric engines, motors, motive power, vessels, ferries, tugs, lighters, or other equipment for use upon or in connection with any of the lines of railroad referred to in the preceding paragraphs I and II, provided, that no bonds shall be authenticated and delivered or deposited cash paid in respect of rolling stock or equipment which is subject to any equipment trust or other lien securing the purchase price thereof, either pending or after the payment of such purchase price.

IV. The payment or refunding of any indebtedness secured by lien prior to this indenture on any lines of railroad or other real property that shall at any time become subject to this indenture and for which bonds shall have been reserved under this section as hereinafter required.

V. The payment or refunding of any indebtedness contracted for any of the purposes for which bonds are authorized to be issued under this Section 6.

VI. The purchase or acquisition by the Railroad Company of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of railroad companies whose lines connect at one or more points with the lines of the Railroad Company, bridge, terminal, union depot, land, improvement, coal, oil, electric or other companies furnishing or necessary to furnish, facilities or supplies to the Railroad Company, or the shares of capital stock of any such corporation, provided, that (1) such acquisition of shares shall be permitted by law, (2) all the shares so acquired shall be pledged under this indenture as a first lien, and (3) a majority of the stock of any such corporation (except that the amount may be less than a majority of the stock of a bridge, union terminal or depot company but in such case shall include the entire number of shares owned by the Railroad Company) shall have been previously or shall thereby be acquired and owned by the Railroad Company and shall have been or shall be pledged subject to the lien of this indenture or to the lien of any prior mortgage enumerated in this indenture.

In case the authentication and delivery of bonds under this section are called for to reimburse the Railroad Company for expenditures previously made for purposes specified in this section, such bonds shall be authenticated and delivered to the Railroad Company or upon its written order, upon delivery to the Corporate Trustee of a certified copy of the resolution of the Board of Directors of the Railroad Company, as provided in Section 7 of Article Two hereof, and certificates, opinions and copies of orders, as in said Section 7 and hereinafter in this section provided.

Unless the authentication and delivery of bonds under this section are called for to reimburse the Railroad Company for expenditures as aforesaid, the Railroad Company shall, in addition to complying with the requirements of Section 7 of Article Two hereof, deposit with the Corporate Trustee a sum in cash (other than cash receivable by the Corporate Trustee pursuant to the provisions of Section 6 of Article Nine of this indenture) equal to the principal amount of the bonds to be so authenticated and delivered, and thereupon the Corporate Trustee shall authenticate and deliver to or upon the order of the Railroad Company, an amount of bonds secured by this indenture equal at the par or face value thereof to the amount of cash deposited. The term "deposited cash" as used in this indenture shall be deemed to signify the cash so deposited with the Corporate Trustee, together with any moneys which pursuant to any other provision of this indenture are subject to the provisions of this section and any other cash received by the Corporate Trustee for the disposition of which no other provision is made under this indenture. The deposited cash shall be held by the Corporate Trustee as a part of the trust estate until paid to or upon the written order of the Railroad Company calling for the payment of a specified amount, accompanied by certificates and opinions as hereinafter specified.

The certificate or certificates to be delivered by the Railroad Company to the Corporate Trustee preliminary to the authentication and delivery of bonds for reimbursement of the Railroad Company as aforesaid, or to the payment of deposited cash as aforesaid, in respect of any of the purposes specified in the foregoing paragraphs I, II, III, IV, V or VI shall be as follows:

(1) A certificate of the President or any Vice President, and the Secretary or Comptroller or Chief Engineer of the Railroad Company stating—(a) that expenditures have been made by the Railroad Company subsequent to February 1, 1921, or as an alternative, in case the payment of deposited cash is requested, that money liabilities to an amount specified are payable or forthwith to become payable, for one or more of the purposes specified in this section, and describing briefly each particular purpose and specifying the amount of money actually expended, and the specific liability actually incurred for each of said stated purposes; (b) that the expenditures so made or the liability actually incurred for the purposes indicated in the certificate were not in excess of either the reasonable cost or the fair value of the work done or the property constructed or of the acquisition of the bonds, evidences of indebtedness or shares of capital stock or other property acquired; (c) that no part of such expenditures or liabilities was included in any previous certificate furnished hereunder, and that no bonds have been issued or called for under this indenture or any prior mortgage on account of such expenditures and that no part of such expenditures was made or reimbursed out of any bonds (except bonds issued under Section 5 of this Article Three) or moneys received by the Railroad Company from the Corporate Trustee under any of the provisions of this indenture or from the trustee of any prior mortgage; and (d) that such expenditures are properly chargeable to capital account for the cost of road, property investment, or equipment, under the rules and regulations, then in force, of the Interstate Commerce Commission or other governmental body having jurisdiction of the subject matter.

(2) In case of the acquisition of or contract for the acquisition of additional lines of railroad, branches, extensions or other real property, such certificate shall state whether such property is or upon its acquisition will be subject to any lien prior to this indenture other than the prior debt specified in Section 1 of this article, or in an indenture supplemental hereto, executed as provided in Article Eleven hereof, for which bonds are then reserved hereunder and other than ordinary charges incident to construction or operation, and, if any such exists, such certificate shall specify the amount and maturity thereof and that such acquisition will not result in a violation of Section 1 of Article One, and the Corporate Trustee shall set aside and reserve bonds issuable under this Section 6 to the amount of such lien until such lien shall be refunded hereunder or paid and released.

(3) In case any of the purposes specified as aforesaid be the payment or refunding of any indebtedness to pay or to refund which bonds are issuable under this Section 6 of Article Three, such certificate or certificates shall state the amount of the indebtedness to be paid or refunded, the date when, and generally the purposes for which, the such indebtedness was contracted, and that the same constitutes indebtedness of the character described in paragraphs IV and V of this Section 6 of Article Three and that such indebtedness was not in excess of the cost or fair value of the property constructed or acquired or work done for which such indebtedness was contracted.

(4) In case any of the purposes specified as aforesaid be the acquisition of the shares of the capital stock of any company or companies or unsecured bonds or obligations of any company or companies, or to pay or refund any indebtedness contracted for any such purpose, such certificate or certificates shall state that the issue of bonds will not result in a violation of Section 3 of Article One.

(5) Any such certificate under this section may state any other facts pertaining to the right to authenticate and deliver bonds hereunder, and the different officers of the Railroad Company may respectively certify to separate facts.

Whenever the Railroad Company shall acquire and shall subject to the lien hereof any property subject to any prior lien specified in such certificate as aforesaid, and thereafter any such prior lien shall be paid or be satisfied, or shall be acquired and be subjected to the lien hereof, then the expenditure made by the Railroad Company for the payment, satisfaction or acquisition of such prior lien (not exceeding the principal amount of such prior lien) shall be deemed additional expenditures for the acquisition of such property, and bonds issuable under this section shall be authenticated and delivered to the Railroad Company, or deposited cash paid out, on account of such expenditures, under the authority of the foregoing paragraphs IV and V of this section, and upon delivery by the Railroad Company to the Corporate Trustee of a certificate containing the statements required in the foregoing certificate described in paragraph (3) above so far as applicable and upon compliance by the Railroad Company with the other requirements of this section. The prior lien so acquired and subjected to the lien hereof shall be held by the Corporate Trustee on the same terms as prior debt refunded under Section 4 of this article.

Upon receipt of such certificate and a certified copy of the resolutions and other instruments as hereinbefore provided and upon compliance with the further requirements of this section, the Corporate Trustee shall authenticate and deliver to the Railroad Company, or on its written order, an amount of its First and Refunding bonds, of the description called for in such resolutions, in the principal amount or pay to the Railroad Company, or on its written order, deposited cash to an amount, equal to the expenditures made or liabilities incurred by the Railroad Company as set forth in such certificate; provided, (1) that the payment to the Railroad Company of deposited cash received by the Corporate Trustee upon the authentication and delivery of bonds, or the authentication and delivery to the Railroad Company of bonds, for and on account of the construction or acquisition of properties described in paragraph III of this Section 6 of this Article Three, shall be limited to an amount of such deposited cash or to a principal amount of such bonds, as the case may be, not exceeding eighty per centum (80%) of the expenditures or liabilities, as the case may be, certified to the Corporate Trustee, as aforesaid, as having been made or incurred under said paragraph III of this Section 6 of Article Three; provided, (2) that whenever at any time the aggregate amount of bonds then outstanding and secured, after subtracting from the total amount of bonds outstanding the amount of bonds theretofore issued to refund prior debt specified in Section 1 of Article Three hereof, shall be twice the par value of the then outstanding and fully paid capital stock of the Railroad Company, then the payment to the Railroad Company of deposited cash received by the Corporate Trustee upon the authentication and delivery of bonds in excess of such amount of twice the outstanding and fully paid capital stock, and the authentication and delivery to the Railroad Company of any bonds in excess of the said amount of twice the outstanding and fully paid capital stock for any of the purposes for which bonds might be issued under the provisions of this Section 6 of Article Three (other than the purposes expressed in paragraph I and other than in payment for stocks, bonds or other securities of connecting railroad companies, issued on account of the construction or acquisition of railroad mileage, the cost of which is not less than the cost of such stocks, bonds and other securities, and other than stocks, bonds and other securities of any depot, bridge, terminal or transfer company, or other company having the right to furnish station, terminal or transfer facilities in connection with the operation of the railroads subject to this indenture), shall be limited to an amount of such deposited cash or to a principal amount of such bonds as the case may be, not exceeding eighty per centum (80%) of the expenditures or liabilities, as the case may be, certified to the Corporate Trustee, as aforesaid, as having been made or incurred; provided, (3) that the aggregate amount of bonds at any one time issued and outstanding under this indenture for and on account of the construction and acquisition of properties of the character described in paragraph II, except so far as such paragraph authorizes the construction, completion or acquisition of additional main or other tracks or terminal properties; or, under paragraph VI of Section 6, except in so far as said paragraph authorizes the purchase of stocks, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of connecting railroad companies, or bridge, terminal or union depot companies (subject to the limitation of Section 3 of Article One of this indenture), shall never exceed twenty-five per centum (25%) of the aggregate amount of all bonds then issued and outstanding under this indenture, including the bonds then proposed to be issued. In case the Railroad Company shall request the payment of deposited cash or the authentication and delivery of bonds in payment of indebtedness contracted for the purposes specified in paragraphs I, II, III and VI of this Section 6, such deposited cash shall be released and paid, and bonds authenticated and delivered to the Railroad Company only to the extent that the Railroad Company would have been entitled to receive such cash or bonds in reimbursement for payments made out of its general funds for the purposes specified in said paragraphs I, II, III and VI. The certificate and resolutions and other instruments required to be submitted to the Corporate Trustee hereunder may be received by it as conclusive evidence of any statement therein contained pertaining to its right to authenticate and deliver bonds or pay out deposited cash under this section and shall be full protection to the Corporate Trustee for its action on the faith thereof.

All property, indebtedness and rights, and all additions, betterments and improvements, in respect of which deposited moneys shall be paid, or bonds shall be issued hereunder, or the proceeds of bonds shall be used, shall be included, without further conveyance or transfer, in the granting clauses of this indenture and shall be subject to the lien hereof; but the lien of this indenture thereon, however, shall be subordinate to the liens securing prior debt specified and to be specified in and pursuant to the provisions of this Article Three to the extent that the liens of such prior debt shall attach thereto.

When any certificates for shares of stock, or any bonds or other indebtedness, shall have been acquired under the provisions of the foregoing paragraph VI of this section, there shall be delivered to the Corporate Trustee the written opinion of counsel for the Railroad Company that the Railroad Company is authorized by law to acquire and to hold such stock, bonds or indebtedness; and such certificates of stock, endorsed in blank for transfer, or accompanied by appropriate instruments of assignment in blank for transfer, and such bonds, and the assignments of such other indebtedness, shall be delivered to the Corporate Trustee hereunder, or to a trustee having prior right to the pledge thereof under some indenture securing prior debt specified in or pursuant to this Article Three; and in case there shall be such another trustee having such prior right, then the right of the Corporate Trustee and the Trustees in and to such stock, bonds and indebtedness shall be subordinate to that of such other trustee.

The Railroad Company shall execute and acknowledge or shall cause to be executed and acknowledged any conveyances or instruments of further assurance that may be necessary for the purpose of subjecting to the lien and operation of this indenture any property so acquired by the Railroad Company, and, unless satisfied and discharged, any indebtedness, liens or charges so taken up or acquired; and, also, shall furnish the written opinion of counsel for the Railroad Company to the effect that such conveyances or other instruments are sufficient for that purpose, or, in lieu of such instruments of further assurance, the Railroad Company shall furnish a written opinion of such counsel that no conveyance or instrument of further assurance is necessary for the purpose aforesaid.

§ 7 Whenever and as often as the Railroad Company shall have called for redemption all or any part of any particular series of bonds issued hereunder subject to such redemption, it may tender or cause to be tendered to the Corporate Trustee, before, at or after redemption or payment, either in bearer form or accompanied by proper instruments of assignment and transfer, and either canceled or uncanceled, any of such bonds with all unmatured coupons, if any, thereto belonging; and, in exchange for such bonds received by the Corporate Trustee upon such tender, upon receipt of a copy of the resolution calling for redemption the said series of bonds or part thereof and of a resolution requesting the Corporate Trustee to authenticate hereunder and to deliver to the Railroad Company bonds for the purpose, and specifying the provisions of said bonds in conformity with Section 7 of Article Two of this indenture, the Corporate Trustee shall authenticate and deliver to the Railroad Company on its written order, bonds hereunder for a principal amount equal to the principal amount of such bonds so received by the Corporate Trustee.

At any time or times, upon delivery to the Corporate Trustee of a copy of the resolution calling for redemption any particular series of bonds or part thereof issued hereunder and subject to redemption, and of a resolution requesting the Corporate Trustee to authenticate hereunder and to deliver to the Railroad Company bonds for the purpose, the Corporate Trustee shall authenticate and deliver to the Railroad Company, on its written order, bonds issued under this indenture for a principal amount not exceeding the principal amount of the bonds called for redemption, provided, that cash (other than cash receivable by the Corporate Trustee pursuant to the provisions of Section 6 of Article Nine of this indenture) equal to the principal amount of the bonds so authenticated and delivered shall simultaneously be deposited with the Corporate Trustee in exchange therefor. On the written order of the Railroad Company, and upon delivery to the Corporate Trustee from time to time, before, at or after redemption and payment, in bearer form or accompanied by proper instruments of assignment and transfer, and whether canceled or uncanceled, of bonds of the series or part thereof called for redemption (other than bonds in exchange for which the Corporate Trustee shall have authenticated and delivered bonds under the first paragraph of this section), together with all unmatured coupons, if any, appertaining to such bonds, the Corporate Trustee, out of the cash so deposited with it, or out of any cash held by the Corporate Trustee pursuant to the provisions of Section 6 of Article Nine of this indenture and directed by the Railroad Company to be applied to such purpose, shall pay to the Railroad Company a sum equal to the principal amount of such bonds so delivered to the Corporate Trustee.

In case any such bond shall have been canceled before tender thereof to the Corporate Trustee under the provisions of this Section 7, said Trustee shall not accept the same (1) if any bond in lieu thereof or in exchange therefor has been issued and is outstanding, other than a bond issued hereunder against the deposit of cash as provided in this Section 7, or (2) if such canceled bond shall have been redeemed or paid by the use of property or proceeds of property subject to the lien of this indenture.

If any bond tendered to the Corporate Trustee under the provisions of this Section 7 be a bond purchased or acquired by means of a sinking fund provided for in respect to such series, the Corporate Trustee shall not accept the same, unless and until all the bonds of such series shall be tendered to it.

No bond shall be issued by the Railroad Company and authenticated and delivered by the Corporate Trustee under the provisions of this Section 7 in refunding bonds originally issued in respect of additions to or betterments on leased lines, unless the Railroad Company shall have acquired the fee in and to any such leased lines or unless the Railroad Company shall comply, with respect to such new issue, with all the requirements of paragraph II of Section 6 of this Article Three in connection with the issuance of bonds in respect of additions to or betterments on leased lines.

All bonds and coupons delivered to the Corporate Trustee under the provisions of this section unless previously canceled, shall be canceled by the Corporate Trustee upon such delivery, and after the Corporate Trustee shall have stamped on such bonds a notation that the same have been refunded under this indenture, shall be returned to the Railroad Company.

§ 8. (a) Whenever, from time to time, the Railroad Company shall tender or cause to be tendered to and shall deposit or cause to be deposited with, the Corporate Trustee, either in bearer form or accompanied by proper instruments of assignment and transfer duly executed in blank, and whether before, at or after the maturity thereof, and whether canceled or uncanceled, any bonds of a series theretofore issued under this indenture (hereinafter in this Section termed "early maturing series") together with all unmatured coupons, if any, thereto belonging, together with a copy of a resolution, authorizing or ratifying the purchase or payment or other acquisition of the bonds so tendered, or reciting or certifying that such bonds are tendered or are to be tendered to the Corporate Trustee pursuant to arrangement with the Railroad Company, and requesting the said Trustee to authenticate and to deliver other bonds issuable under this indenture in exchange therefor, the said Trustee, in exchange for bonds received by the said Trustee upon such tender, shall authenticate and deliver to the Railroad Company, on its written order, bonds issued under and secured by this indenture for a principal amount equal to the principal amount of such bonds so received by the said Trustee; provided, however, that no bonds shall be issued by the Railroad Company or authenticated and delivered by the Corporate Trustee in refunding of bonds originally issued in respect of additions to or betterments on leased lines, unless the Railroad Company shall have acquired the fee in and to any such leased line or unless the Railroad Company shall comply, with respect to such new issue, with all requirements of paragraph II of Section 6 of this Article Three in connection with the issuance of bonds in respect of additions to or betterments on leased lines.

(b) At any time or times, at or after the maturity, or within twelve months before such maturity, of any such early maturing series, the Railroad Company may sell or otherwise dispose of bonds issued under and secured by this indenture for a principal amount not exceeding the principal amount of such early maturing series; provided, however, that no bonds shall be issued by the Railroad Company or authenticated and delivered by the Corporate Trustee in refunding of bonds originally issued in respect of additions to or betterments on leased lines, unless the Railroad Company shall have acquired the fee in and to any such leased line or unless the Railroad Company shall comply, with respect to such new issue, with all requirements of paragraph II of Section 6 of this Article Three in connection with the issuance of bonds in respect of additions to or betterments on leased lines. Upon delivery to the Corporate Trustee of a copy of a resolution requesting the said Trustee to authenticate and to deliver to the Railroad Company such bonds to be sold or disposed of for or in respect of the payment or purchase of the bonds of any such early maturing series, and specifying such bonds so to be paid or purchased, the said Trustee shall authenticate and deliver to the Railroad Company, on its written order, bonds issued under and secured by this indenture for a principal amount not exceeding the principal amount of the matured or maturing bonds to be paid or purchased as aforesaid; provided, that cash (other than that held or receivable by the said Trustee pursuant to the provisions of Section 6 of Article Nine of this indenture) equal to the principal amount of the bonds so authenticated and delivered shall simultaneously be deposited with the said Trustee in exchange therefor. On the written order of the Railroad Company, and upon delivery to the said Trustee from time to time of bonds of such early maturing series specified in the resolution aforesaid (other than bonds in exchange for which the said Trustee shall have authenticated and delivered bonds under the foregoing subdivision (a) of this Section (8), either in bearer form or accompanied by proper instruments of assignment and transfer, duly executed in blank, and either canceled or uncanceled, together with all unmatured coupons, if any, thereto belonging, the said Trustee, out of the cash so deposited with it, or out of any cash held by the said Trustee pursuant to the provisions of Section 6 of Article Nine of this indenture and directed by the Railroad Company to be applied to such purpose, shall pay to the Railroad Company or upon its written order a sum equal to the principal amount of such bonds so delivered to the said Trustee.

In case any such bond shall have been canceled before tender thereof to the Corporate Trustee under the provisions of this Section 8, said Trustee shall not accept the same (1) if any bond in lieu thereof or in exchange therefor has been issued and is outstanding, other than a bond issued hereunder against the deposit of cash as provided in this Section 8, or (2) if such canceled bond shall have been redeemed or paid by the use of property or proceeds of property subject to the lien of this indenture.

If any bond tendered to the Corporate Trustee under the provisions of this Section 8 be a bond purchased or acquired by means of a sinking fund provided for in respect to such series, the Corporate Trustee shall not accept the same, unless and until all the bonds of such series shall be tendered to it.

Any bonds and coupons delivered to the Corporate Trustee under the provisions of this Section 8, unless previously canceled, shall be canceled by the said Trustee upon such delivery, and after the said Trustee shall have stamped on such bonds a notation that the same have been refunded under this indenture, shall be returned to the Railroad Company.

§ 9. The Corporate Trustee shall be entitled to receive the resolutions, certificates, orders, opinions of counsel, and other writings, in Section 7 of Article Two and in this Article Three provided for, as conclusive evidence of the truth of the statements therein contained, respectively, and as full authority for the taking of any action in accordance therewith under this Article Three, and they shall constitute full authority and protection to the Corporate Trustee for its authentication and delivery of bonds and the payment of deposited moneys under the provisions of this Article Three.

The same officer or officers of the Railroad Company need not certify to all the facts required to be certified under the provisions of this Article Three, but different officers may certify to separate facts respectively.

§ 10. Anything in this indenture to the contrary notwithstanding, the Corporate Trustee may, but shall not be required to, authenticate bonds or pay deposited cash to the Railroad Company, or upon order of a court of competent jurisdiction, to a receiver of the Railroad Company, if an event of default as hereinafter defined in Section 2 of Article Seven shall have happened and be continuing.

ARTICLE FOUR.

REDEMPTION OF BONDS ON OR BEFORE MATURITY.

SECTION 1. In the issue of any particular series of bonds hereunder the Railroad Company may reserve the right to redeem, before maturity, all or any part of the bonds of that series, at such time or times and on such terms as the Board of Directors of the Railroad Company, may determine and as shall be appropriately expressed in each of the bonds of that series, the day of redemption being in every case either the first day of February or the first day of August.

In case the Railroad Company shall desire to exercise such right to redeem and to pay off all or any part of the bonds of a particular series on any first day of February or August, in accordance with the right reserved so to do, it shall advertise, in a newspaper of general circulation in the Borough of Manhattan, City and State of New York, at least once in each week for nine (9) successive weeks next preceding such first day of February or August, the first publication to be not less than sixty (60) days prior to the date of redemption, a notice that the Railroad Company has elected to redeem and pay off all or part (and if a part, the serial numbers thereof shall be given) of the bonds of such particular series on such first day of February or August, and that on such first day of February or August there will become and be due and payable upon each of the bonds so to be redeemed, at the office or agency of the Railroad Company in the Borough of Manhattan, City and State of New York, the principal thereof, with such premium, if any, as is specified in such bonds, together with the accrued interest to such first day of February or August. Upon advertisement of such notice by the Railroad Company, the bonds so called for redemption shall become and shall be due and payable on the first day of February or August, specified in such notice, at par, or with such premium, if any, as is specified in such bonds, together with the interest accrued from the last-matured interest installment.

The sum so due for principal and premium, if any, of each coupon bond shall be payable to the bearer of such coupon bond unless it shall have been registered, and, if it shall have been registered, then such payment shall be made to the registered holder of such registered coupon bond, but in no case shall the Railroad Company be required to make such payment except upon surrender of such bond and of all unmatured coupons for interest thereon. All coupons for interest which shall have matured on or prior to the date of redemption designated in such notice shall continue to be payable, but without interest thereon, to the respective bearers of such coupons. The sum so payable upon registered bonds without coupons for principal and for premium, if any, and for unpaid interest which shall have matured on or prior to the date of redemption designated in such notice, shall continue to be payable, but without interest thereon, to the holders of such bonds or their assigns under duly executed instruments of assignment but only upon surrender of the bonds.

From and after the date of redemption designated in such notice so advertised (unless the Railroad Company shall make default in payment as herein provided upon demand) no further interest shall accrue upon any of the bonds so called for redemption; and anything in such bonds or in such coupons or in this indenture to the contrary notwithstanding any coupon for interest appertaining to any such bond and maturing after such date shall become and be null and void.

§ 2. If the Railroad Company shall elect to redeem a part only of any series of First and Refunding bonds then outstanding, the bonds of said series so to be redeemed shall be selected by lot by the Corporate Trustee in such manner as it shall deem proper, and, if the Railroad Company shall so desire and shall seasonably designate a representative for that purpose, in the presence of the representative so designated.

Whenever exercising the right of redemption as provided for in this Article Four, the Railroad Company, if requested by the Corporate Trustee so to do, shall furnish the said Trustee with a duly certified copy of a resolution of its Board of Directors, electing to redeem, and properly designating, the bonds called for redemption.

§ 3. On the deposit with the Corporate Trustee of the amount necessary so to redeem all the outstanding bonds issued under this indenture (if they shall all be redeemable and shall all have been called for redemption), together with proof of the giving of said notice or notices of redemption of all of said bonds as hereinbefore provided, and on payment to the Trustees of all their costs, charges and expenses in relation thereto, the Trustees shall cancel and satisfy this indenture and assign and deliver to the Railroad Company all securities then held by the Trustees or either of them under the provisions hereof. The Corporate Trustee shall apply the moneys so deposited with it to the payment of the bonds issued under this indenture at the rate aforesaid with accrued interest to the interest day designated for redemption.

§ 4. All bonds redeemed and paid under this Article Four shall be canceled, and no bonds of any series of bonds so redeemed shall be reissued.

ARTICLE FIVE.

PARTICULAR COVENANTS OF THE RAILROAD COMPANY.

The Railroad Company covenants as follows:

SECTION 1. It will duly and punctually pay, or cause to be paid, to every holder of any bond issued and secured hereunder, the principal and interest accruing thereon, at the dates and place and in the manner promised in such bond, or in the coupons thereto belonging, according to the true intent and meaning thereof. The interest on coupon bonds shall be payable only upon presentation and surrender of the several coupons annexed to said coupon bonds as such coupons respectively mature; and when and as paid all coupons shall forthwith be canceled by the Railroad Company. The interest on registered bonds without coupons shall be payable only to the registered owners thereof. At all times until the payment of the principal of such bonds the Railroad Company will maintain an office or agency in the Borough of Manhattan, City and State of New York, where said bonds and coupons may be presented for payment, and where notices or demands in respect of all of said bonds and coupons may be served.

At such office or agency the Railroad Company will register, transfer and exchange any of the bonds issued under this indenture, which by their terms may be registered, transferred or exchanged thereat respectively.

As a condition precedent to the payment of any installment of interest on a registered bond or of any coupon for interest on a coupon bond, the Railroad Company may require the registered holder of such registered bond or the bearer of such coupon to furnish such evidence as will enable the Railroad Company to determine whether it is required by law to deduct or to retain any tax or taxes from the interest so payable.

From time to time, the Railroad Company will give notice to the Corporate Trustee of the location of any such office or agency or agencies and of any change of location thereof, and in case the Railroad Company shall fail to maintain any such office or agency or fail to give such notice of any change thereof, presentation and demand may be made and notices may be served at the office of the Corporate Trustee, but, except where otherwise expressly provided by this indenture, the Corporate Trustee shall not be under any duty to the Railroad Company or any other corporation or person to take any action in respect of any such demand or notice.

§ 2. At any and all times the Railroad Company will do, execute, acknowledge and deliver, or will cause to be done, executed, acknowledged and delivered by any other corporation or person obligated to the Railroad Company so to do, all and every such further acts, deeds, conveyances, mortgages and transfers and assurances in the law, as the Corporate Trustee or the Trustees shall reasonably require, for the better assuring, conveying, mortgaging, assigning and confirming unto the Trustees, all and singular the hereditaments and premises, estates and property hereby conveyed or assigned, or intended so to be or which the Railroad Company hereafter may become bound to convey or assign to the Trustees.

§ 3. The Railroad Company, from time to time, will pay and discharge all taxes, assessments and governmental charges lawfully imposed upon the railroads and other premises hereby mortgaged, or the property hereby pledged, or upon any part thereof, or upon the income and profits thereof, or upon the interest of the Trustees therein, the lien of which would be prior to the lien hereof, so that the priority of this indenture shall be fully preserved in respect of such properties and premises at the cost of the Railroad Company without expense to the Trustees or the bondholders; provided, however, that nothing contained in this section shall require the Railroad Company to pay any such tax, assessment or charge, so long as the Railroad Company in good faith and by appropriate legal proceedings shall contest the validity thereof, and that nothing in said bonds or in this indenture contained shall obligate or be deemed to obligate the Railroad Company to pay any tax, assessment, or other governmental charge, the agreement to pay which or the payment of which would be contrary to law or would result in the forfeiture of any rights or interest secured to any of said bondholders by the terms of said bonds or of this indenture.

§ 4. The Railroad Company covenants that the railroads and appurtenances hereby mortgaged are subject to no mortgage or trust deed except those securing the bonds described in Section 1 of Article Three, and that it will not (subject to the provisions of Sections 5, 6 and 13 of this Article Five and of Section 7 of Article Six of this indenture), create or suffer to be created any lien or charge having priority to, or preference over, the lien of this indenture upon the mortgaged premises, or any part thereof, or upon the income thereof, and, within six months after the same shall accrue, it will pay, or cause to be discharged, or will make adequate provision for the satisfaction or discharge of, all lawful claims and demands of mechanics, laborers and others, which, if unpaid, might by law be given precedence to this indenture as a lien or charge upon the mortgaged premises or any part thereof, or the income thereof; provided, however, that nothing contained in this section shall require the Railroad Company to pay any such claim or demand so long as the Railroad Company in good faith shall contest the validity thereof or its enforcement as a lien or charge superior to this indenture.

§ 5. The Railroad Company covenants (except as provided in Section 4 of Article Three of this indenture) that bonds shall not hereafter be issued under any of the several mortgages or trust agreements described in Section 1 of Article Three hereof, which shall have the effect to increase the amount of the principal of the bonds at any time issued or outstanding under any of said mortgages or deeds of trust; provided, however, bonds now certified by the trustee, which remain unsold in the treasury of the Railroad Company as specified in part First of the granting clauses of this indenture, shall be included in the said principal amounts of bonds specified in said Section 1 of Article Three hereof, and shall be considered as issued or outstanding for the purposes of said Section 1.

§ 6. The Railroad Company will pay or cause to be paid the interest on the bonds described in Section 1 of Article Three hereof, as well as on all other obligations that shall or may be secured by liens upon any part of the mortgaged property prior in lien hereto, and not pledged with and held by the Trustees hereunder, as and when such interest shall become payable, and will pay the principal of every such bond or obligation when due, and will not extend or renew the same, or will cause the same to be taken up and pledged under this indenture; provided, however, the Railroad Company hereby expressly reserves the right at its option to extend, by one or more extensions or renewals, the time of payment of the principal of any or all of the bonds constituting prior debt, described in Section 1 of Article Three of this indenture, to a date not later than February 1, 2100; and further, the Railroad Company hereby expressly reserves the right to cause to be issued, refunded, renewed or extended, bonds of other companies, as provided in Section 13 of this Article Five, and in Section 7 of Article Six of this indenture.

§ 7. The Railroad Company will not voluntarily suffer or permit to be terminated or revoked the franchises to it granted and upon it conferred and subject to the lien hereof, and will at all times maintain, preserve and keep the mortgaged property, including all extensions thereof and additions thereto, and every part thereof, in thorough repair, working order and condition, and supplied with rolling stock, equipment, apparatus, appliances, tools and motive power of capacity adequate to the proper conduct and the natural increase of its business. The Railroad Company will keep and maintain in good order and condition, all equipment at any time subject to the lien of this indenture. The Railroad Company will replace with equipment of equal value or capacity, when worn out, abandoned or otherwise disposed of, all equipment owned or possessed by the Railroad Company at the date of this indenture, and all equipment which shall be acquired or shall come into the possession of the Railroad Company after the date of this indenture and in respect of which bonds or deposited cash shall be used pursuant to the provisions of Section 6 of Article Three of the indenture. For the purpose of such replacement, (a) the value or capacity of equipment owned or possessed by the Railroad Company at the date of this indenture shall be deemed to be the value or capacity of such equipment at such date, and (b) the value or capacity of all equipment which shall be acquired or shall come into the possession of the Railroad Company, after the date of this indenture and in respect of which bonds or deposited cash shall be used, shall be deemed to be the value or capacity of such equipment at the date the Railroad Company shall have acquired the ownership or possession thereof.

Upon request of the Corporate Trustee, the Railroad Company will furnish to the Corporate Trustee, at reasonable intervals, a statement of the amount, description and condition of the equipment subject to this indenture, and will permit said Trustee, through its agents, to inspect said equipment, and upon request of said Trustee will give to it such information as the Railroad Company may have of the then location of said equipment. The Railroad Company will also diligently observe all of the conditions, so as to prevent the forfeiture thereof, by reason of any act or omission of the Railroad Company, of all and every of the franchises and other rights to it granted and upon it conferred that shall be necessary or desirable for the maintenance, operation or enjoyment of the property of the Railroad Company or any part thereof.

§ 8. The Railroad Company, from time to time, will punctually observe and perform all of its obligations, and will pay and discharge all amounts payable, under and by virtue of any lease of property or trackage contract held by it at any time subject to the lien of this indenture, and will not suffer or permit any default for which any such lease or trackage contract might be terminated, so that the interest of the Railroad Company in such leasehold estates or trackage contracts may be at all times preserved unimpaired as security for the bonds hereby secured; provided, however, that nothing contained in this section shall require the Railroad Company to make any such payments or to observe any such obligations, so long as it shall in good faith contest its liability therefor.

In case and whenever default shall be made in paying any sum stipulated to be paid in any lease or trackage contract subject to the lien of this indenture, or any sum which in Sections 3, 4 or 6 of this article the Railroad Company has covenanted to pay or discharge, or cause to be discharged, or to provide for satisfying and discharging, the Corporate Trustee, without affecting any of its rights hereunder, from time to time, in its discretion, may itself pay any sum so in default, and thereupon shall have, and forthwith may assert a lien for such advances and interest thereon upon the trust estate and the proceeds thereof, which lien shall be entitled to priority in rank and to priority in payment from the income and profits of the trust estate over the bonds issued hereunder.

§ 9. The Railroad Company will not issue, negotiate, sell or dispose of any bonds hereby secured, in any manner other than in accordance with the provisions of this indenture, and the agreements in that behalf herein contained, and in issuing, selling, negotiating or otherwise disposing of such bonds, from time to time, it will well and truly apply or cause to be applied, the same or the proceeds thereof to and for the purposes herein prescribed, and to and for no other or different purpose.

§ 10. The Railroad Company, in every indenture supplemental hereto which hereafter may be executed, will enumerate all mortgages which are liens upon the railroads or parts thereof thereby conveyed under which bonds constituting prior debt shall have been issued, and will describe such mortgages and state the principal amount and date of maturity of, and the interest borne by, all bonds outstanding thereunder.

§ 11. The Railroad Company will duly record this indenture and every indenture supplemental hereto which hereafter may be executed, and will pay any mortgage recording tax legally due upon the recording of this indenture or any indenture supplemental hereto, and will pay any tax or fee legally due at any time upon the issuing of bonds secured hereby as and when such bonds shall be issued, and also will make such statements and do such acts now and hereafter as are or shall be required by it to be made or done under any law affecting the recording hereof or of any supplemental indenture or the payment of any such tax or fee.

§ 12. In case the Railroad Company shall hereafter create any mortgage upon the railroads and property subject to the lien of this indenture or any part thereof, such mortgage shall be and shall be expressed to be subject to the prior lien of this indenture for the security of all bonds then issued or thereafter to be issued hereunder within any limitation of amount then or thereafter to be fixed as in this indenture provided.

§ 13. The Railroad Company will not sanction or permit any issue of additional shares of capital stock of any company, of whose capital stock the greater part shall be pledged or assigned hereunder, or (except as in this section or in this indenture otherwise provided) the issue of any bonds of any such company, or the creation of any mortgage or other lien upon the railroad or property of any such company, unless simultaneously there shall be made effective provision that such indebtedness and the evidences thereof, and such bonds issued and such mortgage or other lien, and all such additional stock (or such part of such additional stock as shall be proportionate to the part of such entire issued capital stock previously subject to this indenture), forthwith, upon the issue or creation thereof, shall be pledged with or assigned to the Corporate Trustee hereunder; and all such additional stock shall be fully paid and nonassessable; provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to the issue of bonds or other indebtedness by The Colorado and Southern Railway Company, or any bridge, depot or terminal company, the greater portion of whose capital stock may at any time be subject to the lien of this indenture; provided, further, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to the issue by any company, of whose capital stock the greater part shall be pledged or assigned hereunder, of

(a) any bond issued or guaranteed, or to be issued or guaranteed, pursuant to the provisions of any mortgage or deed of trust executed by any such company prior to the date of this indenture;

(b) any bonds issued or guaranteed, or to be issued or guaranteed, in substitution or exchange for, or to refund or renew, a like amount of bonded debt of any such company;

(c) any extension of the time of payment of the bonded debt of any such company;

(d) any promissory obligations or other evidences of indebtedness which may be issued in the current operation of its property by any such company, if it is an operating company;

(e) any bonds or other evidences of indebtedness issued or guaranteed, or to be issued or guaranteed, by any such company which, or the proceeds of which, are to be used by such company for the construction or acquisition of betterments, additions, improvements or extensions of and to property owned by it, or additional property or bonds or stock of other companies, or equipment for railroads which it may own;

(f) a purchase-money mortgage or purchase-money lien upon any property which may hereafter be acquired by any such company, and which purchase-money mortgage or lien shall apply to, and be a charge upon, only such property so acquired;

(g) capital stock issued in exchange for the debts of any such company, provided, that a majority of all the capital stock of such company shall remain subject to the lien of this indenture;

(h) the issue by any such company of registered bonds without coupons in exchange for coupon bonds, or of coupon bonds in exchange for registered bonds without coupons, or of registered bonds without coupons or coupon bonds in exchange or substitution for such bonds mutilated or destroyed or lost; provided, however, that the aggregate principal amount of such bonds outstanding shall not thereby be increased.

Except as herein otherwise expressly provided, the Railroad Company, unless with the consent of the Corporate Trustee, will not sanction or permit any company, of whose capital stock the greater part shall be pledged or assigned hereunder, to sell or otherwise dispose of its railroad or property or any part thereof, except to the Railroad Company or to some other company of whose capital stock not less than the same proportionate part then shall be owned by the Railroad Company and be pledged hereunder. Any such railroad or property so acquired by the Railroad Company forthwith and ipso facto shall become subject to the lien of this indenture, and by proper instruments shall be conveyed to the Trustees subject to any liens then existing thereon or, upon such conveyance, to attach thereto; provided, however, that any company, of whose capital stock the greater part shall be pledged hereunder, from time to time, may sell any of its property, which, at the time of such sale, by resolution of its board of directors, shall be found no longer to be necessary or advantageous to be retained for the purposes of its business and the sale of which shall be authorized by a resolution of its board of directors directing that the proceeds thereof shall be held apart from all other funds of such company until applied to the acquisition or construction of other property.

Except as herein otherwise expressly provided, the Railroad Company, unless with the consent of the Corporate Trustee, will not sanction or permit any company, of whose capital stock the greater part shall be pledged or assigned hereunder, to lease its railroad or property, or any part thereof, except to the Railroad Company or to some other company of whose capital stock not less than the same proportionate part then shall be owned by the Railroad Company and be pledged hereunder, nor unless such lease be upon the condition that it shall terminate at the election of the Trustees, by entry or otherwise, in case default shall be made and shall continue as provided in Section 2 of Article Seven hereof, and at the election of the purchaser, in case of a sale of the property subject to this indenture; provided, that customary leases of tracks, rights of way and terminals for industrial or commercial purposes, or of property not required for railroad use, under leases terminable upon not more than one year's notice, shall not be considered as being within this paragraph.

ARTICLE SIX.

CONTROL OF STOCKS AND BONDS PLEDGED.

SECTION 1. So long as any stocks, bonds or other property now or at any time hereafter subject to the lien of this indenture shall be subject to the prior lien of any other indenture, the lien and all provisions of such other indenture in regard thereto shall in all things be respected and observed, and until released pursuant to such indenture, the stocks, bonds and other property covered thereby shall be and shall remain subject to the prior and superior lien thereof and shall be held as provided in such indenture, with all the powers, rights and discretions and subject to all the provisions set forth in such indenture; and neither the execution of this indenture nor any action hereunder shall in any manner affect such other indenture or any rights of the holders of the bonds thereby secured or any rights or duties of the trustee thereunder.

Whenever any indenture which shall be a prior lien upon any stocks, bonds or other property which are or may be subject to the lien of this indenture, shall have been satisfied or released, the Corporate Trustee (if there shall then be no other prior lien thereon requiring the same to be otherwise held) shall be entitled to receive and to take possession of and to hold, as trustee under this indenture, the certificates for shares of stock, and the bonds and other property subject to this indenture so released from such prior lien; and the Railroad Company covenants that it will execute and will deliver to the Trustees such assignments, transfers, powers of attorney and other instruments as the Corporate Trustee may reasonably require in order to vest in the Trustees, or in order to enable the Trustees to acquire the title, and the Corporate Trustee to acquire the possession, of such shares of stock, certificates therefor, bonds and other property; and the Corporate Trustee shall thereupon hold under this indenture such shares of stock, bonds and other property.

The Railroad Company covenants that forthwith upon the execution of this indenture, and from time to time as further pledges or assignments hereunder are made, it will cause due notice of the execution of this indenture and of any supplemental indenture relating to any such pledge or assignment respectively, together with a copy thereof, to be given to the corporation which issued any of the shares of stock or bonds so pledged or assigned.

The Corporate Trustee shall be authorized (1) to cause to be registered in its name as Corporate Trustee, any and all coupon bonds which at any time hereafter may be received by it under any of the provisions of this indenture, or (2) to cause any such bonds to be exchanged for registered bonds without coupons of any denomination, or (3) to cause any such bonds to be stamped: "Not negotiable. Held by The First National Bank of the City of New York, as Corporate Trustee under First and Refunding Mortgage of Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, dated February 1, 1921." The Corporate Trustee shall cause to be transferred into its name, as Corporate Trustee hereunder, all registered bonds which shall be delivered and assigned to it hereunder.

The Corporate Trustee at any time may transfer into its name, as Corporate Trustee hereunder, any or all shares of stock, the certificates for which shall have been pledged with and delivered to it hereunder. In its discretion it may hold such certificates in the name of the registered holder thereof at the time of such pledge, or it may transfer the same into the name of its nominee or nominees, provided in either case that the same, with proper instruments of assignment and powers of transfer in blank, be held by the Corporate Trustee.

The Trustees, and each of them, at the request of the Railroad Company, may do whatever may be necessary for the purpose of maintaining, preserving, renewing or extending the corporate existence of any company the greater part of whose shares shall then be held by the Corporate Trustee hereunder, and for such purposes, from time to time, the Corporate Trustee, in behalf of the Trustees, may sell, assign, transfer and deliver so many shares of the stock of the several companies as may be necessary to qualify persons to act as directors of, or in any other official relation to, such companies. Whenever requested in writing by the Railroad Company, the Corporate Trustee, in behalf of the Trustees, shall assign and transfer to persons designated by the Railroad Company a sufficient number of any shares that then shall be held by the Corporate Trustee hereunder, to qualify such persons to act as directors of, or in any official relation to, the several companies which shall have issued such shares; provided, however, that under this provision no transfer shall be made which shall reduce the amount of stock in any company held by the Corporate Trustee to less than the greater part thereof, unless the Corporate Trustee shall deem it to be necessary for the protection of its interest in the stock of such company; and in every case the Corporate Trustee may make such arrangements as it shall deem necessary for the protection of the trusts hereunder.

§ 2. Unless and until (1) a receiver shall have entered into possession of the mortgaged premises or part thereof; or unless and until (2) the Trustees, or either of them, shall have entered into the possession of the mortgaged premises or part thereof under the power herein granted; or unless and until (3) some one of the events of default enumerated in Section 2 of Article Seven of this indenture shall have happened and be continuing,—(a) neither of the Trustees (except with the assent of the Railroad Company) shall collect, or shall be entitled to collect, the principal of or interest upon any bonds, obligations or indebtedness now or hereafter subject to this indenture, whether before or at or after maturity, or shall enforce any provisions of the mortgages, trust deeds or other instruments under which such bonds, obligations or indebtedness were issued, or by which the same are secured; (b) the Railroad Company shall be entitled to receive all interest paid in respect of any such bonds, obligations or indebtedness, and the dividends on all shares of stock which shall be subject to this indenture, although the same may have been transferred to the Corporate Trustee; (c) from time to time (subject to the covenants in respect thereof in this section contained), upon the request of the Railroad Company, the Corporate Trustee shall deliver to it any coupons for such interest then in the possession of the Corporate Trustee, in order that the Railroad Company may receive payment thereof for its own use or may cause the same to be canceled, and the Corporate Trustee shall deliver to the Railroad Company suitable orders in favor of the Railroad Company, or its nominee, for the payment of such interest and dividends, and the Railroad Company may collect such coupons, interest and dividends (but not by any proceeding which the Corporate Trustee shall deem to be prejudicial to the trusts hereunder), and the Corporate Trustee at once shall pay over to the Railroad Company any such interest and dividends which may have been collected or received by it.

Provided, however, and hereby it is declared and agreed, except as in this indenture otherwise expressly provided, that (1) the Railroad Company shall not be entitled to receive, and the Corporate Trustee shall not pay over to the Railroad Company, the principal of any bond subject to this indenture; (2) the Railroad Company shall not be entitled to receive, and the Corporate Trustee shall not pay over to the Railroad Company, any interest on any such bond, or the principal of or any interest on any such obligations, claims or indebtedness, which shall have been collected or paid out of the proceeds of any sale or condemnation of the property covered by a mortgage securing such bonds, or out of the proceeds of the sale or condemnation of any other property of the company liable upon such bonds, obligations, claims or indebtedness, in case of the dissolution or a liquidation of such company, or of any condemnation of any of its property, it being the intention that the Railroad Company shall be entitled to receive only payments made in money out of the rents, revenues, income or proceeds of operation of such properties; (3) the Railroad Company shall not sell, assign or transfer any coupon, or right to interest or dividends, delivered or assigned to it, or any other such claim or indebtedness, except subject to this indenture; (4) the Railroad Company shall not collect any such coupon or interest, or any such other claim or indebtedness, by legal proceedings or by enforcement of any security therefor, except with the assent of the Corporate Trustee, nor in any manner which the Corporate Trustee shall deem prejudicial to the trusts hereunder; (5) the Railroad Company shall not be entitled to collect any stock dividends that may be declared on any shares of the capital stock of other corporations that are or shall have become subject to this indenture, or any cash dividends on any such shares that may become payable upon or in the course of the dissolution, liquidation or winding up of any such company, or in any way shall be chargeable to or be payable out of capital; and (6) until actually paid, released or discharged, every coupon, or right to interest or dividends, and all such other claims and indebtedness, shall remain subject to this indenture.

If any such coupon, or if any evidence of any such claim or indebtedness, delivered to the Railroad Company hereunder, shall not forthwith be paid or canceled as aforesaid, the Railroad Company shall return the same to the Corporate Trustee, and, in case of the payment of any such coupon, claim or indebtedness, shall furnish, upon the demand of the Corporate Trustee, satisfactory evidence of the cancelation and extinguishment thereof.

§ 3. In case (1) any sum shall be paid on account of the principal of any bonds or (except as herein otherwise expressly provided) of any other obligations or indebtedness subject to this indenture, or in case (2) any sum on account of the interest on any such bonds or obligations shall be paid out of the proceeds of property covered by a mortgage or trust deed securing such bonds, obligations, or indebtedness, or in case (3) upon the dissolution or liquidation of any company, any sum shall be paid upon any bonds or any shares of stock or any claims against or indebtedness of such company, subject to this indenture,—then, in any such case, any such sum, unless received by a trustee under some indenture, which is a prior lien thereon upon the trusts of such indenture, or unless applied on account of the purchase price of property purchased pursuant to Section 5 of this Article Six, shall be paid over to the Corporate Trustee and by it shall be held to be disposed of as provided in Section 6 of Article Nine of this indenture.

In case any stock dividends are declared on any shares of the capital stock of other corporations that are or shall have become subject to this indenture, the certificates for such stock dividends shall by the Railroad Company be assigned and delivered to the Corporate Trustee or to the trustee under some indenture having prior right thereto, in which last mentioned case the right of the Corporate Trustee in and to such stock dividends shall be subordinate to that of such other trustee.

gaged premises or part thereof under the power herein granted; or unless and until (3) some one of the events of default enumerated in Section 2 of Article Seven of this indenture shall have happened and be continuing,—the Railroad Company shall have the right to vote upon, or to give any consent in respect of, all shares of stock subject to this indenture, for all purposes not inconsistent with the provisions or purposes of this indenture and with the same force and effect as though such shares were not subject to this indenture; and from time to time, upon demand of the Railroad Company, the Corporate Trustee forthwith shall execute and deliver, or shall cause to be executed and delivered, to the Railroad Company or to its nominees, suitable powers of attorney or proxies to vote upon, or to give any consent in respect of, any shares of stock which shall have been transferred to the Corporate Trustee. Every such instrument shall bear on its face the following statement: "The powers hereby conferred shall not be exercised for any purpose inconsistent with the provisions or purposes of the First and Refunding Mortgage of Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, dated February 1, 1921."

§ 5. In case default shall be made in the payment of the principal or interest of any of the bonds or obligations which shall have been delivered to and shall be held by the Corporate Trustee hereunder, or of any other bonds then secured by the same mortgage or deed of trust as such bonds held by the Corporate Trustee, then and in any such case, if the Corporate Trustee shall hold more than eighty-five per cent in amount of the entire issue of such bonds or obligations in default, it shall upon the written request of the Railroad Company, and in other cases upon such written request it may in its discretion, cause proper proceedings to be instituted and prosecuted in some court of competent jurisdiction to foreclose or to enforce the mortgage or trust or charge by which such bonds or obligations in default are secured; provided, however, that the Corporate Trustee shall not be required to take any such action without being first indemnified to its satisfaction against any expense or liability. In case (1) a receiver shall have entered into possession of the mortgaged premises or part thereof, or (2) the Trustees, or either of them, shall have entered into possession of the mortgaged premises or part thereof under the powers herein granted, or (3) one or more of the events of default enumerated in Section 2 of Article Seven hereof shall have occurred and shall be subsisting, the Corporate Trustee, in its discretion, may institute or cause to be instituted such proceedings without such written request.

In case (1) any company all or part of whose capital stock shall be subject to this indenture, shall be dissolved or be liquidated, or in case (2) all or any of the property of any such company shall be sold upon the insolvency of such company at any judicial or other sale, or in case (3) any property covered by a mortgage securing any bonds, or subject to any charge or trust for the payment of any other obligations, subject to this indenture, shall be sold upon foreclosure of such mortgage, or by enforcement of such charge or trust,— then, in any such event, if the property of such dissolved or liquidated company, or the property sold, can be acquired by crediting on the bonds, obligations, claims, indebtedness or stock, held by the Corporate Trustee hereunder, any sum accruing or to be received thereon out of the proceeds of such property, and by paying not more than fifteen per cent of the price of such property in cash (or more than fifteen per cent if the Railroad Company or the holders of a majority in amount of the bonds hereby secured shall so request), the Corporate Trustee in its discretion may, but if requested in writing by the Railroad Company or by the holders of a majority in principal amount of the bonds hereby secured and provided with the amount of cash necessary therefor (whether such amount be more or less than fifteen per cent of the price of such property) the Corporate Trustee in such case shall, purchase or cause to be purchased or permit the Railroad Company to purchase such property, either in the name or on behalf of the Trustees or of the Corporate Trustee, or of the Railroad Company, or by purchasing trustees, and use or permit the Railroad Company to use such bonds, obligations, claims, indebtedness and stock, so far as may be, to make payment for such property; and in case of any such purchase the Trustees or the Corporate Trustee shall take such steps as they or it may deem proper to cause such property to be vested either in the Railroad Company, subject to this indenture, or in some other corporation organized or to be organized with power to acquire and manage such property, provided, that all the bonds and other indebtedness (except such, if any, as the property was acquired subject to) and all capital stock thereof (excepting the number of shares required to qualify directors), shall be received by the Corporate Trustee, and shall be held for the benefit of the Railroad Company or its assigns, subject to the lien of this indenture.

With the written consent of the Railroad Company, the Corporate Trustee at any time may vote upon any shares of stock that then shall be held by it hereunder, and may take such other action in furtherance of the provisions of this Section 5 of Article Six as in its discretion it shall deem advisable to protect its interests and the interests of the bondholders hereunder in respect of any bonds, obligations or stock subject to the lien of this indenture; and with such consent of the Railroad Company, the Corporate Trustee, in behalf of the Trustees, may join in any plan of reorganization or readjustment in respect of any such bonds or other obligations or stocks, and may accept new securities issued in exchange therefor under such plan. In case (1) a receiver shall have entered into possession of the mortgaged premises or part thereof, or (2) the Trustees or either of them shall have entered into possession of the mortgaged premises or part thereof under the powers herein granted, or (3) one or more of the events of default enumerated in Section 2 of Article Seven hereof shall have occurred and shall be continuing, the Trustees or the Corporate Trustee, as the case may be, shall be entitled to take such steps without the consent of the Railroad Company.

The Railroad Company covenants that, on demand of the Corporate Trustee, it, the Railroad Company, forthwith will pay, or will satisfactorily provide for, all expenditures incurred by the Trustees or either of them under any of the provisions of this Section 5 of Article Six, including all sums required to obtain and perfect the ownership and title to any property which the Trustees or either of them shall purchase or shall cause to be purchased pursuant to the provisions of this Section; and in case the Railroad Company shall fail so to do, then without impairment of, or prejudice to, any of their rights hereunder by reason of the default of the Railroad Company, the Trustees or either of them at discretion may advance moneys to meet all such expenses and any other moneys required, or may procure such advances to be made by others, and for such advances made by the Trustees or either of them or by others at their or its request, with interest thereon, the Trustee making such advances shall have a lien prior to the lien of these presents upon the mortgaged premises.

In case the Trustees or either of them shall not purchase or cause to be purchased the property sold at any such sale, and shall not join in a plan of reorganization as aforesaid in respect of such bonds or other obligations or stocks, then the Corporate Trustee shall receive any portion of the proceeds of the sale accruing or receivable in respect of the bonds or other obligations or stocks by it held hereunder, and such proceeds, from time to time, shall be paid over to the Corporate Trustee and be held to be disposed of as provided in Section 6 of Article Nine of this indenture.

§ 6. Any company, all or the greater part of whose capital stock shall be subject to this indenture, may be merged into or consolidated with, or all or any of its property may be sold or conveyed to, any other company, all or the greater part of whose capital stock shall be subject to this indenture; provided, however, that in case of any such merger or consolidation or purchase there shall continue to be or shall be made subject to the lien of this indenture not less than the same proportionate part of the capital stock of the merging or consolidated or purchasing company, which (unless required otherwise to be held by the provisions of any prior indenture) shall be held by the Corporate Trustee hereunder pursuant to the provisions hereof.

Any company, all or part of whose capital stock shall be subject to this indenture, may be consolidated with any other company upon such terms as may be approved by the Corporate Trustee; provided, however, that there shall be subjected to the lien of this indenture a majority of the capital stock of the consolidated company if previous to such consolidation a majority of the capital stock of one of the consolidating companies was so subject.

Any company, all or part of whose capital stock shall be subject to this indenture, may merge into itself, or take a conveyance of the property and franchises belonging to, any other company, if in so doing the amount of the capital stock of such merging or purchasing company not subject to this indenture be not increased.

§ 7. Unless some one or more of the events of default enumerated in Section 2 of Article Seven of this indenture shall have occurred and be continuing, the Railroad Company at any time and from time to time may consent to the refunding, renewal or extension by any other company of any issue of its bonds or obligations the whole or part of which shall be subject to this indenture. If the bonds or obligations so to be refunded shall be secured by mortgage or pledge, the bonds or obligations to be issued in place of and in substitution for them shall be secured by a mortgage or pledge (of equal rank to the mortgage or pledge securing the bonds so refunded) upon or of the same property, or the same and additional property, and such mortgage or instrument of pledge may authorize the issuance of bonds to an amount greater than that of the issue to which the bonds so held by the Corporate Trustee belong, if such additional issue is for the purpose of refunding prior debt of such company not theretofore subordinate in lien to the bonds subject to this indenture so refunded. In case any bonds or obligations subject to this indenture shall be refunded, an equal amount of the refunding bonds or obligations shall ipso facto forthwith become subject to this indenture, and shall be lodged and be held in the same manner as those for which they are substituted. In case any bonds or obligations subject to this indenture shall be so renewed or extended, such bonds or obligations as so renewed or extended shall continue to be secured as before and shall remain subject to this indenture in the same manner as theretofore.

Unless some one or more of the events of default enumerated in Section 2 of Article Seven of this indenture shall have occurred and be continuing, the Corporate Trustee in behalf of the Trustees, if requested in writing by the Railroad Company, shall consent to any such refunding, renewal, extension or substitution, provided, that the Corporate Trustee shall have received the opinion of any counsel approved by it (who may be of counsel for the Railroad Company) that any such renewal, extension or substitution is in compliance with the provisions of this Section 7 of Article Six, which opinion shall be conclusive evidence in the premises. In case such a default shall have occurred and shall be continuing, the Corporate Trustee in behalf of the Trustees, on receiving the opinion of counsel as aforesaid, may, in its discretion, consent to such refunding, renewal or extension as above provided, without the consent or request of the Railroad Company.

§ 8. The Trustee holding the same may make any exchange, substitution, cancelation or surrender of bonds or obligations or stocks required for the accomplishment of the purposes of this Article Six and may receive the opinion of any counsel approved by it (who may be of counsel for the Railroad Company) as to the legal effect of any action taken or to be taken hereunder, and as to the steps necessary to be taken to consummate the same, and as to any other matter under this Article Six; and such opinion shall be full protection to each of the Trustees for any action by either of the Trustees taken pursuant thereto.

ARTICLE SEVEN

REMEDIES OF TRUSTEES AND BONDHOLDERS.

SECTION 1. In case any coupon or claim for interest on any of the bonds hereby secured shall have been funded or extended by or with the consent of the Railroad Company, such coupon or claim for interest so funded or extended shall not be entitled, in case of default hereunder, to the benefit or security of this indenture, except subject to the prior payment in full of the principal of all said bonds that shall be outstanding and of all coupons and claims for interest thereon that shall not have been so funded or extended. If any coupons or claims for interest on any of said bonds at or after maturity shall be owned by the Railroad Company, then such matured coupons or claims for interest shall not be entitled to the benefit or security of this indenture; and the Railroad Company covenants that all such coupons and claims for interest so owned by it or after their maturity shall promptly be canceled.

§ 2. In case of the happening of one or more of the following events—elsewhere in this indenture sometimes termed “events of default”—that is to say:

(1) Default in the due and punctual payment of the principal of any of the bonds hereby secured, when the same shall have become due and payable, whether at maturity or by declaration or otherwise;

(2) Default in the payment of any installment of interest on any of the bonds hereby secured, when and as the same shall have become payable as therein and herein expressed, and such default shall have continued for the period of six months;

(3) Default in the payment of the principal of any of the bonds secured by the General Mortgage of the Railroad Company dated March 2, 1908, or of the principal of any of the bonds secured by the Illinois Division Mortgage of the Railroad Company dated July 1, 1899, or of the principal of any of the bonds secured by the Nebraska Extension Mortgage of the Railroad Company dated May 2, 1887, when such principal of any of such bonds shall have become due and payable under the provisions of the bond or of the mortgage securing the same (subject, however, to the right to extend the payment thereof as provided in Section 6 of Article Five of this indenture); or

(4) Default in the due observance or performance of any other covenant or condition herein required to be kept or performed by the Railroad Company, and any such default shall have continued for the period of six months after written notice thereof shall have been given to the Railroad Company by the Corporate Trustee or by the holders of ten per cent in principal amount of the bonds hereby secured then outstanding:

Then, and in each and every such case of default, and during the continuance thereof, the Trustees personally or by their agents or attorneys, or (if by written notice to the Railroad Company and to the Individual Trustee the Corporate Trustee shall declare that it deems it advisable) the Individual Trustee only, personally or by his agents or attorneys, may enter upon the mortgaged premises, and may exclude the Railroad Company, its agents and servants, wholly therefrom; and having and holding the same, either personally or by receivers, agents, servants or attorneys, may use, operate, manage and control said premises, regulate the tolls for the transportation of passengers and freight thereon and conduct the business thereof to the best advantage of the holders of the bonds and other indebtedness hereby secured; and upon every such entry, at the expense of the trust estate, from time to time may make all such necessary or proper repairs, renewals, replacements and useful alterations, additions, betterments and improvements to said premises as to the Trustees or Trustee in possession may seem judicious, and may purchase or otherwise secure the use of additional engines, rolling stock, tools and machinery for use thereon, and either in the name of the Railroad Company or otherwise, as the Trustees or Trustee in possession shall deem best, may manage and operate the mortgaged premises and exercise all rights and powers of the Railroad Company in respect thereof, and the Trustees or Trustee in possession shall be entitled to collect and receive all tolls, earnings, income, rents, issues and profits thereof; and after deducting all expenses incurred hereunder and all payments which may be made for taxes, assessments, insurance and prior or other proper charges upon said premises or any part thereof, as well as just and reasonable compensation for the services of the Trustees and for all agents, clerks, servants and other employees by them or either of them properly engaged, the Trustees or Trustee in possession shall apply the moneys arising as aforesaid as follows:

In case the principal of the bonds hereby secured shall not have become due, to the payment of the interest in default in the order of the maturity of the installments of such interest, with interest thereon at the same rates, respectively, as were borne by the respective bonds on which such interest shall be in default; such payments to be made ratably to the persons entitled thereto, without discrimination or preference.

In case the principal of the bonds hereby secured shall have become due by declaration or otherwise, to the payment of the amounts due for the interest and principal on said bonds, ratably to the persons entitled to such payment without any discrimination or preference.

These provisions, however, are not intended in anywise to modify the provisions of Section 1 of this Article Seven, but are subject thereto.

In case the Trustees or either of them shall have entered or shall have elected to enter as aforesaid, or in case a receiver of the property of the Railroad Company shall have been appointed, or in case default shall be made and shall continue as specified in this Section 2 of Article Seven, the Corporate Trustee shall be entitled to vote on all shares of stock then subject to this indenture, and, for the benefit of the holders of the bonds and other indebtedness hereby secured, shall be entitled to collect and receive all dividends on the shares of stock that then shall be subject to this indenture, and all sums payable for principal, interest or otherwise upon any bonds or obligations that then shall be subject to this indenture, and to apply as hereinbefore provided the net moneys received; and, as holder of any such shares of stock and of any such bonds, to perform any and all acts, or to make or execute any and all transfers, requests, requisitions or other instruments, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Section 2 of Article Seven; but in the event that a receiver of any railroad upon which this indenture is a direct lien shall have been appointed and shall be in possession thereof, the Corporate Trustee from time to time in its discretion may, and if requested by the holders of a majority in amount of the bonds hereby secured it shall, turn over to such receiver any part or all of the interest moneys and cash dividends declared and paid out of current earnings, so collected by it, and may co-operate with such receiver in managing and operating the entire system of the Railroad Company in such manner as the Corporate Trustee shall deem for the best interest of the holders of the bonds hereby secured.

§ 3. In case of the happening of any of the events of default enumerated in Section 2 of this Article Seven, then and in each and every such case of default, during the continuance of such default, either (a) the Trustees (or, if the Trustees deem it to be advisable, the Individual Trustee alone) personally or by agent or attorney, with or without entry, in their or his discretion may sell subject to the liens thereon which then shall be prior and superior to the lien of this indenture, to the highest and best bidder, all and singular the mortgaged premises—including stocks, bonds, franchises, interests, appurtenances, and other real and personal property of every kind—and all right, title and interest therein and right of redemption thereof, which sale shall be made at public action at such place and at such time and upon such terms as the Trustees or the Individual Trustee, acting therein, may fix and briefly specify in the notice of sale to be given as herein provided, or as may be required by law; or (b) the Trustees, or either of them, may proceed to protect and to enforce the rights of the Trustees and of the holders of the bonds secured by this indenture, by a suit or suits in equity or at law, whether for the specific performance of any covenant or agreement contained herein, or in aid of the execution of any power herein granted, or for the foreclosure of this indenture, or for the enforcement of any other appropriate legal or equitable remedy, as the Trustees or either of them acting therein, being advised by counsel, may deem most effectual to protect and enforce any of their rights or duties hereunder.

§ 4. In case (1) default shall be made in the payment of any installment of interest on any bond hereby secured, and any such default shall have continued for the period of six months, or in case (2) default shall be made in the payment of the principal of any of the bonds secured by the said General Mortgage of the Railroad Company, or of the principal of any of the bonds secured by the said Illinois Division Mortgage of the Railroad Company, or of the principal of any of the bonds secured by the said Nebraska Extension Mortgage of the Railroad Company, when such principal of any of such bonds shall have become due and payable under the provisions of the bonds or of the mortgage securing the same (subject to the provisions of Section 6 of Article Five of this indenture),—then at any time, during the continuance of such default, upon the written request of the holders of twenty-five per cent, in principal amount of the bonds hereby secured then outstanding, the Corporate Trustee, by notice in writing delivered to the Railroad Company, shall declare the principal of all bonds hereby secured then outstanding to be due and payable immediately, and upon any such declaration, the same shall become and be immediately due and payable, anything in this indenture or in said bonds contained to the contrary notwithstanding. This provision, however, is subject to the condition that if at any time after the principal of said bonds shall have been so declared due and payable and before any sale of the property subject to the lien of this indenture shall have been made pursuant to the provisions of said General Mortgage, or of said Illinois

Division Mortgage, or of said Nebraska Extension Mortgage, or pursuant to the provisions of this Article Seven, all arrears of interest upon all of said bonds, with interest upon overdue installments of interest at the same rates respectively as were borne by the respective bonds of which installments of interest may be overdue, shall either be paid by the Railroad Company or be collected out of the mortgaged premises, and all defaults under this indenture and under such other mortgages shall have been remedied,—then and in every such case the holders of a majority in principal amount of the bonds hereby secured, then outstanding, by written notice to the Railroad Company and to the Corporate Trustee, may waive such default and its consequences; but no such waiver shall extend to or affect any subsequent default, or impair any right consequent thereon.

In case the Trustees or either of them shall have proceeded to enforce any right under this indenture by foreclosure, entry or otherwise, and such proceeding shall have been discontinued or abandoned because of such waiver, or for any other reason, or shall have been determined adversely to the Trustees, then and in every such case the Railroad Company and the Trustees shall be restored to their former position and rights hereunder in respect of the mortgaged premises; and all rights, remedies and powers of the Trustees shall continue as though no such proceeding had been taken.

§ 5. Upon the written request of the holders of twenty-five per cent. in principal amount of the bonds hereby secured, in case of any continuing default as mentioned in Section 2 of this Article Seven, it shall be the duty of the Trustees, upon being indemnified as hereinafter provided, to take all steps needful for the protection and enforcement of their rights and the rights of the holders of the bonds hereby secured, and to exercise the powers of entry or sale herein conferred, or both, or to take appropriate judicial proceedings by action, suit or otherwise, as the Trustees, being advised by counsel, shall deem most expedient in the interest of the holders of the bonds secured; but anything in this indenture to the contrary notwithstanding, the holders of seventy-six per cent. in interest of the bonds hereby secured then outstanding, from time to time shall have the right to direct and control the action of the Trustees in any proceedings under this Article Seven of this indenture; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 5 shall be deemed to require the Corporate Trustee to perform in any jurisdiction any act which by the law of such jurisdiction the Corporate Trustee is forbidden or disabled to perform.

§ 6. In the event of any sale, whether made under the power of sale herein granted, or under or by virtue of judicial proceedings, or of some judgment or decree of foreclosure and sale, the whole of the mortgaged premises, including stocks, bonds and indebtedness, shall be sold in one parcel and as an entirety, unless such sale as an entirety be impracticable by reason of some statute or other cause, or unless the holders of a majority in principal amount of the bonds hereby secured, then outstanding, shall in writing request the Trustees to cause said premises to be sold in parcels, in which case the sale shall be made in such parcels as shall be specified in such request.

§ 7. Notice of any such sale pursuant to any provision of this indenture shall state the time when and the place where the same is to be made, and shall contain a brief general description of the property to be sold, and shall be sufficiently given if published once in each week for four successive calendar weeks prior to such sale in two newspapers published in the Borough of Manhattan in the City of New York, State of New York, and in one newspaper published in the City of Chicago, State of Illinois, and otherwise as may be required by law.

§ 8. From time to time the Trustees or Trustee, or other person, acting therein, may adjourn any sale to be made under the provisions of this indenture, by announcement at the time and place appointed for such sale or for such adjourned sale or sales; and without further notice or publication, such sale may be made at the time and place to which the same shall be so adjourned.

§ 9. Upon the completion of any sale or sales under or by virtue of this indenture, the Trustees shall execute and shall deliver to the accepted purchaser a good and sufficient deed or other instrument conveying, assigning and transferring the property and franchises sold. The Trustees and their successors are hereby appointed the attorneys irrevocable of the Railroad Company, in its name and stead, to make all necessary conveyances and assignments of property, and all necessary transfers, of shares of stock and bonds or other obligations sold, and for that purpose they may execute all necessary deeds and instruments of assignment and transfer, and may substitute one or more persons with like power, the Railroad Company hereby ratifying and confirming all that its said attorneys, or such substitute or substitutes, shall lawfully do by virtue hereof. Nevertheless, the Railroad Company, if so requested by the Trustees, shall join in the execution and delivery of such conveyances, assignments and transfers.

Any such sale made under or by virtue of this indenture, whether under the power of sale herein granted or pursuant to judicial proceedings, shall operate to divest all right, title, interest, claim and demand, either at law or in equity, of the Railroad Company, in and to the premises sold, and shall be a perpetual bar, both at law and in equity, against the Railroad Company, its successors and assigns, and against any and all persons claiming or to claim the premises sold or any part thereof, from, through or under the Railroad Company or its successors or assigns.

The personal property and chattels conveyed or intended to be conveyed by this indenture, other than stock, bonds and other securities and claims, shall be held and taken to be fixtures and appurtenances of the mortgaged railroads.

§ 10. The receipt of the Corporate Trustee or other person authorized to receive the same, for the purchase money, shall be a sufficient discharge therefor to any purchaser of the property or any part thereof sold as aforesaid; and no such purchaser, or his representatives, grantees or assigns, after paying such purchase money and receiving such receipt, shall be bound to see to the application of such purchase money upon or for any trust or purpose of this indenture, or in any manner whatsoever be answerable for any loss, misapplication or nonapplication of any such purchase money, or be bound to inquire as to the authorization, necessity, expediency or regularity of any such sale.

§ 11. In case of any sale under the provisions of this Article Seven, whether made under the power of sale herein granted or pursuant to judicial proceedings, or in case of any sale in foreclosure of the said General Mortgage of the Railroad Company, or of said Illinois Division Mortgage of the Railroad Company, or of said Nebraska Extension Mortgage of the Railroad Company, the whole of the principal sums of the bonds hereby secured, if not previously due, shall at once become due and payable, anything in said bonds or in this indenture to the contrary notwithstanding.

§ 12. The purchase money, or the proceeds or avails of any such sale, whether made under the power of sale herein granted or pursuant to judicial proceedings, together with any other sums which then may be held by the Trustees or either of them under any of the provisions of this indenture as part of the trust estate, shall be applied as follows:

First. To the payment of the costs and expenses of such sale, including a reasonable compensation to the Trustees, their agents, attorneys and counsel, and of all expenses, liabilities or advances made or incurred by the Trustees or either of them under this indenture, and to the payment of all taxes, assessments or liens prior to the lien of this indenture, except any taxes, assessments or other superior liens subject to which such sale shall have been made.

Second. To the payment equally and ratably of the whole amount then owing or unpaid for principal and interest, upon the bonds and coupons hereby secured with interest on the principal and the overdue installments of interest at the same rates respectively as were borne by the respective bonds whereof the principal or installments of interest may be overdue, and in case such proceeds shall be insufficient to pay in full the whole amount so due and unpaid, then to the payment of such principal and interest, without preference or priority of principal over interest, or of interest over principal, or of any installment of interest over any other installment of interest, ratably to the aggregate of such principal and accrued and unpaid interest, except as otherwise provided in Section 1 of this Article Seven.

Third. To the payment of the surplus, if any, to the Railroad Company, its successors or assigns, or to whomsoever may be lawfully entitled to receive the same.

§ 13. Upon any sale as aforesaid, any purchaser, for the purpose of making settlement or payment for the property purchased, shall be entitled to use and apply any bonds and any matured and unpaid interest obligations secured by this indenture (except as otherwise provided in Section 1 of this Article Seven), by presenting the bonds or other evidences of any of such indebtedness hereby secured so that there may be credited as paid thereon the sums applicable to such payment pursuant to the provisions of Section 12 of this Article Seven; and such purchaser shall be credited on account of the purchase price of the property purchased, with the sums payable out of such net proceeds on the bonds and coupons so presented; and at any such sale any bondholder or any other person may bid for and purchase such property, and may make payment therefor as aforesaid, and upon compliance with the terms of sale, may hold, retain and dispose of such property without further accountability therefor.

§ 14. The Railroad Company will not at any time insist upon or plead, or in any manner whatever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any stay or extension law now or at any time hereafter in force; nor will it claim, take or insist on any benefit or advantage from any law now or hereafter in force providing for the valuation or appraisal of the mortgaged premises, or any part thereof, prior to any sale or sales thereof to be made pursuant to any provision contained in this indenture or to the decree of any court of competent jurisdiction; nor after any such sale or sales will it claim or exercise any right conferred by any statute enacted by any state, or otherwise, to redeem the property so sold, or any part thereof; and it hereby expressly waives all benefit and advantage of any such law or laws and covenants that it will not hinder, delay or impede the execution of any power herein granted and delegated to the Trustees or either of them, but that it will suffer and permit the execution of every such power as though no such law or laws had been made or enacted.

§ 15. Upon filing a bill in equity, or upon commencement of any other judicial proceedings to enforce any right of the Trustees or of the bondholders under this indenture, the Trustees shall be entitled to exercise the right of entry herein conferred and provided to be exercised by the Trustees upon the occurrence and continuance of default, as hereinbefore provided; and as matter of right the Trustees shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver of the mortgaged premises, and of the earnings, income, revenue, rents, issues and profits thereof, with such powers as the court making such appointment shall confer; but notwithstanding the appointment of any receiver, the Corporate Trustee shall be entitled to continue to retain possession and control of any stocks, bonds, cash and indebtedness pledged or to be pledged with the Trustees under this indenture.

§ 16. No holder of any bond or coupon hereby secured shall have any right to institute any suit, action or proceeding in equity or at law for the foreclosure of this indenture or for the execution of any trust hereof or for the appointment of a receiver, or for any other remedy hereunder, unless the holders of twenty-five per cent. in principal amount of the bonds hereby secured then outstanding, shall have requested the Trustees in writing to take action in respect of the matter complained of, and shall have afforded to them a reasonable opportunity either to proceed to exercise the powers hereinbefore granted, or to institute such action, suit or proceeding in their own name; nor unless also such bondholders shall have offered to the Trustees security and indemnity satisfactory to them against the costs, expenses and liabilities to be incurred therein or thereby, nor unless the Trustees shall have refused or neglected to act on such notice, request and indemnity; and such notification, request and offer of indemnity are hereby declared, in every such case, at the option of the Trustees, to be conditions precedent to the execution of the powers and trusts of this indenture and to any action or cause of action for foreclosure or for the appointment of a receiver or for any other remedy hereunder; it being understood and intended that no one or more holders of bonds and coupons shall have any right in any manner whatever to affect, disturb or prejudice the lien of this indenture by his or their action, or to enforce any right hereunder, except in the manner herein provided, and that all proceedings at law or in equity shall be instituted, had and maintained in the manner herein provided and for the equal benefit of all holders of such outstanding bonds and coupons.

All rights of action under this indenture may be enforced by the Trustees without the possession of any of the bonds or coupons hereby secured or the production thereof on the trial or other proceedings relative thereto, and any such suit or proceedings instituted by the Trustees, or either of them, shall be brought, as the case may be, in their or its or his own name, and any recovery of judgment shall be for the ratable benefit of the holders of said bonds and coupons and the other indebtedness hereby § 17. Except as herein expressly provided to the contrary, no remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to the Trustees, or to the holders of bonds hereby secured, is intended to be exclusive of any other remedy, but each and every such remedy shall be cumulative, and shall be in addition to every other remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute.

§ 18. No delay or omission of the Trustees, or either of them, or of any holder of bonds or other indebtedness secured by this indenture, to exercise any right or power arising from any default continuing as aforesaid shall impair any such right or power, or shall be construed to be a waiver of any such default or an acquiescence therein.

§ 19. The Railroad Company covenants that (1) in case default shall be made in the payment of any interest or any bond or bonds at any time outstanding and secured by this indenture, and such default shall have continued for the period of six months, or (2) in case default shall be made in the payment of the principal of any of such bonds when the same shall have become payable, whether upon the maturity of said bonds, or upon a declaration as authorized by this indenture, or upon a sale as set forth in Section 11 of this Article Seven,—then, upon demand of the Corporate Trustee, the Railroad Company will pay to the Corporate Trustee, for the benefit of the holders of the bonds and coupons hereby secured, then outstanding, the whole amount that then shall have become due and payable on all such bonds and coupons then outstanding, for interest or principal, or both, as the case may be, with interest upon the overdue principal and installments of interest at the same rates respectively as were borne by the respective bonds whereof the principal or installments of interest shall be overdue; and in case the Railroad Company shall fail to pay the same forthwith upon such demand, the Trustees, or either of them (the other having in writing given assent thereto), in their, his or its own names or name, and as the trustees or trustee of an express trust, shall be entitled to recover judgment against the Railroad Company for the whole amount so due and unpaid.

The Trustees or either of them shall be entitled to recover judgment as aforesaid, either before or after or during the pendency of any proceedings for the enforcement of the lien of this indenture, and the right of the Trustees to recover such judgment shall not be affected by any entry or sale hereunder, or by the exercise of any other right, power or remedy for the enforcement of the provisions of this indenture or the foreclosure of the lien hereof; and in case of a sale of the property subject to this indenture, and of the application of the proceeds of sale to the payment of the debt secured by this indenture, the Trustees, or either of them (the other having in writing given assent thereto) in their, his or its own names or name, and as trustees or trustee of an express trust, shall be entitled to enforce payment of and to receive all amounts then remaining due and unpaid upon any and all of the bonds issued under this indenture and then outstanding for the benefit of the holders thereof, and shall be entitled to recover judgment for any portion of the debt remaining unpaid, with interest. No recovery of any such judgment by the Trustees, or either of them, and no levy of any execution upon any such judgment upon property subject to this indenture, or upon any other property, shall in any manner or to any extent affect the lien of this indenture upon the property or any part of the property subject to this indenture, or any rights, powers or remedies of the Trustees hereunder, or any lien, rights, powers or remedies of the holders of the bonds hereby secured, but such lien, rights, powers and remedies of the Trustees and of the bondholders shall continue unimpaired as before.

Any moneys thus collected by the Trustees, or either of them, under this Section 19 of Article Seven shall be applied by the Trustees towards payment of the amounts then due and unpaid upon such bonds and coupons in respect of which such moneys shall have been collected, ratably and without any preference or priority of any kind (except as provided in Section 1 of this Article Seven), according to the amounts due and payable upon such bonds and coupons, respectively, at the date fixed by the Corporate Trustee for the distribution of such moneys, upon presentation of the several bonds and coupons and stamping such payment thereon, if partly paid, and upon surrender thereof, if fully paid.

Nevertheless, the foregoing provisions of this Section 19 of Article Seven and the powers hereby granted to the Trustees are strictly subject to the limitation that, if by the commencement of any action at law to recover judgment for any amount due and unpaid upon said bonds or coupons hereunder, or by the exercise of any other remedy prior to or concurrently with proceedings to enforce the lien of this indenture upon the mortgaged premises, the lien of this indenture upon any of the mortgaged premises or the security hereby provided for would be surrendered, waived or lost, despite the foregoing provisions of this Section 19 of Article Seven, neither the Trustees nor either of them shall have power to commence such action at law or to exercise such prior or concurrent remedy.

In case any statute now in force which provides that the commencement of an action to recover a debt secured by mortgage shall be deemed a waiver of the security thereof, or which prohibits the exercise of any other remedy prior to or concurrently with proceedings to enforce the lien of a mortgage upon the premises mortgaged, or impedes or suspends the virtue of any of the foregoing provisions of this Section 19 of Article Seven, of which statute the Railroad Company might take advantage despite said provisions, shall hereafter be repealed or cease to be in force, such statute shall not be deemed to have become or be a part of the contract contained in this indenture.

Nothing in this Section 19 of Article Seven or elsewhere in this indenture or in the bonds or in the coupons attached to coupon bonds shall affect or impair the obligation of the Railroad Company, which is unconditional and absolute, to pay the principal and interest of the bonds to the respective holders of the bonds and to the respective holders of the coupons attached to coupon bonds, at the times and places in such bonds and coupons stated, nor affect or impair the right of action, which is also absolute and unconditional, of such holders to enforce such payment.

§ 20. At any time hereafter before full payment of the indebtedness secured hereby, and whenever it shall deem expedient for the better protection or security of such indebtedness (although then there shall be no default entitling the Trustees to exercise the rights and powers conferred by Section 2 or Section 3 of this Article Seven), the Railroad Company, with the consent of the Corporate Trustee, may surrender and may deliver to the Trustees, or either of them, full possession of the whole or of any part of the mortgaged premises, and may authorize the Corporate Trustee to collect the dividends and interest on all shares of stock, bonds and other obligations subject to this indenture, and to vote upon all such shares of stock, for any period, fixed or indefinite. In such event the Trustees, or (if the Corporate Trustee shall deem it advisable) the Individual Trustee, shall enter into and upon the mortgaged premises so surrendered and delivered, and shall take and receive possession thereof, for such period, fixed or indefinite, as aforesaid, without prejudice, however, to the right of the Trustees, or either of them, at any time subsequently, when entitled thereto by any provision hereof, to insist upon maintaining and to maintain such possession though beyond the expiration of any such prescribed period; and the Trustee entering upon such possession from the time of entry, shall work, maintain, use, manage, control and employ the mortgaged premises in accordance with the provisions of this indenture, and shall receive and apply the income and revenues thereof as provided in Section 2 of this Article Seven. Upon application of the Trustees, and with the consent of the Railroad Company if then there be no continuing default such as is specified in said Section 2 of this Article Seven, and without such consent if then there shall be such a continuing default, a receiver may be appointed to take possession of, and to operate, maintain and manage, the whole or any part of the mortgaged premises, and the Railroad Company shall transfer and deliver to such receiver all such property, wheresoever the same may be situated; and in every case, when a receiver of the whole or of any part of said mortgaged premises shall be appointed under this Section 20 of Article Seven, or otherwise, the net income and profits of such property shall be paid over to, and shall be received by, the Corporate Trustee for the benefit of the holders of the bonds and the other indebtedness secured by this indenture.

The provisions of this Section 20, however, are subject to the exclusive right of the Corporate Trustee to retain possession and control of any stocks, bonds, cash and indebtedness pledged or to be pledged with the Trustees hereunder.

§ 21. The Trustees shall have power to institute and to maintain such suits and proceedings as they may be advised shall be necessary or expedient to prevent any impairment of the security hereunder by any acts of the Railroad Company, or of others, in violation of this indenture or unlawful, or as the Trustees may be advised shall be necessary or expedient to preserve and to protect its interests and the security and interests of the holders of the indebtedness hereby secured, in respect of the property subject to this indenture, or in respect of the income, earnings, rents, issues and profits thereof, including power to institute and to maintain suits or proceedings to restrain the enforcement of, or compliance with, or the observance of, any legislative or other governmental enactment, rule or order that may be unconstitutional or otherwise invalid, if the enforcement of, or compliance with, or observance of, such enactment, rule or order would impair the security hereunder or be prejudicial to the interests of the holders of the indebtedness hereby secured or of the Trustees.

§ 22. Nothing in this indenture, or in the bonds issued hereunder, expressed or implied, is intended, or shall be construed, to give to any person or corporation, other than the parties hereto and the holders of bonds secured by this indenture, any legal or equitable right, remedy, or claim under or in respect of this indenture, or under any covenant, condition or provision herein contained; all its covenants, conditions and provisions being intended to be and being for the sole and exclusive benefit of the parties hereto and of the holders of the bonds hereby secured.

§ 23. Anything in this indenture to the contrary notwithstanding, in case several series of bonds be outstanding under this indenture and default shall be made in the principal or interest of the bonds of any one or more of said series and not in respect of the bonds of one or more others, then whatever action in this Article Seven it is provided may or shall be taken upon such default (continuing as in this indenture provided), by or upon the request of the holders of a specified percentage of bonds outstanding, may or shall be taken, in respect of the bonds of the series in respect of which such default shall have been made, by or upon the request of the holders of a majority in amount of the outstanding bonds of such series upon which such default shall have occurred.

ARTICLE EIGHT

BONDHOLDERS' ACTS, HOLDINGS AND APPARENT AUTHORITY

Any request or other instrument required by this indenture to be signed and executed by bondholders, may be in any number of concurrent instruments of similar tenor, and may be signed or executed by such bondholders in person or by agent appointed in writing. Proof of the execution of any such request or other instrument, or of a writing appointing any such agent, and of the holding by any person of coupon bonds transferable by delivery, shall be sufficient for any purpose of this indenture, and may be received as conclusive, by the Trustees and each of them, if made in accordance with the provisions of this Article Eight.

The fact and date of the execution by any person of any such request or other instrument in writing, may be proved by the certificate of any notary public or other officer authorized to take acknowledgments of deeds to be recorded in the State of New York, that the person signing such request or other instrument acknowledged to him the execution thereof, or by an affidavit of a witness to such execution.

The aggregate amount of coupon bonds transferable by delivery, held by any person executing any such request or other instrument as a bondholder, and the distinctive numbers of such bonds, and the date of his holding the same (which holding the Trustees may deem to continue until the Corporate Trustee shall have received notice in writing to the contrary), may be proved by a certificate executed by any trust company, bank, bankers or other depository, wherever situated, setting forth that at the date therein mentioned such person had on deposit with such depository the bonds described in such certificate, or such facts may be proved by the certificate or affidavit of the person executing such request or other instrument as a bondholder, if any such certificate or affidavit shall be deemed by the Corporate Trustee to be satisfactory.

The fact and date of execution of any request or other instrument, and the amount and numbers of coupon bonds held by the person so executing such request or other instrument, may also be proved in any other manner which the Corporate Trustee may deem sufficient.

The ownership of registered coupon bonds or of registered bonds without coupons shall be proved by the registers of such bonds.

Any request, consent or vote of the owner of any bond shall bind all future owners of the same bond, and of bonds issued in exchange thereof or in place thereof, in respect of anything done or suffered by the Trustees, in pursuance of such request, consent or vote.

ARTICLE NINE

RELEASES OF MORTGAGED AND PLEDGED PROPERTY

SECTION 1. From time to time, subject to the conditions and limitations in this Article Nine prescribed and not otherwise, and upon delivery to the Corporate Trustee of (1) the written request of the Railroad Company, (2) a certified copy of a resolution of its Board of Directors authorizing such request, and (3) the certificate of its President or one of its Vice Presidents and its Chief Engineer or Treasurer or Comptroller or other chief accounting officer, which certificate shall conform to the provisions hereinafter in this section set forth,—the Trustees shall release from the lien of this indenture any part of the right of ways, lands, leaseholds and other property (other than stocks, bonds or securities) then subject to this indenture and specified in such resolution and certificate.

Such certificate shall set forth (a) a description of the property a release of which is requested, and that such property is not necessary or advantageous for the operation, maintenance or use of any of the lines of railroad which or the leases of which are then subject to the lien of this indenture or for use in connection with the business of the Railroad Company, or that the release thereof is required as an incident to changes or modification in the purpose, route or location of a line of railroad or a terminal; (b) that the general integrity and continuity of the system of lines of railroad of the Railroad Company will not be impaired by the execution of the release requested; (c) that the release requested is required for the purpose of carrying out an agreement for the sale of the property to be released or for the exchange thereof for other property, or as an incident to some change or modification in the purpose, location or route of a line of railroad subject to the lien of this indenture, or as an incident to some change or modification in some terminal subject to this indenture; (d) the selling price of the property a release of which is requested, if such property is to be sold, and a description of the property, if any, to be received in exchange therefor; and (e) that the fair value of the property a release of which is requested is not greater than the price at which the same is to be sold, or the fair value of the property to be received in exchange, as the case may be; but such statement of value shall not be required in a case where the property is not to be sold or exchanged but the release thereof shall be requested as incident to some change or modification in the purpose, location or route of a line of railroad or terminal.

§ 2. From time to time the Trustees shall release from the lien of this indenture any franchise or portion thereof which is to be or shall have been surrendered by the Railroad Company, and any tracks and structures which are to be or shall have been removed or abandoned by it, provided, that such surrender of franchise or such removal or abandonment of tracks or structures shall be made or shall have been made pursuant to authority of law, and provided, further that the general integrity and continuity of the system of lines of railroad of the Railroad Company shall not be thereby impaired. Such release shall be executed by the Trustees upon delivery to the Corporate Trustee of (1) the written request therefor of the Railroad Company, (2) a certified copy of a resolution of its Board of Directors authorizing such request, (3) the certificate of the President or a Vice President and the Chief Engineer or Treasurer or Comptroller or other chief accounting officer of the Railroad Company setting forth the facts relating to such surrender, removal or abandonment, and that the general integrity and continuity of the system of lines of railroad of the Railroad Company will not be thereby impaired, (4) a copy of any authority of any public agency, if such there be authorizing the surrender, removal or abandonment, or a copy of the agreement or a statement of the legal requirement to comply with which such release is requested, and (5) the written opinion of counsel for the Railroad Company that the release requested is in accordance with or pursuant to clause (4) of this Section 2.

§ 3. If, by a final decree of any competent court having jurisdiction in the premises, in an action or proceeding to which the Trustees are parties, the Railroad Company shall be required to part with the ownership, possession or operation of any portion or portions of the mortgaged premises, then and in any such event such portion as it may be so required to part with shall be released from the lien of this indenture upon such terms and conditions as in such decree may be prescribed.

§ 4. Any property acquired by the Railroad Company in exchange for or to take the place of any property released hereunder, or as incident to a change or modification in right of way or terminals, ipso facto shall become and shall be subject to the lien of this indenture as fully as if specifically mortgaged hereby; but, if requested by the Trustees, the Railroad Company will convey the same to them by appropriate deeds and assignments upon the trusts and for the purposes of this indenture. The Railroad Company shall deliver to the Corporate Trustee the written opinion of counsel for the Railroad Company to the effect either that such deeds or other instruments are sufficient for that purpose, or that any such deeds or other instruments are not necessary to subject any such property to the lien of this indenture as aforesaid.

§ 5. The Railroad Company may sell and dispose of any stocks, bonds or other securities which at any time may be subject to the lien of this indenture; provided, that the same shall be sold for not less than the full and fair value thereof.

Upon the request of the Railroad Company, evidenced by resolution adopted by vote of not less than two-thirds of the whole number of its Board of Directors, and upon the certificate of its President or one of its Vice Presidents and of its Chief Engineer or Treasurer or Comptroller or other chief accounting officer, stating the price at which such stock, bonds or other securities are to be sold or shall have been sold, and that such price is the full and fair value thereof, and any other facts which the Corporate Trustee may require to be stated concerning the same, the Trustees shall release such stocks, bonds or other securities so sold from the lien of this indenture, and shall deliver the same, if in the possession of either of the Trustees, to the purchaser thereof pursuant to the provisions of the resolutions aforesaid; provided, however, that the consideration therefor shall be simultaneously paid over to the Corporate Trustee unless applied in accordance with the terms of a prior pledge or assignment, and provided, further, that if the Corporate Trustee shall so request, the full and fair value of such stocks, bonds or other securities so to be released shall be appraised by an appraiser or appraisers appointed by the Railroad Company and satisfactory to the Corporate Trustee.

The Trustees may also, anything in this section notwithstanding, upon like request of the Railroad Company, release any stocks, bonds or other securities from the lien of this indenture upon the delivery or assignment to the Corporate Trustee, to be held hereunder, of other stocks, bonds or securities equal in value to those released, the value of the released and substituted stocks, bonds or other securities to be appraised, if requested by the Corporate Trustee, in the manner hereinbefore provided in this section in the case of a sale thereof; provided, that (except in the case of any bridge, depot or terminal company), it shall not sell or dispose of less than the entire amount of stock (except for the purpose of qualifying officers or directors) or the entire amount of bonds or other securities of any one corporation held subject to the lien hereof; and provided, further, that the Trustees shall, upon request of the Railroad Company, without the substitution of other stocks, bonds or securities equal in value, release from the lien of this indenture such number of the shares of capital stock of any bridge, depot or terminal company at any time pledged hereunder, as may be required to be transferred by the Railroad Company in the pro rata reduction in the number of shares held by all the tenant or proprietary companies, including the Railroad Company, upon the admission of a new tenant or proprietary company into the use of the facilities of such bridge, depot or terminal company.

§ 6. All moneys receivable for property released as provided in Sections 1, 2, 3 or 5 of this Article Nine, and all moneys receivable as compensation for any property subject to this indenture taken by exercise of the power of eminent domain, and, except as in this indenture otherwise provided, any and all other moneys at any time receivable by the Trustees or either of them, unless applied in accordance with the requirements of mortgages or pledges constituting prior liens thereon or on part thereof, shall be received and be held by the Corporate Trustee as part of the trust estate, and, at the request of the Railroad Company and under its direction shall be paid over to the Railroad Company from time to time for any of the purposes specified in Sections 4, 6 and 7 of Article Three of this indenture, or for payment of bonds issued hereunder and not refunded by the issue of other bonds hereunder, upon compliance with requirements applicable to the payment to the Railroad Company of deposited moneys under said Section 6 of Article Three.

Any of the said moneys may also be used by the Railroad Company for the purchase of bonds previously issued under the provisions of this indenture, at a price or at prices not exceeding the fair market value thereof at the time of purchase at not more than their principal amount and interest accrued thereon; which bonds, when purchased, shall be deposited with the Corporate Trustee, to be held by it uncanceled, and subject to sale at the request of the Railroad Company, unless the Railroad Company, acting through resolution of its Board of Directors, shall request the Cancellation thereof; in which latter event, the Corporate Trustee, upon receipt from the Railroad Company of a duly authenticated copy of such resolution, shall forthwith cancel the bonds specified in such resolution. Any bond or bonds so held by the Corporate Trustee may at any time be sold by the Railroad Company at a price or at prices not less than the fair market value thereof at the time of sale. When any such sale shall be made by the Railroad Company, the Corporate Trustee, upon receipt of the price of the bond or bonds sold, and upon request of the Railroad Company acting through resolution of the Board of Directors, shall deliver the bonds so sold either to the Railroad Company or to the purchaser thereof, and the proceeds thereof shall form part of the moneys available for use by the Railroad Company for the purposes and in the manner in this Section specified.

§ 7. In case there shall be conveyed to the Railroad Company any line of railroad which is leased to it under a lease assigned to the Trustees hereunder, the stock of the lessor company, if any thereof shall have been deposited hereunder, shall be released from the lien of this indenture and canceled, unless the lessor company shall own property other than that so conveyed, in which latter case the whole of the stock of the lessor company owned by the Railroad Company and held by the Trustees or either of them hereunder, or such part thereof as may be required for the purpose, may by the Railroad Company be sold, applied or disposed of in consummating the purchase of such leased railroad or in connection with such purchase, or in connection with the disposition of assets remaining in such lessor company after such conveyance of its railway, and for such purpose shall be released by the Trustees from the lien of this indenture.

In the event that the Railroad Company shall have acquired the title in fee to any railroad or terminal property on which mortgage debt shall be outstanding, the whole of which shall previously have been pledged hereunder, the Trustees, at the request of the Railroad Company contained in a resolution of its Board of Directors, may cancel and discharge all such mortgage debt, so as to release such railroad from the lien thereof.

§ 8. From time to time, while in possession of the mortgaged premises, the Railroad Company shall have full power, in its discretion, and without any action by or notice to the Trustees, to dispose of any portion of the fixtures, machinery, implements, motive power, rolling stock, marine equipment, or other chattels, at any time held subject to the lien hereof, which may have become unserviceable or which it may not be necessary or advantageous longer to retain for use in connection with the mortgaged premises, replacing the same (subject to the provisions of Section 7 of Article Five) by new fixtures, machinery or other property, or substituting property of equal value thereto, which shall become subject to the lien of this indenture.

§ 9. In no event shall any purchaser or purchasers of any property sold or disposed of under any provision of this Article Nine be required to see to the application of the purchase price.

§ 10. Except as otherwise in this indenture provided, the Railroad Company from time to time may terminate, release or make changes or alterations in, or substitutions of, any leases, trackage rights, agreements or contracts that are subject to this indenture, and in any such event any modified, altered or substituted leases, trackage rights, agreements or contracts forthwith shall become bound by and be subject to the terms of this indenture, in the same manner as those previously existing; but nothing in this Section 10 of Article Nine contained shall be construed as giving to the Railroad Company power to make any lease of, or to grant trackage rights upon, the mortgaged premises, or to enter into any contract affecting the same, except subject to the prior lien of this indenture.

§ 11. In case one or more of the events of default enumerated in Section 2 of Article Seven hereof shall have occurred and shall be continuing, the Trustees shall not execute, on the request of the Railroad Company, a release of any of the property subject to this indenture. If such an event of default shall have occurred and shall be continuing, then, in case any of the property subject to this indenture shall be in the possession of a receiver lawfully appointed, the powers in and by this Article Nine conferred upon the Railroad Company and which it might exercise but for the default, may be exercised by such receiver with the approval of the Corporate Trustee, and if the Trustees or either of them shall be in possession of any of the mortgaged railroad under any provision of this indenture, then all the powers in this Article Nine conferred upon the Railroad Company may be exercised by the Trustees as deemed best by the Corporate Trustee in its discretion.

§ 12. A certificate signed by the President or any Vice President and by the Chief Engineer or Treasurer or Comptroller or other chief accounting officer of the Railroad Company and the opinion of counsel, as hereinbefore provided, may be received by the Trustees as conclusive evidence of any of the facts mentioned in this Article Nine, and shall be full warrant and protection to the Trustees and each of them for any action taken by them or either of them on the faith thereof.

ARTICLE TEN.

IMMUNITY OF OFFICERS, DIRECTORS AND STOCKHOLDERS.

No recourse shall be had for the payment of the principal of or the interest upon any bond issued under this indenture, or for any claim based thereon, or otherwise in respect thereof or of this indenture, against any incorporator, stockholder, officer or director, past, present or future, of the Railroad Company, whether by virtue of any constitution, statute or rule of law or by the enforcement of any assessment or penalty or otherwise; it being expressly agreed and understood that this indenture and all the bonds and coupons hereby secured are solely corporate obligations, and that no personal liability whatever shall attach to or is incurred by any incorporator, stockholder, officer or director, past, present or future, of the Railroad Company because of the incurring of the indebtedness hereby authorized or under or by reason of any of the obligations, covenants, promises or agreements contained in this indenture or in any of the bonds or coupons issued hereunder or to be implied herefrom; and any and all personal liability of every name and nature of, and any and all rights and claims against, every such incorporator, stockholder, officer or director, whether arising at common law or in equity, or created by statute or constitution, are hereby expressly released and waived as a condition of, and as part of the consideration for, the execution of this indenture and the issue of the bonds and interest obligations hereby secured.

ARTICLE ELEVEN.

SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURES.

SECTION 1. The Railroad Company, when authorized by resolution of its Board of Directors, and the Trustees, or either of them, from time to time and at any time, may enter into an indenture or indentures supplemental hereto and which thereafter shall form a part hereof, for any one or more of the following purposes:

(a) To convey, transfer and assign to the Trustees and to subject to the lien of this indenture, with the same force and effect as though included in the granting clauses hereof, additional railroads or leases thereof, bonds, shares of capital stock, equipment and any other property then owned by the Railroad Company, acquired by it through consolidation or merger or by purchase, or otherwise. The prior debt secured by mortgage to which any lines of railroad so conveyed shall be subject, shall be specified and described and the amount thereof stated in such supplemental indenture; and the prior debt so specified and described shall thereupon and thereafter be deemed and taken to be included in Section 2 of Article Three hereof.

(b) To specify and state the bonded indebtedness, and the amount thereof, of any company which hereafter shall be consolidated with or merged into, or whose railroad property hereafter shall be acquired by, the Railroad Company, although such bonded indebtedness may not be secured by mortgage, which bonded indebtedness is to be regarded as forming a part of the prior debt of the Railroad Company, and to retire which, at or before maturity, bonds are to be reserved as provided in Section 3 of Article Three hereof.

(c) To evidence the succession of another corporation to the Railroad Company, or successive successions, and the assumption by a successor corporation of the covenants, and obligations of the Railroad Company under this indenture.

(d) To add to the limitations on the authorized amount, issue and purposes of issue of bonds specified in Articles One and Three hereof, other limitations to be thereafter observed.

(e) To make provision in regard to matters or questions arising under this indenture as may be necessary or desirable and not inconsistent with this indenture.

§ 2. The Corporate Trustee and the Individual Trustee, or either of them, are hereby authorized to join with the Railroad Company in the execution of any such supplemental indenture to make the further agreements and stipulations which may be therein contained, and to accept the conveyance, transfer and assignment of any property thereunder.

ARTICLE TWELVE.

CONSOLIDATIONS AND MERGERS.

SECTION 1. Nothing contained in this indenture or in any bond hereby secured shall prevent any consolidation or merger of the Railroad Company with any other corporation or corporations, or a series of consolidations or mergers or successive consolidations or mergers to which the Railroad Company or its successor or successors shall be a party or parties; or any conveyance and transfer pursuant to sale under a judicial decree or pursuant to voluntary contract of sale or otherwise (subject to the continuing lien of this indenture and to all the provisions hereof and of any and all supplements hereto) of all the property subject to this indenture as an entirety, to any other corporation at that time existing under and by virtue of the laws of any State or States or of the United States and empowered to acquire the same; provided, however, that no such consolidation, merger or sale shall impair the lien and security of this indenture or any of the rights or powers hereunder of the Trustees or either of them or of the holders of the indebtedness hereby secured, and that, upon any such consolidation, merger or sale, the due and punctual payment of the principal and interest of all of the bonds hereby secured, according to their tenor, and the due and punctual performance and observance of all of the covenants and conditions of this indenture and of any and all supplements hereto, shall be expressly assumed by the corporation formed by any such consolidation or merger or purchasing as aforesaid.

§ 2. In case of any such consolidation or merger or series of consolidations or mergers or successive consolidations or mergers, or in case of any such conveyance and transfer, and in case the successor corporation shall have assumed the due and punctual payment of the principal and interest of the bonds hereby secured and the performance of all the covenants and conditions of this indenture and any and all supplements hereto, such successor corporation shall succeed to and be substituted for the Railroad Company, party of the first part hereto, with the same effect as if it had been named herein as such party of the first part; and, upon the order of such successor corporation, instead of the Railroad Company, and subject to all terms, conditions and limitations in this indenture and in any and all supplements hereto prescribed, the Corporate Trustee shall authenticate and shall deliver any of such bonds which previously shall have been signed and delivered by the Railroad Company to the Corporate Trustee for authentication and any of such bonds which thereafter shall be signed and delivered to the Corporate Trustee for that purpose. And such successor corporation may cause to be signed and issued, either in its own name or in the name of the Railroad Company, and under the corporate seal of either company, any and all bonds thereafter to be issued hereunder which theretofore shall not have been signed by the Railroad Company and delivered to the Corporate Trustee. All of the bonds issued in all respects shall have the same legal rank and security as the bonds theretofore or thereafter issued in accordance with the terms of this indenture, as though all of said bonds had been issued at the date of the execution hereof. In case of such consolidation or merger, or conveyance and transfer, such changes in phraseology and form (but not in substance) may be made in the bonds hereby secured, thereafter to be issued, as consequent upon such consolidation or merger or conveyance and transfer, may be appropriate. Neither of the Trustees shall be under any duty to see that any such successor corporation shall assume the payment of the bonds issued hereunder or the performance of the covenants or conditions hereof, except as a condition precedent to the vesting in such successor corporation of the rights and powers conferred by this Section 2 of Article Twelve.

In case of the consolidation of the Railroad Company with or the merger into it of a corporation any of the capital stock of which shall be pledged under this indenture, the lien of this indenture thereon shall terminate upon such consolidation or merger becoming effective, and such capital stock, if then in the possession of either of the Trustees, shall be surrendered to the Railroad Company or to the successor corporation.

In case of the consolidation of the Railroad Company with or the merger into it of a corporation any of the bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of which shall be pledged under this indenture, the lien of this indenture thereon shall terminate upon such consolidation or merger becoming effective, and such bonds or other evidences of indebtedness, if then in the possession of either of the Trustees, shall be surrendered to the Railroad Company or to the successor corporation; provided, however, that such lien shall not terminate and such bonds or other evidences of indebtedness shall not be surrendered unless or until the railroad of the company so consolidated with or merged into the Railroad Company shall have been subjected to the lien of this indenture as in this Section 2 of Article Twelve hereinafter provided, nor unless or until there are no outstanding bonds or other evidences of indebtedness secured by lien upon said railroad, which lien is junior to the lien securing such bonds or other evidences of indebtedness held by either of the Trustees and prior to the lien of this indenture.

The Railroad Company covenants that, in the event of any such consolidation or merger, the railroad theretofore owned by the company whose capital stock or whose bonds or other evidences of indebtedness were so pledged shall be subjected to the lien of this indenture by supplement executed as provided in Article Eleven hereof; but such supplement may provide that the lien of this indenture on such railroad shall be subordinate to the liens which then there may be thereon and to the lien of other indentures or supplemental indentures, executed or to be executed, under which any or all of the prior debt of the Railroad Company may be secured.

§ 3. Nevertheless, before the exercise of the powers conferred by this Article Twelve, the Railroad Company, by instrument in writing executed by authority of its Board of Directors, by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the whole number of directors, and delivered to the Trustees, may surrender any of the powers reserved to it, or to its successors, as aforesaid; and thereupon such power so surrendered shall terminate.

ARTICLE THIRTEEN. CONCERNING THE TRUSTEES.

SECTION 1. Neither of the Trustees shall be answerable for the default or misconduct of the other, or of any agent or attorney appointed in pursuance hereof, if such agent or attorney shall have been selected with reasonable care; or for the exercise of any discretion or power hereunder, or for anything whatever in connection with this trust, except its or his own willful misconduct or gross negligence; nor shall either of the Trustees be accountable for the use of any bonds authenticated or delivered by the Corporate Trustee hereunder or of the proceeds thereof. The Trustees shall not be under any obligation to take any action towards the execution or enforcement of the trusts hereby created, which, in their opinion or in the opinion of the Corporate Trustee shall be likely to involve expense or liability, unless as often as required by the Corporate Trustee one or more of the holders of the bonds hereby secured shall furnish indemnity satisfactory to the Corporate Trustee against such expense or liability. The Trustees shall not be required to take notice of any default under this indenture, and for all purposes they conclusively may assume that there has been no default under this indenture, unless and until notified in writing of such default by the holders of at least ten per cent. in amount of the bonds hereby secured then outstanding; nor shall the Trustees or either of them be required to take any action in respect of any default, unless requested to take such action in respect thereof by a writing signed by the holders of not less than twenty-five per cent. in amount of the bonds hereby secured, then outstanding, or in case several series of bonds are outstanding and default shall be made in the principal or interest of any of the bonds of any one or more of said series and not in respect of the bonds of one or more others, unless requested to take such action by the holders of not less than twenty-five per cent. in amount of the bonds in respect to which default shall have been made, and in every such case tendered indemnity satisfactory to them as aforesaid. The foregoing provisions of this Section 1 of Article Thirteen are intended only for the protection of the Trustees and shall not affect any discretion or power by any provision of this indenture given to the Trustees or to the Corporate Trustee to determine whether or not they or it shall take action in respect of any default, or any other discretion or power given to the Trustees without such notice or request.

The Trustees shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for all services rendered by them in the execution of the trusts hereby created, and the Railroad Company agrees to pay such compensation, as well as all expenses necessarily incurred or disbursed by the Trustees hereunder, and to indemnify the Trustees against any liability or damages incurred or sustained by them under this indenture; and the Trustees shall have a lien for such compensation, expenses and indemnity on the mortgaged premises prior to the lien of the bonds and other indebtedness secured by this indenture.

The Trustees shall incur no liability to anybody in acting upon any notice, request, consent, certificate, note, bond, document or paper believed by them or either of them to be genuine and to have been signed by the proper person.

When reasonably necessary, the Trustees may advise with legal counsel to be selected and employed by them and the reasonable expenses therefor shall be paid by the Railroad Company, and the Trustees shall not be liable for anything done or suffered in good faith by them in accordance with the opinion of counsel.

The recitals and statements in this indenture and in said bonds and coupons contained shall be taken as statements by the Railroad Company alone, and shall not be considered as made by or as imposing any obligation or liability upon the Trustees, nor shall the Trustees be held responsible for the legality or validity of this indenture or of said bonds or coupons or of any supplemental indenture or any instrument of further assurance.

In executing this indenture the Trustees make no covenant or representation respecting the rights of the holders of any of the bonds or other indebtedness secured by this indenture, or the title or interest of the Railroad Company in or to the mortgaged premises or respecting the validity of any assignment under which any securities held hereunder were acquired by the Railroad Company or assigned to the Trustees, or the sufficiency of the security afforded by the mortgaged premises.

The Trustees shall not be responsible for the recording, registration, filing or refiling of this indenture or of any supplemental indenture or of any instrument of further assurance or of any deed or mortgage which they may hereafter receive as hereinabove provided, as a mortgage of real estate or as a chattel mortgage, or for the renewing of the lien hereof or thereof or for the affixing or cancelation of any revenue stamps, nor shall the Trustees be under any duty to give notice to anybody of this or of any such other indenture or instrument, or of any instrument of assignment or pledge supplementing this indenture, and the Trustees may authenticate and deliver the bonds in accordance with the provisions hereof notwithstanding that this indenture shall not have been recorded or filed.

It is expressly understood that the Trustees, shall be under no duty or liability in respect to any tax which may be assessed against either the Railroad Company or the Trustees or against the owners of the bonds or other indebtedness hereby secured in respect to their interest in the mortgaged premises hereunder or under any future mortgage or supplemental indenture which may be executed to the Trustees under the provisions of this indenture, or against the mortgaged premises hereunder or under any such future mortgage or supplemental indenture, nor shall the Trustees be under any duty to pay or see to the payment of such tax, or to take any notice of the assessment therefor or to give any notice thereof to the holders of the bonds or other indebtedness secured hereby or any other person; nor shall the Trustees be under any duty to accept any mortgage or assignment or pledge to be given under any of the provisions of this indenture or to do any act which shall necessitate the acceptance by them of such mortgage or assignment or pledge, if the acceptance thereof shall impose any liability upon them to see to the payment of any such tax; and for any expense or liability which the Trustees may incur by reason of or growing out of any such tax the Railroad Company shall reimburse the Trustees and the Trustees shall have a lien therefor on the mortgaged premises prior to the lien of the bonds and other indebtedness hereby secured.

It shall be no part of the duty of the Trustees to see to the insurance of any part of the property hereby mortgaged, or of any property on which the Trustees may hereafter acquire a lien as above provided, or to effect such insurance.

The trust estate, property and funds shall be primarily liable to third persons for all debts contracted by the Trustees and for all damages to persons or property injured and for salaries and for nonperformance of contract, and for all other torts, obligations and liabilities arising during any period wherein the Trustees or either of them shall manage the trust property or any of it, upon entry or voluntary surrender as aforesaid or otherwise; and the Trustees shall not be personally liable in respect of any such matters.

Any moneys received by the Corporate Trustee under any provision of this indenture may be treated by it, until it is required to pay out the same conformably herewith, as a deposit, without any liability for interest save such as it shall agree with the Railroad Company to pay thereon.

So long as there shall exist none of the events of default enumerated in Section 2 of Article Seven of this indenture, all interest allowed by the Corporate Trustee as aforesaid shall be paid from time to time to the Railroad Company or upon its order signed by its President or any Vice President or Treasurer.

Either of the Trustees may become the owner of bonds and coupons secured hereby with the same rights which it or he would have if not Trustee.

Whenever in this indenture the existence of any situation, matter, conclusion of fact of any character, or the sufficiency or validity of any instrument, paper or proceeding, or of any proof or evidence of any fact shall be prescribed as a condition of or in any manner with respect to any action or proceeding on the part of the Trustees or either of them or shall be deemed necessary or convenient to be ascertained by either of the Trustees, a certificate signed by the President or any Vice President and also by the Chief Engineer or Treasurer or Comptroller or other chief accounting officer of the Railroad Company shall, in the discretion of such Trustee, be sufficient evidence of any such fact, situation, matter or conclusion; and for the purposes of this indenture the fact of the adoption of a resolution by the Board of Directors of the Railroad Company, or of the stockholders, shall be sufficiently evidenced to the Trustees by the certificate of the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary of the Railroad Company under its corporate seal. Any such certificate shall be complete protection to the Trustees for any act done or suffered by them or either of them upon the faith thereof, except where other evidence is hereinabove specifically prescribed, but the Trustees in their reasonable discretion, may require other evidence.

§ 2. The Corporate Trustee, or any such trustee hereafter appointed, may resign and may be discharged of the trusts created by this indenture, by giving notice, specifying the date when such resignation shall take effect, to the Railroad Company and to the bondholders, by publication, at least twice a week for four successive weeks, in two newspapers published in the Borough of Manhattan, City of New York. Such resignation shall take effect on the day specified in such notice—being not less than forty days after the first publication of such notice—unless previously a successor Corporate Trustee shall have been appointed as hereinafter provided, in which event such resignation shall take effect immediately upon the appointment of such successor.

The Individual Trustee may at any time resign by giving notice thereof to the Corporate Trustee and to the Railroad Company, specifying the date on which such resignation shall take effect.

Any Trustee may be removed at any time by an instrument in writing under the hands of three-quarters in interest of the holders of the bonds hereby secured, then outstanding.

Any Trustee so removed shall be entitled to reasonable compensation, then accrued and unpaid, and the reimbursement of proper expenses theretofore incurred and not previously reimbursed.

§ 3. In case at any time the Corporate Trustee shall resign or be removed or otherwise become incapable of acting, or in case the Corporate Trustee shall be taken under the control of any public officer or officers or of a receiver appointed by a court, then (except as hereinafter provided) a successor or successors may be appointed by the holders of a majority in principal amount of the bonds hereby secured, then outstanding, by an instrument or concurrent instruments signed by such bondholders or their attorneys in fact duly authorized, provided, nevertheless, that in any such case the Railroad Company, by an instrument executed by order of its Board of Directors, may appoint a successor Corporate Trustee which shall act until a successor Corporate Trustee shall be appointed by the bondholders as herein authorized. After any such appointment by the Railroad Company, it shall publish notice of such appointment once a week for six successive weeks in a newspaper published in the Borough of Manhattan, City of New York; but any new Corporate Trustee so appointed by the Railroad Company shall immediately and without further act be superseded by a Corporate Trustee appointed in the manner above provided by the holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding bonds hereby secured, if such appointment by such bondholders be made prior to the expiration of one year after the completion of such publication of notice. Every trustee appointed in succession to the Corporate Trustee named as one of the parties of the second part to this indenture, or its successor in the trust, shall be a trust company having an office in the Borough of Manhattan, City of New York, in good standing and having a capital and surplus aggregating at least $2,000,000, if there be such a trust company qualified, able and willing to accept the trusts upon reasonable or customary terms.

In case at any time the Individual Trustee shall resign or be removed or otherwise become incapable of acting, a successor to such Individual Trustee may be appointed by the Corporate Trustee by an instrument in writing.

Any new trustee appointed hereunder shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to its or his co-trustee or co-trustees, if any, and to the Railroad Company, an instrument accepting such appointment hereunder, and thereupon such new trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance shall become vested with all the estates, properties, rights, powers and trusts of its or his predecessor in the trusts hereunder with like effect as if originally named as trustee herein; but nevertheless on the written request of the Railroad Company or of the successor trustee, the trustee ceasing to act shall execute and deliver an instrument transferring to such successor trustee, upon the trusts herein expressed, all the estates, properties, rights, powers and trusts of the trustee so resigning or removed, and shall duly assign, transfer and deliver any other property and moneys held by such trustee to the successor trustee so appointed in its or his place.

Should any deed, conveyance or instrument in writing from the Railroad Company be required by any successor trustee for more fully and certainly vesting in and confirming to such new trustee such estates, rights, powers and duties, then on request any and all such deeds, conveyances and instruments in writing shall be made, executed, acknowledged and delivered by the Railroad Company.

Any trust company into which the Corporate Trustee, or any successor to it in the trusts created by this indenture, may be merged or with which it or any successor to it may be consolidated, or any trust company resulting from any merger or consolidation to which the Corporate Trustee or any successor to it shall be a party, provided, such company shall be a corporation organized under the laws of the United States of America or of the State of New York, having a capital and surplus of at least $2,000,000, and shall do business in the Borough of Manhattan in the City of New York, shall be the successor to the Corporate Trustee under this indenture without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of either of the parties hereto, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding. In case any of the bonds issuable under this indenture shall have been authenticated, but not delivered, any such successor Corporate Trustee may adopt the certificate of authentication of the Corporate Trustee hereinabove named as one of the parties of the second part, or of any successor to it, as Corporate Trustee hereunder, and deliver the bonds so authenticated; and, in case any of the bonds issuable hereunder shall not have been authenticated, any successor Corporate Trustee may authenticate such bonds in its own name, and in all such cases such authentication shall have the full force and effect which anywhere in said bonds or in this indenture it is provided that the authentication of the Corporate Trustee shall have.

§ 4. The grant in this indenture to the Trustees is subject to the following terms and conditions in respect of the rights and powers of the Corporate Trustee and the Individual Trustee, respectively, and every successor trustee and every additional trustee hereunder shall be appointed subject to such terms and conditions, viz.:

(1) That the bonds secured hereby shall be authenticated and delivered, and all powers conferred upon the Corporate Trustee under this indenture shall be exercised, solely by the Corporate Trustee named as one of the parties hereto of the second part or a trust company constituted and acting as its successor in the trust hereunder;

(2) That the custody of all stocks, bonds and other property and cash held by the Corporate Trustee under this indenture, and all rights, powers and duties with respect to the administration, management and disposition thereof including the rights, powers, and duties vested in the Corporate Trustee under this indenture, shall, unless required by law, not vest in the Individual Trustee or his successor, or in any such additional trustee, but shall remain vested in the Corporate Trustee or any trust company which may have been constituted and be acting as its successor in the trusts hereunder;

(3) That no powers shall, unless required by law, be exercised hereunder by such Individual Trustee or his successor, or any such additional trustee, except jointly with or with the consent in writing of the Corporate

Trustee, or any trust company which may have been constituted and be acting as its successor in the trust;

(4) That the Railroad Company, and the Corporate Trustee or its successor in the trust, at any time, by an instrument in writing executed by them jointly, may remove the Individual Trustee or any other trustee or trustees, and by an instrument in writing executed by them jointly may appoint a successor or successors to such Individual Trustee or any such other trustees;

(5) That in case of the happening of any of the events of default specified in Section 2 of Article Seven hereof, the Corporate Trustee or its successor in the trust, by an instrument in writing executed by it without the concurrence of the Railroad Company, may remove any such Individual Trustee or any such other trustees and may appoint a successor or successors;

(6) That any notice, request or other writing by or in behalf of the bondholders, delivered solely to the Corporate Trustee or its successor in the trust, shall be deemed delivered to any and all the trustees hereunder as effectually as if delivered to each of them;

(7) That until the indebtedness secured by this indenture, or some part thereof, shall become payable under the provisions therein or herein contained, or until under the provisions hereof the Trustees shall become entitled to enter upon the mortgaged premises, any action or exercise of rights, powers or duties of the Trustees hereunder, and at any time in any case where power so to do is expressly granted in this indenture, including the power to declare due the principal of the bonds secured hereby, if taken by the Corporate Trustee, or any trust company appointed trustee hereunder as its successor, alone, and without any action on the part of any other trustee, shall be sufficient for the purposes of this indenture; and,

(8) That any request in writing by the Corporate Trustee, or by any trust company appointed as its successor, to the Individual Trustee hereunder or to his successor, or to any additional trustee, shall be sufficient warrant to such Individual Trustee or his successor, or any additional trustee, to take such action as may be so requested.

The said Individual Trustee herein named has been joined as trustee in order to comply with statutory requirements now or hereafter in force respecting trustees under deeds of trust of property in localities in which the mortgaged premises or part thereof, are or may be situated, and as such trustee shall possess such powers and such powers only as may be necessary to comply with such requirements. In case, by reason of the repeal or removal of such requirements or for any other reason, it shall not be necessary that one of the Trustees shall be a natural person, then on the demand of the Corporate Trustee, or of any corporation appointed as its successor hereunder, the said Individual Trustee, or any successor to him in the trust, theretofore appointed, shall resign as such trustee, by writing duly acknowledged for record and delivered to said Corporate Trustee or its successor, and thereupon all powers of said Individual Trustee, or his successor, shall terminate, as shall his or his successor's right, title and interest in and to the mortgaged premises.

Every instrument appointing a successor to the Individual Trustee or any individual trustee or trustees shall refer to this indenture, and the conditions in this article expressed and upon the acceptance in writing by such successor or additional trustee or trustees, he, they or it shall be vested with the estates and property specified in such instrument, either jointly with the Corporate Trustee or its successors, or separately, as may be provided, subject to all the trusts, conditions and covenants of this indenture.

The Individual Trustee herein named, and any of his successors in the trust, and any additional trustee, at any time by an instrument in writing, may constitute the Corporate Trustee and its successors in the trust hereunder, his or its agent and attorney-in-fact, with full authority and power to do all acts and things and exercise all discretions hereunder for and in behalf and in the name of the trustee or trustees executing such instrument.

In case the said Individual Trustee herein named, or any additional trustee, or a successor to either of them, shall die, resign, or be removed, all the estates, properties, rights, powers, trusts, duties and obligations of the Trustees hereunder, so far as permitted by law, shall vest in and be exercised by the Corporate Trustee or its successor in the trust, without the appointment of any trustee or successor to said Individual Trustee, or to such additional trustee; and no successor to said Individual Trustee, or to any additional trustee, shall be appointed unless such appointment shall be necessary or prudent for the protection of the bondholders hereunder, or unless the Corporate Trustee or the holders of a majority in principal amount of the bonds hereby secured shall deem such appointment expedient for any cause.

§ 5. If at any time or times, in order to conform to any law of any locality in which the Railroad Company now or at any time hereafter shall hold any property subject to the lien of this indenture, or if the Corporate Trustee shall be advised by counsel satisfactory to it that it is necessary or prudent in the interest of the bondholders so to do, or if the holders of a majority in principal amount of bonds outstanding under this indenture shall in writing request the Corporate Trustee and the Railroad Company so to do, the Trustees and the Railroad Company shall unite in the execution, delivery and performance of all instruments and agreements necessary or proper to appoint a trust company or one or more persons approved by the Corporate Trustee, either to act as co-trustee or as co-trustees, for the purpose of this indenture, of all or any of the property subject to this indenture jointly with the Trustees originally named herein or their successors, or to act as separate trustee or trustees of any of such property; and the trust company—and its successors through consolidation, merger or otherwise—or the person or persons, so appointed, shall be such co-trustee or co-trustees, or separate trustee or separate trustees, with such powers and duties as shall be specified in such instruments and agreements to be executed as aforesaid.

ARTICLE FOURTEEN

POSSESSION UNTIL DEFAULT—DEFEASANCE CLAUSE.

SECTION 1. Until the happening of one of the events of default enumerated in Section 2 of Article Seven of this indenture, the Railroad Company, its successors and assigns, shall be suffered and permitted to retain actual possession of all the mortgaged premises (other than certificates of stock, bonds and other indebtedness pledged or to be pledged hereunder with the Trustees), and to manage, operate and use the same and every part thereof, with the rights and franchises appertaining thereto, and to collect, receive, take, use and enjoy the rents, earnings, income, issues and profits thereof.

§ 2. If, when the bonds hereby secured shall have become due and payable, the Railroad Company shall well and truly pay or cause to be paid the whole amount of the principal moneys and interest due and payable upon all of the said bonds and the coupons for interest thereon, or shall provide for such payment by depositing with the Corporate Trustee hereunder for the payment of such bonds and coupons the amount due and payable thereon for principal and interest, and shall also pay or cause to be paid all other sums payable hereunder by the Railroad Company, and shall well and truly keep and perform all things herein required to be kept and performed by it according to the true intent and meaning of this indenture, then and in that case all property, rights and interests hereby conveyed, assigned or pledged shall revert to the Railroad Company, its successors or assigns, and the estate, right, title and interest of the Trustees shall thereupon cease, determine and become void; and the Trustees in such case, on demand of the Railroad Company, its successors or assigns, and at its or their cost and expense, shall enter satisfaction of this indenture upon the records, and shall assign and transfer, or cause to be assigned and transferred, and shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Railroad Company, all personal property then held by the Trustees or either of them hereunder; otherwise the same shall be, continue and remain in full force and virtue.

ARTICLE FIFTEEN.

SUNDRY PROVISIONS

SECTION 1. All the covenants, stipulations and agreements in this indenture contained by or in behalf of the Railroad Company, shall bind its successors, and assigns whether so expressed or not.

§ 2. Any act or proceeding by any provision of this indenture authorized or required to be done or performed by the Board of Directors of the Railroad Company (except as provided in Section 5 of Article Nine and Section 3 of Article Twelve), may be done or performed by the Executive Committee of such Board of Directors, with the same effect as if done or performed by the Board of Directors itself and for every purpose of this indenture, including the execution, issue and use of any and all bonds hereby secured, the term "Railroad Company" includes and means not only the party of the first part, but also any successor or purchasing corporation.

§ 3. As used in this indenture, except when otherwise indicated, the words "Corporate Trustee," or any other equivalent term, shall be held and construed to mean The First National Bank of the City of New York, or its successor for the time being in the trusts hereby accepted by the said corporation; and the words "Individual Trustee," or any other equivalent term, shall be held and construed to mean Frazier L. Ford, or his successor for the time being in the trusts hereby accepted by him; and the word "Trustees" or any other equivalent term, shall be held and construed to mean collectively, the parties hereto of the second part and any additional trustee, and their respective successors for the time being in the respective trusts respectively accepted by them; the words "trust company," shall be held and construed to include a banking association formed under the laws of the United States and duly qualified to accept trusts of the nature of this indenture; the words "bond," and "bondholder," shall include the plural as well as the singular number; the words "coupon" and "coupons" refer to the interest coupon or coupons attached to the bonds issued hereunder; and the word "person" used with reference to a bondholder shall include associations, corporations or partnerships owning any of said bonds.

The words "mortgaged premises," "mortgaged property" or similar phrases where used in this indenture shall be taken to include for all purposes all railroads, leasehold interests, equipment, stocks, bonds or other properties conveyed or pledged by the granting clauses of this indenture or otherwise becoming subject thereto, and any and all moneys held hereunder as part of the trust estate; the words "capital stock," or "stock," shall be taken to include voting trust certificates representing the same.

§ 4. This indenture shall become operative and effectual for all purposes immediately upon its execution by the Railroad Company, party of the first part, without more; and, if either or both of the designated parties of the second part shall fail to execute this indenture and accept the trusts hereunder, a new trustee or trustees may be appointed instead of the party or parties of the second part so failing to execute and accept this indenture and the trusts hereunder; and in all respects the effect of such failure of execution and acceptance shall be only the same as if such party or parties of the second part had resigned or been removed from trusteeship hereunder.

§ 5. In order to facilitate the record of this indenture, the same may be simultaneously executed in several counterparts, each of which so executed shall be deemed to be an original; and such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

§ 6. The First National Bank of the City of New York, and Frazier L. Ford, parties hereto of the second part, hereby severally accept the trusts in this indenture declared and provided, and agree to perform the same upon the terms and conditions hereinbefore set forth.

The post office address of The First National Bank of the City of New York is No. 2 Wall street, New York, N. Y., and the post office address of Frazier L. Ford is Fourth and Felix streets, St. Joseph, Missouri.

In witness whereof, Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, the party hereto of the first part, has caused these presents to be signed in its name and behalf by its President, and its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed, and the same to be attested by the signature of its Secretary; and The First National Bank of the City of New York, one of the parties of the second part, has caused these presents to be signed in its name and behalf by its Vice President and its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed and attested by its Cashier, and Frazier L. Ford, the other of the parties of the second part, has hereunto set his hand and seal, all as of the day and year first above written.

COUNTY OF NEW YORK, } ss.:

I, James J. McDermott, a Notary Public in and for the State and County aforesaid, residing therein, duly commissioned, sworn and qualified as such, and duly authorized to administer oaths and affirmations in said County, do hereby certify that on this 3rd day of February, 1922, Francis D. Bartow and Samuel A. Welldon, Vice President and Cashier, respectively, of The First National Bank of the City of New York, one of the mortgagees and trustees under the foregoing mortgage, to me personally known and known to me to be such Vice President and Cashier, and Frazier L. Ford, the other of said mortgagees and trustees under the foregoing mortgage, to me personally known and known to me to be the identical person who is described as one of the said mortgagees and trustees, personally appeared before me and being severally duly sworn, each for himself and not one for the other, on oath deposes and says: that they, the said Francis D. Bartow and Samuel A. Welldon are respectively Vice President and Cashier of The First National Bank of New York, one of the mortgagees and trustees under the foregoing mortgage, and that this affidavit is made by them as agents of and in behalf of said The First National Bank of the City of New York; that he, the said Frazier L. Ford, is the other of the said mortgagees and trustees under the foregoing mortgage; that the foregoing mortgage is made in good faith to secure, according to the terms of the said mortgage, the First and Refunding Mortgage Bonds of the mortgagor to the aggregate principal amount as therein stated and interest thereon at the rate therein prescribed, and is made without any design to hinder, delay or defraud creditors.

FRANCIS D. BARTOW

NORTHERN CROSS RAILROAD COMPANY,

THE QUINCY AND CHICAGO RAILROAD COMPANY

The road between Quincy and Galesburg was originally built in the name of the "Northern Cross Railroad Company." That was in name the first railroad in the State of Illinois, for the State built the first railroad in its name.

The first movement for building railroads in this State was by the State itself, and not through private corporations.

The movement originated in February, 1837, when the Legislature passed what was called the "Internal Improvement Act," which contemplated the State building several railroads, to be paid for by issues of State Bonds.

The first reference to the Northern Cross Railroad appears in Division 9 of Section 18 of the aforesaid act, in which the Board of Commissioners of Public Works was authorized and required to adopt such measures as may be necessary to commence, construct and complete within a reasonable length of time the Northern Cross Railroad from Quincy on the Mississippi River via Clayton, Mt. Sterling, Meredosia, Jacksonville and Springfield. To carry into effect the provisions of this part of the section of the Act, the sum of $1,850,000 was appropriated exclusive of the necessary sum for constructing a bridge over the Illinois River.

The name of the first and only road built by the State under this Act was "Northern Cross," projected from Springfield west, via Meredosia on the Illinois River, thence to Quincy, via Mt. Sterling. Eight miles of this road were built in 1838, the first locomotive in Illinois having been shipped by steamer up the Illinois River to Meredosia and put in service on the road, November 8, 1838, with appropriate ceremonies.

By January 1, 1840, the road had been finished east to Jacksonville, and by May 30, 1842, it was finished to Springfield, a distance of fifty-eight miles from Meredosia. It was a financial failure, and in an Act approved February 16, 1847, the Legislature authorized the Governor to sell the fifty-eight miles at public auction, which he did the same year, and it was bid in for New York parties by Ridgley and Mather of Springfield for $21,000, and after various changes it finally became, and remains to this day, a part of the Wabash Railroad. West of Meredosia and between there and Quincy, much right of way had been secured and considerable grading been done, and the Legislature passed an Act declaring such of this work as was in Adams County to be a "State Road" or highway.

Of date February 10, 1849, the Legislature passed an Act, to incorporate the "Northern Cross Railroad Co." granting to certain citizens of Quincy the right to incorporate with that name, and authorized such Company to build a road from Meredosia to Quincy, and to adopt and use the line of the abandoned Northern Cross between those points, giving them the old State right of way when it should be sold by the Governor, and conferring upon this Company all the rights and powers conferred upon the Alton & Sangamon Railroad Company by an Act approved February 27, 1847.

This new Northern Cross Railroad Company was organized at a meeting of the "Proprietors" held in Quincy in November, 1849. Bonds were voted and considerable work was done on the line east of Quincy towards Meredosia prior to 1851.

The Act of Illinois Legislature approved February 1, 1851, called a "Supplement" to the Act of February 10, 1849, was the first legislation in which the C. B. & Q. is directly interested. This Act authorized the Northern Cross Railroad Company "to locate and construct a lateral branch of said Northern Cross Railroad, commencing at any convenient point on said road in Adams County and running thence through the Military Bounty Tract." The point of departure selected was what is now known as Camp Point. Of date June 21, 1852, the Legislature passed a Special Act which authorized the Northern Cross Railroad Company "to terminate the lateral branch of said road at any point where the said railroad may connect with any other railroad extending northward to the City of Chicago."

By January 1855, twenty miles of the road had been built northeasterly from Quincy, and the line was completed and put in operation to Galesburg (99.91 miles) by January 31, 1856.

Prior to 1855, the company had become embarrassed and applied for financial assistance to John M. Forbes and others who were interested in the Chicago and Aurora, and Central Military Tract companies, with whose roads the Northern Cross would connect at Galesburg. Of dates January 1, 1855, July 22, 1856, June 15, 1858, and September 8, 1859 various contracts were entered into and an Award made regarding advances and interchange of business through which the CB&Q eventually acquired substantial control and final ownership of the Northern Cross.

Of date July 1, 1853, the company executed a mortgage to J. M. Forbes et al., Trustees. Because of default in payment of the interest upon the bonds issued under this mortgage, foreclosure proceedings were instituted, and the road was turned over to the Trustees May 27, 1857.

The Quincy and Chicago Railroad Company was created under provisions of a Special Act of the Illinois Legislature in force February 10, 1857, by change of name from the Northern Cross Railroad Company. It was organized at Quincy, May 15, 1857. It did not build any railroad. It operated the road between Quincy and Galesburg built by the Northern Cross Railroad Company from February 10, 1857, until April 1, 1857, on which date this company made with the C. B. & Q. Company an operative agreement for a through line between Quincy and Chicago. This operative agreement was continued in force by the Trustees after they took possession May 27, 1858, and until April 28, 1864, when the property was purchased at foreclosure sale by the Burlington Company.

A decree of foreclosure was entered September 28, 1863, in the Circuit Court of Knox County, Illinois, under which the road was sold at auction April 28, 1864. The Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company was the only bidder at the sale and purchased the road, subject to the right of redemption within a year.

Of date July 30, 1865, at the expiration of the period of redemption, Edward P. Williams, Master in Chancery, executed a deed for the property to the Chicago Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company.

MEETING OF PROPRIETORS, November , 1849. Northern Cross Railroad Company.

At a meeting of the proprietors of the Northern Cross Rail Road held at the office of Maj. John H. Holton in the city of Quincy on this the day of November, 1849, for the purpose of a temporary organization, Isaac N. Morris Esq. was elected President, James M. Pittman Treasurer, and Saml. Holmes, Secretary.

The President was authorized and directed to contract with competent engineers, and make all suitable arrangements for the survey and estimate of the present value of said road.

Meeting adjourned.

MEETING OF PROPRIETORS, December , 1849. Northern Cross Railroad Company.

Quincy, December —, 1849.

The proprietors met this evening at the office of Messrs. Warren & Skinner, the President I. N. Morris, Esq. in the chair.

The President reported that he had contracted with William Whittle Esq. as acting engineer, at the rate of $5 per day while employed, also with Col. I. I. Shipman for the sum of $500 to examine the Northern Cross Rail Road from Quincy to Meredosia, to superintend the survey, examine and endorse the report of Mr. Whittle—also that he had contracted for suitable chain man, ax men, rod men, &c., and otherwise made complete arrangements for the survey of said Rail Road, all of which was approved by the unanimous vote of the proprietors of said Road.

On motion of Gen. Singleton it was unanimously resolved, that each proprietor be required forthwith to pay to the Treasurer in money, an amount equal to 50 per cent of the first cost of the several shares or interests by them held. On motion adjourned.

SAML. HOLMES,
Secretary.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE, February 28, 1845, Northern Cross Railroad Company.

AN ACT concerning certain State roads therein named.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the lateral branch of the Northern Cross railroad from the depot in the town of Naples, Scott county, to where it intersects the Northern Cross railroad is hereby declared a State road, and the county commissioners’ court of Scott county, are required to keep the same in repair, as other State roads in this State are.

§ 2. Be it further enacted, That so much of the Mount Carmel and Alton railroad as lies between the Wabash river at the town of Mount Carmel, in Wabash county, and the town of Albion, in the county of Edwards, be, and the same is hereby declared a State road, and the county commissioners' courts of the counties of Wabash and Edwards are required to keep the same in repair, as other State roads are.

§ 3. And be it further enacted, That the above grants are upon these express conditions, that if at any time the State or any company or persons authorized by the Legislature, should at any time wish to use or occupy said branches, or parts of railroads, they are hereby authorized to take possession of, and use the same, any thing in this act to the contrary notwithstanding.

§ 4. That the location of a State road by N. W. Manville, George Hunsacker and George Dougherty, from a certain point fixed by them on the road leading from Unity to Jonesboro, south of Manville's mills to Western Saratoga, be, and the same is hereby declared valid, and the county commissioners of Union county shall issue orders for the time they were employed in making such location, and shall cause said road to be opened and kept in repair, as other State roads in the county of Union; and the county commissioners of Alexander county shall cause all that part of said road, within the county of Alexander to be opened and kept in repair.

APPROVED, February 28, 1845.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE, March 1, 1845, to incorporate the Sangamon and Morgan Rail-road Company.

AN ACT to incorporate the Sangamon and Morgan rail road company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the subscribers for the stock hereinafter created and provided for, are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate, by the name of the Sangamon and Morgan Rail-road Company, and by such name may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, contract and be contracted with, as a natural person; may have and use a common seal, and alter the same at pleasure, receive and hold by purchase or otherwise, property, real, personal and mixed, and sell and convey the same, and have; and exercise such other powers and privileges as are herein or may hereafter be granted.

§ 2. The capital stock of the said corporation shall be one million of dollars, which shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, which shares shall be held as personal property; shall be liable to be sold on execution against the owner, and shall be assignable in such manner as the board of directors shall prescribe.

§ 3. The powers of the said corporation shall be vested in, and the business thereof conducted by a board of directors, to consist of five stockholders, each one of whom shall own in his own right, in order to be eligible to the office of director, at least ten shares of said stock; said directors shall be elected annually by the stockholders. Each share of stock shall entitle the owner thereof to one vote; and a majority of all the votes given at an election, shall be necessary to a choice.

§ 4. The directors, when elected, shall choose one of their number as President, who shall preside at all the meetings of the board, execute all contracts in behalf of the corporation, and personally attend to the managing and conducting of the business of the corporation, and superintend the keeping of the books and accounts thereof. He shall be the general agent of the corporation, subject to the control and direction of the board of directors.

§ 5. The said board of directors shall have power to appoint a treasurer and clerk, and such other officers and agents as may be found requisite to the execution of the powers and duties of the corporation; and to require bonds with security from each and every officer or agent appointed, conditioned for the faithful discharge of their respective duties.

§ 6. The said board shall cause a regular record or journal to be kept, of all the proceedings, and also regular accounts of stock, of money received and paid out, and of all their financial transactions, so that it may be known from the books of the corporation what money has been received from stockholders, what has been expended, and for what purpose, and what has been received from other sources, and the disposition thereof.

§ 7. The accounts and transactions of the corporation shall be settled upon the books at the end of every year, and the profits divided among the stockholders in proportion to the amount paid upon each share of stock, but dividends shall only be made of profits remaining after the payment of all charges and expenses, payable out of the proceeds of the business of the year.

§ 8. When the said purchasers shall have paid over to the Governor in State indebtedness, a sum not less than the amount for which the said road is now or may hereafter be authorized to be sold for, the said corporation may be organized, and be invested with all the right and title of the State of Illinois, to that part of the northern cross rail-road, lying between Springfield and the Illinois river, including the right of way which has been in use by the State, together with such lands and buildings, along the line or in the vicinity of said road, and such locomotives, engines, cars and other articles, as shall be sold by the Governor, under the authority which has been, or may be conferred upon him, by law:—Provided, No portion of the amount of State indebtedness for which said road may be sold, shall be received in bonds known as McAllister and Stebbins' bonds.

§ 9. The said corporation, by its officers or agents, after having made payment in full to the Governor, as is above provided, shall have the right to enter upon and take possession of the said rail-road, lands, buildings, and other articles, and to have control, and use the same for the purposes herein named, as fully and completely as the State of Illinois may now do; and the laws of the State now in force, or which may hereafter be in force, providing for the protection of said road against the acts or omissions of wrong doers, and for the punishment of offenders in respect to said road, and the appurtenances thereof, shall be and remain applicable to the same, notwithstanding the transfer and sale herein provided for.

§ 10. The said corporation shall repair the said road so that the same can be used safely for the transportation of persons and property upon said road, by the power and force of steam, of animals, or any mechanical power, or any combination of two or more of such powers.

§ 11. The board of directors shall have power to fix and regulate the rate of pay for transportation or conveyance upon said road; they shall also have the right to adopt by-laws for the government of the officers and agents, and regulating the manner of transacting the business of the corporation, and also to provide for the preservation of the road, and prevent accidents thereon.

§ 12. Whenever the Governor shall make sale of that portion of the northern cross rail-road, and the appurtenances thereof herein described, he shall sell with said road the rights and privileges granted by this act, and the purchaser or purchasers of said road, shall be invested with all the rights herein granted, and become to all intents and purposes, the corporation and the body politic hereby created; and the Governor shall cause books to be opened at Jacksonville and Springfield to receive subscriptions to the capital stock of the corporation, giving previous notice thereof in one newspaper, published in each place, for twenty days; and said books shall be kept open ten days at each place, during which time any person may subscribe for as many shares as he or she may desire, upon paying to the person having charge of the books, the sum of twenty-five dollars upon each share subscribed, in Illinois State bonds, in scrip or other legal evidence of State indebtedness. When the books are closed, the persons having charge thereof, shall, without delay, deliver them to the Governor, with the evidence of State indebtedness received from the subscribers; and if the amount received shall be equal to the amount bid for the road lands, appurtenances, and rights and privileges herein granted, the Governor shall cause a notice to be published in one newspaper printed in Jacksonville, and one in Springfield, appointing a time and place not more than twenty, nor less than ten days from the time of publication, when and where the subscribers to said stock shall meet for the purpose of electing the five directors herein provided for; and at the time and place so appointed, the said subscribers shall meet and make the election of directors; said election shall be conducted under the direction of the Governor, and when made, a certificate thereof, under the seal of State, shall be granted by the Governor; the Governor shall then deliver over to said directors the subscription books, to be kept and preserved by them as belonging to the corporation. He shall retain the evidences of State indebtedness, and cause the same to be cancelled and filed as is now provided by law; and if a greater amount shall have been paid upon the stock subscribed than is required to pay the State, the excess shall be delivered over by the Governor to the said directors, to be by them returned to the owners: Provided, however, that in case the subscription to the stock shall exceed the amount of the capital, the excess shall be taken from the subscription for more than ten shares, until the whole shall be reduced to that number; and any excess remaining shall be taken equally from all the subscribers, and the Governor shall apportion the stock according to this proviso, before the election of directors: Provided further, That if the amount paid by subscribers shall not be sufficient to pay the State, the sale shall be void and of no effect, and the evidences of State indebtedness shall be returned to the subscribers.

§ 13. When the directors receive their certificate of election, they shall, without delay, enter upon the execution of the duties required by this act, and shall continue to act until successors are elected under the provisions thereof.

§ 14. In case the amount paid by subscribers to the stock hereby created, shall not be sufficient to pay the State for the said road, lands, buildings, and appurtenances, the Governor is authorized to make the sale herein provided for, at any subsequent period, and to cause the provisions hereof to be carried into effect as fully as he is authorized to do in the first instance.

§ 15. The said corporation shall be bound to keep the said rail-road in repair, and use, during the term of its existence, and to transport persons and all property, thereon, whenever required, with reasonable expedition, and for a reasonable compensation.

§ 16. The said corporation shall have the exclusive right for the period of three years, to construct a lateral railroad from the vicinity of Berlin to Alton; and to this end, the capital stock of this corporation may be increased by the board of directors to two millions of dollars; and the corporation shall have, exercise, and enjoy all the rights, privileges and powers, in respect to such lateral road, and the use thereof, which are herein granted, in respect to the road and the use thereof, from Springfield to the Illinois river.

§ 17. The subscribers to the stock of said corporation shall pay the amount subscribed by them, in instalments, as the same may be required by the directors, for the purposes herein provided; and in case any subscriber shall fail to pay any instalment which may be required, for a period of sixty days, after being notified of such requisition, he shall forfeit his stock to the corporation, and all previous payments thereon.

§ 18. The State of Illinois hereby retains the right to resume the ownership of said road, from Springfield to the Illinois river, at any time after the expiration of twenty-five years from the passage of this act, upon paying to the corporation the cost of said road and appurtenances, and the cost of putting the same in good repair, with six per cent. interest thereon per annum, from the dates of expenditure, until paid; and the State may also become the owner of the lateral road to Alton, after the expiration of twenty-five years from the completion thereof, upon paying the cost of said road, with the appurtenances thereof, with interest thereon, after the rate of six per cent. per annum, from the dates of expenditure to the time of payment; and whenever the State shall become the owner of said roads, the said corporation shall cease to exist.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved February 16, 1847.

AN ACT to provide for the sale of a part of the Northern Cross Railroad.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the Governor is authorized and required to sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, for legal evidences of State indebtedness (payable in three equal annual instalments, the first instalment to be paid on the day of sale), all of that part of the Northern Cross Railroad lying between Springfield and the Illinois river, and the right and title of the State to the land on which said road was constructed, together with the right of way acquired or possessed by the State, including the depot, engine house, shop and lots on which they are situated, in Springfield; the depot and lots on which it stands, in Berlin; the frame house erected in Jacksonville, for offices, and the lots on which it stands; the engine house and turn table near Jacksonville, and the lot on which they are situated; the depot in Morgan city, and the lots on which it stands; the engine house, turn table and depot at Meredosia, and the lots on which they are situated; the ground on which the said road was located, north of the public square, in Jacksonville; the lateral road to Naples; the depot in Naples, and lots on which it stands; with all the appurtenances to the lots, road, buildings and offices above enumerated, together with all the locomotives, engines, cars and other implements used upon said road; the purchaser to have, hold, use and enjoy the same, as hereinafter provided.

§ 2. The said sale shall be made at the State house, in Springfield, and notice of the time, place and terms of the sale shall be published for six weeks in succession before the day of sale, in two newspapers published in Springfield, one in the city of Chicago, one in Jacksonville, one in the city of St. Louis, Missouri, and in such other papers out of the State, and for such length of time as the Governor may direct. The sale shall be opened by one o'clock p. m., and closed at four o'clock p. m.; and if one-third of the purchase money shall not be paid on the day of sale, and bonds with sufficient security to satisfy the Governor be given for the other annual instalments, the sale shall be void, and the Governor shall, on the next and every succeeding day (Sabbath excepted), offer the said property for sale in the manner, upon the terms and at the time of day above required, until the price bid shall be paid or secured as provided for in this act: Provided, however, that the Governor may, in order to avoid unlawful combinations and prevent frauds, postpone the sale to a subsequent day, he giving reasonable notice of the sale on such subsequent day.

§ 3. Upon the payment (or giving security for the payment as provided for in this act) of the purchase money for the aforesaid property, the purchaser shall be invested with all the right and title of the State of Illinois in and to the same, and the Governor shall execute a deed under the great seal of State therefor, which deed, or a copy thereof, certified by the Secretary of State, shall be evidence of the sale and conveyance of said property. The property conveyed shall be described in the deed as it is described in the title papers of the State: Provided, always, that the bonds called and known as the Macalister and Stebbins bonds, shall not be received in any part payment for said road and appurtenances.

§ 4. The purchaser of the aforesaid property shall be substituted for and stand in the place of the subscribers for the stock created by the act entitled "An Act to incorporate the Sangamon and Morgan Railroad Company," approved on the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, and all the rights, powers, privileges and immunities granted to or conferred upon the said subscribers by said act are hereby granted to and conferred upon the said purchaser, subject to the limitations and provisions contained in this act. The purchaser shall be deemed and held to be the subscriber for the whole of the capital stock authorized to be subscribed for by the second section of said act, and the sum paid for the property purchased shall be divided among all the shares of said stock, and applied equally upon each share.

§ 5. When the said property shall have been paid for (or the payment secured to this State, as in this act provided), as aforesaid, the purchaser shall nominate to the Governor five persons, whom the Governor shall appoint as directors of the corporation, to continue in office until the next annual election, under the provisions of the aforesaid act; and the directors so appointed shall have and exercise all the rights and powers conferred upon the directors provided for in the act aforesaid. The said directors shall not be required to be owners of any portion of the stock. Said directors shall not be paid by the State.

§ 6. The directors first appointed shall fix the time for the annual election of successors, and successors shall be elected as provided for in the act of incorporation to which this is an amendment.

§ 7. The said corporation, when organized, shall, without delay, proceed to repair the road from Springfield to the Illinois river, and to place the same in a condition to be safely used for the transportation of persons and property upon the same. The location of the road shall be changed through the town of Jacksonville, so as to pass upon the line originally located, north of the public square.

§ 8. If the corporation shall not, within three years from the passage of this act, repair the road to the Illinois river, so that the same may be safely used for the transportation of persons and property thereon by the force of steam, the sale authorized by this act shall be void, the purchaser shall forfeit all rights by virtue of the purchase, and the whole property, as it may then be situated, shall revert to the State, and all the rights of the corporation shall vest in the Governor for the use of the State.

§ 9. The eighth, twelfth and sixteenth sections of the act entitled "An Act to incorporate the Sangamon and Morgan Railroad Company," approved on the first of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, are hereby repealed.

§ 10. The profits arising from the use of the road and appurtenances shall be applied, first, to the payment of dividends upon the capital invested in the purchase and repair of said road, until said profits shall be equal to six per cent. per annum upon the said capital, and the excess shall be applied to the payment of interest on the uncanceled canal bonds used to pay for the completion of said road, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, until said excess shall amount to six per cent. per annum upon the canal bonds aforesaid; after which said excess shall be divided among the stockholders of this corporation.

§ 11. The forfeiture provided for in the eighth section of this act shall not operate or take effect until the question of fact, upon the existence of which said forfeiture is to accrue, shall be ascertained by a legal proceeding before the circuit court of Morgan or Sangamon county.

§ 12. The time after which the State may become the owner of the road and property sold under the provisions of this act, provided for by the eighteenth section of the act of incorporation to which this is an amendment, shall be forty years from the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight.

§ 13. The said corporation shall not have the right to sell any iron, engine, car or other property connected with said road without the consent of the Governor.

§ 14. The provision herein with reference to the uncanceled canal bonds, is substituted for and made in lieu of the provisions heretofore made, creating a lien upon the said road for the payment of said bonds, and the provisions creating or acknowledging the said lien are hereby changed so that the provision herein shall stand as the only security for the payment of said bonds, as against the said road or the appurtenances thereof; but in other respects the said bonds shall stand upon the same footing as they would if they had been used for any other purpose.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE, February 27, 1847.

AN ACT to construct a railroad from Alton in Madison county, to Springfield, in Sangamon county.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Robert Ferguson, Simeon Ryder, Benjamin Godfrey, Thomas Clifford, Robert Dunlap, and William Martin, and their associates, successors and assigns, are hereby created a body corporate and politic, under the name and style of "The Alton and Sangamon Railroad Company," for the term of thirty years, and by that name be, and they are hereby made capable in law and in equity to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, defend and be defended, in any court of law and equity in this State, or in any other place; to make, have and use a common seal, and the same to renew and alter at pleasure, and shall be, and are hereby, vested with all the powers, privileges and immunities which are or may be necessary to carry into effect the purposes and objects of this act as hereinafter set forth, and the said company are hereby authorized and empowered to locate, construct, and finally complete a railroad from the city of Alton, on the Mississippi river, in Madison county, by the way of Carlinville, in Macoupin county, New Berlin, in Sangamon county, to the city of Springfield, in the county of Sangamon, and for this purpose said company are authorized, upon the most eligible and proper route, to lay out their said railroad, wide enough for a single or double track through the whole length and for the purpose of cutting embankments, stone and gravel, may take as much more land as may be necessary for the proper construction of and security of said railroad.

Sec. 2. The capital stock of said company shall consist of five hundred thousand dollars, and may be increased to one million of dollars, to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each.

The immediate government and direction of said company shall be vested in five directors, who shall be chosen by the stockholders of said company in the manner hereinafter provided, who shall hold their offices for one year after their election, and until others shall be duly elected and qualified to take their places as directors, and the said directors, (a majority of whom shall form a quorum for the transaction of business,) shall elect one of their number to be the president of the company. That said board of directors shall have power to appoint all necessary clerks, secretary, and other officers necessary in the transaction of the business of said corporation.

Sec. 3. The said corporation is hereby authorized, by their agents, surveyors and engineers, to cause such examination and surveys to be made of the ground and country between said city of Alton and Springfield as shall be necessary to determine the most advantageous route for the proper line or course whereon to construct their said railroad, and it shall be lawful for said company to enter upon, and take possession of, and use all such lands and real estate as may be necessary for the construction and maintenance of their said railroad: Provided, that all lands or real estate entered upon and taken possession of, and used by said corporation for the purposes and accommodations of said railroad, or upon which the site for said railroad shall have been located or determined by the said corporation, shall be paid for by said company in damages, if any be sustained by the owner or owners thereof by the use of the same for the purpose of said railroad, and all lands entered upon and taken for the use of said corporation, which are not donated to said company, shall be paid for by said corporation at such price as may be mutually agreed upon by the said corporation and the owner or owners of such land, and in case of disagreement, the price shall be estimated, fixed and recorded in the manner provided for taking lands for the construction of public roads, canals or other public works, as prescribed by the act concerning right-of-way, approved March 3, 1845.

Sec. 4. If any person shall wilfully, maliciously, or wantonly and contrary to law, obstruct the passage of any car on said railroad, or any part thereof, or anything belonging thereto, or shall damage, break, or destroy any part of the said railroad, or implements or buildings, he, she, or they, or any person assisting, shall forfeit and pay to said company for every such offence, treble the amount of damages that shall be proved before any competent court has been sustained, and be sued for in the name and behalf of said company, and such offender or offenders shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to an indictment, in the same manner as other indictments are found in any county or counties where such offence shall have been committed, and upon conviction, every such offender shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five thousand, for the use of the county where such indictments may be found.

Sec. 5. The time of holding the annual meeting of said company, for the election of directors, shall be fixed and determined by the by-laws of said company; and at all meetings each stockholder shall be entitled to a vote in person or lawful proxy; one vote for each share of stock he, she or they may hold bona fide in said company.

Sec. 6. The persons named in the first section of this act are hereby appointed commissioners, who, or a majority of whom, are hereby authorized to open subscription books for said stock, at such places as they may deem proper, and shall give at least thirty days' notice of the time and place when and where such books will be opened, in some newspaper printed in the city of Springfield, Alton and Saint Louis, and shall keep said books open until the whole of said capital stock shall be taken. Said commissioners shall require each subscriber to pay five dollars on each share subscribed at the time of subscribing. The said commissioners shall call a meeting of the stockholders, by giving thirty days' notice in some newspaper printed in the county of Madison, and at such meeting it shall be lawful to elect the directors of said company, and when the directors of said company are chosen, the said commissioners shall deliver said subscription books, with all sums of money received by them as commissioners, to said directors. No person shall be a director in said company unless he shall own at least ten shares of the capital stock.

Sec. 7. That the right of way and the real estate purchased for the right of way by said company, whether by mutual agreement or otherwise, or which shall become the property of the company by operation of law, as in this act provided, shall, upon the payment of the amount of money belonging to the owner or owners of said lands, as a compensation for the same, become the property of said company in fee simple.

Sec. 8. The said corporation may take and transport, upon said railroad, any person or persons, merchandize, or other property, by the force and power of steam or animals, or any combination of them, and may fix, establish, take and receive such rates of toll for all passengers and property, transported upon the same, as the said directors shall, from time to time, establish; and the directors are hereby authorized and empowered to make all necessary rules, by-laws, regulations and ordinances that they may deem necessary and expedient to accomplish the designs and purposes, and to carry into effect the provisions of this act, and for the transfer and assignment of its stock, which is hereby declared personal property, and transferable in such manner as shall be provided by the by-laws and ordinances of said corporation.

Sec. 9. The directors of said company, after the same is organized, shall have power to open books, in the manner prescribed in the sixth section of this act, to fill up the additional five hundred thousand dollars of stock, or any part thereof, at such times as they may deem it for the interest of said company, and all the installments required to be paid on the stock originally to be taken, and what may be taken to increase said capital, shall be paid at such times and in such sums as said directors may prescribe.

Sec. 10. In case of the death, resignation or removal of the president, vice-president, or any director at any time between the annual elections, such vacancy may be filled, for the remainder of the year, whenever they may happen, by the board of directors; and in case of absence of the president and vice-president, the board of directors shall have power to appoint a president pro tempore, who shall have and exercise such powers and functions as the by-laws of the said corporation may provide. In case it should at any time happen that an election shall not be made on any day on which, in pursuance of this act, it ought to be made, the said corporation shall not for that cause be deemed dissolved, but such election shall be held at any other time directed by the by-laws of said corporation.

Sec. 11. That when the lands of any femes covert, persons under age, non compos mentis, or out of this State, shall be taken in the construction of said railroad, as is provided by this act, the said corporation shall pay the amount that shall be awarded as due to the said last mentioned owners, respectively, whenever the same shall be lawfully demanded, together with six per cent. per annum. That to ascertain the amount to be paid to the persons named in this section for lands taken for the use of said corporation, it shall be the duty of the Governor of this State, upon notice given to him by the said corporation, to appoint three commissioners, to be persons not interested in the matter, to be determined by them, to determine the damages which the owner or owners of the land or real estate, so entered upon by the said corporation, has or have sustained by the occupation of the same, and it shall be the duty of said commissioners, or a majority of them, to deliver to said corporation a written statement of the award or awards they shall make, with a description of the land or real estate appraised, to be recorded by the said corporation in the clerk's office of the county in which the land or real estate so appraised shall be, and then the said corporation shall be deemed to be seized and possessed of the fee simple of all such lands or real estate as shall have been approved by the said commissioners.

Sec. 12. That whenever it shall be necessary for the construction of said railroad to intersect or cross any water course, or any road or highway, lying between the points aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the corporation to construct their railroad across or upon the same: Provided, that the corporation shall restore the water course, or road, or highway, thus intersected to its former state, or in sufficient manner not to have impaired its usefulness.

Sec. 13. That the capital stock of said company may be increased from five hundred thousand dollars to one million of dollars, from time to time by new subscriptions, if such increase shall be found necessary to fulfill the intention of this act, upon the directors for the time being giving the notice as herein required, previous to opening the subscription books for the original stock herein, and that all stock of said corporation shall be deemed personal property, and transferable in such manner as the said corporation shall, by its by-laws, prescribe.

Sec. 14. That it shall be lawful for the directors to require payment of the sums subscribed to the capital stock at such times, and in such proportions, and on such conditions as they shall deem fit, under the penalty of the forfeiture of all previous payments thereon, and shall give notice of the payments thus required, and of the place and time, when and where the same are to be paid, at least ninety days previous to the payment of the same, in some public newspaper of this State, published in some one of the cities where the notice for the opening of the books for subscription to the capital stock may have been published.

Sec. 15. The width of said railroad is to be determined by the said corporation, within the limits prescribed by the first section of this act.

Sec. 16. That said corporation shall be, and they are hereby authorized, if they should deem it proper, to take and appropriate in the construction of said railroad, the work and materials, or so much of the western division of the Alton and Mt. Carmel railroad as extends from the public landing, in the city of Alton, to the junction of said railroad with the Alton and Shelbyville railroad, and so much of the work and labor as has been done by the State upon the said Alton and Shelbyville railroad, as extends from the junction aforesaid, towards its contemplated intersection with the Central railroad, so far as they may deem proper, and also to use the right of way now owned by the State on the lines of the said Alton and Mt. Carmel, and the Alton and Shelbyville railroads, so far as said company may deem it advisable to use said right of way. That if said right of way, and said labor and materials, shall be used by said corporation, the same shall be valued by two persons, one to be selected by the Governor, and the other by the said corporation, and the price thereof paid to the State in State indebtedness. Upon said payment being made in State indebtedness, the said right of way, and the said work and labor, shall be vested in said corporation as fully and completely as said right of way, and said work and labor is now vested in the State.

Sec. 17. The said corporation may also connect the said railroad, contemplated by this charter, with the Northern Cross railroad, at New Berlin, in Sangamon county, and use so much of said Cross railroad, between Jacksonville and Springfield, as they shall deem necessary. Said corporation paying to the State, or any company that may purchase said Cross railroad, such sum for the use of said Cross railroad as may be used, such sum as the parties in interest, for the time being, may agree upon; the corporation and the said company who may purchase said Cross railroad, paying a proportional amount for repairs on said Cross railroad, and in case of disagreement as to price to be paid by this company for the use of said Cross railroad, or for the repairs thereon the judge of the circuit court of Sangamon county, sitting as chancellor, shall decide upon the amount to be paid, on petition to be filed by either party in interest, which petition shall be proceeded in according to the rules and practice that govern chancery proceedings.

Sec. 18. That in using the west end of said Alton and Mount Carmel railroad by this corporation, it shall not be so used by said corporation as to deprive the proprietors of the Alton and Mount Carmel railroad, in the event of the State relinquishing said Alton and Mount Carmel railroad to the original company, from the free use thereof, by paying to this corporation such sum therefor as may be agreed upon, and in case of disagreement as to price, the matter shall be referred to the judge of the Madison circuit court, in the same manner as is provided for referring a similar matter to the judge of the Sangamon circuit court, as provided for in section seventeen of this act.

Sec. 19. That the State of Illinois, when it may hereafter wish to use any part of the State works that may be appropriated to this corporation by this act, it may do by allowing said corporation a fair compensation for the use of said public works, and in case of disagreement, the matter shall be referred to the judge of the Sangamon circuit court, to be proceeded in the same manner as provided in section seventeen of this act.

Sec. 20. This act shall be in force for the period of forty years, and said company shall commence said work within three years, and complete the same within ten years from the passage of this act.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved February 10, 1849. In force April 13, 1849.

AN ACT to incorporate the Northern Cross Railroad Company.

SECTION I. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That James M. Pitman, Samuel Holmes, John Wood, Calvin A. Warren, Gresham B. Dimock, Hiram Boyle, and Isaac N. Morris, of the county of Adams, and James Brockman and James W. Singleton, of the county of Brown, and their associates, successors and assigns, are hereby created a body politic and corporate, under the name and style of the "Northern Cross Railroad Company," and by that name and style shall have perpetual succession; and said company are hereby made capable of suing and being sued, of pleading and being impleaded, of defending and being defended, in all courts in law and equity and other places; of contracting and being contracted with; and said company shall have authority to make, have, and use a common seal, and the same to renew and alter at pleasure; and said company are hereby vested with all powers, privileges and immunities which are or may be necessary to carry into effect the objects and purposes of this act, hereinafter mentioned, set forth, or referred to, and to exercise and enjoy, for the purposes of said company, the rights and privileges of natural persons.

§ 2. Said company are hereby authorized and empowered to locate, construct, establish, and finally complete and hereafter use a railroad commencing at any convenient point on the west bank of the Illinois river, opposite the town of Meredosia, and running from thence on the most eligible, beneficial, expedient and practicable route, to the Mississippi river at the city of Quincy, in the county of Adams. And the said company are hereby empowered in the construction of said railroad, to lay out said railroad wide enough for a single or double track throughout the whole length; and for the purpose of constructing the same, and for materials, stone, earth and gravel, may take and use as much more land on the sides of the same as may be necessary for the proper construction and security of said railroad. Said company, in the construction of said railroad shall adopt the route of that portion of the Northern Cross Railroad between the Illinois and Mississippi rivers, as laid out and surveyed by this State, but shall have the right to depart from said route at such points as may be necessary or advisable for better ground, shorter distance, or cheapness of construction: Provided, that said company in the construction of said railroad shall terminate the same at a point opposite Meredosia.

§ 3. Said company, in the construction, completion and use of said railroad, shall have the right to use, enjoy and have all right of way in any manner held, owned, obtained, or secured by this State for or in the construction of that portion of the Northern Cross Railroad which lies between the Illinois and Mississippi rivers, and also all materials, stone, embankments, excavation, or other valuable thing secured, made, obtained, owned or held by this State, and of or belonging to said portion of said Northern Cross Railroad, should they become the purchaser thereof. And it shall be the duty of the Governor of this State, on request of said company in writing, to sell at public sale to the highest bidder for any State indebtedness, payable in ninety days after the day of sale, all interest, right of way, excavation, embankment, or other valuable thing owned, secured, or held by this State, as aforesaid, in, of, or in any manner belonging to that portion of the Northern Cross Railroad aforesaid, after giving sixty days' notice of the time and place of such sale, in some public newspaper published in the county of Adams or Brown, and to execute a certificate of purchase therefor to the purchaser thereof; which said sale and certificate of purchase shall vest in such purchaser all and every right aforesaid of this State thereto and therein, for the purposes of a railroad, and none other. All laws and parts of laws heretofore passed appropriating said portion of said Northern Cross Railroad, or any part thereof, to any other purposes than for a railroad, are hereby repealed.

§ 4. The capital stock of said company shall be one million of dollars, and may be increased to two millions of dollars, to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each share. The immediate government, control, and direction of the affairs and organization of said company and company franchises, shall be vested in the persons named in the first section of this act, and a majority of them shall form a quorum, with power and authority to adopt such rules and by-laws, and other things to do and perform, necessary to the complete organization of said company, and to conducting the same; and to provide for opening books and obtaining subscriptions to the capital stock of said company, and for the calling of meetings of said company; and when one hundred shares of the capital stock of said company shall be taken and subscribed for, the said company may fully organize and go into operation in the construction and completion of said railroad.

§ 5. When said one hundred shares shall be subscribed as aforesaid, the persons named in the first section of this act, or some of them, may call a meeting of the stockholders of said company, on giving public notice of the time and place of meeting, which shall be held at some place in the county of Adams or Brown, in this State, and shall fully organize said company, by the election of five directors for said company, who shall hold their offices for one year and until their successors shall be elected and qualified. Said directors shall have the same powers and authority, and perform the same duties, and be governed by the same rules conferred upon and required of the directors of the Alton and Sangamon Railroad Company, by an act entitled "An Act to construct a railroad from Alton, in Madison county, to Springfield, in Sangamon county," approved February 27th, A. D. 1847. Said directors so elected shall elect from their number one president, who shall hold his office for one year and until his successor is elected and qualified, and who shall have the same powers and be governed by the same rules as is conferred upon and required of the president of the Alton and Sangamon Railroad Company, by the act aforesaid, and all rules and provisions for elections provided by the said act shall apply to the company incorporated by this act. A majority of said directors, including said president, shall constitute a quorum.

§ 6. The said company hereby incorporated shall have, enjoy, and exercise all and singular the powers, rights, authorities, privileges and immunities conferred upon the Alton and Sangamon Railroad Company, by the act incorporating the same, described in the fifth section of this act as "An Act to construct a railroad from Alton, in Madison county, to Springfield, in Sangamon county," approved February 27th, 1847, and not contrary to the provisions of this act, and all privileges, powers, and immunities, in any manner conferred upon the Alton and Sangamon Railroad Company by the said act incorporating the same, and beneficial to the corporation hereby created, shall apply to the Northern Cross Railroad Company, the same as if herein specially recited and granted to said last named company, to all intents and purposes, and in every manner of thing, powers, privilege, or authority whatever.

§ 7. The last section of this act shall be so construed as in no way to affect the rights, powers, and immunities of the Alton and Sangamon Railroad Company, but shall be so construed as to confer upon and apply to the corporation hereby created, in the construction, completion, enjoyment, security and use of the railroad contemplated by this act, all rights, powers, privileges and immunities in the said act incorporating the Alton and Sangamon Railroad Company, mentioned and conferred, the same as if specially herein named.

§ 8. The company hereby incorporated shall have power to procure a loan or loans of money, as shall be deemed necessary for the construction of the said railroad, and may pledge the said road for the payment thereof. Said company may receive in payment of stock subscribed for, bonds and mortgages, and also any securities, or evidence of debt, stock in other companies, or other valuable things; and may dispose of or pledge the same for the purposes of said company in the construction of said railroad; but said company shall not exercise banking powers.

§ 9. This act shall be deemed and taken a public act, and be construed liberally for the benefit of said company.

§ 10. The company hereby created are authorized and empowered, under and by virtue of this act, to construct a lateral branch of this railroad contemplated by this act, commencing on the Illinois river at any convenient point opposite the town of Naples, and from there running to and uniting with the said railroad which is to commence opposite to the town of Meredosia, and to terminate at Quincy, at the most eligible and convenient point.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved February 1, 1851.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled "An Act to incorporate the Northern Cross Railroad Company," approved February 10, 1849.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the company organized under the act to which this is a supplement, is hereby authorized and empowered to locate, construct, establish and finally complete and hereafter use a lateral branch of said Northern Cross Railroad, commencing at any convenient point on said Northern Cross Railroad, in the county of Adams, and running thence, on the most eligible, beneficial, expedient and practicable route, through the Military Bounty Tract, and terminating at the most convenient and eligible point, at or near the southern termination of the Illinois and Michigan canal: Provided, the said company shall not locate or construct the said branch upon any line east of the town of Knoxville, in Knox county. The said company are hereby empowered, in the construction of said branch railroad, to lay out said road wide enough for a single or double track, throughout the whole length thereof, and for the purpose of constructing the same, and for materials, stone, earth and gravel, may take and use as much more land on the sides of the same as may be necessary for the proper construction and security of said road.

§ 2. The capital stock of said company, in addition to the capital stock provided for in said original bill, shall be two millions of dollars, and may be increased to three millions of dollars, to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each; and the directors of said company are hereby vested with power and authority to provide for opening books and obtaining subscriptions to the said additional capital stock, in such manner and under such rules and regulations as they may prescribe for obtaining subscriptions to the capital stock provided for in said original bill.

§ 3. The provisions of the act to which this act is supplemental, relating to the power, authority and duties of the directors, and to the election and powers of the president of said company, and to the powers, rights, authorities, privileges and immunities pertaining to the Northern Cross Railroad, granted to said company by the said original act, with the power to procure such loan or loans of money as may be deemed necessary for the construction of said branch railroad, and to pledge the said road for the payment thereof, and to receive in payment of stock subscribed for, bonds and mortgages, and also any securities or evidences of debt, stock in other companies, or other valuable things, and to dispose of or pledge the same for the purposes of said company in the construction of said branch railroad, and all and singular the provisions of the said original act and of the act therein mentioned, and beneficial to said company, shall apply to the said Northern Cross Railroad Company, to all intents and purposes, and in every manner of things, powers, rights, privileges or authority whatever, in reference to the said branch railroads, as fully and completely as if the location and construction of the said branch railroad had been authorized and provided for in and by the said original bill.

§ 4. This act shall be deemed and taken to be a public act, and be construed liberally for the benefit of said company.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled "An Act to incorporate the Northern Cross Railroad Company," approved February 10, 1849.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the Northern Cross Railroad Company shall have power to borrow money on the credit of the corporation, not exceeding its authorized capital stock, at a rate of interest not exceeding ten per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, and may execute bonds therefor, with interest coupons thereto annexed, and secure the payment of the same by mortgage or deed of trust on the whole or any part of the road, property and income of the company then existing or thereafter to be acquired, and may annex to such mortgage bonds the privilege of converting the same into the capital stock of the company, at par, at the option of such holders, if such election be signified, in writing, to the company three years before the maturity of said bonds.

§ 2. That the directors of said company be and they are hereby authorized to negotiate and sell the bonds of said company at such times and at such places, either within or without this State, and at such rates and for such prices as in their opinion will best advance the interests of the company. And if such bonds are thus negotiated or sold at a discount below their par value, such sale and disposition thereof shall be as valid and binding on the company in every respect as if they were sold or disposed of at their par value.

§ 3. That the said company, in securing the payment of the said bonds by a mortgage or deed of trust on the road, property and income of the company, shall have power to execute a mortgage or deed of trust aforesaid, to secure the payment of the full amount of bonds which the company may, at the time said deed of trust or mortgage bears date, or at any time thereafter, desire to sell and dispose of, and may execute and sell, from time to time, such amounts of said bonds, and of such dates, and payable to such person or persons as to the directors of said company may seem advisable, till the whole amount of bonds mentioned in such mortgage or deed of trust is executed and sold; and the said mortgage or deed of trust shall be as valid and effectual to secure the payment of the bonds so executed and sold, and of every part thereof, as if the same and every part thereof had been executed of even date with the said deed of trust or mortgage.

AN ACT to authorize the city of Quincy to subscribe to the stock of the Northern Cross Railroad Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the city of Quincy is hereby authorized to subscribe for shares of stock in the Northern Cross Railroad Company, in any sum not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars, in addition to the subscription made by the city to the stock of said company under the provisions of an act entitled "An Act supplemental to an act entitled 'An Act to provide for a general system of railroad incorporations,' " approved November sixth, eighteen hundred and forty-nine; and which stock so subscribed for shall be under the control of the common council of said city, in all respects, as stock subscribed by individuals.

§ 2. That for the payment of the stock so subscribed the common council of the city is hereby authorized to issue to said company the bonds of said city at par, bearing interest not exceeding eight per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, with interest coupons annexed, and executed by the mayor of the city, under the seal thereof, and countersigned by the city clerk, to an amount equal to the par value of the shares of stock subscribed, and to pledge the faith of the city for the semi-annual payment of the interest and the ultimate redemption of the principal.

§ 3. That before the additional stock aforesaid shall be subscribed an election shall be held to ascertain whether the citizens of said city are desirous that such subscription be made; and which said election shall be called by the common council of the city, and held and conducted and returns thereof made in the manner required by the fourth section of the act mentioned in the first section of this act. In case a majority of the voters voting at said election shall be in favor of the subscription, such authorized subscription shall then be made by the common council of said city. The bonds which shall be issued under the provisions of this act shall be issued for the amount of, and at the time the assessments upon the other stockholders of said company shall be regularly assessed and made payable: Provided, that the common council of the city may at any time issue to the said company the full amount of the bonds to be issued in payment of such subscription whenever in their discretion they may deem it advisable.

§ 4. That the city council of said city is hereby authorized to levy and collect a special annual tax on all real and personal property situated in said city, for the payment of the interest on said bonds, in the same manner as is provided by an act entitled "An Act to authorize the city of Quincy to collect a special tax for the purposes therein named," approved February the seventeenth, eighteen hundred and fifty-one; and the provisions of the act aforesaid in relation to the levy, collection and appropriation of the tax therein mentioned shall in every respect apply to the tax to be levied by virtue of this act.

AN ACT to confirm the relocation of a portion of the Northern Cross Railroad.

PREAMBLE.—Whereas, the board of directors of the Northern Cross Railroad Company, in selecting a route for the construction of the Northern Cross Railroad from Quincy to Meredosia, by various resolutions passed during the years 1851 and 1852, resolved that that portion of the said railroad extending from the Mississippi river to a point near Mount Sterling, in Brown county, be located and constructed on a line and route in the said resolutions mentioned; and whereas, the board of directors of said company, in order to secure a shorter, more practicable and beneficial route, did on the 26th day of December, A. D. 1853, by their resolutions of that date, relocate a portion of their said railroad extending from the Mississippi river, and uniting with the said road previously located, at a distance of about seven miles from said river, on the line and route in the said resolution mentioned, and are now engaged in the construction of that portion of said road as relocated; now therefore—

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the route and line of that portion of the Northern Cross Railroad as relocated by the board of directors of said company, on the 26th day of December, A. D. 1853, by their resolution of that date, be and the same is hereby confirmed and established as the route and line of that portion of said road and said resolution mentioned, in place of the route as previously located, and that all the rights, powers, privileges and immunities conferred upon the said company by their charter and subsequent laws, in the location, construction and use of the railroads therein mentioned, shall equally, and to all intent and purposes, apply to and be exercised and enjoyed by the said company, in the location, construction and use of that portion of the said road as relocated as aforesaid.

§ 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

AGREEMENT, January 1, 1855, Northern Cross Railroad Company, Central Military Tract Railroad Company and Chicago and Aurora Railroad Company and John M. Forbes, John Elliott Thayer and Louis A. Von Hoffman.

Agreement, made this first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, between the Northern Cross Rail Road Company of the first part, The Central Military Tract Rail Road Company of the second part, The Chicago & Aurora Rail Road Company of the third part, (each of said Companies being a corporation created by the laws of the State of Illinois,) and John M. Forbes and John Elliott Thayer, of the city of Boston, and Louis A. Von Hoffman, of the city of New York, of the fourth part.

Whereas, the said parties of the first part, for the purpose of borrowing money to be applied to the construction and equipment of their Rail Road, have issued, or authorized the issue of, their bonds, dated on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, numbered consecutively from number one, (1,) payable on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and in the aggregate amounting to one million of dollars, for the payment of which bonds it has been agreed by the said parties of the first part, that they will create and keep up a Sinking Fund, by paying to the said parties of the fourth part hereto, as Trustees, or to their survivors or successors in such trust, the sum of fifteen thousand dollars, on the first day of January, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and thereafter semi-annually on the first days of July and January in each year, until the maturity or payment of said bonds for the redemption thereof, in the manner stated in an agreement made and executed by and between the said parties hereto of the first and fourth parties, bearing even date herewith;

And, whereas, the said three Rail Road Companies, the parties of the first, second and third parts hereto, have entered into contracts for a business connection, and for the transportation of through freight and passengers over the whole length of their several Rail Roads, from Quincy to Chicago, whereby it has become greatly to the interest of the said parties of the second and third parts hereto that the completion of the Rail Road of the said parties of the first part should be secured beyond all doubt or contingency;

And, whereas, the said parties of the second and third parts hereto, for the considerations herein expressed, and for the purpose of securing the completion of the said Rail Road of the said parties of the first part hereto, by aiding in and facilitating the negotiation and sale of their said bonds, and also in pursuance of lawful authority, granted to or conferred upon them respectively by the Legislature of the State of Illinois, have severally agreed with the said parties of the first and fourth parts hereto, and with each of them, in the manner stated herein:

Now, it is hereby witnessed, by and between the said several parties hereto, and in consideration of the aforesaid premises, of the several covenants and agreements made and entered into by each of said parties, as herein contained, and of the sum of one dollar each, to the other in hand paid, at or before the ensembling and delivery hereof, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, it is also hereby covenanted and agreed, by and between said parties hereto respectively, in manner and form following, that is to say:

The said parties of the second and third parts hereto, do hereby severally, and not jointly, respectively covenant and agree with the said parties of the first and fourth parts hereto, and with each of them, and with their several successors, that they, the said parties of the second and third parts shall and will purchase the aforesaid bonds of the said parties of the first part, to the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars each, semi-annually, from after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, so long as the bonds can be purchased at par, as is hereinafter provided; and that they, the said parties of the second and third parts hereto, shall and will respectively deposit with the said parties of the fourth part hereto, their survivors and successors, the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars each, on the first day of January, A. D. 1857, or between that date and the first day of April in that year, and also the like sum semi-annually thereafter, on the first days of July and January, in each year, or between those days and the first days of April and October respectively, in each year, to be applied by the said parties of the fourth part to the purchase at par, for the said parties of the second and third parts respectively, of such of said bonds as shall be specified in the notice hereinafter mentioned, as entitled to be sold to or purchased for said parties of the second and third parts respectively.

And it is hereby further expressly declared and agreed, by and between all the said parties hereto, that on the first day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and thereafter on the first days of April and October in each year, until all of said bonds, which have not in the meantime been redeemed by the said Sinking Fund created by the said parties of the first part hereto, have been once purchased by the said parties of the second and third parts hereto, provided the moneys, for the purchase of the said bonds have, prior to that time, been deposited with or paid to the said parties of the fourth part by the said parties of the second and third parts, or either of them, they, the said parties of the fourth part hereto, their survivors or successors, shall and will ascertain and determine by lot, the number of said outstanding bonds as shall, from time to time, be entitled to be purchased at par by the said parties of the second and third parts; and that the said parties of the fourth part, their survivors and successors in this trust, will, in the months of April and October in each year, give public notice by advertisement, twice in each week, for four successive weeks, in a public newspaper, published in each of the cities of New York, Paris, and Frankfort-on-the-Maine, of the numbers of said bonds, which shall at the time of such publication be entitled to be purchased at par with the moneys so deposited by the said parties of the second and third parts, respectively, with the said parties of the fourth part, and that the bonds to which the moneys deposited by the said parties of the second and third parts hereto are applicable, will be purchased at their par value at the city of New York, or in Paris, or in Frankfort-on-the-Maine, as the case may be, at the time specified in the said notice, which shall not be less than sixty nor more than ninety days after the last publication of such notice; and that the said parties of the fourth part, their survivors, or successors, at the time and place specified in the said notice, in case the said bonds are then produced for such sale, will purchase the same at par, and deliver the same with the unpaid interest coupons to the said parties of the second and third parts, according to their several purchases, or in case the said bonds shall not be then produced for such sale, that then the said parties of the fourth part, their survivors or successors, will repay the money so deposited with them to the said parties of the second and third parts, respectively.

And it is hereby further understood and agreed, that the bonds which shall be paid and redeemed by the Sinking Fund, created by the said parties of the first part, together with the unpaid interest coupons, shall be, by the said parties of the fourth part, surrendered up to the said parties of the first part to be canceled; and that the bonds which have been once purchased by the said parties of the second and third parts hereto, are not to be again purchased by them, but are to be excluded from all future drawing.

And it is further agreed that the parties of the fourth part hereto, their survivors and successors, shall and will allow interest to the parties of the first, second and third parts hereto, at seven per cent. per annum, on all sums by said parties respectively deposited with them from the time of such deposit till the time specified in such notice for the redemption or purchase of said bonds has expired, or in case the bonds entitled to be purchased by the parties of the second part, at par, shall not be procured in pursuance of such notice for that purpose, then the said interest to be paid to the said parties of the second and third parts in the moneys deposited by them, till the same is repaid as herein provided.

And the parties of the first part hereby covenant and agree to and with the parties of the second, third and fourth parts hereto, and with each of them, that they, the said parties of the first part hereto, will create and keep up a Sinking Fund by paying to the parties of the fourth part hereto, as Trustees, or to their survivors or successors in such trust, the sum of fifteen thousand dollars on the first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and thereafter semi-annually, on the first days of July and January in each year, until the maturity or payment of all of the bonds herein mentioned, to be held by the said parties of the second part in trust and applied to the payment of said bonds, for the redemption thereof in the manner stated in the agreement between the said parties of the first and fourth parts hereto, of even date herewith and herinbefore mentioned.

In witness whereof, the said Northern Cross Rail Road Company, the Central Military Tract Rail Road Company, the Chicago & Aurora Rail Road Company have caused their respective seals to be hereunto affixed, and the same to be subscribed by their respective Presidents, and the said parties of the fourth part have affixed their hands and seals hereto, the day and year first above written.

AGREEMENT, January 1, 1855, Northern Cross Railroad Company, Chicago and Aurora Railroad Company and Central Military Tract Railroad Company.

This Agreement, made this first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, by and between the Northern Cross Rail Road Company of the first part, and the Chicago & Aurora Rail Road Company of the second part, and the Central Military Tract Rail Road

Company of the third part—all of the said parties being corporations duly created by the laws of Illinois—

WITNESSETH,—Whereas, the said parties of the first part, for the purpose of borrowing money to be applied to the construction and equipment of their Rail Road from Quincy to Galesburg, have issued or agreed to issue their bonds bearing date the first day of January, A.D. 1855, and payable (with interest at the rate of eight per cent., per annum, payable semi-annually) on the first day of January, A.D. 1875, in the aggregate sum of one million of dollars, unto the Trustees hereinafter named, and to secure the payment of which said bonds, the said parties of the first part have executed their second mortgage on their said Rail Road, franchises and income, and upon their property, real and personal, now existing and hereafter to be acquired, unto John M. Forbes, John Eliot Thayer, and Louis A. Van Hoffman, their survivors and assigns, as Trustees, for the benefit of the holders of the said bonds; and have also created a Sinking Fund of thirty thousand dollars per annum, payable unto the said named Trustees in the sum of fifteen thousand dollars on the first day of January, A.D. 1857, and thereafter semi-annually in the sum of fifteen thousand dollars, on the first days of July and January in each year, for the redemption of the said bonds, until the maturity or payment thereof;

And whereas, in and by a certain agreement, mutually executed by and between the said parties of the first, second, and third parts hereto, and the said named Trustees, bearing even date herewith, the said parties of the second and third parts hereto, severally and not jointly, have respectively covenanted and agreed to and with the said parties of the first part hereto, and with the said named Trustees, that they will respectively purchase the aforesaid bonds of the said party of the first part, to the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars each, semi-annually, the first of said purchases to be made on or near the first day of January, A.D. 1857, so long as the said bonds can be purchased at par, until the said bonds have been once purchased by them, or have been redeemed by the said Sinking Fund, said purchase to be made in the manner stated in the said agreement.

Now, therefore, in consideration of the premises, the said parties of the first part hereto, doth hereby, for themselves, their successors and assigns, covenant and agree to and with the said parties of the second and third parts hereto, respectively, their successors and assigns, hereby covenanting to and with the said parties of the second and third parts severally, and respectively, and not jointly, that in case the said parties of the second and third parts, or either of them, on a resale of the said bonds of the said party of the first part, so purchased by them, at the first two semi-annual purchases thereof, made in pursuance of the agreement hereinbefore referred to, shall sell and dispose of the said bonds, or of any of them, at a rate and price below that which they respectively paid therefor; that in such case, the parties of the first part shall and will immediately, on notice thereof, re-pay unto the said parties of the second and third parts, respectively, the difference between the price and the sum at which they severally purchased and sold the said bonds, or any of them, and will in every respect fully indemnify and save harmless the said parties of the second and third parts, and each of them, and their respective successors and assigns from any and all loss arising from such purchase and re-sale of the said bonds, or of any of them; and that, in respect to such of the said bonds, as by the terms of the said agreement herein referred to, the said parties of the second and third parts hereto, would be required to purchase on and subsequent to the first day of January, A.D. 1858; they, the said parties of the first part, their successors and assigns, will provide and pay unto the Trustees, in the said agreement named, their successors and assigns in the place and stead of the said parties of the second and third parts hereto, all the funds and moneys required for the making of such future purchases of said bonds, so that all of the said bonds, which by the said agreement are required to be purchased on and subsequent to the first day of January, A.D. 1858, shall be so purchased with the moneys and for the sole account of the said parties of the first part, and not with the moneys or for the account of the said parties of the second and third parts hereto, or either of them.

And the said parties of the first part hereto, for the consideration aforesaid, do hereby fully acquit, release and discharge the said parties of the second and third parts hereto, and each of them, and their respective heirs and assigns from all obligation, legal or otherwise, to the said parties of the first part, their successors and assigns, by reason of anything in their said respective covenants and agreement herein mentioned, contained, requiring them, or either of them, to provide or pay unto the said Trustees, therein named, or otherwise, the moneys with which to purchase the said bonds, or any of them, to be purchased on and subsequent to the first day of January, A.D. 1858, so far as the obligation of the said covenants and agreement is in favor of and for the benefit of the said parties of the first part, but, reserving to the Trustees named in the said agreement, all their rights arising under and reserved to them, their successors and assigns, under and by virtue of the said agreement, which are to be in no respect affected or impaired hereby.

In witness whereof, we, the said Northern Cross Rail Road Company, have caused our President to subscribe his name and to affix the corporate seal of the Company hereto, the day and year first above written.

N. BUSHNELL,

President of the Northern Cross Railroad Company.

AGREEMENT, July 22, 1856, Northern Cross Railroad Company and James W. Singleton.

ARTICLES OF AGREEMENT, Made and entered into by and between the Northern Cross Rail Road Company, of the first part, and James W. Singleton, of the second part.

Witnesseth: The said party of the first part hereby covenants and agrees, in consideration of the sum of one dollar, to them paid by the party of the second part, and the further consideration that the said party of the second part, or his heirs or assigns, will construct, operate, and maintain that part of the Northern Cross Rail Road from Camp Point, in the County of Adams, and State of Illinois, to the Illinois River, that they, the said party of the first part, will convey by perpetual lease or deed, at the option of the said party of the second part or his assigns, all that portion of the line of said Northern Cross Rail Road embraced in the Charter of the party of the first part which extends from the east end of the Depot Ground of said party of the first part at Camp Point, in said county of Adams, to the Illinois River, together with all the work and material done or furnished by said party of the first part, or by the State of Illinois. Also, all the right of way now held by the party of the first part between said Depot Ground and the Illinois River; and the said party of the first part hereby covenant and agree, for the consideration aforesaid, that they will relinquish to the said party of the second part, or his assigns, all their rights, powers, authority, franchises and immunities of every kind, held or enjoyed by them under their original charter of incorporation, or the amendments thereto, or under any general or special law of the State of Illinois, so far as the same relate to that portion of the Northern Cross Rail Road between the east end of the Depot Grounds of the party of the first part, at Camp Point and the Illinois River, and that the said party of the first part will do and perform every act and thing which may be necessary to enable the said party of the second part, or his assigns, to construct, maintain and operate said Rail Road, and to take, use and enjoy all the profits, benefits and advantages of the same, forever, consistent with avoiding pecuniary liability, and to procure subscriptions, public and private, individual and corporate, and to use the same in the construction of the said road.

Until legislation can be had, organizing an independent company or extending the charter of some existing Company to Camp Point, the said party of the first part agrees to permit the party of the second part, or his assigns, to use the corporate name, powers, authority, privileges, franchises and immunities for the survey and extension of the said road from Camp Point to the Illinois River, and to procure and collect subscriptions, and use them in the construction of the same, or to acquire, by purchase or condemnation, lands, right of way, or property or materials therefor, the said party of the first part being properly indemnified against pecuniary loss or liability, and all costs or expenses in the premises.

It is also mutually agreed and understood that the party of the second part, or his assigns, shall have the same power and privilege of making running connections and arrangements for carrying of freight and passengers for the joint business hereinafter mentioned, with any Company or Companies, as the party of the first part have; and that contracts of that nature, made by either, shall inure to the benefit of both parties to this contract, or their assigns.

The said party of the second part, upon his part, agrees in consideration of the covenants and agreements of the said party of the first part herein made, that he will, within two years from the date hereof, build and put in complete operation, a Rail Road from the east end of the Depot Ground of the party of the first part at Camp Point to the Illinois River, so as to connect at Camp Point with the main track of the Northern Cross Rail Road, to be by the party of the first part extended to the east end of said Depot Grounds, on the line as located in the direction of the Illinois River, as soon as the party of the second part is ready to connect the two roads at that point.

It is mutually agreed that if said road is not completed and in operation within two years from the date hereof, for the transportation, over the same, of persons and property, by steam, that this contract shall be null and void, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding.

That, to promote the greater convenience of the public, and to facilitate the dispatch of the joint business of the parties hereto, or their assigns, when said Rail Road to the Illinois River is put in operation, meaning by "joint business" any business participated in by them, which shall pass over the whole, or any portion of the road of the first party, between the Mississippi River and the City of Quincy, and the junction of the two roads and over any portion, or the whole of the road of the second party, whether relating to the transportation of passengers or freight, as well as for the purpose of defining their separate relations to each other in the transaction of said joint business, the said parties hereby further mutually agree with each other as follows:

First. The taking of goods or passengers upon one of these roads, to pass upon the other, shall not, by reason of this instrument, (except when it is specifically provided,) affect the remedy of either against the other, nor give the public any rights of action against both, or either, separately, which they would not otherwise have.

Second. Each party upon its respective road, shall furnish for the joint business which may originate, or be left upon it, as suitable and proper depot accommodations as it may have and use for its own separate business, and each will exercise the same care and vigilance, as well in selling tickets to passengers and giving them proper information as in receiving and delivering all freight offered for transportation, including the loading and unloading, for the joint business, as for its separate business.

Third. Each party will also collect and be answerable to the other for the dues and receipts on joint account accruing on its separate road, and as soon as practicable, and not longer than thirty working days after the close of each month, render and settle an account of the same, and pay over to the other party its proportion thereof. Each party shall have the right to draw for back charges upon the proper office of the other party, payable at three day's sight, in currency, whenever the balance due such party for back charges, shall be one thousand dollars and upwards.

Fourth. The party of the second part, will furnish, repair and operate all necessary and suitable motive power to transport the trains for the joint business upon the road of the first party between the junction of the two roads and the Mississippi River at the city of Quincy, as well as upon their own road, and will transport the trains used therefor, promptly and without unnecessary delay; and will furnish the men to manage such motive power and trains, and the fuel and oil for the same. Such trains to be run under the direction of the Agent of the first party, under printed rules and regulations, as fully as are the trains of the separate business of the first party; and the men upon, or in the management of such motive power, shall be as fully under the direction of the agent of the first party, under the rules and regulations aforesaid, as if they were in the service of that party, and subject to be suspended upon like grounds. In arranging the time at, and in which the trains of the joint business shall pass over the road of the first party, the first party shall be as liberal and fair with them as with their own trains, showing no partiality or favor to their own trains over those operated by the second party for the joint business. The time of starting the trains of the joint business upon the road of the first party, may be named from time to time by the second party, who shall give two weeks' notice to the first party, of any change they desire; and the first party shall only modify or change such time of starting sufficiently not unnecessarily to interfere with the previously established time of their own trains.

Fifth. The first party will furnish the water to the locomotives of the second party when upon the road, and at their stations, and generally upon their road render the same assistance and service to the trains of the joint business (excepting that the second party shall oil them) as they do to the trains of their separate business, so that it shall not be necessary for the second party to have any men upon the road of the first party, in addition to the usual number they send with their trains. The first party shall suspend or discharge any of their men for the same faults with reference to the trains for the joint business, as would result in a suspension or discharge, had it referred to their own trains.

Sixth. The party of the second part shall furnish all necessary and suitable passenger, freight and other cars for the joint business, and shall sufficiently equip them with conductors, brakemen, baggage-men, and other necessary agents and servants, to take charge thereof; also furnish oil and fuel necessary for the same—it being agreed by the party of the second part, that such conductors and other servants of theirs, while upon the road of the party of the first part, shall be as fully under the direction of the agent of that road, under printed rules and regulations, as if they were in the service of that road, and subject to be suspended on like grounds. Said party of the second part shall also take all risk and liability, and indemnify from all costs and expenses, the other party, for injury, damage, or loss which may happen to such cars, or to their servants employed in managing them, or to the passengers or freight carried on joint account, while they are upon, or passing over the road of the first party, as fully as if such cars and servants, passengers and freight were upon or passing over their own road; such risk and liability to extend to any such servants, passengers or freight, which may happen to be in or upon the cars of the party of the first part, or of any other connected rail road company whose business passes over the whole, or any portion of the road of the second party, to or from the road of the first party, as well as to passengers, servants or freight in and upon their own cars as aforesaid. It is, however, understood in regard to the said second party's liability for the safe care and custody of joint freight, while upon the road of the first party, that such liability shall not commence upon freight to go from the road of the first party, until it is delivered upon the cars and to the train of the second party, and shall terminate upon freight coming from the road of the party of the second part, when it is delivered to the servants of the first party at the station of its destination, who shall receive it upon its arrival.

Seventh. The party of the second part shall have the right to fix upon, and to alter and adjust the tariff for the passengers and freight of the joint business, and also for their business in case they build a double track, as hereinafter provided, but said party shall not fix the said tariff from any point upon the road of the first party to any point upon the road of the second party within ten miles of the junction of the two roads, at any less rate per mile than the same is fixed by the first party from the same points respectively, to points the same distance beyond the junction upon the road of the first party, to the prejudice or injury of the first party, as to its share of the earnings or revenue from the passengers or freight in question.

Eighth. The mode of division of the revenue from the joint business, shall be as follows: The whole money earned upon the two roads, in the transportation of any property or passengers in the joint business, shall be presumed to have been earned upon each road in proportion to the distance it has passed over each road, allowing to every mile it may be carried, a uniform rate of compensation, or dividing the whole money earned by the number of miles the passenger or freight has been carried, to get the earnings of each mile, and this multiplied by the miles carried upon each road, will give the revenue earned upon each road. The whole of the revenue accrued or earned upon the road of the second party, shall belong to it. Of the whole moneys earned or accrued upon the road of the first party, forty dollars out of every one hundred, shall belong to it, and the balance, being sixty dollars out of every one hundred dollars, shall belong to the party of the second part, and after this rate shall all money thus earned upon the joint freight and passenger business upon the road of the first party be divided.

The money earned in joint business by the transportation of Expresses, shall be divided in the same manner as above specified for the division of the revenues from the passenger and freight business.

Ninth. Should any passenger or freight get into or upon the cars or trains of the joint business, in their passage over the road of the first party, such passenger or freight passing over any portion of the road of the second party, the money collected for the transportation of such freight or passenger, shall all of it be immediately paid over to the party of the first part, it not being intended by this instrument to interfere in any manner with the separate business of the first party; and this section shall equally apply to the trains of the party of the second part, in case they build a second track, as hereinafter provided.

Tenth. In case a double track shall hereafter be constructed by the party of the first part, at their own cost and expense, from the Mississippi river, at the city of Quincy, to the junction of the two roads, then, and in that case, the division of the revenue from the joint business, shall be the same as upon the single track.

Eleventh. The money earned for the transportation of the United States mails upon the road of each party, shall belong to each respectively, provided only, that if the post office department pay an extra compensation to the party of the first part, by reason of the mails which pass to and from Quincy, and over the road of the party of the second part, then, in that case, the said extra compensation only, shall be divided in the same manner as the revenues from the passenger and freight business. The foregoing provision shall apply as well to the double as to the single track; but should the party of the second part be allowed a compensation for carrying mails over and upon the road of the first party, such compensation shall be divided in the manner specified herein for freight, passenger and express business.

Twelfth. Should the party of the second part, or his heirs or assigns, desire to construct at his or their own cost and expense, a second track from the east end of the depot grounds at Camp Point, there to connect with the main track of said party, to the Mississippi river, at Quincy, north of, and not within the depot grounds of the party of the first part, before a second track is constructed by the party of the first part, the right and privilege of constructing and using said second track, to be in all respects as well built as the present track of the first party, is hereby granted to the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns, on the payment to the party of the first part, the annual interest of ten per cent. upon one half of the cost of the right of way, grading, masonry, engineering, and any other cost and expense of the road bed for the single track of the road of the first party, as located from the east end of the depot grounds at Camp Point, to the point to which the party of the second part may construct such second track.

When the said second track shall be completed, the said track, together with the main track of the party of the first part, between the same points, shall be used as common tracks for the business of both parties, under joint rules and regulations to be mutually agreed upon between the parties, on each party paying one half of the cost of repairing and maintaining said tracks between the points to which said second track extends. This twelfth article of this agreement relates exclusively to the construction of a second track by the party of the second part, and to the use of the two tracks in the manner, and on the consideration herein named; but does not give the party of the second part the right to, in any manner, enjoy or use any other tracks of the party of the first part, or any station depot or other con-conveniences or accommodations of the first party, at their terminal or other stations, or elsewhere along the line of their road, which, in case any use or privileges relating thereto, are hereafter desired by the second party, his heirs or assigns, is to be left to the mutual agreement of the parties at the time.

And it is hereby further, and as a part of this twelfth article, and as a part of the consideration on which the agreements in this twelfth article are entered into on the part of the party of the first part, that all depot, or other business conveniences and accommodations which may be provided at Quincy, in connection with the said second track, for the use and accommodation of the business passing the river, whether by ferry, bridge, or otherwise, to and from any rail road constructed in the State of Missouri, shall, together with any tracks connected therewith, be used and enjoyed by both parties for their respective business arising from, and connected with the said rail roads in Missouri, and the government and use thereof, shall be determined by joint rules and regulations, mutually agreed upon by the parties, and as compensation for the use thereof, by the party of the first part, the said party shall pay an annual rent equal to ten per cent. on the cost of said portion thereof, as may be appropriated to, and used by said party; and, also, that in case either party shall desire and undertake to arrange for the establishment or use of any ferry across the Mississippi river, for rail road use, or for the construction or use of any bridge for rail road use, at or near Quincy, the other party shall have the right, at the option of said other party, to join in such undertaking; and in that case, the same shall be entered into and carried out jointly, as an undertaking to inure to the mutual and equal benefit of both parties, on the terms to be agreed upon by the parties at the time, and shall be occupied and used under joint rules and regulations established by the common consent of the parties.

It is also further agreed and understood that, should any difference or difficulty arise in the common use of the said two tracks, as provided in this twelfth article, which cannot be amicably adjusted by said parties, the party of the second part, or his assigns, shall have the right and power to take up and remove their track from the premises of the party of the first part, without any obstruction or hindrance, or detriment from the party of the first part, their successors, or parties claiming under them.

It is hereby further agreed and understood, that in case the party of the second part construct a second track, as provided in this article, then, and in that case, and from and after that time, all the articles and provisions in this agreement contained, relating to a "joint business" between the parties, shall cease and be void, and be of no further force and effect.

Thirteenth. The party of the first part hereby covenants and agrees to lease and grant to the second party, the use of such land as may be necessary for the extension and construction of an addition to the engine house of the first party, sufficient for the storage and keeping of at least four engines, and including the use of their turn table and tracks to the same, for the sum of two hundred dollars, paid annually during the period that it may be required by the party of the second part, if not required for the use of the party of the first part.

It is expressly agreed and understood that the party of the second part are to pay the cost of constructing the said extension of the said engine house, and it is to correspond in style, plan, and manner of construction, to the portion now built and owned by the party of the first part. When it shall become necessary that the party of the first part shall occupy, for their own use, all the ground and room designed to be used in the extension of their engine house, now partly built, the party of the second part shall then vacate the extension built by him or them, and cease to occupy or use the same, upon the payment by the first party to the second party, the amount expended for such extension and appurtenances, deducting a proper sum for the deterioration of such premises.

Fourteenth. If in the execution and performance of the contract, questions of difference shall arise between the parties hereto, in relation to the management of said road, between the junction and the Mississippi river, at the city of Quincy, or, in relation to agents and employees, and adjustment of the tariff under this contract, or as to the meaning of this contract, or any part thereof, or if in practice or from the change of circumstances by reason of the building of the double track by either party, or from any cause whatever, it shall be found that some other provisions should have been inserted herein, or some contained herein should be modified or changed in order to secure the objects designed by this contract, or if in practice it shall be found by either party, that any provision or stipulation herein operates injuriously or unjustly to the interests of said party, it is mutually agreed by the parties hereto, that in every such case, in order to carry out the general scope and intent of this contract, if the parties in interest cannot agree, the matter which may be the subject of controversy at any time or times, shall be referred to three umpires, two of whom shall be presidents or superintendents of rail roads not connected with the road of either party, disinterested, and practically acquainted with the operation thereof; and the third shall be a legal person. One to be chosen by each party to this contract, and the third by the persons so chosen, whose decision of the matter to them referred, shall be final and conclusive; provided, that when any one of the contingencies happens contemplated by this article, either party shall notify the other, in writing, thereof, stating the umpire that has been selected on their part, and if within sixty days the other party shall not select the umpire on their part, and give notice in writing to the other party, it shall be optional with the party that has chosen such umpire, to select the other, which two shall have the right to appoint the third, and their decision shall be final and conclusive between the parties. Provided, that the first reference on the subject of the division of the revenue from the joint business, provided for in the eighth, tenth and eleventh sections of this agreement, shall not take place within a less period than two years from the date of the execution hereof.

This agreement, and every part thereof, shall take effect and be in force from the date of the execution thereof, and for and during the corporate existence of the said party of the first part.

Provided, however, that in case the party of the second part, or his assigns, or any person or persons, bodies politic or corporate, controlling the road from the junction of the two roads to the Illinois river, shall hereafter construct or use a line of rail road from, or east of the junction at Camp Point, to the city of Quincy, for the transportation of freight and passengers as an independent line of rail road between Quincy and the Illinois river, except as herein provided, then, on the completion of such road, the relations by this contract established between the parties from the junction to the city of Quincy, shall be forever dissolved, and all the rights and privileges hereby granted to the party of the second part, from the junction of the two roads at the east end of the depot grounds at Camp Point, to Quincy, shall cease and determine, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding.

In witness whereof, the said parties have hereunto respectively set their hands and seals. The Northern Cross Rail Road Company acting by their President, this, 22nd day of July, A. D. 1856.

N. BUSHNELL,

President of the Northern Cross R. R. Co.

JAMES W. SINGLETON.

AGREEMENT, June 15, 1858, The Quincy and Chicago Railroad Company and the Quincy and Toledo Railroad Company.

Memorandum of an Agreement made between the Quincy and Chicago, late the Northern Cross Railroad Company, of the first part, and the Quincy and Toledo Railroad Company of the second part, this fifteenth day of June A. D. 1858, Witnesseth:

Whereas, a certain agreement was made and entered into between the party of the first part and James W. Singleton, bearing date the 22d day of July, A. D. 1856, to facilitate the construction of a railroad between Camp Point and the Illinois River, by the said James W. Singleton or his assigns, and which contract has been assigned to the party of the second part hereto, who is now engaged in the construction of said road;

Now, therefore, in order to adapt the provisions of said agreement to the new relations established by a change of parties, and to correct, change and modify certain of the provisions therein in a manner deemed just and equitable between the parties, under existing circumstances, it is, by the parties hereto, mutually agreed and understood:

First. That so much of said agreement as relates to the time for the completion of the road, in said agreement described, from Camp Point to the Illinois River, be, and the same is hereby so modified and changed as to extend the time for the completion thereof to the 22d of March, A. D. 1859, and the said contract, as corrected, changed and modified by this instrument, shall have the same construction, force and effect as if it had, by its original tenor, provided for the completion of said road at the time herein mentioned.

Second. That the articles in said agreement numbered Eight, Ten and Eleven, be, and the same are hereby so modified and changed as to give to the said party of the first part forty-five dollars out of every one hundred dollars, instead of forty dollars out of every one hundred dollars, and to the second party fifty-five dollars out of every one hundred dollars, instead of sixty dollars out of every one hundred dollars, in the division of the revenues from the joint business, provided for in said agreement.

Third. This agreement is hereby declared to be made by way of supplement to the said agreement of the 22d of July, A. D. 1856, which remains in full force and effect in all its separate parts, except so far as the same is corrected, changed or modified by this instrument, which is to be taken and construed in connection with the said original agreement in all cases affecting the rights of the parties acquired under said contract, and this supplement thereto, subsequent to the date hereof.

In Witness Whereof, the parties hereto have caused these presents to be subscribed and their corporate seals to be affixed by their proper officers, the day and year first above written.

JAS. W. SINGLETON,

President of the Quincy and Toledo Rail Road Company.

AWARD OF ARBITRATORS September 8, 1859. In controversy between the Quincy and Toledo Railroad Company and The Quincy and Chicago Railroad Company, concerning contract dated July 22, 1856.

We, the undersigned, LOUIS V. BOGY, President of the Iron Mountain Railroad; THOMAS MCKISSOCK, Superintendent of the Pacific Railroad; and HENRY B. MCCLURE, Attorney at Law; arbitrators, selected and duly sworn to hear and determine the matters in controversy between the Quincy and Toledo Railroad Company and the Quincy and Chicago Rail Road Company, and contained in the annexed specifications, have carefully examined the contract between the Northern Cross Rail Road Company, now the Quincy and Chicago Rail Road Company, and James W. Singleton, 22d of July, A. D. 1856, and now existing between the said Quincy and Chicago Rail Road Company and the said Quincy and Toledo Rail Road Company, the latter company being the assignee of said James W. Singleton, as regards said contract; and having heard the evidence duly adduced under oath, do determine and award in the premises that the Quincy and Toledo Rail Road Company, as the assignee of said Singleton, have the right to sell tickets at Quincy and Camp Point for the business of said railroad and its connections, excepting for the local business between Camp Point and Quincy. This right belongs to all railroads unless surrendered by express agreement.

And we do award and determine to said Quincy and Toledo Rail Road Company the right:

1st. To have their offices or places for selling tickets at said city of Quincy and Camp Point, provided by said Quincy and Toledo Rail Road Company for that purpose, not, however, to affect or embrace the local business of the Quincy and Chicago Rail Road Company on the line of their road between Camp Point and Quincy.

2d. We do, under the powers contained in the fourteenth section of said contract, award and determine to the Quincy and Toledo Rail Road Company, the right to build and use proper depots, ware houses, freight buildings, turnouts, switches and needful appendages as common carriers at said Quincy and Camp Point, upon grounds to be procured by them, and the same to connect with the track or tracks of the Quincy and Chicago Rail Road, and the same to use in the transaction of their business of carrying, as is usual with independent rail road companies, or needful to them in conducting their business as such common carriers.

And we do award and determine that said Quincy and Toledo Rail Road Company have and exercise the rights and privileges at Quincy and at Camp Point, generally, of common carriers upon an equal footing with said Quincy and Chicago Rail Road Company, except expressly, the carrying between Quincy and Camp Point, which, being the local business of the Quincy and Chicago Rail Road Company, belongs exclusively to said last named company, under the terms of said contract.

And we do award to said Quincy and Toledo Rail Road Company, at said Quincy, and also at Camp Point, the right to transact, regulate and control the carrying business both of passengers and freight of their road and connections, as independent rail road companies may do, excepting expressly, the local business of the Quincy and Chicago Rail Road Company, between Camp Point and Quincy.

Nothing in this award shall, in any way, change the obligations contained in said contract, of said Quincy and Toledo Rail Road Company, to account for and settle with said Quincy and Chicago Rail Road Company for the proportion due said last named company, under said contract, for joint earnings for freight and passengers.

And we do further award and determine that said Quincy and Toledo Rail Road Company shall, at all times, permit said Quincy and Chicago Rail Road Company to inspect their books for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of their proportion of joint earnings for freight and passengers.

We do further award and determine that any power given by said contract to the said Quincy and Chicago Rail Road Company to make rules and regulations, relates only to the police of the track for the government of the trains and operatives of the two companies while upon the road between Quincy and Camp Point, or at the stations or depots of the Quincy and Chicago road, and does not give said Quincy and Chicago Rail Road Company power, in any way, to change said contract.

Dated at the Dunlap House, at Jacksonville, Illinois, this 8th day of September, A. D. 1859.

LOUIS V. BOGY,
T. MCKISSOCK,
H. B. McCLURE.

Specification of points in controversy now submitted to arbitrament between the Quincy and Toledo Rail Road Company, and the Quincy and Chicago Rail Road Company, under contract dated 22d of July, 1856; amendments thereto, and the present relations of said Companies.

1st. The Quincy and Toledo Rail Road Company claims the right of general terminus of their road at Quincy for all purposes of accommodation, as common carriers, including the right to sell tickets, receive and discharge freight, and transact such other business at said point as pertains to railroads and railroad carrying, and to make running connections or arrangements with other roads, at Quincy and Camp Point, and including the right to construct, on grounds by them for such purpose obtained, or to be obtained, and to use their own depots, turnouts, and all suitable terminus and railroad accommodations, and the same suitably to connect with the track or tracks of the Quincy and Chicago Rail Road Company at said Quincy. Said Company also claims the right at Camp Point to sell tickets, receive and discharge freight, and transact such other business at said point, as pertains to railroads and railroad carrying, upon their own grounds and in their own buildings, or on grounds and buildings to be furnished or procured by them; and the same property to connect with the track or tracks of the Quincy and Chicago railroad. The Quincy and Toledo Railroad Company do not claim the right to interfere with, or to carry on the local freight and passenger business between Camp Point and Quincy.

2d. The said company claims, that the right given to the Quincy and Chicago Rail Road Company, under the said contract, to control the running of the trains of the Quincy and Toledo Rail Road Company between Camp Point and Quincy, "under printed rules and regulations," relates only to the police of the road, and should apply equally to both roads, regulating only the running of the trains and the conduct of those connected therewith in operating the same; and does not embrace the right, in any manner, to control the business or carrying operations of the Quincy and Toledo Rail Road, nor preclude said company from transacting their business themselves, and in their own way, at Quincy and Camp Point, and therefore, so much of the printed rules and regulations, signed by C. G. Hammond, Superintendent, and entitled, "Rules," as inconsistent with the specifications aforesaid, are inoperative and void.

3d. The Quincy and Toledo Rail Road Company claims, that if the rights indicated by the foregoing specifications, do not exist under the relations of the said two companies, by force of the contract aforesaid, suitable provisions, duly securing the same to the Quincy and Toledo Rail Road Company, should be awarded and become a part of said contract, and that the arbitrators should so award in the premises, as to secure to the Quincy and Toledo Rail Road Company all rights and powers, necessary and proper to place the said company, for all practical purposes of carrying and competition in business on an equal footing at Quincy and Camp Point, for the use of their road and its connections with the Quincy and Chicago Rail Road Company.

The foregoing are the specifications referred to in the foregoing award.

MORGAN COUNTY. } ss.:

I, Stephen Sutton, a Justice of the Peace in and for the county of Morgan, and state aforesaid, do hereby certify that on the 8th day of September, A. D. 1859, at Jacksonville in said county, LOUIS V. BOGY, THOMAS McKISSECK and HENRY B. McCLURE, were by me duly sworn, faithfully and fairly to hear, examine, and determine the matters in controversy between the Quincy and Chicago Rail Road Company, and the Quincy and Toledo Rail Road Company, according to the principles of equity and justice; and to make a just and true award according to the best of their understanding.

Dated at Jacksonville, in the county aforesaid, this 8th day of September, A. D. 1859.

STEPHEN SUTTON, J. P. [SEAL.]

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved January 31, 1857.

AN ACT to incorporate the Quincy and Toledo Railroad Company; to legalize the subscription of the city of Quincy and the county of Brown to the capital stock of the Northern Cross Railroad Company, and the bonds issued or to be issued by said city and county in payment for said stock; to amend the charter of the Great Western Railroad Company of the State of Illinois, and legalize and confirm the contract of said company with James W. Singleton.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That James W. Singleton, his associates, successors and assigns, are hereby created a body corporate and politic, under and by the name and style of "The Quincy and Toledo Railroad Company," with perpetual succession; and by that name, shall be and are hereby made capable, in law and equity, to sue and be sued, to plead and be impleaded, defend and be defended in all courts of law and equity in this State and elsewhere; to make, have and use a common seal, and the same to renew and alter at pleasure; and shall be and are hereby vested with all the powers, privileges and immunities, which are or may be necessary to carry into effect the purposes and objects of this act. And the said corporation hereby created is authorized and empowered to locate, construct and finally complete, and put in operation, a railroad, from the east end of the depot ground of the Northern Cross Railroad Company, at Camp Point, in the county of Adams, to the east side of the Illinois river, at or near Naples or Meredosia, and so as to connect the same with the track of the Great Western Railroad of Illinois: Provided, that the construction of the contemplated bridge shall not obstruct the navigation of the Illinois river.

§ 2. And for the purpose of constructing, maintaining, equipping and operating said railroad, the corporation hereby created shall have and may use, exercise and enjoy all the rights, powers, privileges, franchises and immunities which by the several acts of the legislature of Illinois are conferred on the Northern Cross Railroad Company, together with the power to mortgage, lease or sell said road to any other company or corporation.

§ 3. The Great Western Railroad Company, of the State of Illinois, be and they are hereby authorized and empowered by the president, to indorse the bonds of the corporation hereby created, and to guarantee and secure the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds, and at the place of payment thereof, as the same may become due and payable. The words "guaranteed by the Great Western Railroad Company, of the State of Illinois," written or printed upon the said bond or bonds, and signed by the president of said company, shall be and is hereby declared to be a covenant of said Great Western Railroad Company, to and with the holder or holders of said bonds or bond, to pay to such holder or holders the principal and interest thereof, as the same may become due and payable. And the contract between the said Great Western Railroad Company and James W. Singleton, dated the twelfth day of September, 1856, is hereby declared to be valid and binding upon the parties thereto, in all courts of law and equity in this State and elsewhere, as to their respective undertakings therein—the power and authority to execute the same being hereby granted to the parties respectively.

§ 4. That the act of John Wood, mayor of the city of Quincy, dated the (6th) sixth day of August, 1856, whereby the said John Wood, on behalf of the said city, subscribed to the capital stock of the Northern Cross Railroad pursuant to an ordinance of the city council of said city, dated the fourth day of August, 1856, authorizing, empowering and directing the said John Wood, mayor as aforesaid, to subscribe two hundred thousand dollars to the capital stock of said Northern Cross Railroad Company, together with the acts, doings and agreements of the city council of the said city of Quincy, and the same are hereby legalized, ratified and confirmed. And all bonds of the said city of Quincy, issued or to be issued in payment of said subscription of two hundred thousand dollars, shall, in all respects, be and are hereby made a debt of said city of Quincy, due to the holder or holders of such bonds, contracted by said city of Quincy, under authority of law: Provided, that said bonds shall be and remain in the hands of Isaac O. Woodruff, of said city of Quincy, until said road is graded from Camp Point, in the county of Adams, to Mount Sterling, in Brown county. Thereupon, the said Isaac O. Woodruff shall deliver one hundred thousand dollars of said bonds and retain the remainder thereof in his hands until said road is graded to the Illinois river: Provided, nothing in this act shall be so construed as to prevent the city council of said city from authorizing an earlier delivery of said bonds, if, in their judgment, the interest of the city requires it; and the said city council are hereby authorized and empowered to levy and collect a special tax, for the payment of the interest of said bonds.

§ 5. The subscription of Jacob Vandeventer, county judge of the county of Brown, made for and on behalf of said county, of one hundred thousand dollars, to the capital stock of the Northern Cross Railroad Company, be and the act of said county judge is hereby legalized, ratified and confirmed. And the said county judge of the county of Brown, is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to make, execute and deliver to the person or persons, company or corporation entitled to receive the same, one hundred bonds of the county of Brown, for one thousand dollars each, bearing a rate of interest not greater than eight per cent. per annum, and said interest payable semi-annually in the city of New York, at the Metropolitan Bank, on the first days of January and July of each year; and the principal of said bonds payable in ten years, at the same place, in the city of New York, upon receiving an equal amount of the stock of the Great Western Railroad Company of the State of Illinois; and the said bonds, so to be issued as aforesaid, shall, to all intents and purposes, be and remain, until the interest and principal thereof is fully paid, a debt of the said county of Brown, due to the holder or holders of said bonds, contracted by the said county of Brown, under authority of law.

§ 6. And it shall be lawful for said city or said county to make their bonds payable at any banking house, in the city of New York or Boston, which may be agreed upon by the parties interested.

§ 7. This act to be in force from and after its passage.

APPROVED January 31, 1857.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved February 10, 1857.

AN ACT to change the name and amend the charter of the Northern Cross Railroad Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the corporate name of said company shall be and is hereby changed to "The Quincy and Chicago Railroad Company," by which name and designation it shall be authorized to contract and carry on its corporate business, and also to complete and carry out and execute, and avail itself of all existing contracts and the benefits thereof, and of all public and private acts of the General Assembly, as if the name of said company had not been changed: Provided, that in all actions, suits and proceedings commenced or judgments rendered in favor of or against the said company, the former name of the said company shall be used in prosecuting and defending the same, and in all process issued therein, until the final determination and execution thereof, in the same manner as before the passage of this act.

§ 2. That the board of directors of said company shall have power and are hereby authorized to declare forfeited any stock subscribed for in said road, with all the prior payments thereon, on which full payment has not been made in the manner required by the board, on first giving four weeks' notice, by publication thereof in some public newspaper published in the city of Quincy, for four weeks in succession, once in each week, that all stock subscribed for and not paid up in full by a day to be named in said notice, will, at the option of the board of directors of said company, be declared forfeited.

§ 3. That the said company and any city or incorporated town through or into which said road or branches passes, are hereby authorized and empowered, on such terms and for such consideration as the parties may agree upon, to make, execute and perform any contract or agreement for the establishing, opening or abolishing any parts of any lane, avenue or alley within the limits of such city or town, along or across which the said road passes or which may separate or adjoin any property held by the company for the purposes of its corporate business at such town or city; or such town or city may lease or convey the same to the said company, in fee, or otherwise secure to said company the sole occupation or use thereof, in such manner and for such uses and purposes as may be agreed upon.

§ 4. This act shall be a public act, and take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

CONTRACT, Dated, April 1st, 1857,
The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company,
and
The Quincy and Chicago Railroad Company.

Articles of agrément made and entered into this first day of April A. D. 1857 by and between the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company and the Quincy and Chicago (late Northern Corp.) Rail Road Company.

Witnesseth:

1. That the said Companies hereby agree to unite their respective Roads in a common operative management to be placed in charge of one General Superintendent to be appointed by the concurrence of the two Companies, and to go into effect on the 10th day of this present month. The line formed by this union shall be called "The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Line" and the General Superintendent of the same, exercising the powers and performing the duties usual in such cases, shall in whatever pertains to the common business of the line act under the joint directions of an executive committee of the two Companies consisting of their respective Presidents and in whatever respect the local business of each Company under the direction of the authorized officers of the respective Companies. The Road of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Rail Road Company extends within the meaning of this agreement from Chicago to Burlington and the Road of the Quincy and Chicago Rail Road Company from Quincy to Galesburg where it joins with the other Road.

2. This instrument is not intended nor shall it be understood to give to either Company any interest in the business or earnings of the other, nor, except as herein provided, shall it affect the remedy of either against the other, nor give the Public any rights of action against both or either separately which they would not otherwise have.

3. Each Company shall retain the exclusive management of its own construction and equipment accounts, works and expenditures entirely disconnected from the common operative management hereby adopted for business purposes.

4. The earnings of each Road will consist 1st of the earnings from its local business, or that which passes in whole or in part over it and over no portion of the other. The local business of each Road shall in the common management be equally accommodated, cultivated and encouraged, and the earnings from it belong wholly to the Road on which it passes. 2nd The earnings from business which passes over the whole or some portion of each Road forming the line, such earnings from whatever source derived shall be divided pro-rata between the Companies in proportion to the miles it passes on each road.

5. The property of either Company carried on the road of the other shall be charged with and pay to the Company on whose road it passes the same Tariff rates as is charged to other parties in similar cases.

6. The operating expenses of each road shall be paid out of its earnings or the revenues derived from the business passing over it, it being understood that the expenses of the Galesburg Station are to be borne wholly by the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company; Provided however that expenditures for line operations (for which reference may be had to the Instructions to Agents relative to earnings issued by Amos T. Hall Esq., Treasurer of this date) shall be borne by each Company in proportion to its earnings.

7. The charge or monies levied for the transportation of property to Chicago and to Quincy from other stations on the Roads forming the line shall be the same for similar distances, without reference to the direction in which such property is to be transported, so that the movements of property on the line outside of Chicago or Quincy to those points respectively shall be left to the course of trade unaffected by tariff rates.

8. There shall be a mutual interchange of the Freight cars of the Companies for freight transportation which may be used indiscriminately whenever the business requires; and of which use a regular and correct account shall be kept from the way bills of freights and each Company shall be allowed one and one half cents per mile of car run loaded on the Roads of the other, every car being considered loaded when it has on board any freight however small. In case of the interchange of passenger and baggage cars, each Company shall be allowed three cents per mile for each first class Passenger Car, and two cents per mile for each second class Passenger Car, and baggage car, hauled in train on the Road of the other.

9. The Engines of each Company with their Tenders shall be kept and used on their own roads, but in case of their being at any time used on the road of the other, a proper compensation shall be made for the particular service.

10. In no case shall the Cars of one Company be used on the Wood, Ditching or Construction Trains of the other and no compensation for car service is therefore provided for such a case, and particular care shall be taken to enforce the observance of this rule.

11. Either Company in furnishing repairs to the cars or machinery of the other, shall charge for the labor and materials furnished on the principle of cost, and only to the extent of a fair and full re-imbursement of the actual cost of such repairs and not with a view of profit beyond such just equivalent.

12. All loss and damage happening in the course of business from stolen, lost or damaged goods, when it is known on which Road the same are stolen, lost or damaged and every other loss, damage or injury to persons or property happening on either Road from detention, accident or other causes, when the fact that such loss, injury or damage happened on such road is known, shall be borne by the Company on whose Road the same occurs; but in all cases in which it is not known on whose Road the loss, damage or injury occurs, it shall be assumed that the same occurred pro-rata on the two Roads, and shall be borne by each Company in proportion to the earnings derived to each from the property or business in respect to which the same occurs.

13. All injuries to the cars and machinery of each Company while on the Road of the other from negligence or casualty and the cost of the reparation thereof shall be borne by the Company on whose Road the injury occurs. But for reparations rendered necessary by ordinary wear and tear exclusive of negligence and casualty, as the cars are to be used interchangeably and compensation in car service is allowed for such use, it will be assumed that each car will be used and the ordinary wear and tear thereof be the same as for every other and the cost of such reparation will therefore be charged to and borne by the Company owning the car undergoing the repairs.

14. The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company shall collect and reserve the earnings of the Quincy and Chicago Rail Road Company and apply a sufficient amount thereof from time to time to pay the operative expenses of the latter Road, and shall pay over the balance of the earnings from time to time as may be required to the Treasurer of the Quincy and Chicago Road, a full settlement on account of such earnings and expenditures and full payment of the final balance for each month to be made at the close thereof or as soon thereafter as the business and accounts of the month can be brought up and adjusted so as to determine the true balance or its proximate.

15. The funds collected on the local business of the Quincy and Chicago Rail Road whether in specie funds or in currency and the relative portions of specie funds and currency derived from the common business of the line belong to the Quincy and Chicago Rail Road Company and are to be accounted for in kind, that is in the respective amounts of specie funds and currency in all remittances and settlements.

16. The Treasurer of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company shall keep a separate account of the earnings, receipts and expenditures of the Quincy and Chicago Rail Road and of the business and statistics thereof in the same manner as such accounts for the former Company are kept, and all books and papers having reference to the business of the Quincy and Chicago Rail Road, and are proper for information on any of the matters in which such Company is interested shall be at all times open for the examination of the authorized officers of the Company; and such Treasurer shall also from time to time as may be required furnish to the Treasurer of the Quincy and Chicago Rail Road Company, daily, weekly and monthly reports of the earnings and expenditures with copies of all vouchers paid therefor with whatever else may be necessary to a full understanding of the operative business, receipts, expenditures and statistics of the Road.

Either party may terminate this arrangement at any time on thirty days notice, communicated through their respective Presidents.

In Witness whereof the same Companies have caused their respective Presidents to subscribe their names hereto in duplicate the day and year first above written.

Presdt. of The Quincy & Chicago Rail R. Co.

I. F. JOY

Presdt. of The Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Rail Road Co.

Boston, June 2, 1857.

Amos T. Hall Esq.

Treasurer of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy RR.

Sir:

This is to advise you that the Quincy & Chicago Rail Road Company have, in due form, transferred to John M. Forbes, John Elliott Thayer, and Louis A. Von Hoffmann, Trustees in the Company, second mortgage, and placed them in possession of the said Rail Road, and all the property belonging to or appertaining to said road to be by them possessed and operated, and the rents, tolls and income derived therefrom, to be received by them, their agents, attorney, and substitute, and applied in accordance with the deed of possession. In pursuance of said deed, the said Trustees have appointed me their general agent, attorney in fact, and substitute, to take charge of and manage said property, and operate the road, and apply the income as provided.

I have to inform you that Mr. John C. Cox, of Quincy, has been appointed the Receiver for said Trustees, to whom all monies must be paid, and with whom all accounts, under my direction, be adjusted and settled.

All operating and other business managements existing between the Quincy & Chicago Rail Road Company, and the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Rail Road Company, are hereby confirmed by and on behalf of said Trustees, and so far as it depends on them, or on me as their fully authorized agent, attorney and substitute, the relations of the entire line, and the manner of conducting, operating and adjusting of its business, and accounts will continue in the same manner as heretofore, under the operative arrangement of the first of April last.

From the preceding, it follows that a monies received by you will be received for and on account of the Trustees, and all remittances and settlements to and with Mr. Cox, will be made with him as the Receiver of the Trustees, acting under my directions, as authorized to act in their stead, and the possession of all property of the Company will be for and on account of the Trustees, and subject to my direction and control, by virtue of the general power to me already mentioned—Please acknowledge the receipt of this letter at once, directing your reply to me at Quincy.

Yours respectfully,

N. BUSHNELL.

DEED AND AGREEMENT, May 27, 1857. The Quincy and Chicago Railroad Company to John M. Forbes, et al Trustees.

Whereas, on the first day of July, A. D. 1853 the Northern Cross Rail Road Company of the first part and John M. Forbes, John Eliot Thayer and Louis Ferdinand Von Hoffman, of the second part, entered into an Indenture bearing date on the said first day of July, 1853, whereby the said party of the first part, to secure to the said party of the second part the payment of certain Bonds in the said Indenture mentioned, at the times and places, and in the manner and upon the terms and conditions in said indenture mentioned, mortgaged to the said party of the second part the Northern Cross Rail Road running from the city of Quincy on the Mississippi River to the town of Galesburg Illinois, together with all their property of every kind and character, real and personal then existing or thereafter to be acquired, in any way pertaining to or connected with said Road, all of which will more fully and at large appear reference being had to said Indenture, which is duly recorded in all the counties through which said Rail Road runs.

And Whereas, on the first day of December, 1854, the said Northern Cross Rail Road Company, of the first part, and John M. Forbes, John Eliot Thayer and Louis A. Von Hoffman of the second part entered into an Indenture, bearing date on the said first day of December, 1854 whereby the said party of the first part, to secure to the said parties of the second part, the payment of certain bonds in the said Indenture mentioned, at the times and places and in the manner and upon the terms and conditions in said Indenture mentioned, mortgaged to the said parties of the second part the Northern Cross Rail Road running from the city of Quincy on the Mississippi River to the town of Galesburg, Illinois, together with all their property of every kind and character, real and personal then existing or thereafter to be acquired, in any way pertaining to or connected with said Road, all of which will more fully and at large appear, reference being had to said Indenture which is duly recorded in all the Counties through which the said Rail Road runs.

And Whereas, said party of the first part has made default in conditions of both of said mortgages in this, to wit, that on the first of said mortgages there is now due and unpaid for interest which became due and payable on the first day of January last on the bonds mentioned in said mortgage, coupons to the amount of about Eight thousand Dollars; and on the second of said mortgages there remains due and unpaid coupons for the whole of the interest which became due and payable on the first day of January last on all of the bonds mentioned and described in said second mortgage.

And Whereas, the said party of the first part is unable to provide and pay the semi-annual interest which will become due and payable on the bonds mentioned and described in said mortgages on the first day of July next. And Whereas, John M. Forbes, John Eliot Thayer and Louis A. Von Hoffman, mortgagees in the second of said above mentioned mortgages, have demanded that the possession of said Road and property covered by and included in said mortgage shall be delivered to them, and the said Louis A. Von Hoffman one of the said mortgagees, being here present in person, to receive the possession of said property for himself and his Co-mortgagees.

Now Therefore, This Indenture made this 27th day of May 1857 between the Quincy and Chicago (late Northern Cross) Rail Road Company of the first part and the said John M. Forbes, John Eliot Thayer and Louis A. Von Hoffman mortgagees and trustees in the second of the Mortgages hereinbefore mentioned and described, of the second part.

Witnesseth: That the said party of the first part for and in consideration of the premises aforesaid, and in order to carry out the purposes and intentions of the said mortgages and to provide for the payment of the several sums of money intended to be secured by the said mortgage and especially to provide for the payment of the interest now due, and which will accrue due on the bonds mentioned in said mortgages on the first day of July next, have transferred and delivered and by these presents do transfer and deliver to the said parties of the second part, and authorize and empower the said parties of the second part to enter upon and take possession of the said Quincy and Chicago Rail Road which runs from the city of Quincy on the Mississippi River to the town of Galesburg in Knox County Illinois, including the right of way and land occupied thereby together with the superstructures and track thereon, and all the rails and other materials used therein or procured therefor Bridges, Viaducts, Culverts, Fences, depot grounds and Buildings thereon, engines, tenders, cars, tools, materials, machinery, and all other property, real or personal pertaining to said Road, or the running and using thereof. Together with the tolls, rents or income to be had, levied or derived therefrom, and all franchises, rights and privileges of the said Rail Road Company of, in, to, or concerning the same. To have and to hold the same to the said parties of the second part and to the survivors or survivor of them and assigns to and for the uses and purposes contemplated and intended in and by the two mortgages hereinbefore mentioned and described.

And the said parties of the second part, for themselves and for the survivor or survivors of them covenant to and with the said party of the first part that they will as the attorneys in fact or agents of the said parties of the first part, by themselves or agents or substitutes duly constituted and appointed and in the name of the said party of the first part continue to use the said Road for the transportation of persons and property, and to use and apply all the property the possession of which is herein and hereby transferred to them, in its appropriate manner for running and operating said road according to the intention and purpose of its construction, and that they will collect the tolls, rents or income to be had and derived from said Road and apply said tolls, rents or income.

First. To the expenses of this trust, and to keeping said Road in operation and repair.

Second. To the payment of all taxes and assessments upon and against said Road, and the property pertaining and belonging thereto, and which is by this Instrument transferred into the possession and placed under the control of the said parties of the second part and to the payment and discharge of the local and operating indebtedness of said Road, and which said indebtedness is more particularly mentioned and described in a schedule this day delivered by the said party of the first part to the said parties of the second part, and amounting to about the sum of Forty thousand dollars.

Third. To the making of such alterations in, and additions to said Road as may, by the said parties of the second part, be deemed needful and expedient for the more convenient enjoyment and profitable use and occupation thereof.

Fourth. To the payment of all the coupons for interest, which now remain due and unpaid on the bonds mentioned and described in the said first mortgage, and all the interest which shall become due and payable on said bonds on the first day of July next.

And Whereas on the first day of November 1856 the Northern Cross Rail Road Company of the first part, and John Eliot Thayer and Louis A. Von Hoffman of the second part entered into an Indenture bearing date on the said first day of November 1856 whereby the said party of the first part, to secure to the said parties of the second part, the payment of certain bonds in said Indenture mentioned at the times and places, and in the manner and upon the terms and conditions in the said Indenture mentioned, mortgaged to the said parties of the second part, the Northern Cross Rail Road running from the City of Quincy on the Mississippi River to the Town of Galesburg in the State of Illinois, together with all their property of every kind and character real and personal, then existing or thereafter to be acquired in any way pertaining to, or connected with said Road all which will more fully and at large appear reference being had to said Indenture which is duly recorded in all the Counties through which the said Rail Road runs.

The said John M. Forbes, John Eliot Thayer and Louis A. Von Hoffman parties of the second part to this Indenture, do, therefore further covenant and agree to and with the said party of the first part, that if the said party of the first part shall at any time, become and be in default in the payment of interest which may become due and payable upon the bonds mentioned and described in the said third mortgage herein last mentioned, that then upon the request of the said John Eliot Thayer and Louis A. Von Hoffman mortgagees in the said third mortgage, they the said parties of the second part will deliver over to the said John Eliot Thayer and Louis A. Von Hoffman mortgagees in the said third mortgage or the survivor of them the possession and control of the said Road, and of all the property hereinbefore mentioned and described and which is hereby delivered over and transferred to the possession and control of the said parties of the second part, to be held and possessed by the said John Eliot Thayer and Louis A. Von Hoffman or the survivor of them upon the same terms and conditions, and with the same responsibilities, and for the same uses, and upon the same trusts, that the said Road and property hereby transferred and delivered over to and held by the said parties of the second part, and upon the further conditions that they the said John Eliot Thayer and Louis A. Von Hoffman will apply the tolls, rents, or income of said Road.

Fifth. To the payment of all the Coupons for interest which are now due and unpaid on the Bonds mentioned and described in the said second mortgage, and all interest which shall become due and payable on said Bonds on the first day of July next.

Sixth. To this payment of all interest which may accrue and become due on the bonds mentioned and described in the said third mortgage the object and intention being that all that portion of the earnings and proceeds of said Road which can be applied to the mortgage aforesaid shall be applied upon said first, second, and third mortgages according to the priority of their rights.

And it is further agreed by and between the parties hereto that if at any time after the payment of the second class of indebtedness herein provided for it shall happen that all interest which shall have become payable upon said mortgages shall be fully paid up and discharged so that no interest remains due and unpaid on said mortgages or any of them, and so that no default shall exist on the part of the said party of the first part in regard to interest upon any of said mortgages, then and in that event, the parties who may at that time have the possession of said Road and property, franchises and income, and be managing and controlling said Road and administering its affairs, shall re-deliver the said Road and the property hereinbefore mentioned and described, and all the appurtenances of the said Road, and all the property of every kind and character which may at the time belong to, or in any way be connected with the said Road, together with the franchises and income thereof to the said party of the first part to be held, used and administered by the party of the first part subject to all the rights which may exist in favor of any and all persons, under and by virtue of the provisions of the mortgages aforesaid or any of them.

And it is further agreed by and between the parties hereto that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to suspend, or in any way interfere with the rights of any person or persons to proceed to a foreclosure of any or all of the said mortgages hereinbefore mentioned.

In testimony whereof the Quincy and Chicago Rail Road Company have caused their President to subscribe his name and to affix the corporate seal of the Company hereto.

And the said parties of the second part in evidence of the acceptance of the trust by the said Deed created, have also hereunto subscribed their names and affixed their seals.

Trustees

Whereas the Quincy and Chicago Rail Road Company, (late the Northern Cross Rail Road Company) a corporation created and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Illinois, by reason of their default in the non-payment of the interest which became due on the first day of January last on their first and second mortgage bonds and their inability to provide for the interest to become due and payable on said bonds on the first day of July next, have at the request of the undersigned Trustees named in the said second mortgage and in pursuance of the provision therein contained transferred and delivered into the said Trustees as per their Deed bearing date the 27th day of May A. D. 1857 the possession of the said Quincy and Chicago Rail Road which runs from the city of Quincy on the Mississippi River to the town of Galesburg, Knoso County, Illinois including the right of way and land occupied thereby, together with the superstructure and track thereon and all the rails and other materials used therein or procured therefor, bridges, viaducts, culverts, fences, depot grounds and buildings thereon, engines, tenders, cars, tools, materials, machinery, and all other property real and personal pertaining to said Road on the running and using thereof together with the tolls, rents or income to be had, levied or derived therefrom and all franchises, rights and privileges of the said Rail Road Company of, in, to, or concerning the same, to have and to hold and use the same for the uses and purposes the said Deed mentioned.

Now Therefore know all men by these presents that we John M. Forbes and John Eliot Thayer of the city of Boston and Louis A. Von Hoffman of the city of New York, the Trustees named in the second mortgage in and by virtue of the power in and by the said mortgage and deed conferred upon us do hereby nominate, constitute and appoint Nehemiah Bushnell of the city of Quincy in the State of Illinois our true and lawful attorney in fact, and agent, and do also hereby substitute and depute the said Nehemiah Bushnell to be the lawful agent and sufficient attorney of the said Rail Road Company, with all and every power and authority in our and in each of our names and stead as our lawful agent and attorney in fact and substitute and in the name and stead of the said Rail Road Company as the lawful agent and attorney of the said Company, of acting in the same stead, and in the same manner and with the same extent of power, discretion and authority and for the same uses, and purposes granted to us in and by the said Deed of the 27th day of May A. D. 1857 and which we can lawfully exercise and delegate and with full power and authority as our general agent, attorney in fact and substitute to enter upon and have the charge, supervision and management of all the property and business of said Road committed to our possession and management in and by the said Deed, and the receipt, collection and disbursement of the rents, tolls, revenue and income to be had, levied or derived therefrom in the execution of the duties and trusts provided for in said Deed, and for that purpose to employ such officers, clerks, agents and others as he may deem needful and proper to in the transaction and carrying on of the business of said road and the accomplishment of the objects intended to be provided for by the said Deed and specified therein; and for that purpose our said agent, attorney in fact and substitute, is hereby authorized and empowered, in our names and in the name of each of us, and in the name, and as the agent and attorney of the said Rail Road Company as may be lawful, to execute and deliver any and all contracts, agreements, bonds and other instruments in writing with or without seal which may in his discretion be useful or proper in the execution of the powers, duties and business hereby conferred and delegated to him. Our said agent, attorney in fact and substitute to be accountable only for reasonable diligence in the management of the affairs hereby committed to him and not to be responsible for the acts of any officer, agent, clerk or other person employed by him when such officer, agent, clerk or other person shall be employed with reasonable discretion, hereby ratifying and confirming whatever our said attorney may lawfully do by virtue thereof and restricting the power hereby granted to such acts as we are legally authorized to perform by virtue of the said Deed.

In Witness whereof we have hereunto subscribed our names and affixed our Seals this 2nd day of June A. D. 1857.

SUPPLEMENTAL AGREEMENT, June 15, 1858 The Quincy and Chicago Railroad Company and Quincy and Toledo Railroad Company.

Memorandum of an Agreement made between the Quincy and Chicago late the Northern Cross Rail Road Company, of the first part and the Quincy and Toledo Rail Road Company of the second part this fifteenth day of June A. D. 1858.

Witnesseth Whereas a certain agreement was made and entered into between the party of the first part and James W. Singleton bearing date the 22nd day of July A. D. 1856 to facilitate the construction of a Rail Road between Camp Point and the Illinois River by the said James W. Singleton or his assigns and which contract has been assigned to the party of the second part hereto who is now engaged in the construction of said Road. Now Therefore in order to adapt the provisions of said agreement to the new relations established by a change of parties and to correct, change and modify certain of the provisions therein in a manner deemed just and equitable between the parties under existing circumstances it is by the parties hereto mutually agreed and understood.

FIRST. That so much of said agreement as relates to the time for the completion of the Road in said agreement described from Camp Point to the Illinois River be and the same is hereby modified and changed as to extend the time for the completion thereof to the 22nd day of March A. D. 1895 and the said contract as corrected, changed and modified by this Instrument shall have the same construction, force and effect as if it had by its original tenor provided for the completion of said Road at the time herein mentioned.

SECOND. That the articles in the said agreement numbered Eight, Ten and Eleven be and the same are hereby so modified and changed as to give to the said party of the first part forty-five dollars out of every one hundred dollars instead of forty dollars out every one hundred dollars and to the second party fifty-five dollars out of every one hundred dollars instead of Sixty dollars out of every one hundred dollars in the division of the revenues from the joint business provided for in said agreement.

THIRD. This agreement is hereby declared to be made by way of Supplement to the said agreement of the 22nd of July A. D. 1856, which remains in full force and effect in all its separate parts except so far as the same is corrected, changed or modified by this Instrument which is to be taken and construed in connection with the said original agreement in all cases affecting the right of the parties acquired under said contract and this Supplement thereto subsequent to the date hereof.

In Witness whereof the parties hereto have caused these presents to be subscribed and their Corporate Seals to be affixed by their proper officers the day and year first above written. N. BUSHNELL

Jones, John Van Nortwick and the Schenectady Locomotive Works, by their Attorneys and by agreement, judgment is entered against each and all of said Defendants, and the complainants are to have decree of sale against the mortgaged premises by the complainants, in their Bill of complaint mentioned and described for the amount of their mortgage and interest. And also came the Quincy and Toledo Railroad Company by their Attorneys, and this cause, coming on for hearing on Bill, answer, replication and proofs and the Court having heard the evidence and being advised in the premises, the Court entered the following decree herein for the sale of said mortgaged premises.

STATE OF ILLINOIS, }
COUNTY OF KNOX. } ss.

In the Knox County Circuit Court. Sitting in Chancery.

The Chicago Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company.

The Quincy & Chicago Railroad Company, the Quincy and Toledo Railroad Company, John M. Forbes, Louis A. Von Hoffman, Henry P. Kidder, Nathaniel Thayer, Morris Ketchum, John J. Knapp, Rowland G. Howland, Wm. C. Jones, John Van Nortwick and the Schenectady Locomotive Works.

The above entitled cause having this day been called for a final hearing upon the Bill of complaint, and the testimony taken and filed therein upon the stipulation of the complainant and the Quincy and Toledo Railroad Company, also filed in said cause, and upon the default of the other defendants, duly taken and entered therein, and it appearing to the satisfaction of this Court, that the said Defendant, the Quincy and Toledo Railroad Company (late the Northern Cross Railroad Company) did make and execute on the first day of July in the year of our Lord One Thousand, eight hundred and fifty-three, and deliver to John Elliott Thayer and Louis F. Von Hoffman, both since deceased, and the defendant John M. Forbes, as trustees for the holders of Bonds which might be issued thereunder, its certain indenture and deed of Trust or Mortgage bearing date the day and year last aforesaid, wherein it was witnessed: That the said Northern Cross Railroad Company as it was then styled but now the Quincy and Chicago Railroad Company in order to secure the payment of certain Bonds of the Northern Cross Railroad Company, then about to be issued by it to an amount in the aggregate of One Million, Two Hundred Thousand Dollars, of which Seven Hundred of the same were numbered from one to seven hundred, inclusive, and were for the sum of Five Hundred Dollars each, those numbered Seven Hundred and One to Thirteen Hundred, inclusive, were for the sum of One Thousand Dollars each, and those numbered from Thirteen Hundred and one to Thirteen Hundred and Ten inclusive, were for the sum of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars each, and were each of even date with said Indenture and payable, both principal and interest, at the Office of Duncan Sherman and Co., in the City of New York and the principal becoming due the first day of July in the year Eighteen Hundred and Seventy-three, and bearing interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of January and July in each year, until the principal should be paid, and in consideration of one dollar to it in hand paid, the receipt whereof was thereby acknowledged, have granted, bargained, sold, transferred and conveyed, and by the said Indenture did grant, bargain, sell, transfer and convey to the Trustees, and to their successors in the trust thereby created, and assigns all the following present and future to be acquired property of said Northern Cross Railroad Company, that is to say:

Their said road from Quincy on the Mississippi river to the town of Galesburg in the said State of Illinois made or to be made, including the right of way and land occupied thereby, together with the super-structure and track thereon, and all the rails and other materials used thereon or procured therefor, including all the iron, rails and other materials purchased or to be purchased or paid for with the above described bonds or the money obtained therefor, bridges, viaducts, culverts, fences, depot grounds and buildings thereon, engines, tenders, cars, tools, materials, machinery, contracts and other property, real and personal, pertaining to said road or to the using thereof, then owned or thereafter to be acquired and owned by said company together with the tolls, rents or income to be levied or derived therefrom, all franchises, rights and privileges of said Railroad Company, of, in, to or concerning the same, and also all bonds and mortgages, securities, evidences of debt, stock in other companies and all other valuable things received or thereafter to be received by said Railroad Company in payment of its stock.

To have and to hold the said premises and every part thereof with the appurtenances, to the said John M. Forbes, Louis Ferdinand Von Hoffman and John Elliott Thayer, trustees as aforesaid and to their successors in said trust and assigns upon the following trusts, that is to say: That if the said Northern Cross Railroad Company should fail to pay the principal or any part thereof, or any of the interest on any of said bonds, at any time when the same should become due and payable according to the tenor thereof, when demanded, then after sixty days from such default upon the request of the holder of said bond, the Trustees aforesaid, their successors in said trust and assigns, might enter and take possession of all or any part of said premises and as the attorneys in fact or agents of said Northern Cross Railroad Company, by themselves or agents or substitutes duly constituted, have, use and employ the same as the said Trustees, their successors in the said trust and assigns, at their discretion, might, or on the written request of the holders of at least ten per cent of the bonds then unpaid, shall cause the said premises or so much thereof as should be necessary to pay the principal and interest of all such of said bonds as might then be unpaid, to be sold at public Auction in the City of Boston, in the State of Massachusetts, or in the City of New York, giving at least Ninety days notice of the time and place and terms of such sale, and of the specific property to be sold, by publishing the same in two Newspapers in good circulation in each of said Cities, and also in the City of Chicago, and also in three newspapers if there be so many in good circulation in the City of Quincy, and to execute to the purchaser or purchasers thereof a good and sufficient deed of conveyance in fee simple for the same, which should be a bar against the said Northern Cross Railroad Company, their successors and assigns, and all persons claiming under them of all right, interest or claim in and to said premises or any part thereof.

And it further appearing to the satisfaction of this Court, that said bonds, to the amount of Twelve Hundred Thousand Dollars, were made and issued by the said Northern Cross Railroad Company, under the security of the said Indenture of Mortgage or Deed of Trust to the said Louis Ferdinand Von Hoffman, John Elliott Thayer and John M. Forbes, and are now outstanding and unpaid, and that no interest on said bonds has been paid since the first day of July, Eighteen Hundred and Fifty-seven, and that the amount now due therefor, principal and interest, is the sum of One Million Eight Hundred and Seventy Nine Thousand, One Hundred and Eight Dollars and twenty-six cents.

And it further appearing from the account taken of the receipts and disbursements of the Trustees in possession of the property described in said deed of trust, that there is remaining in their hands a balance of Twenty-four Thousand, Five Hundred and Seventy-one Dollars and Seventy-three cents to the credit of the said Company, as of September 1st, 1863, and applicable to the payment of interest on said Bonds, which amount, it appears from said accounts, and the testimony in this case has been deducted from the aggregate amount of principal and interest stated to be due upon said Bonds, and leaving the amount as above stated, of Eighteen Hundred and Seventy-nine Thousand, One Hundred and Eight Dollars and Twenty-six cents, due and unpaid. And it further appearing to the court that the said Northern Cross Railroad Company on the Twenty-ninth day of November, Eighteen Hundred and fifty-four, did in due form execute, acknowledge and deliver to the said trustees, Louis Ferdinand Von Hoffman, John Elliott Thayer and John M. Forbes, as such Trustees, as aforesaid, and to their successors in said trust and assigns, a deed of confirmation of the aforesaid Indenture, thereby further assuring to them, the said Trustees, their successors in said trust and assigns, the above described property, and all property by said Company subsequently acquired for the uses and purposes, and upon the trusts in the aforesaid deed of trust or mortgage created, specified and declared. And it further appearing to the satisfaction of this Court, that the said John Elliott Thayer, and the said Louis Ferdinand Von Hoffman, after the execution and delivery to them of the aforesaid indenture and before the commencement of this suit, departed this life, leaving the said John M. Forbes the sole surviving Trustee in the said mortgage and deed of trust, and that the said defendants Louis A. Von Hoffman and Nathaniel Thayer, before the institution of this suit had been appointed and continued trustees respectively in the vacancies created by the decease of the said Louis Ferdinand Von Hoffman and John Elliott Thayer, by the said Northern Cross Railroad Company, and the said John M. Forbes as survivor, in accordance with the provisions for that purpose in the said Trust Deed or Mortgage contained.

And it also appearing that it was stipulated and agreed in the said trust deed or indenture of mortgage that it was expressly agreed by the said Northern Cross Railroad Company, that in no case should any claim or advantage be taken of any valuation, appraisement or extension laws by said company, and it further appearing that the authority of the Legislature of the State of Illinois, the name of the said Northern Cross Railroad Company has been changed to that of the Quincy and Chicago Railroad Company, and that the said Quincy and Chicago Railroad Company is now and has long been wholly insolvent and unable to pay its debts.

Now therefore, this cause having been fully heard upon the agreement of counsel for the said complainants, and also on behalf of the said defendant, the Quincy and Toledo Railroad Company all the other defendants having made default and not being heard, it is ordered, adjudged and decreed, and this court by the power in it vested, doth order, adjudge and decree that all and singular, the said mortgaged premises mentioned and described in the said Bill of complaint and hereinafter particularly set forth and described, be sold at public Auction to the highest bidder for cash under the direction of one of the Masters in this Court, unless previous to such sale the defendants or some of them pay to the Solicitors of the said complainant or to the said Master the said sum of One Million Eight Hundred and Seventy-nine Thousand, One Hundred and Eight Dollars and Twenty-six cents, that being the amount which this court doth adjudge and decree to be due and unpaid upon the said Twelve Hundred Thousand Dollars of Bonds issued under and secured by the said Mortgage or Deed of Trust for principal and interest together, with the interest thereon from the date of September 30th, 1863. And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the said sale be made in the County of Knox and State of Illinois, at any time after thirty days from the date of this decree, and that the Master give four weeks previous notice of the time and place of said sale by a publication of said notice in a Newspaper printed at Knoxville aforesaid; that the complainant or any of the Bondholders or any of the parties to this suit may become the purchaser or purchasers at such sale; that the Master execute and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers at such sale the usual certificate of sale and at the expiration of the time for the redemption of said premises provided for by the statute the Masters Deed for said premises in accordance with the rules and practice of this court and of the provisions of the statute in such case made and provided, unless said premises shall have been previously redeemed according to law, and that the said Master out of the proceeds of such sale retain his fees, disbursements and commissions on said sale, and pay the complainant or its solicitor, first, the costs of suit, secondly, that he pay to the said complainant or its solicitor, and the other holders of the bonds issued under and secured by said indenture of mortgage or deed of trust, the amount due them respectively, for principal and interest, upon the bonds held by them, if the said proceeds shall be sufficient to pay the same in full, and if not, then pro rata, according to the number and amount of said bonds held by them respectively, and that the Master take receipt for the amounts so paid, and file the same with his report, and that he bring the surplus moneys arising from said sale, if any there should be into this court without delay, to abide the further order of this court.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the said defendants, and each of them, and all persons claiming under them or any of them, and all persons having a lien or incumbrance of any form subsequent to the date of the said mortgage or deed of trust, by contract, judgment, decree or otherwise, upon the premises and property described in and covered by the said mortgage or deed of trust hereby foreclosed, and his or their heirs and successors and personal representatives and all persons claiming under them or any of them be forever barred and foreclosed of all and from all equity of redemption and claims of, in and to the said mortgaged and deeded premises and every part and parcel thereof.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the purchaser or purchasers at such sale and those claiming under such purchaser or purchasers at the expiration of the time for redemption of said premises, and upon the production of the Master's deed for said premises and a certificate from the Clerk of this court, after the report of said sale shall have been confirmed, that the same has been confirmed according to the course and practice of this court, be let into the possession of said mortgaged premises and that any and every of the parties to this suit who may be in possession of the same or of any part thereof and all persons and parties who, since the commencement of this suit, have come into possession of the same or any part thereof, deliver possession thereof to such purchaser or purchasers.

The description and particular boundaries of the property and premises authorized and required to be sold under this decree as set forth in the said mortgage or deed of trust and described in the said bill of complaint are as follows, to wit;

The Road of the said Quincy and Chicago Railroad Company (late the Northern Cross Railroad Company) from the City of Quincy on the Mississippi River to the Town of Galesburg in the State of Illinois, made or to be made, including the right of way and land occupied thereby, together with the superstructure and tracks thereon, and all the rails and other materials used therein or procured therefor, including all the iron rails and other materials purchased or to be purchased or paid for with the above described Bonds or the money obtained therefor, bridges, viaducts, culverts, fences, depot grounds and buildings thereon, engines, tenders, cars, tools, materials, machinery contracts and all other property, real or personal, pertaining to said Road, or the using thereof, now owned or hereafter to be acquired and owned by said Company, together with the tolls, rents or income to be had, levied, or derived therefrom, all franchises, rights and privileges of the said Railroad Company of, in, to or concerning the same, and also all bonds and mortgages, securities, evidence of debt, stock in other companies and all other valuable things received or hereafter to be received by said Railroad Company in payment of their stock, being, as described in said mortgage, the entire property of said corporation.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the said trustees in possession of said mortgaged property do on or before the time of said sale pay to the Master, or to the solicitor of said complainant; the said sum of Twenty-four Thousand, Five Hundred and Seventy-one Dollars and Seventy-three cents to be distributed among the holders of said bonds secured by said mortgage or deed of trust in the manner provided for in this decree for the distribution of the proceeds of the said Master's sale of the mortgaged property.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that said Master after the making of said sale do ascertain the holders of said bonds and the numbers and amounts held by them respectively and in case any of said bondholders fail to appear and make their claim for their share of the proceeds of said sale and of the moneys ordered to be paid to the said Master or to the complainant's solicitor under this decree, that then the said Master will report such fact to this court, and bring into this court such unclaimed share or shares, without delay, to abide the further order of this court.

forenoon of that day the premises and property described in the Mortgage Deed of the Northern Cross Railroad Company to John M. Forbes, John Elliott Thayer and Louis Ferdinand Von Hoffman Trustees, of the date of July 1st 1853, the description of which in said Mortgage is as follows: to-wit:

““The railroad of the Northern Cross Railroad Company” (Now the Quincy & Chicago Railroad Company), ‘from the City of Quincy on the Mississippi River to the Town of Galesburg in the said State of Illinois made or to be made including the right of way and land occupied thereby together with the superstructure and tracks thereon and all the rails and other materials used thereon or procured therefor including all the iron, rails and other materials purchased or to be purchased or paid for with the above described bonds or the money obtained therefor, bridges, viaducts, culverts, fences, depot grounds and buildings thereon, Engines, Tenders, Cars, Tools, Materials, Machinery, Contracts, and all other property real or personal pertaining to said Road or the using therefor, now owned or hereafter to be acquired and owned by said Company. Together with the Tolls, rents or income to be had, levied or derived therefrom, all franchises, rights and privileges of the said Railroad Company of, in, to or concerning the same; and also, all bonds and mortgages, securities, evidences of debt, stock in other Companies, and all the valuable things received or hereafter to be received by said Railroad Company in payment of their said stock being as described in said Mortgage the entire property of said Corporation,' and that the suit in which the said decree was made was brought to foreclose the first Mortgage on the Quincy and Chicago (late the Northern Cross) Railroad, that at said sale the said Complainant or any other of the bondholders secured by said Mortgage or any of the parties to said suit, will in virtue of the provisions of said decree be entitled to bid.

"Notice is also hereby given that it is provided in said decree that at said sale the Master shall deliver to the purchaser or purchasers of said premises the usual certificate of sale and at the expiration of the time for the redemption of said premises provided for by law, the Master's deed for the said premises unless the same shall have been before that time redeemed according to law, and that the purchaser or purchasers at such sale and those claiming under such purchaser or purchasers at the expiration of the time for the redemption of said premises provided by law, on production of the Master's Deed and a certificate from the clerk of said court that the Master's report of said sale has been confirmed according to the rules and practice of said Court, shall be let into the possession of said Mortgaged premises and that any and every of the parties to said suit who may be in the possession of the same or any part thereof, and all persons, who subsequent to the commencement of said suit have come into the possession of the same or any part thereof, deliver possession thereof to such purchaser or purchasers.

"It is also in said decree provided that the defendants and each of them and all persons claiming under them or any of them and all persons having a lien or incumbrance in any form subsequent to the date of said Mortgage by Contract, Judgment decree or otherwise upon the premises or property described in and covered by said mortgage should be thereby foreclosed and his or their heirs successors and personal representatives and all persons claiming under them or any of them should be forever barred and foreclosed of and from all equity of redemption and claims of, in and to the said Mortgaged premises and every part and parcel thereof, which said notice was then so given by publishing the same in the Knox Republican a Newspaper published in said County for four successive weeks before said day of sale as will now fully appear by the printers and publishers certificate of publication hereto attached.

That I did on the 28th day of April A. D. 1864 at the hour of Nine o'clock in the forenoon at the front door to-wit, the South door of the Court House in the City of Knoxville in said Knox County by virtue of said Decree and in pursuance of said notice, sell at public vendee together and as an entirety the following described land and property to-wit:

The premises and property described in the Mortgage of the Northern Cross Railroad Company to John M. Forbes, John Elliott Thayer and Louis Ferdinand Von Hoffman, Trustees of the date of July 1, 1853 the description of which in said Mortgage is as follows to-wit:

"The Railroad of the Northern Cross Railroad Company (now the Quincy & Chicago Railroad Company) from the City of Quincy on the Mississippi River to the Town of Galesburg in the said State of Illinois made or to be made including the right of way and land occupied thereby, together with the superstructures and tracks thereon and all the rails and other materials used therein and procured therefor including all the iron, rails and other materials purchased or to be purchased or paid for with the above described Bonds or the money obtained therefor bridges, viaducts, culverts, fences, depot grounds and buildings thereon, Engines, Tenders, Cars, Tools, Materials, Machinery, Contracts and all other property real or personal pertaining to said Road or the using thereof, now owned or hereafter to be acquired and owned by said Company, together with the tolls, rents or income to be had levied or derived therefrom, all franchises, rights and privileges of the said Railroad Company of, in, to or concerning the same, and also all bonds and mortgages, securities, evidences of debt, stock in other Companies and all the valuable things received or hereafter to be received by said Railroad Company in payment of their stock being as described in said Mortgage the entire Stock of said Corporation" to said Chicago, Burlington & Quincy R. R. Company said complainant, for the sum of Eight Hundred and fifty thousand Dollars which was the highest and best bid made for said premises.

That I then executed and delivered to said Complainant The Chicago Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company a certificate of purchase for the premises so purchased by it, which in the usual form of Certificates of purchase made by me as Master in Chancery.

That out of the proceeds of said sale I first paid to J. M. Walker Complainants Solicitor the costs of this suit amounting to the sum of $90.20. That I retained for my fees and Commission in this suit as Master in Chancery the sum of $400. That I paid to Beatty & Robinson, publishers for advertising Notices of Sale in this Case, the sum of $109.00 making in all the sum of $599.20 which being deducted from the sum of Eight hundred and fifty-thousand dollars leaves the sum of Eight Hundred and forty nine thousand and four hundred dollars and eighty cents, to be distributed among the bondholders of said Bonds, That said complainant, The Chicago Burlington & Quincy Rail Road Company own and hold all of the bonds mentioned in said Decree of sale except Eight of said Bonds of $1,000, owned by parties unknown to me as appears of the affidavit of J. F. Joy herewith filed. The Trustees of the Bondholders have paid to me $169.54 the amount of the $24,571.73 and interest on same which the owners of the eight outstanding Bonds are entitled to draw under said Decree.

Complainant has also paid to me the sum of $5,670.67 the amount of the purchase money, less the costs, belonging to the owners of said Eight outstanding bonds, which said sums of money so paid to me, I herewith bring into Court subject to the further order of this Court.

MASTER'S DEED—July 30, 1865 to Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company.

No. 44684.

Filed for Record November 9th A.D. 1865 at 10 A.M.

This Indenture, made this thirtieth day of July in the year of our Lord One Thousand, Eight Hundred and Sixty-five, between Edward P. Williams of Galesburg, in the County of Knox, and State of Illinois, Master in Chancery of the Knox County Circuit Court in and for said County of Knox and State of Illinois, successor in said office of Patrick H. Sanford, former Master in Chancery of said Court, who made sale of the premises hereinafter described and conveyed, on the 28th day of April A.D. 1864, party of the first part and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, a corporation duly incorporated and organized under and by virtue of the Laws of the State of Illinois, party of the second part.

Whereas, at a session of the Circuit Court of Knox County held in the Court House at Knoxville in the said County of Knox and State of Illinois, at the September Term of said Court, towit:—on the twenty-ninth day of September in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, it was among other things ordered, adjudged and decreed by said Court in a certain cause then pending in said Court on the Chancery side thereof, between the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, Complainant, and against the Quincy and Chicago Railroad Company, The Quincy and Toledo Railroad Company, John M. Forbes, Louis A. Von Hoffman, Henry P. Kidder, Nathaniel Thayer, Morris Ketchum, John J. Knapp, Rowland G. Howland, William C. Jones, John Van Nortwick and the Schenectady Locomotive Works, Defendants, that the said Defendants or some of them pay to said Complainant or to its solicitors the sum of one million, eight hundred and seventy-nine thousand one hundred and eight $26/100$,—that being the amount adjudged to be due upon and secured by the mortgage, to foreclose which said suit was instituted, within thirty days from the date of said decree, and that in default of such payment that said mortgaged premises or so much of them as might be necessary be sold at public vendue at the front door of the Court House in the City of Knoxville in said County of Knox by and under the direction of the Master of said Court, the said Master first having given notice of the time and place and terms of said sale as required by law.

And Whereas the said Patrick H. Sanford, the then Master in Chancery of said Court, in pursuance of said order and decree of the said Court of Chancery did, on the twenty-eighth day of April A.D. 1864 sell at public Auction at the front door of the Court House in the City of Knoxville in said County of Knox the said mortgaged premises hereinafter particularly described, having first given previous notice of the time, place and terms of Sale, as required by Law, at which Sale the said premises were struck off to the said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, the said party of the second part to these presents, for the sum of Eight Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($850,000.), that being the highest sum bid for the same.

And Whereas more than fifteen months have elapsed since the said Sale was made and the said premises have not nor any part thereof been redeemed, and the time for such redemption having now expired and the said second party in virtue of said decree and under the laws of the said State of Illinois being entitled to a Deed of said premises hereinafter more particularly described:

Now Therefore, this indenture witnesseth, That the said Edward P. Williams, Master in Chancery as aforesaid, and party of the first part to these presents, in order to carry into effect the said sale so made as aforesaid in pursuance of the said decree and also by virtue of the statute in such case made and provided, and in consideration of the premises and of the said sum of Eight Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars paid by the said party of the second part to the said Patrick H. Sanford, former Master in Chancery of said Court, the receipt whereof is hereby confessed and acknowledged, hath granted, bargained and sold, aliened, released, conveyed and confirmed, and by these presents doth grant, bargain and sell alien, release, convey and confirm unto the said party of the second part and to its successors and assigns forever all and singular those certain premises, railroad and property situated in the State of Illinois and described as follows, to wit:

The Railroad of the Northern Cross Railroad Company (now the Quincy and Chicago Railroad Company) from the City of Quincy on the Mississippi River to the Town of Galesburg in the State of Illinois, made or to be made, including the right of way and land occupied thereby, together with the superstructure and tracks thereon and all the rails and other materials used therein or procured therefor, including all the iron rails and other materials purchased or to be purchased or paid for with the above described bonds or the money obtained therefor, bridges, viaducts, culverts, fences, depot-grounds and buildings thereon, engines, tenders, cars, tools, materials, machinery, contracts and all other property, real or personal, pertaining to said road or the using thereof, now owned or hereafter to be acquired and owned by said Company, together with the tolls, rents or income to be had, levied or derived therefrom, all franchises, rights and privileges of said Railroad Company of, in, to or concerning the same, and also all bonds and mortgages, securities, evidences of debt, stock in other companies, and all other valuable things received or hereafter to be received by said Railroad Company in payment of their stock, being, as described in said mortgage, the entire property of said corporation. Together with all and singular the rights, titles, franchises, privileges, hereditaments and appurtenances to the same belonging or in anywise appertaining.

To Have And To Hold the said premises above described and hereby intended to be granted and conveyed unto the said party of the second part, its successors and assigns, to its and their proper use and benefit forever.

In Witness Whereof, the said party of the first part, Master in Chancery, as aforesaid has hereunto set his hand and seal the day and year first above written.

THE QUINCY RAIL ROAD BRIDGE COMPANY

The Railroad Bridge at Quincy was originally built by a private corporation. The first movement in that direction was in 1853, by citizens of Quincy who, of date February 10, 1853, secured a Special Act of the Illinois Legislature authorizing Nehemiah Bushnell and others to incorporate by the name of "The Railroad Bridge Company," and to build a railroad bridge at Quincy, with power to unite and consolidate its franchise and property with any railroad company or bridge company in Illinois or Missouri, and to sell or lease the bridge, which was to be completed within six years.

Of date February 15, 1865, the Act of 1853 was "revived and re-enacted," and the time limit for completing the bridge was extended five years.

In 1866, the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Company, having acquired the Northern Cross Road from Galesburg to Quincy, and desiring to connect with the Hannibal & St. Joseph Road, which was then being completed to Kansas City, authorized James F. Joy to acquire from Bushnell and others the franchise for a bridge which had been granted to them by the Illinois Legislature.

The assignment of this franchise was of date November 18, 1866, to James F. Joy and Warren Colburn, as individuals.

Meantime, legislation was necessary in the State of Missouri.

By an Act of the Missouri Legislature approved March 19, 1866, the powers and duties of corporations were prescribed, and by another Act approved on the same date, corporations for the purpose of constructing bridges over streams or any part of streams within the State, were authorized, with power to issue bonds and to consolidate with any other Bridge Company.

Following this, a Bridge Company was formed by citizens of Marion County, Missouri, under Articles of Incorporation dated March 28, 1866, with the name "The Quincy Bridge Company."

The Company in Illinois and that in Missouri both having power to consolidate, proceeded at once to adopt Articles of Consolidation between The Railroad Bridge Company of Illinois and The Quincy Bridge Company of Missouri. These Articles were dated November 20, 1866, being signed on behalf of the Illinois Company by James F. Joy and Warren Colburn, Assignees of the Franchise of that Company. The name adopted for the consolidated Company was "The Quincy Rail Road Bridge Company."

Meantime, of date July 25, 1866, an Act of Congress was passed which provided as follows:

"It shall be lawful for any person or persons, company or corporation, having authority from the States of Illinois and Missouri for such purposes, to build a bridge across the Mississippi River at Quincy, Illinois, and to lay on and over said bridge, railway tracks, for the more perfect connection of any railroads that are or shall be constructed to the said river at or opposite said point."

Of date June 15, 1866, Congress also passed an Act that all railroads and bridges operated between two states were declared to be post roads.

Work was begun on the Bridge in January, 1867, and it was opened for traffic November 9, 1868.

Doubt having arisen regarding the legality of the acts of Joy and Colburn, the Legislature of Illinois, by an Act approved February 8, 1867, legalized and confirmed the consolidation.

Of date November 20, 1866, The Quincy Rail Road Bridge Company made a joint Lease of its bridge to the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, the Toledo, Wabash and Western, and the Hannibal and St. Joseph Companies, giving to said railroad companies full charge of the construction and operation of the bridge.

Of date January 1, 1869, a Lease of the Bridge, in perpetuity, was made to the same three Railroad Companies for an annual rental of $175,000, and of date July 1, 1873, a Supplemental Agreement was made between the same parties.

The Bridge was operated from the date of its completion in 1868, until February 1, 1875, by the three railroad companies named, as joint lessees, at which time the Wabash Company dropped out, and from that time until July 1, 1900, it was operated by the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy and the Hannibal & St. Joseph, as joint tenants. From July 1, 1900 to December 1, 1903, it was operated by the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy as sole lessee, and since that time by that Company as owner, conveyance having been made to it by deed in fee simple of that date.

Pursuant to a resolution of the directors, of date October 7, 1897, the work of rebuilding the Quincy Bridge was undertaken by the lessors. Work was commenced in July, 1897, and the new bridge was completed (except the draw-span) on June 18, 1898. Work was discontinued in 1898 and resumed late in 1901 and work entirely completed in the fall of 1902.

Under authority and permission of the War Department, seven of the spans at the east end of the bridge were filled and not rebuilt. A highway attachment was included in the reconstruction of the bridge, this being opened September 10, 1899. In connection with the reconstruction of the bridge, the Burlington Company changed the approach on the east by building an additional track, 1.78 miles in length, commencing at the east end of the main bridge and extending thence in a southerly direction across Bay and Tow Head Islands, and crossing Quincy Bay on a new bridge at the south end of the last named island, thence to a connection with the former lines in the city of Quincy. This line was constructed under a contract and agreement with the city of Quincy.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved February 10, 1853.

AN ACT to incorporate the Quincy Bridge Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Nehemiah Bushnell, Samuel Holmes, John Wood and James M. Pitman, their associates, successors, heirs and assigns, be and they are hereby created a body corporate, by the name and style of "The Railroad Bridge Company", with power to build, maintain and use a railroad bridge over the Mississippi river, or that portion within the jurisdiction of the State of Illinois at or near Quincy, in such manner as shall not materially obstruct or interfere with the free navigation of said river, and to connect by railroad or otherwise such bridge with any railroad, either in the State of Illinois or Missouri.

terminating at or near said point, to unite and consolidate its franchises and property with any and all bridge or railroad companies, in either of said States; to fix the amount of capital stock; to divide, transfer and increase the same; to borrow money and pledge or mortgage its property and franchises; to condemn, according to law, property for the uses and purposes of said company; to contract bargain and agree with any such railroad companies for and in the construction and maintenance of such bridge; to sell or lease said bridge or the use of the same, or the franchises of said company, to any companies or corporations: Provided, that said company shall commence said bridge within three years, and shall complete the same within six years from the passage of this act.

§ 2. This act to take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

APPROVED February 10, 1853.

ACT OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MISSOURI

Approved March 19th, 1866.

THE LAWS OF MISSOURI.

AN ACT CONCERNING PRIVATE CORPORATIONS.

CHAPTER 69.

OF THEIR GENERAL POWERS AND LIABILITIES.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

SECTION 1. Every corporation, as such, has power: first, to have succession by its corporate name, for the period limited in its charter, and when no period is limited, for twenty years; second, to sue and be sued, complain and defend, in any court of law or equity; third, to make and use a common seal, and alter the same at pleasure; fourth, to hold, purchase, mortgage or otherwise convey such real and personal estate as the purposes of the corporation shall require, not exceeding the amount limited in its charter, or the law creating it, and also to take, hold and convey such other property, real, personal, or mixed, as shall be necessary or requisite for such corporation to acquire in order to obtain or secure the payment of any indebtedness or liability belonging to the corporation; fifth, to appoint such subordinate officers and agents as the business of the corporation shall require, and to allow them a suitable compensation; sixth, to make by-laws, not inconsistent with existing law, for the management of its property, the regulation of its affairs, and for the transfer of its stock; seventh, to increase or diminish, (by a vote of its stockholders, cast as its by-laws may direct) the number of its directors or trustees to not less than three nor more than thirteen, and may in like manner change its corporate name without anywise affecting its rights, privileges or liabilities; such changes of name or number of directors or trustees shall take effect and be in force from the date at which the president or secretary of such corporation shall file with the Secretary of State an affidavit setting forth the name adopted or the number of directors or trustees fixed, together with the date at which such change in name or number of directors or trustees was voted by the stockholders of such corporation.

§ 2. Whenever any corporation shall be organized under the laws of this State, it shall be the duty of the officers of said corporation to file with the Secretary of State a copy of the articles of association or incorporation, and a corporate existence of such corporation shall date from the time of filing such copy of such articles, and a certificate of the Secretary of State, under the seal of the State, that said corporation has become duly organized, shall be taken by all courts of this State as evidence of a corporate existence of such corporation. Any private or public corporation may increase its capital stock to any amount, not exceeding double the amount of their authorized capital, by holding an election of the stockholders in conformity with the by-laws thereof, and if at such election a majority of the stockholders shall vote for the increase of stock, the same may be increased by a vote of the board of directors, trustees or other business managers of such corporation, and upon such increase of stock being made in accordance with the by-laws, the date, amount and subscription for such new stock shall be returned to the office of Secretary of State, and from the time the same is filed the increase of stock shall become a part of the capital thereof.

§ 3. The powers enumerated in the preceding section shall vest in every corporation that shall hereafter be created or organized.

§ 4. In addition to the powers enumerated in the first section of this chapter, and to those expressly given in its charter, or in the act under which it is incorporated, no corporation shall possess or exercise any corporate powers, except such as shall be necessary to the exercise of the powers enumerated or given.

§ 5. When the corporate powers of any corporation are directed, by its charter, or the provisions of this law, to be exercised by any particular body or number of persons, a majority of such body or persons, if it be not otherwise provided in the charter or law creating it, shall be a sufficient number to form a board for the transaction of business, and every decision of a majority of the persons duly assembled as a board, shall be valid as a corporate act.

§ 6. Parol contracts may be binding upon aggregate corporations, if made by an agent, duly authorized by a corporate vote, or under the general regulations of the corporation, and contracts may be implied, on the part of such corporations, from their corporate acts, or those of an agent whose powers are of a general character.

§ 7. The first meeting of all corporations shall, unless otherwise provided for in their acts of incorporation, be called by a notice, signed by some one or more of the persons named as incorporators in the act of incorporation, and setting forth the time, place and purposes of the meeting; and such notice shall, seven days at least before the meeting, be delivered to each member, or published in some newspaper of the county where the corporation may be established, or if there be no such newspaper, then in the nearest newspaper.

§ 8. Whenever, for want of sufficient by-laws for the purpose, or of officers duly authorized, or from the neglect or refusal of such officers, or from other legal impediments, a legal meeting of any corporation cannot otherwise be called, any justice of the peace in the county where it is desirable to hold such meeting, or where such corporation is established, if it be local, may, on a written application of two or more members thereof, issue a warrant to either of said members, directing him to call a meeting of such corporation, by giving such notice as is required in the preceding section.

§ 9. Whenever any meeting of any corporation shall be called, by warrant from a justice of the peace, the person to whom such warrant is directed may call the meeting to order, and preside therein, until a presiding officer is chosen and qualified, if there be no officer present whose duty it may be to preside.

§ 10. When all the members of a corporation shall be present at any meeting, however called or notified, and shall sign a written consent thereto on the record of such meeting, the acts of such meeting shall be as valid as if legally called and notified.

§ 11. If any execution shall have been issued against the property or effects of a corporation, and if there cannot be found whereon to levy such execution, then such execution may be issued against any of the stockholders to an extent equal in amount to the amount of stock by him or her owned, together with any amount unpaid thereon; Provided always, that no execution shall issue against any stockholder except upon an order of the court in which the action, suit or other proceeding shall have been brought or instituted, made upon motion in open court after sufficient notice in writing to the persons sought to be charged; and upon such motion, such court may order execution to issue accordingly.

§ 12. The clerk or other officer having charge of the books of any corporation, on demand of any officer holding any execution against the same, shall furnish the officer with the names, places of residence, (so far as to him known,) and the amount of liability of every person liable as aforesaid.

§ 13. The board of directors, trustees or other body of persons lawfully exercising the corporate powers of any corporation, may require the subscribers to the capital stock of the company to pay the amount by them respectively subscribed in such manner, and in such installments as may be required by the by-laws. If any stockholder shall neglect to pay any installment, as required by a resolution of the board of directors, or persons exercising the corporate powers of such corporation, the directors or other persons exercising such corporate powers, may declare his stock and all previous payments forfeited to the use of the company; but no stock shall be forfeited until they shall have caused a notice in writing to be served on him personally, or by depositing the same in the postoffice, (properly directed to him, at the postoffice nearest his usual place of residence,) stating that he is required to make such payment, at the time and place specified in said notice, and that, if he fails to make the same, his stock, and all previous payments thereon, will be forfeited for the use of the company, which notice may be served as aforesaid, at least sixty days previous to the day on which such payment is required to be made.

§ 14. The stock of every company formed under this act, shall be deemed personal estate, and shall be transferable in the manner prescribed by the laws of the company; but no shares shall be transferred until all previous calls thereon shall have been fully paid in.

§ 15. That all bodies corporate, by any suit at law, in any court in this State, may sue for, recover and receive, from their respective members, all arrears or other debts, dues and other demands which now are, or hereafter may be owing to them, in the like mode, manner and form, as they might sue for, recover and receive the same from any person who might not be one of their body, any law, usage or custom to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

§ 16. If the directors of any corporation shall knowingly declare and pay any dividend when the corporation is insolvent, or any dividend, the payment of which would render it insolvent, they shall be jointly and severally liable for all the debts of the corporation then existing, and for all that shall be thereafter contracted, as long as they shall respectively continue in office; Provided, that the amount for which they shall all be so liable, shall not exceed the amount of such dividend; and that if any of the directors shall be absent at the time of making the dividend, or shall object thereto, and shall file their objection, in writing, with the clerk, or other officer of the corporation having charge of the books, they shall be exempted from the said liability.

§ 17. Any corporation incorporated by any other State or country, and having property in this State, shall be liable to be sued, and the property of the same shall be subject to attachment in the same manner as individuals, residents of other States or countries, and having property, are now liable to be sued and their property subject to be attached; Provided, that all railroad companies who own and operate roads terminating opposite to the city of St. Louis, and whose chief office or place of business is in the city of St. Louis, shall be sued in the same manner, and no other, that railroad companies chartered by the laws of this State are now sued.

§ 18. That it shall be lawful for any corporation to convey lands by deed, sealed with the common seal of said corporation, and signed by the president or presiding member or trustee of said corporation; and such deed, when acknowledged by such officer to be the act of the corporation, or proved in the usual form prescribed for other conveyances for lands, shall be recorded in the recorder's office of the county where the land lies, in like manner with other deeds.

§ 19. Upon the dissolution of any corporation, already created, or which may hereafter be created, by the laws of this State, the president and directors, or managers of the affairs of said corporation, at the time of its dissolution, by whatever name they may be known in law, shall be trustees of such corporation, with full powers to settle the affairs, collect the outstanding debts, and divide the moneys and other property among the stockholders, after paying the debts due and owing by such corporation, at the time of its dissolution, as far as such money and property will enable them; to sue for and recover such debts and property, by the name of the trustees of such corporation, describing it by its corporate name; and may be sued by the same; and such trustees shall be jointly and severally responsible to the creditors and stockholders of such corporation to the extent of its property and effects that shall have come in their hands.

§ 20. If any company formed under this act dissolve, leaving debts unpaid, suits may be brought against any person or persons who were stockholders at the time of such dissolution, without joining the company in such suit; and if judgment be rendered and execution satisfied, the defendant or defendants may sue all who were stockholders at the time of dissolution, for the recovery of the portion of such debt for which they were liable, and the execution upon the judgment shall direct the collection to be made from property of each stockholder respectively; and if any number of stockholders (defendants in the case) shall not have property enough to satisfy his or their portion of the execution, then the amount of deficiency shall be divided equally amongst all the remaining stockholders, and collections made accordingly, deducting from the amount a sum in proportion to the amount of stock owned by the plaintiff at the time the company dissolved.

§ 21. No charter of any corporation, granted by the Legislature of this State, shall be altered, suspended or repealed by such Legislature, unless proof be made satisfactory to the Legislature that notice of such proposed alteration, suspension or repeal has been given to the president and secretary of such corporation, for at least one month before the time at which such alteration, suspension or repeal will be proposed.

§ 22. A failure to elect directors on the day designated in the by-laws of any company incorporated under the laws of this State, shall not have the effect of dissolving such incorporated company.

§ 23. In all actions which may be instituted against any corporation or incorporated company, it shall be sufficient to issue a summons, commanding the corporation by their corporate name, to appear and answer the action; which summons shall be directed as provided by this chapter, and returnable in like manner, and subject to the same rules and regulations as the like process in the case of individuals.

§ 24. When any such summons shall be issued against any banking or other incorporated company, service on the president or other chief officer of such company, or in his absence, by leaving a copy thereof at any business office of said company with the person having charge thereof, shall be deemed a sufficient service; and if the corporation have no business office in the county where suit is brought, or if no person shall be found in charge thereof, and the president and chief officer cannot be found in such county, a summons shall be issued directed to the sheriff of any county in this State where the president or chief officer of such company may reside or be found, or where any office or place of business may be kept of such company, and the service thereof shall be the same as above.

§ 25. On the return of such summons, served as aforesaid, the officer serving the same shall express in his return on whom, how and when the same had been executed; and if not on the chief officer, he shall express the absence of such officer, or that he cannot be found.

§ 26. Suits against corporations shall be commenced either in the county where the cause of action accrued, or in any county where such corporation shall have or usually keep an office or agent for the transaction of their usual and customary business.

§ 27. All notices, orders and rules required to be served in the progress of any cause, shall be served in like manner, as in other civil cases.

§ 28. In case the sheriff or other officer shall return any summons not served, and it shall be made to appear to the court that process cannot be served, the court or clerk thereof, in vacation, shall make an order directing the defendant to be notified of the commencement of the suit, by publication, in the same manner as is provided by law for the notifying of non-resident defendants in civil actions.

§ 29. The process upon a judgment against any corporation, shall be feri facias, which the sheriff or other officer shall levy on the moneys, goods and chattels, lands and tenements of such corporation, and proceed thereon as in civil cases.

§ 30. Proceedings against garnishees, under the provisions of this act, shall be the same as against the garnishee summoned in the case of an original attachment; but no judgment shall be rendered against him for any debt to become due at a future day, until after the same shall become due.

§ 31. For all moneys paid by any garnishee under this act he shall have credit against the corporation to whom it was due.

§ 32. If a sufficient sum be not made to satisfy such judgment and costs, other writs of execution may be issued as aforesaid, from time to time, until the whole is satisfied.

§ 33. If any moneys remain in the hands of the officer after satisfying the judgment and all costs, he shall pay the same to the corporation or its order.

§ 34. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to extend to any county or township, or to any public university, academy, seminary or school incorporated by the laws of this State.

§ 35. The records of any company, incorporated under the provisions of this law, or copies thereof, duly authenticated by the signature of the president and secretary of such company, under the corporate seal thereof, shall be competent evidence in any suit to which such company may be a party.

CHAPTER 76.

OF BRIDGE COMPANIES.

§ 16. Any number of persons not less than ten may form a company for the purpose of constructing and maintaining a bridge (over any of the streams of water or any part of such streams which may be within this State) for public use, for the crossing of persons or property, and for that purpose may make and sign articles of association, in which shall be stated the name of the company, the number of years the same is to continue, the place at which said bridge is to be constructed, the name of the county or counties in which it is intended to be made, the purposes for which it is to be used, whether for railroads or ordinary travel, or both, the amount of the capital stock of the company, the number of shares of said stock, the names and places of residence of the directors of said company, not less than five nor more than thirteen in number, who shall manage its affairs for the first year, and until others are chosen in their places. Each subscriber to such articles of association shall subscribe thereto his name, place of residence, and the number of shares of stock he has agreed to take in said company. Such articles of association shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, who shall indorse thereon the day they are filed, and record the same in a book to be provided by him for that purpose; and thereupon the persons who have so subscribed such articles of association, and all persons who shall become stockholders in such company, shall be a corporation by the name specified in such articles of association, and shall possess the powers and privileges granted to private corporations.

§ 17. In case it may become necessary to appropriate any lands belonging to private persons or to corporations, to the uses of said company, and the owners of said property cannot agree with the said company upon the proper compensation to be paid, or in case the owner is incapable of contracting, unknown, or a non-resident of the State, said property shall be taken by said company in the same manner as provided for in chapter 73 of private corporations, relating to appropriations and valuation of lands taken for telegraph, macadamized, graded, plank and railroad purposes.

§ 18. Any company organized under this act shall have the right to issue bonds or other evidences of indebtedness, negotiate loans for the construction of said bridge, secure such indebtedness by deed of trust or mortgage on the property of said company, and may have the power to consolidate its franchise and property with that of any bridge company within this State, or any other to be connected by said bridge, and shall have authority to have and exercise any other rights and powers granted by general laws to private corporations, which may be found necessary to carry out the objects contemplated in such organization.

CHAPTER 77.

SECTION 10. This act to take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

APPROVED March 19th, 1866.

ACT OF CONGRESS

Approved June 15, 1866

AN ACT to facilitate commercial, postal and military communication among the several States.

Whereas, the constitution of the United States confers upon Congress, in express terms, the power to regulate commerce among the several States, to establish post roads, and to raise and support armies: therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That every railroad company in the United States, whose road is operated by steam, its successors and assigns, be and is hereby authorized to carry upon and over its road, boats, bridges and ferries, all passengers, troops, government supplies, mails, freight and property, on their way from any State to another State, and to receive compensation therefor, and to connect with roads of other States so as to form continuous lines for the transportation of the same to the place of destination: Provided, that this act shall not affect any stipulation between the government of the United States and any railroad company for transportation or fares without compensation, nor impair or change the conditions imposed by the terms of any act granting lands to any such company to aid in the construction of its road, nor shall it be construed to authorize any railroad company to build any new road or connection with any other road, without authority from the State in which said railroad or connection may be proposed.

§ 2. And be it further enacted, That Congress may at any time alter, amend, or repeal this act.

Approved June 15, 1866.

ASSIGNMENT, November 18, 1866 by The Railroad Bridge Company—A Corporation Created and Existing by Virtue of the Laws of Illinois, of its Charter and Franchises,—

to

James F. Joy and Warren Colburn.

Whereas, by an act of the Legislature of the State of Illinois, entitled "An Act to incorporate the Quincy Bridge Company," approved February 10th, 1853, Nehemiah Bushnell, Samuel Holmes, John Wood, and James M. Pitman, their associates, successors, heirs and assigns, were created a body corporate by the name and style of "The Railroad Bridge Company," with power, amongst other things, to build, maintain and use a Railroad bridge over the Mississippi river, at or near Quincy, Illinois, and which said act, having expired by its own limitation, was revived and is now in force under and by virtue of an act of the Legislature of Illinois, entitled "An act to revive an act entitled 'An act to incorporate the Quincy Bridge Company,' approved February 10th, 1853," and which last named act was approved February 15th, 1865;

Now, Therefore, Know all men by these Presents, that we, Nehemiah Bushnell, Samuel Holmes, John Wood and James M. Pitman, corporators named in the above recited act of February 10th, A. D. 1853, for and in consideration of the sum of five dollars, to us in hand paid by James F. Joy and Warren Colburn, the receipt whereof we do hereby acknowledge, do by these presents grant, sell, assign, transfer, convey and deliver unto the said James F. Joy and Warren Colburn, their associates, successors, heirs and assigns, the said several charters and acts of incorporation hereinbefore referred to, and all the rights, powers, franchises, privileges and immunities granted to and conferred upon and vested in us and each of us, under and by virtue of the said several acts; To have and to hold, and to exercise use and enjoy, all and singular all the rights, powers, franchises, privileges and immunities hereby assigned, granted and delivered unto the said James F. Joy and Warren Colburn, their associates, successors, heirs and assigns, but subject and in subordination to such of the provisions of an act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An act to authorize the construction of certain bridges and to establish them as Post Roads," approved July 25th, 1866, as relates to the construction and use of a bridge for railroad purposes across the Mississippi river, at the said city of Quincy, and especially subject to so much of the first section of the said act of Congress as provides that, for the more perfect connection of any railroads that are or shall be constructed to the said river, at or opposite said city, when said bridge is constructed, all trains of all roads terminating at or opposite said city shall be allowed to cross said bridge for reasonable compensation to be made to the owners of said bridge:

And the said James F. Joy and Warren Colburn, for themselves, their associates, successors, heirs and assigns, covenant to and with the said Nehemiah Bushnell, Samuel Holmes, John Wood and James M. Pitman, their personal representatives, heirs and assigns, that they, the said James F. Joy and Warren Colburn, their associates, successors, heirs and assigns, will commence the construction of the bridge mentioned in and authorized by the hereinbefore mentioned acts of the Legislature of the State of Illinois, within thirty days after the time when the second section of the said act of February 15th, 1865, is repealed, or is so modified or changed by the Legislature of said State, as to obviate the objections growing out of said section, on the part of any other corporations which may desire to consolidate or connect with said bridge corporation, and will complete the construction of said bridge and put a rail road over it in full operation, within two years from and after the time when the construction thereof is to be commenced, as hereinbefore provided; and that, when the said bridge and railroad over it is completed and put in operation, and from thenceforth so long as the said bridge shall continue, all trains of all railroads terminating at the Mississippi river, at or opposite to the said city of Quincy, now constructed or hereafter to be constructed, shall be allowed to cross the said bridge on and over the railroad thereon, at corresponding tariff rates for the persons and property transported, so that no discrimination in tariff rates for such transportation shall ever be made in favor of, or against any railroad, whose trains or business passes over said bridge; and that unless the said bridge and railroad thereon shall be constructed and put in full operation by the time limited by this instrument, then and in such case, the said James F. Joy and Warren Colburn, their associates, successors, heirs and assigns, shall and will immediately re-assign, transfer and deliver to the said Nehemiah Bushnell, Samuel Holmes, John Wood and James M. Pitman, their associates, successors, heirs and assigns, the said charters and acts of incorporation hereinbefore mentioned, and all the rights, powers, franchises, privileges and immunities thereby created and hereby assigned, transferred and conveyed.

In witness whereof, all the said parties herein named, have hereunto set our hands and seals this 18th day of November, A. D. 1866, in duplicate.

ARTICLES OF CONSOLIDATION

November 20, 1866

Articles of consolidation by and between the Rail Road Bridge Company a corporation created and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Illinois, and The Quincy Bridge Company a corporation created and existing under, and by virtue of the laws of the State of Missouri.

Witnesseth: That whereas the said Rail Road Bridge company is created a corporation and exists as such under and by virtue of an act of the Legislature of the State of Illinois entitled "an act to incorporate the Quincy Bridge Company" approved February 10th, 1853 and also by virtue of an act of the Legislature of the State of Illinois approved February 15th, 1865 entitled "an act to revive an act entitled an act to incorporate the Quincy Bridge Company, approved February 10th, 1853 with power amongst other things as is in and by the said acts provided to build maintain and use a Rail Road Bridge over the Mississippi River or that portion within the jurisdiction of the State of Illinois at or near Quincy and to unite and consolidate its franchises and property with any and all Bridge companies in the State of Missouri and Whereas the said Quincy Bridge Company is duly created and organized and exists as a corporation in the State of Missouri under and by virtue and in pursuance of chapter sixty-nine and sections sixteen, seventeen and eighteen of chapter seventy-six of an act passed by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri entitled "an act concerning private corporations" Approved March 19th, 1866 with power amongst other things to construct and maintain a Rail Road Bridge over the Mississippi River opposite the city of Quincy in the State of Illinois and within the limits of Marion County in the State of Missouri and to consolidate its franchises and property with that of any Bridge company to be connected with said Bridge.

And Whereas the said Bridge companies connect with each other at the center of the main channel of the Mississippi River which forms the boundary line of the jurisdiction between the said States of Illinois and Missouri and the parts of the said Bridge which the said companies are respectively empowered to construct will, when constructed, connect with each other and form a continuous and connecting Bridge between said States across the said Mississippi River.

And Whereas for the mutual benefit of the said corporations and the greater convenience of the public it is by said corporations proposed to unite and consolidate the said two Bridge Companies and to become one corporation.

Now therefore James F. Joy and Warren Colburn by assignment all the corporators of the said Rail Road Bridge Company of the State of Illinois in proper person and the said Quincy Bridge Company of the State of Missouri by the Directors thereof do hereby respectively agree to consolidate and do consolidate the said companies and the said Bridges or parts of bridges which they are so respectively empowered to construct and their property, capital stock and franchises into one company upon the basis and conditions hereinafter specified by the name and style of "The Quincy Rail Road Bridge Company." The consolidated company hereby created is to assume, pay and discharge all the just debts, claims and liabilities now outstanding against the said consolidating companies or either of them and shall also fulfill, observe and perform all contracts or obligations undertaken by the said companies or either of them.

The present Shareholders in either of the consolidating companies shall be severally entitled to have issued to them in full payment therefor a number of shares of stock in the consolidated company which shall be equal in amount to the stock held by them in either of said companies or may at their option transfer their said shares to James F. Joy and Warren Colburn or either of them and be relieved from further payment thereon.

The Rail Road Bridge of the consolidated company will extend continuously across the Mississippi River from a point at or near the city of Quincy in the State of Illinois to a point opposite the said city within the limits of Marion County in the State of Missouri.

All and singular, the rights, franchises, property, real or personal or mixed, privileges and appurtenances of every name and nature in which the said consolidating companies or either of them may possess any right shall from the day of the making of this agreement be and become vested in the said consolidated company without any other or further deed, transfer, or conveyance in that behalf.

The capital stock of the consolidated company shall be seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars to be divided into seven thousand five hundred shares of one hundred dollars each. And the directors of the said new company may increase the capital stock thereof when necessary to any sum not exceeding the sum of one Million of Dollars.

All the books, records and other documents and papers pertaining to the business or property of said companies parties hereto, shall be delivered to the said consolidated company and shall be deemed and taken as the records and books of the consolidated company.

The first Board of Directors of the consolidated company shall consist of the following persons, viz: James F. Joy, Warren Colburn, John L. Lathrop, Ephraim A. Chapin and Nehemiah Bushnell who shall hold their offices until the first regular meeting of the stockholders of the consolidated company and until their successors are regularly elected.

The officers of the consolidated company shall consist of five Directors and such other officers to be appointed by the Directors as may be required by law or deemed proper for the transaction of the business of the company who shall hold their offices at the pleasure of the Directors.

The first regular meeting for the election of directors of the consolidated company shall be held in the city of Quincy in the State of Illinois on the second Wednesday of February A. D. 1868 and an annual meeting for the election of Directors shall be held at the same time and place in each year thereafter and a majority of the votes cast at any such election shall elect and any person entitled to vote at such election or at any meeting of the stockholders may vote in person or by proxy.

This article of consolidation shall be executed by the said Rail Road Bridge Company of the State of Illinois by the individual corporators thereof under their hands and private seals, the said corporation having no common seal provided and by and on behalf of the said Quincy Bridge Company of the State of Missouri by Edward Wells, their President pro tem in the absence of their President under his hand and private seal, the said company having no common seal provided, and the consolidation hereby made shall exist during the life time of the charters of the said consolidating companies.

In Witness Whereof we James F. Joy and Warren Colburn being by assignment all the corporators of the said Rail Road Bridge Company of the State of Illinois and for and on behalf of said company and as its act and deed have hereunto subscribed our names and affixed our private seals, the said corporation having no common seal provided; and the said Quincy Bridge Company of the State of Missouri by virtue of a Resolution of their Board of Directors adopted on the twentieth day of November A. D. 1866 duly authorizing the same, have caused Edward Wells, their President pro tem in the absence of their President and as the act and deed of said company to subscribe his name and affix his private seal hereto, the said corporation having no common seal provided. All done this 20th day of November A. D. 1866.

AGREEMENT, November 20, 1866, Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, the Toledo, Wabash and Western Rail Way Company, the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad Company, and The Quincy Rail Road Bridge Company.

This Agreement, made this twentieth day of November, A. D. 1866, by and between the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, the Toledo, Wabash and Western Rail Way Company and the Hannibal and Saint Joseph Rail Road Company, parties of the first part, and The Quincy Rail Road Bridge Company, by consolidation a corporation of Illinois and Missouri, party of the second part,

Witnesseth,

That the parties of the first part hereby agree to and with the party of the second part, that they will enter into a lease with the party of the second part whereby they will jointly and severally lease of said second party the Rail Road Bridge which the said second party may build across the Mississippi River at or near the City of Quincy, Illinois, and which lease shall be perpetual during the corporate existence of the said second party, and shall contain amongst other things the following provisions, viz:

1. That the parties of the first part will pay to the said party of the second part in the City of New York, in semi-annual payments, an annual rent which shall be equal to ten per cent on the cost of said Bridge above all costs of superintendence, insurance, repairs, renewals and government tax, said rent to commence on the completion of said bridge ready for use; and the cost of the bridge to include interest on all installments paid in for its construction from the time such installments are paid till the completion of said bridge at the rate of ten per cent per annum, and that the parties of the first part will enter into said lease as soon as practicable after the party of the second part is organized and its stock subscribed for.

2. That as the said parties of the first part are to have full charge of the construction and operation of the said bridge, it is hereby distinently understood and mutually agreed that all moneys called from and paid by the stock holders in the corporation which is the party of the second part for the construction of said Bridge shall be considered as the cost of the said bridge, whether the same be more or less than the sum that may be estimated as the amount of capital required for the construction of the said bridge.

In Witness Whereof the said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Rail Road Company have caused James F. Joy, their President, to subscribe his name hereto, for and on behalf of said Company,—and the said Toledo, Wabash and Western Rail Way Company have caused Warren Colburn, their Vice President, to subscribe his name hereto for and on behalf of said Company,—and the Hannibal and St. Joseph Rail Road Company have caused James F. Joy, their Managing Director, to subscribe his name hereto for and on behalf of said Company.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved February 8, 1867

AN ACT to legalize "The Quincy Railroad Bridge Company," and to facilitate and encourage the construction of a railroad bridge over the Mississippi River at Quincy.

Section I. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly That the consolidation of the "Quincy Bridge Company," organized under the laws of the State of Missouri, and of the "Railroad Bridge Company," organized under the laws of this State, for the construction of a railroad bridge across the Mississippi River at Quincy, made by and between said companies by their articles of consolidation, bearing date the twentieth day of November, A. D. 1866, and filed and recorded in the office of the Secretary of State of this State, on the third day of December, A. D. 1866, and adopting for the said consolidated company the name and style of "The Quincy Railroad Bridge Company," be, and the same is hereby legalized, ratified and confirmed, and the said consolidated company, by the name and style aforesaid, shall have, exercise and enjoy all the rights, powers, privileges and immunities, which were granted to "The Railroad Bridge Company" aforesaid, by the original act incorporating the same, entitled "An Act to incorporate the Quincy Bridge Company," approved February 10th, 1853, and by the act reviving the same, approved February 15th, 1865; and copies of the said articles of consolidation, certified by the Secretary of State, under his seal of office, shall be evidence of the legal existence and organization of the said consolidated company in all courts and places in this State.

§ 2. That the said corporation shall have power to connect any bridge built under the provisions of the act aforesaid, and of this act, by the necessary railroad tracks and side tracks with any railroad now constructed, or hereafter to be constructed to the city of Quincy; and the second section of an act approved February 15th, 1865, entitled "An act to revive An Act entitled An Act to incorporate the Quincy Bridge Company," approved February 10th, 1853, is hereby repealed.

§ 3. That the part of the said railroad bridge which may be built over the Quincy Bay, so called, shall have a draw over the main channel of said bay, with a span for the draw of not less than eighty feet in length clear of the abutments, and said draw shall be opened upon reasonable signal for the passage of boats whose construction shall not be such as to admit of their passage under the permanent spans of the bridge, except when trains are passing over said bridge.

§ 4. This act shall be deemed a public act, and shall take effect from and after its passage.

Approved February 8th, 1867.

LEASE January 1, 1869 The Quincy Rail Road Bridge Company to Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, the Toledo, Wabash, and Western Railway Company, and Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad Company.

This Indenture and Lease, Made and entered into this first day of January, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-nine, by and between the QUINCY RAILROAD BRIDGE COMPANY, a consolidated Corporation, existing by virtue of the laws of Illinois and Missouri, party of the first part; and the CHICAGO, BURLINGTON, AND QUINCY RAILROAD COMPANY, and the TOLEDO, WABASH, AND WESTERN RAILROAD COMPANIES, Corporations existing by virtue of the laws of the State of Illinois; and the HANNIBAL AND ST. JOSEPH RAILROAD COMPANY, a Corporation existing by virtue of the laws of the State of Missouri, parties of the second part,—

Witnesseth, First—That said party of the first part, for and in consideration of the rents, covenants and agreements hereinafter mentioned, and to be by the said parties of the second part, fully paid, kept and performed, do hereby demise, rent and lease unto the said parties of the second part, all and singular, the Iron Railroad Bridge, and the Railroad of the said party of the first part, on and over the Quincy Bay, so called, and on and over the Mississippi River, and on and over the Island separating the said Quincy Bay from the said Mississippi River, as the said Bridge and Railroad exist, and extend from the east bank of the said Quincy Bay, at and from the city of Quincy in the State of Illinois, across said Bay, Island and River to the town or village of West Quincy, on the west bank of the Mississippi River in the State of Missouri, including all the Foundations, Masonry, Abutments, Piers, Draws, Iron and other materials composing said Bridge, and also including the railroad track on and over the said Bridge and Island, with the Embankments, Culverts, Structures, Superstructures, Iron and Steel Rails, and other materials composing the same; and also all the Railroad or Roads of the said party of the first part, which extend from the east and west abutments of said Bridge, and connect the said Bridge and the tracks thereon, with the Railroad tracks and Railroad of the said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company in the State of Illinois, and with the Railroad tracks and Railroad of the said Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad Company in the State of Missouri, with all the Embankments, Superstructure, Iron, Rails, and other materials or things composing said connecting Roads, together with all the fixtures and appurtenances to said Railroads and Bridge belonging, and all the Tolls, Rents and Income to be had, levied or derived from the said described and demised premises and the using thereof, and all the rights, powers, franchises and privileges of the party of the first part therein or pertaining thereto. To Have and to Hold the said described and demised premises, with all the privileges and appurtenances thereto, unto the said parties of the second part, for and during the whole time, term and period of the Corporate existence of the said party of the first part, at and for the annual rent of One Hundred and Seventy-five Thousand Dollars, to be paid by the said parties of the second part to the said party of the first part, in equal semi-annual payments, at the time and in the manner hereinafter provided for.

Second.—And the said party of the first part hereby covenants and agrees to and with the parties of the second part that the said first party will, during all the period for which said first party is by law created a Corporation, from time to time continue to elect the proper officers, and to do and perform in court, and out of court, whatever may be required to keep its corporate organization complete and perfect, and to preserve, protect, and defend its Corporate powers, immunities, rights and franchises.

Third.—And the said parties of the second part, hereby jointly and severally agree to and with the said party of the first part, that they will pay unto the said party of the first part, as annual rent for the said demised premises, the sum of One Hundred and Seventy-five Thousand Dollars, in each and every year during the term hereby created; and that they will pay the same in equal semi-annual payments of Eighty-seven Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars each, at the office of the Treasurer of said party of the first part, in the city of Boston in the State of Massachusetts, on the first days of the months of January and July, occurring from and after the day of the date of these presents; and that they will also pay unto the said party of the first part all the necessary and proper costs and expenses of keeping up and maintaining the Corporate organization of the said first party hereto; and of retaining and having the necessary officers and employees to do and perform the things required to be done; to maintain such organization, and to defend, preserve, and maintain the Corporate rights and interests of the said party of the first part in court and out of court, as well as the proper cost and expense of transacting the business of said first party, with its shareholders, and with the parties of the second part, and all the other needful business of the said first party; and that the said parties of the second part will pay to the said party of the first part all of the said further sums of money semi-annually hereafter, at the office of the Treasurer of the said first party in the said city of Boston, at the several times herein provided for the payments of the said semi-annual instalments of rent.

Fourth.—And the said parties of the second part, also hereby further covenant and agree to and with the said party of the first part, that they will, during the continuance of this lease, use and operate the said Bridge, Railroad, and demised premises and appurtenances for the business and purpose for which the same were authorized to be constructed, and in such efficient manner as to satisfy the reasonable and lawful demands of the public; and that they will also fulfill and perform all the requirements which now are or may be hereafter imposed upon the said party of the first part in respect to the said demised premises, and the using thereof by the laws of the United States, or of the States of Illinois and Missouri, or either of them now existing or hereafter established; and that they will pay all the cost and expense of the superintendence of the said demised premises, and of using and operating the same, and of the business thereof; and all losses and damages for injuries or losses caused, suffered or occasioned through or by means of the said parties of the second part, or any of them in the course of said business, and also all taxes and assessments, including any Income or Government Tax which may be lawfully levied or assessed upon said party of the first part or its shareholders, on account of the said demised premises, or upon the business, or the gross or net earnings thereof, or upon the moneys hereby made payable as rent for said demised premises, or upon the dividends thereof distributed to said shareholders or otherwise, by virtue of the laws of the States of Missouri and Illinois, or of the United States, now existing or hereafter enacted.

Fifth.—And in order to securely anticipate and provide for the prompt payment to the said party of the first part of the said semi-annual payments of rent, and other sums of money hereinbefore provided for, the said parties of the second part hereby further jointly and severally covenant and agree to and with the said party of the first part, that they will cause the General Superintendents of the said respective Railroads to, from time to time, agree upon, regulate and establish such reasonable tariff rates for the transportation of persons and property on and over the said Railroad Bridge, and Railroads hereby demised, as will provide as near as can be practicably done, a sufficient, clear, net earnings or income from the business of the same, for each current period of six months during the term hereby created, over and above all deductions from the gross earnings of such business during such respective periods, to fully pay and satisfy the amount of rent, and other sums of money so to be paid to the said party of the first part for such periods respectively, as hereinbefore provided; and that as soon after the close of each month as in the usual course of business can be done, the said parties of the second part will cause an accurate Monthly General Statement of all expenses incurred and payments made by the parties of the second part, on account of the business of the said demised premises for said month, and on what account the same was incurred or paid, and also of the amount of the gross and net earnings from said business for said month, to be rendered to the Treasurer of the said party of the first part in the said city of Boston; and that they will at the end of each month pay over to the said Treasurer, at his office in said city, the whole amount of the said monthly net earnings, until the sum of such payments in each of the said periods of six months shall be equal to the whole amount to be paid by the said parties of the second part, to the said party of the first part, for the rent and other purposes hereinbefore mentioned for such period; and in case at the end of any such current period of six months, the sum of such payments shall not be sufficient to pay and satisfy the whole amount of the sums of money to be then paid to the said party of the first part as hereinbefore provided; then and in that case the said parties of the second part hereby jointly and severally agree to and with the said party of the first part, that they will thereupon, on the said first days of January and July in each year, pay unto the said party of the first part, at the office of the Treasurer of said first party in said city of Boston, the full amount of such deficiencies; it being hereby mutually agreed and understood by and between the said parties of the second part, that as among themselves, in paying any such deficiency, each of the said parties of the second part shall pay such portion thereof, as the number of passengers and the number of tons of freight transported by cars of the said parties over their respective Roads to and from the said Railroad Bridge in the transit thereof over the same, during the said six months; taking also into account the distances such transportation on each Road, bear to each other, in the making of such computation. Two passengers carried one mile shall be taken as the equivalent of three tons of freight carried one mile; and for the purpose of estimating distances in such computation, it is hereby mutually agreed that the Depot of the said Chicago, Burlington, and Quincy Railroad Company, at the said City of Quincy, shall be taken and considered as one of the termini of each of the Roads of the said parties of the second part, and that no distance on the said Toledo, Wabash and Western Railway shall be counted as over two hundred and sixty-four miles. And it is also hereby further mutually understood and agreed by and between the said parties of the second part, that in the event that during any of the said current periods of six months, the said net earnings from the said demised premises shall exceed the amount of the money so herein provided to be paid to the said party of the first part for said period, then and in that event the said surplus net earnings shall be divided between the said parties of the second part, in the same proportion and by the same method of computation as is above provided for ascertaining the proportions in which the deficiency in net earnings are to be paid by the said second parties respectively.

Sixth.—And it being mutually agreed and understood, by and between the parties hereto, that the said Hannibal and Saint Joseph Railroad Company is to have the actual possession and use of the said demised premises in connection with and for business purposes as a part of and as an extension of their said Railroad to the extent of one and one-half miles, at an annual rent of Six Thousand Dollars, to be paid semi-annually by the said last named Company to the said parties of the second part during the term hereby created,—it is therefore hereby further mutually understood and agreed by and between the parties hereto, that the said Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad Company shall, during the continuation of the term hereby created, pay unto the said party of the first part the said sum of Six Thousand Dollars annually, in equal semi-annual payments of Three Thousand Dollars each, on the first days of January and July in each year, from and after the day of the date of these presents, at the office of the Treasurer of the said party of the first part in the said city of Boston; and that the said payments when so made, shall be by the said party of the first part applied to the credit and in part payment of the said rent and other moneys so hereinbefore provided, to be paid to the said party of the first part, by the said parties of the second part, on the said respective days.

Seventh.—And the said parties of the second part hereby further agree to and with the said party of the first part, that they will at their own proper cost and charge make all such additions to and changes in the said Railroad Bridge and Railroads, and premises and appurtenances hereby demised, as may become necessary or proper to fortify, strengthen, and maintain the same, or any part or parcel thereof, or to fulfill any legal requirements which may be hereafter adopted touching or affecting the same demised premises, or the using thereof; and that they, the said parties of the second part, shall and will, also from time to time, and at all times hereafter, during the term hereby created, at their own proper cost and charges, fully, diligently and thoroughly repair, support, amend, replace, renew and rebuild the said Railroad Bridge and Railroad and premises and appurtenances hereby demised, together with any additions thereto or changes therein, made as aforesaid; and every part and parcel thereof, in such manner and with such materials, and at such times, and by such effective and sufficient methods, as will effectually have, keep, sustain, and maintain the said demised premises and appurtenances, with the additions to or changes made therein, as aforesaid, and every part and parcel thereof, from time to time, and at all times during said term, in complete and perfect order, repair, existence, and condition, for the most efficient, continuous use, with only such possible interruptions or delays as may at any time or times be necessarily required to make such additions to or changes therein, as aforesaid; or to repair, support, amend, replace, renew or rebuild the said demised premises and appurtenances, either in whole or in part, as the need or occasion may require; and whether the necessity or occasions for such additions, changes, repairs, supporting, amendments, replacements, renewals or rebuilding, in whole or in part, of all or any of them, shall or may arise from or be caused by ordinary or extraordinary wear and use; or by natural decay, or by any act of omission or commission, or by accidents of any kind or nature; or by the power of the elements, domestic insurrections, invasions or public enemies, or by the acts of God; or from any other cause, occasion, or contingency whatever.

Eighth.—And in order to provide, as rapidly as the case will admit of, for a sure guarantee fund, out of which can be made the payments necessary, under any and every exigency, to meet and fulfill the requirements of the covenants on the part of the parties of the second part hereto contained and expressed in and under the foregoing head numbered “Seventh,” so as to thereby provide, as far as may be practicable, against any occasion for a resort to said covenants; it is, therefore, hereby further mutually agreed by and between all of the parties to this agreement, that the President for the time being of the party of the first part hereto, together with the President for the time being of one of the parties of the second part hereto, to be selected by the said parties of the second part, shall and will from time to time fix and establish special tariff rates for the transportation of persons and property on and over the said demised premises, with power to alter, modify or change the same in their discretion, and which said special tariff rates shall be added to the tariff rates for such transportation, which may be from time to time fixed by the General Superintendents of the Roads of the said parties of the second part as hereinbefore provided for, and shall be collected by the said Hannibal and Saint Joseph Railroad Company, and paid over as soon after the expiration of each month as in the usual course of business can be done to the Treasurer for the time being of the said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, who shall in his said official capacity as such Treasurer be the common trustee of said moneys, for the benefit of all of the parties to this agreement; and such special tariff rates shall continue to be so fixed, collected, and paid over until the same, with the income to be derived therefrom, shall amount in the aggregate to the sum of two hundred thousand dollars, ($200,000); and shall also thereafter as the said moneys, which shall constitute the guarantee fund herein before mentioned, may be reduced by expenditures below the said sum of two hundred thousand dollars, ($200,000), be from time to time so fixed, collected and paid over to the Trustee aforesaid, so as to restore and keep the said guarantee fund permanently at, or as near as can practically be done, the said sum of two hundred thousand dollars, ($200,000); and the said Trustee shall from time to time invest the said moneys as fast as the same are received by him, and keep the same invested in good, safe interest-bearing securities, and receive the income to be derived from the same, and shall have the power, and is hereby required from time to time, under the direction of the parties of the second part, or in case of the default of the said parties of the second part from time to time in a reasonable time as applicable to each exigency to well and truly observe, keep and perform all or any of the covenants and agreements on the part of the said second parties as contained and expressed in and under the foregoing head numbered "Seventh," then and in every such case, under the direction of the said party of the first part hereto, to apply, and pay out from the income derived from said guarantee fund on hand,—and in case of a deficiency of said income for the purpose, then out of the principal of said fund, so much of the said income and principal sum as may be necessary and required to fulfill, and to do, perform and complete all and every the acts covenants and things which the said parties of the second part have in and by their last aforesaid covenants and agreements in and under said head number "Seventh" herein expressed, covenanted and agreed to do and perform; and any surplus of said income not required to be applied and used in the manner and for the purpose aforesaid, shall be, by said Trustee, annually, on the first day of January in each year, paid over to the said parties of the second part, at his office in Chicago, respectively, in the proportion in which the said second parties have respectively contributed to the creation of said fund.

Ninth.—And it is hereby further mutually understood and agreed by and between the parties hereto that for the purpose of all estimates, computations, reckonings, adjustments of accounts and settlements growing out of these presents, such of the books and vouchers of each of the parties hereto as are connected with or relate to the business done under this agreement, shall be at all reasonable times and hours subject to the inspection and examination of the authorized Agents of the respective parties.

Tenth.—And the said parties of the second part hereto hereby mutually and severally covenant and agree to and with each other that they will severally and respectively abide by, do and perform to, for and in behalf, and in exoneration and discharge of the other of said parties and of each of them, their several and respective parts and portions of all and every of the covenants, agreements, obligations and duties which are or may be by this instrument imposed or devolved upon the said parties of the second part, or which the said parties of the second part have in and by this instrument covenanted or agreed to do and perform, so as and to the end and to the extent required to fully, entirely, and finally release, discharge, indemnify and save harmless the said parties of the second part severally and respectively, from all loss, damage, payments, liabilities, injuries, costs and expenses which might or may be sustained, suffered or incurred by either or any of the said parties of the second part, by reason of any default or defaults in the premises by or on the part of the other of said parties, or any or either of them.

Eleventh.—And it is hereby and finally understood and agreed by and between the parties hereto, and it is hereby made an absolute and fundamental condition of this lease and agreement that the said parties of the second part shall not jointly or severally at any time hereafter, sell, assign, transfer or underlet the premises hereby demised, or any part thereof, or any interest therein or in these presents, to any person or persons, body or bodies corporate whatever, without the consent of all the parties hereto in writing for that purpose first had and obtained; and any such attempted sale, assignment, or transfer, or underlease, shall at the option of the other parties hereto, or either of them, constitute and be an absolute forfeiture of the unexpired portion of the term hereby created, and of all the rights and interests, legal and equitable, therein or in the demised premises or these presents, as against the party or parties making such attempted sale, assignment, transfer or underlease, and against all persons or parties claiming or to claim under and by virtue thereof, without any previous notice or declaration of such forfeiture by or on the part of the other parties hereto, or any of them.

Provided always, and these presents and the estate and the rights of the Lessees in the premises are determinable and dependent upon this express condition, that if the Lessees or either of them, their representatives or assigns, do or shall neglect or fail to perform and observe any or either of the above covenants herein before contained, which on its or their part are to be performed, then and in every such case these presents and the estate and the rights of the Lessees (if the Lessor or those having the estate in the premises so elect to treat the same by making or causing to be made an entry upon the premises to determine this lease), shall be and they hereby are absolutely void and determined; and the said Lessor, or those having its estate in said premises lawfully, may immediately, or at any time thereafter, and whilst such neglect or default continues, and without further notice or demand, enter into or upon said premises and repossess the same as of its former estate, and expel the said Lessees and those claiming under them, forcibly if necessary, without prejudice to any remedies which might otherwise be used for arrears for rent, or preceding breach of covenant.

And the Lessees agree that their liability to pay all amounts due under this lease at the time of such entry shall continue and be unaffected thereby, and that the rent shall be apportioned accordingly, and hereby grant to the Lessor full power to make such entry in the cases above contemplated.

In Witness Whereof, the said Quincy Railroad Bridge Company have caused James F. Joy, their President, to subscribe his name, and to affix the Corporate Seal of said Company hereto.

And the said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company have caused James F. Joy, their President, to subscribe his name, and to affix the Corporate Seal of said Company hereto.

And the said Toledo Wabash and Western Railway Company have caused their President, to subscribe his name, and to affix the Corporate Seal of said Company hereto.

And the said Hannibal and Saint Joseph Railroad Company have caused their President, to subscribe his name, and to affix the Corporate Seal of said Company hereto.

All done in four parts; each part of which is to be taken and considered as a true original, this first day of January, A. D. 1869.

SUPPLEMENTAL AGREEMENT July 1, 1873 Between Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, the Toledo, Wabash, and Western Railway Company and Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad Company.

Memorandum of agreement: Made this first day of July A. D. Eighteen hundred and seventy-three, between the Hannibal & St. Joseph Railroad Company, The Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, and the Toledo, Wabash & Western Railway Company, to more distinctly define their duties and obligations as between each other under the lease of the Quincy Bridge made January, first, A. D. 1869.

It is hereby mutually agreed that from and after this day the three Railroad Companies above named shall provide and guarantee the payment of the interest and necessary expenses of said Quincy Bridge, as follows:—

First, from the gross amount of said interest and expenses shall be deducted the rent to be paid by the Hannibal & St. Joseph Railroad Co., for use of the track of the Quincy Bridge Company, six thousand dollars per annum.

Second, the tolls or moneys received from any and all Railroads or other parties using said Bridge, except the three companies above named, shall likewise be deducted from said gross amount.

The sum required to pay the remainder of said interest and expenses shall be guaranteed furnished and paid by said companies respectively, in accordance with the average apportionment upon the business of the four years, 1869, 1870, 1871 and 1872, which as near as may be was as follows: Hannibal & St. Joseph Railroad forty seven and one eighth ($47\frac{1}{8}$) per cent, Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad, forty-two and five eighths ($42\frac{5}{8}$) per cent. Toledo, Wabash and Western Railway, ten and one quarter ($10\frac{1}{4}$) per cent.

Each of said respective companies hereby guarantees that the tolls collected semi-annually on its business at whatever rates they may be fixed from time to time in accordance with said contract of lease of January first 1869; shall produce the amount said company is required to furnish under the above apportionment, and each company is to be charged with and to make up any deficit, and to be credited with any excess.

In witness whereof, the said companies have caused these presents to be signed by their respective presidents or Vice Presidents, the day and year first above written.

AGREEMENT, April 4, 1898, City of Quincy, Illinois, and Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company.

This Agreement, made and entered into this fourth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, by and between the City of Quincy, a municipal corporation, created and existing under the laws of the State of Illinois, party of the first part, and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, a corporation, created and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Illinois, party of the second part;

Witnesseth: That said party of the first part, for and in consideration of the covenants and agreements of the party of the second part, hereinafter contained, and of the sum of one dollar to it in hand paid, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, covenants and agrees to and with said party of the second part, that it, said party of the first part, will grant unto the said party of the second part a right of way, two hundred (200) feet in width, over and across Towhead Island, between the Mississippi River and Quincy Bay, lying opposite to said City of Quincy, and lying and being in the southeast quarter of section thirty-four (34), in township one (1) south, range nine (9) west of the Fourth Principal Meridian, and situated in the County of Adams and State of Illinois—said right of way being more particularly described as follows: A strip of land two hundred (200) feet in width, being sixty-two (62) feet wide on the west side, and one hundred and thirty-eight (138) feet wide on the east side, of the center line of the main track of said The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, as now surveyed, staked off, and located across said Towhead Island, which is all of Bay Island lying south of the center line of Squaw Chute, which Chute is an overflow channel of the Mississippi River. Said center line of said main track enters said tract of land near its northern end at the intersection of said center line of said track with the center line of said Squaw Chute, said point of intersection being thirteen hundred and fifty-one (1351) feet north and thirteen hundred and seventy-four (1374) feet west of the southeast corner of Spring and Front Streets; and said center line runs on a bearing S. 14°—10' E., a distance of eleven hundred and sixty (1160) feet, more or less, thence upon a curve of 637.3 feet radius to the east, a distance of six hundred and seventy (670) feet, more or less, until said center line enters said Quincy Bay, near the south end of said Towhead Island.

For and in consideration of the covenants and agreements of the party of the first part, hereinbefore contained, and of one dollar in hand paid, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, the party of the second part hereby covenants and agrees to and with the party of the first part, as follows:

1st. That it, said party of the second part, will pay unto the party of the first part the sum of one thousand (1000) dollars.

2d. That the party of the second part will build and maintain a wagon bridge from the Missouri shore to the Illinois shore, to be connected with its railroad bridge, and to end and terminate at Cedar Street, in said City of Quincy; and that said party of the second part will provide a suitable roadway, connecting said wagon bridge with said Cedar Street.

3d. That said party of the second part will build a freight depot and a passenger depot between Broadway and Vine and Second and Olive Streets, in said City of Quincy.

4th. That the party of the second part will grant to the said party of the first part the joint use, in perpetuity, with the party of the second part, of the levee owned by the party of the second part, south of Broadway, in said City; the party of the first part to have the right to permit the use of the same, as a public levee and public landing-place, in connection with the use thereof by the said party of the second part; and the said party of the first part to have the sole right to impose charges and wharfage fees for such use as a public levee or public landing-place, and to collect and to retain for its own use such charges and wharfage fees; provided, however, that no charges or wharfage fees shall be imposed upon or collected of said party of the second part. It being understood, however, that neither party shall have the right to erect any building or buildings thereon, without the consent of the other party, in writing, first had and obtained therefor, and that said party of the second part shall make no use of the same inconsistent with its use as a public levee and public landing-place; provided, however, that the said party of the first part shall have the right to exercise any rights it may now have, including the right, if any, to erect thereon a water works plant, south of Broadway; and provided, further, however, that said party of the first part will not permit any other railroad company or companies than the party of the second part to lay or construct any railroad track or tracks on said levee; said levee, south of Broadway, herein referred to, being bounded and described as follows, to-wit;

Beginning on the south line of Broadway street, at a point two hundred and sixty-nine and five-tenths (269.5) feet due west of the east line of Front Street, in said City of Quincy, and running thence southwardly to a point two hundred and forty and eight-tenths (240.8) feet due west of the east line of said Front Street, and two hundred and eight (208) feet north of the north line of Hampshire Street, and to the south line of the land or property there owned by the party of the second part, thence west to the Mississippi River, thence north on said river to a point due west of the place of beginning, and thence east to the place of beginning.

5th. That the party of the second part will make the necessary arrangements, when building the piers and buttresses for its new railroad bridge across the Quincy Bay, near the foot of Broadway, for attaching a pontoon bridge alongside of its said new railroad bridge; and will permit said party of the first part, or the parties who may construct said pontoon bridge, to attach said pontoon bridge to its said new railroad bridge, without compensation therefor; and said party of the second part will grant a suitable right of way for the public from said Broadway street to such pontoon bridge.

The said party of the second part further agrees that it will leave a clear space, fifty (50) feet in width, between the water's edge and the abutment at the end of its embankment on said Towhead Island, and will fill and keep filled the same to such height as will permit passage along and across the same, under its said new railroad bridge, from one side of its embankment to the other, whenever the water in said river is at such a stage as to make it possible to drive with wagons and teams on and along said Towhead Island; and that said party of the second part, in constructing its grade, will either leave a sufficient space between the foot of its said embankment and the west and south sides of said Towhead Island, for the free passage of wagons and teams, or will extend the surface of said Towhead Island between the foot of its said embankment and said south and west sides of said Island, to provide a suitable way for the passage of wagons and teams.

6th. That the said party of the second part will grant unto said party of the first part a right of way for a convenient wagon road for the public travel, on one side or the other of its said embankment, to be selected by the said party of the first part, on the island north of said Towhead Island, from its said river bridge to said Towhead Island, and the right to approach and connect with said bridge or bridge road. Said wagon road is to be constructed by the said party of the first part, at its sole cost and expense, and is not to exceed thirty (30) feet in width on its top surface, the same to have the ordinary or natural slope, and not to exceed a height of three (3) feet above high water, except where necessary to connect with said bridge or bridge road.

That said party of the second part will, in constructing its said embankment on said Towhead Island, so construct the same as to protect from injury the boat house of the North Side Boat Club, now thereon.

7th. That the grant of the right of way on said Towhead Island shall be made in such a way that the said party of the first part shall and will retain all riparian rights on said Towhead Island, including the right to all accretions; and that said grant shall be conditioned upon the performance by the said party of the second part of the covenants and agreements herein contained, binding on the said party of the second part.

8th. That the party of the second part will grant and convey, by deed, unto the said party of the first part, the road or street now in use by the public from near the intersection of Elm and Olive streets, north to and across the railroad tracks near the foot of Lind Street, to Front Street, which road has been used by the public about fifteen years last past, or will grant and convey, by deed, unto the said party of the first part, in lieu thereof, some other road or street equally as satisfactory to the City Council of said City of Quincy, running from said intersection to said Front Street. It is, however, understood that the party of the second part may in such deed reserve the right to cross the road, by it to be granted as aforesaid, with the railroad tracks, side tracks, and switches now crossing the same, and the right to construct a viaduct across the same, for the purpose of constructing, maintaining, and operating its railroad tracks thereon; said viaduct, however, to be constructed at such a height as is customary for viaducts crossing public streets, and at such a height as will permit the passage of loaded teams thereunder.

9th. Said party of the second part further agrees that the tolls which it will charge for passage over said wagon bridge shall at all times be reasonable, and shall not be in excess of the following schedule of rates:

Each foot passenger or bicycle rider.....	5 cents
Hog or Sheep.....	5 cents
Head of loose cattle or horses.....	10 cents
Vehicle drawn by one animal.....	25 cents
Same price for round trip same day.
Double team	40 cents
Same price for round trip same day.
Three horse team.....	50 cents
Same price for round trip same day.
Wagon drawn by four horses, mules or oxen.....	60 cents
Same price for round trip same day.

10th. Said party of the second part further agrees that it will grant unto any other railroad company or companies, at any time desiring to come into or pass out of said City of Quincy, the right of connecting with, and of passing over and using and operating cars and engines on, some one of the tracks of the party of the second part, now laid or hereafter to be laid, in what is known as Front Street, in said City of Quincy, from the north line of the intersection of Front Street with Elm Street extended, to the North line of the intersection of Front Street with Broadway, in said City; such track to be substantially on the grade of the tracks now there existing, and to be in such a place and at such a grade as will permit the passage onto the same from a railroad track laid on the established grade in Front Street, south of said Broadway Street; it being expressly understood, however, that said Company or companies so desiring to use such track shall pay to said party of the second part a reasonable compensation therefor.

11th. Said party of the second part further agrees that all the work herein provided for, to be done by said party of the second part, including the building of said wagon bridge, and of said freight and passenger depots, shall be commenced as soon as possible, and prosecuted to a conclusion with diligence and vigor.

In Witness Whereof, the said party of the first part has caused these presents to be executed by its Mayor and City Clerk, and has caused its corporate seal to be here unto affixed; and the said party of the second part has caused these presents to be executed, for and on its behalf, by C. E. Perkins, its President, and H. W. Weiss, its Assistant Secretary, and has also caused its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed.

ORDINANCE, April 4, 1898, City of Quincy, Illinois.

An ordinance vacating Front Street between the North Line of Broadway and a line parallel with and fifty feet South of the South line of Oak Street, Olive Street between the North Line of Broadway and the South Line of Vine Street, Spring Street between the West line of Second Street and the Quincy Bay and Oak Street between the West Line of Second Street and the West Line of Olive Street all in Pease's addition to the City of Quincy, Illinois.

Whereas, it is deemed for the best interests of the City of Quincy, and of the inhabitants thereof, and of the public, that the following described portions of certain streets in said city be vacated and no longer maintained at the public expense for the purpose of public travel and use; therefore,

Section 1. Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Quincy, that Front Street between the North Line of Broadway and a line parallel with and fifty feet South of the South Line of Oak Street, Olive Street between the North Line of Broadway and the South Line of Vine Street, Spring Street between the West Line of Second Street and the Quincy Bay and Oak Street between the West Line of Second Street and the West Line of Olive Street, all in Pease's addition to the City of Quincy, Illinois, be and are hereby vacated and abolished.

Section 2. This ordinance shall take effect from and after its passage.

DEED, December 1, 1903 The Quincy Rail Road Bridge Company to Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company.

Indenture, Made this first day of December, A. D. 1903, by and between the Quincy Railroad Bridge Company, a consolidated corporation, created, organized, and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the States of Illinois and Missouri, party of the first part, and the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, a corporation created, organized, and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Illinois, party of the second part, Witnesseth: That,

Whereas, The first party, being thereunto duly authorized by law, is the owner of a certain railroad and railroad bridge over and across the Mississippi River, at Quincy, Illinois, between the States of Illinois and Missouri, all as hereinafter described; and,

Whereas, The railroads of the parties hereto connect, and make a continuous railroad; and,

Whereas, The second party is now in possession of and operating the said railroad and bridge of the first party, in connection with its own railroad, under a lease for more than twenty-five (25) years, and has offered to purchase the remaining interests, property, and franchises of the first party in and to its railroad and bridge, upon the terms and conditions hereinafter stated, which have been agreed to by the directors of both the said companies, and approved by the stockholders owning and holding two-thirds in amount of the capital stock of each of the said companies, in manner and form as required by law:

Now Therefore, This Indenture Witnesseth: That the said first party, for the considerations hereinafter expressed, by these presents does grant, bargain, sell, convey, release, assign, and transfer, to the said second party, the following described railroad, property, franchises, and privileges, to-wit:

Its iron railroad bridge and railroad on and over the Quincy Bay, so called and on and over the Mississippi River, and on and over the Island separating the said Quincy Bay from the said Mississippi River, as the said bridge and railroad exist, and extend from the east bank of the said Quincy Bay, at and from the city of Quincy, in the State of Illinois, across said Bay, Island, and River, to the town or village of West Quincy, on the west bank of the Mississippi River, in the State of Missouri, including all the foundations, masonry, abutments, piers, draws, iron and other materials composing said bridge, and also including the railroad track on and over the said bridge and Island, with the embankments, culverts, structures, superstructures, iron and steel rails, and other materials composing the same; and also all the railroad or roads of the said party of the first part, which extend from the east and west abutments of said bridge, and connect the said bridge and the tracks thereon, with the railroad tracks and railroad of the said Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, in the State of Illinois, and with the railroad tracks and railroad of the said Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, formerly the Hannibal & St. Joseph Railroad Company, in the State of Missouri, with all the embankments, superstructure, iron, rails, and other materials or things composing said connecting roads, together with all the fixtures and appurtenances to said railroads and bridge belonging, and all the tolls, rents, and income to be had, levied, or derived from the said described premises and the using thereof; and all other property, real or personal, of whatsoever kind and wheresoever situated, now owned by said first party or hereafter to be acquired by it, whether appurtenant to the railroad and premises aforesaid or otherwise. Also all rights, privileges, immunities, and franchises belonging to the said first party, except its franchise to be a corporation.

To Have and to Hold the same to the said second party, its successors and assigns, forever.

In consideration of the foregoing, the said second party covenants and agrees with the said first party that it will use, maintain, and operate the said bridge, railroad, and above described premises, or cause the same to be used, maintained, and operated, in such manner as to furnish reasonable accommodations to the public; and will assume and discharge all contracts, debts, liabilities, and obligations of whatsoever kind, of the said first party, relating to said railroad and property, as they may severally mature; and that it will pay to the stockholders of said first party one hundred and seventy-five (175) dollars for each share of their said stock, upon the presentation and surrender of the certificates therefor.

And, to the end that the second party may have, hold, use, exercise, and enjoy the railroad and property and franchises of the first party, hereby conveyed and intended to be conveyed and whether now existing or hereafter acquired, as fully as might be done by the first party, if this conveyance had not been made, the first party agrees to execute from time to time any additional assignment, conveyance, or assurance, and to perform any act, which the counsel of the second party may advise; and, for the purposes aforesaid, the first party agrees, if the second party shall so desire and advise, that it will keep up and maintain its corporate existence and organization.

In Witness Whereof, the parties hereto have caused their corporate names to be hereunto subscribed by their respective Presidents, and their corporate seals to be hereto attached and attested by their respective Secretaries, the day and year first above written.

SUPPLEMENTAL AGREEMENT, November 16, 1920, City of Quincy, Illinois and Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company.

Supplemental Agreement, Made and entered into this 16th day of November, 1920, by and between the City of Quincy, a municipal corporation, created and existing under the laws of the State of Illinois, as party of the first part, and the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, a corporation, created and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Illinois, as party of the second part;

Whereas, the said above named parties did enter into a certain agreement in writing, dated the 4th day of April, 1898, relating, among other things, to the construction and maintenance by the party of the second part of a railroad bridge and wagon bridge to be connected therewith, across the Mississippi River at Quincy, Illinois; and,

Whereas, in the 9th paragraph of said contract dated April 4th, 1898, a certain schedule of rates was set forth covering tolls to be charged by said party of the second part for passage over said wagon bridge, and the parties to said contract and hereto now desire to change said schedule of rates and to amend said 9th paragraph of said contract dated April 4th, 1898, accordingly:

Now, Therefore, in consideration of the premises and of the mutual desire and agreements of the parties hereto, it is agreed as follows:

(1) That portion of the 9th paragraph of said contract dated April 4th, 1898, which provides for the toll to be charged for the passage over the wagon bridge of vehicles drawn by one animal, and vehicles drawn by two animals, shall be amended to read as follows:

For each vehicle drawn by one animal, including persons occupying same, one way.....	20¢
Same, for round trip.....	40¢
For each vehicle drawn by two animals, including persons occupying same, one way.....	25¢
Same, for round trip.....	50¢

(2) The said contract dated April 4th, 1898, shall not be affected by this supplemental agreement except to the extent that the 9th paragraph thereof is herein modified.

In Witness Whereof, the parties hereto have executed this supplemental agreement the day and year first above written.

RESOLUTION November 15, 1920 City of Quincy, Illinois

Whereas, Heretofore the City of Quincy, and the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company entered into a certain agreement in writing, dated the fourth day of April 1898, relating, among other things to the construction and maintenance by the said Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company of a railroad bridge and wagon bridge to be connected therewith, across the Mississippi River, at Quincy, Illinois, and

Whereas, In the ninth paragraph of said contract, a certain schedule of rates was set forth, covering tolls to be charged by said Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company for passage over said wagon bridge; and whereas, said schedule of rates as to vehicles drawn by one animal and as to vehicles drawn by two animals, provided the same tolls for one way and for a round trip the same day, and made no provision for the carriage of persons in such vehicles; and

Whereas, The parties to said contract now desire to change such schedule of rates and to amend and modify that portion of said ninth paragraph of said contract which provides for the tolls to be charged for the passage over the wagon bridge of vehicles drawn by one animal and vehicles drawn by two animals, so that the same shall read as follows:

For each vehicle drawn by one animal, including persons occupying same, one way.....	20¢
Same, for round trip.....	40¢
For each vehicle drawn by two animals, including persons occupying same, one way.....	25¢
Same, for round trip.....	50¢

And Whereas, The parties hereto have agreed upon such amendment and modification of said paragraph of said contract and drafted a supplemental agreement in such behalf, a copy of which is hereto attached; and

Whereas, It is to the best interest of the City of Quincy and its inhabitants that said paragraph be modified in the manner stated, and that said supplemental agreement be executed; therefore be it

Resolved, That the proposed amendment and modification of paragraph nine of the contract between the City of Quincy, and the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, above referred to, be and the same is hereby approved; and

Resolved Further, That the supplemental agreement between the City of Quincy, and the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, draft of which is hereto attached, providing for the amendment and modification of said paragraph nine of said contract of April 4, 1898, be and the same is hereby approved; and that the said supplemental contract be executed in the name of said City of Quincy, by the Mayor of said City, and attested by the City Clerk of said City, and the Corporate Seal of said City of Quincy affixed.

OTTAWA, OSWEGO AND FOX RIVER VALLEY RAILROAD COMPANY

This Company was incorporated by a Special Act of the Illinois Legislature in force August 22, 1852, and was authorized to build from Ottawa northerly to Elgin, and also from Ottawa southerly to Bloomington and beyond. It was built from Streator north to a connection with the C. B. & Q. road near Montgomery, a distance of 67.53 miles, and from a point on the C. B. & Q. near Aurora known as "Geneva Switch," northerly to West Batavia and to Geneva, a distance of 9.46 miles. That portion of the road between Geneva and West Batavia (2.16 miles) was abandoned in June, 1907.

A short southwesterly extension was built in the name of the Company, from Streator to Wenona (about 13 miles) in October, 1867, but the C. B. & Q. has never been interested in any part of the line south of Streator. Considerable work on the line north of Streator was done prior to 1869, and actual construction was undertaken in that year. The road was completed and opened for traffic to Geneva in the spring of 1871.

The original construction contract was made with one Oliver Young, of date January 20, 1869, who had assigned it to C. H. Force & Company, who in turn contracted with James F. Joy, acting for the C. B. & Q.

Legislation had been secured in Illinois, authorizing towns and cities to vote bonds in aid of railroads, and it was part of Young's contract that the Company would secure a right of way and raise $650,000 in local aid, a large part of which was done.

Force & Company agreed that the Ottawa & Oswego Company would execute a new Mortgage for $1,260,000 to secure bonds of $18,000 per mile, which Joy agreed to negotiate at eighty cents on the dollar, and thus provided means for building the road, which it was agreed the C. B. & Q. would then lease in perpetuity, and as rental would set aside forty per cent of the gross earnings with which to purchase bonds issued under the Mortgage.

The laws providing for bond issues were declared invalid, and many complications arose, all of which are fully recited in memoranda in the office of the Secretary of the C. B. & Q.

The C. B. & Q. took a lease of the road of date August 20, 1870, and a supplemental lease dated June 30, 1876.

Of date June 1, 1899, the Company made a deed in fee simple to the Burlington Company of its road and franchises, in consideration that the latter company would equip, maintain and operate the road, and pay the taxes and assume the indebtedness and issue one share of its own stock for every fifteen shares of the stock of the Ottawa Company.

ACT OF LEGISLATURE

Approved June 21, 1852.

AN ACT to incorporate the Ottawa, Oswego and Fox River Valley Railroad Company.

In force Aug. 22, 1852.

SECTION I. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That M. C. Town, George Harvey, William C. Kimball, Orsemas Wilson, Daniel S. Gray, of the county of Kane; Lewis B. Judson, Nathaniel Rising, William Noble Davis, Samuel Jackson, Samuel Roberts, John L. Clark and Johnson Mesner, of the county of Kendall; Robert Rowe, William L. F. Jones, William Sly, Daniel Blake, David Greene, George E. Walker, Theophilus L. Dickey, William H. W. Cushman, J. G. Nallinger, John Palmer, George H. Norris, of the county of La Salle, and their associates, successors and assigns, are hereby created a body corporate and politic, under the name and style of the "Ottawa, Oswego and Fox River Valley Railroad company," for the term of eighty years; and by that name may be and are hereby made capable, in law and in equity, to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, defend and be defended, in any court of law and equity in this State, or in any other place; to make, have and use a common seal, and the same to renew and alter at pleasure, and shall be and are hereby vested with all the powers, privileges and immunities which are or may be necessary to carry into effect the purpose and objects of this act, as hereinafter set forth; and the said company are hereby authorized and empowered to locate, construct and finally complete a railroad from the town of Ottawa, in La Salle county, to the town of Elgin, in Kane county, by way of the village of Oswego, in Kendall county, running along the Fox river valley, by the most direct and eligible route, having due regard to the interests of the town and village on and near to Fox river, and also from the said town of Ottawa, running in a southerly direction to any point on any railroad running northerly from Bloomington, in McLean county, or to any point on the Alton and Sangamon Railroad, or both: Provided, in case the name of the said Alton and Sangamon Railroad Company shall be changed, the new name shall apply to the provisions of this bill, and the name of said Alton and Sangamon Railroad Company as changed shall be considered and held to be its name, under the provisions of this act, and for this purpose said company are authorized, upon the most eligible and direct route, to lay out their said railroad wide enough for a single or a double track through the whole length, and for the purpose of cutting embankments, stone, and gravel, may take as much more land as may be necessary for the proper construction of and security of said railroad.

§ 2. The capital stock of said company shall consist of one million of dollars, and may be increased to two million of dollars, to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each. The immediate government and direction of said company shall be vested in eleven directors, who shall be chosen by the stockholders of said company, in the manner hereinafter provided, who shall hold their offices for one year after their election, and until others shall be duly elected and qualified to take their place as directors; and the said directors, a majority of whom shall form a quorum for the transaction of business, shall elect one of their number to be the president of the company; that said board of directors shall have power to appoint all necessary clerks, secretary and other officers necessary in the transaction of the business of said company.

§ 3. The said corporation is hereby authorized, by their agents, surveyors and engineers, to cause such examination and surveys to be made of the ground and country between the said several points and places hereinbefore indicated, as shall be necessary to determine the most advantageous route for the proper line or course wherein to construct their said railroad, and it shall be lawful for said company to enter upon and take possession of and use all such lands and real estate as may be necessary for the construction and maintenance of their said railroad: Provided, that all lands or real estate entered upon or taken possession of and used by said corporation, for the purposes and accommodations of said railroad, or upon which the site for said railroad shall have been located or determined by the said corporation, shall be paid for by said company, in damages, if any be sustained by the owner or owners thereof, by the use of the same for the purposes of said railroad; and all the lands entered upon and taken for the use of said corporation which are not donated to said company, shall be paid for by said corporation at such price as may be mutually agreed upon by the said corporation and the owner or owners of such land; and in case of disagreement the price shall be estimated, fixed and recovered, in the manner provided for taking lands for the construction of public roads, canals or other public works, as provided by the act concerning right of way, approved March 3, 1845.

§ 4. If any person shall willfully, maliciously or wantonly, and contrary to law, obstruct the passage of any car on said railroad, or any part thereof, or anything belonging thereto, or shall damage, break or destroy any part of said railroad, or implements or buildings, he, she or they, or any person assisting, shall forfeit and pay to said company, for every such offense, treble the amount of damages that shall be proved, before any competent court, shall have been sustained and been sued for in the name and in behalf of said company; and such offender or offenders shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to an indictment, in the same manner as other indictments are found; in any county or counties where such offense shall have been committed, and upon conviction, every such offender shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, for the use of the county where such indictments may be found.

§ 5. The time of holding the annual meetings of said company, for the election of the directors, shall be fixed and determined by the by-laws of said company, and at all meetings each stockholder shall be entitled to a vote, in person or by lawful proxy, one vote for each share of stock he, she or they may hold, bona fide, in said company.

§ 6. The persons named in the first section of this act are hereby appointed commissioners, who, or a majority of whom, are hereby authorized to open subscription books for said stock, at such places as they may deem proper, and shall keep said books opened until at least the sum of fifty thousand dollars of said capital stock shall be taken. Said commissioners shall require each subscriber to pay two dollars on each share subscribed, at the time of subscribing. When such amount shall have been subscribed, the said commissioners shall call a meeting of the stockholders, by giving thirty days' notice, in some newspaper in the said town of Ottawa, in La Salle county, and at such meeting it shall be lawful to elect the directors of said company, and when the directors of said company are chosen the said commissioners shall deliver said subscription book, with all sums of money received by them as commissioners, to said directors. No person shall be a director in said company except he be a stockholder.

§ 7. That the right of way and the real estate purchased for the right of way by said company, whether by mutual agreement or otherwise, or which shall become the property of the company by operation of law, as in this act provided, shall, upon the payment of the amount of money belonging to the owner or owners of said lands, as a compensation for the same, become the property of said company, in fee simple.

§ 8. The said corporation may take and transport upon said railroad any person or persons, merchandise or other property, by the force and power of steam or animals, or any combination of them, and may fix, establish, take and receive such rates of toll for all passengers and property transported upon the same, as the said directors shall from time to time establish; and the directors are hereby empowered and authorized to make all necessary rules, by-laws, regulations and ordinances that they may deem necessary and expedient to accomplish the designs and purposes, and to carry into effect the provisions of this act, and for the transfer and assignment of its stock, which is hereby declared personal property, and transferable in such a manner as shall be provided by the by-laws and ordinances of said company.

§ 9. The directors of said company, after the same is organized, shall have power to open books in the manner prescribed in the sixth section of this act, to fill up the balance of the capital stock, or any part thereof, and the amount the aforesaid company is authorized to increase the capital stock to, by the second section of this act, at such time as they may deem it for the interest of said company, and all the installments required to be paid in the stock originally to be taken, and what may be taken to increase said capital, shall be paid at such times and in such sums as said directors may prescribe.
